HASTINGS, June 9. (Examiner Correspondence).—Hastings travelled to Precious Corners on Saturday and won their third straight game in the Northumberland League by the one sided score of 15 to 3. The game only proved to be a workout for the local entry.

Precious Corners could do nothing with Scriver's curves, while Hastings pounded out hits of the best they had to offer in Dolly. The high wind robbed the boys of many a safe hit, otherwise the score would have read like box car figures. The local team are going strong and are all primed for the first invasion of Roseneath here this year on next Wednesday.

Bethel Beats Menie In Softball Tilt

(Examiner Correspondence)

BURNBRAE, June 9.—The path of Menie softball team was not exactly one of roses on Friday night when they journeyed to Bethel to meet a 9 to 8 defeat. Leading 8 to 0 at the fifth inning, a spell of errors and hard luck gave Bethel the chance to pound in 9 runs and win the game. However Menie having won from Hoard's and Springbrook still stands near the top of the heap and the encounter with Glen Ross scheduled for Wednesday of this week at Menie promises more than ordinary excitement.

BISONS SPLIT DOUBLE BILL WITH TORONTO

Leafs Win First 10-1 While Buffalo Cops Second 7-6 in Nine Inning Battle.

KEYS ALSO DIVIDE.

Red Wings Turn Back Royals in Doubleheader to Climb Into Second Place.

After beating Buffalo on Saturday, the Red Wings turned back the Montreal Royals in both ends of a double-bill yesterday and shot into second place, half a game ahead of the Royals. Baltimore got no better than an even break with Newark, but strengthened its hold on the League lead. The Orioles hold an edge of three and a half games over Rochester to-day.

The Royals lead by four to two in the firth inning of the opener but the Red Wings battered Griffin for five runs in the sixth and added another off Hartman in the eighth to win 8-4. The nightcap was a hurlers' duel between Classet of the Royals and Bob McGraw of the Red Wings. The Royals scored one run in the second but Rochester came back with two in the sixth to win 2-1.

Newark stopped Baltimore's eight-game winning streak in the first game of a double-header 4-1, but the Orioles won the nightcap 6-1. Carl Fischer held Baltimore to six hits in the first game, while the Bears bunched nine off Richmond and J. Weaver. Foster Edwards, Baltimore right hander, was invincible in the second game, giving up only two hits, one of which was Andy Cohen's home run. The Orioles collected ten hits off Lucas and Brennan, Barton getting two doubles and a single.

Buffalo split a double bill with Toronto, losing the first game, 10-1, and winning the second, 7 to 6, in a wild struggle that went nine innings instead of the scheduled seven.

The Bisons made only six hits and averted a shutout only in the ninth inning when they scored once on Moore's double and Tomlin's single. Buffalo called on five pitchers to win the second game, Tucker's single bringing in the winning run with one out.

Jersey City and Reading also split two games, both of them close. Jersey City won the opener, 3 to 2, with Moore slightly outpitching Hermann. Yordy's homer furnished the Skeeters with their one-run margin. Johnny Welch turned in a great pitching performance to win the second game for Reading, 2 to 1, in 11 innings. Welch went the route and allowed only seven hits.

APSLEY, June 9. (Examiner Correspondence)—The Apsley Red Cross committee met on Tuesday and completed arrangements for holding the fourth annual field day on the Exhibition Grounds on June 18th. Meals will be served in the Parish Hall.

The exterior of the Outpost Hospital is being painted in readiness for the day. The old sign is being re-lettered free of charge by J. J. Turner & Sons of Peterborough, and a vote of thanks to the firs for this kindly act was passed at Tuesday's meeting.

Mrs. Charles Hawkes was in Peterborough last week attending the banquet of the Peterborough branch of Queen's Alumni held at the Empress Hotel on May 31st. Mrs. Hawkes is a graduate of Queens University class of '98.

Mrs. Paul Gardner of Toronto was visiting his father, Rev. E. W. Gardner at Lasswade for a few days last week.

Mr Roy Spence of the C.N.R. telegraph, spent the week-end in Apsley with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Spence.

A big bush fire is raging north of Bancroft and yesterday all the men and equipment from the Forestry Branch in Apsley left to help fight it.

A severe thunderstorm with very heavy rain broke over Apsley at 8.30 which, if it extends as far as Bancroft will effectually quench the fire.

SCOTTISH BEATEN BY KILMARNOCK 3-0

TORONTO, June 9.—Exemplifying greater consistency in all departments, Kilmarnock, last year's Scottish Cup holders, found little difficulty in taking the measure of Toronto Scottish in a comparatively leisurely soccer match at Ulster Stadium on Saturday afternoon, the score being 3-0.

After the first ten minutes, it was evident that the Toronto Scottish attack were to have no easy task in breaking through the Killie defence, which was fearless and unwavering. Indeed, one of the outstanding features of the game was the brilliance of Nibloe, the Kilmarnock left back, who more than justified the distinction of being a Scottish internationalist. He cleared from any angle, kicked cleanly, and placed to perfection.

MONTANARO WINS; SIR HARRY SECOND

Former Leads All the Way in Royal York Handicap Race.

TORONTO, June 9.—Making every post a winning one, Montanaro, owned by H. C. Hatch, won the Royal York Handicap, feature event at Long Branch, on Saturday afternoon. In previous starts Montanaro had failed to whip horses like Son o' Battle and Black Diamond, but on this occasion he had his "inning." Verlyn Smith, who also rode Footmark to victory in the opening race on the card, handled Montanaro superbly and always had him far in advance of the field.

Sir Harry, the Seagram Stable star, was never worse than third and just got up there in time to beat Butter John by a head to take place money, but he was two and a half lengths behind Montanaro. Beau of the West finished fourth, Black Diamond fifth and Shoreline sixth after being pulled up.

FOSTER UNLUCKY.

Packers Unfortunate Around Goal—C.G.E. Defense Solid.

The soccer fans were treated to a good ninety minute battle for the local league points on Saturday afternoon, when the Canadian General gained the narrow margin of two goals against the Canadian Packing after a hotly contested game, before a good attendance, on King Edward Park. McMaster brothers providing the count for the winners, and Daynes in goal holding the Packers scoreless by his brilliant display in goal. Rickard, C.P.C. goal-keeper, had no chance to stop the shots scored. Both teams have lost one and won one. C.P.C. were champions last season.

The spin of the coin went against the Canadian General which left Captain Buchan the choice of kicking with the wind in his favor. A move on the C.G.E. right almost brought disaster to the Packers when Burgess lobbed the sphere across the goal, Wade picking the ball off the toe of the C.G.E. centre forward. At the other end, Downer travelled right along the wing to make an accurate centre that Beggs tested the custodion with a rising shot at close range. Back came the Electrics to make headway into the loser's territory, but the full back's anticipation of the move resulted in a perfect clearance.

It was battle all the way between the forward and the defence on each team. The halves were giving no allowance to the fronk rank to settle down; therefore it terminated in close tackling whenever a proposed opening was initiated on the wings. In fact, Beggs made his presence known by harassing the defence for the next ten minutes and he was unfortunate in not counting through some of his efforts.

Give and take was the run of play for a while, until Jack McMaster started swinging the ball to open up the attack which proved beneficial to his wing men. Burgess in particular being prominent with his clever tackling while in possession of the ball, then shooting it into the goal-mouth to cause scrimmage after scrimmage to the discomfort of Wade and Downer on the defence. Eventually by swinging the ball from wing to wing, the C.G.E. took advantage of the change to allow Burgess the opening he was looking for and Benny McMaster, meeting the ball with a left footer that went along the ground into the net.

Packers Lead in Shots

Peppery exchanges continued for a while, with the Packers dominating in the attacking department, to range a barrage of shots at Daynes in goal, who had a busy session saving all kinds of attempts to break down the barrier of Grant and Blowers. A shot from Bromley had them guessing as it dropped into the goal. The full back heading clear off Beggs' head. It was a perfect understanding that allowed Daynes the chance to show his ability when he ran out of his charge to punch the ball off Blowers' head while Beggs was awaiting the outcome. Then the clever touch by Willshaw to put the ball in the net was diverted over the bar by Blowers as he lifted it over his head. The resultant flag-pick only brought a melee in front of Daynes, who kicked clear. The C.G.E. full backs with the precision of clearances aiding them to punt upfield, head over the attacking forwards, then pass out to their halves, resulted in the Packers' forwards being compelled to shoot from far out, otherwise they found themselves in the unfortunate predicament of offsides. Three minutes from the interval, the McMaster brothers broke through the defence to leave Keill in possession about ten yards out, who forced Rickard to fling himself up in the air to save his charge; then he made two specatcular saves to hold the C.G.E. at the same count. Canadian General 1, Canadian Packing 0.

C.G.E. started well with a raid on the Packers' goal to witness B. McMaster miss an opening to score when well placed in front of goal, but his parting shot went skyward. Quicker than it takes to write, the Packers divulged a hidden strength when they took the upper hand of the game with forceful tactics that had the whole of the winners' men on the defense line in an effort to stave off the onslaught.

Deserved to Score

Downer, on the wing, gave up in his attempt to penetrate the solid wall of defensive clearances and time and again he shot at Daynes to try and get the equalizer. Then he drew the full backs towards him in the corner and landed the ball at Foster's foot, who banged it over the bar at five yards' range. Two flag kicks then caused a lot of excitement as the C.G.E. custodian picked the ball off Beggs' head to save a tally; then a few seconds later, the same player bored his way through the barrier to send a low grounder into the side of the net, but Daynes threw himself at the object to receive hearty congratulations for such brilliant saving. For the next twenty minutes the Packers held the situation at their own will but could not get any reward for their labors because the C.G.I. held on tenaciously to the one goal lead. Never giving themselves a rest, the winners grasped the momentary lull in the attack to get the deciding factor at that moment when Darling carried the ball down into the vicinity of Rickard, who picked up a low grounder at the side of the post.

Buchan transferred the play into the centre where Jack McMaster gained possession in a tackle and he sent Burgess away on the wing. The outside man beat it along the wing, into the corner, with two men accompanying him to stop his progress, but he outwitted them nicely to place the sphere at the foot of McMaster, who had made it a first timer to land in the back of the net. This unexpected tally took some of the pep out of the losers, who thereafter concentrated in preventing the winners from adding any more to their count. The feeling of animosity crept in near the end between two players which was cultivated not only by themselves but by other players, who encouraged them to do otherwise, but nothing detrimental broke out to the dissatisfaction of the contestants. Canadian General 2, Canadian Packing 0.

Goal scorers—Ben McMaster and Jack McMaster.

C.G.E.—J. Daynes, goal; G. Blowers and D. Grant, full backs; S. Laidler, W. Robb and R. Carmichael, halves; A. Burgess, S. Keill, B. McMaster, J. McMaster and H. Darling, forwards.

C.P.C.—W. Rickard, goal; F. Wade and J. Downer, full backs; R. Nicholls, J. Buchan and A. Bromley, halves; N. Downer, J. Willshaw, A. Beggs, T. Foster and T. Williams, forwards.

Referee—James Hawthorne.

An Elephant's Best Friend is the Boy

A boy's best friend is said to be his dog, but an elephant's best friend is a boy. And around a circus the wise old elephants know this and seemingly appreciate it. With the Big Sells Floto Circus, to be seen in Peterboro, Friday, June 13, there are five herds of the big fellows and each member of that mammoth army loses no time in making friends among the youngsters in each city, oftimes picking his particular crony for that special day and keeping his big alert eye on his small chum's movements all during his visit.

Flying Frank Wykoff Breaks Century Mark

CHICAGO, Ills., June 9.—(C. P.)—Flying Frank Wykoff of the University of Southern California has won the race he wanted most to win to be no reason why he should not be—in world record time—and there appears universally recognized as the first man to run 100 yards in 9 2-5 sec.

When Wyckoff defeated George Simpson of Ohio State in the century event of the National Collegiate Athletic Association championships on Stagg Field Saturday, he realized his biggest desire.

Major John L. Griffith, Big Ten athletic commissioner and member of the meet committee said there was nothing to prevent recognition of Wykoff's great performance as the world standard.

LOCAL YACHTSMAN IN SECOND PLACE

Reg Dixon Among Leaders in R.C.Y.C. "A" Race—Gliddon in Class "B."

TORONTO, June 9. — Fourteen dinghies responded to the starting gun for Classes "A" and "B" at the Royal Canadian Yacht Club on Saturday afternoon. A strong northwest wind made things interesting for the contestants and it is not surprising that one of them came to grief at the city buoy.

The course had all buoys to starboard with the windward leg from the Queen City buoy to Center Island. The start was therefore to windward with the boats getting away on a starboard tack.

The first flag found, one of them sailed over too soon and was disqualified. Three boats in Class "A" had broken away from the rest of the fleet. There were: Rogers, Reg Dixon and Atwell Fleming. Down wind Fleming worked out a lead carrying one reef in his sail.

At the end of the first round these three boats were again together at the Queen City flag. The second lap found the boats in pretty much the same order with the leads extended somewhat. In the jibe at the city buoy Les Scott's dinghy upset. His sail "hesitated" when half-way over and then his boat put its port bow under. He explained that the sheets were all clear and the cause of the mishap was rather mysterious.

The windward start eliminated a lot of fouls, although even at that some of the boats were seen ragging their sails on the line just before the gun, drifting back toward those behind them.

Class "A."

1, A. Fleming; 2, Reg Dixon; 3, Hynes-Leonard; 4, Kelly-Long; 5, Cyril Clark; 6, Jim Hyland; Swan Bennett (dropped out); Les Scott (capsized); Rogers (disqualified).

Class "B"

1, Otto Glidden; 2, Fraser Wilson; 3, Macdonnell Brothers; 4, F. E. Case; Harvey Bongard (fouled a buoy).

TENNIS SEASON IS OFFICIALLY OPENED

Several Couples Take Part in Play at New Bowling Club.

The tennis section of the Lawn Bowling club opened the season last Saturday afternoon with a very successful mixed doubles round robin tournament. Play was enthusiastic and keen. The entries were so numerous that it was impossible to finish the schedule and declare a winner, but Tom Gilchrist and Miss Beatrice Wilson turned in a good score. Bill Cruthers and Miss Sedgwick also did well. The following couples took part in the play:

D. A. McTavish and Mrs. Langley.
F. R. J. Mansbridge and Mrs. Cruthers.
D. V. Canning and Mrs. Cranfield.
W. M. Cruthers and Miss Sedgwick.
J. D. Crasier and Miss Kay.

WYER FIRST IN CANUCK CLASSIC

Grizzled Veteran Lopes From 17th Place at Half-way Mark to Lead Runners.

CUTHBERT SECOND.

TORONTO, Ont., June 8. (C.P.)—Coming from behind with an easy mechanical like stride that carried him from 17th place at the half way mark to the front at the 22 mile mark, Percy Wyer, grizzled veteran of numerous marathons in various parts of the country, Saturday won the second annual National Canadian marathon staged by the Monarch Athletic club over a gruelling 26-mile route.

The smallest competitor of the 54 that started the long grind, Wyer's victory was all the more spectacular by reason of the fact he never seemed within striking distance of the leadership until the last five miles. Johnny Cuthbert, representing Guelph, home of other famous marathon champions, finished second one-half mile behind the winner, and about that distance in front of Joe Pearson, Toronto, who captured third place from Norman Dack of the Hamilton Olympic Club. G. Routsalainen, Montreal, fished fifth.

Wyer's fine victory assures him of a place on the team to represent Canada at the British Empire games in Hamilton in August.

Athletes from Hamilton completely dominated the limelight in the running of the various events staged while the marathoners were completing their 26 mile journey.

Two youthful Indians, Miles Isaacs and Norman Lickers from the Mohawk Indian reserve at Brantford, won the admiration of critics and fans alike in the three mile run for boys under 18 years. The former won while Lickers was second.

A feature of the women's events was the fine come-back of Rosa Grosse O'Neil, one time champion Canadian woman sprinter, she won the 100 yard girls' open final quite easily from Agnes Morris, Hamilton.

GALLANT FOX ADDS TO GREAT RECORD

Sande Pilots Woodward Horse to Victory Over Whichone.

BELMONT PARK, N. Y., June 9.—Gallant Fox with the bruised and bandaged Earle Sande in the saddle answered the challenge to their greatness yesterday by scoring a smashing triumph in the rich Belmont Stakes and capturing the three-year-old championship of the American turf beyond the palest shadow of a doubt.

This was the big test for William Woodward's big bay son of Sir Gallahad III, and Gallant Fox met it by running the legs of Harry Payne Whitney's famous Whichone, the favorite, in a finish that was startlingly decisive in every respect.

The Fox and Sande outsmarted and outran the star of the Whitney stable to win by four good lengths in a common gallop.

Only four horses ran in the rain that spoiled an otherwise colorful scene, but the Fox galloped through it as comfortably as he did in the Kentucky Derby a few weeks ago.

James Butler's Questionnaire was third, eight lengths back of the Fox, and W. J. Salmon's Swinfield fourth, thirteen lengths behind the winner.

FRED FRAME SETS NEW AUTO RECORD

California Driver Lowers Ralph De Palma's Canadian Mark.

TORONTO, June 9.—Saturday's automobile races at Exhibition Park were marked by the establishment of a new local—as well as Canadian—record for the half-mile unbanked dirt tracks, when Fred Frame, the brilliant Californian, hurled his Miller Special racing car around the local track in 28 4-5 seconds, to break the record, which had been held for years by the veteran, Ralph DePalma, who was also a competitor in Saturday's events.

The early trials and warm-ups of the various drivers who participated in Saturday's events were indicative of the fact that record-breaking performances were in the offing. As Frame, Albertson, Robinson and Schurch took their cars on the track for their practice period, the timers got their watches into action and informed officials that even the trial spins were faster than the former record for the course.

GUS EDWARDS' REVUE

UNDER THE FLEUR DE LYS
By JIM HAWTHORNE

Being a collection of Scout miscellany. Extracts from the Piper of Pax, the official life story of Lord Baden Powell, by E. K. Wade. Extracts (5). The Seige and Defence of Mafeking.

In the year 1899, B.P., then in England, was sent post haste to South Africa with certain definite instructions. Trouble was brewing and the British Government were taking every precaution against a possible conflagration. The events that led up to the outbreak of war are of little concern so far as our present story is concerned; details can be found in the book itself or in any good history book. Suffice it to say that for two months B.P. was mobilising or more correctly collecting his men in South Africa. Matters reached a head and war was declared in October 1899. Our Chief as commander of the Frontier Forces issued his proclamation of war from the town of Mafeking which he had made his headquarters. Meanwhile Peumer had established himself with the northern column of forces at Tule. B.P. now saw that he was likely to be cut off from the outside world and telegraphed to Peumer that in the event of communications being cut he was to assume command of all forces in Rhodesia, with the object of threatening the Northern Transvaal, while he, B.P., would do the same with Mafeking, the essential aim being to join hands and work together again when the opportunity arose.

Thus, on the 13th October, B.P. and his gallant force found themselves besieged in Mafeking with enough supplies to last the protectorate force four months. Headquarters were established at Dixon's Hotel in the market square at Mafeking. For artillery B.P. had one-pounder Hotchkiss and four miserable little seven pounders, two of them very old, deficient of sights and mounted on rickety carriages. These two "pop guns" had been sent up from the Cape in answer to his request for modern artillery. He also had seven machine guns one of which was an old one.

His men consisted of approximately 1000 irregular white troops, 465 of which were untrained, and 468 armed natives. Opposed to this mere handful were four strong Boer commanders, with a total of nearly 9,500 armed Burkhurs, who had with them at least seven modern field guns and nine maxims (machine guns). On October 13 the garrison had their first scrap with the Boers. On the 16th the first shrapnel shell was fired into the town. From that time on, during the whole seven months of the seige Mafeking was bombarded daily with the exception of Sunday's, which was recognized as a "dies non" by both sides. That same afternoon at 2.15 a flag of truce came in from the Boers to ask if we would surrender to avoid further bloodshed. To this B.P. sent back the simple answer "Why?"

Pretty soon the water supply was cut off by the Boers but B.P. was ready; two wells were sunk and the difficulty overcome. Extracts from B.P.'s diary at that period reveal the fact that he was in their dangerous hours, just as optimistic and as "funny" as in the greatest hour of barrack life. Humorous references are numerous, such as the building of the sham fort to draw the enemy fire "for exclusive use of the enemy."

At the end of the month B.P. reported that the enemy shelling had done little damage to the town, but that the perpetual hum of the mauser rifle bullet was getting on people's nerves.

And so it goes on, a record of a daily bombardment, of move and counter move, of ruse after ruse to deceive the enemy, of horse and beef and soup kitchens. By the end of November "it was estimated that the stock of native food would last until December 15. The food for the whites was estimated to last three months. December started quietly, and by the 18th the total number of casualties were 125, of which 23 were killed.

Christmas Day, December 25, 1899, by tacit consent of both parties no shots were fired, and both sides kept Christmas Day as a holiday.

More of the defence of Mafeking next week.

FIFTH PETERBOROUGH TROOP

Boys of the Fifth Peterborough Scout Troop, who are to spend the week-end under canvas at McCracken's Landing left the city at six o'clock last evening under Scoutmaster H. G. E. Choate.

This is the first camp of the season, and complete arrangements have been concluded to ensure the comfort of the boys, who will be housed in three tents. One of the tents, which will presumably be used for dining in, is 14 by 18 feet, while the other two are 12 by 14 feet. Dunnage, including blankets and other equipment was sent to the camp site Friday morning, in charge of the advance party under A.S.M. William Barry, who will have everything shipshape towards the boys arrival.

The camp which is situated on the hill in close proximity to the Landing commands a wonderful vista of the surrounding territory, and provides an ideal camping ground.

About twenty-four boys will proceed to the camp and transportation arrangements have been concluded. Four cars will be used, one of which has been placed at the disposal of the troop by the Kiwanis Club.

A BEDTIME STORY

by Howard R. Garis

UNCLE WIGGILY'S LITTLE HOPPERS.

The Bob Cat was running along a path through the woods, mewing and mowing to himself, over and over again and saying:

"I'll fix him! I'll fix him!"

"Fix who?" asked the Fuzzy Fox popping his head out from a sassafras bush behind which he was hiding.

"I'm going to fix Uncle Wiggily for tangling me all up in a red ribbon from his May pole dance!" snarled the Bob Cat. "He tangled me all up in the end of his ribbon and then called the Police Dog and had me arrested. Why, I only just got out of jail!"

"So they put you in jail, did they?" chuckled the Fox.

"They did! But it isn't anything to laugh at!" snapped the Bob Cat. "And I didn't do anything at all to Uncle Wiggily."

"You didn't?" exclaimed the Fox.

"No, I didn't! Of course, I was going to bite him if I got the chance, but I didn't get it. That old rabbit tangled me up in his red May pole ribbon and the Police Dog took me away before I could do anything. But I'll fix him! I'll fix Uncle Wiggily!"

The Bob Cat began picking up stones and putting them in a cloth salt bag which he took from his pocket.

"What's the idea?" asked the Fox.

"I'm going to fix Uncle Wiggily with these stones," mewed the Bob Cat, trying to wag his silly little tail which he couldn't do as it was so short. "You see," went on the Bad Chap, "Uncle Wiggily always manages to get away or fool me. But if I have a bag of stones, the next time I catch him and he tries to get away, I can throw stones at him and bang him on his pink nose and then I'll catch him again."

The Bob Cat began picking up stones.

"A good trick—if it works!" chuckled the Fox.

"Oh, I'll make it work all right!" snarled the Bob Cat. Then he kept on putting stones in his bag until it was full while the Fox went to sleep behind the sassafras bush.

Now it was about this time that Uncle Wiggily started out from his hollow stump bungalow to have an adventure. The old rabbit gentleman was at his front gate when Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy called:

"Oh, Uncle Wiggily, will you please bring me back some lemons from the store. Here is an empty salt bag so you may easily carry them."

"Thanks," spoke the rabbit gentleman as he put the empty salt bag in his pocket and hopped off through the woods. He had not gone very far before he saw a lot of little frogs hopping around on the ground.

"Ah, my jolly little hoppers," said Uncle Wiggily. "You seem very happy to-day, skipping around. Are you playing leap frog?"

"No, Uncle Wiggily, we aren't," said one of the hoppers. "The puddle of water where we have been living is all dried up and we are looking for a new puddle. That's why we are hopping. Without water we frogs cannot live a happy life. But we can't seem to find another puddle. Everything is so dry."

"Perhaps I can help you," said Uncle Wiggily. "I live near a duck pond that never dires up. If you like, I will take you there. I'm sure the ducks will let you splash in their pond."

"Oh, how lovely!" croaked the little frog hoppers. "But isn't the duck pond a long way from here?"

"It is," Uncle Wiggily said, "but that need not matter. I will put you little hoppers in my empty salt bag and carry you to the duck pond. Jump in!" So the frogs jumped into the salt bag, Uncle Wiggily slung it over his shoulder and started for the duck pond.

"Be careful, Uncle Wiggily!" cawed the Crow. "At the next corner the Bob Cat is waiting for you with a bag of stones to throw at you."

"Is he? Thank you, I shall be careful!" whispered the rabbit with the bag of frog hoppers on his back. Going along on his tip toes, Uncle Wiggily reached the corner, where there was a big rock. Looking around the edge of it, Mr. Longears saw the Bob Cat asleep, the bad chap having become tired of waiting for the rabbit. Beside the Bob Cat was the bag of stones.

"Listen, little frogs," whispered Uncle Wiggily to the hoppers in his bag. "I am going to play a trick on the Bob Cat. I am going to take away his bag of stones as he sleeps and put my bag in its place. When he wakes up and sees me and opens my bag, thinking it is his bag, all of you frogs can hop out for the duck pond is just over the hill."

So it happened that way, Uncle Wiggily took away the bag of stones from beside the sleeping Bob Cat and left the bag of frogs. Then, standing on the path near the sleeping Bad Chap Uncle Wiggily called:

"Whoo-oo! Whoo-oo!" Up jumped the Bob Cat mewing:

"I'll fix you!" He opened the bag, thinking to get some stones to throw, but as soon as the bag was open out hopped the little frogs as fast as they could hop, skipping this way and that so the Bob Cat didn't know what to think to see his stones coming suddenly to life in this way.

"Ha! Ha! Ha!" laughed Uncle Wiggily as he ran safely home.

The Bob Cat was so excited he tried to bite his own tail as the frogs hopped over the hill to the duck pond.

Gas On Stomach Hated To See Meal Time Coming

Mrs. B. Lesnick, Fort William, Ont., writes:—"My husband suffered with a bad stomach; could not eat at all, but on using four bottles of he is feeling a different man altogether.

"I, myself, was terribly bothered with gas on my stomach which kept me awake, night after night, and I hated to see meal time coming, so I tried the B.B.B. too, and now I can eat what I like."

DIVORCE COURT TO BE OPPOSED

General Assembly Will Ask Ontario Legislature to Take Anti-Divorce Action.

MODERATOR'S SERMON.

HAMILTON, June 9.—A blow will be struck against the divorce evil in Ontario by the Presbyterian Church, if, in a debate expected the current sessions this week, the General Assembly upholds a resolution presented to it on Saturday.

Following the recommendation from the Synod of Toronto and Kingston that " a definite pronouncement on the whole subject is both necessary and timely," the following resolution was read by Rev. Dr. W. S. MacTavish of Belleville, in that Presbytery:

"That there has been much discussion throughout the Dominion on this subject and that Federal Parliament, enacted that divorce courts may be established within that Province;

"The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, believing that the establishing of such courts would tend to make the dissolution of the marriage tie more easy, and consequently increase the number of divorces granted; and believing also that divorce tends to embitter life, to destroy civilization, to deprive children of their rights, and to rob the home of its sanctity;

Against Re-Marriage

"Therefore the General Assembly would humbly petition the Legislature of Ontario to enact legislation making it illegal for any issuer of marriage licenses to grant a license to a divorced person, so long as the other party to the original marriage contract is still living, unless the divorce was granted on scriptural grounds."

"Although many of the Commissioners were apparently eager at once to launch into an open discussion of the resolution and of the entire divorce question, it was decided to submit the resolution to a committee, which could bring it back to the Assembly at some later sederunt of the current sessions in Knox Chuch.

Moderator's Sermon

The first sermon of the Moderator, Rev. Dr. Frank Baird of Pictou, N.S., since his election to that office, was delivered last night at St. Paul's Church, with the minister, Rev. Dr. D. R. Drummond, assisting.

The Moderator's text was: "And Gehazi passed on before, and laid the staff upon the face of the child; but there was neither voice nor hearing." His subject was: "The Failure of Religion by Proxy."

"It is not the way of God to work miracles through defective agents," began Dr. Baird, "or to make men think they can reap where they have not sown. Elisha had come to have great confidence in his staff. He therefore sent it by his servant with instructions to lay it on the face of the dead child. He evidently expected a miracle, but he had fallen into error.

"The staff's failure to raise the dead," the preacher continued, "showed that long-range, 'in absentia' methods are futile in the sight of the Lord. Gehazi was an incipient reprobate. The hands must be clean that carry the vessels of the Lord. All workers in the Church must realize that they cannot do Abraham's work unless they are Abraham's children."

BUSINESS MAN'S GRATITUDE

Says Kruschen has kept him fit for sixteen years

RHEUMATISM BANISHED

Here is a business man who, having read letters in the papers from other people regarding Kruschen Salts, wants to know if anyone can beat his own experience. It is worth telling, so we give it here—just as he wrote it down.

"In 1912 I had a severe attack of Rheumatic Fever. After six weeks my doctor and a specialist gave up hope of my recovery. A friend suggested Kruschen if I wanted to keep Rheumatism away in future. I bought my first bottle, and kept up the 'little daily dose' until the second year of the War, when I thought my system was thoroughly rid of the acid. I stopped taking it. Within a fortnight I was almost double with Rheumatic pains again (showing that I needed to counteract the acid in my system). Back I flew to Kruschen, and from that day to this I never missed a dose first thing every morning. The result? Never the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain. Being a traveller I am out in all weathers, and I can claim to work hard and fast, and to retain my constant buoyant spirits, thanks to my old friend Kruschen, who has, in very truth, 'kept me going' for 16 years."

If you wonder how Kruschen can achieve all that this enthusiastic user claims for it, you should first of all realise that Kruschen is a perfect blend of 6 natural mineral salts which we all need every day (1) to help keep liver and kidneys to perform their natural duties in a natural way; (2) to clear away gently but completely all the poisonous waste matter that has been clogging the system; (3) to purify the blood. The analysis is on the bottle. There are Sodium and Magnesium to stimulate the organs of elimination. To feed your tissues, there's the tonic Potassium. Each "little daily dose" is a full day's supply of these six vital salts; just the right amount to keep your body and mind tuned up to a pitch of real constant fitness.

Kruschen Salts is obtainable at all Drug Stores at 45c. and 75c. per bottle, and is manufactured by E. Griffiths Hughes, Ltd., Manchester, Eng. (Established 1756). Importers: McGillivray Bros., Ltd., Toronto.

ENDS PILES QUICK

No Salves or Cutting

Piles are caused by congestion of blood in the lower bowel. Only an internal medicine can remove the cause. That's why salves and cutting fail. HEM-ROID, the prescription of Dr. J. S. Leonhardt, removes this congestion and strengthens the affected parts.

HEM-ROID is now sold by druggists everywhere, and has such a wonderful record of success even in chronic and stubborn cases that McDermid & Jury, Bond's Drug Store invites every Pile sufferer to try HEM-ROID and guarantees money-back if it does not end all Pile misery.

Greenhurst Pavilion Is Officially Opened

Mowry-Steers and Their Silver Collegians Engaged as Dance Band For Season.

DUNSFORD, June 9.—(Examiner Correspondence).— T. H. Stinson, K.C., M.P., of Lindsay, officially opened Martin Thurston's newly-erected dance pavilion at Greenhurst Park on Tuesday evening.

Mowry-Steers and their Silver Collegians, of Peterborough, provided music for dancing. The new building is a two story structure the outside dimensions of which are 56 by 80 feet. The dance floor is 36 feet by 80 feet and is located upstairs, with spacious verandas on each side to provide standing room for onlookers.

The soda fountain is located on the first floor. There is also a store where cottagers and tourists may obtain supplies and the living quarters of the owner are situated here. There is an excellent lighting system and the decorations are very artistic, indeed.

PLEASING PROGRAM SOCIETY MEETING

St. James' Ladies' Aid Holds Opening Meeting of Summer Series.

Beginning the summer meetings of St. James Ladies' Aid, the first was held on Friday evening in the Sunday School Auditorium, when a varied and highly entertaining program was presented to a large attendance, with Mrs. W. D. Sargent, 1h president presiding.

The fact that a large part of the program was provided by little children was a novelty which every one found very agreeable, and reflected credit upon the program committee of which Mrs. H. Turner is convenor.

Miss Eileen Schoales gave as the initial number a suggestively realistic reading entitled "Ears" which called for an encore "He was there and so was I".

A delightful vocal solo "Somewhere a voice is calling" was sung by Miss Helen Barrie, with Jack Willis accompanying at the piano. Miss Barrie responded to the sincere applause with "Mighty lak a rose."

Fair little Betty Irwine took her audience by storm, in her sweet rendering of a group of songs—"Over the hill to Grandmother's" and "If I had a moving picture of you" giving as encores "Tip toe through the tulips" and "Sweetness" Miss Isobel Middleton accompanied the four-year-old songstress.

Miss Ruth Irvine gave two very humorous readings "She powdered her nose" and "The youngest in the family" each calling for an encore. "The delusion of ghosts" and "Mary Ann."

"The little brown owl" (Wilfred Sanderson)was sung in charming voice by Mrs. Elmer Frost. Miss Aileen Rose was the accompanist.

A pleasant surprise number on the program was a presentation by St. James' Ladies Aid to Mrs. J. H. Dudgeon, who leaves shortly to reside in London, Ontario.

An address showing how warm a place Mrs. Dudgeon has won in the hearts of the members of the Society was read by Mrs. Roberts, while Mrs. Fry presented the gift, a silver mounted comport set. Mrs. Dudgeon thanked the ladies for their loving expression of kindness to her, in words of sincere appreciation.

An especially appropriate number was the duett "Where they never say good-bye" sweetly sung by Misses Annie and Helen Payne.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Roberts and her committee, when a friendly social hour was enjoyed, after which the hymn "God be with you" brought this very successful evening to a close.

ADVANCE FASHIONS.

The cynosure of all eyes, a young lady was seen walking unconcernedly and composedly along one of the principal thoroughfares of the city on Sunday afternoon attired in a dress, the skirts of which were barely trailing the ground. In sharp contrast her companion wore the much criticised though more familiar, knee-length skirt.

ROOM FOR SUSPICION

An almost deserted street at two o'clock in the morning, provided the stage for the enactment of a little comedy in which the principal actors were two milk vendors and two citizens.

Conversing on the street corner the latter noted the progress of a milk wagon, which came to a stop a few feet away, while the driver made his delivery. Wishing to admire the horse at closer quarters the conversationalists edged along the pavement and greeted the driver with a friendly salutation as he made his way across the street. Instead of responding in the same spirit, he exclaimed, "What's the idea." His agitation seemed very real and as he reached the step of the rig, he urged his horse into a gallop and disappeared around a nearby corner. Apparently he had thought a hold-up was about to be staged and on reflection the man was justified in his unfriendly attitude to two strangers, whose unusual curiosity prompted them to stop and admire his hore at such an unearthly hour.

SPEEDY ACTION

The City Fire Department made one run over the week-end to 484 Weller street, where a fire had broken out in the attic. Alarms were rung in at 6.35 p.m. from Box 36 and by telephone, causing the whole outfit to make speedy response. The blaze which did not have a chance to gain headway was doubted with the aid of two small chemicals and one 35-gallon extinguisher. The damage which was slight was confined mainly to the roof.

PREPARE FOR CONCRETE BASE

The Warren Bituminous Paving Company commenced operations on Queen street this morning in readiness for the five-inch base of concrete on which is to be laid a two-inch surface of Bithulithic Paving. Literally eating up the road, a huge steam shovel is in commission to remove approximately 200 cubic yards of gravel on this stretch of roadway, and according to the progress made in the first three hours, it is safe to say that it will have completed the work by this evening.

BANK CLERKS SENT TO REFORMATORY

Conservatives Favor National Highway

St. Lawrence Seaway Project Is Approved By Hon R.B. Bennett

LEADER PLEDGED PARTY TO FOSTER AND SUPPORT PLAN GREATER EMPIRE TRADE BASED ON MUTUAL ADVANTAGE

Questions the Action of the Government in Respect to British Preference Changes Effected in the Recent Budget—Is it Just an Empty Jest He Asks.

(B Thomas Green Canadian Press Staff Correspondent)

WINNIPEG, Man., June 10.—Surrounded by Conservative stalwarts of the province, Hon. R. B. Bennett, Federal leader, inaugurated his election campaign tour here last night with a declaration of his party's policy—a policy of protection for Canadians in the development of Canada's national resources, its agricultural and industrial life and its consumers from exploitation.

Condemnation of the fiscal policy of the King administration and a discussion of Empire trade formed a considerable portion of the Conservative leader's address. He claimed the future of Canada rested upon the upbuilding of the Dominion and there should be no treaty for Empire trade which did not properly safeguard the agricultural, industrial and other workers of Canada.

Greater Empire Trade

"We pledge ourselves to foster and support a plan for greater Empire trade based on mutual advantage", was the declaration of Mr. Bennett in summarizing his election platform, on Empire trade.

"Sound partnership is founded on mutuality of interest; good business is predicated on reciprocal benefits", he asserted, "and this is the basis upon which Great Britain desires to engage with Canada and the other Dominions in the matter of Empire trade.

What she wants is what we want, broader areas of trade".

Mr. Bennett said competent statesmen would deal with the necessities of their own countries, "My business is to look after the people of Canada. My concern must always be for the unemployed in Canada and not in Britain or anywhere else".

He questioned the action of the Government in respect to British preference changes effected in the recent Budget. He had great hopes for the Imperial Economic Conference at London in September, but he demanded to know "What right had the Government to imperil by this premature, unreasoned action, the success of that conference when our Canadian representatives met for negotiation with those from all parts of the Empire."

Destroy Hopes of Empire Trade

"Unless, as I say, his is just an empty gesture—and they claim it is not—the Government certainly has not thought either of Canada or the Empire, for a movement such as this hysterically inspired by party exigencies, if not stopped in time, must

KING OF RUMANIA STRIKES QUICKLY AGAINST ENEMIES

Takes No Action Against Those Who Worked Against Him During Exile.

ORDERS 20,000 PARDONED.

Resigned Peasant Premier Hopeful of Forming New Cabinet.

BUCHAREST, Rumania, June 10.—(C.P.)—King Carol professed today to have forgotten the activities of political enemies against him while he was in French exile, but he moved quickly to punish those of his enemies who committeed new offenses.

Upon learnng that Dr. C. Angelescu, who was Minister of Education in the last Liberal Cabinet of M. V. and J. Bratianu had spoken disrespectfully of him at a Liberal meeting yesterday, he ordered him prosecuted immediately.

Mayor and Minister Punished

Dr. Kostinescu, Mayor of Bucharest, and Dr. Demetrescu Braila., former Minister of Health, were ordered prosecuted likewise for similar offenses. Their party, named Liberal, but actually ultra-Conservative, was said to have voted yesterday not to support the Monarchy, although not suggesting revolution.

In contrast to the moves to suppress objectionable political enmity, King Carol ordered all charges of a pardonable nature—both political and growing out of temper caused by extreme distress—against 20,000 persons still accountable for military offenses during the world war, be quashed. All acts and ordinances promulgated during the reign of the boy-King Michael Carol's son were confirmed.

RUM RUNNER DROWNED WHILE SMUGGLING ALE

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y., June 10.—(C.P.)—Possibility that another man had lost his life in the Niagara river while smuggling a boat load of ale across the International boundary was seen to-day as officials tried to identify the body of a man found in the river near North Tonawanda late yesterday.

Roman Pridomerski, 19, of Buffalo, drowned within sight of his goal two weeks ago when his row boat, heavily loaded with Canadian ale, capsized while men waited on shore to help him unload. His death started a widespread investigation by Federal authorities and three men were arrested on charges of conspiracy to violate the tariff laws. Young Pridomerski's body was not found.

Imports of Canadian produce totalled $36,338,592 in April as against $40,394,781 during the corresponding period in 1929.

WAR IS PLANNED ON CANNED MUSIC

35TH ANNUAL MEET.

BOSTON, Mass., June 10 (Canadian Press). — The music lover and not the musician should lead the fight against mechanical music, Joseph M. Weber told the delegates to the 35th annual convention of the American Federation of Musicians which opened here yesterday. He was joined in his opinion by Matthew Woll, vice-president of the American Federation of Labor.

Weber's statement was made after Judge William Day had advocated the boycotting of "canned music." Weber spoke later and said, "We have received some advice as to how we may prevail in our fight against mechanics in music, but I do not agree, as I fear the speaker does not understand the situation we are facing.

"We would not protest any machine that could benefit the workers and the people at large, but we do protest machines that are devised wholly to give a few people money at the expense of many, which would make this a nation of listeners instead of a nation of music producers."

Boris Morros, general music director for the Paramount Public Theatres of North America, told the convention that the company he represented planned to have double the number of musicians at its theatres in the coming year.

Prime Minister is Coming to the City

It was officially announced today that Rt. Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King, Prime Minister of Canada, is to include Peterborough in his election tour of Canada and will speak here on Tuesday night, June 17. Mr. King opens his campaign in Brantford next Monday night and he will be here the following night to speak in behalf of J. J. Duffus, the Liberal candidate in Peterborough West. The meeting is scheduled to be held in the armouries.

LIGHT INCREASE IN EMPLOYMENT

City's Factories Fairly Active Although There is Little Labor Movement in Them.

UNEMPLOYED COMING HERE.

A number of unemployed have been absorbed in Peterborough as the result of a slight industrial improvement in the past two weeks reports Hugh Robertson, manager of the local Employment Services bureau. The labor surplus in the city is not being reduced, however, as unemployed are coming here from cities where conditions are worse, he states.

The city's factories are now fairly active but there is little labor movement in them, Mr. Robertson claims. Few orders for new labor have been received as former employes are being taken back where possible when additional workers are needed.

Occasional labor has been more plentiful in the past ten days. A number of men who have had no work for months past have benefited by a demand for help on short jobs of painting, gardening and general spring cleaning up about the city. This demand is usual during this period of the year, Mr. Robertson states.

Painters are busier at present but carpenters and brick-layers are still slack. Slightly better times for carpenters and brick-layers locally are in view.

Unemployed are this year more willing to go to the farm for work than in other years, Mr. Robertson stated. In other years the local bureau has often had demands for 25 to 50 farm labors which could not be filled but this year farm orders are filled without difficulty. Not as many requests for farm workers as usual are coming into the employment office as unemployed are travelling through the country and seeking farm work by farm to farm canvasses. When the hay crop is ready it is expected that farm needs will be greater.

A surplus of female domestic labor still exists as many factory girls are turning to house work for a living while the industries are slack. A small demand for such workers is commencing to come from the summer resorts of the district.

NORTHERN FIRES GAINING HEADWAY

Additional Men Being Rushed Into Centre of Trouble at Mack.

MORE PLANES NEEDED.

PORT ARTHUR, Ont., June 10.—(C.P.)— Forest fires in the Thunder Bay district are again assuming major proportions. Warm days and moderate breezes are building up the various bodies of flame that were completely extinguished by the rains of a week ago, which relieved the situation when the whole district seemed to be threatened. The forestry service is unable to withdraw men from places where the fires have partially subdued to put them where the danger is again threatening."

The vicinity of Mack, about 80 miles from here on the Canadian National line northwest to Sioux Lookout, appears to be the centre of the most serious fire at present. The service has 175 men there but the fire is said to be spread into heavy timber. The situation is described as discouraging.

In Helen township where big losses were suffered last week by the Abitibi Company, the situation is again very bad. This is north of Hurkett, where homesteaders lost heavily. In the Onion Lake section a bad fire is burning at a distance of 14 miles from the reservoir dam. More planes are being procured from the Western Canada Airways for use in carrying men and equipment.

GERMANY HONORS SUBMARINE DEAD

5,132 PERISHED.

KIEL, Germany, June 10 (C.P.).—A monument commemorating deeds of German submarine crews during the Great War was unveiled to-day on the banks of Kiel Canal with solemn ceremony in the presence of a large crowd of army and navy veterans and other patriotic bodies.

The monument consists of a column surmounted by a spread eagle. It carries the inscription: "One hundred and ninety-nine submarines and 5,132 heroes perished in the World War 1914-1918."

Former Vice-Admiral Michelson, former chief submarine commander, in unveiling the memorial, said that more than half the German submarine crew died during the war, which was a higher percentage of mortality than that of any other German fighting force.

HARBOR TUG FOUNDERS SAILOR REPORTED LOST

NEW YORK, N.Y., June 10 (C.P.).—One man was reported missing today in the sinking of the harbor tug Invader off St. George, Staten Island. The captain and the other five members of the crew were saved. The cause of the accident was unknown.

The tug sank in shallow water, just as it was pulling into the slip with a car float from Brooklyn.

Children on Way to School Are Struck by Fast C.P.R. Shriners' Special.

THIRD IS DYING.

Stopped to Allow C.N.R. Regular to Pass, Then Drove Into Path of Special.

HAMILTON, Ont., June 10 (Canadian Press). — When the car in which they were riding was struck by a fast Canadian Pacific Railway train at the 6th Line Crossing, Trafalgar, shortly before nine o'clock this morning, Margaret McKay, 11, and Evelyn Booth, 16, met instant death. A younger brother of the second girl, William Booth, was seriously injured, and is reported dying. The driver of the car, Hazel Booth, was also hurt, but will recover.

On Way to School.

The tragedy occurred when the girls were on their way to school. They arrived at the C.P.R. crossing and waited for the regular C.N.R. west-bound train to go by. When this has passed, they started across the tracks not noticing the speedy C.P.R. train, which was thundering towards the spot. It was all over in a moment, the car being demolished and the occupants hurled to one side by the terrific impact.

The train was in charge of Conductor Bullock and Engineer Maxwell . Police and doctors arrived on the scene, and a preliminary inquest was ordered for 11.30 this morning at Oakville.

The young people were residents of Trafalgar Township, and were on their way to Oakville to try examinations. The car was completely wrecked when it was hurled 100 feet from the level crossing by the train, which was a Shriner's special.

ALTITUDE RECORD SET BY U.S. FLIER

Lieutenant Soucek Regains His Laurels With Mark of 43,166 Feet.

HOLDS BOTH HONORS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9.—(C.P.)—For the second time, Lieutenant Apollo Soucek today held both the land and seaplane world altitude records for the navy.

The National Aeronautics Association announced a bureau of standard calibration of barographs the navy flyer took aloft Wednesday showed he reached 43,166 feet, the highest altitude to which man had ever flown.

In his training Apache plane of a type discarded by the navy when it was found unsatisfactory as a fighting ship, Soucek took two hours and ten minutes to make his flight. He said his altimeter showed he had reached 42,000 feet, and the needle waved about that point as he fought to increase his height in the thin air and in a temperature as much as 60 degrees below zero.

To break the existing land plane record Lieutenant Soucek had to reach 42,122 feet, 100 meters or about 328 feet higher than the 41,794 foot altitude reached by Willie Neuen Hofen, a German flyer, in May 1929. Soucek exceeded the necessary altitude by 1,044 feet.

The navy flyer already holds the seaplane record of 39,140 feet, which he established in the same plane. He also held the land plane record until the new one was set by Neuen-Hofen.

PUBLICITY GIVEN REPORT PLEASES SIR JOHN SIMON

FRITWELL, Oxfordshire, Eng., June 10.—(C.P.)—Sir John Simon, during an interview at his home today expressed pleasure at the prominence which the newspapers have given to the commission's report on India. He said, "I think the novel plan of producing the report in two volumes with an interval between has been abundantly justified because it is evident the public does intend to consider the conditions of the Indian problem so as to be able to form conclusions as to the recommendations which are to be put forward a fortnight hence".

WET WEATHER FORCES SHRINERS TO POSTPONE MAMMOTH PARADE

Big March Past Will Be Held on Wednesday Morning.

24,000 DELEGATES.

TORONTO, Ont., June 10 (C.P.)—Rain to-day interfered with arrangements for the grand opening of the National Shrine Convention and the mammoth parade before the grand stand on Lake Shore Boulevard, in which ten thousand Shriners were expected to participate. In view of the inclement weather the parade was postponed until Wednesday morning.

The rain showed no signs of abating to allow continuance of the outdoor events scheduled but the business side of the convention came to the fore with the opening of the Imperial Council sessions this afternoon after a luncheon given to officials and delegates.

Business Sessions Open

The first session raised the question which must be decided by the Nobles and their Potentates as to whether the assembly of the Imperial Council will be made a triennial affair or it will remain an annual gathering. Two delegation in favor of the latter course are those from Cleveland, O., which has already begun a drive for next year's convention, and Chicago, Ill., which is understood to want it in 1932.

Twenty-four thousand delegates and visitors have already arrived by train and 100,000 people, including Shriners and their families coming by auto and otherwise are expected in the city before nightfall, according to U. E. Gillen, chairman of the registration committee.

To-night the day's events will be rounded off with a concert in the Coliseum followed by wrestling and boxing bouts.

Two Oakville Girls Killed on Crossing

HAMILTON, Ont., June 10.—(C.P.)—When the automobile in which they were riding was struck by a Canadian Pacific Railway train, Margaret McKay and Evelyn Booth were killed shortly before nine o'clock this morning.

Both girls belonged to Oakville, Ont. The tragedy occured at the Canadian National crossing near Trafalgar when the sedan in which they were driving was struck by a train bound for Toronto. It is understood others were injured.

CRIME REPORTER IS SHOT DOWN BY GANGSTER'S GUN

Well Known Newspaper Man Trapped in Chicago Subway.

$30,000 REWARD OFFERED.

Witnesses Identify Picture of Capone Killer as the Slayer.

CHICAGO, Ills., June 10 (Canadian Press) — One of the greatest murder hunts Chicago ever has seen was organized to-day. Police, State's Attorney's men, private detectives, and the organized power of the press joined to track down the man who killed Alfred (Jake) Lingle, 38-year-old reporter for The Tribune, yesterday.

$30,000 Reward.

Rewards totalling $30,000 were posted — $25,000 by The Tribune and $5,000 by the Chicago Evening Post. The Press Club of Chicago issued a statement that it stood ready to post an additional $10,000.

Two hundred or more persons were within a few feet of Lingle when he was shot down at 1.35 o'clock yesterday afternoon, yet the slayer not only escaped but left witnesses with a confusion of stories as to just what happened.

Early to-day the investigators revisited the murder scene—the subway that dips under Michigan Boulevard at Randolph Street and leads to the Illinois Central Station. They wanted to re-check every possible means of escape that the slayer may have taken. They sought to learn whether some clue, previously overlooked, might be revealed.

Stock Brokers Are Scored By Court In Toronto Thefts

Action to Protect Small Salaried Men From Danger of Speculation is Urged by Toronto Magistrate in Delivering Sentence in Bank Theft Cases.

THREE YOUNG MEN ARE SENT TO REFORMATORY CONVICTION IS A RESULT OF VOLUNTARY STATEMENT.

Young Men Pleaded Guilty When Arraigned Before Magistrate Jones on May 29 and Declared Their Confession Was Entirely Self-willed.

TORONTO, Ont., June 10 (Canadian Press). — Action to protect small salaried men from the danger of speculation was urged by Magistrate Jones in special Police Court to-day when he sentenced two former Royal Bank clerks on a charge of theft of $25,840. Wilfrid Tomlinson was sentenced to two years less one day determinate plus a similar term indeterminate in the Ontario Reformatory; Francis Lowery got two years less one day determinate and one year less one day indeterminate; and Leslie Penner, one year less one day determinate and one year less one day indeterminate.

Add three bankers A'

Pleaded Guilty.

The conviction comes as a result of a voluntary statement of the young men to the manager of the bank where they were employed, and subsequently to the police. The young men pleaded guilty when arraigned before Magistrate Jones on May 29 and declared that their confession was entirely self-willed. They declared they were tired of "keeping up the bluff," and came to the conclusion that it would be better to clear up the "whole mess" by confessing. The stolen money had all gone to meet stock-brokers' demands, said Lowery.

After $12,000 had been taken, Lowery explained he became fearful of discovery and deemed it practically impossible to reimburse what had been taken. He left the bank and Penner took his place. Penner says that both Lowery and Tomlinson had asked him to "help" cover up the shortages "and he had agreed."

The young men were favorably known in the city and after their arrest tributes came from many people. The bank manager, D. M. Neeve, when interviewed at the time said: "I am very much surprised when these men confessed. The shortages were brought about by manipulation extending for some time. When a teller and an accountant are working in collusion it is not easy to discover the fraud.

In passing sentence, Magistrate Jones said, in part: "This is a painful duty regarding the feeling I have always had for youth. I again remark about the extreme impropriety of stock brokers in opening accounts for such young men. I only hope the brokers will take note of this. It is just as important for them to restrain dealing with small-salaried men as the sentences I impose today. They should do something to assist such young men, help the courts and banks, and eliminate all this.

"I believe the reformatory would be better for the lads than the penitentiary."

Edward J. Murphy was counsel for Tomlinson and Lowry, and R. H. Greer, K. C., for Penner.

Tomlinson and Lowry were dealt with first.

"Lowry has been out of the bank for more than a year, and he admitted the thefts", began Mr. Murphy, "Lowry had a bright future in the bank, but now his future is a blank, he has suffered pow, and so has his family.

"They took this money. They were reading about the millions made on the market. They took the plunge".

"They lost when all else seemed to be winning", interrupted the court.

"You would think after taking $1,000 they would get tired of this".

"It would seem that Tomlinson is more to blame than anyone. The thefts continued after Lowry left", remarked Crown Attorney Eric Armour, K. C.

"They were $11,000 down when Lowry left", said Murphy.

"Tomlinson was trying to get even. He is a young man. Banks do not pay outstanding wages, but that is no reason why he should steal. I

Chinese Beggars Latest Strikers

SHANGHAI, June 10. (C.P.)—A strike of beggars is the newest manifestation of the inepressibility of Shanghai's trouble makers. It occurred in the Woosung-Shanghai beggar's refuge, one of a dozen such places in the city, where 600 mendicants are housed. Three meals a day, instead of the usual two, was agreed upon as the demand. Refused, the beggars broke loose, overturned furniture and all but fired the building. Chinese police broke the strike and the inmates still get two meals a day.

REPORT BY SIMON COMMISSION PAID TRIBUTE IN PRESS

Responsible Gov't Must Come Gradually For India.

COMPLETE UNANIMITY.

Laborite Daily Insists Transition to Responsible Gov't Be Made.

LONDON, June 10 (C.P.)—London morning newspapers to-day devoted pages to most complete summaries of the report of the Simon Commission on Indian statutory reform. All pay tribute to the great achievement of the commissioners and emphasize the importance and high value of their unanimity.

There is some divergence in comments regarding conclusions to be drawn from the report itself. The Mail borrowed the phrase coined by the Minister for the Dominions, Lord Passfield, and said that the report emphasized "the inevitability of gradualness." The Mail found nothing in the report affording the faintest countenance to the policy of holding out hopes to Indian extremists of early establishment of a Dominion status.

Demands Impracticable

The Telegraph also saw in the report the totally impracticable character of demands for solving the problem on lines of self-government at short notice.

The Laborite Daily Herald drew quite a different deduction, and insisted that the transition to a responsible Government would have to be carried out as quickly as it might be.

The Liberal News and Chronicle saw in the Commission's tribute to the manner in which Indians have worked the constitution up in 1920 an answer to the pretense that Indians are incapable of self-government.

Indian Liberal comment on the Simon Commission report was severely critical.

Give India Little

Sir Phiroze Sethna, President of the Liberal Federation, said that reading between the lines he was tempted to believe the recommendation still to be made will be such as to give India as little as possible and to keep Great Britain's hold upon her as long as she can.

Sir Chimanlal Setalbad, Member of the Bombay Council, said it was fairly clear that the Commission's recommendations would be of a character which would never satisfy Indian National aspirations.

H. P. Moody, President of the Mill Owners' Association, said he was certain that the recommendations would have to be of a most advanced character if they were to receive the slightest consideration in the country.

INDIANS URGED TO DISOBEDIENCE

Congress Calls For Opposition to Two Latest Ordinances.

SCORE COMMISSION REPORT.

ALLAHABAD, India, June 10 (Canadian Press). — The All-India Congress Working Committee after four days' deliberation with Pandit Motilal Mehru in the chair, to-day adopted resolutions calling upon Indians to extend their civil disobedience to the two new ordinances of Viceroy Lord Irwin.

These ordinances are those which make boycotting and picketing illegal and which make punishable instigation of non-payment of taxes. The Working Committee urged that they be disobeyed publicly with calm unflinching courage and by strict observance of non-violence. The committee especially advised young people to carry on with redoubled vigor peaceful picketing of liquor shops, foreign cloth shops, and the social boycott.

REPORT, INSULT TO INDIA.

BOMBAY, June 10 (Canadian Press). — The attitude of the Swarajist press today to the report of the Simon Commission on Indian statutory reform was illustrated best by the headline in the Bombay Chronicle: "Simon Commission Insults India."

The newspaper, an organ of the India National Congress, says: "The report is infinitely worse than its critics feared."

The Times of India, leading English daily in the Empire, remarks that the unanimity of the report is of good omen. The paper observes that it provides a comprehensive survey and review of the people's conditions throughout the land.

SOLDIER JAILED FOR FATAL SHOT

British Lance Corporal's Accident Responsible For Indian Riot.

GIVEN 18 MONTHS.

PESHAWAR India June 10—Lance-Corporal Cummings of the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry yesterday was sentenced to eighteen months' imprisonment for accidentally shooting two children beside the Kabuli Gate on May 31, a mishap which started a riot.

At the time, Cummings was unloading his rifle preparatory to cleaning it. It was discharged at the moment a carriage passed through the gate hearing the wife of the Sikh supervisor of the Government farm and her two children. The bullet killed the two children instantly and wounded the mother.

Angry Indians gathered and refused to disperse until the police fired a warning shot over their heads. They then formed a procession which attacked a small party of British troops. The troops opened fire as the mob rushed them and tried to snatch their rifles, with the result that seven in the crowd were killed and nine were wounded.

SEVEN MEN DIE IN TUNNEL BLAST

Believe Spark From Pick or Tram Car Ignited Gas Pocket.

ONE IN HOSPITAL.

OAKLAND, Calif., June 10 (C.P.)—Seven men are dead and one is in a hospital at Livermore, as the result of an explosion in the Hetch-Hetchy tunnel near Calaveras dam in the Alamda County Hills.

A shot of dynamite in the tunnel some time Sunday opend up a stream of water and evidently blew into a pocket of gas. The gas was not ignited at the time but without the men working in the tunnel knowing it apparently seeped into the long passage and accumulated there. The explosion occurred last night.

A spark from an electric tram or a pick was believed to have set off the gas.

The dead: C. J. Paizes 36; Fred Flader 28; P. J. Peck 41; C. Brood 39; and C. D. Kloet, all of San Francisco; Carl C. Cook, 25, and H. P. Hampton 32, Los Angeles.

CHINESE REBELS ROUT GOV'T ARMY

Hankow, Wuchang and Hanyang Are Gravely Menaced.

FIGHTING CONTINUES.

HANKOW, Hupeh, China, June 10 (C.P.)—The invading Kwangsi army to-day overcame the defense of the Nanking Nationalist forces near Jochow, Northern Hunan Province, said reports reaching here this afternoon, and forced the Nationalists to retreat northward along the railway line toward Wuchang.

Dispatches from foreign sources said the fighting had begun just south of Yochow on the northeast shore of Tungting Lake late to-day. The Kwangsi army, including a number of reputed bandit organizations as well as the anti-Nanking Provincials, previously had captured Changsha, Hunanese capital, with only nominal resistance from its Nationalist defenders.

The stated objective of the Kwangsi rebels is this city and its sister municipalities, Wuchang and Hanyang, the former just across the Yangtse River.

Three Cities Threatened

SHANGHAI, June 10 (C.P.)—Japanese advices to-night stated that as a result of the reported rout of the Nationalist army near Yochow, the last barrier between the Kwangsi rebels and the Yangtse River, the Wuhan cities—Hankow, Wuchang, and Hanyang were considered gravely menaced.

The three cities are strategically located, both commercially and from a military standpoint, on the Yangtse nearly 600 miles west of here. Hankow was for some time the seat of the Nationalist Government, before its military successes in Central China permitted its establishment at Nanking.

KING OF RUMANIA

After a two hour conference Juliu Maniu, resigned peasant Premier, left Carol's presence visibly cheerful and told the press that while he was not yet entrusted with the formation of the Government he felt that he could find colleagues within 24 hours among his own party. His words were considered significant that he would head the new regime.

May Be Crowned Without Queen

It is still mooted whether the Princess Mother, Helen, will become reconciled with Carol—which the King desires very much—or remain apart from him. Latest reports say that Carol will be crowned in October at Alba Julia, without a queen at his side, but attended by his little son, Michael, as Prince of Alba Julia.

It was believed today in political circles that Princess Helen will choose a home away from the capital but near enough to watch the coronation of their son. She is a Princess of Greece, and has no status in her own country now, and so may not return there.

Strong forces are being brought to bear to gain her consent to annulment of the divorce from Carol.

CRIME REPORTER

Already they had the killer's gun, a pocket revolver of .38 calibre, and they had the black silk glove worn by the killer to prevent tell-tale finger-prints being left on the pistol butt. That was about all.

There were many witnesses, and almost as many different stories of what happened. Several, however, tentatively identified rogue gallery pictures of Sam Hunt, Capone gunman, as closely resembling the man who killed Lingle. Hunt, carrying a shotgun in a golf bag, was arrested a fortnight ago on the north-west side shortly after a gang gunning in which the body of the victim was spirited away. He is out on bond under charges of carrying concealed weapons.

Lingle is the first newspaperman, The Tribune pointed out, to be murdered since Don R. Mellett, Canton, Ohio, editor, was slain in July, 1926 following his crusade against gangsters there. Lingle's 18 years as a Tribune reporter have been devoted largely to police reporting and investigation, a job that brought him into contact with most of the "big shot" gangsters of Chicago. He was well acquainted with Al (Scarface) Capone, among others, and once was entertained at the Capone home in Miami.

Wealthy Enough to Retire.

The Tribune reporter, reputedly wealthy enough to retire, but staying on the job through pure joy of the work, was working on the chain of gang murders that have been committed within the last ten days. He himself became the eleventh victim.

The Tribune to-day said there appeared to be no direct motive. Lingle, the paper said, had been "covering" the underworld for The Tribune for years. He had come to know most of the gang leaders. He probably knew more policemen than any other person. Police Commissioner William Russell was one of his closest friends, their acquaintance having begun when Russell was walking a patrolman's beat twenty years ago.

One man arrested was John 'Boss' McLaughlin, former legislator, who police learned had sought Lingle's aid in starting a gambling racket. Lingle refused, and police were told that McLaughlin threatened to "get even." McLaughlin denied ever making any threats, and professed friendship for Lingle.

The slain newspaperman was married and the father of two small children. He was a native Chicagoan and began work at The Tribune as an office boy.

Nobles Discharge Guns, Fire Crackers and Stage Parades All Day.

SEE SPORTING EVENTS.

TORONTO, Ont., June 10 (C.P.).—Hundreds of couples dancing in the streets of Oriental gardens last night and a special display of fez fireworks ended the liveliest day so far of the annual convention of the Imperial Council of the Ancient and Arabic Order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine.

The street festival ended a series of celebrations beginning early in the day with drills, band concerts and parades, which blocked highway traffic and drew office workers from their tasks. The Nobles fired off guns, invaded offices with their songs and threw fire crackers around in downtown stores. Only at noon did they pause when they paid tribute at the Cenotaph to Canada's war dead. A wreath was deposited by the Imperial Potentate, Leo Youngworth, Los Angeles, Calif., on behalf of the Order, while in the second ceremony Mayor Reginald Sullivan, Indianapolis, Ind., presented on behalf of Murat Temple of that city a wreath which was accepted by Mayor Bert S. Wemp, Toronto, also a Shriner.

Sporting events in the afternoon and evening were supplemented by demonstrations given by the children of Toronto in honor of the visitors.

CAR DESTROYED IN GARAGE FIRE

Fire Department Battle Blaze For Over Hour and a Half Early This Morning.

Other Contents Destroyed.

A spectacular blaze, which resulted in the loss of a new sedan car, and frame garage containing approximately $200 worth of lumber and two large plate glass windows, gave members of the Peterborough Fire Department a stiff fight lasting over an hour-and-a-half in the early part of this morning.

The building situated on a lot at the rear of 869, George street near London street, and the property of Chas. Rishor took fire in the north west corner of the roof, it is stated, although its origin is a complete mystery. Frank Schneider of 170 London street, one of the first to notice the outbreak telephoned the fire brigade. Alarms were also put in by Gordon Trennum, grocer and W. E. Metcalfe of Toronto who was passing in his car shortly after 1 a.m. when he saw the reflection in the sky.

The brigade under Fire Chief George Gimblett, laid one line of hose and poured a steady stream of water into the heart of the blazing building. The automobile which was well alight was towed out of the garage and despite the use of chemicals it persisted to burn fiercely providing quite a spectacle for the crowd which had been attracted by the lurid glow in the sky.

Fortunately there was little wind blowing at the time, otherwise the fire may easily have spread to other frame garages in the immediate vicinity and also to the houses nearby.

Several of the firemen received slight burns from falling embers, and were rendered first aid from the kit which is carried as part of the equipment.

The Fire Chief withdrew the ladder truck at 2.30 a.m. and ordered the remainder of the equipment back shortly afterwards.

MILLBROOK MEN'S BIBLE CLASS OBSERVES ITS 23RD ANNIVERSARY

GALT QUARTETTE PRESENT.

MILLBROOK, June 10. (Examiner Correspondence). —The twenty-third anniversary of the Men's Bible Class of Saint Andrew's United Church, was observed on Sunday, June 8, with two special services sponsored by the class, the first at 2.30 p.m. with Rev. Gordon S. Sisco, of Port Hope, preaching an inspiring sermon, and the second at 7 p.m. when His Honor, Judge Mott, of the Juvenile Court, Toronto, delivered a very helpful and impressive address.

A men's choir of more than forty voices led the singing, and the Maple Leaf Quartette of Galt, which has made for itself a province-wide reputation, rendered the special musical selections. Fragrant early summer blossoms, in large vases, were placed upon the table and pedestals within the altar railing, speaking a silent message of God's care and love of beauty.

Associated with the pastor, Rev. W. W. Jones, B.D., upon the pulpit platform for the afternoon service were the speaker, Rev. Mr. Sisco, the president of the class, Mr. Jas. H. Might, and a former pastor, Rev. F. H. Howard, of Warwkorth, who with his wife and family were present for the day's gatherings.

Church Filled

The church was taxed to capacity for the evening congregation, dozens of chairs having to be carried from the basement, single rows being placed in the aisles both in the gallery and on the ground floor, so that between eight and nine hundred people were accommodated for the service; in the afternoon seating on the ground floor was entirely occupied, and the gallery more than three parts filled as well. People were present from Peterborough, Port Hope, Bowmanville, Omemee, and all the intervening countryside, and so many cars lined both sides of the roadway for a considerable distance east and west of the church at night, the services of two traffic officers were required to see that confusion in the limited space was avoided and all got away safely.

Churches in the vicinity withdrew their evening service, pastor and people worshipping with the Millbrook congregation; in this way Rev. Mr. Swayne, of Frazerville, and Rev. M. Whittham, of Cavan, were among those having seats on the pulpit platform at night, and assisted with the worship period.

The selections by the quartette fitted in most appropriately throughout the day with the sermon theme, and the special character of the occasion, those including for the afternoon, "In That Beautiful Land", "When Mother Prayed", and "Some of These Days" their message in songs was the more effective from the fact that they were unaccompanied.

In extending a welcome, on behalf of the Men's Class both afternoon and evening, Mr. Might spoke of the deep and genuine satisfaction the officers and members felt in greeting such large congregations on their twenty-third anniversary, mentioning also the date of organization in 1907, and the unusual fact that the class has had only two teachers since its inception. The late Miss Agnes Hampton filled the office of teacher and leader capably for several years and since her decease her sister, Mrs (Dr.) Rae has carried on the work faithfully, and with marked success. There are now fifty men enrolled, and their aim is to have a Christian fellowship together; to help other classes of the community to reach a common goal, and have every member brought to an individual experience of Christ. The class constantly helps in the activities of the church in every way possible, and the weekly sessions for Bible study are well attended, with a high standard maintained for life and conduct.

Rev. Mr. Sisco

Rev. Mr. Sisco on "Some Living Issues of the Present Day" choosing his text from Hebrews 3:12: "Take heed brethren lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God."

In a thought-compelling discourse, the speaker referred to the peril of shutting the mind to the present message of the Living God, or the God of the Living Issue, and going back through the centuries showed how the three movements, Nationalism, Imperialis, and Protestantism, came along together.

"To-day I believe we are on the threshold of a great movement in church and state that will be as much in advance of the present as the Apostolic church was in advance of Judaism that went before it. We need to be trained to detect the presence of God in the crisis of our time, and this will give us a sense of direction, and help us to see that new occasions teach new duties."

Dealing in detail with the benefits of the League of Nations, and the Paris Peace Pact, and their functioning in world affairs, Mr. Sisco went on to show that they marked a new epoch in international relations, 'and are one more evidence of how far we have travelled from particularism, under the influence of the Spirit of the Living God, toward association and co-operation. And if this is urgent in nationalism it is surely equally urgent for the church of Christ."

The closing part of the sermon was devoted to a poetic view of the days that are soon to be, a wide outlook, greater service and sacrifice, and a uniting church ready to go all the way, being among "the evidences of the tides of the Spirit, to be blind to which is to be in danger of falling away from the Living God."

Introducing His Honor, Judge Mott to the evening congregation, Rev. Mr. Jones spoke of his splendid service as a Bible class teacher of four hundred men, and of his other activities "as one of God's great servants interested in the building up of the Kingdom, whose life backs up his message."

Preceding the sermon the Maple Leaf Quartette sang, "The Old Rugged Cross" and "O There Is a City".

Judge Mott

The "Parable of the Drag Net" was the theme of Judge Mott's discourse, the text being taken from Matthew 13:47: "Again the Kingdom of Heaven is like a net, that was cast into the sea and gathered of every kind."

Referring to his pleasure in being present at a service, sponsored by a man's class and drawing so large a congregation, the speaker mentioned Jesus' keen understanding of human nature, and his characteristic of proceeding always from the known to the unknown—an evidence of a great teacher. "Thus in the parable before us he steps from the story to the unknown truths of the Kingdom. The sea is the world, and as the net functions in the sea, so should the Kingdom of God function in the world; the humans are fish, and the net is the Kingdom."

Christ was painted by the many negative commands of his day, which do not make for good living, and are too often a challenge to do the thing prohibited; He wanted to give the world a positive, and set us a new ideal of living, and develop a new sense of responsibility. He knew that when a man has tasted truth in his life there is a response from within that answers the call, as deep calleth unto deep."

The speaker developed in detail the new Standard which Christ set up under the headings (a) in the economic world; (b) the world of friendliness; (c) the social world; (d) the manner in which it cuts right across the ethical religious life. The big concern of living was emphasized and the fact that life is not an enfolding but a giving; "in the eternal verities of truth there is no response to the addition or multiplication tables, but we add as we give away what we have."

In closing Judge Mott urged his hearers to remember the bitter price goes hand in hand with truth and right; and the necessity of ringing true in profession and conduct, striving always to be better, and living up to the standard of the Kingdom as Christ revealed it.

"Wandering Child Come Home" was the fitting number sung by the quartette at the sermon's conclusion, and the prayer of dismissal was by the speaker of the evening.

No special appeal was made by the men's class for funds to help defray the heavy expense incurred in the days' services, but the offering amounted to approximately eighty dollars. The Maple Leaf Quartette remained over until Monday night to give an entertainment in the church, including readings with the musical numbers.

CATTLE, GRAIN, PRODUCE

MONTREAL PRODUCE

MONTREAL, June 10.—Trading on the Montreal produce market yesterday was decidedly dull, but prices remained fairly steady.

Butter quotations were unchanged from Saturday. Receipts were 468 boxes. Cheese was slightly higher, with Western offering at 16½c and Eastern at 16c.

A reduction of 1c per dozen was made in first fresh extra eggs. They are now selling at 32c. Receipts, 1,361 cases.

The demand for potatoes was again quiet and values were steady. Top grades sold at $2 to $2.10 per 90 lbs., in bulk.

TORONTO PRODUCE

TORONTO, June 10.—Trading on the local egg market yesterday was just steady enough to keep prices firm. That is, receipts were fairly heavy, and the convention now in session in this city stimulated trading, thereby giving the shipper a better price than he would otherwise have received. Country shippers were quoted 28c for extras, 26c for firsts, and 23c to 24c for seconds, with most seconds at 23c, these prices for ungraded eggs, delivered, cases returned. Dealers were quoting for graded eggs, free cases, 30½c for extras, 28½c for firsts, and 26c for seconds. Retailers were offered supplies at 35c for extras in cartons, 33c for extras loose, 31c for firsts loose, and 28c seconds loose.

Butter

The butter market also showed a steady tone, and dealers reported fair sales at 28¼c for Ontario ..o. 1, and 27c to 27½c for No. 2. Buyers who last week were not in the market for any supplies at all, owing to the reports on future shipments of New Zealand, etc., were yesterday taking small amounts. But sales of any size were scarce, and though the market was steady it will take more trading to keep it steady.

Cream

Churning cream prices held to the reduction in effect at the end of last week, and shippers were quoted 29c to 30c for special, 28c to 29c for No. 1, and 25c to 26c for No. 2, f.o.b. country points.

Cheese

The cheese market weakened yesterday, and the reason given was higher production. Prices to shippers dropped ¼c, and they were quoted at 16¾c for new large, 17c for new twins and 17¼c for new triplets. Prices to the retail trade were steady, however, at 18½c for new large, 18¾c for new twins and 19c for new triplets. Prices for old cheese were unchanged.

Considerable trading was reported on the potato market at the new high prices in effect the latter half of last week. New Brunswicks were quoted by wholesalers at $2.10 in bulk, and $2.20 in bags; Prince Edward Island, Cobblers, $2.10; and Mountains, $2.33. Ontario potatoes, though few on the market, were $1.90 to $2.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, June 10—Optimism that suited well the magnificence and beauty of the Chicago Board of Trade's new building found reflection in higher prices for all grains yesterday. The upward swing of values was the more remarkable as being in the face of severe setbacks shown by securities.

Aside from the effect of extra-cheerful, fresh surroundings, the wheat market was influenced by indications of enlarged export business from North America, by continued curtailment of the United States visible supply, and by serious crop damage reports from Canada.

Closing quotations on wheat were firm at the day's topmost figures, 1 to 1½ cents a bushel higher than Saturday's finish.

Corn closed ½c to ⅞c up; oats ¼c to ½c advance, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 2c.

WINNIPEG GRAIN.

WINNIPEG, June 10. — For the first time in many a day wheat prices on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange yesterday showed jumps that extended wider than two cents per bushel. On reports of adverse weather in the West and of good week-end export business, values jumped ahead in all three futures, and at the close were 1⅝c to 2⅛c better for the day.

No news was available from Liverpool, where the market was on holiday, but investors took a better overseas attitude toward Canadian grain for granted. Demand for cash wheat was indifferent, and interest in cash coarse grains was light, with the exception of some inquiry for oats for domestic use.

Of a quiet and retiring disposition, he lived much to himself. He will be sadly missed by his aged widow, thus left alone in the declining years of her life. The service was conducted by Rev. M. R. Brown, pastor of Roseneath Circuit. Interment was in Bethany (Macklin's) Cemetery.

GEORGE PRICE

BETHANY, June 10.—(Examiner Correspondence)—The death occurred very suddenly at his home in Orono recently of George Price, a very highly esteemed resident of that village.

The late Mr. Price had not been enjoying the best of health for sometime but his death came as a great shock to his wife and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Price attended divine service in the evening when he felt ill and when he reached home a doctor was called shortly after which he died.

The late Mr. Price was a member of St. Saviour's Anglican church at Orono where he had resided for twenty years as agent at the C.N.R. station, coming to Orono from Madoc.

The funeral was held from his residence to St. Saviour's church and burial was made at St. Mary's Cemetery, Lifford. The floral tributes were many and beautiful, showing the high esteem in which the late Mr. Price was held.

The pall bearers were five nephews, Louis, Harry and Frank Bigelow, Murray and Hilliard Price, of Toronto and Mr. Cordy of Madoc.

ST. LAWRENCE SEAWAY PROJECT

assuredly will destroy our hope of Empire trade."

The Conservative chieftain regretted that Canadians had been detrimentally affected by the fiscal policy of the administration.

Other pledges made by the Conservative leader included stabilization of economic conditions, and to continuity of trade and freedom from the manipulation of home and foreign tariff; development of inter-provincial trade, and a Canadian fuel policy, and development of a foreign market; improvement of the whloe scheme of Canadian transportation northward by the completion of the Hudson Bay route, and Peace River outlet to the Pacific Coast; development of the St. Lawrence waterways, and the establishment of a national highway system.

Fight for Canada

The Conservative leader held up to Canadians the example of the United States in the matter of the development of natural resources, and contended that unless Canadians were content to be "economic vassals," they must set out to do what the United States had accomplished. They must fight for Canada. There was no place for the Dominion but at the top.

Mr. Bennett claimed that the King administration was particularly blameworthy for failing to provide employment that would keep people in the country and attract others to it, and in this connection maintained that the population should be more than a million and a quarter greater than it is.

Conservative Platform

The Conservative Leader summarized his platform as follows:

"(1)—We pledge ourselves to a policy of Protection for Canadians in the development of our national resources, our agricultural and industrial life, and of consumers from exploitation.

"(2)—We pledge ourselves to foster and develop agriculture and the livestock and dairy industries now so badly neglected.

"(3)—We pledge ourselves to the stabilization of economic conditions, and to continuity of trade and freedom from the manipulation of home and foreign tariffs.

"(4)—We pledge ourselves to the development of inter-provincial trade and of a Canadian fuel policy, and development of a foreign market.

"(5)—We pledge ourselves to the improvement of the whole scheme of Canadian transportation northward by the completion of the Hudson Bay route, and the construction of such branches as may be necessary to render it most readily available to every part of Canada; to the Pacific slope by a Peace River outlet, and east and west by the development of the St. Lawrence waterways, and we pledge ourselves to aid existing traffic channels and to increase port facilities on the Great Lakes, Hudson Bay and the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, and to the establishment of a national highway system.

"(6)—We pledge ourselves to foster and support a plan for greater Empire trade based on mutual advantage.

"(7)—We pledge ourselves to a national Old Age Pensions scheme.

"(8)—We pledge ourselves to such compensation adjustment as will ensure the benefit of the above policies to every part of Canada."

Denies C.N.R. Rumors.

In emphatic terms, Mr. Bennett severely castigated a report that the identity of the Canadian National Railways might not be preserved if the Conservative Party were returned to power. Unequivocally, the Opposition Chieftain pledged his party to the preservation of the Canadian National Railways. He went further, and asked that his resignation be demanded the moment any sign might portend the breaking of his pledge given last night.

"I haven't a dollar in the Canadian Pacific Railway—good, bad or indifferent," Mr. Bennett heatedly exclaimed in further denial of a rumor that he would turn the national road over to the Canadian Pacific Railway to swell his dividends. Warmly continuing, the Opposition Chieftain stated that in keeping with a promise he had made three years ago when selected to lead his party, he had divested himself of all securities."

"I did it that I might be free," he added amid applause.

Touching upon the Hudson Bay Railway, the Opposition Chieftain gave his pledge to the country that his party would support the full completion of this railway. "I would like to assure my friends of the Province whose hospitality to-night means so much to me," he exclaimed, earnestly, "that the Conservative Party recommends the construction of the Hudson Bay Railway and will see it through with all its auxiliary works and developments necessary to its effective operation.

Cheer after cheer greeted this statement. And then Mr. Bennett directed the attention of his audience to the St. Lawrence Waterway.

"Why has nothing been done about the St. Lawrence Waterway?" he demanded. "Why? Because it was a business of the Government to do it and the Government did not choose—they did not dare—to do anything."

Ask Mr. MacKenzie King when he comes to you whether he does not believe that the building of the St. Lawrence waterway will be of immeasurable advantage to the country. Don't let him put you off with an evasive answer. I dare him to answer 'no'.

Picture of Waterway

"The government did not choose to do anything with respect to it and its ways, in the language of the Prime Minister, 'still under negotiation', we who have so little time, you, who have so little time after the day's work is done, to think of other than your immediate problems, think now a moment about this waterway and look at the picture of prosperity I paint above it. See this great water route as the carrier of half the world' trade; see factories that grow up on its banks, spun by electric energy from the harnessed stream; see people coming to man them, the purchasers of our products; the growth of the cities along its basin, an assured market for all the world to come. You have within this province a mighty river of unharnessed power, which could give us the energy the power, to make this great province an industrial center ranking second only among the Provinces of the Dominion.

DEFENDING ONTARIO.

The defence of Ontario against wild statements made in connection with the liquor situation in this Province by some American "dry" leaders, credited to Rev. J. G. Mackenzie, formerly of this city, will be applauded by most residents of this Province.

When ex-Premier Drury made his visit to Washington some time ago The Examiner protested that he had given Americans a picture of Ontario that was not justified by the actual conditions, and since his testimony there have been statements by United States prohibitionists that were even more uncalled for.

Our present method of dealing with the liquor problem may be far from perfect, and undoubtedly too much money is being spent on liquor, but every citizen who thinks anything of the good name of his home Province must resent attempts to picture Ontario people as debauched and debased by alcohol.

We are not a drunken people, and those who endeavor to represent us as such deserve to have the calumny thrown back upon them.

The Examiner is proud to be able to assert that there are fewer signs of drunkenness, fewer crimes of violence, fewer attacks upon women, and a greater respect for law and order in Peterborough under Government sale of liquor than in scores of cities of 25,000 people in the United States under the Volstead Act.

THE CALL TO YOUTH.

If young Canadians are not awake to the necessity of taking a greater interest in the politics of their municipality, their Province and their country, the fault cannot be laid at the door of Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Federal Minister of Justice, or Hon. R. B. Bennett, leader of the Opposition.

On two successive nights, addressing gatherings in Toronto, these outstanding leaders devoted a large part of their addresses to sounding a clarion call of service to the young people of this country.

Such a call is undoubtedly needed.

For every young man who can tell you anything definite about the Dunning budget there are twenty-five who can give Babe Ruth's home run record up to the present moment, and by the same token, for every young woman who can explain what is meant by countervailing duties there are a hundred who know all about the career of Rudy Vallee or John Gilbert.

There is a very real place in public life for Canadian youth, and it is encouraging to note that leading statesmen of both the other parties have recognized the necessity of new blood in the political development of Canada, and are using their eloquence in an effort to arouse young people to a sense of their responsibility as citizens of a great Dominion.

THE ROTARY STREET FAIR.

A week from to-morrow evening the Rotary Club of Peterborough will stage a street fair in the Market Square, and the event promises to be one of the most interesting features of the summer season.

Citizens of the city and district are asked to keep the date open, and by their presence at this gala evening of fun and entertainment make their contribution toward making possible the activities of Rotary on behalf of a better and happier community.

The Rotary Summer Camp at Clear Lake, which provides a safe outing under intelligent direction and supervision at cost for the boys of this district, is in itself a sufficient justification for seeking public support.

One of the finest camp plants in the country has been provided by Rotary, with the able assistance of the Rotary-annes, and that such an institution should be available for the use of the boys of the community is a matter that should earn for Rotary the backing of the public generally.

What the Peterborough club has done to improve the condition of the crippled children is another example of the desire of the organization to be of public service.

The Examiner is sure that both these noteworthy efforts and the assistance Rotary has given to every other worth while movement should be sufficient to ensure an attendance at next week's event that will set a new record for such occasions.

An evening's fun for a good cause—that is the Rotary Street Fair in a sentence.

COURTESY TO THE TOURIST.

Considering the fact that hundreds of thousands of tourists are now visiting Canada annually, not merely for an afternoon drive of a few hours in Canadian territory, but for a stay of days or weeks, it is surprising to find that the National Development Bureau of the Department of the Interior reports that there are remarkably few complaints as to the character of accommodation in Canadian hotels or tourist stopping places.

An organization dealing with the tourist traffic naturally expects to receive a few "kicks," and, of course, the human equation enters largely into these.

There is always bound to be someone lacking in thoughtfulness or foresight in caring for the needs of the visitors to Canada.

A year or so ago there was issued from Ottawa the warning, "Don't overcharge the tourist."

In the lessening of complaints on this score it is apparent that the message was effective and that this advice was received in the spirit in which it was given—for the good of this growing industry in the Dominion.

At this season of the year when the tourist stream is beginning to flow across the border again it is well to follow the advice of the National Development Bureau and to take stock once more of what our behaviour should be toward the visitors within our portals.

Last year there was a gain of some 863,000 in the number of tourist automobiles entering Canada. The total number of cars which were admitted to the Dominion exceeded 4,500,000 and well over a million of these were for visits exceeding 24 hours. Then there were the tourists who came by rail and steamer, so that it is probably not wide of the mark to say that at least five million persons had to be furnished with hotel or stopping-place accommodation, while the total of tourist expenditures is estimated officially for last year at $300,000,000.

Considering that millions of persons have to be provided with hotel or stopping-place accommodation and that many more are catered to in Canadian restaurants, the number of complaints actually registered against Canadian hospitality are remarkably few in number, but it may be presumed that others go away and say nothing—in Canada. Adverse comments when the tourists reach home will, however, do much harm to this rapidly growing business.

"EASY" MONEY.

The papers are having a lot to say about the winners of the Derby Calcutta sweepstakes. One reads of comparatively poor men who have suddenly been raised to affluence by the lucky chance of holding certain coupons. One reads, too, of others who are in an agony of suspense because there is some doubt about the results. Many stories are built up on the way the winners will spend their fortunes. Most of them, apparently, intend to give up their work and just enjoy themselves for the rest of their life. It's all very interesting, and well calculated to create feelings of envy; for who wouldn't, if he could, become the recipient of a large sum of money, without any effort whatever? It is natural to desire to be independent, and when so simple a method of becoming rich presents itself, it is little wonder if it should be eagerly embraced. The gambling instinct is universal; the hope of getting something for nothing is well-nigh irresistible. Yet it is not a healthy instinct and is almost sure to lead to unpleasant consequences if encouraged. The number of people who benefit in a lottery is so small compared to the number of those taking chances, as to make the probability of success practically negligible. When big prizes are involved the losers are counted by the thousands and maybe hundreds of thousands and the winners by a mere handful. It is usually a misfortune rather than a benefit to win, for gambling often then becomes a habit and in the long run it is almost certain to prove a losing game.

Betting on horses has been responsible for untold misery; dabbling in stocks and shares—speculation, as distinct from investment—has caused unhappiness and ruin to very many people. The old-fashioned method of thrift and systematic saving, though it may seem slow, is sure. Trying to "get rich quick" often means getting poor instead. All wealth is, ultimately, the reward of effort and merit. Money represents useful service performed by some one at some time or other, though the rewards may get into idle and unworthy hands. Gambling means deprivation for the majority of participators. There is little satisfaction in such gains. The fortune that is built up by well-directed effort is the only one really worth striving for; it cannot be accumulated if the temptation to squander money is not resisted.

SUSPENSIONS OF MOTOR LICENSES.

Those motorists who take chances with the traffic laws should have a care lest they lose their highly-prized licenses. Since the first of the year 795 Ontario motorists have had either their motor vehicle permit or their driving license—in some cases, both—suspended for various infractions of Ontario laws and regulations. And the number is likely to show a much larger total before the season ends as statistics compiled by J. P. Bickell, registrar of motor vehicles, reveal that suspensions increase proportionately as traffic becomes denser. This is indicated by the suspensions so far this year for reckless and drunken driving. The drunken driving suspensions for the five months were as follows: January, 30; February, 34; March, 50; April, 82, and May, 85. For reckless driving, the suspensions by months were: January, 31; February, 53; March, 70; April, 116, and May, 168.

While the majority of suspensions were for recklessness or driving while intoxicated, there were several other offences which deprived one or more motorists of their right to operate a car. Three suspensions were levied because of unfitness of the motorist; one, for failure to notify of change of address; 20, for having no permit; two for negligent driving; three, for operating contrary to the Public Commercial Vehicles Act; one, where the driver was an epileptic; two, for defective eyesight; nine, for not remaining at the scene of accident; one, for doing bodily harm; one, for incompetence; one, for being involved in a fatal accident; one, for driving with obsolete markers; two, for criminal negligence; one, for failure to pay fine; 19, for thefts; two, for loaning license; 10, for speeding, and one, for failure to stop and render assistance.

We have before expressed the opinion that one of the surest ways to promote careful driving is to suspend the licenses of offenders, varying the length of suspension according to the seriousness or otherwise of the offence, and we are still of the same opinion. To be deprived of the thrill of driving a car is about as severe a punishment as can be meted out to whoopee drivers. We hope, therefore, that these suspensions will continue to be inflicted with fearless vigor, especially as regards the more serious infractions such as reckless or drunken driving, speeding and hitting and running.

We note with approval that some were deprived of their licenses because they were mentally or physically unfit. There is no doubt that many are driving cars who are incompetent by nature and we think more attention should be paid to a driver's mental and physical condition. The wheel of an automobile is not a proper plaything for a mental defective or for a person who is afflicted with epilepsy.—St. Thomas Times-Journal.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

Don't forget to get your ticket for the Rotary car mileage contest. It's a sure thing to help a good cause and a chance to win a handsome car.

If Premier King and Hon. R. B. Bennett were to stage a joint meeting in Toronto this particular week, they could get all the audience into a telephone booth.

Hon. Dr. J. H. King has been made a Senator, and the Conservatives of British Columbia are thereby deprived of a target.

At least Premier Ferguson's entry into the federal fight will contribute some striking phrases to the campaign oratory. The Premier may not always convince, but he is never dull.

If youth must be served marathon racing has not heard of it. Witness the winning of the Canadian marathon championship by 44-year-old Percy Wyer, of Toronto.

A Thought

A SONG

I wonder if ever a song was sung
But the singer's heart sang sweeter?
I wonder if I ever a rhyme was rung
But the thought surpassed the metre?
I wonder if ever a sculptor wrought
Till the cold stone echoed his ardent thought?
Or if ever a painter, with light and shade,
The dream of his inmost heart portrayed.

What To-day Means To You.

"GEMINI."

If June 10th is your birthday, the best hours for you are from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., from 4 p.m. to 5 p.m., and from 10 p.m. to 11 p.m. The danger periods are from 6 a.m. to 7:40 a.m., and from 8 p.m. to 9 p.m.

The astrological influences on this date are of a fluctuating nature, and will seem to be with you one moment, and against you, the next. Beware of scandal! Spiritual discontentment, and material advancement is augured.

The children born on this June 10th will have "pushing" natures, and they will insist upon their inherent rights. They will be rather hasty tempered, and slow in forgiving, and "never forgetters". They will be thorough and plodding students.

Your life picture is one of hills and valleys, ups and downs, but you are never shown crying at the bottom of your downs. Your grit, your determination and your hopeful outlook are your successful allies. The impulsiveness of your nature is usually the cause of your downfalls, and you jump before you look. Although you sometimes land high and dry, there are other times when you find yourself in the quick-sands of failures and disappointments, using your wits to scramble out to safety. You are optimistic and big-spirited enough, however, to write off the tragedies of your life and to show a balance of happiness and service.

You know how to shoulder work and responsibilities without bending your back with needless worries. Your acts are more impulsive than your words, for you are a discreet talker, and it has been said that discretion consists of always thinking what you say, but not always saying what you think. You are usually in a good temper, and it takes considerable rough treatment to make you lose your poise, dignity or reason. You are very fond of reading and are particularly fond of nature studies biographies and detective stories. You are very fond of music, and have an especial liking for the stringed instruments.

The complaints incident to Gemini people are affections of the bladder and excretory system, fevers and poisonings. Foreigners are your enemies.

JERUSALEM, June 9 (C.P.)—The correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company learned yesterday that one Hebrew and two Arab newspapers had been suspended by the Government. No reason was given but it was understood that the papers were suspended because of printing inflammatory articles.

APRIL ESCAPADES

By KATHLEEN NORRIS

CHAPTER XXXI.

A light sweet spring rain was falling, next morning, but for Mary Kate the sun of no remembered April had ever shone so bright. The sun was behind the rain anyway, burning and sparkling through it, the acacia trees in people's gardens, and the lilacs at the florist's all sent sweetness into the warm air, and the streets flashed and shone, and were full of good-natured persons in new mackintoshes.

It was a pretty rain, not a deluge with a wind sweeping it about, and gutters running coffee, and umbrellas crashing against each other, but just a sifting of drops not much heavier than mist, through the air, making the green grass spectacularly green, and beading the first of the year's flowers with thousands of trembling little pearls.

Mary Kate had a blue and green plaid raincoat, and a cap to match, Mart had given them to her for Christmas. So she did not even have to carry an umbrella, and reached the office with her face washed rosily and her copper-wire hair curled all about her brow and ears, in a hundred little rebel tendrils.

The office seemed attractive, somehow, as she hung up her things, and settled down to her morning's work. The place was in speckless order, radiator clanking, telephones and typewriters in perfect array, brightness of oak wood and flashing nickel and brass on all sides. And the big windows that looked out over all the city were beaded with rain.

She stood at a window, loving it all, the hotels at the top of California Street hill, and the cable cars gonging and rattling, and the little creeping beetles that were motor-cars, slipping and passing each other, in the streets. The traffic in Chinatown was in a hopeless jumble as usual. Ferryboats, under a low gray sky, cut long gray wakes in a level gray bay. The smoke from a coffee roasting establishment rose while in the air, and sank again, and clung to the roofs of the buildings.

This was at nine. At ten o'clock she could hardly breathe, and before eleven felt fairly ill with expectation and suspense. Her hands were cold, her cheeks burning, and she kept swallowing with a dry mouth. With her utmost effort she could not keep her mind upon what she was supposedly doing.

The younger Delaney was talking to her seriously about the insurance on a new garage on the Bakersfield place. He thought there should be some insurance on it, and would take it up with Mr. Rountree. Insurance was very heavy on a garage, and at the same time—

"Will you incorporate that in a memoranda,' and give it to me before twelve o'clock?"

What on earth was the man talking about? Ten minutes past eleven. Her mouth was salty, her heart beat as if it would tear her to pieces.

Sitting at her typewriter, with her back to the room she heard his quiet voice behind her, and the whole world split into pieces, and shook, and wheeled.

"Will you do that then, Gordy? You're awfully decent—"

Chris's voice. She had to turn. But he was not looking her way. He stood, very tall and broad, only a few feet away from her, wearing an old tan raincoat that was spattered with just as much rain as would fall on a man who had hurried from a taxi to a building's street door.

"Good morning," he said, coming around to face her. Their eyes did not meet.

"Oh, good morning."

"All set?"

"Oh, is it already—" Hypocritically, she looked at the office clock. "It's after twelve!" she exclaimed.

"How 'bout it?"

"Two minutes." And suddenly quite sobered and restored to reason, she was putting on her hat and raincoat. The agonies of expectation were over, here was reality, the perfectly simple reality of going out to lunch with a certain young man. The dream come true was somehow much, much less than the dream had been.

Out in the street, his umbrella over her, and the bright drizzle still falling, he paused at a florist's window.

"Flowers?"

They went in. And the richly scented damp atmosphere that to Mary Kate was associated only with funerals, met them with a rush.

"What do you want? Let us see the orchids—"

"Oh, no, the violets! I like them a thousand times better—"

"Shall we go up to the Fairmont Hotel? We've got to talk."

The animation of affairs in common thrilled her, her face was radiant.

"But we don't need a taxi!" she protested, at the curb. "The California Street car goes right to the corner."

"Oh, for Heaven' sake—" he said patiently. And the magic began to work again, and her senses to swim.

They went up the hill in the taxi with only monosyllabic comments on the weather and the traffic, and were presently in the great wide acacia-scented foyer of the hotel. Walking straight through the building to the big dining-room at the back, they were placed at a little table by a window that looked down across wet shining roofs, and the long line of the ferry buildings and the piers, to the gray waters of the bay.

The magic—the magic—the magic. Musicians began to play an old-fashioned German waltz, Mary Kate knew it, played it indeed. She told Chris it was The Jolly Fellow's Waltz. Her violets diffused their exquisite sharp, pure note of perfume into the fresh, warmed air. The bright rain sifted down softly, incessantly, over the world below the windows, the Berkeley hills were completely blotted out, the little naval training island of Yerba Buena was only a deeper gray block in a study of paler grays.

Chris brushed aside the dollar table d'hote, he wanted a special clam broth, "that Mr. Rountree had ordered one day," and sand dabs, and alligator pear salad, and coffee. He asked Mary Kate if she wanted any dessert, and she answered surprisedly that yes, she want ed Nesselrode pudding, if they had it, and if not, meringue glace. She looked at him, surprised in her turn when he laughed.

"You seem such a kid, in that blue jacket's hat effect, with your hair all fuzzed up, and your ice cream!" he said.

"But goodness knows," he added presently, "we haven't got anything to laugh at. This thing has become darned serious. I don't know what we're going to do about it—I don't know whether I can sail on Sunday or not."

"That doesn't make me mad!" Mary Kate assured him serenely.

He paid no attention to the little pleasantry, and she felt snubbed.

"Here's the situation," he said, while the girl asked herself dreamily if she were really looking at that long, brown, clever, sunburned hand again, if she were really seeing his gray eyes contract and frown, as he spoke, if the voice she was hearing were really Chris Steynes' voice?

"I don't want to bring charges against this feller—" Chris began again, discontentedly, and stopped.

"Bring charges?"

"Against Moody."

"The burglar! Oh, yes! Oh, no!" stammered Mary Kate.

"I want to get away," Chris said. "I certainly don't propose to hang around here indefinitely, waiting for him to get well, so that I can send him to jail."

"He's going to get well?"

"Oh, yes. It was only a flesh wound, the bullet went right through him, under his arm, and grazed a rib. They've got him all packed, he'll have to wear a sling for awhile, but that's all."

"Chris, what a blessing!"

"Yes, that part of it is. But here's the catch. You see, I'm willing not to press charges, and Gordy could frame it all up that he was a friend of ours—he really is a decent sort of fellow—and that he was drunk, and have the whole thing quashed—"

"But wouldn't that be far, far the best thing to do?" she broke in eagerly, as he paused. "We don't want revenge! We don't want him punished—"

Chris was looking at her curiously.

"You mean because you're going to get married, and I'm going to China, we want the whole thing kept quiet?" he asked, in that reflective, poised, easy tone that always impressed her, that always reminded her that Chris was preeminently a man of the world.

Mary Kate collapsed, suddenly. The glow faded out of her, and her own expression became a little strained and strange.

"Well, yes. Isn't it?" she asked flatly.

"I mean you are going to get married, Mary?"

The voice seemed to cut into the very vitals of her being, as did his quiet glance, over a cigarette.

"I suppose so—" she answered, a little thickly.

"Well," he went on, returning abruptly to the original topic, after a pause in which the tell-tale red crept slowly up into her face, and her honest eyes never left his. "Well, the point is that this Moody wants us to prosecute."

Uncommon Sense

By John Blake

WE ARE LEARNING.

As I write I can hear far over my head the hum of a giant airplane on its regular morning trip from New York City to Boston.

If I am still in this place in the afternoon I shall hear another of the same kind making the same voyage.

Two great planes each day make regular trips, no matter what is the weather or the season.

These liners of the air are more important and of more value to mankind than are all the bombers and observation planes ever built for war.

They are the pioneers of a system of air transportation that soon—perhaps in twenty years, perhaps in three or four years—will be extended all over the world, linking nations more closely together than was ever possible with any means of transportation, from the old canoe down through horse-drawn vehicles to the great day of steam.

The object of war is peace.

The objective of every nation engaged in a war is to secure peace.

And the airplane will prove the greatest peace agency that man has ever invented, hence its superiority over the fighting plane.

Wars spring up readily, in these days, between alien peoples.

With the multiplication of air vehicles there will soon be no alien peoples.

The plane I just heard—its sound has long since died away in the east—covers the two hundred and fifty odd miles between New York and Boston in something less than two hours.

Greater planes will soon be flying the ocean at the same or greater speed.

As airplanes multiply, and as they are improved, fares will become cheaper, till international travel will be far more general than it is to-day.

That is going to promote international understanding—an understanding not only between the leaders of nations but between the people of the nations.

And therein lies the final cure for the disease of war.

We are getting so accustomed to these every-day miracles that we think about them too little.

I remember when the lower end of New York was crowded with people to watch Wilbur Wright make his first flight over Governor's Island—the first flight that any great number of people had ever witnessed.

To-day airplanes in the sky are common, and only now and then do those in the streets lift their eyes to watch them.

But there above is a promise like that of the rainbow—a promise, however, which can only be fulfilled if we realize what it means and help all we can toward the great fight for the conquest of the air.

GANGTSERS ARE BEING PICKED OFF IN CHICAGO WAR

Some of the Worst Leaders of Gangland Are Missing.

REFUSE TO TALK.

Body of One Is Found in Canal While Another Dies at Service Station.

CHICAGO, Ills., June 10 (C.P.)—Russell, alias Frank, Thompson, often called "The Armorer of Gangland" drove into a new Milford filling station Sunday, weak from a bullet wound near the heart.

He would not talk, although physicians said the wound might cause his death. When Sheriff Harry Baldwin of Winnebago county asked who had shot him, Thompson's only answer was "I won't talk. You ought to be smart enough to know I won't talk."

The attack upon Thompson, discovery of the body of Eugene (Red) McLaughlin — one of gangland's toughest characters—and the statement of officers that George (Bugs) Moran and several other important names in the gang world are missing and presumably slain, were weekend developments in the gang war revival.

Supplied Machine Guns

Thompson was questioned at length during the early investigation of the Moran gang massacre of Valentine's Day, 1929. Police said he supplied the machine guns used in the massacre as well as other gang attacks.

Driving into the filling station last night, Thompson stumbled out of the car and collapsed after telling the station attendant: "I am dying. Get a doctor."

The discovery of Eugene (Red) McLaughlin's body in the drainage canal Saturday was another instance of the effort gangster killers are making to dispose of the bodies of their victims. McLaughlin's body had been weighted with iron.

McLaughlin has been living not far from here only a short time ago, a man was shot down and his body spirited away. Police believe McLaughlin may have been that man.

Half a dozen gangsters, most of them well-known are missing and, perhaps, dead. Ist Roche, special investigator for the state's attorney, believes all have been taken on gangland's "one way ride."

George (Bugs) Moran himself is one of the number. Some detectives believe he is hiding; others believe he "got careless" and was slain.

FLIERS GET SILVER MEDAL

ROME, June 9 (C.P.)—Major Umberto Maddalena and Lieutenant Fausto Cecconi yesterday were granted the silver medal for aeronautical bravery.

COMMENT OF MORNING STOCK MARKET OVER BIGGAR AND CRAWFORD WIRE.

With a heavy volume of selling, prices held well on the Toronto Exchange, to-day, with the exception of Int. Nickel which was the leader in activity and lost three points to a low of $25¼ and later in the day breaking to $25. Rallying tendencies set in around noon which carried Nickel up to $26¼. Brazilian Traction moved up from $43½ to $44½. Walkers and the oils showed fractional losses only.

Under heavy volume New York had several ups and downs this morning. Monday's declines brought industrials down to prices below those of the May reaction. This success of the bear crowd caused increased pessimism and stocks were again heavily sold in early dealings. However, liquidation was well absorbed and prices held in most lines while some stocks showed gains over last night's closing prices.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, June 10 (C.P.)—The Cosmopolitan Bank and Trust Company was closed to-day by O. C. Gray, State Superintendent of Banks, after a shortage of from $575,000 to $590,000 was found in the bank accounts of the Henry L. Doherty Company, Cincinnati branch.

FIRES AGAIN DANGEROUS

TORONTO, Ont., June 10. (C.P.)—After several days of comparative freedom from forest fire, northwestern Ontario from Port Arthur west to the Manitoba boundary, again is faced with the menace of bush fires, according to reports to the forestry branch of the Ontario government.

Lack of rain in the northwest has made the bush and timber very dry and fires regarded as under control now threaten to spread.

MARKET WEAKNESS CONTINUES TO-DAY

Higher-priced Golds Display the Best Strength of Any Group.

TORONTO, Ont., June 10. (C.P.)—Accompanied by an increase in volume, the weakness that came into late trading on the Standard Stock and Mining Exchange was continued to-day.

International Nickel and Noranda moved lower, the latter setting a new low mark for the year at 25.15, where it was off 90 on the day, and 5 below the previous year's low. Nickel was off about 50, at 25¾. Hudson Bay lost 25.

Lindsleys declined slightly.

Higher-priced golds displayed the best strength of any group, Lake Shore rising 20, Hollingers 10, and Dome and Teck Hughes 5 each. McIntyre was unchanged at 18.50.

Oils were irregularly lower.

No Wheat Demand On Chicago Curb

CHICAGO, Ills., June 10. (C.P.)—Affected by stock market setbacks, wheat values showed an early downward trend to-day. Demand for wheat lacked volume, and for at least the time being traders showed a disposition to consider the influence of reports of continued lack of moisture in spring wheat sections as having been discounted. Opening 14-¾ cents off; wheat later underwent additional declines. Corn, oats and provisions were also easy, with corn starting unchanged to ¼c lower, and subsequently sagging all around.

NICKEL DROPS TO LOW MARK

Reaction of Monday Continues During This Morning's Trading on Toronto Exchange.

FORD LESS AFFECTED.

TORONTO, Ont., June 10. (C.P.)—Nickel found another new low for the year on Toronto Stock Exchange to-day. The reaction of yesterday continued over when the market opened this morning. Nickel at one time, was down 3 points from last night and at 25¼ was below any previous price this year.

Brazilian and Ford, were less affected to-day and, were able to hold around their previous closing levels. The oils, however, gave way as liquidation kept throughout the morning with losses extending from fraction to nearly two points. Dominion Stores, Massey-Harris, Cockshutt Plow, Service Stations, City Dairy were off approximately one point each.

MINING MARKET REMAINS DULL

Nickel and Noranda Centres of Copper Production Storm.

POOLS LETTING UP.

TORONTO, June 10. (Special to Examiner.)—Wet weather kept the shriners off the streets this morning and drove clients back into the board rooms. The market was a hangover from that of Monday with prices soft and following New York. The Wall Street ticker was well behind the transactions on the floor in the first couple of hours and this resulted in some confusion to those who were watching International Nickel and Noranda.

For the want of something better to do, one group in a local boardroom were discussing the market and the outlook for the future. The consensus of opinion was that the gold stocks were in the best position to-day and that the proposed increases in tonnage would permit of many of the producers having a better year in 1930 than for some time.

This same group thought the copper situation would work out satisfactorily, given time, and that the autumn would see the shares of such companies reflecting improvement in the market. International Nickel and Noranda. As the leading producers were the storm centres. Noranda's ability to meet the dividend of $2 was upheld on the basis of official estimates of earnings published last month with the offering of the bonds of the Canadian Copper Refineries. The expected increase in smelter production of approximately 500 tons a day scheduled to take place in a few months time is expected to help matters.

Copper Production.

A debate as to the marketing of copper production by International Nickel petered out when one present pointed to the official statement that copper would only be mined as consumption of nickel warranted. International Nickel is first a nickel mine and operations will be carried on with a view to meeting the demand for this metal.

An extremely interesting piece of gossip coming over the wires from New York to-day, had to do with the capital structure of International Nickle. If it to be believed, Nickel is planning to retire the preferred stock outstanding either by cash settlement or an exchange of the senior issue for ordinary stock. Ordinary stockholders will also be given an opportunity for the purchase of additional shares at a price below the market so the story goes.

Close followers of the mining market seen in yesterday's decline of some of the more recent favorites a letting up of pool operations. It is said the crowds working for higher prices in certain issues are making time and not trying to buck the slump occasioned by the reaction in New York.

Jack Hammell's return from Europe is waited eagerly for the issuing of an official report on operations at Howey. Mr. Hammell who has been away for weeks, was expected to cross the threshold of his office for the first time to-day, but has fooled the boys, and according to the latest information, will not be back until Monday at the earliest.

The state of the market has delayed the mooted rise in one or two of the western oils. Forces working for the advance realize the present is a good time to let the market take care of itself. One group found too much stock offered for their liking and immediately pulled away.

Falconbridge officials have received no definite word of the drilling of the latest hole, but believe it has been completed by now. The drill hole, which cut 4½ feet of ore at 2,000 foot level, is being extended from the 1,000 to the 2,000 foot level in the hope that the ore encountered at the lower level is an offshoot of a main vein.

Q.—What is your opinion of the standing of the Company whose balance sheet is shown below. What are its strong and weak points?

Balance Sheet of a Typical Industrial Company.

CAPITAL ASSETS.

Property and plant, real estate, etc	$41,167,874
Sinking fund	34,177
Investments	19,212,072
Other assets	373,544

Total Capital Assets	$65,779,934

CURRENT ASSETS.

Cash	8,918,555
Cash on deposit for redemption of mature certificates, etc	92,256
Notes Receivable	3,473,877
Accounts receivable	25,676,959
Inventories (materials, supplies, goods on Consignment, etc.)	60,548,533
Total Current Assets	198,710,180
Deferred Assets	224,264
Total Assets	$164,714,378

Contingent Liability, Temporary Guarantee of $112,000 to Company.

LIABILITIES.

Capital—
Funded Debt	$6,396,000
Long Term Notes (10 yrs. to run)	52,500
Short Term Notes (1 yr. to run)	15,000,000
Real Estate Purchase Money Mortgage	175,000
Reserve (for adjustment of inventories, accounts receivable, etc	3,555,267
Total fixed liabilities	$25,178,776

CURRENT LIABILITIES

Accounts payable	$8,016,098
Notes payable	15,133,551
Accrued interest, taxes, royalties, etc	3,142,206
Dividend due on Preferred stock, April 1	69,977

Total Current Liabilities	$38,318,257

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS.

Preferred Stock	$3,998,700
Common Stock	70,813,950
Profit and Loss Surplus	26,404,695
Total Capital and Surplus	101,217,345
Total Liabilities	$164,714,378

The first thing to be considered in the balance sheet under question is the company's liabilities and what it has with which to meet them. In this particular case the asset ratio is good. Current assets are over 2¾ times current liabilities. Cash represents between 20% and 25% of current liabilities which is quite favorable. The ratio of cash to total current assets is approximately 9 per cent. There is over $50,000,000 of a working capital which is quite sufficient.

The property values bear a favorable proportion to the fixed liabilities being over 1½ times the required amount. There is ample cash on hand to insure the payment of interest on the funded debt and on the preferred stock outstanding. The company appears to have plenty of cash to meet all its obligations to note holders and also be in a position to take advantage of any opportunities that may arise. The funded debt is quite small which is desirable.

Of course there are considerations which must be mentioned before passing judgment on such a balance sheet. Inventories are quite large and if the company is manufacturing specialty articles or luxuries, in case of a forced sale, it would realize but a small proportion of this amount. This company should preferably be one that could liquidate its sales rapidly. Is this stock apt to fluctuate quickly in value? Are prices apt to rise or fall? It may be a company that requires a large stock, perhaps largely due to work under construction. If so, this should be taken into consideration.

The balance sheet of this company should be compared with the balance sheets of other companies of a similar nature and size. Then it should be compared with balance sheets of the same company for at least three years previous This is necessary to determine whether the company is exercising conservative accounting practices or not. They usually go to one extreme or the other.

The excess of stocks, bonds and notes over permanent assets is over $34,000,000 but the excess of current assets over current liabilities is a much greater figure at $60,000,000 approximately.

One disadvantage is the contingent liability, but as this is a comparatively small amount we can neglect it.

This company would appear to be on a solid financial basis and in a healthy condition as far as can be judged by the known facts.

In the meantime, before the meeting of the Board of Education on Thursday night if the management committee who had recommended the dismissal of Mr. Kelly will meet again and bring in a new recommendation which will likely settle the entire controversy.

WALL STREET LIST FIRMS AFTER WEAK MARKET OPENING

Recuperative Power to Encourage Drive Against Bear Faction Lacking.

NEWS UNSATISFACTORY.

NEW YORK, N.Y., June 10. (A.P.)—The stock market appeared stunned to-day from the severe blow received late yesterday. Price trends fluctuated uncertainly. A milk rally in the morning attracted renewed selling around mid-day, but the list again firmed up in the early afternoon. Trading was in large volume, with the ticker substantially behind the market.

The action of the market was in the main confusing and unsatisfactory to all interests, save perhaps shorts who were willing to cover at these levels. The market did not show sufficient recuperative power to encourage any drive against the bear faction, and traders who bought at the low levels in expectation of a sharp technical rally met with only limited success. Bears, on the other hand, were not very successful in depressing the list further.

Corporate and business news, was unsatisfactory. Houdaille Hershey cut its dividen rate from $2 annually to $1.20 and Durham duplex omitted the payments due at this time. American Radiator and U.S. Radiator reduced their price schedules, and the recent advance from 4.50 to 4.60 cents a pound, made by several sugar refineries was cancelled.

Such shares as American Can, Allied Chemical, Loews, Eastman, Johns Manville, American Tobacco "B", Byers, Electric Auto Lite and Radio Keith, gained 3 to 5 points in the early afternoon rally, and U.S. Steel, General Electric, American Can, Chesapeake and Ohio, Colorado Fuel and Macy moved up 2 or more. During the selling around mid-day, Westinghouse Electric, Goodrich, Dupont, United Aircraft, Radio, North American and American Telephone lost 2 to 6 points. Shares selling at new lows for the year, included International Nickel, International Telephone, Atchison, Baltimore and Ohio, Bethlehem Steel, Studebaker, Warner Bros., and Alleghany Corp.

DESTRUCTION OI' WOLVES

OTTAWA, Ont., June 10. (C.P.)—A novel means for the humane destruction of wolves is brought forward by a resident of Ottawa. In a letter to the Ottawa Humane Society he suggests that glass vials filled with prussic acid be placed in meat with which wolf traps are baited. Thus the prowler, consuming the meat, would die immediately and painlessly in place of being left to expire slowly and in agony.

HELPED TO TRACE EIGHT ROBBERS

MEN NOW IN PRISON.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, June 10.—Alfred Lingle, Chicago Tribune reporter who was slain yesterday in Chicago, came to Cleveland last April 6, as a personal representative of Arthur W. Cutten, Chicago multi-millionaire, to identify for him Simon Rosenberg, one of a gang of nine robbers who raided Cutten's home in 1922.

Rosenberg was returned to Chicago to face charges. He had hidden-out in Cleveland several years, he said.

Tracked Eight Robbers

CHICAGO, June 10—(C.P.)—Lingle was instrumental in tracking down eight robbers over a period of as many years for Arthur Cutten, prominent grain trader and personal friend. This circumstance held place today in a multitude of theories on motives for the reporter's slaying.

The Cutten home in Downers Grove was invaded by nine robbers eight years ago. After looting the place they left Cutten locked in a vault to suffocate. He was rescued by a houseman who had wriggled free from bonds.

Mr. Cutten vowed to spare neither time nor expense to bring justice to the robbers. He sought the aid of Lingle who was credited with the work which eventually landed eight of the criminals in prison. The ninth was expected to be captured shortly. years ago. After looting the place

FINANCIAL NEWS AND BRIEFS

SPECIAL SERVICE TO THE EXAMINER

Barcelona Traction, Light and Power Company, Limited, directors have declared a dividend of fifty cents share on the new ordinary shares of no par value. This is the first dividend declared since the simplification of the share capital and is especially significant since the directors state it is the intention, provided the situation of the company justifies it, to make such a payment three times a year. In February, June and October. Thus the new stock is placed on an annual dividend basis of $1.50 share, which represents an increase for holders of both the former preferred and ordinary shares. Last year there was paid a dividend of one per cent on the ordinary shares of $50 par value and as the preference stock was entitled to the fixed dividend of 7 per cent plus an additional dividend at the same rate per cent as paid on the ordinary shares, the total dividend on the preferred stock was raised to 8 per cent or $8 share. Preferred stock was exchanged into common on the basis of six common for each preferred. Thus the dividend of $1.50 year on the common is the equivalent of $9 share on the old preferred. Dividend of one per cent on the old ordinary shares of $50 par was equal to 50 cents share. Since these shares were exchanged for the new common share for share, the dividend on the ordinary has been raised from 50 cents to $1.50. There were outstanding 251,934 shares of preferred at and 287,250 shares of 50% par value ordinary stock. On the basis of exchange there will now be out standing 1,798,854 shares of no par value dividends requirements at the rate of $1.50 per annum amount to $2,698,281 while net revenue in 1929 was $2,903,037.

Service Stations Issue.

Public offering of one additional issue of $2,000,000 Service Stations, Limited, per cent cumulative convertible redeemable preference stock at $101.50 to yield 5.91 per cent has been made by A. E. Ames and Co. In a letter setting forth the position of the company, President A. L. Ellsworth, estimates earnings for the year ending December 31, 1930, will exceed $1,600,000. The company, therefore, does not expect to be greatly affected by general adverse conditions due to business depression as this figure represents a substantial increase over the $1,337,393 reported for the year 1939 and is more than twice the amount of the yearly average for five years of $719,620. A pro forma balance sheet giving effect to the issue has been drawn up bases on the figures as of December 31, 1929. The new money would increase the current assets from $5,347,757 to $6,298,941, cash being up from $410,276 to $1,361,460. On the liabilities side, bank loans of $978,815 have been cleared, reducing current liabilities from $2,002,583 to $1,028,767 and increasing net working capital from $3,345,174 to $5,270,174.

What Will be New Low?

Close students of the stock markets are talking much of resistance points and wondering when and where the low level will be reached that will mark the return. The first resistance point was set in the crash of last fall and a second early in May of this year. In the late days of May and early days of June, the price level kept above the latest point only to break through in the reaction of Monday.

Thus the markets will have another resistance point to shoot at when the present downward trend is completed and the market takes a turn for the better. The May reaction was considered quite severe and sufficient to establish a resistance point for the balance of the year, but what has happened this week has upset this idea altogether. Brokers say Canadian stocks are selling at bargain price, but will not say that the market will not go lower. About the only advice handed out is that investors purchasing stocks for a long hold have nothing to fear.

Market Gloomy To-day.

While there was nothing distressing in the news of the morning, the market was a gloomy picture to-day. As yesterday. "Bears" are in control and they are taking full advantage of the situation. In some quarters it was thought that a rally would follow publication of the U.S. Steel statistics at noon to-day, but any rally is more likely to be in the nature of a check to the continued decline rather than a definite upturn. Overselling will bring in its owake a corrective process, with adjustments upward of prices but the present reaction had been predicted weeks ago and, coming as it has on the heels of the slowest trading of of the year, is not likely to induce widespread buying. The present affords an opportunity for the discriminating investor to pick up good stocks at reasonable prices for the long pull, but the nervous investor or the dabbler for quick profits, is not going to be tempted until the market takes on a brighter complexion.

The Polish police said that the man, whose name was given as Michael Naumoff, jumped from the train and tried to throw himself on the rails. Prevented from doing this he inflicted light wounds upon himself with a small knife.

He has asked the Polish authorities for permission to remain in Poland or to return to France.

don't think you should deal with them in a severe manner. Penner had the least to do with the whole thing. These lads accepted the responsibility of this matter.

Used As a Catspaw

Friendship, loyalty and chivalry got Leslie Penner into his present position, pointed out Mr. Greer for Penner. "He was trying to help these other lads. It was almost a chivalrous thing to do. It was a boy friend's loyalty, hoping and praying that the morrow would bring relief, he allowed himself to be used as a catspaw.

"He comes from an irreproachable family. His father is a farmer in Grey county. He came to the city with a high tratning and honest, and I have here letters from many family friends who give him a character reference. His father is a hard-working man and this is the first disgraceful trouble brought on the family", counsel read letter of high commendation from W. B. Middleboro, Mr. Duncan, former M.P.'s and B. A. "Penner became involved after one of the others had played the market. He lent his assistance to cover up, but without hope for reward. Penner did not get one cent out of this".

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

FARMERS' PARTY BEEN IN POWER FOR TEN YEARS

Very Heavy Balloting is Indicated in Alberta Provincial Election.

VOTE JUNE 19

Both Liberal and Conservative Groups Boast New Leaders.

EDMONTON, Alta., June 10 (C.P.)—Rulers of Alberta for almost a decade, the United Farmers' Party takes to the field of political battle June 19 in quest of renewed allegiance. In the provincial fray no quarter will be asked or given as followers of Premier J. E. Brownlee struggle to hold their throne. Acclamations will be rare in the joust for ballots.

Premier Mrownlee himself demands unreserved approval from the voters; he is no disciple of the creed that a strong opposition brings better government. In campaign speeches he has contended that the Farmer Party's power—holding 43 of 60 legislature seats—has contributed toward the government's ability to protect and serve the province.

But Liberal, Conservative, Labor and other groups have rallied to the fight, with lists of candidates which aggregate almost double the Farmer Party's total. The Communist Party has made its appearance in the provincial field as one of the minor groups seeking representation; at least three candidates will carry the red banner.

60 Seats at Dissolution

United Farmers	43
Liberals	7
Conservatives	6
Total	60

The next Legislature offers seats to 63 members, due to a re-distribution of representation at the last session. Calgary and Edmonton, the province's only multi-member ridings, each alter their number of representatives from five to six. In addition, rural constituencies are shifted with the resulting increase in out-of-town seats by one.

Both Liberal and Conservative groups boast newly-appointed leaders. A. A. McGillivray, former Conservative chieftain, gave way late in 1929 to D. M. Duggan, former Mayor of Edmonton. Early this year J. T. Shaw handed over the Liberal leadership to Mayor J. W. McDonald of MacLeod. Mr. McDonald had never served in the Legislature, but Mr. Duggan has been a member since 1926.

Joined Party in 1921

Mr. Brownlee made his appearance in the Farmer Party in 1921 when he was selected as attorney-general in the first U.F.A. cabinet after Hon. Herbert Greenfield's new-formed party put an end to sixteen years of Liberal administration. After Mr. Greenfield's retirement, before the 1926 election—the second triumph of the Farmer Party—Mr. Brownlee was named Premier.

Though the United Farmers' political organization claims independence of the widespread co-operative body, United Farmers of Alberta, the two movements are linked by kindred feeling. Before becoming Premier, Mr. Brownlee was a Calgary lawyer associated with the Alberta Wheat Pool, a direct offshoot of the United Farmers of Alberta economic unit.

Every member of the Brownlee Cabinet is seeking re-election. The Premier will run again in Ponoka; Hon. George Headley, Minister of Health and Agriculture, is contesting High River-Okotoks; Hon. J. F. Lymburn, Attorney-General, asks re-election for Edmonton; Hon. R. G. Reid, Provincial Treasurer, for Vermilion; Hon. O. L. McPherson, Minister of Public Works, for Little Bow; Hon. Perren E. Baker, Minister of Education for Cypress; Hon. V. W. Smith, Minister of Railways, for Camrose; Hon. Irene Parlby, Minister without portfolio, for Lacombe.

43 Seats in Last House

An extra touch of speculation is added to the campaign by the fact that membership in the cities, where proportional representation governs balloting, is now increased. It is pointed out that while the Farmers' Party obtained 43 out of 60 seats in the 1926 election, they polled but 71,967 out of a total of 175,137 votes.

In seeking return to power the government party refers to its record in obtaining control of the natural resources, in rehabilitating the provincial telephone system, and in disposing of the government-owned northern Alberta railways. Opposition charges claim the government has been extravagant, has increased unduly the provincial debt, and represents a group rather than the province as a whole.

Workman Injured

Elgin Jackman who was operating the stone crusher at McKeowan's 12th line, Rawdon, met with a very serious accident which might have caused instant death. He was feeding the crusher and raising a sledge hammer to break some of the larger stones. The sledge came off the handle and droppd into the machine. Mr. Jackman looked into the crusher for an instant and then turned his head toward the engineer to stop the machine. At this moment the iron rebounded from the crusher and in its course struck Mr. Jackman on the side of the jaw and face. Bebe Daniels tells you how to be CAPTIVATING

"HOW to be captivating?" Bebe Daniels smiled a deprecating little smile as she considered my question. But when she began to speak her appealingly beautiful brown eyes were thoughtful.

And then I learned this lovely actress feels emphatically there's one thing has more to do with a girl's attractiveness than any other charm—a beautiful skin—clear, soft, smooth.

How alluring in any girl! How sure to win admiration! And to the screen star, Bebe Daniels earnestly explained, a skin of breath-taking loveliness is really essential!

"Only the girl with smooth skin," she said, "need not fear the relentless eye of the camera. For even the cleverest make-up will not suffice under the searching lens of the close-up.

"That is why," she went on seriously, "many girls lacking great beauty but possessing lovely skin have passed, on the road to fame, the woman with perfect features.

"Lux Toilet Soap is wonderful for keeping the skin smooth and lovely."

9 Out of 10 Screen Stars Use Lux Toilet Soap

Of the 521 important actresses in Hollywood, including all stars, 511 are devoted to Lux Toilet Soap.

On Broadway the stars of the outstanding stage successes, too, use it. And now the European screen stars—in France, in England, in Germany—have adopted it. You will be just as delighted with it as they. Order several cakes—today.

OFFICIAL SPEAKS AT TRENT RIVER

GOOD PROGRAM.

(Examiner Correspondence)

TRENT RIVER, June 9.—A special meeting of the Women's Institute was held on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. Wright, Cedar Isle, to hear Miss Aletta Smith, of Glanford, a delegate sent by the Government.

Mrs. George Brooks, president occupied the chair and introduced the speaker for the afternoon.

Miss Smith chose two subjects, The Homemaker's Task and The Four Square Institute. In speaking on the Ideal Homemaker, she referred to the responsibility, physical fitness, standard of health having air, water sunshine, exercise good and rest. The appearance of the Ideal Home maker as to neatness and beauty is acquired by self development, never by imitation. Table conversation should be uplifting—life is a school, if small town gossip does not start in the home it would never affect the community.

Interior decorating of the home as the plans for the living room, eliminate non-essentials, as they have a choked effect. Simplicity—dare to be simple and we will grow. Books music and art, all these should be encouraged. More should be spent on the bedrooms as they are used for prayer, meditation and rest and should be comfortably furnished. Take time to be careful. Hospitality in an Ideal Hostess is to be natural—simplicity charm and kindliness. Hospitality calls for all the virtues the human mind can boast and requires sacrifice."

Mrs. Thoms Doupe favored the gathering with a solo, "He's Always Eating Biscuits in the Bed." Miss Smith resumed her address by using her second subject, "The Four Square Intitute. "Home and country comes first, homes of community with talent, resources and needs. Wholesome reading for the home—Teaching girls and boys to earn, spend, give and save systematically." The speaker gave a number of ideas for roll call answers. Miss Smith closed her address by referring to the standard of conduct, high ideals. "You get out of life what you put into it but you get it back many fold."

Mrs. Brooks moved a vote of thanks to Miss Smith for the very helpful talk and also to Mrs. Wright for the opening of her home for the occasion. Miss Smith favored the company with a solo, "O Promise Me", followed by a second vocal number by Mrs. Doupe. Miss Bessie G. French playing the accompaniments for the solo and also for the community singing.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting. The regular business meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. G. Ellis on Thursday.

SIMMONS LOSES IN PRIMARY FIGHT

OLDEST IN SERVICE.

WASHINGTON, D.C., June 9.—(C. P.)—The defeat of Senator Furnifold M. Simmons for renomination in the North Carolina Democratic primary was the subject of much discussion in Washington today with many citing his opposition to the Presidential candidacy of Alfred E. Smith as the principal cause of his downfall.

These pointed out that Simmons' victorious opponent, Josiah M. Blairley, entered the contest with the avowed purpose of "punishing" the Senator for deserting the party in 1928 and this formed a major issue in the campaign.

Simmons' defeat came after the thirty years of party leadership in his State, during which time he was a power also in the National Councils of his party. In his retirement, the Senate will lose its oldest member in point of both years and service.

Astonishing Guns Shoot Food to Eat

HERE are wheat and rice grains shot from guns! To give them a new deliciousness ... a more perfect digestibility.

First the choice, plump grains are sealed in guns. Then revolved in fiery ovens. Then fired. This causes 125 million explosions in every grain. It blasts open every tiny food cell. Thus every particle of the grain is made as completely digestible as though it had been cooked for hours. And so Puffed Wheat and Puffed Rice attain the virtual nourishment of hot cooked cereals.

And what new flavoriness ... what delicious, crisp crunchiness ... this wonderful invention brings to wheat and rice. The grains are puffed to 8 times normal size. They taste like sweet new nutmeats. They entice as grain foods never have before.

Serve Puffed Wheat and Puffed Rice every day in every way you can. Your family deserves this finer kind of nourishment. Your grocer has Puffed Wheat and Puffed Rice. The Quaker Oats Company.

Best Remedy On Earth For Old Leg Sores

Peterson's Ointment can justly be called the best because it's helped so many hundreds of grateful users to rid themselves of old sores and ulcers which they'd tried for years to banish.

This powerfully soothing and antiseptically healing Peterson's immediately stops itching and soreness the minute it's applied. The quickest and most certain healer—longest standing and most stubborn cases of pimples, eczema, rashes, piles and skin irritations generally vanish after just few days treatment.

A 5c box proves it. All druggistores.

Mrs. M. Klahuhu writes: "I had a place on my forehead which wouldn't heal — everyone told me there was no cure. I read about Peterson's Ointment so I bought a box and now my head is all healed and there's still some salve left in box. I can't speak well enough of Peterson's."

GARDENING HINTS

FLOWERS FOR THE SHADE.

It is often considered quite a difficult problem to brighten up shady corners particularly in those smaller gardens where all corners come in this category. But this should not cause any trouble because there are actually some plants which prefer shade or semi-shaded conditions. The tuberous rooted Begonias, for instance, will not do well unless they are grown in shady corners, such as under tree foliage. Among those flowers which are recommended for partial shade are Verbena, Phlox, Nicotine, Pansy, Marvel of Peru, Nemophila, Lupine, Larkspur, Godetia, Clarkia, Alyssum and Candytuft. Practically all of our annuals will hold their bloom longer and also their depth of color if they have a little light shade, particularly around noon hour when the sun's ray's are strongest.

WINTER BOUQUETS

Even in Canada gardening need not be confined to a summer hobby as one can extend the season practically the whole year round. To the person who has a supply of everlasting type flowers and some winter blooming bulbs for forcing the first killing frost which turns a garden of beauty into a drab, tangled mass of twisted blackened stems, the regret is less keen than with the neighbor not so blessed. There is a considerable list of flowers which produce blooms that can be dried and made into attractive bouquets for winter use. Chief among these is the Helichrysum or strawflowers. This is a hardy annual about two feet high, producing large different colored blooms until late in the season. Another one is the Rhodanthe which bears silvery rose-tinted flowers. The Statice comes in mauve, white and primrose and combinations of the three. A fourth is the Acroclinium, which may be had in a white or a bright rose. All these annuals in addition to their winter bouquet qualities will make a splendid show in the garden during the summer and early fall, as well. For preserving the flowers one should pick just before opening full and hang upside down, in a dark, warm place to dry. The Chinese Lantern plant is also grown for permanent indoor decoration as the pods turn red and puff up like Chinese Lanterns when dry.

TENDER VEGETABLES

Now that the weather is beginning to show signs of really warming up, we must think of getting in that last group of vegetables known as the tender sorts. Chief among these will be the squash types, such as marrows and summer squash, watermelon, citron, muskmelon and cucumbers. Botanists may consider these fruits but this column is not long enough to finish such an argument so we will let the heading above remain. These things can be planted up to the first week of July in most localities. The summer squash and marrows as well as cucumbers which come in about this time should be picked when about half grown, the flesh being more tender then than at any other time. This rule decidedly does not hold good for the melons, however, which must be ripe before any but the very small boys will dare tackle them. To determine whether they are ripe or not, simply press the end of the fruit with the thumb and, if it is a little soft, one can consume them safely. The soil for all of these plants should be warm well-drained well-watered and very rich. An old chip pile where some rotted manure has been dug in, and which is fairly drenched with sunlight, is the ideal location. Plant six seeds to a hill, three feet apart, and thin to four plants. This also is the proper time to plan lima beans which should give a fair crop if sown immediately. Lima needs richer soil than string beans and there must be plenty of humus to retain the moisture. Bush limas should be planted in hills eighteen inches apart, each way. Water well in dry weather with the nozzle off the hose. Soak, do not sprinkle and keep the water off the leaves. Egg plants should be set out now too and to lay their full quota which is not more than three or four full sized eggs to the plant they must be set in rich soil, but not too heavy, and have abundant moisture. Set them two feet apart in the row.

INSTRUCTIVE ADDRESS.

HAVELOCK, June 10.—(Examiner Correspondence).—Miss Aletha Smith of Glanford was the speaker at the meeting of the Havelock Women's Institute held in the Council Chamber on Wednesday, when a good turnout of the members and a number of visitors from the Belmont branch and Havelock Junior W. I. were present.

Miss Smith gave addresses on "The Homemaker's Task" and "Programs for Junior Institutes." The roll call was responded to by a favorite proverb. A number of communications were read and ordered filed, among these being one from the Department of Agriculture urging the advisability of Canadians using Canadian products and dealt in a special way with Canadian textiles. The communication read in part: "The instructors in the Institute branch have noted a tendency for purchasers to give preference to imported goods when in many instances better value would be secured by purchasing Canadian-made articles. May we suggest that the members of the Institutes when purchasing household supplies ask to be shown Canadian-produced goods and give preference to these products when equal value can be secured.

"We shall send to each of the presidents and secretaries of the Institutes a little later an article on 'Textile Research,' by Miss Powell, of Whitby, who is devoting a good deal of time to investigation of methods of manufacture and quality in Canadian products. This publication will be found of much interest and value to those who are desirous of informing themselves as to methods of determining quality and comparative values.

"We have placed in the hands of each of the lecturers at the summer series of meetings samples of household textiles, which will be found very interesting, and we trust that those who have an opportunity will examine these with a view to determining quality as well as comparing values for the prices listed."

Garment-Making Club.

At this time the president gave a brief address advising the members of the district convention and urged each member to be present. She also spoke of the garment-making club which is being planned for early fall, and stated that one lady had already offered to act as instructress and another who is willing if she can find time.

The following canvassers were appointed to interview the members regarding refreshments for the convention: East—Mesdames Wing, Armstrong, Watson end Wrightly; centre—Mesdames Davies and Jones; west—Mesdames B. Smith and W. J. Johnston.

It is expected there will be about 135 delegates to the convention and committees were appointed to make arrangements for serving lunch.

Asks Contribution.

E. Leeson, on behalf of the local Oddfellows, addressed the meeting, asking for a contribution to the fund for preparing Maple Grove Cemetery for Decoration Day, which is Sunday, June 22. After Mr. Leeson had retired the question was discussed, and as the Institute members have another project in view for the cemetery, it was decided not to make a contribution.

Mrs. A. Anderson asked the Institute to consider the purchase of a sun chair for an invalid, and on motion, it was decided to procure one, Mrs. Bedford and Mrs. Johnston to act in this matter.

The business being concluded, Mrs. L. Hagerman gave a demonstration of a home-made fireless cooker. Miss Smith was then called upon for her address, and in her opening remarks, expressed pleasure in being present. She introduced the first topic, "The Homemaker's Task," by quoting those familiar words, "It takes a heap of living in a house to make it home." After the talk by Miss Smith, the president, Mrs. Hubel, called on Mrs. Morrison, one of the first members of the Institute here. Mrs. Morrison has been absent for more than a year on account of illness, and the members were delighted to see her once more in their midst. Mrs. Morrison expressed herself as being delighted with the work the Institute is doing and pleasure at being present for the meeting.

The following were appointed convenors of standing committees for the year: Agriculture, Mrs. E. King; crippled children, Mrs. Bedford; health, Mrs. R. Jones; relief, Mrs. A. Anderson; visiting, Mrs. R. Sanderson; entertainment, Mrs. Davies, Mrs. B. Smith and Mrs. W. Johnston.

The afternoon was brought to a close by a social half hour at which a delightful lunch was served. The following were hostesses: Mesdames S. McQuigge, J. Griffiths, B. Vanaickle, W. Woodbeck, R. Wrightly, R. McCutcheon. Eleven new members were enrolled at this meeting.

There was an almost continual pain in my back, my kidneys bothered me day and night, I slept poorly and lost a lot of weight. Five bottles of Sargon overcame my indigestion, my kidneys seem entirely normal, the fainting spells are over and I sleep fine. That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

DANGER OF REDUCING IF NOT OVERWEIGHT.

In the first health talk I ever wrote which is some years ago now, I spoke of a overweight woman coming to me for advice as to the reduction of her weight.

Before I could say anything she told me frankly that I must not interfere with her diet as she loved to eat, I must not advice exercise as she hated exercise, and I must not lessen the numver of hours of her sleep, as she liked to lie in bed until noon everyday.

I told her that there were three ways of reducing safely, cutting down in food, increasing the exercise, and cutting down on hours of sleeping, and as she had reduced to do any ot the three, I could not help her.

And ever since I have been talking about the dangers and penalties of overweight.

However, I've been thinking lately, as I see the great interest in the different reducing methods, that many of my readers who are not really overweight, but who would like to lose weight, are making a great mistake in using some of the popular methods of weight reduction.

The big reduction is made of course by reducing the amount of starchy foods eaten—bread, potatoes, pastry, sweets.

Now the king of the organs of the body—the liver is the organ that is going to be affected by this reduction.

In the case of real overweight individuals it means less work for the liver and it can do its work of supplying starch to the body, purifying the blood, and storing up sugar within itself, without any trouble.

However, the point to remember is that the liver must have a certain amount of starches to supply the energy needs of the body, and it must have a certain amount to keep its own structure strong, because it is the largest organ in the body.

It gets its immediate supply for itself from the sugar that it has stored up within its walls.

When this gets all used up, tand there is not enough starchy foods being eaten to keep up this supply of sugar, then the liver itself begins to fail, and the individual with a poor liver will have very important jobs in his body very poorly done. He is going to be miserable and depressed.

Dr. P. F. Ricker of Berlin, advises that in these cases where the liver is beginning to fail that sugar be given and also insulin. He states that a very simple failing of the liver can go on into a very serious breakdown.

The point then is that individuals who are of the right weight and even five pounds over should not reduce because of the possible harmful effects upon the liver.

And to those who are greatly overweight and are reducing, taking a little sugar daily might be wise.

Members of Young's Point, Lakefield and Selwyn Institutes Gather at South Beach.

GOOD PROGRAM.

YOUNG'S POINT, June 7. (Examiner Correspondence)—The women of the Young's Point Institute and friends from Lakefield, Selwyn and Buckhorn enjoyed a picnic and sale of work at South Beach on Tuesday. The sale consisted of gifts of the members of the Institute and a patch work puilt which was drawn for by a lucky ticket, Miss Genevieve Armstrong, of Smith being the winner.

Mias Sexsmith, of Havelock, in a splendid address which she gave congratulated the women of Young's Point since forming the Institute. She also told what a help the Institute had proved to so many women in teaching them how to care for their families. And what a bond it surely was to those who really meant, "That a goodly thing it is to meet, in friendship's circle bright, where nothing mars the pleasure sweet, Nor dims the radient light. No unkind word our lips shall pass, No envy sour the wind, But each shall seek the common weal, The good of all mankind."

J. B. Nelson, of Peterborough spoke on agriculture, but also told the mothers who had boys and girls who would exhibit articles at the school fairs to encourage them and help them but to let them do things themselves, not for the prizes they would win but to teach them to help one another. He also congratulated the women of the Institute on what they had accomplished in the short time since they had organized.

Mrs. Tedford, president of Young's Point Branch, welcomed the visitors and thanked everyone for coming to the first picnic, and Mrs. A. Davis, president of Lakefield members for their kindness in inviting them and assured them that all had enjoyed themselves.

CAMPBELLFORD W.M.S. HEARS REPORT OF THE CONVENTION

Mrs. C. C. Armstrong of Warkworth Gives Talk on Provincial Society Meeting.s

IN ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH

CAMPBELLFORD, June 10 (By Examiner Staff Correspondent).—Featuring the regular meeting of the W.M.S. of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church held on Friday, Mrs. C. C. Armstrong of Warkworth, president of the Presbyterial of Peterborough, gave the report of the sixteenth annual meeting of the Ontario Provincial Society, W.M.S. of the Presbyterian church, recently held in Calvin church, Toronto. Mrs. W. J. Mark, president of the St. Andrew's branch, occupied the chair and conducted the devotional exercises.

Mrs. Armstrong, in her opening remarks, appealed for the support of the members. She said that she realized the importance of the office that had been entrusted to her, and the opportunity for service that it offered, and stated that it was her intention, with the help of God, to fulfill the position with worthiness.

With reference to the convention, the speaker spoke of the enthusiasm shown by the attending delegates. These numbered 633 registered, and 390 accredited. All the meetings were well attended, the church being full at nearly every session. A very impressive service opened the session. A very impressive service opened the session, which had as its theme, the risen Christ, and the Story that was rolled away from the Tomb, with the challenge that the church through Christ can work, move and have its being.

Mrs. Rochester opened the meetings by an address that dealt with activities of the organization in the past year, and the importance of women's work. She also stressed the need for work among the young people of the church, for they were the future church, and would have, in time, to assume their responsibilities. The attention of the meeting was also called by the speaker to the Jeffrey Indian school which has been moved to Kenora, where the government has housed it in a beautiful new building.

Missionary Giving.

Of the missionary giving, it was quoted that Ontario had gone over the allocation, but fell down in giving as compared to 1928. It was thought by the secretary that the reason for this was because so much money had been sent direct to China Inland Mission and the Leper Missions, and it was suggested that all monies should be sent through the W.M.S. earmarked for their destinations. Attention was also drawn to the increased budget for 1930. This was $141.00, an advance of $3,000.00.

The supply secretary also suggested that the Christmas gift system should be revised. Gifts should be designated as to age and sex, with a list on the outside of each bale.

The young people's session was featured by a pageant, "The Challenge of Opportunity", which was very well staged and contained many moral and spiritual truths. A pleasing incident of this meeting was the presentation to the gathering of the young woman missionaries who were answering the call for service. Each in turn spoke a few words to the delegates, asking for the prayers of the church on their undertakings.

Mrs. Strachan, president of general council, also addressed the session. She stated that the wonderful missionary field of opportunity had to be curtailed for lack of funds and workers. She went on to say that with the membership at 78,824, the society had but scratched the surface of what could be done. Only one fifth of the women of the church were interested in the missionary aspect, the other four-fifths merely congregated.

The speaker went on to make a plea for the interest of the large portion of the members who were not interested in one of the most vital works of the church.

Mrs. Armstrong concluded her report with a general survey of the session, which left the impression that the work of the church was advancing all along the line. All the women's organizations were throwing themselves into the work with results that were very gratifying.

At the close of the meeting, Mrs B. Bell spoke a few words of appreciation, and passed a hearty vote of thanks to Mrs. Armstrong, for giving such an interest report of the Provincial Society's Convention.

LARGE ATTENDANCE SOCIETY MEETING

Mrs. Uriah Payne Hostess to Members of Warsaw Church W. M. S.

WARSAW, June 10 (Examiner Correspondence).—Mrs. Uriah Payne was hostess to the United Church W.M.S. on Thursday afternoon. Some new members; two old members now living in Peterborough, Mrs. E. R. Hamblin, whose health rarely permits attendance, Mrs. Alec. Watts, the oldest member who is a charter and a life member; and some who attended irregularly, with regularly attendants, made up an especially large attendance.

The president, Mrs. George Taylor, was in the chair. After the usual opening exercises, Mrs. Herrington led in the scripture reading, and Mrs. Cameron of Lakefield led in prayer. As it is Mrs. Herrington's last time at the W.M.S. as a member and secretary for The Missionary Monthly, Mrs. Uriah Payne was appointed in her place. Mrs. Payne will give the books for the other churches to the minister. There are fifty-one subscribers. When Mrs. Herrington took the work there were only six. Mr. Herrington was unable to come for the study book lesson. He will take the lessons at some time which will be announced.

Group "C," of which Mrs. Sargent is convenor, took charge of the program. Mrs. Herrington gave an autoharp selection, "Nearer My God to Thee."

Mrs. Cameron of Lakefield gave an whole-souled talk on missions, especially on the work along the British Columbia Coast.

Mrs. W. Wasson led in prayer. Mrs. Herrington sang "Inta a Tent Where a Gypsy Boy Lay." Mrs. Wasson and Mrs. George Taylor sang "The Name of Jesus." Mrs. Taylor moved a vote of thanks to Mrs. Cameron for kindly coming to Warsaw to give the talk. Mrs. Payne also received a vote of thanks for her hospitality. One of the ladies put it, that it was something like a coming out party, it was the first W.M.S. meeting Mrs. Payne had been at in Warsaw. Mrs. Payne, assisted by some of the ladies, served delicious refreshments, and a very happy social time was spent; so happy, it was hard for the women to tear themselves away.

OUR CHILDREN

By Angelo Patri

THE BAD LOSER.

The children were playing parcheesi. Buddy, the youngest of four, was bent upon winning. He shook his dice box with tremendous vigor. He whacked his men on the board. He held his breath while the others shook and moved and made bridges and sent men home.

He had one man within a space of safety on the last home stretch. Sister Helen counted her 'spaces carefully, should she move this man, or this? Would it be better to make a bridge or carry one man as far as possible? Ah! Here was Buddy. "Home he goes. That gives me an extra twenty and my man home. Hurrah."

Buddy gasped. He grew red in the face. He clenched his fists. With a wild howl he smote the parcheesi board sending the boxes and men in different directions and threw himself headlong into the sofa pillows.

The children were inclined to be severe with him. Then they thought hooting him might be the better plan. "Good boy Buddy. If you can't win a game you can be the prize boob, can't you?" jibed big brother.

"You let me alone, you big stiff. You wouldn't win if you didn't cheat so much. I could win too if I counted wrong like you. You big stiff."

"Don't you call me a cheat, you big cry baby."

"Now don't get to fighting," said Sister Helen. "He's only a big baby and we won't play with him any more. Let him cry and come on and play."

"Ma-ma. Ma-ma. They won't play with me. They put me out of the game Ma-ma. Come and make them stop. Ma-ma. Make them play with me. Make them stop cheating."

"Mother, we didn't cheat. I sent him home and he had a regular fit. He won't play unless he can beat. We don't want to play if he is going to play."

There seems to be but one thing for mother to do and that is what she does. Taking Buddy by the hand she leads him out of the room, up to the bathroom, washes his face and takes him downstairs once more to sit with her a little while and think things over. "You can't always win, my boy."

"Well, they won't help me."

"That isn't the game. When you play, it is every man for himself and play to the rules. It was right for Helen to send you home. That is the rule of the game. Rules are what make the game. No rules, no game. You see that, don't you?"

"You can send them home if you have the chance. Winning isn't the whole thing. Knowing how to play, how to get fun out of it, how to lose cheerfully. That's the game. Everybody loses some time. Wouldn't it look funny if we cried every time we lost the game? Imagine me crying into the sink when I burned the toast the other morning. Silly, eh?

"Well you just run along and make up your mind that you're going to smile right through, win or lose, like a regular fellow. And here's a big cookie for luck."

Encourage the bad loser. Don't tease him. Make opportunities for his success. But hold by the rules of the game. He must learn.

Just Between Us Women

A daily chat with Examiner neighbors conducted by Anne Wilcox

At this time, pictorial embroidery is in high favor!

* * * * * * *

Perhaps you can remember the time when it was decidedly out—for it was for about a generation, and during that time it was considered poor taste. Now it is acclaimed as beautifully picturesque.

* * * * * * *

And so we find that just as fashions change quickly, so do other things, among them embroidery.

* * * * * * *

As a matter of fact, pictorial embroidery has its good and its poor uses. It depends upon how it is employed whether it indicates good taste or not, even at this time.

* * * * * * *

During the time when it is in vogue, as it is at this time, its scope is widened interestingly. During the eras when it was out of style it was out of style it was never entirely absent, for since the beginning of stitching, reproductions and mythical conception of landscapes and events have been embroidered with excellency.

* * * * * * *

We have only to recall choice tapestries to glimpse pictorial embroidery at its height. It is impossible to state with any certainty just when pictorial tapestries were first made, but they were and have continued to be among the most prized examples of fine stitchery.

* * * * * * *

I think you will find it is only when pictorial needlework has classic elements and features the beauty of stitchery so that the actual craftsmanship is as worthy as the subject and the subject deserves its needle development, that it can be pronounced worth while to endure over a period beyond its vogue.

* * * * * * *

There are numerous pieces of pictorial embroidery that deserve to be kept as heirlooms and perhaps you have some of these in your home.

* * * * * * *

And then too there are some pieces that will perish with the passing of the fashion. These fulfil their part when they supply timely decoration for present interiors or natty accessories for the costume.

* * * * * * *

You will find I think, that needlework pictures in color are in the majority, although there are some in black and white which are very smart.

* * * * * * *

Black strands on white linen are successfuly employed for needle silhouettes of people and of scenes. The stitchery must be fine in these if they are creditable.

* * * * * * *

Outline stitch is a favorite and satin stitch and other filling stitches are sometimes introduced. The work throughout must be flat, not raised since the finished picture is generally framed. A narrow black frame is advisable.

* * * * * * *

When colors are introduced the variety of types of work is enormously increased. Enlarged straight Gobelin stitch is one of the most effective and is rapidly done. It consists of straight stitches worked in even unbroken rows across a piece of canvas.

* * * * * * *

The rows must not vary in height and must be continuous across the embroidery. When a design calls for a change of color in the middle of a wide stitch finish one color and begin another so that the stitch itself is divided without the width of the row being interrupted.

* * * * * * *

In some pictures stitches are many thereby supplying opportunity for brush effects. Flowers may be in buttonhole stitch or French knots or both; woodwork would be straight; grass and stones would be in stitches taking directions to indicate angles curves, etc. These stitches are arbitrary and not restricted.

FASHION FANCIES

There are indications that chiffons will again be high in popularity in the midsummer evening mode. Their coolness and their flowing graceful lines will be in style this season.

A model of distinction and charm is sketched on this page today. Printed in delicate shades of orchid, yellow and green, its soft skirt retains a long unbroken line by means of unpressed pleatings. A detachable cape adds a delightfully casual touch worn thrown over the shoulder. The snug hipline is defined by the wide tight sash which ties in a bow at the front.

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

Fishing Boats

The fishing boats are happy things
As with the dawn of day,
Although the trade-wind sharply stings,
They dance along the bay.

When watchers see it cross the bar,
The eager fishing fleet,
So small, against the sea, so far,
Seems fated for defeat.
But, proud and joyous, on they ride
When dawn is in the sky,
The boats that play with wind and tide
Like gulls careening by.

Life would be free, life would be sweet,
If squandered dreaming here,
With sun and sea fishing fleet
To fill the joyous year.

I love each mighty ship that floats,
Each keel that breasts the wave;
But best I love the fishing boats,
So little and so brave!

PERFECTION IS ONLY REACHED IN PROFESSIONS WHEN CANDOR IS UNDERSTOOD NURSES TOLD

Dr. C. V. McLean Addresses Graduating Class at Nicholls Hospital.

PRIZES PRESENTED.

Miss Hattie Hooper and Miss Lottie Ball Win Prizes in Proficiency.

"The professions will be carried to perfection when we have learned to use that lance called candor. There are many illnesses that attack the body and that infest society that can be cured only by candor. We have grown used to what we call the exercise of diplomacy and tact, but it is only when we return again to honesty in facing problems and to telling people exactly where they stand, that we will have perfection."

In the address to the twelve graduates, delivered last evening by the Rev. C. V. McLean, M.A., Ph.D., at the Graduation Exercises of the Nicholls Hospital Training School for Nurses, in the auditorium of the Collegiate Institute, the speaker itemized what he termed the requisites for perfection in the exercise of the professions.

The program was pleasantly carried out. It was brief enough to keep from tiring the people, to the number of about seven hundred, who thronged in the big hall, and it was spaced by interesting speeches and a short musical program.

Sympathy Finds Big Place

V. Eastwood was in the chair and managed affairs splendidly. "Sympathy," said Mr. Eastwood in his opening remarks, "always finds a large place in a woman's heart, and surely it ever finds a place in the sick room. But just here we may offer a word of caution. No young woman should lightly undertake the work without very great consideration. In this Province graduate nurses are becoming numerous, and, for the sake of all, greater care will have to be exercised in admitting young women to the classes. Again, there is seldom charm in the care of a sick person. It is a far cry to the days of Florence Nightingale, the Lady with the Lamp, during the Crimean War of almost a century ago. We think of the amazing progress made in medical service since those days and the field is ever widening. Organizations to battle with disease continue to appear, so that this whole profession surely has a world work to do."

Mr. Eastwood went on to speak of the urgent need for extension at Nicholls Hospital and for further equipment. He referred to the disastrous fire at the Quaker Oats Company some years ago as an instance of a tragedy that might overtake a community at any time and spoke of the danger of allowing hospital accommodation to decrease.

Mr. Eastwood also averred that Nicholls Hospital was non-sectarian and was open to every creed and class in the community.

Intellectual Address

In an address that brimmed over with interest, the Rev. Mr. McLean took his listeners along a cultured and eloquent pathway, as he outlined for the graduates some of the ethical aspects of their profession. It was a discourse that was listened to with the keenest interest. Couched in flowing terms, it brought to the minds of its hearers, over a wide scope, an idea of what lies behind the practice of the professions.

Referring to the ancient practice of sending out criers to advertise the attainments of those who had finished their course along certain lines, the reverend speaker spoke of the organization of bands of nursing men in the early centuries and their later replacement by women, who, "down through the centuries, have worn the lily of a blameless life."

"Let it be remembered," he said, "that humility goes naturally with the professions. We have only come to the practice of our profession and not to perfection therein. But many ask: 'When will the practice become perfect through proficiency?'

"I believe that the professions in our time will become nearer perfection when they have incorporated several branches of therapeutics which at the present time are still being neglected.

Must Love Patients

"I believe we will have to learn how to use such elements as patience, mercy and justice in dealing with our patients. When we want to help people, the easiest way is to pretend to love them, and the easiest way to pretend a thing is to really do it. We must learn many ways of healing the sick and bruised before perfection steps in.

"And I believe that there is a candor that will help, even though it may sting and bite and hurt.

"Perfection will come, too, when it is able to eliminate the most subtle form of contagion that is abroad today. There are certain bacilli that can be combated only by drugs and chemicals, but there are other bacilli which take hold of a preoccupied mind and create in it a morbid curiosity which we call gossip. Hippocrates, the great physician of old, felt this temptation to betray his patients' confidence beginning to work in his mind, and he evolved the Hippocratic oath for physicians; part of which reads: "With purity and holiness will I face my life and practice my art."

The Rev. Mr. McLean quoted to the nurses the words of Napoleon just before the famous Battle of the Pryamids, addressed to his soldiers, when he told them that forty generations were gazing down upon them. "When you minister to the sick and the weary and the dejected, remember that centuries of scrupulous public servants are gazing down upon you, so that you may acquit yourselves worthily."

The Affirmation

The affirmation of the nurses was repeated in unison after Mr. Eastwood, and the conferring of the diplomas and medals was done by the superintendent of the hospital, Mrs. E. M. Leeson. The graduates in their spotless uniforms of white, with their arms filled with pink roses and corsage bouquets of sweet peas pinned at their waists, made a lovely picture on the stage, the white walls behind them and the setting completed by a profusion of beautiful flowers. There were tall vases and reed baskets filled with roses, carnations and cream iris, and the stage was bordered with sweet alyssum and with bands of purple and gold, the hospital colors which also tied the diplomas, presented to each in turn.

Dr. D. W. Clark, president of the medical staff of the hospital, gave the address to the graduates, taking the word "nurse," with its five letters, as the foundation of his remarks. On behalf of the staff, Dr. Clark also conveyed to Mrs. Leeson congratulations on her wonderful ability in the choice of nurses and in their training.

The letter N in nurse, he said, stood for nerve, the cool, steady faculty which was required in an emergency. U was for usefulness. Service is the motto of the day and the nurse in entering any household, should not shrink from doing little tasks that will help in the running of the home. No proper nurse will expect to wear a spotless uniform and have unsoiled hands, in the performance of her duty.

R was for responsibility or reliability. S was for soul and sympathy both, and in this regard, he cautioned the nurses to steer a steady course between the sympathy due a sick patient and the attention required by a spoiled person who "enjoyed poor health." The last letter, E, meant earnestness, which was not seriousness or sadness, but the earnest, zealous endeavor of the true nurse.

Mr. Eastwood, referring to the efficient service given by Mrs. Leeson and her staff during the year, also presented the prizes given by the Board of Trustees for Proficiency. The first prize of $25 was won by Miss Hattie G. Hooper of Campbellford, and the second, for $15, went to Miss Lottie A. Ball of North Monaghan township.

Dr. Cameron

Dr. G. S. Cameron presented the prizes donated by the Medical staff of the Hospital to the Intermediate Class, and won by Miss Kate McLaughlin of Blackstock (first), and Miss Maude Dudman of Burnt River (second.)

"Do not think of nursing as a piece of work which a woman learns, engages in for a short time, and then disappears. It is essential that a woman be highly trained before entering the profession of nursing and for this, a thorough English education is necessary. In the history of most professions, when we have consolidated a position, the standard is gradually raised. In the nursing profession, the same rule holds good. A woman who wishes to train for a nurse should refuse to be content with the ordinary two years of preliminary education. It is becoming more and more common to have instructresses in nursing schools and these positions require University training."

Dr. Cameron also thanked Mrs. Leeson, on behalf of his colleagues, for "many kindnesses and courtesies extended to the staff."

Dr. S. Y. Walsh, in a brief, appropriate speech, presented the prizes donated by the Trustee Board to the Junior Class for Bandaging and won by Miss Luly Featherson of Smiths Falls (first) and Miss Margaret Dinsdale of Peterborough (second).

Mr. Eastwood closed the program with an expression of gratitude to the speakers and entertainers of the evening and to the "very genial and able secretary, John Crane."

The musical entertainment, arranged by F. G. Mann, L.Mus., organist and choirmaster of St. John's Church, was very interesting, and received plenty of applause. Vocal solos, accompanied by Mr. Mann, were given by Miss Ruby Quartermaine, Roy Pitchford and Griffen Young, the singers responding generously with encores.

Later, refreshments were served and a reception held in the gymnasium.

Members of the Graduating Class of this year include: Miss Hattie Geneva Hooper of Campbellford; Miss Janet Mary Wood of Keene; Miss Stella May Wood of Snow Road, Ontario; Miss Helen Myrtle Lotan of Almonte; Miss Marion Irene McKinnon of Bethany; Miss Helena Geraldine Hubble of Colborne; Miss Edith McGillavray Boyle of Belleville; Miss Thelma Cly Armstrong of Millbrook; Miss Mary Helen Panter of Millbrook; Miss Jessie Margaret Delyea of Madoc, and Miss Frances Irene Parsons of Smiths Falls; Miss Lottie Anna Ball of North Monaghan Township.

Two-fifths of the harmonicas exported from Germany are shipped to the United States.

Crescents Easily Defeat Doc. Hamilton's "Nine" 5-2

BRIOUX OUTFIT RETAINS LEAD FROM THE FIRST

Jeff Hardill Allows But Three Hits to Hold Visitors in Check.

RALPH BELOW PAR.

The Crescents won their first ball game of the current E.P.L. season last evening at Exhibition Park when they easily handed Doc Kennedy's Bethany team the small end of a 5-2 score.

The Mountain Village lads were never in the hunt, the winners having them 4-0 when the sixth innings opened up. In that frame Bethany came through with their pair of counters, but the Brioux outfit returned to add another to their total.

Jeff Hardill worked on the rubber for the Crescents and it appeared as though his reputation had the Bethany sluggers curbed. He whiffed twelve of them on strikes and allowed but three hits. One of the hits was a mighty clout by Phillips into deep centre which went for three bases. He issued three walks.

Ralph Below Par.

The work of Harold Ralph, twirler for Bethany, was not up to its usual sterling qualities, likely being due to too much work. The winners collected eight hits from him, but at no stages was he given the same steady support as that tendered Hardill. He struck out seven, but gave four walks and hit one.

During the opening two frames Bethany was the team that showed promise of scores. In the first Walton got a walk and was advanced to third on sacrifices by Phillips and Dawe but Ryley fanned for the third out.

Collins opened up the second innings for the Crescents with a single but Hardill hit into a double play. In the third the winners obtained their first score. Heard getting on with a walk was sacrificed to second by Masterson and scored on Sweetman's neat single into centre field.

Hardill retired Bethany on strikes in the fourth, and in their half the Crescents ran two in. Collins was safe on Dawe's error and Hardill singled. J. Jones rolled to the pitcher and Collins was thrown out at third. Jones making first on the play. Hickey drew a walk and so did Heard, which forced in Hardill. Masterson singled, scoring Jones. J. Lebarr rolled to Ralph who tossed the ball home getting Hickey and Lebarr was doubled at first.

Tally in Fifth.

Crescents came back in the fifth with another. Sweetman hit through Ryley but was out stealing second. Crary flied to Smith. Collins walked, went to third on Hardill's single and scored when Phillips muffed Jones' grounder. Hickey struck out.

Bethany breezed their two across in the sixth. Walton singled through short and Phillips followed with a triple, scoring Walton. Dawe lifted up a high fly to Jones, Phillips scoring on the catch. Ryley and Vinette struck out.

After Heard and Masterson were out in the Crescents' half, Lebarr singled and scored on Sweetman's clout into centre field. Smith and Thorndyke both went after the ball and let it fall between them when they clashed. Crary fanned.

Bethany went out in order in the seventh and the game was over.

Paavo Nurmi Sets Another Record

Leafs Drop Doubleheader To Buffalo

BUFFALO CLUB CLIMBS WITHIN STRIKING DISTANCE OF THIRD PLACE BY REASON OF VICTORY

7-2 SCORES FOR BISONS.

Reading at Jersey City Postponed on Account of Rain.

Bill Clymer's Buffalo Bisons apparently have recovered from their recent slump and again are headed toward the top of the International League standings, prepared to give Baltimore, Rochester and Montreal a great battle for the pennant.

A double victory over the Toronto Maple Leafs coupled with Montreal's defeat at Rochester, put the Bisons within one game of the third place Montreal club and left them five and a half games back of the league standing Baltimore outfit.

In the only other league game of the day, Rochester strengthened its hold on second place with a 5-4 victory over the Montreal Royals. The winning run was scored on a lucky break. John Berly came across with the deciding counter in the last half of the ninth when Ripple, Montreal Royal, in trying to field Joe Brown's hit, caught his foot under a wire fence between the bleachers and the playing field. Collins, Rochester first baseman, hit his 11th homer of the season in the fourth inning.

BELANGER TO OPPOSE GENARO TO-NIGHT

Hackett Meets Shaw in Semi-final of Toronto Show.

TORONTO, June 10.—At the Coliseum to-night Frenchy Belanger, flyweight champion of Canada, will make a strenuous attempt to regain the world's flyweight title from Frankie Genaro of New York, the yeteran Italian-American who wrested the crown from him in a hotly contested affair in February of 1928. They clash in the feature of the Shamrock and Shriners show at the Coliseum.

The Dominion titleholder has trained assiduously for this encounter, and yesterday tapered off his preparations with a light gymnasium workout, following which his manager, Davey Garrity, expressed himself as entirely satisfied with the local boy's condition. Admittedly a much harder hitter than Genaro, who is recognized as the world's best by the National Boxing Association, Belanger has left nothing undone to prepare himself for this important

KAY AND LEBAR TO HANDLE GAME

Legality of Darling's Pitching Fully Discussed at Softball Executive Meeting.

RESIGNATION REFUSED.

The main issue at a special meeting of the executive and management of the City Softball League, held in the Belmont Club rooms last evening, rested on the legality or otherwise of Darling's pitching, a member of the Westclox team.

The decision of Ted Lebarr, umpire-in-chief, which declared that this pitcher was not playing according to O.S.A. rules in the Westclox-Belmont game on Friday last, was questioned by the manager of the Westclox team, J. Beckerman, who stoutly maintained that his pitcher delivered a legal ball.

D. Leether, league secretary, termed the delivery as a submarine ball, while the umpire-in-chief said he had no hesitation in saying the ball was not delivered parallel with the body as the rules require.

Each team in the league had a representative present at the meeting, which was under the chairmanship of the president, F. Scates.

Prior to a decision being reached by which tonight's game between Sugar Bowl and Westclox will be solely handled by Alex Kay and Edgar Lebarr, whose decision regarding Darling's pitching shall be considered final, a great deal of discussion ensued in which the Westclox manager spoke of withdrawing his team from the league.

President's Resignation Refused

President F. Scates tendered his resignation, which the meeting would not accept. It was stated that the meeting had been called solely in the interests of local sport and not from any personal feelings of any kind whatsoever.

Further matters up for discussion were those concerning the schedule and after being put to motion it was unanimously decided that the first and second teams in the first half of the schedule shall play off and the first and seconds teams in the second half of the schedule shall also play off to decide the City League championship. The second team in each section play off and the first team in each section meet. Then the two winners play the finals.

Another motion which received the approval of the meeting was to the effect that the umpires be instructed to suspend players for rough tactics on the field, to prevent a repetition of the occurrence last Friday evening in which one of the players was slightly injured.

It was further decided that the sum of $5 must accompany all protests to the league executive.

BAILIEBORO WINS EXHIBITION GAME

Heavy Hitting and Many Errors Accounts For 16-13 Victory.

(Examiner Correspondence)

BAILIEBORO, June 10. — Heavy hitting, and numerous errors probably caused by the cold atmosphere, resulted in a 16-13 victory for Bailieboro, in an exhibition baseball game against Garden Hill on Saturday evening.

Johnston on the mound for Bailieboro, started with three strike-outs in the first inning but was relieved by Deyell in the second, when Garden Hill batted in seven runs, for a sensational lead. Deyell pitched good ball for the next two innings, when he was relieved by Butters, who completed the game, Mercer and Bryans pitched steady ball for Garden Hill.

Several sensational catches by L. Dunbar in center field, featured the game, also a three-base hit by Johnston in the third inning.

INDIANS CREEP UP ON AMERICAN LEAGUE LEADERS

Defeat Senators 5-4 to Advance Within Half a Game of Second Place.

SOX RALLY TO WIN.

Nose Out Detroit 7-6 By Scoring Five Runs in Seventh Inning.

Baseball games won in the spring count as much as the ones won in September but the Washington Senators are discovering that it takes more than an April and May winning streak to keep in the midst of the American League fight.

True the Senators are still clinging tenaciously to second place in the Junior circuit but every day sees the Indians creeping closer and closer. Today Cleveland is only a half-game away while out in front, setting a burning pace, the the Athletics with a three game lead.

On May 28 Walter Johnson had the Senators showing the way by four full games with the world champions striving to maintain the fast clip. In ten games since that date, the Senators have won only two while Connie Mack, with substitutes playing the role of of regulars, has accounted for ten of his twelve contests. The Indians also shifted into high and won seven of their last ten games, a glance at the records show the Athletics to be playing .83 baseball since May 28, with the Indians hitting a .700 clip and the Senators only .200.

The Indians today stood within grasp of runner-up honors as the result of a 5 to 4 victory over the Senators yesterday.

Taking advantage of the Senators' defeat, the Athletics strengthened their hold on first place by eking out a victory over the White Sox 3 to 2.

Chad Kimsey turned in a brilliant bit of relief hurling at St. Louis, but holding the Yankees to five hits in six innings failed to stop them from defeating the Browns 8 to 5.

In the other game played in the Major Leagues the Red Sox nosed out Detroit 7 to 6 by reason of a five-run rally in the seventh. Milton Gaston held the Tigers to nine hits.

All of the National League games were postponed wither because of rain or wet grounds.

FAR TOO SLOW.

Some Believe Schmeling Should Accustom Himself to Canvas Landings.

ENDICOTT, N. Y., June 10.— Mr. Schmeling propounded another form riddle to annoy a vast assemblage of visiting experts here Monday afternoon when he pitched six innings without putting much on the ball.

Four catchers handled the delivery of the Deutschland Dempsey without crackling under the strain after which the official scorers went into a huddle to determine whether Herr Max was kidding them or doing the best he could. The controversy raged far into the night with a majority of the experts contending that if Schmeling was as easy to hit with a left as he was today he had better start practicing his canvas landings.

In vain did Herr Jacobs and Professor Will McCarney protest that Schmeling was trying out a number of theories, was following orders to shorten his punches and avoid heavy detonation that might disturb his knuckle foundations and purposely walk into barrages of lefts to accustom himself to point blank firing.

Newcomers Direful

These who saw Max in earlier workouts did not attach any great significance to his palpable repression today but the newcomers predicted dreadful consequences if he is no more bombproof next Thursday night than he was today.

LAKESHORE LOOP ON EVEN TERMS

Rays Engage in Two Games This Week, Going to Cobourg To-morow.

Port Hope Here Saturday.

The whole outlook in the Lakeshore League has taken on a different complexion. All four teams are strong and no longer is one team assured of anything more than an even break to win. Any one of the outfits is dangerous to the other and there is that air of uncertainy about the race that promises a great season.

At present the Rays and Oshawa Arabs are occupying first place with Cobourg next and Port Hope in the cellar. But apparently there is little to choose between any of the clubs and anything may happen.

The Rays engage in two games this week, going to Cobourg to-morow afternoon and entertaining Port Hope here on Saturday afternoon. Both fixtures promise to make the Rays extend themselves. On Wednesday Port Hope plays Oshawa in the Motor City and Cobourg is at home to Oshawa on Saturday.

The week's menu may bring forth a great change in the team standings.

ERRORS COSTLY FOR BRINTONS

Harrisons Garner Six Runs in Fourth to Win 7-4 Decision.

NICE HITTING BATTLE.

The clash between Harrisons and Brinton softball teams on Central School grounds last evening, in which the former came through to a 7-4 victory, provided one of the best games yet seen this season.

Good play by the outfielders of both teams was the highlight of the encounter, although Harrisons made a portion of their six runs in the fourth on errors.

Carruthers twirling for Harrisons had three strikeouts to his credit, although he also walked three men to first.

Playford at center field displayed good form and when up to bat made one run, being caught out at center field twice by Rose of Brintons in the fourth and eighth innings.

Sturgeon on the mound for the Rugmakers; had three strike-outs. He played a consistent game, and received good co-operation from his team mates.

At the end of the third innings the counter stood at 1-1 while in the fourth it had a slightly different complexion with another half dozen runs to the credit of Harrisons.

No further scoring was done by Brintons until the sixth innings when they put up another three runs.

Harrisons .....001 600 000—7
Brinton .....001 003 000—4

Umpires—Weese and Stevenson.

ADVERTISE IN THE EXAMINER

"Them Was the Dazes"

A lot of old-time heavyweight fighters are lamenting the fact that they did not have the chances in their day that there is at present.

Jake Kilrain, now a night watchman, wishes he hadn't been born so soon. He might as a young man, have been as famous as a heavyweight contender today.

In 1889 on July 8th, Kilrain was k.o'd by John L. Sullivan in the last bare knuckled world's championship bout. This bout lasted 75 rounds before Kilrain kissed the canvas.

True if Jack Sharkey wins on Thursday night he will have come closer to earning it by compiling a record than in the case of Max Schmeling.

But if Schmeling is champion, then you can compare a record to which you will find nothing similar in boxing history. We have few, if any, real heavyweight finds at present. Yet out of a similar situation Jess Willard rose to fame.

Yet me like Fitzsimmons had to fight such men as Moher, Choynski, Creedon and Tom Sharkey. Corbett fought Jack Burke, Frank Glover, Choynski, Kilrain, Jackson and Jim Hall. Willard—Dairy, Rodel, Davis, Morris, Reed, Bull Young, At Williams, McCarthy, Polley and White. Dempsey had to scrap with Morris, Flynn, Homer Smith, Levinsky, Moran, Fulton, Polkey, Brennan and a host of others. But no matter who wins this bout Thursday, it's a champion of the crop of fighters we have.

BUCKLEY INSISTS SHARKEY IN BEST SHAPE OF CAREER

Manager of Heavyweight Contender Says Gob Hitting With Accuracy.

GOOD SPARRING PARTNERS.

ORANGEBURG, June 10.— From Sunday until this afternoon, Jack Sharkey started speeding up his workouts.

He had been taking it easy, perfecting his accuracy, contenting himself with the feel of an opponent, and putting himself in the best of condition.

"In the six years I have been with Sharkey," says Buckley, "he has never been in better condition or fighting better than he was to-day. I object to statements that he looked slow in Sunday's workouts. He was going faster than ever and was hitting with accuracy.

down Johnny Grosso, as some of the down Johnny Grosso, a some of the boys thought. He never purposely plahts a sparring partner. Grosso landed a good right hand to his button and Jack just came right in.

One thing Jack has had, and that is sparing partners who haven't been pulling up on him. He has been getting good workouts from them and letting them take shots at his jaw and do their best in the ring. He has had more good out of letting the boys batter him than to put them under wraps.

ELISE PROCTER IS ONLY VICTOR

Stella Walsh Scores Decisive Victory in 100-Metre Event.

U.S. DOMINATES EVENTS.

Toronto, Ont., June 10.—(C.P.)—A slim, tousle-haired girl from Ottawa, Elsie Proctor, saved Canadian girls' athletic prestige from a complete setback in the International Women's Track Meet held here last night in connection with the Shriners International convention.

Running brilliantly, Miss Proctor trounced the pick of Eastern Canada and United States clubs in the 60-metre final for junior girls to give the Maple Leaf its only victory.

In the other events United States competitors completely dominated the competition. Stella Walsh, Cleveland, recognized as the United States champion sprinter, scored a decisive victory in 100-metre final. She defeated Rosa Grosse O'Neill, Toronto, former world's champion and Miss Kay Griffiths, Toronto, who had beaten her at Buffalo last winter. Walsh ran the race in 12"1-5 seconds.

Victories by the Millrose Athletic club of New York in the international relay race at 440-yards over on all-star Canadian team, and by Jean Shiley, Philadelphia, in the high jump, completed the string of triumphs recorded by the visitors in the athletic events.

Winding up a successful evening for the American athletes the Cleveland Blepps trounced the Toronto Parkdales 5 to 2, in the international softball series.

Softball Notes.

To-night's Sugar Bowl-Westclox softball fixture should be a wow. Both teams have been playing great ball in the last few games and to-night's battle should be no exception. Alex. Kay and Edgar Lebarr will handle the game.

Sugar Bowl have three pitchers ready for the fray, Forsythe, Dormer and Duggan, with the former likely to get the assignment. Darling will twirl for the Clockmen, with Curry in reserve.

The game is billed for 6.15 at Central School Grounds, and a big attendance is expected.

Wednesday night Belmont Club and C.G.E. will do battle.

Ticket Sale Mounts For Sharkey Fight

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 10. — (C.P.)—The ardour of the faithful, undimmed by the consistent mediocrity of recent heavyweight exhibitions, stood the final test of a cheerless and steady rain yesterday to rally round the box offices of Madison Square Garden.

The coffers of the milk fund were swelled by some $40,000 during the day as growing interest lined up the vanguard of the last minute customers in a steady parade to purchase tickets for Jack Sharkey's fifteen-round title joust with Max Schmeling in the Yankee Stadium Thursday night. With $90,000 taken in cash on Friday and Saturday and promoters jubilantly announced that the big show is certain to draw a gross gate of over $700,000.

CORPORAL HAGEN.

HAVELOCK, June 10 (Examiner Correspondence). — Havelock Golf Club presented a delightful comedy, "Corporal Hagen," in the Town Hall an Wednesday and Thursday, which proved a great success. A patriotic pageant in which one hundred local people took part was a feature, and delighted the audience. It may be said that practically every family in Havelock was represented in this pageant.

Barney Quinn as Red Hagen, the Irish doughboy, and Fred Platt as Izzy Goldstein, a Jewish buddy, were exceedingly funny, and excited much laughter. Joseph Little, as Abie Goldstein, Izzy's papa, and Howard Martin as Michael Hagen, Red's dad, had good parts, and made the most of them. Miss Elma Martin as Emmy, willing war worker, was very good, and Beatrice Crawford, as Sally, Red's girl, was good. Mrs. Holdcroft and Mrs. Coates as nurses, Russel Green as Y.M.C.A. worker, Jack Evans as McCooley, the guard, Cyril Blackburn as the army cook, Bert Hagerman, the newsboy, Maynard Bullied as Private Kafloozey, Frank McLaughlin as Private McGinnis, J. R. Bedford as corporal of the guard, and Grant Seeney as Rastus Brown, made the most of the small parts.

Gordon Haggerty, Gordon Buchanan, Harry Anderson, William Longmuir, Bruce Spencer, Fred McKenzie, and Dougal Wright were the members of the awkward squad.

The pageant opened with singing by full chorus of "My Dream of the Big Parade," in which Mr. Kinnaird was leader. This pageant was composed of one hundred local school children, supported by soldiers, sailors, and the entire cast. A minstrel show was also a part of the evening's entertainment, and some of the songs were 'The Show Boat," "A Sailor's Sweetheart," "Rose of No Man's Land' '(Mrs. Holdcroft soloist), "Keep the Home Fires Burning," "Sailing, Sailing," "Hinkey, Dinkey, Parley Voo," "It's a Long Way to Tipperary," "Dixie," "Over There," "How Ya Gonna Keep 'Em Down on the Farm?" "Good Morning, Mr. Zipp, Zipp, Zipp," "K.K.K.K.P.", "Pack Up Your Troubles," "Do, Do Something."

Members of the chorus were: Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Roche, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Chiles, Keith Chiles, Mrs. Samuel Southward, Ernest Sanderson, Bill and Harry Sexsmith, W. McBurney, Roy Campney, Cyril Blackburn, Robert Poste. During the minstrel show Russell Green delighted the audience and cast with a buck and wing dance, and a song "Any Ole Way to Cook a Chicken." Mr. Green was twice recalled, showing the popularity of his numbers. Mrs. Donald Holdcroft, as a nurse, sang the solo, in "The Rose of No Man's Land," in a beautifully modulated voice, with fine technique and expression. Grant Seeney and Robert Poste, as the end men, had some good jokes. Russell Green was interlocutor. Altogether those who attended the performance were well satisfied that they had a big half-dollar's worth of entertainment.

Corbett Purchases Silver Foxes Here

A check for $675 from "Gentleman Jim" Corbett, former heavyweight boxing champion of the world, has been received by Roderick Grant of this city in his position as secretary-treasurer of Mills-Wolff, Limited, fox farm operators. It was in payment for a pair of silver foxes Mr. Corbett has bought from the the firm.

"Gentleman Jim" will leave his foxes in the care of the fox farm which is situated near the Chemong road. He will collect the profits from the sale of the pair's offsprings. In acknowledging the check Mr. Grant extended an invitation to the famous boxer to visit this city and district.

Since thy came to the city a little more than two years ago, both Mr. and Mrs. Lapp have made many friends in Chatham, and it is with a measure of regret that the former's business interests makes it necessary for them to move out of the city. Mr. Lapp holds membership in the local Kinsmen club, Victory Lodge A. F. and A. M. the Chatham Golf Club, and the Chatham Club. Mrs. Lapp is a member of many social and charitable organizations and is widely respected.

Victoria Tax Rate Higher Last Year

LINDSAY, June 10.—(Special to The Examiner).—The County of Victoria tax rate will be 6.1 mills this year—one mill higher than last year. This provides for an expenditure of $138,062.72. The county road rate is the same as last year.

The Lindsay members of the county council fought for a rate but when the council set its face against any road paving this year but found no support. The Good Roads Board experienced a two day deadlock in its deliberations over a motion to reconsider a paving program. The motion to reopen the question received no seconder, two motions to adjourn were defeated and the deadlock was broken only after members walked out of the committee room.

Noted Comedy-Success to Open Canadian Chautauqua

SCENE FROM "BROKEN DISHES"

"Broken Dishes," the popular Broadway comedy by Martin Flavin, which will be presented at the coming Canadian Chautauqua here, seems to strike a responsive chord in the heart of everyone. Pa Bumpstead, the central figure in the play, is one of the most lovable characters to reach the stage in a decade. For twenty years Pa has been as meek as a lamb in his own home, but events transpire which cause him to pluck up his courage and roar like a lion, to the intense surprise of the Bumpstead family.

"Broken Dishes" is a very human comedy, filled with laughter, romance and pathos. It will be presented here by the well-known Martin Erwin Players of Canada.

In Peterborough on Confederation Square, in front of the Collegiate Institute, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Monday, July 2, 3, 4, 5 and 7, Afternoon and Evening.

A BEDTIME STORY

by Howard R. Garis

UNCLE WIGGILY'S BLUE MARBLES.

"Please, Buster, will you give me some of your marbles?" asked Baby Bunty one day.

"I want my own marbles, Bunty," answered the little boy bunny as he ran down the street to play a game with Billie Wagtail, the goat. For Billie was bleating: "First shot agates!" and Buster wanted to have fun.

"Oh, dear!" sighed Baby Bunty the little orphan rabbit, who had come to live in Uncle Wiggily's hollow stump bungalow. "Oh, dear!"

"What's the matter?" asked Weezie, one of the newest little rabbits. "What's the matter, Bunty?"

"Buster wouldn't give me any of his marbles!" sighed Bunty. "And I want to play. I don't care if I am a girl rabbit, I want to play marbles like the boys! But I can't if I haven't any immies, glassies or reals to play with. I wish I had some marbles!"

"What are marbles?" asked Weezie, who had not been in this world very long.

"Marbles," explained Baby Bunty, "are little round balls of colored clay or glass or stone and the boys make up games with 'em and knock 'em around and it's lots of fun. I wish I had some red or blue marbles."

"Let's go look for some!" said Weezie.

"You can't find marbles by looking, as Unkie Wig finds adventures," said Baby Bunty. "You have to buy marbles in the toy store and I haven't any money now. Oh, dear!"

"I'm going to take a walk," said Weezie, "and see if I can see any little round things colored red or blue, Bunty, they'll be marbles, won't they?"

"Yes," said Bunty, "I guess they will. But you can't find marbles."

"Maybe I can," spoke Weezie. "Anyhow, I'm going to look and if I find any marbles I'll come back and tell you and you can get 'em and play with 'em and have fun and I'll watch."

"Oh, there are blue marbles!" whispered Weezie.

"If I could find Unkie Wig maybe he'd give me money to buy some marbles," said Bunty. "But I don't know where he is. Oh, dear!"

Bunty sat down on a stump feeling very sorry for herself while Weezie started off to look for marbles. She had never seen any but she felt sure she would know them if she saw them.

After a while Weezie hopped through the woods and, all of a sudden, under a tree, she saw her father, who was also Uncle Wiggily, asleep on the ground.

"There he is!" whispered Weezie. "There's my Daddicums and Baby Bunty's Unkie Wig. I'll go tell Bunty I've found him and maybe, when he wakes up, Daddicums will give Bunty some money to buy red and blue marbles."

Very softly, making no noise, Weezie hopped a little closer to sleeping Uncle Wiggily, and then, on the edge of his coat as it was spread out on the ground, the little rabbit girl saw some round, blue things. Very pretty they were.

"Oh, there are blue marbles!" whispered Weezie, her eyes shining. "Daddicums must have heard her wishing and he went to the store and bought Bunty some blue marbles. He was bringing them to her when he went to sleep. But now I can take the blue marbles to Bunty."

Very softly, making no noise, Weezie picked the round, blue things off Uncle Wiggily's coat and, holding them carefully in her paw, she hurried back where she had left Bunty sitting on a stump.

"Oh, look, Bunty!" cried Weezie. "I found some blue marbles for you!" and she opened her paw, showing the little orphan rabbit what she had. "Blue marbles!" cried Weezie.

"Ha! Ha!" laughed Bunty. "Those aren't marbles, Weezie. They are the blue eggs of the robin bird. Where did you get them?"

"I took them off Daddicum's coat when he was asleep under a tree. Aren't they blue marbles?"

"Oh, no!" said Bunty. "They are robin eggs and they must have fallen out of the nest in the tree where Unkie Wig is sleeping. The eggs fell on his soft coat so they weren't broken. But we must take them back or the robins will be very sad. Come on!"

The two little rabbit girls hopped back through the woods to where Uncle Wiggily was just waking under the tree. Flying around his head were two robins loudly chirping.

"Our eggs are gone! Our lovely blue eggs are gone!" the birds sadly cried.

"Well, I don't know anything about them!" said Uncle Wiggily.

"Here are the eggs! Here are the eggs!" cried Bunty and Weezie, hopping up with them. "They fell out of your nest, but they aren't broken," said Bunty. Uncle Wiggily put the eggs back in the robins' nest and the birds were happy and then Mr. Longears gave Bunty money to buy some real marbles. (Copyright, 1930, by Howard R. Garis.)

Cobourg, Ontario—"Years ago when I had a sick father and a nursing baby to care for, I got all run down and I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to get strength to do my work. Another time at Change of Life, I had severe headaches and felt tired all the time. I took seven bottles of the Vegetable Compound and felt like a new woman. WINNIPEG FIRM SHUTS ITS DOORS

Robert McInnes and Company Unable to Meet Liabilities.

ABOUT $8,000 INVOLVED.

WINNIPEG, Man., June 10 (C.P.).—Assignment of the firm of Robert McInnes and Company, Limited, trading on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange was announced to-day. W. S. Newton and Company, liquidators, stated that auditors are checking up the status of the firm and that a statement will be presented within ten days.

Suspension of the company from trading privileges on the exchange was effected this morning when it came to the attention of the council of the exchange that the firm was unable to meet its liabilities, according to James R. Murray, secretary of the Exchange. The Company's trading ended at the closing of the market Saturday.

It is understood that the whole volume of cash grain handled by the firm is not large, and will probably not exceed the figure of $6,500. Farmers involved in the cash grain branch of the Company's business will be fully protected by bonds of the Board of Grain Commissioners, it is stated.

Bulk of loses in connection with the assignment, it is certain, will fall on those involved in the speculation through the firm. Total amount of money involved is unofficially placed at about $38,000.

The nineteen bull calves were all from either R.O.P. dams or sires in the class A or double A, advanced registration.

They were shipped to M. J. Rioux, Agronome, Makamiok P.O., Co. Abitibi, Que., necessitating a journey of about 600 miles. These calves are placed with the farmers by the government for the improvement of dairy cattle.

HUNTING FOR WATER

THE PAS, Man., June 10 (C.P.)—An oil boom in Saskatchewan's north country assumed definite shape today. Details from Kakwa, brand new settlement on the Sturgis cut-off, told of escaping natural gas burning with increasing force, and of samples indicating that drilled strata is oil-bearing. OSHAWA MAN IS COMMITTED ON MURDER CHARGE

William Morrison to Trial Charged With Murdering His Wife.

STATEMENT READ..

Prisoner is Alleged to Have Attempted Suicide Following Quarrel With Wife.

OSHAWA, Ont., June 10. (C.P.)—William Morrison, charged with the murder of his wife, Annie Morrison, charged with the muder of his wife Annie Morrison April 29, last was committed for trial by a higher court when he appeared before Magistrate Willis here this morning for preliminary hearing.

The most important evidence submitted consisted of a statement made to the police by Morrison on the afternoon of the murder when he had been found, with his throat cut, in a field northwest of Oshawa. In this statement Morrison told a graphic story of how he killed his wife following a quarrel over Arthur Walker who boards next door.

The actual killing, according to the statement read in court, was done in the bedroom in which the body was found, after Morrison had chased his wife all around the house with the hatchet in his hand. It was also stated that Morrison drank a quantity of Lysol in an attempt at suicide and had cut his throat but not to a sufficient extent to cause death.

Alex C. Hall representing the accused, made a strenuous objection to the statement being read in court, claiming that it had been secured from Morrison while he was in a weakend condition, and was the only link connecting Morrison with the crime. The Magistrate, however, overruled the objection.

ORR CASE WILL REMAIN CLOSED

General Assembly Refuses to Reconsider Case of Vancouver Minister.

DR. DUNN RESIGNS.

HAMILTON, Ont., June 10 (C.P.)—The case of Rev. Dr. Robertson Orr of Vancouver, whose name was removed from the rolls of the Presbyterian Church last year, will not be reconsidered by the General Assembly. Rev. Dr. Orr was suspended by the Assembly which met at Ottawa on the strength of a civil court decision in which he was involved. When 129 of his former parishioners petitioned that the case be reconsidered, the present Assembly appointed a special committee to examine the new evidence. The committee reported to-day that the case should not be re-opened, and this verdict was immediately accepted by the Assembly.

Rev. Dr. G. M. Dunn, secretary of the Budget Committee, submitted his resignation to the Assembly.

BERTRAM FAIRBAIRN

Many expressions of public sympathy were manifest at the funeral of six-year-old Bertram Fairbairn, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fairbairn of north Water street, victim of the drowning fatality at Haliburton on Friday night last.

Over the week-end a constant stream of sympathizers filed past the tiny casket and a repetition of such scenes were witnessed at the funeral held from the family home, yesterday afternoon.

Rev. Wm. Allan, pastor St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, to whom the boy was deeply attached, spoke feelingly of the tragedy which had caused his death at such an early age, and made reference to the fate that the boy was a member of St. Paul's Sunday School. On going to Haliburton for his holidays, the little fellow had not wished to miss Sunday School and received a Scripture text as proof of his attendance. The text was in the boy's pocket when the body was recovered from the water and bore a passage from St. Mark XIII:33, "Watch ye and pray; for ye know not when the time is."

The boy's little schoolmates from Garbutt's School in Smith township were all present at the funeral and the casket was borne by two of them and by two of his Sunday School companions. Other children carried the numerous floral tributes from the house to the funeral coach prior to which those who had been unable to obtain admission to the house for the service on account of the large gathering present, filed into the room where the casket lay.

Included among the many family mourners were the boy's grief-stricken parents and his two elder brothers, Roy and Clarence. The remains were laid to rest in Little Lake cemetery.

The bride wore a gown of white satin with veil of white net and coronet of pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas.

The bridesmaid, Miss Violet Watson, was in yellow taffeta with matching picture hat and bouquet of sweet peas.

Arthur McElroy acted as best man.

Later, a reception was held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Parker of 18 Givens Street. Mr. and Mrs. Wines will live in Toronto.

UNEMPLOYMENT BAFFLES WESTERN MUNICIPALITIES

VANCOUVER, B.C., June 10 (C.P.)—Municipalities of Western Canada are nearing the end of their resources for looking after unemployment, and Provincial and Federal Governments must face their share of the responsibility to meet a grave situation which threatens to become worse as the coming winter approaches, was the burden of opinions expressed yesterday at a conference attended by representatives of two Western Governments (Manitoba and British Columbia), and the chief cities in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia.

A special committee was appointed to draw up a resolution covering the whole problem

MRS. E. E. HARVEY IS RE-ELECTED

BOAT FOR CAMP.

The June meeting of the Y.W.C.A. Board was held yesterday afternoon. Mrs. H. R. H. Kenner took the chair for the election of officers. Mrs. E. E. Harvey was unanimously asked to again accept the presidency. Other members of the executive returned to office were: Miss M. Dickson, Mrs. H. R. H. Kenner, and Mrs. H. Harstone, vice-presidents; Miss E. Morrow, treasurer; Miss A. Wood, secretary; Mrs. G. E. Porter, associate secretary; Mrs. R. Turner and Mrs. W. R. Widdess, and convenors of Finance, Physical, and Residence Committees. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Finance reports were read by Miss E. Morrow, showing a small deficit for the month.

The general secretary's report mentioned the success of the pageant and some of the detail work connected with ticket returns, fees, costume money, and final completion of the pageant work.

The camp committee have looked after a great deal of detail in connection with camp. Excellent camp directors have been secured. Miss M. Walker, a graduate of the Social Service Department of Toronto University, will be in charge during July. Miss Walker has had excellent camp experience at the Y.W.C.A. National Camp at Camperdown and with Girl Reserves Camp in U.S.A. Miss E. Kennedy of Hamilton, who proved a popular and competent director last year, will again be in charge for August. Assistant director, good cook and caretaker will complete the camp staff. Improvements to the extent of $500 will make camp a very comfortable resort for 30 to 40 girls each week. Registrations and inquiries are already coming in. Keen enthusiasm is expressed as the girls register, one enthusiast of last year bringing eight new campers this year.

Boat Donated.

A wonderful and much appreciated gift to camp has been donated by Mr. W. F. Richardson and Mr. C. Rogers of the Peterborough Canoe Company, in a large boat for the camp motor. This boat, valued at $250, and with accommodation for 12 girls, will be on exhibition later. This gift has also made possible another gift to camp. The donations of several interested friends and the Peter Robinson Chapter I.O.D.E. toward this boat will be used for a camp row boat and cushions, life preservers, etc., for the motor boat.

Another gift to camp is a set of the new game gardminton by Mr. Millard. During June and September this game will be in use on the Y.W.C.A. lawn and all girls are invited to enjoy a game.

As a result of the camp shower, many other gifts have been received for camp, including 75 jars of fruit, 63 cans soup, 20 jars pickles, 108 cans vegetables, 2 dozen camp dishes, sheets, towels, etc. The thanks of the committee, board, staff, and girl members of the Y was expressed for these splendid donations and expressions of interest in Peterborough Girls' Camp. Folders and posters advertising camp are being distributed to stores, factories and schools, and it is hoped every girl who wishes a camp holiday will have her wish fulfilled.

The annual meeting of the Association was enjoyed by many members and friends. The Religious and Foreign Work Committee had completed their allocation and sent $160 to the Foreign Work Department of the Y.W.C.A.. Various Y clubs were planning special summer programs, including trips to camp and a mother and daughter picnic.

Calls on new comers to Canada, visits to girls at factories and applications through the employment bureau had reached many girls outside the regular activities.

The report of the Physical Department showed a splendid month in the swimming pool—161 pupils are already taking lessons and 55 have season tickets, the aggregate number of lessons being 378 and the aggregate swims recorded 530. Two swimmers' parties have been held for those who took part in the gymnasium pageant. Sports hour each Friday is attracting many swimmers, and provides an excellent opportunity for improvement in swimming, diving and stunts. Special repairs to the swimming pool have been made and include roof and skylight fixed, new screens and new motor installed in connection with the filter.

Arrangements in connection with the annual garden party were announced. The party this year will be at the Y.W.C.A. June 27. High tea will be served in the gymnasium. Special swimming exhibition and glimpses of the pageant will add to the program as well as numerous and attractive booths.

The meeting closed with prayer after which refreshments were served, Mrs. H. R. H. Kenner pouring tea.

Big Increase Shown In Cigarette Manufacture

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 10.—(C.P.)—Unaffected by economic conditions which have necessitated curtailed production in many lines, the manufacture of cigarettes continued its steady upward climb during the first four months of the year.

The people of the United States are smoking more and more cigarettes and fewer cigars. During the period from January to April one billion more cigarettes were manufactured than during the same period last year, more than 37,000,000,000,-000 being rolled. The increase in cigarettes manufactured for the four months showed an increase of 2 per cent while cigar production fell off 7 per cent.

This grant is made conditional upon a grant of $500 from both Somerville and Verulam townships, $1500 from the County of Peterborough and $1500 from the province.

JUVENILE BANDITS IN LINDSAY COURT

Arrest Follows Investigation of Organized Group of Thefts.

LINDSAY June 10.—(Special to The Examiner).—This town had an exhibition of juvenile banditry this week which had many of the frills which feature the efforts of veteran thugs.

A number of stores have been entered of late and money and goods stolen. The police were satisfied that the thefts were the work of an amateur, but they received something in the nature of a jolt when their investigations disclosed the fact that seven boys, the oldest of whom was fifteen years, had planned and carried out the robberies. One of their number, who had secured possession of a revolver, was elected the gunman of the party. His duty was to stand on guard while the other members of the party did the stealing.

The band was summoned before Police Magistrate Jordan. In the court room were members of service clubs as well as representatives of churches, who assured the court that they would take the responsibility of looking after the future conduct of the children. Magistrate Jordan gave the youthful offenders a severe lecture and allowed them to go on suspended sentence for a period of two years.

MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING

It was a rush period for the city's auto traffic. The gates at the C. N. R. crossing on Charlotte street were let down and immediately lines of cars formed on each side awaiting the raising of the gates. But no train passed and still the gates failed to rise. The traffic continued to pile up. A fast flyer must be about to come through, some of the patient motorists figured.

Then it came. Put-put-putting down the track an insignificant little hand car with two passengers finally sailed over the crossing and to the tune of many gnashing gears traffic movement was resumed.

SUCCESSFUL RECITAL.

A very successful recital was held in the art room of the Conservatory of Music last night, given by seven young singers from the studio of Dorothy Allan Park. The girls taking part were Camilla Fitzpatrick, Elizabeth Harrison, Dorothy Sager (of Tweed), Isabel Weddell, Eleanor Brown, Margaret and Agnes Fife. They sang a comprehensive program of songs by Purcell, Schubert, Franz, Mallinson, Dunhill, etc., including many beautiful folk songs, and won much appreciation from their interested audience.

SMOKE GIVES WARNING

Vigilance on the part of some persons unknown, was possibly the means of preventing what might have been a disastrous fire in the downtown business section of this city last evening. The fire, which was located in the property now owned by The T. Eaton Company and formerly occupied by the Capitol Lunch, was situated between a refrigerator and the wall. There was considerable smoke although the fire did not have a chance to gain a good hold. Alarms rang in at the Fire Hall at 7.25 by telephone and at 7.27 from the call box. All equipment was immediately rushed to the scene. It is thought probable that children may have been playing in the premises and have accidentally started the fire, as the rear door of the store was found to be open.

OLD FERRY STEAMER MAY GO TO WORK AGAIN

SARNIA, Ont., June 10.—(C.P.)—The Sarnia and Port Huron Ferry Company practically completed a deal yesterday for the sale of the ferry steamer Hiawatha, which was withdrawn from the regular ferry service six years ago and tied up in Black River. The old craft, of Canadian registry, will be recommissioned and taken to Little Current on Georgian Bay, where it will operate between Indian Village and Manitoulin Island.

GAMBLING OUTFIT SEIZED BY POLICE

Costly Layout For Shriners' Benefit Fails to Start in Exhibition Grounds.

Operators Leave Toronto.

TORONTO, June 10. — A gamblers paradise came to grief last night when Toronto police officers headed by Inspector David McKinney, of the morality office, Inspector Charles Greenwood, of the traffic squad, and Sergeant of Detectives Louis Williams made an unexpected call to the new automotive building at the Exhibition Grounds.

Everything was ready to start at midnight. House dealers and employees were busy putting the last touches on roulette wheels, dice tables, rouge-et-noir layouts when the two heads of the gambling syndicate were called to the door to face the police inspectors and nine picked detectives.

"This can't go on in Toronto," Inspector McKinney declared in no uncertain tones. "It is against the law, and we are seizing all the gambling material which you have brought in here without our sanction. All of you connected with this outfit will have to get out of the city and get out of it speedily."

"But we have thousands of dollars invested in this business," explained S. J. Taylor, of New York, one of the heads of the syndicate.

Equipment Seized.

Everything portable was taken away in the police truck and other tables and material will be brought to Cowan Avenue Station and headquarters this morning. While the costly gambling material was being carried out by the police, 25 gambling attendants stood by and five other cash and come-on men stood around wondering what was "coming off."

"It's just a little quiet Canadian gambling raid," explained one of the employees. "I told you boys I didn't think we could get away with it and I don't think so now."

As the men were being escorted outside the building they were told by the officers that they made a big mistake in thinking they could ever get away with that kind of business during a convention or at any other time.

This portrait of Sir James Barrie, British author and playwright, was taken on his 70th birthday or, as he himself called it, "his 70th mistake." Like his own best known character, Peter Pan, to whom a statue was unveiled in Toronto last autumn, Sir James apparently would like never to grow up.

Regular Meeting Of Bensfort W.M.S.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of Bensfort United Church was held in the church recently. The president, Mrs. Whittington, opened the meeting with hymn 142, and led in prayer. The minutes of last meeting were read and adopted. The president read a letter which explained about the summer school to be held in Whitby Ladies' College from July 7 to 14, and asked for delegates from the Auxiliary. A request was received from the Presbyterial asking Bensfort Auxiliary to contribute $1.00 toward the expenses of a delegate from George Street, Peterborough, who would be available for an evening service if wanted. The $1.00 was given. Owing to Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie moving to Peterborough, the office of recording secretary was vacant and Mrs. Stuart Thompson kindly consented to fill this position for the remainder of this year. Mrs. Collins, leader of Group D, had charge of the program. Mrs. H. Nicholson gave a very interesting talk on the hymn, "There Were Ninety-and-Nine," saying that an orator or singer must give his best, and he was so much weaker after giving of his or her best to an audience. She gave this thought to take home: "Faith is the key that opens the door to the room of belief."

Mrs. Whittington read some very interesting things from the study book, "From Jerusalem to Jerusalem." The meeting was closed with a hymn and short prayer.

HINDUS AND MOSLEMS RIOT IN ACCRA DISTRICT

BOMBAY, India, June 10.—(C.P.)—Rioting between Hindus and Moslems in the Accra district in which many were injured on Sunday was reported to the authorities to-day.

The disorders began when natives hurled stones at a Moslem "Tajia," a sacred object which was being carried in a procession.

The head constable in the Haroge Kathal outpost was injured when a large rock hit him in the head.

Police warned the crowd to disperse but the stone throwing continued. Two shots were fired into the crowd.

RT. REV. D. O'CONNOR CONSECRATED BISHOP

With Solemn Rites Of Ancient Church Bishop is Invested

Rt. Rev. Monsignor Dennis O'Connor is Consecrated Bishop of the Diocese of Peterborough Surrounded By All the Splendor and Dignity of Rite and Ritual of His Church.

SOLEMN PONTIFICAL HIGH MASS IS CELEBRATED BY MOST REV. ANDREA CASSULO, APOSTOLIC DELEGATE

The hierarchy of the Church Represented at St. Peter's Cathedral Included Two Archbishops, Five Bishops, and Representatives of Four More.

Surrounded by all the splen dor and dignity of rite and ritual with which the ancient Church invests her solemn pontifical functions, the elevation of Rt. Rev. Monsignor Dennis O'Connor, former Vicar-General of the Diocese of London, Ontario, to the episcopal chair of the Diocese of Peterborough, was consummated this morning at St. Peter's Cathedral, when a Solemn Pontifical High Mass celebrated by the Most Rev. Andrea Cassulo, D.D., Apostolic Delegate to Canada and Newfoundland, and the consecration ceremonies which followed, set his steps on the path which he will henceforth follow as Shepherd of the Cathedral of Sancto Pietro Vinculis (St. Peter in Chains).

Fifth Bishop of Diocese.

The consecration of Bishop O'Connor, fifth Bishop of the Diocese of Peterborough, and the second of that name to control the spiritual direction of the Roman Catholics in its boundaries, was celebrated under happy auspices. A friendly sun ushered in a bright morning and sent little golden shafts of light to linger inside the Cathedral and to glisten on the gold vestments of the celebrants of the Solemn Mass. The high altar, with its snowy Gothic points, blazed with lights and glowed with the soft pink of many roses. Across the choir gallery stretched the gold and white of the Papal insignia. A little breeze fluttered about the flowing purple robes of the bishops and monsignori as they walked in procession to the church, with nearly two hundred priests in line behind them, in their black soutaines and white surplices, some with bare head and others wearing the stiff black biretta, or priest's hat.

Sonorous Latin re-echoed through the nave of the Cathedral as the musical litanies, with their response, "Ora pro nobis" (Pray for Us) were chanted, and the two choirs joined in the musical portion of the service. In this come the solemn choral prayers and laudatory hymns, the Kyrie Eleison (Lord, have mercy on us), which is a cry for mercy and is repeated three times to each person of the Blessed Trinity. Then comes the Gloria in Excelsis, beginning with the hymn which the angels sang on Christmas night to honor the birth of our Lord. Later comes the Agnus Deo, que tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis (Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, have mercy on us).

Two Archbishops Present.

A large number of people filled the Cathedral, members of the hierarchy of the church, including the Papal Delegate, two Archbishops, five bishops, and representatives of four more, eighteen monsignori, and nearly two hundred priests from many cities and towns throughout the province and the district, a number of nuns from the city and from distant congregations, relatives of the celebrants, visitors from far and near, and representatives of the local Catholic and Protestant citizenry.

ASCENDED TO THE THRONE

After the Papal Delegate had prayed at the main altar, he ascended to the throne and was vested in his robes. The Bishop-elect, with his assisting bishops, also vested in another portion of the sanctuary. The ceremony was begun by the reading of the Papal Bulls, after the celebrants had taken their places before the altar.

The Bishop-elect was then questioned as to his knowledge and profession of faith.

The Mass commenced and proceeded to the conclusion of the Gradual, when the Consecrator, seated on the highest elevation of the steps leading to the altar, with the can-

JAPANESE NAVAL CHIEF OF STAFF QUITS HIS POST

DISLIKED LONDON TREATY.

Admiral Tangiguchi, Friend of Naval Minister, Named Successor.

TOKIO, June 11.(C.P.)—Climaxing a series of changes and promising peace in the future between the Cabinet and the General Staff of the Japanese Navy, Admiral Kanji Kato, Chief of Staff, resigned to-day and Admiral Shoshin Taniguchi immediately succeeded him.

Admiral Taniguchi, long a close friend of Admiral Kotora Takarabe, Naval Minister in the Cabinet and a delegate to the recent Naval Limitation Conference at London, is known to share the views of Takarabe concerning the Three Power Treaty and the re-organization of the Japanese navy to conform to it.

Victory for Cabinet

Under the present circumstances, Admiral Kato's withdrawal, long threatened as a protest against acceptance of the London Treaty by Japan, becomes a tactical victory for the Cabinet instead of menacing its stability, as had been feared in some quarters.

Admiral Kato has been appointed a member of the Supreme War Council, which is tantamount to semi-retirement.

It was generally agreed to-day that replacement of Admiral Kato and Vice-Admiral N. Sywetsugu, his vice-chief of the Naval Staff Board; ends the bitter controversy over the treaty between the Cabinet and the General Staff.

CHURCH 'FIRE BUG' GIVEN FIVE YEARS

James Smithers Found Guilty of Firing Birchcliffe Anglican Church.

WAS AT OTHER BLAZES.

TORONTO, Ont., June 11. (C.P.)—Found guilty of starting a blaze which did $14,000 damage to St. Nicholas Anglican Church, Birch Cliff, Ont., on December 30 last, James Smithers was sentenced to five years in Portsmouth Penitentiary when he appeared before Magistrate Keith in County Police Court to-day.

At a previous trial Smithers admitted being a spectator of the St. Nicholas fire, the $25,000 blaze at St. Alban's Cathedral and fires at St. Stevens Church and All Saints' Church, Whitby. He denied having witnessed the fires at George's and St. Davids.

The fires all began in the men's robe room. Crown Attorney Frank Moore pointed out that Smithers had tried apparently in vain to be appointed a lay official in an Anglican Church and that the blazes were all in churches of that denomination. Circumstantial evidence pointed to Smithers as guilty, thought the Magistrate.

New Diving Record Made at 800 Feet

HAMILTON, Bermuda, June 11.—(C.P.)—A new deep-sea diving record was claimed today for William Beebe of the New York Zoological Society's oceangraphic expedition, who descended 800 feet beneath the sea's furnace in a steel ball with fused quartz windows. The lowest depth previously attained was 225 feet.

Commends C.P.R. on Policy

Construction is Most Important Milestone in History of British Mercantile Marine.

LINER LARGEST IN WORLD.

Prince Makes His First World-Wide Radio Broadcast at Notable Event in Scotland.

GLASGOW, Scotland, June 11. — (C.P. Cable). — Making his first world-wide radio broadcast, the Prince of Wales, standing on the famous Clydebank wharves on the occasion of the launching of the Canadian Pacific Railway liner Empress of Britain, said the building of the new liner was the most important milestone in the recent history of the British mercantile marine.

The vessel, the Prince said, represented the last word in shipbuilding, and as to appointments would be found to have no rival. The building of what the Prince described as 'this wonder ship," was another sign of the sound Imperial policy of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

His Royal Highness went on to say the C.P.R. had built sixteen vessels in Great Britain since the war at a cost of $20,000,000, and this when shipbuilding in Great Britain was at a low ebb.

Greater Empire Trade.

"We have now moved the atmosphere of things Imperial which should give the most discouraged renewed hope," Mr. Beatty said after thanking the Prince of Wales for his speech. "While these are only the personal views of a private citizen of the Dominion, I feel I am without impropriety to say this is the ideal with which most Canadians will cordially agree.

"I do not speak in terms of Empire free trade, because as far as Canada is concerned, the rose of Empire trade would probably smell sweeter if called by another and more appropriate name, but I speak in terms of greater Empire trade or Empire reciprocity in trade, and of protection of the Empire against the inroads of products of foreign countries.

"The vast majority of Canadians will be strongly sympathetic to any steps to increase the economic strength and unity of the various portions of the Empire. So important do I regard this question that I believe it should be divorced from all semblance of party politics. Now that we are more immediately conscious of increasing our economic strength, we might profitably give greater consideration to the free movement of migrants from the older lands to the new. All embarassing restrictions should be rescinded for those who are able to come to Canada under their own steam."

Blazing Sea of Oil Takes Heavy Toll When Tanker Sinks

Vessels Collide Blindly Without Warning in Massachusetts Bay —Stricken Tanker Founders in Few Minutes With Entire Crew Which May Number 40.

ROLL CALL OF STEAMER FAIRFAX AFTER DISASTER SHOWS 18 OF PASSENGERS AND CREW MISSING

BOSTON, June 11.—(C.P.)—Flaming oil, spurting from the depths of a stricken oil tanker, believed to have been the Pinthis of Fall River, today was thought to have claimed the lives of more than forty persons aboard that ship and the passenger liner Fairfax outbound from Boston when they collided in Massachusetts Bay last night.

So suddenly did the tragedy occur that not a single survivor of the tanker was believed to have escaped the fog enshrouded inferno which followed the impact.

At least a score of the Fairfax's passengers and crew were unaccounted for while the Pinthis carried a crew of 19.

Scenes of Wildest Confusion

Aboard the big passenger liner scenes of wildest confusion succeeded the shock of the crash. Men and women, believing the ship doomed, hurled themselves into the sea only to perish amidst the ranging oil which poured from the tanker in all directions. Others were burned in their berths by the white heat of the fire which seared the port side of the ship.

The flames which swept both craft melted their radio antennae and temporarily ended possibility of summoning aid. The tanker, afire from stem to stern, settled slowly into the water plunging from sight 20 minutes after the crash.

Seven Near Death

One of the dead, a woman passenger succumbed to burns, while being brought here aboard a sister ship of the Fairfax, the Gloucester, which removed the passengers. Beside the dead and missing there were seven passengers taken to the Carney Hospital at South Boston where the names of five were placed on the danger list.

The Fairfax, a Merchant's and Miner's Transportation company ship bound out of Boston for Norfolk, Va., with a passenger list of 71 and a crew of 70, drove her bow into the port side of the tanker before watchmen aboard the steamship could do little more than shout a warning.

Tanker Heads Into Flames

Before the ships broke apart, the tanker, apparently loaded with oil, burst into flames. Blazing oil poured out upon the surface of the sea and swept by the waves enveloped the fore part of the Fairfax.

Eighteen of the passengers and crew of the Fairfax were missing when a roll was called later. Several were seen to jump overboard as the flames swept upward and it is believed all of the missing perished in the sea of blazing oil.

At least eleven were injured. It was 7 o'clock when the crash occured, barely two hours after the Fairfax had left her pier and crept down the harbor.

Gloucester to Rescue

The steamship Gloucester of the same line followed her out three hours later and was first to receive word of the accident. Racing through the fog she drew alongside the Fairfax and the passengers and crew of the wrecked ship were transferred to her. Shortly after daylight they landed at the pier in Boston.

Not until the arrival of the passengers did the full horror of the disaster become known.

The flames which swept up from the burning oil melted away the radio antennae on the Fairfax and halted her attempts to send out an SOS.

Repairs were started and the wireless finally began operating. The Gloucester picked up the message.

Captain Requests Aid

One terse message from Captain Archibald Brooks, commanding the Fairfax, reached the offices of the Company here, told of the crash, and asking that ambulances and medical aid be in readiness for the arrival of the rescued. Later a message from Captain A. C. Bunting of the Gloucester told of the transfer of the passengers.

The explosion, according to the passengers, tore the tanker to pieces and within a few minutes the last piece had sunk from sight leaving a flaming sheet of oil on the surface of the sea.

Apparently in panic and crazed by their burns several persons leaped into the blazing sea. Among the seven passengers who were missing were

DAMAGE ACTION HEARD IN COURT

JURY VIEWS SCENE.

A claim for $750 damages arising from a motor accident on the Port Hope highway near Bailleboro on the evening of August 17 brought by Herbert Stinson, local taxi man, against Norman Breckenridge, Northumberland farmer, was heard this morning in the General Sessions of the County Court. The claim was based on damages to Stinson's car and loss of revenue from the car during the time it was out of service.

Two Cars and Truck in Accident

Two cars and a truck figured in the accident. The truck, owned by Breckenbridge, was moving out of laneway on the west side of the road and was partly on the highway as the Stinson car approached from the south and a car driven by F. O. Campbell, of Toronto, came from the north. The Campbell car endeavoured to swing around the truck but in doing so side-swiped it and piled into the Stinson car.

Evidence was given by C. Alfred Law driver of the Stinson car, that Former Vancouver Minister Dropped From Roles After Divorce Trial.

HAMILTON, Ont., June 11. (C.P.—Acting for Samuel R. Orr, former minister of the Presbyterian Church in Vancouver, and whose name was dropped from the roles following a divorce trial at the coast, Sloan and Westland, lawyers yesterday afternoon issued a Supreme Court writ against the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Canada and copies of the writ were served on the Moderator and the secretary.

Extracts From Document

Following are extracts from the endorsement on the document filed in the local court.

"For a declaration that the proceedings of commissions of assembly in the Central Church, Vancouver case, held on July 20 and December 15, 1928 were irregular and unconstitutional as being in contravention of the rules of procedure of the Presbyterian Church in Canada whereby the plaintiff was wrongfully and unjustly deprived of his congregation and deposed from the rank of Christian minister.

"For an order compelling the Assembly to direct the hearing or rehearing of the alleged charges against the defendant by the proper judicial body as presented in the rules and forms on procedure on the Presbyterian Church in Canada."

"For amandamus compelling the defendant Assembly to quash the proceedings of the commission of Assembly in the grounds of irregularity.

The plaintiff in the case has been a guest at the Royal Connaught Hotel for some days. He was named a co-respondent in a divorce action which wasn't contested by the wife of the petitioner. He appeared in court, it is stated and denied the allegations made by the husband.

MARTIN SHAWIRA OPENS APPEAL AGAINST HIS DEATH SENTENCE

Claims Judge Erred in Failing to Warn Jury on Evidence of Accomplices.

CONTEST CROWN EVIDENCE

TORONTO, Ont., June 11 (C.P.)—Claiming the trial judge erred when he failed to warn the jury that the evidence of an accomplice must be completely corroborated, Martin Shawira, Hamilton taxi-driver, today opened appeal through counsel from the sentence of death passed upon him by Mr. Justice Jeffrey on April 10, 1930.

W. K. Murphy, K.C., appeared for the condemned man before the First Divisional Court. He recalled how his client had been one of a party of men who were said to have been involved in an armed robbery at the farm of John Iwanitz, who was murdered on November 26.

Iwanitz Killed in Cold Blood

Iwanitz was shot and killed in cold blood and three men were later arrested on a murder charge. Mike Smith, tried and condemned, later gave evidence against Shawira, who swore he had only acted as taxi-driver for the party. Joe Mekolski, third member of the arrested gang, will stand trial on June 23, at Hamilton.

Shawira came to Canada from Russia in 1913, and was naturalized in 1929. In addition to the point of lack of corroboration in an accomplice's testimony, "material discrepancies in the evidence of the Crown" are also alleged.

DOMINION PAYS STRIKE TROOPS

CLAIMED $133,116.73

OTTAWA, Ont., June 11 (C.P.).—The Province of Nova Scotia is "not liable to pay to His Majesty in the right of the Dominion all expenses and costs incurred by reason of the calling out of part of the active Militia in aid of the civil power in Cape Breton" during June, 1925. This was the majority judgment of the Supreme Court of Canada, delivered by the Chief Justice here to-day. Mr. Justice Newcombe dissented and Mr. Justice Cannon finding that liability was "conditional."

This settles a five-year-old dispute between the Dominion and the Province, in which the Dominion claimed reimbursement in the sum of $133,116.73—the cost of despatching and maintaining troops of the permanent force in Cape Breton during the coal miners' strike of 1925.

THOUSANDS VIEW COLORFUL MARCH OF "FEZ" NOBLES

10,000 Shriners Parade to Beat of Drums and Blare of Trumpets.

Unprecedented Spectacle.

Horse and Elephant Patrols Outstanding in Countless Novel Features.

TORONTO, Ont., June 11 (C.P.)—In a blaze of color, a blare of trumpets, a throbbing of drums, amid huge milling crowds, the spectacular opening parade of the Shriners' Convention, postponed yesterday because of inclement weather, to-day unrolled in splendor in Rameses Oriental Gardens. Between the double row of terraced seats that line the driveway skirting Lake Ontario, the unprecedented spectacle of the Nobles attired in their multi-colored costume uniforms, streamed before the Imperial Potentate, Leo V. Youngworth, Mrs. Youngworth; the Deputy Imperial Potentate, Esten Fletcher and other officials of the order.

10,000 in March

Over 10,000 Nobles marched in a parade that represented States as far away as Maine, California and the Carolinas. The smartest patrols of the Shriners' organization were reinforced by novelties of every description. There were horse patrols from Boston, Mass., Kansas City, Falls, S.D., and Sioux City, S.D. As the Syrian Temple, Cincinnati, O., passed the reviewing stand, four huge elephants at their head bowed to the dignitaries.

Murat Temple's Gun Club from Indianapolis, Ind., fired off their machine gun along the route while the crowd shouted "Chicago." Kismet Temple of Brooklyn, N.Y., produced a parade of the wooden soldiers after the fashion of the Chauve Souris.

Eastern Garbs Attractive

A sharp contrast was afforded by the bands at the head of the paraders, many of which, dressed in Eastern garb and playing Eastern instruments rendered "God Save the King," as they marched behind the flags of the two great Western powers. The musicians of the large delegation from the Southern States cities, Baltimore, Md.; Jacksonville, Fla.; Savannah, Ga.; Charleston and Charlotte, N.C., scored a hit with the crowd with "My Maryland" and "Dixie." Lulu Temple, Philadelphia, delegates stepped along behind the oldest of the bands in Shrinedom.

Mecca Temple, New York City, was followed in the procession by a large up-State delegation from Buffalo, Rochester, Troy, Utica, Albany and Watertown.

This, the biggest convention parade Toronto has yet seen, was the escort for the members of the Imperial Council, who resumed their business session this afternoon.

"Whereas the jury system is one of the most important parts of our courts. It is an honorable position that you have been called here to occupy.

"It is apparent that some have tried to evade it," he continued. "Three members of the Grand Jury are absent. One is ill, as to the others their absence is not explained."

He pointed out that those absent were liable to a penalty and even punishment. "If sufficient reason is not given it may be necessary to make an example of them," he stated further, ordering Sheriff Hall to make inquiries and learn whether they were sick or otherwise.

UNITED COUNTIES FREE OF CRIME

COBOURG, June 11. — "We are happily situated in these united counties in that it is more the rule than otherwise that you are not called together twice a year," Judge O'Connor said in addressing the Grand Jury at the opening of the June sessions of the county court here yesterday. "Since I have had the honor and responsibility of being County Judge I have been presented with white gloves by your sheriff on three occasions. That symbol represents that there were no matters of a criminal nature requiring investigation.

"We are proud of our jury system which is a very important part in the administration of justice in Great Britain and the British dominions. Some people at times criticize the jury system, but it i something that evolved centuries ago, and is looked upon by those concerned with the administration of justic and by the people generally as one of the bulwarks of democracy. It has been described as the most democratic of juridical institutions."

Judge O'Connor sketched the law court systems in the early centuries of Britain and the gradual emerging of the jury system, as the supreme power of the King over the people were reduced, and the people gradually assumed greater authority in protecting the rights and liberty of the subject.

"These counties are not quite so free of crime as this court might suggest to you," Judge O'Connor continued. "Any accused person has a right to ask for a trial by the Judge without a jury. In these united counties there is not a week passes without some person standing trial in the County Judges' Criminal Court. But these offenses are not of the most serious kind."

His Honor concluded by informing the Grand Jury of its duty to inspect public buildings in the counties such as the jail, House of Refuge and other institutions of similar community uses.

The personnel of the Grand Jury is: C. W. Massey, foreman; L. Byers, Cartwright; D. Crozier, Cobourg; M. J. Culley, Bowmanville; J. Eakens, Millbrook; W. Finnie, Cavan; K. Grills, Darlington; J. Isbister, South Monaghan; L. Lockhart, Alnwick; J. Porter, South Monaghan; Norman Waldon, Hamilton; Norman Watt, Hamilton; C. McIlroy, Port Hope.

What made him valuable to his newspaper marked his as dangerous to the killers.

"The Tribune accepts the challenge. It is war. There will be casualties; but that is to be expected it being war.

Jumps From Cab Just Before Vehicle Crashes Into Large Tree Near Norwood.

HAVELOCK, June 11 (Examiner Correspondence).—On Monday afternoon about three o'clock, as the Lakefield Creamery truck was proceeding east on the Peterborough-Norwood road, near Indian River bridge, the steering rod broke; the driver realizing his danger when the car did not respond to his efforts to hold it to the road, attempted to leave the cab. He had only reached the running board when the truck crashed into a large elm tree, about seventy feet west of the bridge. The force of the impact drove the body of the truck right through the cab and over the head of the engine. Had the driver not jumped just when he did, he would most probably have been impaled on the steering rod, with fatal results.

MOORE BUDGET BENNETT TELLS REGINA PEOPLE

1,500 Unemployed Hear Conservative Leader in His Second Campaign Addresses.

SCORES TARIFF CHANGES.

Proper Fiscal Policy Will Do Away With Unemployment Leader Says.

(By Thomas Green, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent)

REGINA, Sask., June 10.— Facing the second audience of his Dominion election campaign, Hon. R. B. Bennett here last night spoke before an audience massed in the armories. The main floor of the building was packed, the upper balconies were filled, and the words of the Conservative leader were carried by radio through the three prairie provinces. An estimated number of fifteen hundred unemployment men wearing "white badges" in the building directed the severe criticism of the oppositon leader on the government's policy on unemployment and the tariff.

"Mr. Dunning, the new Minister of Finance, was put in the house to speak the budget of W. H. Moore of the old Mackenzie and Mann firm", declared Mr. Bennett.

Betrayed Their Party

"Dunning did it with precision, took the report that Moore prepared and read it to the House of Commons. It was your loss and mine. Unemployment they say it does not exist. I would like to see them here tonight. They say there is no unemployment. We will cure these problems very simply they said. It is very simple. What will we do, they said. We will put a tariff on. A tariff on. A high tariff. What? A high tariff from the Liberals? Surely not. Why, surely, they would not betray their old party that way? Surely there is something wrong. Oh, no. I heard it. It is written. A tariff on iron and steel. Poor Mr. Crerar who could not stay in Borden's government because the tariff was high now finds himself with a tariff three or four times as high and is silent in both languages."

Alluding to the countervailing duties of the Government, Mr. Bennett referred to them as a "Made in Washington Policy." The result was that Western biscuit factories now found the duty on flour necessary for their need, he continued, raised from 50 cents to over $2.00 per barrel. "The Government was either right in the past nine years or right now," Mr. Bennett exclaimed. "The fact is that they did not know whether they were right or wrong. They are looking for votes. Even the Winnipeg Free Press speaks of it as an election budget. The Government is playing with the lives of men and women. Do they realize what they are doing?"

9 Years of Wasted Effort.

The Conservative leader continued: "Nine years of wasted effort before the great betrayal. It did not take Judas that long. Nine years. I put it to you in all seriousness: can you permit these men to govern this country any longer?"

There should be no unemployment in Canada with a proper fiscal policy. The Government, Mr. Bennett asserted, was to be condemned for not admitting that employment relief was a matter for Federal, Provincial and municipal authorities.

With a pronouncement for a pro-Canada policy, Mr. Bennett declared, "if the party to which I belong is elected on July 28 at the first session we will pass such legislation as will give Canada fair competition, an equal opportunity with her competitors, or we will go out of power. And we will do that at the first session of Parliament or die in the attempt."

The speech of the Opposition chieftain was preceded by a presentation of a bouquet of flowers to Miss Mildred Bennett and several brief addresses.

Liberal Convention For Victoria and Haliburton is Held in Lindsay.

Choice of Convention Asks For Week to Think the Matter Over.

LINDSAY, Ont., June 10. (Examiner Correspondence) — Dr. F. A. Logan, of Lindsay, a young man, of comparatively short sojourn here, were selected as Liberal candidate in the riding of Victoria and Haliburton to-day, but wished the privilege of thinking the matter over for one week before accepting. Twelve others were nominated, namely; T. J. Carley, Fenelon Falls; A. M. Fulton, Lindsay; Wm. Newman, M.A., Lorneville; George Parrington, Fenelon; J. McCrae, Lindsay; P. G. Perrin, Oakwood; W. E. Reesor; Lindsay; Jasper Foreman, Fenelon; F. G. Sandy, Omemee; Dr. J. A. White, Lindsay; Bruce McNevin, Reaboro; Mayor W. Eric Stewart, Lindsay.

Nominations were received in open convention and with one accord all retired until the last speaker, Dr. Logan. Mr. Nelson Parliament was the chief speaker of the day.

Campaign of Blue Ruin

Hon. Mr. Bennett and Conservatives were criticized for their campaign of "blue ruin" and Mr. Parliament claimed that there was nothing constructive in Conservative criticism. On the contrary it was destructive. He gave a history of Liberalism and predicted the return of Premier King.

Dr. Logan and other speakers claimed that the King government would return in the strength of the Dunning budget, the best tariff legislation the country had ever had.

Wm. Newman, M.L.A., condemned the Ferguson government for its liquor policy and claimed that excessive drinking to-day is the cause for hard times. He also claimed that the King government had commenced to put the padlock on the brewers and distillers in not allowing them export to other countries where prohibition was in force.

BIG ROTARY MEET AT COBOURG IS FEATURED BY PRESENTATIONS TO CAMPBELLFORD-KENMORE CLUBS

GOV. C. BUCHANON SPEAKS.

Campbellford Receives Shield From Weston Club For Winning Attendance Contest.

CAMPBELLFORD, June 11 (By Examiner Staff Correspondent). — What proved to be a big night in the history of the twenty-seventh district, Rotary International, was held on Monday at Cobourg, when the clubs from Campbellford, Weston and Kenmore, N.Y., were banquetted in St. Paul's Parish Hall, the guests of Cobourg Rotary Club. The occasion was the presentation of attendance awards to the Campbellford and Kenmore clubs, from Weston and Cobourg respectively. Albert J. Gould, president of the Cobourg club, occupied the chair.

Covers were laid for one hundred and twenty-five guests, who commenced the evening's activities by the singing of the American and Canadian National Anthems. Prominent among the guests were Governor C. Buchanan; J. McArthur, member of the Provincial House; Mayor Willmott of Cobourg, and Mayor C. Davidson of Campbellford. The banquet was carried out in true Rotary style, by the singing of community and Rotary songs.

The chairman introduced the speakers in turn, and extended a hearty welcome to the gathering to the town of Cobourg.

Ed. Baehringer, who spoke for the Kenmore club in the absence of their president, remarked upon the wonderful hospitality that the town had afforded their delegates. He was impressed with the private residences of Cobourg, and said that it must be a town of home owners. He thought that this was a good thing for any community, for it makes the people builders and not wreckers, and creates a fine public spirit.

E. C. Roy, president of the Weston club, in a few brief remarks, expressed the pleasure felt by his club at the hospitality extended them, and gave a cordial welcome to all to come along to Weston and partake of the hospitality of that city.

Alex. McColl, President of the Campbellford club, was the next to speak, and expressed the pleasure felt by that organization at being present. On the course of his remarks, which were full of humor, he stressed the fact that Campbellford owed a great deal to the Cobourg club. That since their inception, Cobourg had helped them in every way possible. The speaker realized the fact that Campbellford was not the largest club in the district, but in his opinion, it was the best. It had done good work in the past, and its present program proved that it was active and still going strong.

Mayor Willmott of Cobourg, when called upon to speak, stressed the external relations that existed between the two countries that were included in the district. He spoke of the common bond of sympathy and understanding that exists between the English speaking peoples, and how it was the foundation of the building of Rotary in its work for world peace. He emphasized the fact that in the past there had been difficulties between the two countries, but these had all been smoothed out and a spirit of mutual understanding created. Mayor Willmott also welcomed the visitors to his civic domain.

Flag is Presented

The presentation of the awards was the feature of the evening. This consisted of the gift of a Union Jack to the Kenmore Club, from Cobourg Rotary. The flag was brought into the hall under the escort of an officers' color party, with the sounding of the bugle. The presentation speech was made by Capt. Rev. T. S. Boyle, M.A., D.D., D.C.L., who drew attention to the honor and seriousness of his duty. He spoke of the Sixth Object of Rotary, which was international peace, good will and fellowship, and pointed out how this had been exemplified in the century of peace between the north and south. Of the history of British prestige and power, he said that it was as much the history of America as Canada. Speaking of Canada, Captain Boyle said she was a country, free and independent, an independent unit of the British Empire, and that she would always remain a part of the great commonwealth of that nation. Canada's entry into the World War had been an act of her own free will. Of the gift, the speaker said: "This is our flag, and I trust that you will carry it back to Kenmore and give it an honored place in your club room," and pointing to the American flag that adorned the wall of the hall: "These two flags spell peace, not only between nations, but with the whole world."

The speaker went on to say that the flag was given as a token of the peace that had been evidenced between the two nations for the past one hundred years, as an emblem of the Empire and good will, and as a symbol and pledge that Canada would always march shoulder to shoulder with America in any movement that would lead to world peace, fellowship and good will.

Ed. Baehringer, for the Kenmore club, replied to the presentation, stating that he received the gift in the same spirit in which it was given and proved his statement by, in turn presenting Cobourg with the American flag, with the same hope that it would be given a place of honor, and as a token of good will and fellowship.

This presentation was received by the chairman on behalf of the Cobourg club, who expressed the deep appreciation of all its members for Kenmore's token of good fellowship.

Campbellford Receives Shield

The second presentation was made by E. C. Roy, president of Weston Rotary, to Campbellord, and consisted of a Rotary Shield. In handing over the gift he expressed the hope that the winners would accept it from "the best club in Canada, to the other best club."

N. A. McColl received the presentation, and corrected the previous speaker by saying that Campbellford was not the best club in Canada, but the best in the world. In reference to the contest, of which the shield is the trophy, he said that it reached the acme of contests at the time. If any one member had missed any one meeting, the contest would have been lost, and took this as the importance of the individual member.

Governor Charlie Buchanan gave a very interesting talk on the work of Rotary in his district. He said that he was real proud of the twenty-seventh district, for it contained some of the best clubs. Made up as it was, with Canadian and American organizations, it had proved a wonderful means of creating the spirit of peace, of which there had been a great example of it that evening.

He also brought before them the importance of the monthly letter. This year there was an increase of four clubs registered as well as the attendance of the whole district being higher. The speaker also pointed out the work that some clubs were doing and took as an example Sudbury. This club had a membership of sixty, and raised in the past year the sum of $59,709. The majority of this money was raised through their street fair.

Of the district as a whole, the membership at the present stood at 4,010, as compared with last July, when it was 3,765. This, in his opinion was the largest increase in any district. The speaker congratulated Campbellford and Kenmore for winning the attendance contests, and commended to all the clubs the new Governor, Rev. Dean Miller, of Bradford, Pennsylvania, and urged upon all the importance of attending Rotary International Convention at Chicago this year.

Another speaker of the evening was Alex. Gray, representing the Toronto Rotary Club, who brought greetings from that point.

Contributing to the musical portion of the evening were the Goldrings orchestra; the Ionic Quartette from Campbellford; vocal solos by C. Stevens of Port Hope, and a humorous duet by the Kenmore club.

SON SUES FATHER FOR $1,021.55 IN COBOURG COURT

Two Members of One Family Are Opposing Litigants in First Case.

RENTED FARM.

Judge O'Connor Declares It Is Regrettable When Family Differences Brought to Court.

(By a Staff Reporter)

COBOURG, June 11.—Father and son were opposing litigants in the first action that went to trial yesterday afternoon at the opening of the June sessions of the county court with Judge O'Connor presiding.

Joseph Oliver, 1, plaintiff, the son and William R. Oliver, defendant, the father, are farmers in Hamilton township. The son sued his father for $1,021.55 and the father presented a counter-claim in the amount of $410.

Archibald Cochrane of Cobourg is solicitor for the plaintiff and J. B. McColl, Cobourg is the defendant's solictor.

After a venture as a tenant farmer for three years, the son leased the homestead for five years under an agreement signed July 6, 1925 for the rental of $200 a year. Joseph and his wife occupied half the house and the father and the other members of his family moved into the other rooms. The son took possession of the farm March 1, 1926 and remained until February last.

In the meantime the family had disagreed on the question of rent. The father forced a sale of the son's chattels under a seizure by the bailiff to satisfy a debt of $800, which the son contended he had amply satisfied by materials and personal services to his father.

The trial soon settled down to a wearisome, petty appraisal of the long list of items comprising the plaintiff's claim. He alleged that his file of papers showing work he had performed for his father and of values rendered in various materials had disappeared from his home prior to the bailiff's sale.

Judge O'Connor remarked that it was regrettable the family could not settle their differences out of court.

Worked Ten Years at Home

Plaintiff said he had worked for his father at home from the time he quit school at 14 until he was 24, when he began farming for himself.

"During those years I was away from home only two weeks when I went to work for Mrs. Livingstone. I went there because I wanted a suit of clothes. When I asked my father for the suit he told me to get out and get it. He said 'There's the road; go.'

I hired out at Mrs. Livingstone's, but my father sent my sister for me to come home. I went back on the understanding that my father would buy me a suit, and he did so."

Oliver eventually rented a farm for himself. He got $200 from his uncle $150 from a brother-in-law and another $100. His father gave him two cattle worth $40, a team of horses worth $150. Plaintiff bought farm machinery on notes which he eventually paid.

Rented from Father

"I stayed on that farm for three years and when the lease was up my father asked me to go home and work the old place. I leased the home farm for five years in July 1925 at $200 a year rental. I stayed in possession of the farm four years. My father and the rest of the family occupied part of the house, and I had the rest.

In the third year my father started chewing about a note for stuff I got at Dad's sale. It was for $316. I asked him to renew it, and he flew out at me. He said if I didn't pay it he would sell every hoof I had on the place. He criticized what he was getting for rent, and finally told me to get out."

Oliver said he had paid his father in work, grain, hogs and other values.

Plaintiff was told in February, 1928 to quit the farm. He moved off in the early spring of this year.

"At the end of January I went to my mother-in-law's home. I took the seed drill, cultivator and some plows. My father knew about it. I continued moving until February.

No Demand for Rent

My father had not made any demand on me for rent up to that time. I asked him how much he considered was coming to him and he told me $1,300. I told him I couldn't afford to give him anything like that. Then he talked nice to me and asked me if I'd put in two windows, which I did. Then he went to town and seized on me. I told him what I had done for him and hadn't asked anything for it because it set off against the rent. My father allowed $100 off the seizure bill, but I did not accept that as a settlement of my claim. I don't know how much was realized from the bailiff's sale of my goods. Mr. McColl, the lawyer, was clerk of the sale. I have not received any statement from him."

Plaintiff enumerated the details of his account which he claimed from his father.

The inventory embraced a variety of work and materials such as milking, doing chores, supplying 300 bus. of oats, taking care of place while the father was away ten weeks with his stallion, cutting wood, supplying gasoline and oil for a tractor.

The jury in this case is composed of: L. Austin, Brighton; H. Bailey, Cartwright; S. Brenton, Hamilton; C. Burrison, Hamilton; J. V. Kellough, Port Hope; E. McConnell, Percy; W. Neville, Hope; A. Polack, Seymour; E. Quinn, Seymour; W. Sheppard, Hope; W. Uglow, Port Hope; G. Porter, Haldimand.

Passengers aboard the ship were in confusion but order was restored within a short time and, according to officers of the Fairfax, all further danger had passed within thirty minutes of the collision.

Woman Dies on Ship

The body of a woman, who died aboard the Gloucester while the latter was coming up the harbor, was taken to the Northern Mortuary. She was said to have declared she came from Maynard and to have mentioned names of Elsworth and either Dearborn or Osborne. No such names, however, appear on the passenger list.

A checkup of the passenger list was started by the company officials as soon as the passengers had been landed in an effort to determine who was missing.

Mrs. M. Brooks, who had been reported by her son as missing when he did not see her come off the Gloucester. Later was found at the Carney Hospital. Her daughter Mary was not at the hospital and was believed among the missing.

Women Remain Cool.

The women, "God bless 'em," acted like majors, A. E. Abbott of Quincy, bronzed First Sergeant of Marines, said in describing a four-hour battle against fire and deadly smoke as flames blanketed the Fairfax almost instantly after the collision.

"With a terrible death staring them in the face," he said, "they assembled, gasping for breath, in the stern of the boat, while the apparently impossible task of saving the ship was undertaken by all aboard her.

"Huddled in a group with unconscious forms all about them, they refused to become panic-stricken, and thus allowed all the men to work in putting out the fire."

Sergeant Abbott praised also the spirit of the men passengers. After the first shock of the blast, they set to work, manned hoses and made no effort to get to life-boats until the Gloucester was ready to make the transfer, he said.

Taking no credit for himself, Sergeant Abbott told of the heroic efforts of four other marines and six navy officers, who, he said, "really saved the ship. But for the efforts of these men the Fairfax would have been lost and all aboard her burned to death or drowned."

Battle Lasted 4 Hours.

The battle against the flames, he said, lasted for four hours.

After the Gloucester had arrived here and its weary cargo had gone to hotels, Sergeant Abbott went in search of his fellow marines, to be sure they were made comfortable. Approaching a hotel clerk, he said, "I have no money. I left $400 with the purser when I boarded the Fairfax last night. But I want my buddies upstairs taken care of and I'll get the money to pay for it."

Graphic accounts of events aboard the Fairfax were told by survivors arriving aboard the Gloucester, rescue ship.

Arthur P. Saulnier, a marine, of Brockton, said passengers on the bow of the ship and in state-rooms near the bow were terrifically burned by the blazing oil hurled by the explosion. "They didn't have a chance," he said.

Other passengers told of seeing persons wrapped in flames leaping from the ship, only to land in burning oil on the surface of the water about the two ships.

Informal Statement

D. R. McNeil of Baltimore, Md., Vice-President of the Merchants and Miners Transportation Company, issued an informal statement soon after the boat docked.

"I am afraid some members of the crew of the Fairfax were lost" he said, "I believe they were all negro members of the Steward's department. The Fairfax had a ten-foot hole in her side."

"The crew acted fine and there was no confusion among the members" he declared. "Oil spread around the vessel on all sides and the flames burned the hawsers on the port side. Boats were lowered and a search made for the crew of the tanker. One boat was still searching when we left the scene.

"We did not ask for any assistance other than that from the Gloucester because after the first happenings there was no need for aid from anybody other than the Gloucester. At no time were we in any danger of sinking."

McNeil praised the conduct of the sailors and marines who were on board for their coolness and their aid in the rescue work.

Lost Tanker May Be Pinthis

FALL RIVER, Mass., June 11 (C.P.)—The oil tanker Pinthis left this port early yesterday for Bangor, Me., and passed through Cape Cod Canal at 5 p.m. Her course and speed, shipping men here said, would place her off Scituate about the time the steamship Fairfax sank an unidentified oil tanker.

The Pinthis carried a crew of 19 men and had a cargo of 12,000 barrels of gasoline. The Captain was Albert Jones of Fall River.

The vessel, a motorship, was owned by the Mallory Steamship Company and was chartered to the Eastern Oil Company..

On First Trip of Season

BOSTON, Mass., June 11.—The steamship Fairfax, which rammed and sank an unidentified tanker with large loss of life off the Scituate shore last night, is one of a fleet of five sister ships of the Merchants' and Miners' Transportation Company.

It was placed in service in September, 1926. It has a length over all of 368 feet, a beam of 52 feet and is of 5,600 gross tons.

Built especially for passenger service but also carrying freight, the Fairfax is one of the latest trans-Atlantic type. During the winter season it sailed between Baltimore and Florida points, but was transferred recently to the Boston, Baltimore and Philadelphia service.

The Fairfax is commanded by Captain Archibald Brooks. It was making the first southern trip of the season from Boston. The four sister ships are the Dorchester, the Chatham, the Berkshire and the Alleghany. A few night ago the Alleghany was reported in danger in an SOS call.

INTERNATIONAL PAPER and POWER COMPANY

Owned, including subsidiaries, by 79,000 shareholders in Canada, Great Britain and the United States. The Company's securities are listed and traded in on the Montreal and New York Stock Exchanges.

NEWSPRINT, HYDRO-ELECTRIC POWER—in less than a quarter century these have taken commanding positions in Canada's development of her natural resources.

Twenty years ago, Canada's newsprint production was 160,000 tons; last year, her mills produced more than seventeen times that amount—2,728,827 tons.

Twenty years have seen hydro-electric development in Canada advance with giant strides. Projects now in operation or under construction represent a capacity of 6,000,000 horsepower—1910 capacity has been multiplied six times.

International Paper and Power Company, established in Canada thirty-two years ago, has taken a substantial part in the development of these two industries.

From 40,000 tons in 1922, International's Canadian newsprint production has grown to nearly 400,000 tons in 1929, and the Company now is the third largest producer in the Dominion.

Until 1925, International's use of water power in Canada was limited to Company operations; today, its hydro-electric plants on the Ottawa, the Gatineau, the Saint John and other rivers serve Canadian industry with 622,600 horsepower—more than the total installed capacity on the American side of Niagara Falls—and the Company is the third largest producer of power in the Dominion.

What International Paper and Power Company is, who owns it, what are its policies and where and of what nature its undertakings, will be told in a series of advertisements, of which this is the first.

CHECKING THE LISTS.

Posters calling attention to the fact that registrators are to sit this week for the purpose of making corrections in the voters' lists have been posted up and should be read by the electors generally.

Although a new system of preparing the lists has been adopted on this occasion and enumerators have as far as possible secured the name of every eligible voter, like every other system where the human equation enters there is always the chance of a mistake or omission, and the citizen who values his franchise will make it his business to see the preliminary list prepared by the enumerators in order to have any errors or omissions amended.

The urban portion of the constituency has been divided into four districts, in each of which two registrators will sit.

The preliminary lists may be seen at the offices of these registrars.

As the polling sub-divisions have been altered for this election, voters should note the boundaries of the new areas and consult the lists in their own districts.

Although the chances are that your name is correctly on the list, there will be nothing lost by making sure while there is time to add it.

THE CAMPAIGN TAKES FORM.

With the keynote speech of Hon. R. B. Bennett delivered at Winnipeg and broadcast over the Dominion, the Federal campaign is taking on definite shape.

The Conservative leader is appealing for the support of his fellow-Canadians on a platform that includes protection for Canadian industries and agriculture, the use of the tariff to blast open new markets for Canadian products, the rescinding of "favored nation" treaties that are detrimental to Canadian interests, the development of Empire trade on a mutually advantageous basis, the improvement of transportation facilities by the completion of the Hudson Bay Railway, a Peace River outlet to the Pacific, the building of a national highway and the development of the St. Lawrence waterway scheme, and the launching of a national old age pensions scheme.

None of these planks were discussed in detail by Mr. Bennett, but will be developed in subsequent addresses.

They, however, form a guide to the policies on which the leader of the Opposition bases his claim to the confidence of the people of this country.

Premier King's opening speech will be delivered on Monday next.

It may include new features, but the general supposition is that the Government will ask for a return to power on the strength of its record of achievement while in office and upon the Dunning budget, particularly upon the extension of the British preference and upon the countervailing duties outlined therein.

31,000 KILLED; 1,000,000 INJURED.

Figures quoted by the National Conference on Street and Highway Safety, an American organization which has official approval and reports to the Secretary of State at Ottawa, prove—if any proof were needed—that the toll of death and injury from automobile accidents is increasing more rapidly than the registration of motor vehicles.

In the United States last year motor cars killed 31,000 people and injured one million.

The economic loss from motor vehicle accidents is estimated at $850,000,000, with the prediction that the billion dollar mark will be reached in a short time.

These are appalling figures that demand the earnest consideration of the public generally; unfortunately the conference suggests little in the way of effective dealing with the situation.

"Whether the mounting death list is due to a more intensive utilization of the average automobile," says the report, "or to the greater speeds at which automobiles are now driven or to a generally more reckless disregard of traffic and safety rules or to a combination of all three factors combined, it is difficult to say."

The fact that over half the 31,000 deaths last year were due to pedestrians being run down by motor cars and that the majority of these victims were children is significant enough to justify an intensified safety campaign for the protection of the public.

HIS LORDSHIP BISHOP O'CONNOR.

The citizens of Peterborough and of this district, regardless of their religious beliefs, are delighted to-day to welcome His Lordship Bishop Dennis O'Connor, this morning consecrated as bishop of this extensive diocese.

It is said of him, as could always be said of his distinguished predecessor, Archbishop O'Brien, that he has earned the heart-felt love and respect of Catholics and non-Catholics alike.

He comes with that splendid reputation to a community where we are glad to say there is a tolerance and a good feeling in religious matters found all too seldom, and it is safe to say that, like Archbishop O'Brien, he will contribute in no slight degree to a continuance of that happy condition.

The fifth bishop of Peterborough brings to his sacred and onerous duties the experience the ability and the personal qualities that are essential.

His has been the rare training involved in the presidency of St. Peter's Seminary at London where he had the opportunity of dealing with the training of young men, and in the vicar-generalship of the diocese of London, a position necessitating episcopal functions, so that in a double sense his experience fits him for the position to which he was to-day consecrated.

As a scholar, an administrator and priest, Bishop O'Connor's record would seem to most thoroughly fit him for his responsible position.

In welcoming His Lordship and in wishing for him many years of successful and happy administration of his duties, The Examiner is making articulate the feeling of the whole community.

THE EDITOR KEPT IT OUT.

A few weeks ago Mayor Foley and three members of the Thorold Council walked out of a regular Council session, taking that means of protesting against some business that was being put through. The editor of the Thorold Post did not make reference to the incident in the next issue of his paper, claiming that he did not consider it a good advertisement for the town.

At a meeting early this week a resolution was introduced at the Council meeting to censure the Post for not having given a full report of the meeting. Those who worded the protest resolution claimed that everything that happened at a Council meeting should be published, otherwise they did not want any report to appear at all.

The editor of the Post contended that he had a right to print what he thought fit, and that if, in his estimation, a certain event was bad publicity for the place, he had a right to keep it out of the paper.

The aldermen who want all the happenings at a Council meeting published are, perhaps, close to being right. The fact that the mayor and three councillors walked out of a meeting was news which the ratepayers were entitled to have. It was not a bad advertisement for the town; it would not keep any shopper from driving in to spend money, nor would it cause any resident to think it was high time to be getting out of the place.

The editor of the Post, we are certain, is quite sincere in his belief, but he could not prevent such a happening from becoming known by not printing it in his paper. As we recall it the item appeared in all the daily papers the day after it occurred.

It is a mistaken idea that keeping a thing out of a paper is going to hush it up. Newspapers are not so powerful that they hold in their hands the difference between publicity and silence. Very often when an event is not recorded in the papers just as it took place, the reports that gain circulation are apt to be more harmful —if harm there is—than a plain printed statement of fact regarding the occurrence.—Stratford Beacon-Herald.

BRITAIN'S VALUE TO INDIA.

While the position in India seems serious, the number of people who have taken part in the revolt against the salt tax is a comparative handful of the population. Gandhi speaks for but a small but vocal minority of the more than three hundred million people. If he really spoke for the Indian races, of which there are many of differing ideas, all the might of the British forces could not quell the risings.

If anything, the demonstrations have proved how the great mass of the Indian people is not in favor of the Gandhi movement. Hundreds of millions have been utterly unmoved by what has taken place and have no desire to get mixed up in an imbroglio with the British.

The vast majority of the natives recognize that without the British administration India would become a welter of anarchy, with higher castes riding rough-shod over lower castes, Hindus cutting Moslem throats and vice versa, and the British civil service, which makes government of the country possible and just, would be in the hands of grafters and illiterates who would let the economic and social fabric of the country fall to pieces.

What Britain does for India is illustrated by the construction, now well under way, of one of the most gigantic irrigation schemes in the world, at a cost of about $70,000,000, which will change 45,000,000 acres of arid, barren territory in the province of Sind, into a fertile area.

Railroads will be built in that vast expanse of country, providing sustenance for millions of people who will be permanently removed from the danger of India's curse—famine—and bring comfort and sound government to all who live within what is at present simply a desert.

Simultaneously the British Government is conducting extensive experiments to determine the best methods of increasing the crop yield in areas already under cultivation, and through agricultural schools and by traveling agents is instructing the rural population on how to take advantage of these latest discoveries in the science of getting more grain per acre. Some of the new types of rice recently introduced, it is claimed, yield over 450 pounds per acre more than types formerly grown for centuries on the same land.

This is but a new example of what Britain means to India. During the course of British government there have been many similar schemes, without which millions of natives would have suffered and died. Had the country been left to itself, the condition of the people would beggar the imagination.

And Gandhi would have this "domination" expelled. What could he put in its place?

Much of this money is furnished by the British Government and by British capitalists, and it is but right that the natives should pay a certain amount of taxes. Whatever taxes they do pay are a bagatelle compared with the money these schemes put into their pockets.

The protest against the salt tax is a mere form. The salt tax in itself is not a hardship. It only amounts to a half of one cent per pound of salt. If there were no salt tax the Gandhi crowd would demonstrate against some other tax. But whatever tax the people oppose, they should be invited to make themselves acquainted with what they get in return for that money, and to consider whether they should barter these profits for the chaos which would result from independence.

Britain will give India just as much independence as it can be entrusted with in its own interests. The sooner the present silly outbreaks are abandoned the quicker will the day of independence arrive.—St. Thomas Times-Journal.

A Thought

SELF-CONTROL

We have need not only to watch, but to keep up a strong habit of self-control. How it is that every act we do leaves upon us its impression, we know not, but the scars and the seams of our bodily frame may warn us of the havoc sin makes in our unseen nature. The current of our thoughts, the wondering of our imaginations, the tumult of our passions, the flashes of our temper, all the movements and energies of our moral being, leave some mark, wither some springing grace, strengthen some struggling fault, decide some doubtful bias, aggravate some growing proneness, and always leave us other and worse than we were before. This is ever going on. By its own continued acting, our fearful and wonderful inward nature is perpetually fixing its own character. It has a power of self-determination which, to those who give over watching and self-control becomes soon unconscious, and at last involuntary. How carelessly men treat themselves.—Manning.

What To-day Means To You

If June 11th is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 7 a.m. to 8 a.m., from 3 p.m. to 4 p.m., and from 9 p.m. to 10:15 p.m. The danger periods are from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m., and from 4 p.m. to 5:15 p.m.

Opposing influences will interfere with the smooth sailing of your ship of life on this date. Dame Fortune will frown and not smile upon your efforts, but you can, with patience and persistence, overcome her handicaps.

The child born on this June 11th will be very methodical and precise; frugal and persevering. All tendencies to melancholy should be actively combated. Its horoscope shows scientific and mechanical interest and ability.

There is an admixture of selfishness and unselfishness in your nature, and it is difficult to find the dividing line. It is the domineering part of your nature which makes you selfish. You never shirk your own responsibilities, and you are willing, and many times anxious to carry the burdens of others. There is nothing suits you better than to solve the problems of someone else. You help people, but you do not help them to help themselves. The possessive part of your make-up is strongly developed, and you love the feeling of ownership—this applies to people as well as things. You must be absolutely boss; your mind, your personality, your ideas, your ways, must overshadow those of others.

As a parent you would smother your children with love and care, at the same time denying them their precious independence of thought and action. You would probably cramp their development, and would be a veritable paternal or material vampire.

You have a most forceful nature, but not a tactful one. Your tongue puts fear into the heart of others; your efficiency is overpowering. You elbow your way through your difficulties, instead of choosing a smoother path or method. Your armour of indifference is not as strong as it appears, as it is easily penetrated, and you are easily wounded—almost "touchy."

CHAPTER XXXII.

"What!" She was once more alert and attentive.

"That's what he says. He says that he wants the whole thing to be dragged right out into the open."

Mary Kate's color faded, her eyes were round.

"What for?"

"Revenge, I suppose."

"Revenge! But revenge for what?"

"Being shot, maybe."

The absurdity of her question and his answer struck the girl suddenly, and she laughed. But it was a mirthless and anxious laugh, and died immediately into gravity again.

"You mean he wants money?"

"Gordy—I didn't see him. But Gordy hinted at money. He wouldn't hear of it!"

"But Chris—" She leaned forward on the table, her eyes puzzled. "My gracious, if a man breaks into your house, and is armed, and terrifies the whole household almost to death, at night, how dares he then—how dares he then to try to—to make terms? He's the offender, he's the one to be punished, if anyone is—"

"Exactly! And you're expressing that like a professional lecturer," Chris said, when she paused. His praise brought the happy color to her face. "But that's just where he's a freak, this feller," he went on. "He rather has us over a barrel, and he knows it."

"Is he a Socialist?"

"He must be. Gordy says he's a well-educated man, and appears to have a grievance against everyone who's got a little money. He says he holds that we have a perfect right to punish him, for housebreaking, but that he has his rights, too, and if he wants to give the whole thing publicity, and show us up, that's his privilege."

"The scut!" Mary Kate commented simply.

"Gordy saw him in the hospital, Sunday, and sort of tried to reason with him—said there'd be no trouble about clearing him, and so on, but he said he didn't propose to be let off his sentence because of the privileged rich—"

"But all he shows up—the only person he hurts—is me!" Mary Kate, who had been thinking fast, said bewilderedly.

"Well, exactly!"

"But—good heavens—" she whispered turning white.

"Now, don't [illegible]" Chris said quickly. "We're not going to let you get in for that, no matter what we do. But this poor sap has an hallucination—you're not having potatoes?"

"Nothing." Her appetite was dead. Her eyes were bright with fright.

"He has an hallucination," Chris resumed, "that some stupid intrigue was going on there that night—he kept hinting, Gordon says, that it was a married woman of the upper circle who was there—"

A sharp exclamation of indignation and disgust escaped the girl. She put up her head, her chin high.

"Well, exactly, that's what I thought", the man commented on her unspoken protest. "But he probably gets his ideas from Bolshevik journals, or from the movies."

"But why didn't someone tell him the truth? Tell him I am just an office employee of Mr. Rountree's—"

"Gordy did. But he didn't believe it. He kept saying that he would find out who the woman was, because he could identify her, and that when he found out who it was, he would expose that just as prominently in the papers as his case was exposed!"

"Well the papers wouldn't run a lot of nonsense on his say-so!" Mary Kate protested, uncomfortably, proudly.

"No, not exactly. But you know how they play up society stuff, and mystery stuff."

"But how could he say that he could identify me—he never saw me—he never saw me!"

"He says he did."

"Well, but you know he didn't! The room was pitch black, and he was just at the window—opening the shutter—"

"But he might have seen you before, Mary. Mighn't he have seen you at Gordy's perhaps—followed us home—?"

"Oh, my God!" she whispered, stricken. "Of course he might."

"He says that whoever you are he can find you—"

"To murder!" she ejaculated, incredulously.

"No. To blackmail." Chris could almost laugh at her consternation. "He must be a scoundrel," he repeated.

"But then—" she argued, thinking aloud. "But then, if he knew that I was only a working girl—"

Chris was watching her interestedly, as she formulated her ideas. Now he said:

"That brings you to exactly the point that I gather he reached with Gordon. He said—and this is the whole point; he says he wants five minutes talk with you, and that after that he'll give the whole thing up. Gordon will get him off, with the police, I'll pay his hospital charges, everything will be dropped."

"He only wants my name and address!" she exclaimed suspiciously.

"The police have those, anyway."

"Yes, that's true."

A silence while she looked into his face, expectantly, confidently.

"What do you think I ought to do, Chris?"

"Well, dear—" The word slipped out, but he caught himself. "Well," he amended it, "the situation is queer. Gordon says he seems a nice, quite fellow with a little mental twist on the subject of rich persons. We don't know, of course, that he didn't see you that night, at Gordy's and follow you with some crazy idea that you were being—well, abducted—that you needed—well protection—"

Getting into rather deep water, Chris smiled cheerfully.

"And what not!" he ended, with an eloquent gesture of the hands.

"So that perhaps if I went, and talked to him?"

"The point would be, if you could?"

She reflected frowningly; raised her head proudly.

"But of course I could."

"You mean you would do it?"

"If you thought it would make any difference." Mary Kate fumbled with her salad mechanically, laid aside her fork. "I've done so much—" she reminded him, simply, forlornly.

"Just what twist he's got in his mind, I don't know," Chris resumed presently. "But Gordon distinctly said that he was convinced from the way the man acted that he really would be responsible with you. He treats rich persons as if they were reptiles."

"I could just say to him that I am a working woman, from a poor family." Mary Kate mused aloud, "and ask him not to bring this terrible trouble down on my mother and the children."

Tears filled her eyes, she lowered them, and bit her trembling lower lip.

"Honestly, I don't see what harm it could do," Chris reassured her, sympathy barely veiling his satisfaction.

"I know Socialists," she said thoughtfully. "One of the girls here in the office goes to meetiigs."

"Well, then, if he is a Socialist, and you say that you have some interest in Socialists, isn't there a reasonable hope that he would agree to forget the whole thing?"

"I suppose so," she agreed doubtfully.

"Would you go up there, right after luncheon, and just walk in on him?" Chris urged, in a quick, confidential fashion. "I'll jump you into a taxi, and we'll be up there in ten minutes, and fifteen minutes later the whole thing will be over! Will you? What harm can it do?"

Her unquenchable sense of adventure rose strong within her. The orchestra was playing a stirring march now, and the rain had all but stopped, a wet sun was flashing over the world, and the bay was arched by a tremulous rainbow. Gulls flew white past the hotel window, the bay and sky had turned from gray to blue, and over the former masses of whipped-cream cloud were moving rapidly.

If she went to the hospital, she would be that much longer with Chris, and she would please him.

"All right!" she said.

"Good!" Chris approved.

Both began to do justice to the salad, and in two minutes both were talking animatedly again.

"What a day!"

"Look at it. It looks too brilliant to be true. And Mother made me wear all my rain outfit this morning."

"Ah, well, so did everyone else. Let's hope it's an omen, Mary. Let's hope it means our little unpleasantness is all going to be beautifully settled."

"Oh, let's hope!"

It was decided to hold the picnic at Chemong, on June 19th.

Motorists are complaining of having the glass of their cars broken by the flying small stones of the road. Several have had broken wind shields. The loose stones are really a menace.

Interest in Mexico's new road building program has caused optimism in regard to business improvement there.

Uncommon Sense

By John Blake

THE EASY CHAIR JOB.

The Major General reviewing a parade, or the Admiral directing naval manoeuvers from the deck of a flagship, is very imposing.

It is hard to believe that not so many years ago one was wearying his legs drilling in a military academy, and the other going through the same process in a naval academy.

The boss of the office or the shop sits in an easy chair and seems very enviable.

It might be a good thing if, during his rise to boss-ship, motion pictures had been taken of him so the office force could see what he had to go through.

I know one man who is now regarded as perhaps the world's greatest salesman, who travels in a private car and does about as he pleases.

He began life as a mill hand, and worked considerably harder than any of those now under him, for he began in the days before machines had lifted so much of the hard physical labor from the shoulders of the men in the mill.

In talking to young people beginning their careers one might paraphrase the well-known advertising slogan, "Don't envy the man in the easy chair, go through the work and trouble that he has gone through and be one."

I know it is true that opportunities are not the same with all people—that there is a wide divergence in mental equipment and physical strength.

But I also know that the majority of the men who are the big executives in great institutions have done, in all probability, harder work than most of the men they are directing now.

I know of one man, who is a conspicuous success as a dramatist, who began life as a switchman in a railroad yard.

And he has told me that he has put into his plays many of the experiences he gained there.

This gospel of hard work may be old and worn, but so are the Scriptures, and they have endured for a long time and are still as useful a guide as they have ever been.

It is the hope that, in some way or other, one can skip the hard places and the rough going, that keeps many people from getting very much further than they are getting at present.

Ambition is common enough, but, unless it is linked with determination and the will to put forth unusual effort, it is worthless.

To-day, as thousands of years ago, mental training is necessary to the acquiring of ability of any sort.

There is one way to mental training, which is to exercise the mind as the athlete exercises his muscles.

That is the only way, and you are merely wasting your time when you try to figure out others.

Don't bother about the exceptions. There are not enough of them to count.

ORILLIA, Ont., June 11 (Canadian Press). — Lying unconscious since she was struck on the head by an automobile at Lee's Corner, on Thursday, Una Duff, seven-year-old daughter of Ernest Duff of Orillia, is proving a puzzling case to doctors. The little girl has shown no signs of regaining consciousness beyond momentarily opening her eyes in a blank stare. Her pulse is steady and her temperature normal. Doctors say it is not a case of concussion, and are unable to discover the cause of her perplexing state.

Loan Money Plentiful On Mining Exchange

A SPECIAL SERVICE TO THE EXAMINER

Investments, like individuals, possess character. Character is built up over a process of years, securities gaining or losing in character as the years pass. Market price should in the long run bear a direct relation to the security or characters of an issue, but just as there are fashions in clothes so are there fashions in investments and when a particular class of investment is in demand prices may overreach themselves. Thus points out Dominion Securities Corporation in the June booklet of investments continuing the writer states that best secured issues may be undervalued because they belong to a class temporarily unpopular. The financial markets of 1929 afford an excellent illustration of this fact. Last year common stocks were decidedly popular and their prices were pushed beyond all reason. Bonds and other fixed date income—bearing securities were neglected and the prices were severely depressed." The result is well known—the stock market went through the greatest panic in its history while bonds and preferred stocks are now recovering from their period of neglect. Just and individual character weathers all storms, so does a good security."

Although no new financing is proposed in bringing together Anglo-Canadian Pulp and Paper Mills and Canada Power and Paper Corp. the assumption of debenture obligations and a guarantee of preference share dividends of Anglo by Canada Power is taken in some quarters to mark a definite alignment of British and Canadian financial interests in the development of Canadian newsprint industry. In addition to giving Canada Power and Paper an important share of business of the Rothermere group of papers, it should serve to place the new company more prominently in the British market for newsprint business of other large business of other large publishere, it is expected British affiliations will serve to provide outlets newsprint and also open up new markets for pulp, kraft and board paper. The Northcliffe dailies alone consume more than 250,000 tons of newsprint per annum and the weeklies and periodicals controlled by the group use a large tonnage of paper which approximates newsprint in quality and which the combined mills are well able to supply.

Second Recent Merger.

The merger of Anglo Canadian Pulp and Paper mills and Canada Power and Pa per Corp.is the second of magnitude to be effected within recent weeks. Lake St. John power and paper, St. Lawrence paper mills and Brompton Pulp and Paper were brought together, under a holding company, St. Lawrence Corporation, Limited, having a daily productive capacity of approximately 1,000 tons of newsprint, 100 tons of kraft and 70 tons of box board. The Consolidation of Anglo and Canad Power will bring into existence a unit of daily capacity of 2500 tons, the largest in the empire. Mainly as a result of over expansion, the newsprint industry has been in sore straights the past few years and these mergers suggest that economics to be effected in this direction, offer one colution to the difficulties. It is not improbable that other mergers may be forthcoming at a later date.

Thayers Expanding.

Thayers, Limited, distributors of petroleum products with head offices in London, Ontario, the shares of which are listed on the Toronto curb market, is pursuing a policy of steady expansion throughout Western Ontario. The latest service station to be opened is on Talbot Street, St. Thomas, cost of the station is approximately, $50,000, it is one of the largest and most completely equipped of the company's system. The gasoline pumps are a combination of the meter pump and visible pump. A feature of the station is accommodation provided for transient transport drivers at night free of charges.

ADVERTISE IN THE EXAMINER

Wheat Sinks Lower In Scant Demand

CHICAGO, Ills., June 11. (C.P.)—Influenced by moderate speculative selling and a scarcity of buyers, wheat values averaged lower early to-day, varying constructions were placed on the United States Government crop report, and the market effect of the report appeared to be slight. Opening 1-8¾ cents off. Wheat afterward rallied somewhat, but then sagged again. Corn, oats and provisions were also easy, with corn starting 1-8 cents lower to a shade advance, and subsequently holding near to the initial range.

DAMAGE ACTION

he was driving at twenty-five miles an hour. He said that Mr. Campbell could have missed the truck had the Toronto man been driving slower. He estimated its speed at 50 miles an hour.

Bill Kay, manager of the Raybestos ball team, and Douglas Moore and Edward Barry, members of the team, game evidence. Mr. Kay and Mr. Moore came to the scene of the accident in another car about ten minutes after the crash. he truck was partly on the highway when they saw it.

No Lights on Truck

F. O. Campbell stated that he did not see the truck until he was almost upon it. There were no lights on the truck. He swung to the left to miss it, but did not succeed. He struck the truck in passing and then piled into the Stinson car. He said he was proceeding at 35 miles an hour.

Highway Traffic Officer Wm. Hinchcliffe stated that he had investigated the accident and thought that Breckenbridge was at fault. He stated that Breckenbridge had told him that his truck had been on the highway and he had later moved it back into the laneway.

This concluded the case for the plaintiff.

NEWSPAPER SENT TO SHIP AT SEA

Mysterious Cylinder Prints Front Page Coming Over 2,310 Miles of Ether.

USE RADIO APPARATUS.

NEW YORK, N.Y., June 11 (C.P.)—For the first time a newspaper was spread out in waves of ether yesterday and picked up intact by a steamer at sea.

The experiment was successfully concluded when the first page of The Evening world was sent to the United States liner America at the moment 2,310 miles from New York. The paper was sent by the Radio Corporation of America's new photo-radio apparatus.

Joseph Sheedy, executive vice-president of the United States Lines, in his office at No. 45 Broadway, received the news that the passengers aboard the America, including a delegation of Gold Star mothers, had been in the smoking room while a mysterious cylinder with purple ink, spun out intact the newspaper page that had appeared on the sidewalks of New York. Pictures and type, he learned, were produced as clearly as in the city, while the stem of the America was nearing her port of call, Plymouth, England.

INTERNATIONAL NICKEL RIGHTS UNFAVORABLY RECEIVED ON CURB

Stock Drops to New Low of $26 in First Hour of To-day's Trading.

MORGAN INTERESTED.

TORONTO, June 11. (Special to Examiner.)—One board room visitor encouraged his fellow members this morning in seeing the mining market in a very good light despite the softness this forenoon. He pointed out that volume on the decline dropped off early yesterday and then picked up when the mart came back in the afternoon. To him this looked like a sold out market and, while the public were not buying stocks on a large scale, there was no rush to sell when Wall Street disrupted the works by going into a decline.

International Nickel rights were received none too favorably and this along with general market weakness dropped the stock to a low of $26 in the first hour, wiping out a large portion of the value of the rights. At the close Tuesday, nickel rights had a market value of approximately 47 cents, but at to-days low the cash equivalent was only equal to 34 cents. Canadian mining companies are hobnobbing in good company these days. Only a short time ago it was said that J. P. Morgan and Company, one of the most influential and oldest investment houses on the continent, had underwritten the issue of debentures of Hudson Bay Mining and Smelting and Smelting and to-day the gossip connects this same house up with the new issue by InternationalNickel. The story now is that "J. P." has underwritten the new nickel issue at $20 a share.

Expert Copper Sales.

Copper sales are being watched closely and the best news of the week was contained in a private wire from New York containing the information that over 3,000,000 pounds were sold for export early to-day.

Money, who wants money. This cry has been raised by those having funds to lend on call and the mining brokers are offered their share in the past two or three days one broker has had three offers from different sources to lend money against high class mining issues. This is the first experience of its kind for him and he is recovering from the shock.

The latest about Bidgood is that the company is to be reorganized and that plans have advanced to the stage where the property is assured of refinancing.

From the west comes a story that one of the largest operating mining companies in the Dominion has optioned the Voight group of claims adjoining the Copper Mountain Mine of Granby in Semilkameen District, B.C. There is a chance that the Duthie mine may be reopened.

According to gossip, it is proposed to go on with development work and leave milling and shipping till the silver market improves.

Senior County Court Judge Passes Away in Brockville.

ICE PATROL QUITS.

WASHINGTON, D.C., June 11. —(C.P.)—Because icebergs disappeared from the Atlantic steamship lanes earlier this year than usual, the Coastguards' ice patrol was discontinued to-day and the patrol boats ordered to their home ports.

Since the Titanic disaster in 1922 the United States has patrolled the steamer lanes for icebergs from early February until summer.

Racing Plane Sets Mark to Ne York

VALLEY STREAM, N.Y., June 11. (C.P.)—Using the low wing Travelair "mystery monoplane" which was a successful competitor in the Cleveland air races last summer, Dale "Red" Jackson of endurance fame to-day flew from Montreal to Curtis Field in two hours and eight minutes. He landed there at 10.53 a.m. (E.S.T.)

Flying time of regular passenger lines over the 400 mile route is four hours.

Jackson apparently did not push his plane as it has top speed of around 240 miles an hour. In flying from Montreal he averaged only a little over two hundred miles an hour.

WALL STREET IS SWEPT BY SELLING WAVE

But Substantial Recovery Made By Short Covering in Afternoon Session.

FRESH BEAR ATTACKS.

Several Important Issues Tumble to New Low Levels for the Month.

NEW YORK, N.Y., June 11. (AP)—The stock market, having just struggled to its feet, was sent reeling again by the impact of another wave of selling to-day, but managed to pull itself together and make substantial recovery by early afternoon. Important shares tumbled about 4 to 10 points before short covering began to cushion the decline.

Trading was in comparatively light volume, but the violence of yesterday's upturn was in itself enough to bring out liquidation being held up for better levels, and this attracted fresh bear attacks. There was no inclination to support the market until the selling had run its course.

Several important issues tumbled to new lows. Lambert dropped 9 points, and Bethlehem Steel 6, both to new 1930 minimums. Shares losing 4 to 6 points before the rally included such issues as U.S. Steel, Radio, General Electric, American Can, Standard Gas, Electric Power and Light, Western Union, Public Service of N. J., United Aircraft and Colorado Fuel. Air Reduction, Johns Manville, Houston Oil, Eastman Kodak and Allied Chemical lost about 7 to 10. Case tumbled more than 17 points, and Auburn more than 13 to a new low.

CANADIAN LEGION B.E.S.L.
Peterborough Branch

All returned men should be prepared to take their hat off to the Canadian Legion B. E. S. League.

The Canadian Legion today stands for everything that really mattered, good comradeship, good citizenship, and the heroic spirit that came out so strongly during the Great War, were really embodied in the Legion. And as need of an Organization by ex-service men after the War, today the Canadian Legion B.E.S. League supplied a much felt want, provided that all returned men and ex-service men stick together as members and played for "the side" in the same way as they stuck together and won through the war.

They do not stand for War at all those who were there like to think of another side of the War and that is what the Canadian Legion stood for and meant to its members.

There is no doubt that the Legion was a factor having immense possibilities for the Welfare of ex-service men today, and we want to see its healthy Branches growing from strengh to strength. And all ex-service men should be proud of the Organization and help to shoulder its responsibilities by flocking to its membership.

It is getting to be an organization to be looked up to by the public and the recent Pension Legislative Achievements, the outcome of which should inspire the members and all men eligible to become members with the utmost confidence and encourage them all to secure the maximum efficiency in all its branches.

The Legion you must admit is also one of the finest Bulwarks in our country against Communism.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion, their work is splendid and has a great desire to help the men, and their efforts in this connection are supreme in all their details.

The Canadian Legion has a very real function to perform in our country and referring to the recent amendments in the Pension Act and Soldiers' Allowance, we must bear in mind Acts dealing with expenditure of money on pensions and other things had to be very concise, and it is obvious that no Act of Parliament could cover every single case; there have been cases sometimes the men were left outside Legislative provisions through no fault of their own, and it was to assist those men is one of the problems that the Legion has done such an enormous amount of good, and to carry on this work we must have all service men on the inside and the Legion stands as one of the finest charitable organizations in the country.

AT ARM'S LENGTH

To the Editor of The Examiner:

Dear Sir:—

Mr. Bennett has now made it quite clear that Canada is to approach Empire Dominions at arms' length. No preferences for anybody. Now, however, we are faced with something new. If the Empire is not united and formed, its ports will be, where possible, taken over by the U.S.A.

Africa, for example, supplies half the gold of the world. Coal, gold, timber and oil, are what the U.S.A. wants a monopoly of and a wrecked British Empire affords them the opportunity. To stand off the formation of the Empire is an economic blunder of fatal importance to the rest of the world and places all power in the U.S.A.

INDIAN SOUGHT AFTER ASSAULT

Cornwall Man Dies After Alleged Attack While Capturing Boat.

POSSES SCOUR RESERVE.

CORNWALL, Ont., June 11 (C.P.). —Police posses are scouring the surrounding country to-day for two Indians accused of murdering Ernest Gatien, 24, who died in the General Hospital yesterday afternoon after an altercation over the ownership of a rowboat. One Indian was arrested on Pilon Island early to-day and held as a material witness, but police refuse to divulge his name or state the part he is suspected of playing in the murderous assault.

Gatien, with a companion, Napoleon Lefebvre, were fishing in the St. Lawrence on Monday night when they saw two Indians rowing a boat from the Canadian shore to Cornwall Island. Recognizing the skiff as having been stolen two weeks ago from the local wharf, the men gave chase in their motor boat. When ordered to give over the boat, the Indians made a show of assenting and rowed to the island shore.

Fell in Water.

Gatien and Lefebvre followed, and the former, upon reaching the island, jumped for short but stumbled and fell in the shallow water. Lefebvre claims that one of the Indians, seeing Gatien struggling to rise in the water, beat him over the head with an oar and then disappeared into the bush.

Lefebvre, thinking his companion was not seriously injured, took him back to the town and left him overnight in his boat. Yesterday morning, Gatien's father came across him and immediately had him removed to the hospital. He died five hours after being admitted.

Provincial and local police, augmented by two constables from the R.C.M.P. detachment at Ottawa, began a search for the two suspected men yesterday afternoon. Armed with "John Doe" warrants and furnished with accurate descriptions of the men by Lefebvre, the police concentrated their search on the Indian reserve nearby.

ELEVATOR BURNS IN PORT ARTHUR

PORT ARTHUR, Ont., June 11.—(C.P.)—Three hundred thousand dollars damage is estimated as result of the destruction today by fire of the Union Terminal elevator workhouse. The building broke into flames shortly after mid night from unexplained cause and the conflagration raged for more than ten hours before it was brought under control.

Thousand of lake-head residents, roused from their beds by the crackling of flames and the commotion caused by the action of all available fire-fighting equipment, gathered at the scene. Reflection of the flames, which swirled to 100 feet in the air, cast a red glow over the entire lake front in the darkness.

Estimate of damage was unofficial as head offices of the company are in Winnipeg, and representatives at the Lake Head would hazard no figure as probable loss.

JOSEPH FONTAINE IS DEAD IN HULL

Deceased One of Most Prominent French-Canadian Members of Commons.

LAURIER'S FRIEND.

HULL, Que., June 11.—(C.P.)—Joseph Eloi Fontaine, Liberal member of Parliament for Hull since 1917, died this morning after a protracted illness. He was in his 64th year.

While ill health made it impossible for Dr. Fontaine to take his Commons seat during the last two sessions of Parliament his condition was not regarded as serious. In fact last week he was reported to have taken a distinct turn for the better.

The funeral will be held from his late residence Friday morning.

The City of Hull lost a distinguished citizen and former city father, and the House of Commons one of its most prominent French-Canadian members in the death of Dr. Fontaine. He made his home here for nearly 35 years, and took an active interest in civic progress until recent years, when his parliamentary activities absorbed most of his time.

Aided Hospital Building.

As a physician he was an honored member of the Hull Medical Association, and it was chiefly through his efforts that the Sacred Heart Hospital was built.

Dr. R. Fontaine was a forceful campaign speaker and was an intimate friend of the late Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Born at Beloeil, Que., September 24, 1865, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fontaine, French-Canadian pioneers, he received his education at St. Mari. Du Manior, Marieville, Que., and the Victoria Medical College, Montreal, from which he graduated with honors.

He started his practice as a physician in 1890 at Papineauville, later moving to Buckingham, and from there came to Hull in 1897.

MARRIED LADY TEACHERS BANNED IN WINNIPEG

WINNIPEG, Man., June 11 (C.P.) —Married women will in future not be employed as teachers in Winnipeg schools, it was decided at a meeting of the school board Tuesday night. Married women now employed will be given notice that their contract will terminate December 31, 1930, unless exceptional circumstances prevail to warrant continued employment after that date.

It was also decided, in view of the existing unemployment situation, that the board will "record its disapproval of the acceptance by its employees of remunerative vacational employment."

HUNDREDS FIGHT TO CHECK FIRES

Outbreaks Continue Around Port Arthur Despite Desperate Efforts.

MORE PLANES USED.

PORT ARTHUR, Ont., June 11 (Casandian Press). — Fire rangers by the hundred to-day continued their struggle against forest blazes in the lakehead area. Through a night of toil, the situation failed to show improvement and to-day all fires still raged through died-out land. A new outbreak is reported from south-west Balke Township.

New airplanes are being added to the force already in use surveying the fire-ridden sections. Late to-day it is expected the Ontario Forestry Branch, Royal Canadian Air Force, and Western Canada Airways will be represented in aerial squadron riding range on the burning timber lands.

Fourteen miles from Onion Lake Dam, a wind-whipped conflagration is sweeping over wide stretches of country. Fire-fighters are seeking to halt new outbreaks in Helen Township, north of Hurkett, where extensive damage was caused by the violent blazes of a week ago. Great danger exists in Mack Township, 90 miles north-west of Port Arthur, where some 20 men are battling the blazes.

Improvement is noted to-day in the Lake Nipigon sector, due north of the lakehead, as well as in the Mackenzie and Beck sections.

CHICAGO, Ills., June 11 (C.P.)—A reward of $55,000 hangs to-day aver the head of the man who murdered Alfred (Jake) Lingle.

The Tribune, for whom he worked as a reporter, was first, offering $25,000, for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the killer. Its morning competitor, The Herald and Examiner, to-day had added another $25,000, and The Evening Post has offered $5,000.

The slaying of Lingle on Monday afternoon in the Illinois Central subway at Randolph street, has been followed by such concerted public and official indignation as has seldom been provoked here in recent years.

The murder, as Coroner Herman Bundesen pointed out, demands solution because it is the first in which gangland has dared to shoot down in its sensational manner a respected citizen. Invariably before it has been gangster shooting down gangster. The public has refused to become exercised over such murders. The public attitude has been, as the coroner said, that a gangster slain is good riddance.

CANDY SHOP BANDIT GIVEN SIX MONTHS

TORONTO, Ont., June 11.—(C.P.) —Harry Cohen, 26, of New York, was sentenced to six months definite and 12 months indefinite in the Ontario Reformatory, in Police Court today on a charge of having held up a candy store on June 3 last.

Magistrate Brown in commenting upon the sentence said the hold-up was "more crude than criminal" and because inquiries revealed he came from a very respectable Montreal family and to have had a good character there, he preferred condemning him to reformatory instead of Penitentiary.

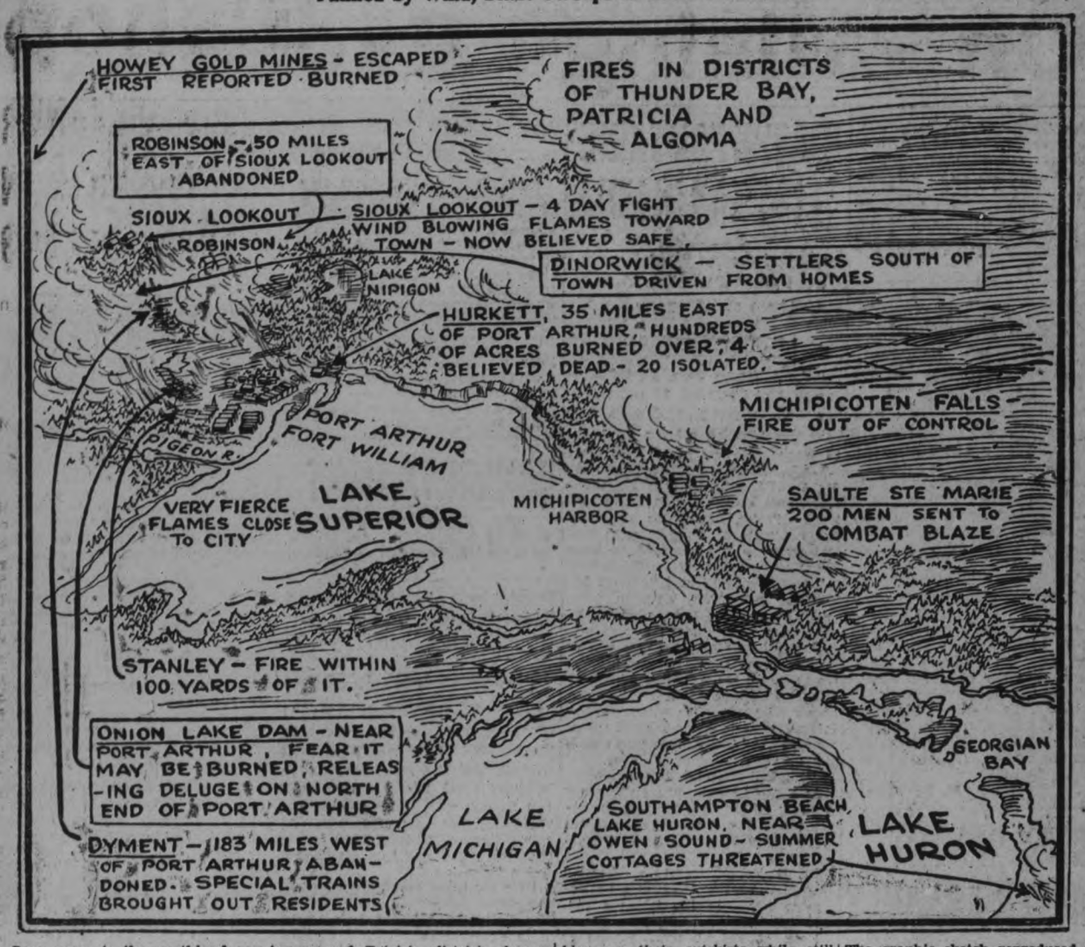
Fanned by Wind, Blaze Sweeps to Outskirts of Towns



Once more is the northland ravaged by forest fires. Reports state that over an area stretching from Sioux Lookout east to Parry Sound, and north through Thunder Bay, Algoma and Patricia districts, homesteaders have been forced to abandon farms, others are isolated and cut off. Four persons it is reported, are missing. Towns are battling the blaze on their outskirts while still other communities have been evacuated. A fresh wind enhances the peril and only rain, so it is stated, can now check the path of the fire. The graphic sketch reproduced here and drawn by The Examiner's artist indicates where the fires are and illustrates the gravity of the situation.

Rt. Rev. Dennis O'Connor is Consecrated Bishop

WITH ALL THE SOLEMN RITES OF ANCIENT CHURCH, BISHOP OF PETERBORO CONSECRATED

didate before him, prayed for grace of state and intoned the litanies during which the Bishop-elect prostrated himself and the assisting clergymen knelt.

The Book of the Gospels was then placed upon the shoulders of the Bishop-elect and the Consecrator and co-Consecrators touched with both hands the head of the candidate, saying: "Receive the Holy Ghost."

A Preface was then chanted and the hymn, "Come, Holy Ghost" was intoned. After the first verse, the Consecrator seated himself and anointed with holy chrism the head of the new Bishop. At the end of the resumed Preface, the hands were anointed with the holy oils, the Consecrator saying:

"May these hands be anointed with the sanctified oil and the chrism of sanctification, as Samuel anointed David to be King and Prophet; so may they be anointed and consecrated."

Symbol of Fidelity.

Then followed the blessing and imposition of the crozier, "the staff of the pastoral office", and next the blessing and investing of the of the ring, "the symbol of fidelity."

Then the Consecrator took the Book of the Gospels from the shoulders of the Bishop-elect and said: "Receive the Gospel and go preach to the people committed to thee."

At the conclusion of the sermon, which intervened here, and the Offertory having been said, the Consecrator resumed his position in the episcopal chair. The Bishop-elect, kneeling before him, received two lighted candles, two loaves of bread and two small casks of wine and kissed the Consecrator's hands upon receiving these symbolic gifts. The Mass was then continued and just prior to the Communion, the Pax, or kiss of Peace, was given by the Consecrator to the Bishop-elect and to his assistants. It was also imparted in turn to the other clergymen in the sanctuary.

The blessing and conferring of the Mitre followed the "Ite Missa Est", which marks the ending of the Mass. The Consecrator then blessed the gloves and ring to be worn by the new Bishop and placed these upon his hands. The new Bishop was then enthroned by the Consecrator and the triumphal strains of the Te Deum resounded through the Cathedral.

Archbishop O'Brien Preaches.

In the consecration sermon, Archbishop O'Brien, preaching for his successor in the episcopal office, spoke with all the fervor and sincerity, the kindly force and the eloquent words which have ever marked his utterances as priest, bishop and archbishop, in this, his native church. In part, he said:

"Christ's life and mission must be perfected as long as there are human beings to be saved. Christ, as the author of grace, indicated His holy will when He established the foundation for our spiritual life in this world and for the attainment of spiritual life in the world to come. In choosing His twelve apostles to be His intimates during His life on earth, He gave them wonderful powers, and, that those powers might be as efficacious in the salvation of souls during our day as they were in the days of the early Christians, He addressed to His apostles these words, 'As the Father hath sent Me, I also send you. He that heareth you, heareth me. Whatsoever you shall loose upon earth shall be loosed also in heaven." These are the words of Christ Himself and therefore they must be true, just as is His guarantee that He will be with His church "even to the consummation of the world."

"St. Paul, who was chosen by God in a wonderful manner, yet did not undertake the work of a bishop until the imposition of hands upon him."

Duties Are Outlined.

The archbishop outlined the duties of a bishop as the custodian of the faith and morals of his flock, and went on to speak of the symbolism of the consecrating service, when, by reason of the power invested in him, the grace of the Holy Ghost imbues the soul of the consecrated one. In the mitre or bishop's ceremonial hat, in the crozier or staff, in the episcopal ring and gloves are epitomized the attributes of a powerful faith, of authority and of fidelity to the things of God, with which the Bishop is invested, by virtue of his sacred office. The Book of Gospels is given him with which to preach the word of God and he makes, for the use of the altar, an offering of candles, bread and wine.

Loyalty Assured.

To his newly-consecrated successor, Archbishop O'Brien expressed the hope that the choicest of God's blessings might enrich his labors. He spoke of the zeal, the prudence and the foresight of his namesake, the late Bishop O'Connor of Peterborough, especially in the foundation here of the Sisters of St. Joseph, and he assured the Bishop of wonderful loyalty and co-operation from the priests and people of the diocese. This support, he said, had been unswerving, and steadfast from clergy and laity alike, during his own reign as Bishop in this diocese, where the tradition of regarding their Bishop as a leader sent by God, had always obtained.

To the people of his native parish, the Archbishop spoke words of heartfelt thanks for the whole-hearted loyalty and obedience which they had always accorded to him, and he asked them to pray for their newly consecrated bishop, "that Almighty God may bless his every word and action and that great things for God's honor may be accomplished in this diocese of Peterborough."

Bishop O'Conner Speaks.

In his first public utterance in Peterborough, Bishop O'Connor commenced by expressing his gratitude to the Papal Delegate and the Co-Consecrators, Bishop Ryan and Bishop McNally, whom he addressed as his "elder brothers," along with Archbishop O'Brien, his predecessor in office.

"I am beginning to-day to walk along the path which you have travelled. May the wisdom garnered from your years of experience be a lamp to my feet and a guide to my way."

The Bishop also thanked the priests of the diocese and the laity for their whole-hearted and cordial welcome. To the former he addressed a wish for their co-operation.

"The foundations have been well laid and the walls truly built in this House of Israel. It devolves upon you and me to carry on the superstructure. And the greater the sympathy that exists between us, the better will this be done. I think you will find me kindly. It is not hard for me to be kind to priests, for I love them and I love the priesthood. I ask you for your respect and confidence and love. Someone, I think it is Thomas a Kempis, has said that "none is fit to rule who has not first learned to obey." Well, I have learned to obey and reverence my superiors and I ask no more from you than I have given to them in the past."

To the laity of Peterborough, the Bishop extended his gratitude for their friendly reception to him, a stranger, who, up to the last forty-eight hours, had never set foot within the city nor even within the boundaries of the diocese.

Salvation of Souls.

Remarking that he had no plan to formulate and no policy to announce, he said that the transcendent purpose of his life, to which all others were subservient, was the salvation of souls. In pursuit of that purpose, "there is nothing in my mind but Jesus Christ and Him Crucified. I wish to live at peace with all men and I desire for that purpose that there be union among you. For me, there is neither Jew nor Gentile, neither bond nor free. You are all one in Christ Jesus.

"I ask for your continued generous co-operation and for support in all things that matter; in the conquest of virtue by vice and the triumph of spirituality over materialism. Your reputation has been known to me for some time, as a people loyal and faithful, and I ask for your help in carrying on the work of God which has been entrusted to me in this diocese."

Visited Here Two Years Ago

The Apostolic Delegate, speaking briefly at the conclusion of the ceremony referred to pleasant memories of his visit here two years ago, as a delightful souvenir of his stay in Peterborough.

He was here today to consecrate the successor to Archbishop O'Brien, who was born in Peterborough and who had been for so many years priest and bishop in the city. Just as Archbishop O'Brien had no thought of leaving his native city, so had Bishop O'Connor little idea of leaving his beloved Seminary in London. Both had bowed to the will of Divine Providence in their regard.

Monsignor Cassulo closed with a eulogy of Archbishop O'Brien and of his successor, Bishop O'Connor, and expressed the hope that the rule of the latter in this diocese would be blessed by God and be the means of doing very much good.

Monsignor McKeon Present.

A notable figure in the list of clergy present for the ceremony was Monsignor P. J. McKeon, of London, who was instrumental, many years ago, in directing the steps of the young man who is now Bishop of Peterborough, toward the study for the priesthood.

Shortly after nine o'clock, the procession from the Bishop's Palace made its way to the Cathedral. Led by a number of priests, with their lace-trimmed white surplices over long black soutaines, a group of altar boys followed. Then came another file of priests, walking two abreast ahead of the white and gold canopy beneath which walked the Papal Delegate, in his robes of office, wearing the cappa magna, or great cape, which signified his premier position among the officiating clergymen. Beside him were the Bishop-elect, and the co-consecrator, Bishop McNally, Hamilton, and Bishop Ryan, of

V. J. McELDERRY, K.C.

Crown Attorney for the county of Peterborough, who read the address to Bishop O'Connor from the laity of the Diocese of Peterborough.

Bishop O'Connor Is 5th Bishop of Peterboro Since The Diocese Was Created In Year 1882

In 1882 Peterborough was made the centre of a new diocese, being part of that of Kingston and comprising the Counties of Peterborough, Victoria, Northumberland, Durham, and the Districts of Algoma, Muskoka and Parry Sound. Prior to that, Bishop McDonnell of Kingston was in charge.

On Thursday, September 21st, 1882, the first Bishop of Peterborough, the Rt. Rev. John Francis Jamot, who in 1874 had been consecrated Bishop of Sarepta and Vicar Apostolic of Northern Canada, took charge of the diocese and was formally installed by His Grace Archbishop Lynch of Toronto.

Bishop Jamot died in 1886 and was succeeded by Bishop T. J. Dowling, formerly parish priest at Paris, Ontario, in the diocese of Hamilton. He was consecrated on May 1st, 1887, and was later appointed Bishop of Hamilton.

His successor here was Bishop R. A. O'Connor, formerly parish priest at Barrie, in the diocese of Toronto, who was consecrated on May 1st, 1889, and died in January of 1913.

Rt. Rev. M. J. O'Brien, D.D., was named Bishop of Peterborough on June 21st, 1913, and was consecrated on September 24th, 1913. He was appointed, on May 17th, 1929, as coadjutor Archbishop of Kingston, with the right of succession to Archbishop Spratt.

Pembroke. They wore the mozetta or short cape of their office, with the tiny Bishop's caps and the long manteletta which, in the strict formalism of church etiquette, signifies their recognition of the presence of a ranking dignitary, in the person of the representative of the Holy Father.

Followed By Priests.

The bishops and monsignor were followed by priests of this and other dioceses, numbering nearly two hundred, who followed the officiating dignitaries and passed through the Guard of Honor provided by the 6th Troop of Boy Scouts, with Scoutmaster Ernie Wolff in charge, and standard-bearers in Scouts Hickson and Scollard.

Music Beautiful

The music rendered in connection with the ceremony was inspiring and beautiful. The Cathedral choir, in charge of the Rev. J. Finn, with J. Minicolo leading and Miss Hurley presiding at the organ, sang portions of the Mass; the Kyrie, the Gloria and the Credo, from M. E. Downey's Mass of the Blessed Sacrament, while the Benediction and Agnus Dei were from a Mass by Pietro Yon.

Led by Rev. E. Ronan of St. Augustine's Seminary, Toronto, a choir of Seminarians sang the Proper of the Mass; the Response and the Offertory, with the Te Deum and other hymns.

At the conclusion of the Mass, the Te Deum was sung and the Bishop, circling the church, imparted his blessing, returning to offer Benediction at the high altar.

Prior to his brief address, two addresses were made to him, one from the clergy of the diocese, read by Rt. Rev. Monsignor McColl of Lindsay, and the second from the laity, read by Crown Attorney V. J. McElderry, K. C.

The reading of the Papal Bull, first in Latin and then in English, which preceded the ceremony, was done by the Rev. K. Corkery.

In the procession to the Cathedral, the canopy was supported by W. S. Merrell, Nagle Phelan, S. Shaughnessy and R. A. Sullivan. Ushers were E. Riley, Dr. J. F. O'Brien, Dr. E. M. Crough, W. Hickey, A. Costello, F. J. Hickey and J. R. Corkery.

Members of the City Police Force, with Inspector Reid in charge gave excellent service in patrolling among the crowd gathered for the ceremony, and directing automobile traffic.

The service, commencing shortly after nine o'clock, lasted until a few minutes after one o'clock.

The decorations of the Cathedral, the Bishop's palace and the adjacent grounds were carried out with quantities of flags, both Papal emblems in yellow and white and Union Jacks and Canadian Ensigns. Large "Welcome" signs stretched across the street in front of the church. The entrance to the Bishop's Palace was wreathed with yellow and white bunting, which also decorated the interior of the Cathedral, with numerous Papal emblems and small patriotic flags.

At the conclusion of the ceremony in the church, the visiting clergymen were served with dinner in the hall of the Conservatory of Music, Coleo and Son of Toronto doing the catering.

The big hall was very effectively arranged by the Catholic Women's League in charge of decorating, with drapings of yellow and white flags, palms and ferns and quantities of cream iris and other lovely flowers. The head table was placed on the stage.

Address From Priests

The address to the newly-consecrated Bishop from the priests of the diocese was read by the Rt. Rev. Monsignor W. J. McColl, Vicar General, of Lindsay, and was as follows:

Right Reverend Dennis O'Connor, D.D., Bishop of Peterborough, Ont.

My Lord.—We are here to-day to welcome you to Peterborough, and to express our pleasure and satisfaction upon your appointment as Bishop of our Diocese. This See is forty-eight years in existence, and you are its fifth incumbent. Those that preceded you were men eminent for their ability, piety, and administrative talents. Our young Diocese made steady and solid progress during their regimes. As a new Diocese we began devoid of those institutions which naturally belong to a Bishopric. Gradually these were supplied as our Churches, Schools, Hospitals, House of Providence, and Orphanages bear testimony. All of your predecessors bore their share in the development of these pious works, but none more so than your immediate forerunner, The Most Reverend Michael Joseph O'Brien, now Co-adjutor Archbishop of Kingston. To him is specially due the establishment of our High Schools, the splendid addition to St. Joseph's Hospital and an Orphanage at Cobourg. Naturally we grieved at his removal from us, but were delighted when we learned that The Holy Father had given us one so worthy to take his place. Though our diocese has from its inception made a most creditable growth, we are convinced, that under your able management its progress will continue.

We are not intimately acquainted with you by personal contact, but still we cannot be unacquainted with your labors. From the time you entered The Grand Seminary at Montreal until your appointment to Peterborough, your name and works have been familiar to us. We know that your natural ability, coupled with your experience and success as President of St. Peter's Seminary, London, and as Vicar-General of that Diocese, are ample proofs of the success you will attain here. Therefore you can easily understand why we are pleased to receive you as our Bishop.

Your new life, it is true, will be much different from your past. The duties of a Bishop are most sacred and onerous. Heavy responsibilities are attached to the Episcopal Office. For this reason the Church has at all times, exercised the greatest care and circumspection in its choice. St. Paul says, "If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work." Yet many of the holiest of men hesitated to accept the dignity. You are one of these, but that only makes us more certain of your worthiness. A Bishop is a chosen vessel, to carry the name of Jesus and His holy teachings before the nations. He is the head, the spiritual judge and the law-giver of his people. It is his duty to "preach the word of God; be instant in season and out of season: reprove, entreat, rebuke in all patience and doctrine." When His Excellency The Most Reverend Consecrator handed you your Crosier he said, "Receive the staff of the Pastoral Office, so that in the correction of vices, you may be lovingly severe, giving judgment without wrath, softening the minds of your hearers whilst fostering virtues, not neglecting strictness of discipline through love of tranquility." These are difficult things to accomplish, but you have the grace of your office. A Bishop is ordained for all ecclesiastical functions; he is in a measure the fountain of all blessing and sanctification, which are imparted to the faithful. Hence not only one or other gift of the Holy Ghost is given him, but he receives the Holy Ghost, the original source of every grace, in all plentitude and perfection. A Bishop is therefore well armed for his work though it be most sacred and arduous: You, my Lord, are thus armed. You have been appointed by the Holy See, and commissioned by the Vicar of Christ to rule this Diocese. You come to us firmly anchored to the Rock of Peter with naturally fine characteristics, fortified by the plentitude of the Holy Spirit whom you received to-day at your consecration. We, your Priests, assure you we have no anxiety as to the future, and we readily pledge that aid and co-operation, that loyalty, reverence and obedience due you as our Bishop.

We wish you many years of happiness and pray that the ever Blessed Trinity—Father, Son and Holy Ghost—may watch over you and guide you and fill you with all peace in your labors for the glory and honor of God and the salvation of souls in this Diocese of Peterborough.

Adress From Laity

The address to the Bishop from the laity of the diocese was read by Crown Attorney V. J. McElderry, K.C., and follows:

To the Right Reverend Dennis O'Connor, D.D., Bishop of Peterborough.

May it please your Lordship:

"The laymen have gathered from all corners of your diocese to bid you a most hearty and sincere welcome to your new home.

"Our joyful thoughts of welcome, which flow out to you in abundance this morning, are mingled with sentiments of a deeper character, because we realize that you are coming to us at the request of the successor of Saint Peter to carry on in this diocese the same work entrusted to the apostles after the Ascension and after Pentecost. The words spoken to the Apostles in ancient times are living words and spoke through all the centuries to many successors of the apostles and, to-day, My Lord, they speak to you. "All power is given to me in heaven and in earth. Going therefore, teach ye all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and behold I am with you all days even to the consummation of the world."

"Permit us, therefore, My Lord, in all solemnity and in perfect faith to accept and to welcome you not only as the successor of our former beloved Bishop, who endeared himself to us by his apostolic spirit and zeal for the salvation of souls, but as the representative in direct succession of those apostles to whom it was said by the Redeemer, "Whosoever heareth you heareth me, whosoever despises you despises me." Slowly have the changing centuries unfolded since those apostolic times, terrestrial kingdoms have come and gone and there is but one institution, the Catholic church, which has existed in unbroken chain from those days to this. So that we in a country remote from the lands of early apostolic labours and in this latest moment of recorded time stand in the same relation to you as did the first christians of the apostles and their immediate successors. It is upon the same mission and bearing the same authority with which Saint Paul went to Macedonia that you have come to Peterborough.

"Therefore, My Lord, in addition to the welcome which we are pleased to accord to you as a distinguished scholar, administrator and priest and as one whose family has already given leaders to the Church in Ontario, we desire to tender our fealty and loyalty to you as our Bishop and the visible fulfilment to us of that promise "behold I am with you always even to the consummation of the world."

MONSIGNOR McCOLL

Vicar-General, of Lindsay, who read the address to the newly consecrated Bishop from the priests of the diocese.

17 YEARS AGO PETERBORO BOY MADE BISHOP

Career of Archbishop O'Brien Has Been One of Interest to Fellow-Citizens.

BORN IN 1874

Assisted in Elevation of Bishop O'Connor to Headship of the Diocese.

The career of Archbishop Michael J. O'Brien, who today preached the sermon at the consecration of his successor, Bishop Dennis O'Connor, has been one of interest to his fellow-citizens of Peterborough. Born and educated here, he has risen to the high ranks of the priesthood, by a series of steady advances. He has been one of the most beloved of the city's priests and as a bishop, he ruled with a clement and kindly authority that won his the respect and admiration of all classes, whether Catholic or Protestant.

Born In Year 1874.

Born on July 29th, 1874, at 769 George street, the eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James O'Brien, the Archbishop received his early education in the Old Murray street school and in the Collegiate Institute. Later, he attended St. Michael's College and the Grand Seminary in Montreal, before going to the Propaganda University in Rome. He holds the degrees of L.S.T. and B.C.L. from the Seminary at Montreal, and of Doctor of Divinity from the University at Rome.

He was ordained to the priesthood in 1897 and two years later received his degree of Doctor of Divinity. In that same year, on returning home, he was made curate at St. Peter's Cathedral, where he remained for ten years, until he was appointed as first pastor of the Church of Sacred Heart in 1909. Four years later, he was appointed as successor to Bishop O'Connor, on June 20th, 1913. At the age of thirty-nine years of age, he was consecrated as Bishop of Peterborough on September 24th, 1913.

Appointed Archbishop Last Year

On May 18th of last year, he was appointed as Coadjutor Archbishop of Kingston, with the right of succession to Archbishop Spratt.

This morning he assisted at the elevation of Bishop O'Connor to the headship of the diocese which he had ruled so well and for so long, and in which he still retains a deep and abiding interest.

At the consecration of Archbishop O'Brien as the fourth Bishop of Peterborough, the Apostolic Delegate of that time, the Most Rev. P. F. Stagni, D.D., was consecrator and co-Consecrators were the Most Rev. M. Spratt, D.D., Archbishop of Kingston, which will in future be ruled by Archbishop O'Brien, and also the Most Rev. Paul Bruchesi, Archbishop of Montreal, who is now ill.

Then, as now, the Rev. J. J. O'Brien acted as Master of Ceremonies. The sermon was preached by the then Bishop of Calgary, now Bishop McNally of Hamilton, and assisting priests who were present also today included the Rt. Rev. Monsignor McColl and Rev. C. J. Phelan of Campbellford.

At that time, Bishop Fallon of London was unable to be present and was represented by Monsignor Aylward. Today, he was represented by Monsignor Laurendeau of London.

Preached Sermon for His Successor

Rt. Rev. M. J. O'Brien, D.D., Titular Archbishop of Armoria and Coadjutor Archbishop of Kingston, with right of succession, who today preached the sermon at the consecration of his successor, Rt. Rev. Dennis O'Connor, D.D. Archbishop O'Brien, who was born in Peterborough, was baptized, received his first Communion and confirmation, was ordained and later elevated to the episcopate, in St. Peter's Cathedral, where today he preached the sermon for his successor in office.

NOTED TEACHER IS NEW BISHOP

Career of Wide Experience, Especially in Teaching Profession.

TRIBUTE TO OLD TEACHER

The career of Bishop O'Connor, newly-consecrated Bishop of Peterborough, has been one of wide experience, especially in the teaching profession. As Rector of St. Peter's Seminary in London, Ontario, and as Professor of Dogmatic Theology, he was a very earnest student at all times. As Rector of the Seminary he had invaluable experience in the formation of the characters of young men placed in his care, and was Vicar-General he for many years exercised episcopal functions. This double experience—that of Vicar-General and professor—falls to the lot of few, if any, bishops, and should make the Bishop ideally qualified for his new duties.

In reply to a request made the Bishop recently by the Catholic Record, asking that teacher had exercised the greatest influence in the formation of his character, he wrote:

"St. Peter's Seminary, London, Feb. 18, 1930.

"Dear Dr. Foley:

"In acceding to your request to recall the teacher who had the greatest influence on my life I must limit my reference to those early years when the pupil is most impressionable, and for that reason, perhaps, the teacher exercises the greatest influence over him.

"I owe too much to too many teachers in later life to risk a distinction that might be invidious and unjust.

"My memory, then, carries me back to the elementary school, and excludes the many valuable educational influences of later years.

"My first teacher in the elementary schools was Charles Fraser, a brilliant young man. But there is one who stands out most prominently in my memory, a teacher in an ungraded country school in which he prepared me for an Entrance to Normal certificate. He was a wonderful teacher. To use a strange paradox he could teach more than he knew. His name was Joseph Stalker. He died a few years ago in Ingersoll and, though he was a Protestant, a Catholic Bishop-elect is glad to place upon his grave this tribute of gratitude and reverence.

"I remain,

"Faithfully yours,

"D. O'Connor."

Brigham Young Fete

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, (U.P.)—Five thousand descendents of Brigham Young, more widely known Mormon leader, will assemble here May 31 for their annual celebration of his birth anniversary. Brigham Young led a band of Mormon pioneers across the plains and settled Salt Lake City in 1847. Nearly five thousand direct descendants of the church leader now reside in this vicinity.

Miss Jenny Lee, who was familiar to old-time playgoers all over the world as "Jo," the crossing sweeper in "Bleak House," died recently in London, aged 72.

BISHOP O'CONNOR WAS ORDAINED IN LONDON IN 1909

Most Outstanding Priest in Educational Ecclesiastical Matters.

BORN AT BLYTH, ONT.

Has Been Vicar-General of Diocese of London Since Year 1915.

One of the most outstanding priests of the Diocese of London in educational and ecclesiastical matters, Rt. Rev. Monsignor Dennis O'Connor, P.A.S. T.L., (Prothonotary Apostolic and Licentiate in Theology) was born at Blyth, Ont., of Irish parents. He began his theological training at Assumption College, Sandwich, where he obtained a brilliant standing in classics. Later he went to the Grand Seminary, Montreal, and completed the course in theology under the direction of the Sulpician Fathers.

Ordained in 1909.

Returning to London, he was ordained to the priesthood by the late Archbishop McEvay in St. Peter's Cathedral, June, 1909. Immediately following his ordination he was appointed to St. Alphonsus' church, Windsor, where he remained for three years. When St. Peter's Seminary was opened in London in 1912 he was named to the staff by Bishop Fallon and was also appointed assistant priest to St. Mary's church, Lyle street. The following year he was named Rector of the Seminary, to succeed Rev. J. Tobin.

His selection as Vicar-General of the Diocese of London in 1915 was ample evidence of Bishop Fallon's absolute confidence in him. For the past fifteen years he has worked constantly and faithfully with the Bishop for the welfare and development of every cause in the Diocese of London, in matters pertaining to church affairs, charitable undertakings, and especially with the development of Bishop Fallon's great educational plans.

Academic Attainment

On several occasions when Bishop Fallon was absent from the diocese, Mgr. O'Connor was named administrator.

Mgr. O'Connor is perhaps best known in Canada for his academic attainments. He has occupied the Chair of Dogmatic Theology at St. Peter's Seminary for the past eighteen years; and in the classroom and as director of the institution has displayed great ability as teacher and administrator.

The rector of St. Peter's Seminary is an able speaker possessing a style more or less unique because of its clearness and remarkable grasp of the subject under discussion. He is the second Dennis O'Connor who has attained distinction in the Diocese of London. A relative, his namesake, was bishop of London from 1890 to 1899 prior to his appointment as Archbishop of Toronto.

During his term as Rector of the Seminary and Vicar-General of the Diocese of London he earned the heartfelt love and respect of priests and people, Catholic and non-Catholic. He will be missed especially by those students of the Seminary in London who have found in this man of retiring disposition a valued counsellor and friend.

The degree of LL.D. from the University of London has been recently conferred upon Bishop O'Connor.

At a gathering of one hundred and fifteen of the priests of the diocese of London, six weeks ago, Bishop O'Connor was guest of honor at a banquet tendered by them, and was the recipient of a purse containing $7,500 in gold, the gift of the clergy of the diocese.

CHINESE REBELS MAKE HEADWAY

"Red" Army Rapidly Nears Commercial City of Kinkiang.

GOV'T MASSES TROOPS.

SHANGHAI, June 11.— (C.P.)— The right wing of the triple threat presented to the Nanking Nationalist authority by the "Red" army of Kwangsi rebels to-day was reported by authoritative sources to have reached a point only 20 miles southwest of Kiukiang, important commercial city on the Yangtse river, about 450 miles southwest of here.

The left wing of the Kwangsi army was proceeding without opposition along the west side of Tungting Lake and was sad to be approaching Shasi, treaty port of the Yangste, 183 miles above Yochow, Bunan Province, which was captured yesterday by the Kwangsi middle column.

Dispatches left in doubt how far the middle column had pushed northward toward its objective— the tri-cities of Hankow, Wuchang and Hanyang—but the rebels apparently were making a straggling advance.

Meanwhile the Nationalist military forces at Hankow had greatly strengthened their defenses in the tri-city area, and were reported massing upward of 70,000 soldiers there in the hope of checking the invasion.

CATTLE, GRAIN, PRODUCE

MONTREAL PRODUCE.

MONTREAL, June 11.—Butter and cheese ariving in Montreal this week is of the best quality received since the season for Canadian production opened a few weeks ago, being full-grass made. The cheese quality is causing some dealers to raise their asking prices. Receipts were 5,725 boxes yesterday.

While butter has reached its peak in quality, the heavy supplies, both Canadian and New Zealand, are holding prices down. There were no changes to-day. Receipts were 840 boxes.

Egg Prices Unchanged.

Egg prices were unchanged, with wholesale carlot prices reported somewhat easier. Receipts were 3,204 cases.

The potato market remained unchanged.

Wheat prices were marked up two cents a bushel; barley was reduced two cents a bushel, and corn was dropped one cent per bushel on the Montreal Cash Grain Market.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

CHICAGO, June 11.—Enlarged estimates of 1930 domestic winter wheat production, together with new wheat arriving at Kansas City, did much to pull wheat values down yesterday. Unsettlement of the New York Stock Exchange Market counted further as a bearish influence, and so too did scantiness of fresh export demand for wheat. Current advices said recent rains had increased the probable yield of new wheat in the Southwest as much as 10,000,000 to 15,000,000 bushels.

Closing quotations on wheat were nervous, 7-8c to 1 3-8c a bushel lower than Monday's finish. Corn closed ¼c to ½c off, oats unchanged to 1c down, and provisions at 7c to 15c decline.

TORONTO LIVE STOCK.

TORONTO, June 11. — There were 960 cattle, 1,211 calves, 900 hogs, 700 sheep and lambs at the opening of the Union Stock Yards yesterday morning. There were fifteen hundred stale cattle, in addition to the fresh receipts at the yards, with very little evidence of demand for killers and only some few hundred heads sold up to 11 o'clock.

Prices appear to be 50 cents a cwt. lower for the week. Good butcher cows sold at 8¼c to 9.65c a pound. Good cows are selling from 7c to 8c.

Calf supply is heavy and opening trade was slow with sales 50 cents a cwt. lower than Monday at 10c to 10½c a pound for choice veals, with grassers selling at 6¼c to 6½c a pound.

There were several hundred stale lambs added to the fresh receipts with none sold up to 11 o'clock Monday's close on good spring lambs was 13c to 14c a pound and bids yesterday were easier. A few common to good sheep sold yesterday morning at 2c to 5c per pound.

Packers bids on hogs are unchanged at 12c f.o.b. and 13c w.o.c. for bacons. No tickets were marked up to 11 o'clock.

WINNIPEG GRAIN.

WINNIPEG, June 11. — Wheat slipped off on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange yesterday after wide gains on Monday and losses at the finish were 1⅝c to 1¼c. Hot, dry weather predominated through the grain-growing areas of the West, but Liverpool refused to be stampeded by Monday's advances. Weakness at Liverpool was the main cause of the drop yesterday.

Selling pressure failed to take any definite form, but buyers were so scarce that only a little selling pressed the market down. Cash wheat and coarse grains failed to elicit any interest of note.

Garage Stolen

OGDEN, Utah (U.P.)—Tracking criminals is one task, but tracking stolen garages is another, and local police were unsuccessful in their attempts to locate a garage stolen from some property owned by the Federal Building and Loan association. Criminals may sometimes be traced through the "fence" who receives their stolen goods, but thus far no "fence" has been discovered who takes stolen garages.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

WHY SO MUCH HEART DISEASE.

Do you know that if you were to walk down the street, attend the theatre or go anywhere where you would meet a number of people, whether they were old or young, you could say truthfully that at least 1 out of every 7 would die of heart disease.

If you were meeting people of 40 years or over you could say that 1 in every 4 would die of heart disease, if they were 55 years of age, the number would be even greater.

And at the rate of increase of heart disease, the number dying of heart ailments will be still greater in the future.

Why does the rate of heart disease increase year after year?

Our insurance statisticans tell us that it is due to the greater strain modern business and social life places upon the digestion and nervous systems with resultant effect upon the heart and circulatory symptoms.

The underlying cause in most cases is acute rheumatism.

The childhood ailments of scarlet fever, measles, tonsillitis and so forth, often leave the heart damaged to some extent, particularly where the youngster after the acute condition is passed, gets up and around too soon.

Now you were born with a good heart and after you have safely passed childhood with your heart in good condition, why is it that heart disease increases, that you may be one of its victims? Simply because of infection from teeth, tonsils or other parts of the body.

As you know, all infections get into the blood, and the blood carries them to all parts of the body.

As it circulates, the blood has to pass through the heart and there it sets up trouble in the lining of the heart, and in the valves which close the openings from one part to another, and to the vessels which carry the blood to the lungs and to all part of the body.

In addition this infection can actually damage the heart muscle, and as the heart is made up entirely of muscle with little nerves controlling these muscular fibres, it will lose its power to do its work properly. These infections also use up its reserve power, and when the crisis comes the heart is unable to do its work.

The whole idea then is to keep your body free from infection. Have infected teeth and tonsils removed, and gall bladder and sinuses drained if they are giving trouble. The intestine should be kept regular.

And if any ailment does come don't try to be a hero and stay on your feet. Get right to bed and you not only give your heart its best chance to overcome the ailment, but you may be protecting your heart from future trouble.

Formal Afternoon Dress.

The time has come when one does not turn up at a late afternoon event in the costume one started the day with. For there is definitely a formal afternoon mode—the first in the decade since the war. Yet, paradoxically one may appear in a suit—a very different suit to be sure. On the RIGHT the Vogue sketch above illustrates type of suit. It is of crepe de chine the top part of the blouse of white crepe de chine, with a cowl neckline in front, and the cuffs and lower part of black, according a sharp contrast. The jacket has a deep circular cape collar, which serves as short sleeves and reveals the sleeves of the blouse beneath. On the LEFT is a smart little tweed travel coat for the June bride. It is a novel light-weight tweed in tan, green and brown tones —Sketch is by Vogue.

CAR KILLS MOTHER NEAR SPOT DAUGHTER DIED

WHITBY, Ont., June - (C.P.) — Mother and daughter met a similar death at practically the same spot, it was revealed to-day when inquiries were made into the circumstances of the death of Mrs. Thomas Loath, Sunday evening. Mrs. Loath stepped into the highway in front of her home and was struck by a car driven by R. A. Vardner, Toronto, about a quarter of a mile from the spot where her daughter was killed two years ago.

OUR CHILDREN

By Angelo Patri

A BRIEF AUTHORITY.

Just a few years and it is over, this brief authority we hold over our children. So swiftly they pass that there seems but a day between the shorts and the striped trousers of the bridegroom, between the blue rompers and the long white gown of the bride. So brief a time before we must render account of this authority to those upon whom we exercised it.

"I got away from home as soon as I could because I never had a moment of liberty. If mother wasn't bossing me, father was. I had no chance. Maybe it might have been wiser to wait a few years, but with home as it was, I thought I'd rather take the risk." That is a sad arrangement of authority.

"School? I left school as soon as ever I could and went to work. I had a teacher who nagged us from morning to night. The principal always said the teacher was right, no matter how wrong she was. I know I gave them some trouble but nothing to make them want to drive me out. That's what they seemed to want. Nothing I ever did was right. I was forever breaking their rules and forever in trouble. I had to get out."

It is a terrible thing to drive a child out of school. School ought to be a place of adjustment. Any normal-minded child can find a place in school provided the teacher puts affection and understanding in the place of authority. "Because I want to help you," will do what "because I have authority over you," never can do. We are made that way and teachers above all people should know what children are made of and how to direct them to better ways.

Laws are poor enough forces for aiding a child to righteous living. They are always the last resort of intelligent people. They should be the very very resource of parents and teachers. Take for granted that the children want to be right and to do right. You may do so safely, for rightness is the basic law of spiritual growth. All humanity tends towards rightness. Then study your child and find just how far along the road to rightness he has travelled. Some go farther and faster than others. You must place each as he travels and be ready to go along with him in that place where you find him. It is impossible to help him where he is not, isn't it?

So place yourself by his side without making any remarks about his delaying, his slowness, his poverty-stricken equipment. Stride along by his side and lead him, not by authority, but by understanding and affection. Like him. Want to help him. Forget about your certificates and degrees, your place in society and your duty to convention and law and order. Your first duty is to this child who needs you. Let authority sit in the courts where no child ever should be never would be, if we understood our duty better.

There is a word above authority and that is LOVE.

NAME HEALTHIEST PAIR

TOKYO, (U.P.)—The son of a butcher and the daughter of a charcoal dealer have been adjudged the healthiest school children in Japan. The Asahi, a Tokyo newspaper, recently completed a survey among 950,000 school children and announced that physicians had found that Chigeo Motisuki, 13-year-old son of a Kobe meat dealer was the healthiest boy and Kazuko Takiya, 13, daughter of the owner of a charcoal shop in Nara Prefecture, the healthiest girl.

FASHION FANCIES

THE BRIDE'S NEGLIGEE

Busy little brides are hurrying about selecting dainty undies and other important feminine frivolities to complete their lovely trousseaus. Fashion designers are devoting their ardent attention to the June bride, who is the most important person of the month.

Delectable, indeed, is the new lingerie, and offered in an infinite variety of styles and materials. The ensemble idea has had its influence on the lingerie mode, too, and, as a result, the daintiest nighties now have their accompanying jackets or full-length coats. It's a wise idea, too, for it does away with the necessity of a variety of negligees.

Today's ensemble is developed in a combination of white satin and dark Alencon lace. Tiers of the lace alternate with bands of the satin on the three-quarter coat, while the gown has a V-shaped yoke and single tier of the lace.

WITTY KITTY

The girl-friend says that it is remarkable how a girl who has been told that she has a pretty profile will choose a restaurant seat in a window.

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By Alice Michaelis

THIS DAY

This was his plaint: "How can I go
With confidence and hope
Down ways wherein with football slow
God has not granted me the power
His purpose to divine;
This flying day, this little hour
Alone can I call mine!"

This day is all, yet here we find
Fulfillment as we turn
To tasks that wait the heart and mind,
To love for which we yearn.
The sun-brimmed day, the starry night,
These are enough for one
Who reads his Maker's plans aright
And proudly labors on.

This day is all for grief or bliss
God grants to you and me,
Yet from unnumbered days like this
He builds eternity!

Babes in the Woods

PARISIAN FOIBLES

This unusually smart dress which is to be found in Madeleine's collection, is in grey cloth, with wide revers of white pique.

An Interesting Interpretation of the Coat Dress.

The coat dress is rarely interpreted in as interesting a fashion as is this dress of grey cloth. The diagonal closing marked by large buttons, is cut in a way to emphasize the high waistline, and mold the figure. The most striking feature of the dress is the wide collar of white pique, which gives distinction and character to the model.

IT is amazing to what extent the names of meat signify definite cuts to different persons!

* * * * * * *

For instance mention lamb and immediately lamb chops come to the mind of one person and a leg of lamb to another. To speak of a roast immediately determines a roast of beef, for some people, while to others it conveys numerous different possibilities of meat—veal, a crown roast of lamb, venison, etc.

* * * * * * *

Ham may suggest slices to saute or broil, or a whole ham to bake or boil. And so we could continue to name meats each of which to different persons would call to mind varying cuts.

* * * * * * *

To-day some interesting new cuts are being devised by butchers and old cuts are being given new names.

* * * * * * *

One of the picturesque names for a shoulder of boned lamb with the blade removed is Mock Duck. The cavity left where the blade came out should be filled with washed potato highly seasoned with onions, sage, salt, pepper and butter or it may have dressing of bread crumbs mixed with chopped apples, and seasoned as the mashed potato dressing.

* * * * * * *

The shoulder is pressed into shape so that its contour is something like that of a duck. This makes a good looking roast when properly garnished.

* * * * * * *

* * * * * * *

This is a name of prestige rather than one to eliminate by suggesting that lamb is preferable to mutton.

* * * * * * *

It should be remembered that here in Canada the word mutton is fast giving place to that of lamb which pre-supposes a more delicately flavored meat.

* * * * * * *

As a matter of fact the present lamb is much of it not young and tender enough to warrant the new term lamb and the size immediately indicates to those who know, that it is at least 'slipper' which is between young lamb and actual mutton.

* * * * * * *

Mutton is delicious when cooked right and by many is preferred to lamb. For instance a leg of mutton is its best when rare while a leg of lamb should, like veal, be well done.

* * * * * * *

English mutton chops are equal to any lamb chops when done to a turn. They should be cut at least 1½ inches thick, and be broiled quickly at first, then slowly until evenly rare inside.

* * * * * * *

There are some hotels that make a specialty of mutton chops, and no one who has not eaten perfectly cooked and seasoned English mutton chops can realize their excellence.

* * * * * * *

Do not forget that turnip is a vegetable as definitely associated with mutton and lamb as are green peas.

Directors of the Chinese Eastern Railway recently divided the 1929 net profits of approximately $514,000 equally between China and Russia.

SPEAKER STRESSES CARE OF DAIRY MILK

Cheesemakers' Association Holds Regular Meeting at Local Agricultural Office.

A meeting of the Cheemakers' Association was held at the local Agriculture office, on Saturday evening, June 7, with R. G. Allan in the chair. It was decided that the next meeting be held at Lindsay if arrangements could be made with Messrs. Irwin, Johnson and Moore.

Mr. Nelson, agricultural representative for this district, was called upon for a few words. He extended a hearty invitation to the association to hold their meetings at any time, at that office.

Mr. Murray, Instructor in the Campbellford district, stated that the most important thing was the care of the milk by the farmer. He illustrated this by giving examples. He also brought to mind the marking of the boxes and outlined this briefly.

Mr. Drury, president of the Central Cheesemakers' organization, outlined the herd competition and advised the makers to be more interested and get the farmers interested also.

Mr. Moore, local dairy instructor thanked Messes. Murray, Drury and Nelist for coming out to the meetings. He said the attendance was not as good as he would like to see it, but the trouble seemed to be on account of the factories being situated so far apart.

Mr. Allan then moved a vote of thanks to the visitors and cordially invited those present to attend the next meeting. He moved that the meeting be adjourned which was seconded by Mr. Wilson and carried.

(Body Odour)

TODAY—he had planned to propose. But her attitude froze him. What could be the matter? It was hot, to be sure. But why should that distress her so?

Fred never suspected "B.O." then. Yet body odour isn't interfering with his happiness now—he's married to Anne. Read how he found the easy way to keep perspiration odourless.

Perspiration without "B.O."

"Like any normal, healthy human being, I perspire—particularly in hot weather. I've been told that pores give off as much as a quart of waste daily.

"But it never occurred to me that perspiration means 'B.O.' We become insensitive to an ever-present odour. I offended—unknowingly!

"Then I changed to Lifebuoy—and what a difference! When I step out of my daily tub now, I feel alive—gloriously clean! Pores are purified so deeply by Lifebuoy's marvellous antiseptic lather, that 'B.O.' is prevented.

"Lifebuoy's a fine skin soap, too. It guards health—by removing germs. Its pleasant, extra-clean scent, that vanishes as you rinse, tells you Lifebuoy purifies."

Cards End Losing Streak After Five Defeats

SCORE DOUBLE COUNTERS IN FINAL FRAMES

Cubs Drop 3½ Games Behind League Leaders By Reason of Phillies' 6-2 Victory.

WHITE SOX BEAT A'S.

Athletics Play Second Division Baseball in 11-Inning Battle With Chicago.

A little thing like a rapidly descending elevator, which causes unpleasant sensations in many quarters, shouldn't bother the St. Louis Cardinals a bit from now on. The Cards went up to the top of the National League with the greatest possible speed, winning 17 out of 18 games, and have been coming down from the heights with about as great rapidity.

The Cardinals came to a temporary stop in their losing yesterday after dropping five straight games, but it took them ten long innings to gain a 2 to 1 decision over the Boston Braves and even that triumph left them with a record of only two victories in their last 12 games. Shut out for eight innings by Bob Smith, St. Louis took advantage of two walks in the ninth to push over a run, then repeated the feat in the rain-interrupted tenth with two of their seven hits.

The Chicago Cubs, who appeared to be heading for the job of successors to the Cards as league leads, suffered another setback yesterday after losing two out of three to Brooklyn. Much to their surprise, they ran into Phil Collins of Philadelphia and got only six hits, they couldn't get a run while the Phillies pecked away at Pat Malone, winding up with a three run burst in the eighth for a 6 to 2 victory. The defeat left Chicago 3½ games behind the league leaders.

All the other National League games and the Washington contest in the American League were rained out.

Another champion club, the Philadelphia Athletics, played second division baseball as they dropped an eleven inning struggle to the Chicago White Sox by a 7 to 6 count.

The Boston Red Sox and Detroit Tigers put on another exhibition of poor fielding and heavy hitting. The Red Sox made 17 hits off four Tiger hurlers and reaped the benefit of four errors. All of which figures in the scoring for a 12 to 6 victory.

The New York Yankees got a fast start against the St. Louis Browns and scored all their runs in the first two innings to win 5 to 3.

Simmons Advances In Big Six Hitting

Al Simmons hit his best stride yesterday and showed the way for the three members of baseball's Big Six who escaped rainy weather long enough to play ball. Simmons hit a home run, a double and two singles in five times at bat, and as a result his average went shooting up 12 points from .377 to .389. Babe Herman benefited from the rain that kept him idle, for his average of .418 put him in first place again, as Riggs Stephenson went hitless four times at bat and fell 16 points to .404. Babe Ruth, the third active member, dropped deeper into the cellar, getting one hit in five tries and losing three points.

BALTIMORE ORIOLES CONTINUE BLITHELY IN PENNANT RACE

Long Winning Streak Places Birds Out in Front By Three and Half Games.

THREE TILTS POSTPONED.

Rain or shine—it makes no difference to the Baltimore Orioles as they go merrily on their way toward their first International League pennant since the famous years of 1919 to 1925.

Rain and wet grounds played havoc with three of the games scheduled in the circuit yesterday but the sun shone at Baltimore and the Orioles took advantage of the situation to gain another half-game on the field, defeating the Newark Bears 12 to 0 for the third time in four games.

With Rochester, Montreal and Buffalo striving to maintain the hot pace, the Orioles have won seventeen of their last nineteen games, causing many of their supporters to recall the days when the Baltimore teams managed by the late Jack Dunn were sweeping all before them. The long winning streak has placed the Orioles out in front by three and one half games.

In yesterday's contest with the Bears, the Orioles bats were working with the rapidity of a machine gun. Thirteen safeties rang off the clubs, every member of the team getting at least one hit with the exception of Hauser and Gill and they contributed to the scoring. Gill was given credit for driving in three runs, although failing to register a hit. McGowan and Stroner packed the big guns of the attack, the former driving in three runs with as many hits, which included two doubles, while the latter sent four tallies across the plate with a double and two singles. While his mates were pounding the ball to all corners of the lot, Henry Wertz held the Bears to six hits—all in the first four rounds.

Schedule Set For Hastings League

DELORO, June 11 (Examiner Correspondence).—The Hastings County Junior Baseball League is all ready to play ball. The hoped for entry of Point Anne came through last evening at the meeting held in the Belleville Y.M.C.A., with I. B. Murray in the chair. This makes a three-team league, consisting of Point Anne, Belleville Moose and Deloro.

It was agreed that a double schedule be played and the opening game was set for June 17, when Deloro visits Belleville. The last game is on July 31. The first and second teams play off for the League championship and the right to enter the O.B.A.A. playdowns.

OLD DUTCH WINS IN FURLONG DASH

Ferguson Entry Thunders Home Four Lengths in Front of Meridian Queen.

AT LONG BRANCH.

TORONTO, June 11. — There was no special feature on yesterday's card at Long Branch, but the large crowd that braved the unpleasant weather was treated to some fine racing. Old Dutch, owned by J. D. Ferguson, accounted for the fourth race, which was a sprint of six furlongs. The handicapper allotted the large impost of 122 pounds to this stellar performer, but the son of Polymelian stood up under the burden in a "game" manner and came thundering down the sloppy course four lengths in front of Meridian Queen, which was a length and a half ahead of Macil.

Propus, owned by Arthur Brent, broke on top, but it was not long before Jockey Snider had Old Dutch up with the leader, and it soon became apparent that he was not going to have much difficulty in gaining the verdict. Propus fell back after they had gone about two furlongs and did not threaten from then on. Meridian Queen closed well but was unable to gain on the winner. Macil and Tuberose both finished in front of Propus and Charles J. S. trailed the field through the full distance.

One of the closest finishes of the afternoon was furnished in the first race, when Fast Life, one of Chick Lang's thoroughbreds, accounted for a five-furlong heat for two-year-olds. Verlyn Smith, the young riding sensation of the year, was astride the winner, and a good deal of credit must be given to him for the way in which he handled his charge.

LEAFS MEET WINGS TWIN BILL TO-DAY

Cantrell and Prudhomme Are Likely Pitching Selections—Former Working Opener.

TORONTO, June 11.—Making their last apperance here until June 27, the Maple Leafs will meet Rochester Red Wings in a doubleheader at the Stadium this afternoon. The teams were scheduled to play yesterday, but the heavy rain which fell in the morning necessitated a postponement.

The double defeat which the O'Neillmen sustained at the hands of the Buffalo Bisons on Monday in Buffalo shoved them below the .500 mark in the standing for the first time since the first week of the season. The Leafs have been slumping badly of late largely due to ineffective pitching, but Manager O'Neill is still hopeful that his players will shake off the slump and climb up among the league leaders again. Efforts to strengthen the team by the addition of a couple of players have not been successful as yet, but some radical changes will be made shortly if the present losing streak continues.

GEORGE AWREY TO REMAIN AS COACH

Differences Between Officials and Players of Windsor Rugby Club Finally Settled.

WINDSOR, Ont., June 11.—(C.P.)—Officials of the Windsor Rugby Football Club and players of the 1929 team, at loggerheads over the handling of affairs in connection with the coming season of 1930, have buried the hatchet and difficulties which at one time threatened to break up the entire organization have been settled to the satisfaction of all concerned.

It was agreed that George Awrey, one of Canada's best known grid mentors, should be retained as coach of the team as contracted, that "Diny" Deneau remain as manager, and the present executive accept three representatives from the team as additions to the governing body.

FRANKIE GENARO GETS DECISION NARROW MARGIN

IS TIDY BATTLE.

Sammy Hackett Defeated Bulky Shaw of Toornto in Semi-final.

TORONTO, June 11.—It appeared for a time last night as though the world's flyweight championship would return to Toronto. Frenchy Belanger, Canadian champion, made a valiant effort to take the crown from Frankie Genaro, New York veteran, but the cleverer boxing of the latter in the later rounds earned him a decision that couldn't have been much closer.

It was Belanger who made the bout all the way but the crafty Genaro was able to keep at long range and throw out a left hand that scored point after point for him. Belanger did the more forcing and landed the harder punches. Genaro did all the clinching but that asset of experience stood him in good stead and he flicked countless lefts into Belanger's face, took the Toronto boy's hardest punches without faltering, and went on to overtake Melanger's early lead.

Belanger, though losing the decision, gained a lot of prestige. He appeared to be in perfect condition and his boxing showed that he had overcome many of the faults that characterized his boxing in former bouts. He did more hitting at compared to the way he used to hold his punches when he got to close quarters.

In many cities that aggressiveness of Belanger's coupled with his hard-hitting would have won the bout for him. He hit and hurt Genaro more last night in the first five rounds than in their previous two bouts put together. At the end of the fifth round Belanger appeared to be on his way to victory but Genaro came out to take the sixth by a wide margin, throwing countless lefts into Belanger's face. He steadily out down the local boy's lead and just nosed out a hairline decision.

While Genaro took the verdict he was hurt several times during the bout, while his hardest punches failed to bother Belanger.

Genaro was a pound under the flyweight limit of 112 pounds while Belanger scaled 111½.

RETAINS FLYWEIGHT HONORS

Frankie Genero, world's flyweight champion, who retained his title by a narrow margin in bout with Frenchy Belanger at Toronto last night.

Softball Notes.

The league-leading Belmont Club team will meet the C.G.E. in a softball game at Central School grounds to-night. The Generals are tied for third place in the league and a win will put them up in first in tie with the Westclox. On the other hand if the Clubmen win tonight they will step right out in front in the race, so the fans can expect a great battle with so much at stake.

Both teams are well supplied with pitchers, but no announcement has been made from either camp as to who will do the twirling.

The game will start at 6.15, sharp, and should attract a goodly number of fans.

Thursday night will see the old rivals, Sugar Bowl and Harrison's, do battle.

More than usual interest centred on the Sugar Bowl-Westclox softball game at Central School grounds last evening, in which the Clockmakers won their third game of the season, with an 8-7 score, on account of the fact that the legality of Darling's pitching was in question. Alex Kay handled the game throughout, and in conversation with The Examiner at the conclusion, said, "Darling did not deliver an illegal ball once. He has a nice curve ball and lots of speed."

"Hap" Bradshaw was the fielding star of the game, covering miles of territory and making several sensational catches, while playing centre field. George Dormer grabbed off the hitting honors, having a triple and two singles to his credit.

The Sugar Bowl who went in to bat first made their initial run in the third by a two base hit off Baker's willow which allowed Forsyth to make the circuit of the bases. Baker was later left stranded on second when Bud Weese was caught out by the first baseman. Three more runs to the Sugar Bowl counter were added in the seventh inning when G. Dofmer slammed the ball to centre field for a triple with the bases loaded. He died on third when Dallin struck out. Staging a great last inning rally in an endeavor to even the tally they counted three more, when Dormer walked, Baker double to left, Weese tripled to centre and G. Dormer singled. Dormer was left stranded on third when Dallin struck out and Bradshaw was thrown out by Dorrington.

Westclox scored their first runs in the third, getting four. Foley walked, as did Curry and Darling, filling the bases. Forsyth wild-pitched in Foley and Curry and Darling scored on a lucky double by White. White was wild-pitched in by Forsyth. A further run was added in the fourth on Foley's single and an error to Connors, who fielded Curry's bunt and tossed it over first. Two more came in in the fifth on White's hit, Goodson's walk and Foley's hit. They got their final counter in the eighth on a series of errors.

The line up:

Sugar Bowl—Westbrooke, 3b; H. Dormer, 1b; Baker, lf; Weese, 2b; G. Dormer, ss; Dallin, rf; Bradshaw, cf; Connors, c; Forsyth, p.

Westclox—Dorrington, 3b; Cooper, cf; White, c; Goodson, ss; Kitchen, 1b; Fowler, 2b; Foley, lf; Curry, rf; Darling, p.

Fans Puzzled Whether Sharkey Can Overcome His Tempermental Jinx

Fight is Most Significant Heavyweight Bout Since Retirement of Gene Tunney.

BOSTON GOB FAVORITE.

(By Alan Gould)

NEW YORK, N.Y., June 11.—In the most interesting and most extravagantly ballyhooed fistic affair since the late Tex Rickard pulled the strings of the heavyweight Punch and Judy show, Jack Sharkey will fight Max Schmeling to-morrow night, 15 rounds or less, at the Yankee Stadium for the "heavyweight championship of the world."

It is by all odds the most significant heavyweight bout since the retirement of Gene Tuney, but whether the winner will be recognized outside of Germany, Lithuania and the United States remains to be seen.

With any kind of an even break from Old Man Weather, a crowd of 75,000 fans probably will pay in excess of $700,000 to see the big show.

Puzzles Railbirds

To-day, the two main questions up for debate among the railbirds are:—

First: Can Schmeling carry the fistic heights that three previous foreign challengers, Firpo, Carpentier and Heeney, failed to reach?

Second: Can Sharkey overcome the temperamental jinx that has seemed to pursue him in international competition and fight at his best?

The form players have made Sharkey a 9 to 5 favorite and he will probably enter the ring at that figure.

The training camps have contributed little but wordage to the general discussion. The main facts are that Sharkey, best of a poor crop of American heavyweights, has the fighting equipment and experience with which to beat back the challenge of the young, hard-hitting and courageous German. No one yet, however, has successfully predicted what Sharkey will do on any given evening in the ring, so that the rest of the argument may just as well be reserved for to-morrow night.

America's Defenders In Competition To-day

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 11.—(C.P.)—Three of the four yachts built for the defense of the America's cup against the invasion of Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock V were to meet in competition for the first time today. The Enterprise, the Weetamoe and the Whirlwind will measure their speed against the Resolute, the last defender, and the Vanitie, also a veteran of many a sailing race. Only Yankee, the Boston craft, will be missing of the new boats.

PONTYPOOL WINS 7 TO 5 DECISION

SOFTBALL STANDINGS.

PONTYPOOL, June 11 (Examiner Correspondence).—The first game in the North Durham Baseball League was played in Pontypool on Monday evening before a fair crowd of fans. The opposing team were old rivals, Yelverton and Pontypool, and the game proved that the same rivalry exists. The game was very even, the score being a tie until the fifth innings, when the local team scored four runs to win, 7 to 5. The local team had an infield which proved to be the best yet. Cain, at first, starred while Bannon and Boyd also worked well. Fitchell, for the locals, pitched a good game and only for some loose work in the outfield would not have scored on. In the batting, Bannon, Cain and Taylor did some slugging that meant runs. The Yelverton nine played a fair game and will prove a dangerous team. H. McGill on the mound was not as effective as usual. C. McGill, Capstick and W. Kerr were also displaying some good work. Line-ups:

Yelverton.—Capstick, 1b; Chapman, 2b; Heaslip, 3b; H. Wilson, ss; W. Kerr, cf; R. Kerr, lf; D. Wilson, rf; H. McGill, p; C. McGill, c.

Pontypool.—Cain, 1b; Bannon, 2b; Payne, 3b; Boyd, ss; Graham, cf; Carter, lf; Taylor, rf; Mitchell, p; Lowery, c.

Umpires—Jones, plate; Masters, bases.

Sailor Dies Hero In Vain Attempt To Rescue Woman

BOSTON, Mass., June 11 (Canadian Press). — Rolling waves, fog, fire, screams, and out of it all a man who died true to navy tradition.

Such is the story of Seaman J. B. Walker of Kittery, Me., who sank beneath a fire-coated sea, clinging to a woman he had hoped to save.

This tale of hero'sm was told by Seaman Fred Jam of the U. S.S. Concord, a passenger on the Fairfax. The crash, the explosion like that of a monstrous firecracker bursting before one's eyes, stunned those on board the Fairfax, Jam said. A woman was hurled into the air and landed across a deck rail, hanging limp and unconscious.

Slowly her body sagged toward burning oil that covered the sea. Heat and flames played about her. Just as her weight drew her downward, Walker ran to her. He threw his arms about her legs in a football tackle. Her weight was too much, and slowly the two slid over the rail.

TARIFF BILL FATE DECIDED FRIDAY

Outcome of Measure Hinges on One or Two Votes in U. S. Senate.

SHARP FIGHT EXPECTED.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The fate of the tariff bill, believed to hinge on one or two votes, will be decided in the Senate on Friday at 2 p. m.

"I think we will win, but it is very close," was the terse comment of Senator Watson of Indiana, the Republican Leader.

Democrats were making no predictions, but strangely enough they were looking to Pennsylvania's two Republican Senators, Reed and Grundy to help defeat the bill. Both still were in the doubtful column last night Reed is expected to make his position known today on the floor.

Chairmen Hawley of the House Ways and Means Committee announced in that House that he would call up the conference reports on the measure on Saturday if the Senate takes affirmative action.

The test will come on a motion to return the measure to conference. Senator Blaine, Republican-Independent, Wisconsin, entered such a motion yesterday with a protest that the conferees had disregarded all scientific bases in arriving at the duty on cheese.

The time for a vote was agreed upon only after half a dozen Senators suggested they had engagements which would prevent their attendance earlier than Friday afternoon.

PICTON LAWYERS SUE MAGISTRATE

$10,000 Damage Suit Also Names Chief of Police.

CLAIM FALSE ARREST.

PICTON, June 11.—Notice of action for $10,000 damages has been served on Police Magistrate R. A. Norman, former M.P.P., and Chief of Police Burton Biddle by Reginald Norse of the firm of Young & Norse, barristers, Picton. Damages are asked for alleged false arrest and imprisonment. The matter arose out of an incident in Picton Police Court Monday. A preliminary hearing was in progress before Magistrate Norman on a charge of assault, with F. T. Ward acting for the complainant, Harry Hayden, and R. E. Norse for the accused, William Brown. Dr. A. W. Heasty was called as a witness, and an argument arose between the solicitors. The Magistrate ordered them to desist and sit down. This Mr. Norse did not do, and the Magistrate ordered Chief Biddle to remove him from the court-room. Norse, it is alleged, was confined in an adjoining room for a short time. F. L. Ward has been retained as counsel on behalf of Police Magistrate Norman and Chief Biddle.

DRY AGENTS RAID LIQUOR JOINTS

Hundreds of Unconscious Derelicts Carried Into Fresh Air.

DEATHS START HUNT.

NEW YORK, Junt 11.—Dozens of "smoke joints," alleged speakeasies, drug stores and other places suspected of selling poisonous liquor, were raided last night by 50 prohibition agents masquerading as Bowery derelicts.

The raids, led by Major Maurice Campbell, prohibition administrator, were aimed at the source of poisoned liquor, which has been blamed for 32 deaths in the city during the past 30 days.

Anti-freeze As Drink.

Major Campbell described some of the liquid seized as "denatured alcohol of the kind intended for use as an anti-freeze mixture for automobiles." In other places, he said, the liquor "proved to be pure synthetic wood alcohol."

Hundreds of derelicts, lying stupefied in several of the alleged Bowery speakeasies, were carried into the fresh air by agents. Quantities of home brew, colored alcohol, denatured alcohol and "smoke" were taken, and bartenders and owners of the establishments arrested.

Prices Vary.

Agents said they purchased the colored alcohol in most of the places at 15 cents a drink. In a so-called "soup kitchen" the price was 20 cents, and two drug stores were alleged to have sold denatured alcohol for 25 cents a bottle.

Earlier in the day, Isidor Kovins, aged 41, who, police charged, conducted a Bowery hardware store as a bling pig for alcohol selling activities, was held in $10,000 bail in connection with the death of David Buckley, aged 42. Buckley is alleged to have died from drinking denatured alcohol.

RECENT ORDER IS APPROVED

Regarding Rental of Boathouse Sites on Trent Canal Reserve Land.

EXCESSIVE RENTAL.

J. J. Duffus, who is largely responsible for the matter being brought to the notice of the Department of Railways and Canals, has been informed by the Chief Engineer of the Department that "relative to rental of boathouse sites on Trent Canal reserve land, an Order-in-Council, P.C. 1272, passed on 6th June last, cancels the Order-in-Council of the 29th of June, 1922.

By the Order of June, 1922, P.C. 1312, general authority was given for the leasing of the sites of all boathouses located on Trent Canal reserve land, at a yearly rental equivalent to 65c per foot frontage, with a minimum charge of $4.50 per year.

The cancellation of the Order was made by the commitee of the Privy Council, following advice from A. E. Dubuc, chief engineer of the Department, who felt called upon to act in the matter, largely due to persistent attention being called to the question by J. J. Duffus.

Chief Engineer Advises.

Under date June 2nd, 1930, the Chief Engineer advised in this matter as follows: "The rate of 65c per foot frontage represents on a boathouse site of 10 feet by 25 feet, 6 per cent. on a capitalized value of almost $20,000 per acre of land, an excessive rate, which has not only met opposition from boathouse owners, but has proven a deterrent to the use of motor boats on the Trent Canal, whereas the motor boat traffic on the Trent Canal requires encouragement as it constitutes the main available traffic on that canal."

"Moreover, the rental rate in question establishes a common valuation on all canal lands so leased which is obviously unfair as different values of land prevail in different localities."

"If the fixed rental rate is cancelled as recommended, it is proposed to issue licenses of occupation, with the Minister's approval, of boathouse sites at rental rates of $3 and $5 per annum, according to size of site needed and locality."

The Minister, on the advice of the Deputy Minister of Railways and Canals, recommended that the said Order-in-Council, P.C. 1312 of June, 1922, be cancelled.

R-100 Makes Flight Last Days of July

OTTAWA, Ont., June 11 (C.P.) —The R-100 will not begin her trans-Atlantic trip to Canada until after the general election, July 28. This was conveyed to the Minister of National Defense, Hon. J. L. Ralston, in a cable received here to-day from the British Government.

The postponement of the dirigible's flight is in accordance with an agreement between Canada and Great Britain.

The flight will be started during the last three days of July.

PLAYERS' INJURIES CAUSE OF SLUMP

Frisch, Gelbert, Hafey and Orsatti Forced Out of Line-up.

NEW YORK, June 11.—The complete collapse of the St. Louis Cardinals, who have dropped from first to fourth place, has been the outstanding feature of the National League race during the past fortnight.

The Cards' record this season has been marked by the two extremes—long jumps and extended winning streaks—and Manager Gabby Street still hopes his team can shake off its present run of ill luck and overcome the 6½ game lead which their rivals, the Brooklyn Robins, have gained during the past two weeks.

Sensational Victory Run

Street's team started poorly and on May 4 climaxed a five-game losing streak by dropping to a tie with Philadelphia for last place. After two days of idleness the Cards started a sensational run of 17 victories out of 18 games from the strongest teams in the league.

The winning streak carried the Cards to the top of the league and they left St. Louis for an extended road trip, hopeful of clinching the lead. They won their first two games but then collapsed, losing seven consecutive games. A lone victory over the Phils broke the losing streak but the Cards lost five more in succession and it was not until today that they were able to gain their second win of the eastern invasion.

Although poor pitching has cost the Cards a number of the games, six of the 12 defeats in their last 14 starts have been decided by one and two-run margins. The team has not collapsed in the sense that the athletes are playing poor baseball but injuries to regulars have proved costly.

Hard Hit By Injuries

Street's team has been hard hit by injuries with Frankie Frisch, Chick Hafey, Chaley Gelbert, Jim Bottomley and Ernest Orsatti being out of the line-up at various times; Bottomley has returned to the line-up but the other four still are on the hospital list and it is doubtful if the Cardinals will be able to present their full strength at any time during the current eastern invasion.

Chick Hafey has been sent back to St. Louis to have his eyes treated and may be out of the game much of the Summer. Hafey is one of the finest young outfielders in the league and the clubs most dependable hitter.

Frisch was spiked during a series at Philadelphia and has not yet rejoined the club, while Gelbert is on the bench, because of a persistent "charley horse." Orsatti has been in ill health much of the season.

Major Draft Meet Has Been Postponed

CHICAGO, Ills., June 11 (C.P.).—The meeting of club owners from the American Association, Pacific Coast and International Leagues to decide for or against renewal of the minor league draft agreement with the majors has been postponed from June 16 to August 5.

Postponement was caused by confusion of dates. The International League owners thought the date was yesterday, while the Pacific Coast magnates believed it in July.

A BEDTIME STORY

by Howard R. Garis

UNCLE WIGGILY'S THIRSTY LESSON.

"Well, my dears," said Uncle Wiggily to Baby Bunty and some of his rabbit boys and girls as they came hopping home from the Hollow Stump Bungalow one day, "did you know your lessons fo the Lady Mouse Teacher?"

I knew mine, Unkie Wig," answered Bunty, doing no more baby talk than just those two words, for she knew that was all she was allowed. "I said all my lessons."

"So did I!" called Buster, from where he was playing leap frog with his brothers, Bumble and Stumble. And just as Bumble was jumping over Stumble's back down Stumble fell in a lump and Bumble fell on top of him and Buster on top of them and there the three rabbit boys were in a heap.

"Ho! Ho!" laughed Jingle and Jangle, the two little rabbit twins "Aren't they funny!"

Buster, Bumble and Stumlbe hopped up, laughing, and Buster said:

"Oh, I'm so thirsty!" I'm going to get a drink of water before I play any more."

"So am I!" said his brothers. And seeing the boy rabbits drinking the cool water from the open spring near the hollow stump bungalow made Jingle, Jangle Bunty and the other girls thirty also.

Some people say rabbits should not drink water—that they get enough in the lettuce and cabbage they eat. But Uncle Wiggily liked a nice cool drink of water himself, and so did his children

Sucking up water as you drink soda thru a straw.

Seeing the little bunnies lapping up the water from the spring made Uncle Wiggily think of something he had long planned to do.

"I think, my dear," whispered Mr. Longears to his wife, who stood in the doorway looking at the splashing bunnies, "I think I shall give the children a thirsty lesson."

"What do you mean by a thirsty lesson?" asked Mrs. Longears. "It seems to me that when they have been in school all day, having reading, writing and arithmetic lessons that is enough."

No, it isn't," said Mr. Longears. There are lessons to be learned outside of school as well as inside. And rabbits, especially, who are in the woods and fields so much, must learn the lessons of out of doors. How to get a drink when you are thirsty is a very good lesson. I shall teach it to my little bunnies."

Without telling them what he was going to do, Uncle Wiggily called to Buster, Stumble, Jingle, Baby Bunty and all the others, saying:

"Come, hop along with me, my dears! We shall have time to go to the woods before supper. And we may have an adventure."

"Oh, how jolly that will be!" cried Baby Bunty.

Uncle Wiggily hopped ahead, leading his children along the woodland paths, up hill and down dale, over the meadow and through the hay and clover fields. All the while Mr. Longears kept hopping faster and faster until, at last, Baby Bunty called:

"Oh, Unkie Wig, please go slow!"

"Yes, Daddicums, please!" added Jingle. "I'm all out of breath!"

"And I'm so hot and thirsty!" sighed Jangle.

The boy rabbits were also, but they didn't want to say so. However, they were glad their sisters had spoken of it. And Buster said:

"I smell water! There must be a spring around here! Can't we get a drink, Daddicums?"

"You may have a drink if you can find the spring," said Uncle Wiggily. "But where is it?" Uncle Wiggily himself knew, very well, where the spring was, but he wanted to teach his little rabbits to find it. For, if they were alone in the woods without him, they would have to find water as best they could.

A thirsty rabbit has a good nose for smelling, and soon Buster and Jingle, by hopping around and sniffing, had found a spring of water. But, alas! The water was down between two rocks and the holed was so small, and the water was so far down that the rabbits couldn't reach it. They could see and smell the water, but it was as though it were on the bottom of a narrow neck bottle.

"Oh, I'm so thirsty! But I can't get a drink!" cried Bunty.

"Now here is where the second part of my thirsty lesson comes in," said Uncle Wiggily. "What is the next thing to do when you know where there is water, but you can't reach it?"

"If I had a rubber tube or a bean blower or something like that I could pu it down between the rocks and suck up water," said Buster.

Hurray! That's the idea!" said Uncle Wiggily. Well here is a weed plant that has long, hollow stems like a rubber tube or bean blower. Pick some of these hollow stems, children, stick them down in the water hole and suck up enough so you will not be thirsty."

So the rabbits picked the hollow weed stems and soon each one was sucking up water just as you drink an ice cream soda through a straw.

Evangelist Services Are Well Received

Beatrice Sims of London, Ontario, Conducting Services in Grand Opera House.

The past two weeks of the Revival held in the Grand Opera House have been a real blessing to people of Peterborough, when good crowds and interest accompanied the ministry of Evangelist Beatrice Sims, of London, Ont.

On Sunday afternoon the Evangelist preached on "The Signs of the Times", showing from God's Word that 'His Coming Draweth Nigh." The speaker said in part: "There are three worlds preparing for His coming; namely, Heaven, earth and hell. That we are now living in the eleventh hour, the final hour of gentile sovereignty on earth, is the firm conviction of the most spiritual people in the Church of God today.

"As we look at the Jew, God's time piece, it is marvellous how scripture is being fulfilled. Read Luke 21:29. The greatest of all wars ended in the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month, exactly at the end of the eleventh month since General Allenby entered Jerusalem on the eleventh day of December 1917, from the eleventh day of the signing of the Armistice. That was not a coincidence—it was God.

"The building of the fig tree, Luke 21:29 is one sign of the coming of Christ. The fig tree is symbolical of the Jewish nations. As we look at the Jews we see them increasing in population and financially. We are all familiar with the Balfour Declaration, Zionism and its aims. Today we see the Jew back in his own land. In 1920 Sir Herbert Samuel entered his office as High Commissioner of Palestine. He was the first Jewish ruler of the land since the time of the Macabees, 165 B.C.

"Thousands of dollars of wealth have been buried in the bed of the Dead Sea and it is only now they have things underway for the extraction of this wealth. The Jews now have their own universities, schools, etc.

"Surely these are all beacon lights, pointing to the coming soon of our Lord Jesus Christ."

Evangelist Christine Peirce of Evangel Temple, Toronto and Miss Becker of Baltimore will be present this week when Mrs. W. R. Watson will be in charge of the meetings.

Mussolini to Be Discussed at the Chautauqua Here

Tom Skeyhill Noted Australian Will Give Brilliant Address on "Il Duce"

Tom Skeyhill, noted Australian poet, playwright, biographer and lecturer, whom the London Times describes as "one of the greatest of living orators," has been secured to come here and give his masterful lecture "With Mussolini and the Blackshirts" at the coming Canadian Chautauqua.

Tom Skeyhill knows Mussolini—the true facts of this handsome black-shirted premier's meteoric rise to power. Skeyhill knows the Fascisti. He has lived with them, attended their secret meetings, marched in their torchlight processions; he understands their movement and their soaring ambitions.

TOM SKEYHILL

Mr. Skeyhill is an impartial observer. He is neither for nor against the ideals which Mussolini is striving to put into effect. He merely sifts the evidence and leaves judgment to his audience.

Tom Skeyhill himself is a colorful and arresting personality. He has fought and adventured over half the globe. Blinded in the memorable first landing of the Anzacs at Gallipoli, he became famous as "the blind soldier poet" of Australia, and in America for his services in raising over one hundred and thirty millions of dollars for war funds. He has the unique distinction of having raised twenty-three millions of dollars in twenty-three minutes at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York City.

Later, his sight almost miraculously restored, he began a life of study, travel and adventure. He has been in the thick of three wars and three revolutions. He ran the lines into Soviet Russia and was there during the Red Revolution. He marched with Mussolini and the Blackshirts into Rome through the gate that Julius Caesar entered two thousand years ago. He was in Warsaw in the heart of the Russo-Polish mix-up, and he was out in the Near East when Smyrna was burnt and the Turks defeated the Greeks.

Mr. Skeyhill is a powerful and dramatic orator with a gift for painting word-pictures that hold his audience enthralled.

THE VERY NEWEST IN CHESTERFIELDS

Refined Elegance and Artistry of Design in 2-Piece Suite.

All interested in what is absolutely new in fine Chesterfield Suites will find it worth while taking a look in the centre window of McBride & Franks' furniture store, 224 Charlotte street. Therein they will see displayed a handsome 2-piece suite of generous proportions upholstered with Ratina—the very latest thing in furniture covering. The pattern of this refreshingly original upholstery material is modernistically floral on a sand background, a combination which arrests and holds the eye by its pleasing conformity to the color scheme of almost any room. The liberally exposed frames of this suite are built of solid mahogany, beautifully hand carved, and the back of the Chesterfield is divided into three roll sections corresponding to the seat cushions, while between these sections one sees a dividing strip of the ornamental show wood.

The fronts of these two exceedingly attractive and serviceable living room pieces are concave, a unique departure from the serpentine, and in this suite one finds both refined elegance and artistry of design. By all means see it.

COMING TO CANADA AS MISSIONARY BISHOP JAMOT FIRST APPOINTEE TO THE DIOCESE OF PETERBOROUGH

Consecrated Bishop of Northern Canada in France in 1874.

GREAT MISSION WORKER

Came to Peterborough on September 21st, 1882.

The Rt. Rev. Monsignor John Francis Jamot, D.D., first Bishop of Peterborough, was born on the 23rd of June, 1828, in the Parish of Chatelard, a small village in the diocese of Limoges, France. His father was Gilbert Jamot, a retired gentleman, and his mother Jeane Cornabat, both of good family; the former purchased his estate and mansion near Chatelard after the great revolution of 1783.

He began his studies for the church in the diocesan seminary and on Oct. 9th, 1853, was ordained a priest. For a year after his ordination he taught classics in the College d'Ajain, in the diocese of Limoges. He then spent a short time in Rome, after which he went to Ireland where he remained for seven months at All Hallows College, Dublin, for the purpose of becoming proficient in the English language, it being his intention to go to Canada as a missionary. He then came to Canada and arrived in Toronto, in which diocese he was to labor, on May 10, 1855.

He was sent to Barrie where he was the first resident priest and where he remained for eight years and three months. In August, 1863, he was transferred to St. Michael's Cathedral, Toronto, and was made Vicar-General and Chancellor of the diocese. He most worthily performed the responsible and arduous duties of his office for a period of ten years and a half.

In the early part of 1874, he visited France, where on the 24th of February, 1874, in the Basilica of Notre Dame du Sacre Coeur, at Issoudun, he was consecrated Bishop of Sarepta and Vicar-Apostolic of Northern Canada.

Headquarters in North.

After a visit to Rome, Bishop Jamot returned to Canada where he took charge of his vast mission, his headquarters being sometimes at Sault Ste. Marie and sometimes at Bracebridge. He had the well-earned title of being one of the most zealous missionaries of the church. His labors among the people of Northern Canada were a continous record of zeal and ardor in his Master's cause, that recognized no obstacle between him and the advancement of the banner of the Cross; his impartial devotedness to the poor abandoned settlers on the shores of the northern lakes and the history of the dangers, privations and sufferings to which he cheerfully exposed himself, in seeking the home of the wild Indian in order to bring the light of Faith to the open pagan inmates, form an interesting tale. On the creation of the diocese of Peterborough in 1882, Bishop Jamot was appointed its first Bishop, and on September 21st of that year, arrived in his Epscopal See, where he was received most enthusiastically.

Praying of Women Saves Many Lives In Sea Disaster

BOSTON, June 11 (C.P.)—A group of women knelt in prayer on the hurricane deck of the steamer Fairfax during the height of the excitement which followed the collision of that ship with an unidentified oil tanker last night.

Harry Hutchcroft of Jacksonville, Fla., a Marine, who witnessed the scene, said their action possibly was responsible for saving many of their lives, since it resulted in postponing a decision whether to jump into the sea or stay with the ship.

Hutchcroft was one of four Marines en route to Nicaragua to serve with the United States election Commission there. He and his companions dashed from their staterooms to find the Fairfax drifting into a sea of flames which, fed by the oil from the doomed tanker, sprang up on all sides of the vessel.

Hutchcroft told of seeing on man, his wife and child plunge overboard and perish in the flaming water.

GREAT MERGER OF PAPER MILLS IS ANNOUNCED

Rothermere Amalgamates Anglo-Canadian and Canada Power Companies.

NO NEW CAPITAL ISSUE.

Daily Production Expected To Be 2,500 Tons of Newsprint.

MONTREAL, June 11—Consolidation of British and Canadian capital into the largest newsprint manufacturing corporation in the British Empre is foreseen in the announcement yesterday by Lord Rothermere of the proposed amalgamation of the Anglo-Canadian Pulp and Paper Mills Limited, of which he is president, with the Canada Power and Paper Corporation, which is controlled by the interests of the Canadian financiers, Sir Herbert Holt and J. H. Gundy. The amalgamation would involve a considerable section of the power and paper resources of Canada.

No new capital issue is contemplated, the merger being effected by exchange of the ordinary shares of Anglo-Canadian Pulp and Paper Mills for common shares of Canada Power and Paper Corporation on a basis of 2¼ shares of the capital stock of the latter corporation for one share of the former.

Preference Share Dividends

Canada Power and Paper will assume the outstanding debenture obligations of Anglo-Canadian Pulp and Paper Mills, and will guarantee the dividends on the outstanding 7 per cent. cumulative preference shares of Anglo-Canadian Pulp and Paper Mills.

Viscount Rothermere is the head of the largest publishing interests in the British Empire, being chairman of the Associated Newspaper Limited, Daily Mail Trust Limited, and Northcliffe Newspaper Limited, controlling newspapers with daily circulations running into millions of copies.

In an official statement announcing the amalgamated agreement, issued by Lord Rothermere, it was stated that the daily production of the combined companies would be approximately 2,500 tons of newsprint plus a "large tonnage" of pulp, kraft and board paper. Present shareholders of Anglo-Canadian Pulp and Paper Mills Limited will be represented on the Board of Directors of Canada Power and Paper Corporation, of which approximately 97 per cent of the stock will be held by British and Canadian investors.

BI-PLANE DELIVERED FOR AVIATION CLASS

New Night School Course Proving a Big Attraction to Young Men of City.

An airplane to be used in the instruction of the night school aviation class in the coming season at the Collegiate Institute and Vocational School was delivered yesterday by the Department of National Defence from Camp Borden. It is a military bi-plane of a type now considered obsolete for fighting purposes by the Government but has seen active service.

The aviation class which was instituted in the school last Fall proved an attration to young men in the city and an enrollment of 36 resulted. It is expected that even greater interest in the course will be shown during the coming year.

Only aviation ground work is covered in the course. With the possession of a machine for demonstration purposes the course will be more satisfactory and comprehensive than last year as instruction was given merely through the use of texts and charts.

CHIROPRACTIC IS A SCIENCE
which devotes special attention to the human spine. The spine is the line-shaft of the body, and in its natural formation protects the spinal cord and nerves, but if a vertebra becomes slightly displaced or tilted through the stress and strain of every-day life, some nerve fibres will be constricted. The result is impaired function and finally disease in the tissues supplied by the impinged nerves.
SPINAL ADJUSTMENTS
do release pressure from nerves, thus permitting a normal flow of vital force to weakened tissues. The fact that numbers of people are enjoying good health because of having taken spinal adjustments is positive proof that CHIROPRACTIC IS FULFILLING ITS MISSION.

CRASH INJURIES FATAL TO MAJOR SEGRAVE

Trapped in Blazing Home, Two Die

YOUNG FARM LAD AND SMALL GIRL ARE LOST IN FIRE

Early Morning Fire Near Newtonville is Fatal to Two Young People.

PARENTS AT BARN.

Father Tries in Vain to Rescue His Nine Year Old Daughter.

PORT HOPE, Ont., June 13 (Special to The Examiner). — Trapped in a blazing farm house eleven miles west of Port Hope, early this morning Vivian Lockhart, aged 9, and Anthony Gibson, hired man, aged 17, were burned to death. The farm is occupied by Sidney Lockhart, aged 34, and he and his wife were at the barn when the conflagration broke out. The flames spread with startling rapidity, and none of the household effects were saved. The property damage is estimated at $4,000.

Stove is Blamed

The fire is believed to have originated from a small stove in the summer kitchen. Sidney Lockhart was treating an ailing cow and a few minutes after midnight put three or four sticks of wood in the stove in order to heat some water. He went to the barn and a few minutes later the residence was a seething mass of flames.

Anthony Gibson, a lad of Scottish descent was sleeping in the room off the kitchen. Lockhart aroused him but the hired man was overcome by the suffocating smoke before he could reach the window, which was but a few feet away. He collapsed and fell on the floor alongside the window. His charred bones were recovered early this morning.

Lockhart then attempted to rescue his daughter who was in an upstairs room. He rushed to the front door but was forced back by blinding volumes of dense smoke. He procured a ladder and reached the window where the nine-year-old child was vainly crying for assistance. He broke the window with his bare fist and, sustaining a painful abrasion of his wrist. The child was overcome with smoke before his eyes and collapsed into the blazing inferno.

The fire spread with such speed that it was impossible to save a single article and Mr. and Mrs. Lockhart escaped with the clothes they were wearing. There was no wind blowing at the time and adjacent residence occupied by Carl Payne and Leonard Barnes seventy-five yards away were not threatened. The buildings and contents were partly covered by insurance.

The farm of one hundred acres is in a prosperous section of Durham county, a short distance off the Provincial highway and the neighbors soon arrived on the scene, but it was impossible to render any assistance.

Suffering From Shock.

Mrs. Lockhart, although not sustaining any physical injuries, was taken to Carl Payne's, where she is suffering greatly from shock. She was attended by Dr. F. W. Beamish of Port Hope and her condition is not regarded as serious.

Bell Telephone communication was cut off and it was impossible to summon help at the time of the outbreak. Linemen were on the scene to repair the wires but it was too late.

When The Examiner visited the tragic scene the charred spinal column was all that could be found of Anthony Gibson. The remains were located at the corner of the house. Early to-day workmen were searching

BLUENOSE RUNS FAST ASHORE ON NEWFOUNDLAND

Captain Angus Walters Sends For Assistance of Steamer Arras.

HOLDS ENVIOUS RECORD.

Until To-day Schooner Was Only One of Long Line of Racers to Escape Mishap.

HALIFAX, June 13.—(C.P.)—The schooner, Bluenose, champion of the North Atlantic fishing fleet, is ashore at Argentina, in Placentim Bay, Newfoundland, according to a radiogram received by C. H. Harvey, local agent of the Marine and Fisheries Department, from Captain Angus Walters. Captain Walters asked that the steamer Arras be sent to his assistance. The Arras is now in port here taking on supplies for the trip.

Until today she was the only craft of a long line of international racing fishermen to escape mishap. Esperanto, Elsie, Henry Ford and Columbia all met their final doom at sea.

Races Began 1920

The schooner races began at Halifax in 1920, when Captain Marty Welch, of Gloucester, won with the Esperanto. The following year Captain Angus Walters was given command of the new Bluenose, built at Lunenburg to win back the cup. Esperanto had been lost on Sable Island, and Captain Welch brought the Elsie to Halifax, to be out-sailed by the new contender. In 1922 the Bluenose went to Gloucester to defend the cup and bested the Henry Ford. Gloucester then built the Columbia, which raced against the Bluenose off Halifax in 1923 in a series which was not finished.

The schooner Elsie designed and built at Gloucester to win back the cup was wrecked before entering competition.

After nine years in command, Captain Angus Walters decided to stay ashore this season.

FOSHAY SECURITIES USELESS.

WASHINGTON, D.C., June 13. — (C.P.).—Ernest R. Lucas, Federal Trade Commission Accountant, reported in the Commission's utilities financing investigation to-day: "It seems doubtful if anything will be realized on $29,000,000 worth of securities issued by the W. B. Foshay Companies of Delaware and Minnesota in 1927, 1928 and 1929."

Racing Speed Boat Upsets Travelling 100 Miles An Hour

Miss England II Making Final Spurt For New World's Record on Lake Windermere Suddenly Turns Over in Smother of Foam, Carrying Three Men With Her.

WOMEN FAINT, IN THRONGS ON SHORE AS SPEED KING IS DRAGGED FROM UNDER SLOWLY SINKING WRECK

Engineer Willcocks Rescued Badly Injured, But Mechanic's Body is Not Recovered—Accident Blamed to Collapse of Step on Outside of Bows—Bottom Crushed In.

WINDERMERE, England, June 13 (Canadian Press). — Major Sir Henry O. Segrave, internationally known speed king, died shortly after five o'clock this evening from injuries he suffered when his speed boat overturned on Lake Windermere.

The famous racer, who held the world's automobile rcord of 231 miles an hour, lost his life while testing out his newest speed boat, Miss England II., with which he hoped to capture the international trophy at Detroit this summer.

Segrave Under Wreck.

While pounding along on the lake at a speed of about 100 miles an hour, the boat suddenly was seen to turn over and plunge into the water. Segrave was dragged from the wreck by the owners of speed launches which shot to his assistance. He was taken to a nearby hotel and was found to have suffered a broken arm, a broken rib, and a fractured thigh.

There were two companions in the boat with him. Mechanic E. Hallwell was believed to have been caught under the boat which sank within half an hour. Efforts to find his body were made immediately. The third member of the crew, M. J. Willcocks, was badly injured and was taken to a hospital.

Had Distinguished Career.

Major Segrave, who was 35 years old, had a distinguished career, he served in the Great War and was wounded three times. He was mentioned in despatches. He was technical adviser to the Air Council in 1917 and had previously been attached to the General Staff in France. He was attached to the British Embassy in Washington in 1918.

Major Segrave held the world's land speed record in 1926, 1927, and 1929, and world's champion trophy on water in 1929. He also took the world's record for single-engined hydroplanes in 1929.

OFFICERS CONGRATULATED.

Event Carried Out Before Large Gathering of Spectators in Confederation Square.

Brigadier W. B. Anderson, C.M.G., D.S.O., District Officer Commanding Military District No. 3, expressed himself as highly impressed with the progress made by the Peterborough Rangers after making the annual inspection of the battalion at Confederation Square last night. He voiced satisfaction in the efficiency of the men and especially commented on the increasing interest being taken in military work locally as indicated by the increase in the Rangers' roll this year over last.

Accompanying Brigadier Anderson at the inspection were Brigade-Major W. E. Scott of the 7th Infantry Brigade, Major G. Whitelaw, general staff officer, and Lieut.-Col. H. Goodeve, District Paymaster.

The Rangers were commanded by Lieut.-Colonel M. H. Park, V.D.

The inspection was carried out before a large gathering of spectators, who evinced their appreciation of the efforts of the men by hearty rounds of applause. The War Memorial in the background, reminding all of the khaki-clad ranks which paraded in similar fashion in the Square during the fateful years of the Great War, lent impressiveness to the scene, and stirred by the music of the red-coated Rangers' Band and the Bugle Band the bystanders readily caught up with the spirit of the occasion.

Unit Well Trained.

The review showed the unit to be well trained with efficient officers and non-commissioned officers and an excellent type of men in the ranks. With enthusiasm and precision the battalion went through its maneuvers and technical work, the men obeying promptly and accurately the commands of those in charge and exhibiting a thorough understanding of their work.

At eight o'clock the battalion, 180 strong, was formed up and gave a general salute to the inspection offi-

KIWANIANS HEAR H. NAPIER MOORE IN FINE ADDRESS

Editor of MacLean's Magazine Has Great Faith in Canada's Future.

EDUCATE THE FOREIGNER.

Need Men in Politics Who Are Above Raising Barrier of Religion.

"We Canadians must rid ourselves of any tendency to an inferiority complex," stated H. Napier Moore, editor of MacLean's Magazine, in addressing the local Kiwanis Club at the noon luncheon to-day. Mr. Moore gave an inspiring retrospect of Canada's development and the promise of future progress that will make the past fade to almost insignificance.

In sounding a note of warning of what Canada needed if she is to gain her proper place with the greatest speed, he pointed out that it was not enough to bring settlers to Canada and let them squat on the Prairies neglected. They must be taught to speak English, and trained in an atmosphere of Canadians that will develop ideals and patriotism. He mentioned the Vegreville incident in the West in which twelve native-born Canadians were brought into court to give evidence and an interpreter was required because these men could not speak English. A long these lines Mr. Moore stressed the need for Canadian text books in Canadian schools.

"It is still somewhat popular in Canada to regard politics as a game rather than a science," continued the speaker, in pointing out the need for clear thinking in managing the affairs of the country, "We need men," he said, "who are above raising the barrier of religious intolerance in politics; men, who do not know how they will vote five years from to-day, who are led by the need rather than a platform."

Good Health Necessary

Speaking of public health, Mr. Moore said: "There are twice as many persons in lunatic asylums in Canada than there are in universities. The Dominion Government is spending six millions a year on public health, and the wage bill loss due to sickness in this country is annually 131 millions. We haven't yet reached the stage where we can see the economic value of good health."

Mr. Moore spoke of the progress in Canada from the Atlantic coast to the Pacific. He told of the great prosperity now existing in the Maritime Provinces, stating that last year Nova Scotia bought more cars than did the Province of Quebec. Twenty-five millions were spent by Nova Scotians alone. Last year Ontario produced 200 million dollars worth of pulp and paper materials for export, while in 1890 the amount was only $120.

Herb. McCannan, J. Wearing and W. Friel supplied the musical entertainment for the luncheon, playing several harmonica selections. Al Sharpe announced that the enthusiasm for the big Rochester excursion was gaining and the tickets were having a ready sale.

W. Friel stated that many of the stores on George street would close the whole day of Wednesday, June 25, and would remain open the night previous, so that the clerks could take in the excursion.

German producers are unable to make enough sound films to supply the German demand, and the audiences do not want the programs filled out with silent films, so the theatre managers are in trouble.

MACDONALD CLAN RECEIVES HONORS

Inverness Bestows Freedom on Premier, and Murdock MacDonald and Baldwin.

LAST GIVEN LLOYD GEORGE.

INVERNESS, Scotland, June 13.—(By Thomas T. Champion, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent). — This capital of the Highlands stirred the leaves of its long and often turbulent history to-day when it conferred its freedom upon three members of the Clan Macdonald, one Premier, one ex-Premier and one member of Parliament.

Those honored were Rt. Hon. J. Ramsay Macdonald, Premier; Rt. Hon. Stanley Baldwin, former Premier, and Sir Murdoch Macdonald, Liberal member of Parliament for Inverness.

The last prominent person to received the freedom of the town was Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George, who, during his Premiership, actually held a Cabinet meeting in Inverness to consider a sudden crisis in Irish affairs.

CIRCUS ARRIVES AND ALL'S READY FOR BIG SHOWING

Sells Floto Circus is Settled at Exhibition Park For Brief Stay.

BOYS LOOK FOR MIX.

Young Peterborough Is Up Early to See the Animals Unloaded.

"Yes, suh, dis am some life mixed up in a big circus like dis here one is," lamented one big negro this morning as he lounged between a long row of tent pegs. "Us wakes up this morning at half-past four and finds ourselves here. Right away us starts work unloading and putting up dat big top."

"Hearty, hearty, there nigger, grab that rope and pull," came a booming voice. Right there, the negro's discourse was broken off, but before he jumped to add his weight to the thick rope he managed to add mournfully, "and then to-night us has to take her all down again and pack her up."

Train Arrived at 4 o'Clock

Shortly after 4 o'clock this morning the three long trains of circus cars drawn by puffing engines steamed into the south end of the city, and just after 9 o'clock, less than five hours later, the "big top" flanked by many smaller "tops" reared its mammoth stretch of canvas into the sunlight. Then it could be said that the great Sells-Floto Circus was settled in Peterborough for its brief stay.

A large delegation representing Young Peterborough was at Exhibition Park and at the railway siding at the break of dawn this morning to welcome the circus. Urchins strove mainly to assist the burly negroes in the task of putting up the tents. Others sought out the spot where the elephants were picketed and urged their ability as water carriers.

"Heh, mister," spoke up one youngster, "Do you want anybody to do anything?"

"What can you do, boy?" asked the circus man with a smile.

"Me," was the reply, "I can do anything as long as there's a pass in it."

Looking for Tony

Another pair of youngsters had made a complete tour of the circus tents. They were searching for some one. "Say, Jim, I wonder where he can be?" one asked anxiously. "I aint seen him."

"I don't know, perhaps he stays back in the cars. Maybe he's feeding Tony."

Then the boys left, still pressing their search for that boyish idol, Tom Mix.

CRY FOR ACTION AGAINST CHICAGO GANGS GROWING

Despite Great Police Activity No Notorious Gangsters Arrested.

NET DRAWN TIGHT.

Churches Express Indignation —Newspapers Band Together in Clean-up.

CHICAGO, Ills., June 13 (C.P.) — The cry for action in the hunt for the slayer of Alfred (Jake) Lingle, Tribune reporter, rose higher and higher to-day, but with no indication from authorities of any new clues or of any prospect of immediate results.

Indignation over the murder was fast translating itself into criticism of police, of the city administration, even of the Chicago Crime Commission which one minister—the Rev. Mr. Philip Yarrow—classfied as "a lot of bunk." Dr. Yarrow, chairman of the political action committee of the Chicago Federation of Churches, called for a mass meeting for the expression of the minister's "indignation" over crime conditions.

Net Drawn Tight

There was no lack of police activity as motor squads cruised through every part of the city making arrests, but though the police net was drawn tight, the grist of arrests showed no well-known gangster. Indeed, as officials admitted, out of the more than 600 men arrested, only a small percentage could be classified as gangsters. Mostly they were nondescripts, minor hoodlums and "bums."

Leaders of the Methodist, Lutheran and Presbyterian denominations announced that within a week they expected to have a unified expression of indignation. Dr. John Thompson, Pastor of the First Methodist Church, announced the opening of a campaign of education against crime from every Methodist pulpit in Chicago.

Representatives of all Chicago daily newspapers printed in English met yesterday and adopted a resolution decrying "the intolerable outrages of the past year against civic decency and public security" which "culminated dramatically in the cowardly murder of Alfred J. Lingle."

"The undersigned Chicago daily newspapers interpret the murder as an especially significant challenge to the millions of decent citizens who have suffered the vicious activities, in defiance of law and order, of some paltry hundreds of criminal vagrants

NO NEED OF DAUGHTER TO ELOPE IF HE HAD BEEN HOME MIX SAYS

Tom Mix Is Seen By Reporter Outside of Big Sells Floto Tent.

HAS PLEASING DRAWL.

"What do you think of your daughter's elopement?" an Examiner reporter asked Tom Mix during a chat with him this morning on the lot of the Sells-Floto Circus, with which he came to town to-day.

He replied to the question with a grin in his pleasing Texas drawl: "I don't think an elopement would have been necessary if I had been consulted first."

After a moment's thought he continued: "Of course it isn't such a serious matter. The newspapers make a big thing of it, but some of our best people were married on elopements." He intimated that the union meets with his approval and had his blessing.

In asking the question the reporter was referring, of course, to the elopement of Ruth Mix, the film cowboy hero's 17-year-old daughter, with Douglas Gilmore, motion picture actor, in Arizona on Monday.

Basking in the Sun.

Mr. Mix was basking in the sun outside his private quarters behind the "big top" when his interviewer was introduced to him. Garbed not in the picturesque cowboy shirt with the usual bandanna but in a silk jersey, his broad muscular shoulders and arms shone a dark brown in the morning sunlight. The leather chaps were also missing, for he wore simple riding breeches. However, he sported a pair of ornate riding boots with glittering spurs, which caught the reporter's fancy.

"How did you come to start in the movies?" the reporter asked.

"I hardly know. I was photographed quite a lot around the rodeos in Texas and got my first part in a moving picture with the Selig Company in California. Since I first started I have always done westerns."

Bombay Sends Out Appeal for Troops

POONA, India, June 13. (C.P.) The military authorities here have received an urgent message from Bombay asking that a whole battalion of the fourth-fifth Mahrattas, five hundred strong, be sent to Bombay immediately.

BUTTON SAVES BOXER FROM GANGSTER'S BULLET

SYDNEY, Australia, June 13.—(C.P.)—A button on his coat saved Arthur Messenger, an Australian boxer from death when it deflected a gangster's bullet.

Messenger was waylaid in Surry Hills, underworld of Sydney, but used his fists to good account. Then one of the gang drew a revolver and shot him. The bullet struck a button, driving in through Messenger's coat, vest and shirt, but his only injury was an abdominal bruise.

Returning Shriners Have Liquor Taken

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., June 13.—(C.P.)—Railroad trains on which Shriners traveled from the convention held this week in Toronto, Ont., yielded between $4,000 and $5,000 worth of choice wines, liquors and cognacs, when they were searched at the border by United States Customs Inspectors T. M. Hennessey, Deputy Collector in charge of customs at the Falls port, said today.

No charges were preferred or fines imposed by the customs men in connection with the attempt to smuggle liquor into this country as the Government officials were unable to determine who owned the liquor.

Premier of Canada Speaks in Talkies

OTTAWA, Ont., June 13.—(C.P.)—Prime Minister Mackenzie King entered the "talkies" today for the first time. Facing a battery of moving picture sound machines, he delivered a message that will be reproduced all over Canada and United States and will be sent to Great Britain and Europe as well. The rustic beauty of Kingsmere, the Prime Minister's country home near Ottawa, was the background for the "shots".

One of the largest caravans of moving picture sound trucks ever to enter Canada paraded through Ottawa today on the way to Kingsmere. The engagement was made some time ago and culminated many attempts on the part of the producers to have the Prime Minister appear before the camera. Three companies of news features sent cameramen.

INDIANS OUTWAIT BOMBAY POLICE TO STAGE PARADE

PLANES BOMB TRIBESMEN.

Severe Sentences Dealt 17 Soldiers For Disobedience at Peshawar.

BOMBAY, India, June 13 (C.P.).—Eight hundred Nationalist volunteers won a technical victory over police a few minutes after midnight this morning when after hours of waiting they were allowed to hold a parade in mourning at the proclamation of martial law at Sholapur just one month ago.

During the day the volunteers, 400 of whom were women in saffron attire and 400 of whom were men dressed in white, attempted to lead a parade toward the Maidan esplanade. Police with orders to prevent their advance through the end of the day, when the restriction on parades was to expire, surrounded them and refused to let them go forward.

Volunteers Wait.

The volunteers sat down to wait, holding their positions for hours until midnight, when the police withdrew. The volunteers then, with 25,000 sympathizers who had gathered, rushed down into the fort, or European area, screaming and shouting. They held a mass meeting in the forbidden area and then dispersed peaceably.

During the day small groups attempted to break through the police cordon at other points, and twelve of them were injured in clashes with police armed with lathis, or staves.

Reports from the village of Khaira, in the Midnapore district, Bengal, said that police opened fire on a large crowd of demonstrators, but the details were not available here. Police reinforcements were sent to the village.

Tribesmen Bombed.

DEEP SEA DIVING RECORD IS MADE

Two Men Descend in Steel Ball 1,426 Feet South of Bermuda.

FELT NO DISCOMFORT.

HAMILTON, Mermuda, June 13.—(C.P.)—A new record for deep sea diving was established yesteday by William Beebe, New York zoologist, and Otis Barton of the New York museum, who descended fourteen hundred and twenty-six feet in the steel sphere in which Beebe set the previous record of eight hundred feet a few days ago. Fish were easily observed at the new depth, in a blue violet light, the rest of the spectrum being cut off. As on the previous descent, telephone communication was maintained with the tug from which the hollow sphere was suspended. The long dive was made about five miles south of Bermuda.

The ball in which Beebe and Barton reached depths never before attained by man is fitted with fused quartz windows, and oxygen supply, and apparatus for absorbing exhaled air. The divers reported they had experienced no discomfort.

CADET CAPTAIN LAUDS CORPS AT MILLBROOK

Annual Inspection and Sports Program Held Under Auspices of Agricultural Society.

PRESENTATIONS MADE.

Several Local Cadets Receive Medals For Meritorious Work During Year.

(Examiner Correspondence)

MILLBROOK, June 13.—The official inspection of the Millbrook Cadet Corps was the feature of peculiar interest as an opening item on the Field Day program, sponsored by the Agricultural Society, and held at the fair grounds on Thursday, June 12, beginning at 2:30 p.m. The weather was all that could be desired, but the attendance was not as large as had been looked for, the supposition being that many families in the countryside intended going to Peterborough for the circus the following day, and two consecutive days off for farmers at this season is too big an order to be considered.

Captain M. Isbestor, P.P.C. L.I., D.S.O. reviewed the Cadets in Ceremonial, Company, Rifle and Extended Order drill, and took the salute as they marched smartly past the Inspecting Officer, who with Colonel Odell, P.S.I., had his station immediately in front of the grandstand.

Offers Congratulations

The presentation of the Shooting Trophies won by Millbrook Cadet Corps No. 403, during 1929, followed the inspection, Captain Isbester performing this pleasant duty, and heartily congratulating the Cadets, their Instructor, and the School Board on the excellent record achieved, which has made this Company prominent throughout the British Empire more than any other Unit in Canada today.

Previous to presenting to Captain Henry Gray the Earl Jellicoe Sword, and the Replica of the King's Shield, Captain Isbester read a letter received by the High Commissioner of Canada from Admiral Jellicoe regarding the latter, explaining it is by special permission of His Majesty that the handsome Bronze Replica, mounted on an ebony shield and suitably inscribed, has been sent to all Units having scores of outstanding merit in the Imperial Challenge Shields Competitions for the year 1929.

Medal for Winners

Captain Isbester also presented the silver and bronze Medals of Honor granted by the National Rifle Association for scores of special merit among the competitors, and to Instructors for particularly successful work. These have been specially struck at the Mint in England by permission of His Majesty, King George V, the winners locally of silver medals were: Cadent Instructor Lieutenant B. B. Dawson; Eddie Nattress, whose Platoon was given first place at the official Cadet Inspection of Port Hope High School; Nelson Davis, and George Gray; winners of bronze medals included: Gerald Todd, who is the drummer for the Cadet Corps; Eric Clarke, who also received the Galer-Haggarty Memorial Prize, holding the high score in the D. C. R. A. Competition, and in the Imperial Challenge Shields Match and George Gray.

Reeve P. Stinson voiced the civic pride felt in the record eestablished by the Cadets, and the courtesy extended by Captain Isbester in arranging the Inspection for a date when so many of the public could be present. He referred especially of the obligation the community is under to Lieutenant Dawson "whose duties as principal of the public school mean that his cadet work must be done in his spare time when he is free from the service which teaching imposes. He is a Millbrook boy, and that fact increases our pride in the Empire-wide publicity which he has brought to our community."

Applause punctuated all the addresses and the individual medal presentations and Reeve Stinson called upon Colonel Odell to present the Laura Secord Trophy first won by the Cadets in 1927, and held continuously by them ever since. Condemning those who talk disparagingly about Cadet training, and urging the importance of cultivating true manliness and politeness along with education, the Colonel drew some impressive lessons from the silver cup, mentioning that its two handles mean an even balance, and stood for mutual support and co-operation; its strong foundation led to the hope that the school education the boys and girls are receiving at Millbrook will help them to grow up strong, worthy citizens, building character on a solid basis, and living pure lives as the shining silver of the trophy suggested.

L. W. Smith, chairman of the school board, spoke briefly emphasizing the civic, provincial, and national pride the record of the Cadets inspired, and requested F. W. Bowen, who has represented Durham

VANCOUVER ASKS GOV'T TO PROBE PRICE OF FLOUR

Would Decide Legality of Millers' and Dealers' Association.

MOVE BY CITY COUNCIL.

Frazer Valley Farmer Asserts Stockmen Exploited in Feed Prices.

VANCOUVER, June 13.—Decision to call on the Minister of Labor of Canada to investigate the relations of wheat prices to the price of flour, feed and bread, and to decide whether the association of millers and dealers constitutes a combination in restraint of trade, was reached by a special committee of the City Council yesterday. A resolution to this effect was prepared for forwarding to Ottawa. An appeal will be made to other Western cities for support, including Edmonton, Calgary, Medicine Hat, Moose Jaw, Lethbridge, Saskatoon, Regina and Winnipeg.

In the resolution the Council does not undertake to prove or disprove any given statement, but places before the authorities information which it believes warrant investigation.

James Weir, former member of the Alberta Legislature and prairie wheat grower, now a farmer in the Fraser Valley, appeared before the committee and asserted that poultrymen and stockmen in the area contiguous to Vancouver are being exploited to the extent of millions of dollars in the prices of feed. He quoted comparative prices in Calgary and Vancouver, showing much higher figures here.

T. H. STINSON, K.C. IS AGAIN NAMED

1,200 People Attend Conservative Convention For Riding of Victoria.

'CANADA FIRST.'

LINDSAY, June 13—A convention of 1,200 people yesterday unanimously nominated T. H. Stinson, K.C., of this town, to contest the riding of Victoria for the Conservative party. There were no other nominations. F. R. Wilford occupied the chair and the other local speaker was C. G. Frost, barrister. Hon. J. D. Chaplin of St. Catharines and David Spence of Toronto were the visiting speakers.

The candidate dealt with figures and facts concerning tariff and its history and what the Conservative Party had done. Mr. Chaplin characterized the Budget as a "bunch of words" and ridiculed it, from beginning to end, stating that, of the 500 articles mentioned in the tariff as having British preference, some 400 were not even made or grown in Great Britain. Mr. Spence and other speakers spoke out boldly for the British Empire, but were for "Canada first," and Liberalism was accused of causing blue ruin in Canada, lack of employment and hard times.

RUMANIA MAKES PRINCESS HELEN ITS QUEEN AGAIN

Transition Accomplished With Publishing of Royal Decree in Gazette.

CORONATION OCTOBER.

King Carol With Part of Royal Family Meet Returning Queen Marie.

BUCHAREST, Rumania, June 13. —(C.P.)—Princess Helen of Greece, mother of the Grand Voivode of Alba Julia, Michael, and divorced wife of King Carol II today became Queen Helen of Rumania.

The transition was accomplished with publication in the official gazette of a Royal decree authorizing "Her Royal Highness, Princess Helen to bear the title, 'Her Majesty'."

Carol's act was accomplished in line with his reasoning that Parliament's annulment of the acts of banishment and renunciation of January 4, 1926 had made him King de jure from the day of his father's death. Helen, not divorced from him until later, similarly became Queen at that date.

May Be Crowned with Carol

It was understood, although not so stated, that Helen would be crowned with Carol, possibly as early as October.

Queen Helen was not at the railway station when Queen Marie Carol's mother, arrived aboard the Orient express from Munich and Oberammegau, but King Carol—attired as a General of aviation—Grand Voivode Michael, her daughter, Elizabeth of Greece, and Prince Nicholas were on hand with troops and Government officials. Queen Marie alighted from her coach, kissed Carol three times, and greeted the crowd with a kiss from her finger tips. She then embraced Elizabeth, then Michael, and at the last Prince Nicholas.

FRANK SPEECHES AT SHRINE FEAST

DAY OF PEACE CEREMONIES.

TORONTO, Ont. June 13. (C.P.)—Climaxing a day given over entirely to peace ceremonies, prominent United States citizens attending the Shriners International convention, gathered around the banquet table with leading Canadians last night. Speeches preceding the banquet were more in the nature of frank discussions. United States domestic problems were thrashed out by Albert C. Ritchie, Governor of Maryland, and Leo V. Youngworth, former Imperial Potentate of the Ancient Arabic Order of Mystic Shriners.

"Prohibition in United States had placed burdens on Canada which one nation should not expect another to assume, Governor Ritchie declared. "International goodwill cannot be furthered by a situation which requires that the United States must ask a neighbour to adopt laws with the sole object of helping her to enforce her own" he said.

Referring to the tariff revision in his country, the Maryland Governor said the general upward revision of important tariffs that bids fair shortly to become law in the United States would defeat its own object through its unfortunate effect upon other nations of the world.

GAME ENDS IN DISPUTE

Menie-Glen Ross Softball Fixture Will Be Replayed at Later Date.

SOME HEAVY SLUGGING.

BURNBRAE, June 13 (Examiner Correspondence).—The much-heralded Menie and Glen Ross ball game at Menie on Wednesday evening ended in a dispute with the game undecided, and to be replayed at a later date. The scrap was by no means one-sided, although Glen Ross appeared to have an edge in the fifth when Robinson's triple, following some healty singles and a few errors counted seven runs.

Menie fought back steadily and going into the last half of the seventh were four runs in arrears. With two runs in, two out and the tieing runs on second and third, Thompson came to bat. Three balls were called on him and the fourth, a slow toss, crossed the plate low and struck the ground less than a foot behind. This should have filled the bases, with a heavy batter following. Umpire Rowland, however, failed to see the play in the growing dusk and called a strike. Manager Walker immediately protested, with the result that, as the umpire refused to change his decision the game was called to be replayed on the Menie field later.

Both teams played good and bad ball by turns. A. Fraser was the best batter with five trips to first in the same number at bat. Robinson and Brown got four out of five, while for Menie, Eagleson and Petherick got the same. Frank Little drove in three runs with a crashing three-bagger in the second. Menie were without their regular second baseman and relief pitcher Kerr, who is severely ill, and were badly handicapped as a result. Rannie and L. Little pulled a snappy double killing to retire the side in the fourth inning.

Line-up:—

Glen Ross—Smith, p; Mitts, c; Archer, 1b; Conley, 2b; Robinson, 3b; Brown, ss; G. Fraser, lf; Carlisle, cf; A. Fraser, rf.

Menie.—Eagleson, p; T. Little, c; Shillinglaw, 1b; L. Little, 2b; Rannie, 3b; Petherick, ss; Hay, lf; Thompson, cf; F. Little, rf.

Score by innings:—

Glen Ross.. .. .. 4 0 1 0 7 0 2—14
Menie .. .. 3 3 1 0 3 0 2—12

Bomb Fails To Explode.

LONDON, June 13 (C.P.). — A Lahore despatch to the London Daily Mail to-day said that a bomb was thrown Thursday evening into the garden of the Chenab Club at Lyallpur, near there, where several women were sitting.

The bomb struck a hedge and fell in a water course, which extinguished the fuse and none was hurt. The Indian who threw the bomb escaped, officers who pursued him on bicycles failing to overtake him.

Sells-Floto's Circus Moves Into Peterboro For Big Showing

The Sells-Floto circus has come to town and has completely filled up the eastern half of the Peterborough Exhibition grounds. It is without doubt one of the largest to be seen in this city in years. It came in during the night and unloaded early this morning. Above is shown twelve of the large elephants being unloaded. CAVAN COUPLE ARE ENTERTAINED ON THEIR SILVER WEDDING DAY

Unique Program Staged in Community Hall in Honor of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Byers.

MANY GIFTS RECEIVED.

CAVAN, June 13.—(Examiner Correspondence).—A very pleasant social evening was held in Cavan Community Hall on Monday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Albert Byers celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding.

The hall was prettily decorated for the occasion and the bride and groom entered the hall to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs J. E. Whitham.

An excellent program for which L. H. Winslow acted as chairman was as follows: Mrs. L. H. Winslow assisting with the musical part of the program; humorous songs, Clare Winslow and Tom McCamus; piano instrumental, Mrs. J. E. Whitham.

Speeches and Presentations.

Speeches were made by A. Monk, of Bethany, and Rev. J. E. Whitham. L. H. Winslow read an address of congratulation to Mr. and Mrs. Byers and Will Pritchard, and James Kennedy on behalf of the community presented the couple with a tray of flat silver together with salt and pepper shakers.

Mr. Byers made a suitable reply followed by the singing of "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows." Mr. and Mrs. Byers received a number of individual gifts including a silver cream jug and sugar bowl.

A splendid supper was served in the basement of the hall by the committee in charge. The bride's table was decorated in pink and green centred with a wedding cake. Seated at this table were Mr. and Mrs. A. Byers, Mr. and Mrs. W. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. A. Monk and the Rev. J. E. and Mrs. Whitham. Miss Helen Kennedy and Mrs. Kenneth Moncrief were waitresses for this table.

Dancing was then enjoyed for a short time, music being provided by the Moncrief orchestra.

INDIA'S GRIEF TOLD IN COURT

Child Marriage is the Great Curse of the Masses.

WOMEN UNDEVELOPED.

LONDON, June 13 (Special to The Examiner, Copyright 1930). — The feature of the Simon report most emphasized by the newspapers is its unanimity. It is considered a great achievement for the commission containing Conservative, Liberal, and Socialist members to avoid minority reports. Suave and subtle, Sir John Simon managed his team with extreme adroitness. The central Indian committee issued a report months ago, but it consisted of dissenting minutes which cancelled each other out.

There are no recommendations in volume one of the Simon report published recently. The readers are left guessing as to the policy to be put forward in volume two. Volume one is confined to a general survey.

It is evident that they regard the system known a dyarchy as a failure. Minister sare responsible to legislatures in some matters, but not others. It has proved impossible to get legislatures to observe these distinctions.

There is an excess of nine million males over females. This excess is greatest in age groups of 10 to 20, probably due to practices such as purdah (early marriage), and unskilful midwifery. Purdah is least detrimental to the rich, who can afford separate space for their women. Medical reports show it eats terribly into the vitality of women, shut up with small accommodation. Half the girls in India are married before they are fifteen. Hundreds of thousands are widows before they reach the age of ten.

STORM SWEEPS PORTUGAL

LISBON, Portugal, June 13. (C.P.) —Portugal counted the cost to-day of a terrific storm which unroofed houses, uprooted trees, drowned cattle and killed thousands of birds during the night.

Several persons were injured, two seriously, and the damage was estimated at 10,000,000 escudos (about $5,000,000).

CATTLE, GRAIN, PRODUCE

WINNIPEG GRAIN.

WINNIPEG, June 13. — Wheat prices stumped on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange yesterday as darkened skies poured rain over wide sections of the West's wheat belt, bettering crops that had suffered for days from lack of moisture. Values were off 2¼ cents in all trading months at the close.

Southern and Central Manitoba and Eastern Saskatchewan benefited most from the rainfall, but showers were reported from practically all districts on the Prairies. Trading was on a fairly large scale. Export demand fell off drastically, adding to the day's bearish news.

Demand was good for cash wheat, but holders were not interested at the prevailing spreads. Cash interest in all coarse grains was light. All commodities followed the action of wheat and values were about 2 cents lower at the close.

MONTREAL PRODUCE

MONTREAL, June 13.—Wholesale butter prices at Montreal yesterday slipped another ¼c per lb., becoming 27c to 27¼c for Eastern Townships No. 1 pasteurized creamery. The trading was quiet and demand slow.

Expectations of heavy shipments from New Zealand this summer, together with the facts that Canadian production will be higher, and that the British and United States markets are weak, all tended to hold down butter prices here. Receipts were 3,601 boxes and prices to retailers were unchanged.

The cheese market had an easier undertone. Receipts were 7,077 boxes.

No changes were reported on the egg market, with carlot demand continuing slow. Receipts were 1,876 cases.

New potatoes of grade No. 2 were reduced 25c to $5 per 160-lb. barrel. There were no cars of No. 1 grade here today, there being a lull in shipments. Old potatoes remained unchanged at $2 to $2.10 per 90 lbs. for New Brunswicks.

TORONTO PRODUCE

TORONTO, June 13.—Butter prices struck a new level on the local market yesterday, when No. 1 Ontario was quoted at 28c and No. 2 at 27c. This was a drop of ¾c from the top market of Wednesday, when some sales were made at 28¼c for No. 1 and 27¼ for No. 2. Shippers were offered the new low prices yesterday, and dealers stated that sales were difficult to secure at these prices. Buyers evidently had not recovered from their heavy purchases previous to the Shrine convention, and so were waiting to clear stocks before taking on new lots.

But the low market will evidently encourage storing, and this should help the situation some during the next few days. It is the opinion of some dealers that the local market has reached its lowest mark, and that there will be considerable trading at the low prices. Retailers were offered prints at 32c and 31c for No. 1, and 30c for No. 2.

The Bureau of Statistics bulletin on cold-storage holdings for the dominion shows a great increase in supplies this year in comparison with 1929. On June 1 storages in this country had 10,770,831 pounds of creamery. On June 1, 1929, the amount was only 3,124,139 pounds. The bulletin also shows some 355,432 pounds of dairy butter on floors.

Cream

Churning cream prices were steady yesterday at 28c to 29c for special, 27c to 28c for No. 1, and 24c to 25c for No. 2, f.o.b. country points.

Cheese

Trading on the cheese market has been dull for some time, and prices to shippers were lower yesterday—the second drop in about a week. Shippers were quoted 16½c for new large, 16¾c for new twins, and 17c for new triplets. The prices to retailers were also lower at 18¼c for new large, 18½c for new twins, and 18¾c for new triplets, a drop of ¼c.

Storage holdings were down over 4,000,000 pounds this year, according to the Dominion bulletin. This year on June 1, storage held 6,417,512 pounds, and on June 1 last year the report showed 10,511,568 pounds.

Eggs

Prices on the egg market held steady with Wednesday's quotations, and dealers were offering graded eggs, free cases, at 30c to 30½c for extras, 28c to 28½c for firsts, and 26c to 25½c for seconds. Country shippers were quoted 28c for extras, 26c for firsts, and 23c for seconds, ungraded, delivered, cases returned. To the retail trade the prices were: 35c for extras in cartons, 33c for extras loose, 31c for firsts loose, and 28c for seconds loose.

Dealers might be storing eggs at the present low levels, but the bulletin just issued shows fewer eggs in storage this year than on June 1 last year. On June 1, 1930, there were 11,538,573 dozen in storage, 587,480 dozen on floors, and 3,136,771 dozen frozen. On June 1, 1929, there were 12,291,663 dozen in storage, 1,002,457 dozen on the floors, and 2,803,334 dozen frozen.

Poultry

Poultry prices to shippers took a drop yesterday, especially in the lightweight class. Fatted hens were down from 1c to 3c, according to weight (see "Poultry and Eggs" table on this page). Spring broilers were quoted 3c to 4c less than last week, and prices for old roosters held firm at 15c and 12c.

Storages on June 1 were holding more poultry than at that time last year. The bulletin shows: 1930 — Broilers, 249,793 pounds; chickens, 2,168,045 pounds; fowl, 1,013,938 pounds. 1929—Broilers, 179,343 pounds chickens, 1,420,633 pounds; and fowl 340,759 pounds.

Potatoes

The local potato market held firm yesterday, with prices for New Brunswicks, $2.10 in bulk and $2.20 in bags; Prince Edward Island Cobblers, $2.10 and Mountains, $2.35; Ontarios, if any, $2.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

CHICAGO, June 13.— Big selling and sharp breaks in prices for wheat yesterday followed rains that assured better prospects for spring wheat growth, especially of the Canadian crop. Auspicious conditions for the harvest of domestic winter wheat had also a bearish influence, and North America export business was of only limited volume, most of it Canadian. Acute weakness of the rye market, with prices outdoing any previous low record here since 1914, tended to pull wheat values down.

Closing quotations on wheat were unsettled, 1¼-1⅝c lower than Wednesdal's finish, but ⅝c-1c up from Thursday's bottom level. Corn closed 1¼-⅜c down, oats ⅝c-⅝c off and provisions unchanged to 10c-12c decline.

THE VOTERS' LISTS.

In regard to the additions and corrections of the voters' lists now being carried on by the registrars, while every voter is at liberty to enquire at the registrar's office to find out if his or her name is on the lists, it might reassure the electors to know that The Examiner has been informed that there is scarcely a probability of a name being left off the list where a notice has been left at the voter's residence.

These notices were made out in triplicate and numbered consecutively and checked so that there is a voter's name on the list for every notice that was issued.

No doubt some names are not listed, not. The Examiner is assured, the fault of the enumerators, but through the failure of householders or others to give to the enumerators who called upon them the name of every adult in the house who might be entitled to vote.

All such names may now be added by application at the proper registrar's office.

If you are a British subject, are 21 years of age, have been a resident of Canada for a year and of this riding since the day the writs were issued, and no enumerator's notice has been left for you, you had better visit the registrar in your district and have your name added.

THE DEATH OF W. F. KERR, K.C.

The whole district has been shocked by the news of the sudden death of William Field Kerr, K.C., of Cobourg, crown attorney of the United Counties of Northumberland and Durham, who passed away Wednesday night following a fainting spell.

Mr. Kerr was in harness until the end, having been in attendance in court on Wednesday.

He had been crown attorney for the past twenty-five years, after having been named acting crown attorney in 1903, and was one of the best known and most highly respected occupants of that position in the whole Province.

A practising lawyer since 1887, three times bencher of the Law Society, a prominent Mason and Rotarian, and a public-spirited and popular citizen whose assistance could be counted on in every activity aimed at the betterment of the community, Mr. Kerr's death leaves a gap that will indeed be difficult to fill.

To his surviving sisters and brothers, one of the latter being an esteemed resident of this city, F. D. Kerr, K.C., the sympathy of a host of Examiner readers will go out.

His death is a distinct loss to the district.

PETERBOROUGH'S INDUSTRIES.

Figures issued by the Department of Trade and Commerce show that in 1928 Peterborough occupied tenth place in the list of Ontario cities in so far as the value of industrial production was concerned.

That is in itself a good showing, but it is materially improved when it is considered that the $36,124,040 worth of products turned out of Peterborough factories in 1928 represented a very great variety of industrial activity, whereas cities higher in the list in the total produced owed their position to the one line of manufacturing, the automobile business.

Peterborough, with 79 manufacturing plants working upon a diversified array of products, was in reality in much more enviable a position than the one-industry cities—proof of the truth of which statement is to be found in the fact that while these latter centres have found themselves almost completely palsied by reason of a slump in the automobile industry, Peterborough with her varied industries has weathered the storm in remarkably good shape.

In other words, an industrial production of thirty-six millions divided among 79 manufacturing plants is decidedly more valuable to a community than a production much greater confined to one or two industries.

TORONTO'S WAIL.

Toronto gives the hinterland a good many opportunities to indulge in a quiet chuckle and sometimes in a hearty laugh.

The wail of a Toronto evening paper over the discovery that the convention of the Mystic Shriners has not been the gold mine that was anticipated furnishes this week's entertainment feature.

This particular journal, exhibiting more enterprise than good taste, has been interviewing indignant boarding-house proprietors, owners of service stations and everybody else who planned on making a "killing" out of the Shrine visitors and is irate because the rain of gold failed to develop.

It would have given the Shriners from all over the continent a much better impression of Toronto and of Canadian hospitality manners if so much publicity had been avoided, or at least postponed until the affair was over and the guests departed.

If there was a wide gap between the financial gains that Toronto expected and the actual results, the fault certainly is not that of the visiting Shriners, and it seems childish in the extreme for a newspaper to give vent to such an outburst.

Undoubtedly Toronto expected too much and planned too lavishly; sporting promoters, business men, lodging-house proprietors and everybody else apparently looked upon the affair as the equivalent of a new gold discovery and expected to cash in accordingly.

The wail of disappointment over the meagre returns is, however, an evidence of a lack of good sportsmanship that will send Shriners away with a poor opinion of the capital of the Province.

ACCIDENTS FROM NEGLECTED CARS.

Automobile owners in the United States who neglected to keep their cars in good condition were responsible for five thousand of the lives lost in traffic accidents during the last calendar year. This estimate is made by the framers of the report recently submitted to the National Conference on Street and Highway Safety at Washington by its committee on the maintenance of motor vehicles. To learn that fully fifteen per cent. of the traffic fatalities recorded in 1929 are actually traceable to lack of proper care of cars is an enlightening disclosure. The studies of the committee into causes of motor accidents have convinced its members that stricter official inspection of all automobiles is urgently needed.

Essentially this report charges that because of improper maintenance defects are allowed to develop in vital mechanical parts of a car; brakes and steering gear are allowed to become dangerously worn or drop out of adjustment; horns, windshield wipers, rear lights and headlights uncared for become ineffective. A steady increase in driving speeds in the last few years has served only to increase the hazards created by the negligence of those who own cars and permit them to be operated when they are unfit to be driven on public highways. The committee recommends legislation that will enforce periodic inspection in States where such a precaution is not now taken. It suggests that in the case of old cars that have been resold several times a certificate of inspection should be required when drivers' licenses are issued.—St. Thomas Times-Journal.

MAY COME TO PASS.

Some day there may be a great change wrought in the selling and handling of motor cars. We seem to be in an age that desires a car that has speed—not just enough to keep up the speed limits of the country, but something more.

Must have that quick get-away so that when the line-up comes at a red light the car will be able to shoot right out as though it were catapulted from a gun.

There is no particularly good purpose to be served by such a get-away, but we must have cars built that way. Even when we are not going any place in particular we are in a great rush to get there.

Then, too, it is necessary when we are talking with other motorists to be able to hold up our end of the conversation. When some rather boastful individual says his car made some particularly bad hill on high, we must be able to reply that we never had noticed there was a rise in the ground there.

When the next speaker tells about making an average of 62 miles, including going through slow traffic, we must be able to relate how 70 is our average for ordinary driving under similar conditions.

* * * *

Is it too much to hope that some day dealers themselves will take a more decided stand in the matter? It may turn out yet that there will be something like this when the prospect goes into the showroom:

Buyer: "What has this car in the way of a stock record? I want a crate that will do between 90 and 100. Last car I had wouldn't go over 80, and I'm sick of slow cars."

Dealer: "This car is equipped with something new in the way of brakes. They are guaranteed to hold in an emergency or any other time. They were designed for safer driving, and already they are producing results in decreased road accidents."

Buyer: "But how about the engine in her? That's what I am going to get this time. A powerful engine is what I crave."

Dealer: "This car has something new in headlights. They have been tested so that we know they will not throw the glare in the eyes of another driver. They give a good light and make it safe for other cars on the road at night. If you drive this car you can be certain you are being courteous to others in the matter of lights."

Buyer: "But what will she do when I get her out in the open? I'm not going to take a haw-haw from every smart jay who passes me."

"There is something new that has been developed in this car, and that is an excellent set of springs and a new seating arrangement. If you take your family or friends for a drive you can be certain they are going to be more comfortable than ever. The seats have been built with the same care that is given to the creation of an easy chair in the home. We find people are looking for more comfort in motor cars and we are giving it to them."

"Buyer: "Quite so, but will you guarantee me 90 miles out in the open. That's what I want. . . . ."

Dealer: "We will give a guarantee with this car that has more behind it than we have ever done before. We used to sell cars on the basis of engine capacity, but we do not do that any more. We found so many of our best customers were not satisfied on that basis. They wanted to go out on the road and drive carefully in a car that gave them no mechanical trouble and that was a pleasure to ride in. The whole trend of the motor car business is in that direction. If you want a car that will run 100 miles an hour we have a department where they turn out racers, and we can also show you the addresses of some of the best race tracks in the country. But we have ceased long ago trying to sell passenger cars on the basis of speed alone. People are taking more pleasure out of driving now. They travel long distances and they want to see the country. They are demanding easy riding quality and safety devices; you see they want a good chance of returning home safe and rested after a long trip. How about it? Don't you think you had better do your car buying on that new basis? There's plenty of engine under that hood, and it is built so well that we guarantee it absolutely, but we have found it poor business to feature speed in selling cars."

And after such a discussion is it too much to hope that the driver who craves for speed shall see the wisdom of considering all the other features that go to make motoring a real pleasure? — Stratford Beacon-Herald.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

Toronto people, after this week, will probably not worry if they don't hear a band in months.

Some districts report crowded nomination meetings, others "packed" ones, which is quite a different thing.

Premier Brownlee of Alberta is doing his campaigning by air. It is the quickest method of travelling and the publicity will not do his party any harm either.

There are no acclamations in the New Brunswick provincial battle, which is evidently a lively preliminary to a red-hot federal bout.

The return of Major Power, without a contest, as member for Quebec South is predicted. It would be popular with Canadians generally, by reason of his firm stand on behalf of the Dominion's war veterans.

Keep Wednesday night next open for the Rotary Street Fair. It will be one of the big events of the summer and is in aid of a splendid cause.

Prohibition would be more of a success if every dry who endorsed it would only use it personally.—Louisville Times.

A Thought

HONOR

In the estimate of honor, we should learn to value the gifts of nature above that of fortune; to esteem in our ancestors the qualities that best promote the interests of society; and to pronounce the descendant of a king less truly noble than the offspring of a man of genius, whose writings will instruct or delight the latest posterity.—Gibbon.

What To-day Means To You

"GEMINI."

If June 13th is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 8 a.m. to 9:30 a.m., from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m., The danger periods are from 5 a.m. to 6:30 a.m., and from 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Outside influences on this date are of a nondescript character; and there will be no urge to do things and little courage to fight for things. Obstacles of a molehill size will upset your plans. No great accomplishments.

The children born on this June 13th will have an enthusiastic, impulsive and somewhat aggressive nature. They will show signs of irritability and will take unkindly to discipline. Intellect and not intuition will lead them through life.

Your pride more than anything else is the driving force of your life, and it enters into all phases of your existence. Were it not for your pride, you would probably be doumed to accept a seat of mediocrity, for you are not a naturally energetic being. It is your love of appearances, and your respect for position which eggs you on. It wounds your vanity to have others get ahead of you, and it is probably your zeal to "show" your critics and doubters, more than any real ambition, which has kept you climbing upwards. Your motives may be vain ones, but they are driving ones.

You will try to lead your own life, and will strike out a path for yourself. Much that you do, both wrong and right, will be unexpected by your friends, and contrary to their advice. You are likely to have more than one occupation, or you will change your vocation several times. Partnerships will not bring you good luck or happiness.

You are always seeking an outlet for your very strongly developed paternal or maternal affections, and children quickly run to your protecting arms. You will never grow too old to remember how you felt, or what you desired, as a child. Animals, too, will find in you an understanding and a loyal friend.

P. W. WILSON IS DEAD.

MONTREAL, Que., June 12.—(C.P.)—The death of Percy B. Wilson, President of the Canadian Newsprint Company and widely known in the pulp and paper industry in Canada and the United States, occurred here last night after a long illness.

Mr. Wilson was born in London, England, 64 years ago, and came to Canada in 1913.

APRIL ESCAPADES

CHAPTER XXXIV.

It was after two o'clock now, the music had ceased. The dining room was almost deserted, only a few waiters hovered near the door, only a few late lunchers were murmuring, as these two were, at scattered tables. Outside, the blue sky was clouded again, and the light, irresolute rain was again falling.

Chris leaned across the table, and for a quick second put a warm brown hand over her own. His eyes were smiling, but his tone was all kind.

"It's not going to take you very long to get over it, Mary?"

"All my life!" she answered quickly.

"Ah, no, my dear!"

"Not that it matters," she said dully. "I don't know" she began again with a desperate little laugh, "I don't know who told you. I would have died rather than let you know!"

"You've been telling me, all day," Chris answered. "You told me last night, over the telephone."

She accepted this squarely, meeting his eyes. But her color rose steadily.

"I suppose so," she admitted simply, shrugging.

"A feeling like that," he said, "doesn't last—do you see what I mean? I mean—why, we all do that. We all get involved, But the real thing—the things that are tied up with your family, and your friends, and your home town, and—oh, well a man's success and future, and children, everything—" He stopped.

"I'm trying to say something," he recommenced, with a laugh, as her gravely watching eyes gave him no encouragement, "and I don't believe I'm getting away with it."

"Oh, yes, you're getting away with it," Mary Kate assured him, simply.

"No, but suppose—suppose," he argued eagerly, "that the shoe was on the other foot—that the situation was what-d-you-call-it—reversed. Suppose the situation was reversed. Suppose I was begging you to—well, marry me. Can't you see that we wouldn't have a dog's chance for happiness? Can't you imagine yourself saying something like this to me? 'I don't know your friends, I don't understand the way they talk about things, they fuss me when they pull German and French on me—"

"German and French!" Mary Kate echoed, in a pause, looking away, slightly biting her full lower lip.

"Oh, I don't mean German and French! I mean everything. I mean—well, everything!"

"The beggar on horseback!" Mary Kate said lightly.

"You know better," Chris reproached her, warmly. "You know what I mean, better than that," he went on, as she did not speak. "You know that all I mean is, that the things the women I know do, would not hold you for one second. They are not real, I know that. I hate the whole crowd of them, dressing and eating and gambling. I don't see you playing bridge every day jabbering their jabber. I mean—"

"I know what you mean!" she said impatiently, resentfully, in the pause.

"That—well, that in a way you're the realest girl I've ever met—" Chris explained. "Your mother—your family—the man you're engaged to marry—all that is real. If I wanted that sort of thing—little sisters and brothers, all needing me, all wanting things that money can buy, I couldn't get it. You've got a marvelous time ahead. You've got everything—"

"Am I making sense?" he broke off to ask with a little self-conscious laugh.

"Of course you're making sense," the girl said, in the most natural tone she had yet used. But her cheeks were aflame.

"Mary, I want to say something to you," Chris said suddenly, with a quickened manner of tone. "This thing has gone very deep with me. I've done darn-fool things in my life, and I thought this was going to be just one more of them. But it's not. I don't mean what happened Friday night. We're going to get out of this Moody business all right, I'm not afraid of that. I'll square him if I have to join the Socialists, and throw a few bombs myself here and there."

"But it's this other thing that gets me. If you're going to feel badly about it—if you're going to think—How'll I put this? I mean, if any unhappiness for you—"

His incoherent sentences dwindled into silence. He made a fresh start.

"Here's what I'm trying to say: You're young, and you're very beautiful—you really are, it sound like a flat thing to say, but really you are—and you're going to be married, and you've got your mother and home here, and your brothers and sisters and friends. I've come along, to upset all that—"

Another halt. Mary Kate ended the silence by saying:

"You have."

"Damn!" Chris ejaculated simply.

"We'll go to the hospital now," the girls said, beginning to gather her things, "and after taht, I'll not see you again. I ask you—I beg you," she went on, "not to try to see me again, after to-day. But something happened to me, last week," she continued very simply, looking down, speaking in a low voice. "I didn't know what it was at first. I just knew that I was—sort of —trembling all the time, and that I couldn't eat, or sleep—and yet I didn't feel sick, exactly—

"Everything looked so bright, and so—well, I don't know, thrilling to me," she went on, in a dead silence. "Even I—myself, was thrilling, to myself.

"And then, thinking one night, I suddenly knew what it was. I was remembering Burlingame, and all that time last week, and when I came to thinking about you—"

A little shrug, an upward glance from her troubled blue eyes, completed the sentence. She got to her feet.

"So that's that!" she finished. They did not speak again as they left the dining-room.

But in the yellow taxi, lumbering through the light, sun-penetrated rain that was still falling—falling, to his surprise, and to his rather touched relief, she was suddenly her usual self again, a tall red-headed girl eager for experience and filled with interest in everything. She told him the history of the old mansion on Nob Hill, pointed out the college town, and the prison island, the quarantine and naval base islands in the bay, and the old Fair site, lying level along the edge of the sullen gray, rain-flattened waters. From personal, emotional matters she kept resolutely away, and he saw it.

"Do you dread this interview, Mary?"

"Not much. I have a feeling that it'll come out all right."

"—" she said, turning to him with that animated, wide-eyed look he so especially liked in her. "I'm absolutely crazy—I'm what my brother Mart would call completely off the reservation! I'm doing things, and taking chances, that would absolutely have floored me—that would have scared me to death a few months ago. I don't know what's come over me! I was in a place where burglary and murder were attempted, a few nights ago, I'm lying to my mother, I'm lying to Cass, I'm on my way now to see a criminal—"

The summary ended in her gay, irresponsible laugh. It was as if, he saw her confession had relieved her soul, washed away all fear and resentment for the moment, at least.

"Did you tell your brother?"

"No; he's in Oregon. And a blessing too! But I did tell Mr. Keating."

"What! The whole thing?"

"Almost."

"And what did he say?"

"Oh, he was wonderful. He really understood."

Chris had a moment of mortification. "I suppose he thinks I'm a skunk," he said, uncomfortably.

"I suppose he does!" she conceded, indifferently.

"It's all sort of a mess," Chris mused, after a moment. Mary Kate made no answer.

"Is this man in a jail hospital!" she asked.

"No. Gordy managed that. He asked them that no charge be made against him until we got it all straight. He intends—at least he hopes, that he can claim that it was all a sort of joke—a man he knew, who'd gotten boiled at the club, and so on."

"Could he do that?"

"Oh, it's being done all the time!" Chris assured her.

They were at the hospital, mounting the formidable flight of steps that rose at its imposing base. Inside, there were certain formalities, and then a middle-aged nurse, with a bunch of keys at her girdle, led them through various clean, antiseptic-scented hallways to one of the immense wings of the enormous building. An elevator boy then took charge of them, and eventually they found themselves alone, outside of a white-painted steel door, one of a hundred similar doors that closely dotted a long upper corridor. Number seven-six-seven.

The door stood slightly ajar, Chris knocked upon it lightly with the silver head of his walking stick. He glanced at Mary Kate; she was a little pale now, and looked frightened.

"Come in!" a nurse's voice said instantly.

Chris and Mary Kate pushed open the door, and were in a small, clean, white room, filled with a narrow white high bed, a white chair, and a great white-curtained window flooded with afternoon-light. Bright rain was still falling on the city below the hill.

Chris saw these things, after one quick glance at the man who lay bandaged on the bed, his sullen suspicious look turned toward the door. But Mary Kate's look got no further than the invalid's face.

Her breath rose on a quick gasp. For a second she wavered as if she were going to faint. Then with a sob she took the little space between door and bed with a few flying steps, she was on her knees beside the injured man, her face against the hand she clasped in both of her.

"Oh, Mart, Mart, Mart!" she cried.

Uncommon Sense

WHAT ARE YOU WILLING TO PAY

This is for young men and women.

They are, or ought to be, ambitious.

They want to prosper, to be happy, to be important.

They want to do at least as well as their parents—probably better.

They want to have homes, and cars, and travel and keep worry about the poorhouse out of their minds.

The catch is that few of them who want these things are willing to pay for them.

Whatever is worth having is expensive—if not in money, then in work and labor and the sacrifice of the little pleasures that are to be found by the wayside.

They are also costly in wear and tear on the mind and the muscles—not harmful wear and tear, but the sort that effort will entail.

There is no reason why you cannot be fairly successful if you are willing to pay for success.

You will probably say that you are willing to pay, but you do not always know whether you are or not.

Men who have succeeded greatly, not as mere money makers but as benefactors to mankind as well, have been perfectly willing to pay the price.

Henry Ford was paying it when he was tinkering with a horseless carriage in his little shop and everybody laughed at him.

Edison was paying it when he worked hard as a telegraph operator, and used his spare time, not in idle amusement, but in studying the marvelous force that made the telegraph possible and finding out how to use it in many ways beside that of sending messages and ringing bells.

The Wrights were paying it when they rigged their little gasoline motor to a couple of planes, and when they spent long seasons at Kittyhawk studying the flight of birds, and finding out how it could be imitated by man-made wings.

Those were high prices. They were hard to pay, for to meet them required the elimination of most of the common amusements with which men entertain themselves and which they feel that they cannot give up.

If you are willing to pay that price continuously, from youth to middle age and perhaps beyond, you have a right to demand success from the world, and the world will not deny it to you.

But if you think you can get by more cheaply, having all the fun you want, and still winning success or distinction in the end, you are doomed to disappointment.

It is true that there are accidental successes, but they are so few that they do not count.

Most success is brought in the market like any other commodity, and paid for by effort which is worth more than money.

COMMENT ON THE MORNING STOCK MARKET OVER BIGGAR AND CRAWFORD WIRE.

The New York Market showed firm tone in early dealings reflecting the decrease in brokers' loans. However, improvement failed to hold and new lows on the move were reached in many sections of the list under a fresh wave of selling around eleven o'clock. At the end of the first hour prices soared again and carried U.S. Steel up to $165 and Radio Corp. to $43. The volume was down considerably, being about one-half that of Thursday. The Toronto market drifted around aimlessly to-day, and no important price changes were recorded. At one o'clock Walker's was unchanged at $11¼.

NO NEED TO ELOPE DECLARES TOM MIX

"I suppose you just about grew up in the saddle?"

Born in Texas.

"Yes. I was born in Texas, where my father was a rancher. At a very early age I learned to ride at home and later I rode with other ranches."

"Before I joined the Sells-Floto Circus last year I worked with the Fox Film Company. I expect to go back this fall and start work on a talking picture in November."

The chat turned to the subject of the "talkies" at this. Mr Mix was asked if his voice registered satisfactorily in the talkies."

"That's hardly for me to say," he replied. "They claim that I have a good talkie voice, but you can't tell. For instance, Gilbert has a nice voice to hear him, but it doesn't register so well on the screen."

"What do you think of the talkies?"

"Well, they are certainly a great improvement over the silent pictures. They remain to be perfected yet, and there is yet room for even greater development."

"I think it won't be long before they will have perfected recording apparatus that will allow the satisfactory reproduction of any voice rather than just voices of a certain type."

"I think that the talkies are making for the production of cleaner pictures," he continued. "Production methods and requirements have been entirely changed."

"I like this life for a change," Mr. Mix said when the interviewer asked him if he found it easier on the road than working in the movies. "I was a bit fed up on Hollywood. It's too unnatural, and there doesn't seem to be anything stable behind it all. I mean the people, of course. They seem too much like glittering tinsel paper. It's hard to make any real friends for the Hollywood people are up to-day and down to-morrow.

Make Real Friends

"In the circus you meet real people and make real friends. They are people of real ability and all do something. They are sincere."

"What do you do for recreation?"

"I like reading and boxing. I am reading. I enjoy biographies and philosophy and I am also a student of phychology. I don't think they teach enough phychology in our schools."

Mr. Mix told the reporter that he has had his famous horse Tony, for 18 years, having bought him in Arizona and raised him from a colt. "I certainly think quite a bit of him."

"Do you think the people in America are losing their taste for western pictures?"

"On the contrary I believe that the western picture is coming back stronger than ever. People like something that will give them a thrill. They are fed up on the musical comedy and the sex play and are again looking for the outdoor picture which lost popularity when the talkies first came in. Also you have got to amuse the younger people in a real way and give them something to see that will give them wholesome lessons in life."

The children and younger people have always been the most ardent devotees to the western thrillers, he agreed with the reporter, but at the same time he pointed out that some of the longest-lived plays on Broadway were plays with the western atmosphere.

The people who are riding with him in the circus were in most cases associated with him in the movies, Mr. Mix explained.

Q.—Taking railroads, public utilities and industrials as a class, which should have the smallest per cent of bonded debt to total capitalization.

A.—Industrial should have the smallest percentage of bonded debt to total capitalization. Next in order comes railroads and lastly public utilities. The payment of interest on bonds is a current liability. Since the earnings of industrial vary as a rule more than those of the other two classes, it is necessary that this current liability be a smaller proportion of the total capitalization.

The earnings vary also according to the nature of the industrial. Some companies manufacture specialty articles and luxuries, the sales of which vary greatly from prosperous times to periods of depression. This rule particularly applies in such cases. In some industries the "turnover" is very slow. Industrials are more subject to competition than are public utilities or railways. They may be forced to compete with new companies that have a decided advantage with their new machinery and new methods. If a company fails the sale value of the plant and machinery is much below its value as a going concern, and as there have been more failures among industrial issues than among any other class, this point must be kept in mind.

It is different with public utilities. Their earnings vary little—usually steadily increasing from year to year. Their turnover is rapid and on a strictly cash basis, and there is little capital tied up in process. They are almost free from competition.

Railways occupy the intermediate place although they bear a closer resemblance to public utilities in this respect. Their turnover is rapid and their earnings do not fluctuate as much as those of most industrials.

Chicago Wheat Rallies In the Late Trading

CHICAGO, Ill., June 13 (CP).—Quick rallies from initial downturns in values formed the rule early to-day in the wheat market here. Additional rains in Canadian wheat territory helpful as a further relief from drought were responsible for price set-backs at the opening, but Canadian reports of severe crop damage were also at hand stimulating buyers. Starting ½-1 cent lower, wheat afterward more than recovered. Corn, oats and provisions developed firmness likewise, with corn opening ⅜-½ cent off, and subsequently showing an all-round advance.

"I came from Port Hope shortly after midnight," Lockhart told the Examiner, "with some medicine for a sick cow. I put three or four sticks of wood in a stove in the summer kitchen to heat some water. I do not know how the building caught fire as the stove pipes were cleaned a few days ago.

"My wife and I went to the barn," he continued. "We looked back and it seemed as if the whole house was blazing. When I was in the house Vivian, my only daughter, was just going to bed. She said good-night, Daddy ,as usual, and I replied good-night, dear."

At this stage Lockhardt's eyes filled with tears and he despairingly looked at the burning remains. 'I tried to awaken my hired man and when I heard my daughter screaming, I ran for a ladder and saw the form of my daughter at a window on the second story."

Copper Prices Take Another Drop in To-day's Quotations at New York.

REFINERY CONSTRUCTION.

TORONTO, Ont., June 13. (Special to Examiner.)—Traders in the mining market must be heeded the oft repeated advice to always stay home on Friday the 13th. To-day the market started in the quietest it has been in a long while and the activity was simply terrible. The ticker came to a complete stop for minutes at a time and it was a real black Friday. Prices were showing no changes of consequence whatever, and this was one thing to be thankful for.

Copper took another drop in New York to-day being officially quoted at 12½c against unofficial quotations Thursday of 12¼ cents and official of 13 cents. Should the level of milling prices go much lower, there are a lot of orders on the books of brokers that are going to be filled. Traders continue to seek the elusive bottom and instead of placing orders at the market are placing them below in the hope prices will dip long enough to permit execution of their orders.

Sanantonia expects to hear good newd of ore developments at the lower level within the week, Drilling is taking place around the 1,000 foot level.

Private wires to-day carry the information that the easterly extension of Lake Shore's number two vein has been interceded by Wright Hargreaves in the crosscut south at the 700 foot level. On the east claim development of number one system, east of the main fault, is said to show three fractures within a 75 foot wide area. These are said to carry high value over widths of about 4½ feet.

It is expected the new mill on Granada will soon be under way. The mill will be capable of handling 50 to 60 tons a day. Floating supply of this issue in the market is said to be pretty well cleaned up.

With more than 1600 men engaged on construction of the new refinery of Ontario Refining Company, Copper Cliff, rapid progress has been made since commencement last May. The main buildings are finished and the casting plant will start operating about the middle of the present months. July 1 should see the electrolyptic department in commission. Although designed for an initial output of 24,000,000 pounds of copper annially, foundations have been installed in such a way that this capacity could be dloubled with a comparatively small amount of additional construction. Jos. P.Crawford, secretary of James Crawford and Sons., Inc., Oklahoma was here for the Shriners convention and stayed with Frank Mullett, Glen Road. On his way to Toronto, Mr. Crawford visited the Western Canada oil fields and expressed the opinion that the pools there were as big as in the United States. Mr. Crawford is coming back and his firm will probably become financially interested.

RACING SPEED BOAT UPSETS

seconds after her start, the boat was travelling at terrific speed. The had twice covered a measured mile and had turned and was travelling almost at her maximum speed with the roar of her giant engines echoing from one hsore to another when the disaster occurred.

Racer Swerves Violently

Suddenly, to the consternation of observers lining the banks of the lake, something was seen to go wrong with the roaring speed boat and the great marine marvel, with her mass of machinery, seemed to swerve violently and plunge beneath the water.

The spectators on either side of the narrow lake which is only about one-third of a mile across, screamed with fear and some of the women fainted, A huge mass of white spray shot up and it was several seconds before the graceful craft was seen again. Then she presented a terrifying sight emerging with her bottom up and with a large hole stove in her. She was almost completely under the water.

Before observers on the shore had time to catch their breaths, a dozen speed boats had rushed up to where the broken Miss England II floated limply in the water. They quickly set to work to rescue the men who a few minutes earlier had been sitting in her cockpit.

Engineer Willcocks was the first to be dragged from the water. He seemed half drowned and was badly injured over the eyes.

Lady Segrave Witnesses Crash

Segrave seemed knocked out. He was taken to a nearby hotel. Lady Segrave, who had witnessed the disaster from the shore, crossed over to be with him, and a physician was called.

Miss England sagged down into the water. All efforts of the launches could not keep her afloat. When she reached a certain depth, however, she seemed to regain her poise slightly. The craft remained floating but with only a few feet of her sharply-pointed bows showing above the surface.

Here she rested for some time but the downward pull eventually was too hard for her. Half an hour later she sank in deep water.

It was stated that the accident was due to a step on the outside of the bows of the boat giving away under pressure against the water. The bottom of the boat was crushed in.

The missing mechanic, Halliwell, is 31 years old and married.

He was a tester in the experimental section of the Rolls-Royce Works, where the speed boat's engine were built.

Going Over 100 Miles an Hour

It was reported that Miss England was doing over 100 miles an hour when the accident occurred.

It was claimed that previous to the accident Segrave had broken the world's speed boat record with two runs over a measured mile of 96.41 and 101.11 miles an hour, giving an average of 98.76 miles per hour.

Segrave's death followed another record breaking performance. Before the accident he had broken the world speed boat record, though whether the mark would receive international recognition was not determined.

Gave up Auto Racing

Major Segrave had given up automobile racing after establishing his world record, at the request of his wife who considered it too dangerous. He was too active, however, to remain entirely out of the field of mechanics and speed. He took up motor-boating as a hobby with his wife's consent as she felt this was not so dangerous.

Lady Segrave was at Lake Windermere to-day and saw the accident which resulted in her husband's death. She rushed to his side immediately and was with him when he died.

OSHAWA MEETS U.S. 'ALL STARS'

Motor City Lacrosse Eleven Lead at End of First Quarter 3-2.

BRILLIANT GOAL KEEPING.

MAPLE LEAF STADIUM, Toronto, Ont., June 13 (C.P.).—Two of the strongest lacrosse teams on the continent, Oshawa General Motors and the United States All Stars, clashed here this afternoon in the first of a two-game series for the international championship.

Both teams fielded their strongest elevens in an effort to secure a lead to carry into the final contest tomorrow. Total goals on the round will decide the championship.

The American All Stars threatened from the start, and only some splendid work by the polished Oshawa guard kept them from winning the game in the first few minutes.

Natural lacrosse ability came to the fore as the game progressed, and the Canadian champions ran in two brilliant goals, by Doddemead and Stephenson, to gain a two to one advantage after the visitors had taken the lead. The all-Americans tied the score on a beautiful combination thrust, Evans scoring.

Oshawa took a three to two lead just before the quarter ended, when Degray notched a neat counter.

100 Murders in Year.

"Considering the causes and connotations of the unbelievable total of one hundred gang murders in little more than a year and acting in accord and unison, we pledge our organizations and our resources to the clean-up of gang, police, official and any other public viciousness wherever it may appear, in order that corruption and the resulting gang activities may be brought to an end, and thereby restoring to the citizens of Chicago civic decency and security of life and property."

Members of the City Council promised action. Alderman Arthur Albert announced that at the next meeting of the Council he will submit a resolution directing Mayor Thompson to appoint a special committee to investigate the Police Department "from top to bottom."

FAIRFAX OWNERS FACING $350,000 DAMAGE ACTION

Suit Fyled in Federal Court By Management of Tanker Pinthis.

FILE LIMITATION PETITION.

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 13.—(C.P.)—Suit for $350,000 has been filed in Federal Court here by the Lake Tankers Corporation, owners of the oil tanker Pinthist, against the Merchant's and Miner's Transportation Company, owners of the steamship, Fairfax which rammed and sank the Pinthis of Boston, June 10 with a loss of 47 lives.

The sum of $350,000 is the value put by owning corporation upon the Pinthis and its cargo.

The suit was filed last night just before the closing of the clerk's office in the Southern New York district of the United States Court, and the Merchant's and Miner's Line immediately filed a petition for limitation of liability.

This action, customary in admiralty proceedings, is taken to limit total damages to the value of the surviving ship.

The Fairfax was valued at $1,350,000 when she was built in 1926. Depreciation and the cost of repairs from the collision an item estimated at $150,000, would give the Fairfax a present value of perhaps $1,150,000 or slightly less, it was estimated by counsel for the plaintiff.

The amount, if the petition for limitation of liability is granted, would be the utmost which could be recovered by litigants against the Merchant's and Miner's Line in damages for the loss of the Pinthis and its cargo and for the loss of life in the collision.

MUTUAL LIFE ASSURANCE MEN HOLD BIG CONFERENCE IN CITY

E. W. Smith and H. B. McCutcheon Deliver Important Addresses.

LECTURES ILLUSTRATED.

"The foundation of business is confidence, which springs from integrity, fair dealing, effective service and mutual benefit", this was the theme of the splendid addresses delivered to the delegates to the all-day conference of the Mutual Life Assurance Company's representatives held in this city yesterday, at the Empress Hotel.

The morning session was given over to a series of lectures. George Gibbons presided throughout the day introducing the speakers from head office. E. W. Smith, superintendent of branch offices and A. E. McCutcheon assistant superintendent of agencies. The delegates were representative of the whole of Central Ontario.

Ideals of Service

Mr. Smith spoke of the company's ideals of service, stressing the need for agents keeping prospect lists up-to-date and explained fully the great possibilities to be derived from keeping in constant touch with existing policy holders. A satisfied client is the best asset of any business, he averred.

Diamond Jubilee

Mr. Smith also referred to the Company's 60 years operation and it's lengthy record of outstanding service of it's assets and the fact that it is operated solely for the benefit of its policy holders. In dealing with the Life insurance business in general, he spoke of it as the greatest business on earth today. On the American continent where well over one hundred million dollars of insurance is in force, he thought that new and greater needs are arising in connection with insurance premiums. Policies now in greatest demand amongs the people seem to be due to the fact that the time of their productive period is the time to provide adequate protection for later years.

Psychology of Success

At the opening of the conference Mr. Gibbons tendered a sincere welcome to the officers and delegates and dwelt on the psychology of personal success which implied first of all faith in ourselves, and our innate ability to achieve great results. Success, he declared is the outcome of wholesome expression and not repression. We need faith, courage and ambition and moreover to succeed as a salesman we must exhibit a brotherly attitude and kindly interest in our fellow citizens generally. Add the foregoing to a firm conviction or belief in the goods or service one has to sell and your reward will be great. It is only the good that endures.

Mr. Smith also gave an illustrated lecture, stressing the visual quality of success and service. He pointed out that we remember only 20 per cent of what we hear and 80 per cent of what we see. Therefore the quality of retention is based on attention given by the eye in observation. The pictures were wonderfully interesting.

Following a splendid luncheon served in the usual delightful manner by the management of the Empress Hotel, Mr. McCutcheon demonstrated quite clearly the service to be given a prospect once you find him. He said that many people are not fully cognisant of the great benefits to be derived from life insurance generally, there being so many types of policies and various brands that implied protection and a number which also provide for protection with profit. He showed how the endowment policy with annual dividend accumulation gave splendid results and provides three-fold measure of protection for one's dependents, provision for disability and a splendid saving fund for future delivery. He also pointed out that common sense should govern the insurance underwriters service to others in as much as he should endeavour to ascertain the individual needs of each case before submitting his proposals, thereby enhancing the interest of the prospect remembering that a satisfied policy holder is the salesmans best asset.

Towards the end of the conference, the meeting was thrown open for general discussion of field problems which was entered into by every delegate present.

A vote of thanks was tendered to the officers who expressed their appreciation at the opportunity of getting together to discuss their plans and projects.

IRREGULR COURSE IN QUIET SESSION

Trading Volume Falls Off Considerably From Thursday on Standard.

TORONTO, June 13 (CP).—Prices pursued irregular courses on the Standard Stock and Mining Exchange, during the early session to-day. The trend at all times was indefinite, and volume fell off considerably from yesterday.

Higher-priced golds were quiet, Hollingers off 10, and Dome and Teck Hughes unchanged, while Wright Hargreaves scored a 3-point advance.

Oils were fairly active, but the group as a whole was easier.

Increased use of the long distance telephone in Peterborough and vicinity has necessitated the approval of plans to extend the equipment in the local central office, according to Manager H. H. P. Johnston, of the Bell Telephone Company.

The additional equipment will consist chiefly of an extension to the switchboard facilities, extra sections being provided and new positions required to handle the greater number of toll calls. Further apparatus such as relay circuits and that used by the operators in making connections will also be established.

Mr. Johnston states that the work will nearly require a year to complete. It will cost in the vicinity of $30,000 and is one of the many items of equipment extension on which the Bell Company proposes to spend about $29,000,000 during 1930.

Expecting to realize $1,000 from the sale of two Chippendale mahogany chairs in London recently, the owner was surprised to see them bid up to $9,975 recently.

CATHCART FOUND TO BE NOT GUILTY

Charge of Criminal Negligence is Dismissed Against Springville Farmer.

JURY OUT 45 MINUTES.

Toronto Car Did Only Thing Possible Witness Tells Jurymen.

The charge of criminal negligence brought against Harold Cathcart, Springville farmer, who was implicated in the fatal automobile accident on the highway near Springville on March 20, was yesterday afternoon dismissed by the jury. The case was heard before His Honor Judge Huycke ... the General Sessions of the Peace and the jury, after being out some forty-five minutes, returned a verdict of "not guilty."

Crown Attorney V. J. McElderry, K.C., conducted the prosecution and J. F. Strickland, K.C., the defence.

The hearing of details in the accident in which one man was killed and two others were seriously injured took up most of the day.

Should Have Seen Car.

In his address to the jury Mr. McElderry maintained that Cathcart was negligent in that he did not see the Toronto car approaching. Granted that Cathcart looked south when he reached his gateway, Mr. McElderry stated, it was his duty to see the approaching car because it was there.

Mr. Strickland emphasized that Cathcart had shown everl precaution in driving from his lane into the highway. He had stopped, looked both ways, and not seeing any danger had driven out and turned north.

Harry Clarke, Springville farmer, who was his hired boy, was the only spectator of the crash who testified in the case. Clarke was driving a wagon drawn by a team of horses north on the highway and he was within 100 feet of Cathcart's gate when the Toronto car passed him. He stated that he saw Cathcart driving down his lane and saw the speeding Toronto car he knew there was going to be an accident unless both drivers were careful

When the Toronto car blew its horn, the sound disturbed his horses, which witness described as nettlesome, and he immediately took the reins from the boy who had been driving. While occupied in getting the horses under control he failed to see whether Cathcart stopped at the gate or not, and the next time he saw the Cathcart car it was being driven out on the highway.

He described the manner in which the Toronto car had swerved quickly to the right to pass Cathcart, and explained that there was no room for passing on the left side of the Cathcart car. "The Toronto car did the only thing possible under the circumstances," stated Clarke.

Harold Cathcart, the accused, testifying in his own defense, stated that he had stopped halfway through his gateway and looked both ways. He saw nothing to the north and only Clarke's wagon approaching from the south. He turned out, he said, and was over on his right side of the road when the Toronto car passed him on the right.

Cathcart was the only witness in the defense.

FLYING CLUB WILL STAGE FIRST FLIGHT

Campbellford Machine Ready to Take the Air—First Trip to Belleville.

CAMPBELLFORD, June 13 (By Examiner Staff Correspondent). — The Campbellford Flying Club has at last finished its ground course, and the machine is resting in George Keller's field, north of town, ready for flight.

It will be inspected this afternoon by S. M. Sinclair of Belleville, and if everything is in order, the first flight will be made this evening or on Saturday morning, providing weather conditions are favorable. C. D. Beattie will make the trip with Mr. Sinclair, which will be to Belleville, where the plane will stay for a few days, before being brought back to Campbellford.

The big problem facing the club at present is a site for a runway and landing space. This has not yet been decided upon, but it is thought that in the near future, this matter will be settled. Some of thecitizenssuggested that a proper air port should be settled. Some of the citizens sugville, where the plane will stoy for a be established at Campbellford.

France's recently organized air police will have the headquarterss of one division at Lyons, from which the French-Swiss and mush of the French-Italian frontier patrols will be directed.

L.O.B.A. PRESENTATION.

Sister Ida Angus Given Lodge Pin on Departure From Campbellford.

CAMPBELLFORD, June 13 (By Examiner Staff Correspondent). — A very pleasant feature of the regular meeting of the Doxsee L.O.B.A. on Tuesday, was the presentation to Sister Ida Angus, of a lodge pin, as a token of remembrance on her departure from Campbellford.

The presentation was made by Mrs. R. J. Bibby, the Deputy Mistress, Mrs. G. W. Ayrheart reading an address which expressed the regret of the members at Mrs. Angus's departure, and a hope for her success in the future.

Mrs. Angus has for some time held the office of secretary in the lodge, and is now leaving Campbellford to enter the hospital as nurse-in-training at Cobourg.

After the presentation, a very pleasant social hour was spent, and a dainty lunch served.

MORE PRIZES FOR CHEESE INDUSTRY

Alex Hume Offers Bull Calf — Dairymen's Association $300.00 Cash.

CAMPBELLFORD, June 13 (By Examiner Staff Correspondent).—Keen competition is being shown by the Cheesemakers' Association of Central Ontario, in the farm herd competition which they are sponsoring, and many attractive prizes are being offered to the patrons from individuals and associations.

The Dairymen's Association of Eastern Ontario have just signified their intention of giving a cash prize of $300.00. This award will go to the cheese factory or creamery in each of the thirty dairy instructors' groups in Eastern Ontario, who deliver to the factory the greatest number of pounds of butter-fat per acre of land (minimum number of acres 50) from May 1st to October 31st. The money prize will be divided into $10.00 amounts for each district. Rules governing this competition are that competitors must be members of the association, and that the production figures will be taken from the books of the factory. All entries will close on July 30th.

Another prize comes from Alex. Hume and Son of this district, and consists of a pure-bred Ayrshire bull calf. Mr. Hume offers this prize to all members of the Cheesemakers' Association of the Counties of Hastings and Northumberland. The rules governing this prize are the same as those of the herd competition, with the one stipulation, that the herd winning must be one-third Ayrshire.

Mr. Hume, besides having been connected with the cheese industry all his life, is one of the most successful breeders and exhibitors of Ayrshire cattle in Central Ontario.

DAMAGE ACTION FOLLOWS FIRE

25 ACRES BURNED.

An action for $1,000 damages against Wellington Tate of Harvey Township was yesterday instituted in the Peterborough County Court by Peter Graham, also of Harvey, through his solicitor, Joseph A. O'Brien.

Mr. Tate appeared before His Worship O. A. Langley, on June 7, on a charge of unlawfully setting out fires, and was fined $25.00 and costs on his plea of guilty. It is claimed by Mr. Graham that the fire, before it was under control, burned over about 25 acres of his property and destroyed upwards of 90 per cent. of the standing timber and trees. In addition, a considerable portion of the fence surrounding Mr. Graham's property was destroyed.

Admitted He Set Fire.

At the police court in Warsaw Mr. Tate admitted that he had set out the fire for the purpose of clearing some land, but that he had neglected to obtain a permit. At the time fire rangers visited the scene of the fire and before it had spread to Mr. Graham's property, Mr. Tate was warned that he would be held responsible for any and all damages ensuing as a result of his action in the matter.

It is expected that the case will come on for trial in the fall.

DRUGGIST ACQUITTED

BARRIE, Ont., June 12. (C.P.)—E. J. Bellman, prominent Collingwood druggist, was acquitted by a jury to-day after two hours' deliberation on a charge of attempting an illegal operation on Mrs. Dorothy Gartlan of Stayner.

CADET CAPTAIN LAUDS CORPS

County in the Federal Parliament since 1921, to present the remaining medals for individual scores in the D. C. R. A. Competition.

Individual Winners.

Mr. Bowen said he appreciated the honor extended to him, and mentioned especially the pleasure he had recently experienced in being with Lieutenant Dawson and Captain Henry Gray when they visited Ottawa and received from the Governor-General the various trophies won by the Corps in 1929. Lord Willingdon had personally congratulated him on representing the county from which this now widely-known Cadet Corps came. Receiving thes: medals were: Norman Armstrong, George Harkness, Jack Stinson, Owen McCarthy, Henry Gray, Gordon Davis, Donald Henry, George Gray, Gerald Todd, Lyal Nattress, Cameron Vance, Joe Thorndyke, Henry Raper (first-class), Nelson Davis, Gilbert Howson (special), Eric Clarke (special).

Fred Roy, of Peterborough, was present, Reeve Stinson announcing that the official picture about to be taken, which would include the Corps, their officers, the inspecting officer, Colonel Odell, and the trophies won will later be presented by the Municipal Council to Millbrook Cadet Corps No. 403, as a memento of the fine record established by them in the 1929 rifle shooting competitions.

Three cheers and a tiger for Lieut. Dawson and his Corps were given with a will, and the juniors proceeded to give a demonstration of physical culture before the grand stand that showed precision of movement and thorough training, attracting attention and applause, before final dismissal took place. Later at the Armouries, the Corps was honored by a visit from General Anderson, Officer Commanding Military District No. 3, who had expected to be present at the grounds, but was prevented from reaching the village at an earlier hour.

The lateness of the hour in starting, and the amount of time devoted to the Cadet inspection, interfered somewhat with the sports program, and the races promised had to be entirely dispensed with, much to the disappointment of the younger folk.

Lacrosse Game.

The feature of this section of the afternoon that attracted most interest was the opening game of the O. A.L.A. Intermediate group between Oshawa and Millbrook, resulting in a victory for the former by a score of 6-1. W. O'Brian acted as referee, and four periods of fifteen minutes each were played, the game was marked by few penalties, what there were going to the Oshawa players.

It was evident from the beginning that the boys from the Motor City were the better stick-handlers, playing a finer combination, their goalkeeper being a tower of strength and repeatedly saving the situation when it seemed the ball would certainly go into the net. The line-up was:

Oshawa.		Millbrook.
	Goal.
Stoakes		Whyte
	Point.
Henay		Lebart
	Cover point.
Stephens		Gordfellow
	First Defence.
Cowley		Tate
	Second Defence.
W. Luke		Sloan
	Third Defence.
L. Luke		Larmer
	Centre Field.
Kinkle		Donnelly
	Inside Home.
H. Cardinal		King
	Outside Home.
Garrison		Fisher
	First Home.
Black		Ingram
	Second Home.
Debac		Miller
	Third Home.
Perry		Dundass
	Spares.
G. Cardinal, Daniels, Logan, and G. Luke.		Freelove, G. Clarke, Gray, and Jeffrey.

Oshawa scored their first goal in the first quarter, and had two to their credit when the second period was concluded; at the end of the third period the score stood 4—1 in favor of the visitors, and when time was up two more had been added to the total. Millbrook changed its goal-keeper at the end of the second period, Richards taking the place of Whyte. Jim Larmer suffered a badly-wrenched knee but continued in the play. The next game in the schedule will be on June 18 when Millbrook goes to Campbellford. King scored the one goal that Millbrook got here in Thursday's game just before the bell rang closing the third quarter. A goal which Millbrook claimed earlier in this quarter, and which the onlookers lustily upheld, was disallowed by the referee.

One-Sided Victory

A softball game between Port Hope and Millbrook was too one-sided to hold the interest of the grand stand, the former winning by a wide margin. The teams lined up:

Port Hope—McElroy, p; Hewson, c; Gest, 1b; Mark, 2b; Phillips, 3b; Austin, ss; E. Smith, cf; Williams, lf; Leonard, rf; subs., L. Smith, Chislett.

Millbrook.—J. McIvor, p; A. Todd, c; Pendrel, 1b; W. Skitch, 2b; G. Raper 3b; K. Barnard, ss; F. Gray, cf; W. Sayles, lf; H. Hawken, rf.

Umpires: A. Vance, plate; Colonel Odell, bases. Score 17—2, favor of Port Hope. The local team was handicapped by lack of practice, and the fact that some of their players were taking part in the physical training exercises and subs had to be found at the last moment in order to get the game started.

Bailieboro and Nestleton met in a baseball competition as a final feature of the afternoon's proceedings, and put on a snappy game, the former coming off victors by a score of 5—3. The players were:

Bailieboro.—Woods, p; Johnston, c; Deyell, 1b; Nattress, 2b; J. Barnard, 3b; Sayles, ss; Dawson, cf; K. Barnard, lf; Bowman, rf.

Nestleton.—Philip, p; W. Marlew, c; Thompson, 1b; Chapman, 2b; Edwards, 3b; Mitchell, ss; McGill, cf; A. Marlow, lf; Jones, rf.

Umpires—F. Barnard, plate; Marshal Malcolm, bases.

A concert in the Town Hall at night, with the Bailieboro Dramatic Club putting on the play, "The Absent-Minded Bridegroom," followed by a dance with the Bluebell Orchestra furnishing music, and L. H. Morton as floor manager, completed a full day's entertainment, and netted the Agricultural Society a fairly substantial sum to help in meeting its financial obligations.

LAKEFIELD TESTS NEW FIRE PUMPER

Machine Proves Satisfactory in Every Way to Brigade and Council.

LAKEFIELD, June 13. (Examiner Correspondence.)—The new Pumper purchased by the Municipal Council for the use of the Lakefield Fire Department arrived in the village on Tuesday and was officially tested on Wednesday afternoon, delivering well over its rated capacity and satisfying in every particular the fire brigade, the Reeve and Council and the citizens who were present.

A pumping demonstration was given at the Government dock after the machine had passed with great ease the acceptance test. The machine is a made-in-Canada production in a Canadian firm, by Canadian workmen and is first class in every respect. Made in Woodstock, by Bickie Fire Engines, Limited, it is a 600 gallon triple combination pumper equipped with ladders, hose, 33 gallon chemical tank, 200 feet chemical hose, spot lights for both front and rear, electric fire siren and reel, Foaman Extinguisher, a five gallon pump, tank and a small red light to show that a fire truck is coming.

Also there is a large head light. It carried 1200 feet of hose and with four hose lines it threw the water at least 60 yards. Mr. Beverley I. Bickle, vice president of the company, and J. A Lee, delivery engineer, of the Bickle Company, were present for the demonstration. The pumper is mounted on a fine truck, built high enough for good snow clearance, a feature which the members of the brigade appreciated. The intake pipe is carried when not in use, on a rack on one side of the truck.

The local Fire Department Engineers were present and gave a demonstration, also Fire Chief A. H. Clark, was in charge and expressed great satisfaction with every detail. The entire machine is painted bright scarlet, with gold lettering and decorations painted entirely free hand and aside from its tremendous utility, is a very ornamental addition to the village.

It is a machine of a capacity which should insure first class fire protection and will be of greatest value to the village and its faithful and efficient corps of fire fighters.

WRITE YOUR CONGRESSMAN

We offer with slight comment, the following gems of kiss supervision which the Kansas State Board of Health ultimated not long ago, indicating that strict observance of them would produce better, if not more desirable, Americans.

1. Never kiss in crowded places nor in poorly ventilated rooms, but if you must kiss (and you must) take a hot mustard foot bath and avoid drafts in case you feel "all in" afterward.

2. Guard against sudden changes in temperature when kissing. Kissing in a coonskin coat one minute and in lighter apparel the next is extremely dangerous (but it's very fast work).

3. Don't kiss any person who has chills or fever (it does do that to one sometimes).

4. At a party where post office and similar games are played, be sure to gargle frequently (but if you're the kind of person who gargles, you won't be asked to play, and no one ever tells you).

Motorized Missionaries Head for Peace River Country

The grounds of the Metropolitan Church, Toronto, provided an unusual camping ground for two student missionaries from Victoria College, shown above, who set out this week for the Peace River country. The boys, with their specially-equipped Chevrolet Six, are being sent beyond the end of steel in the interests of the United Church Boards of Religious Education and Home Missions. The car was donated by J. D. Storie of Oshawa and the camping outfit, which can be stored inside, was provided by the united efforts of many of the young people of Toronto. Fred Hotson, at the left, was a former champion boy orator. Gordon Maxwell of Oshawa, his companion, is an accomplished musician and plays the folding organ seen outside the tent. The student-preachers parked their Chevrolet, chosen for its sturdiness, on the church grounds to show how they will tackle their journey.

MOTOR MISSIONARIES ON TREK TO THE PEACE RIVER COUNTRY

Start From Toronto in Especially Equipped Chevrolet Auto.

SUMMER ON TRAIL.

TORONTO, June 13—Two young men with a mission are now en route to the far northwest as the emissaries of all the young people's organization in three Toronto presbyteries.

Their mission home, unlike the modest frame structures which are the traditional centres of church activity on the frontiers of population, has six cylinders, balloon tires, and a Chevrolet name plate. The student missionaries, Frederick Hotson of Tavistock and Gordon Maxwell of Oshawa will spend the summer in the Dominion's northern agricultural empire, the Peace River country.

Both are students from Victoria College, serving in the northern fields under the direction of the Boards of Religious Education and Home Missions of the United Church of Canada. Their car was donated by J. D. Storie of Oshawa and equipped by young people's groups of the Toronto area.

Champion Boy Orator

Hotson, a few years ago, was Canada's champion boy orator. En route to the west, he drove to Tavistock, his home town, where a civic demonstration was held. After taking the car from the dealer in Oshawa, the students pitched their camp over the week-end in the grounds of the Metropolitan Church in the heart of downtown Toronto to show how they would fare in the Northwest.

The car, a Chevrolet coach, had been designed to allow the seats to fold and provide a bed. It was equipped to meet any variety of road or trail conditions and, if needed, can be transformed into a snow-car. Maxwell, who is the musician of the party, includes a portable organ in his luggage. Ample room is provided for the storage of supplies and everything needed for extensive trips. A tent, folding table, camp cot and stools are all among the items of equipment.

Results of the experiment will be observed with the greatest interest by church officials. They feel that the use of special motors may simplify to a great degree the difficulties of covering, properly, a great stretch of territory with a limited number of workers. The many advantages of mobile missionaries, carrying complete equipment with them as they go, are obvious.

The two students are not, incidently, laboring under any of the delusions concerning the territory which is their goal which are commonly ascribed to easterners. They do not expect, for instance, that their car will be an unfamiliar sight in the territory which they are to serve since Peace River already has 3,000 automobile owners among its 60,000 population and the speedy communication possible with cars has played no small part in its spectacular development.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

A time to keep Money in Circulation

Too much emphasis is sometimes placed on what "big business" is doing. Lumbering, railroading, manufacturing, banking—these do not make prosperity. They reflect it.

It is the massed effect of the day-to-day expenditures of the individual that keeps money circulating and the wheels of business turning.

Therefore, let us "buy and sell—build—go ahead—plan and work," each in our own way as vigorously as we know how. That is the best way to hasten the return of prosperity for all.

"Of all countries in the world, Canada is the best place to live in at the present time," said Lord Willingdon in a recent address at Ottawa, and he added: "no country has a brighter future and in a very few years the Dominion will go forward to increased prosperity."

POLITICAL CLUB HOLDS MEETING

Mrs. J. F. Strickland Acts as Hostess to Members of Ladies' Liberal-Conservative Club.

MANY ADDRESSES.

The Ladies' Liberal-Conservative Club held an enthusiastic and largely attended meeting at the home of Mrs. J. F. Strickland yesterday afternoon with about one hundred ward workers and interested members present. Mrs. G. O. Cameron, first vice-president, occupied the chair, owing to the absence of the president, Mrs. Howard Fallis, who is making a speaking tour of New Brunswick.

A splendid report of the previous meeting was read by the secretary, Mrs. J. Cridland, and a letter of resignation from Mrs. H. Dunford as third vice-president was received with regret. An election for this office resulted in Mrs. C. Wright being appointed.

Mrs. Cameron gave a fine address on the main issues of the coming election, speaking particularly on the unemployment problem. The King Government claims that this is only seasonable unemployment but here we are in the heart of the summer with thousands of people unemployed and vast numbers walking the streets of our own city without a job and so many working only a few days a week barely able to get along on such a small salary.

The King Government made a treaty with New Zealand which has been very detrimental to Canadian dairy products. Owing to their mild climate they have pasturage practically the year round and can produce butter much cheaper than the Canadian dairymen, consequently New Zealand butter has flooded our markets, killing the dairy industry here.

The main plank in the Conservative platform is protection. Mr. Bennett's policy is Canada first. No country is more loyal to the British Empire than Canada, but our first duty is to our home and we must protect our industries in order to develop our natural resources.

Mr. E. A. Peck, the Conservative candidate, dropped in for a few minutes, and received a warm ovation. He congratulated the ladies on the splendid gathering and spoke on the necessity of getting together and working whole-heartedly in the coming campaign. He also ably emphasized the terrible unemployment conditions in our country, and spoke of how this could be remedied. Last year Canada purchased over $800,000,000 of goods from the United States. If our own natural resources were manufactured in Canada all this money would not go to our neighbors across the line and our own people would have employment. Vast imports of watches and clocks have been brought into Canada this year from Italy and Germany which can be sold at a low price. In Canada we can not compete with them for our people can not work for the wage they exist on, consequently resulting in unemployment in our own city. Mr. Bennett's policy is to build up Canaad first and have a happy, prosperous, loyal people.

The Budget proposed by King is not sufficient. We need a conference with Great Britain and co-operate with her to promote the condition of trade that we so much desire.

In conclusion he said: "Is it desirable or safe to trust King with the government of our country when he has done practically nothing to better conditions during his term of office?"

Mrs. Cameron spoke of the possibility of Miss Bennett visiting Peterborough, and plans were discussed for her entertainment.

Mrs. J. Mills spoke a few words on the Returned Soldiers' Pension law, and Mrs. C. Wright thanked the ladies for their confidence in her in electing her as third vice-president.

MRS. J. H. DUDGEON IS GIVEN LIFE PIN

Feature of Program at Regular Meeting of St. James' Church W.M.S.

A very successful W.M.S. meeting of St. James Auxiliary was held last evening at the home of Mrs. E. H. L. Woodley, Chamberlain street.

An unusually large number of members and visitors were in attendance, this being the last meeting at which Mrs. Dudgeon will be present as president of the society.

An excellent program had been prepared and was greatly enjoyed. The service opened with singing and Mrs. Dudgeon offered prayer. The scripure lesson was chosen from the 103rd Psalm and was read by Mrs. Rowe.

The short business session which followed consisted of the minutes and a splendid financial statement was given by the treasurer covering the half year's work.

Reports were given by the various secretaries of departments. Mrs. Copson for the Baby Band reported 29 members, 12 of which are new. Mrs. Davidson for the visiting committee reported making eight calls during the month. St. James Auxiliary upon motion decided to assist the Presbyterial in defraying the expenses of the delegate to the missionary summer school at Whitby in July.

Mrs. Armstrong, secretary of Christian stewardship, gave a fine paper on tithing and Mrs. Plunkett in the interests of Temperance education, gave a very interesting and concise talk on this vital question.

Reports Good Work

Mrs. Church for Associate Helpers, reported good work, while Mrs. Payne told of her plans for raising the supply allocation in which a concert figures, to take place on Friday, June 26th.

A letter of thanks was received from Mrs. Ernest Deyell for sympathy in the loss of a brother and Mrs. Armstrong personally expressed her thanks for the loving sympathy of the society.

"The Glorious Company" was the subject of study for June and dealt with the lives of five missionaries. The chapter was a glowing tribute to these early workrs and of their marvellous courage and fidelity to the cause under great persecution. This story was given by Mrs. R. B. English in a vivid word-picture of the martyrs who blazed the trail for the missionaries of to-day.

Prayer for the further success of the work was offered by Mrs. Solitt and Miss Jackson.

A very pleasing and appropriate hymn "Send Forth Reapers" was sung in duett by Mrs. G. Cuffe and Mrs. A. R. Church. Miss Aileen Rose was the accompanist. This meeting was also the occasion of a "mite box" opening, from which a good sum was realized from the nineteen mite boxes brought in. More than thirty members responded to the roll call, which was to be a verse of scripture beginning with the letter "J".

A feature of the program again evidences the high esteem in which the retiring president, Mrs. Dudgeon is held by her fellow workers in St. James Auxiliary, by the gift of a Life Membership pin and an address.

Mrs. Woodley read the address and Mrs. Wagar presented the little pin emblematic of the W.M.S. to which Mrs. Dudgeon has given so generously of her time and ability since coming to St. James.

In acknowledging the gift Mrs. Dudgeon thanked her members for remembering her in this way and asked that they "stand by" their new president as faithfully as they have done in the past. She spoke of the spirit of prayer and of unity existing in the auxiliary as being an inspiration to her from the beginning and paid special tribute to her executive for their loyalty to her and to the W.M.S.

The meeting came to a conclusion with prayer led by Mrs. Woodley.

A group of other boys were scanning the long line of beautiful white, black and roan horses, ponies and mules as they moved up to the big water trough for their morning drink. They waited until the last was watered and then walked away disappointedly. Then one stated his conclusion: "Aw, he wouldn't be there anyway. Do you think they put Tony in with those other horses. No, I tell you, Tony stays with Tom. I'll bet he sleeps with Tom."

"With him?" one kid echoed incredulously.

"Well, perhaps, not with him, but right beside him. Right in the same car, anyway."

The Sells Floto Circus is one of the largest circuses ever to visit Peterborough. That was assured by a view of the vast size of the big top and the large tents that grouped about. It was further proved by the piles of equipment, the hundred or more of beautiful horses and ponies, the herd of elephants, the camels, the tigers, the lions. Everything that ever walked the jungle paths seemed to be included among the animals caged in the many giant circus wagons.

Idol of Young America

The Sells Floto Circus is famed from coast to coast for its great entertainment program. With the circus comes that greatest of all western cowboys, the idol of "Young America" and the delight of those of more mature years, Tom Mix. And with him is that greatest of all horses, Tony. This famous pair, horse and man, will appear at every performance of the circus.

Over two hundred feature acts, many of whom are making their first appearance in this county, support the famous movie star, including the brilliant Crantos, whose dazzling and daring exploits on the high are unequalled anywhere; the Swatz Sisters, a fine equestrienne act from Berlin, Germany; the Three Thrillers, a flying act supreme, who, with the Ward Family offer a sensational exhibition in mid-air; Pallenberg's bears, one of the greatest animal acts in the world; Mabel Pelke, the marvellous lady gymnast; Shubert the Great, whose contortion act near the top of the big tent fills everyone with wonder; fifty-seven clowns; five herds of elephants, and a big menagerie—all here for a gala day.

With Tom Mix and Tony will be seen all the cowboys and cowgirls from the Mix Ranch in Arizona.

Doors will open at 1 and 7 p.m., one hour before the big show starts. Seats are on sale to-day at Bond's Drug Store at exactly the same price as prevails at the circus grounds.

Harvesting Starts In United States

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 13.—(C.P.)—The vanguard of the 1930 harvest army to-day was sweeping into the wheat fields of four states reaping the first quotas of the 212,723,000 bushels estimated June 1 by the Department of Agriculture as the section's contribution to the world's food supply.

The United States employment service here has estimated 190,000 workers will be needed to finish reaping of the estimated crop of 137,300,000 bushels in Kansas, where the harvest is expected to become general June 20.

W.M.S. TAKES SERVICES.

Rev. A. E. Thornley, of Peterborough, Gives Fine Sermon at Springville.

SPRINGVILLE, June 13.—(Examiner Correspondence).—Evening service was held in Springville United church, Sunday, June 8, under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Society. Rev. A. E. Thornley of Mark street church, Peterborough, was in charge of the services. Special music was rendered by the ladies' choir assisted by Mrs. M. Westington, who sang beautifully in solo, "Since Jesus Came Into My Heart."

Rev. Mr. Thornley chose as his text Acts 20:35: "I have shewed you all things how that so labouring ye out to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus how He said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive" and his touching impressive sermon developed along the line of all Missionary work was in keeping with the women's work. "To be happy we must be unselfish", the glory of heaven comes by ministrations to others, we must catch the meaning of Jesus, when He gave His life to save us and when He said "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren ye have done it unto Me."

In conclusion Mr. Thornley read the beautiful poem "To give is to love."

A generous offering was given in aid of the W.M.S. funds.

Next Sunday, June 15, the Sunday school and preaching services in Springville will be cancelled, on account of the Sunday school anniversary service to be held at Fairmount on that day.

WEST HASTINGS INSTITUTES GATHER AT ANNUAL CONVENTION

Reports Show Successful Year Has Been Enjoyed by All Branches.

OFFICERS ELECTED

STIRLING, June 13.—(Examiner Correspondence)—The annual convention of the West Hastings Women's Institute was held at Wallbridge on Thursday. Owing to hte unavoidable absence of the president, Mrs. Holmes, of Wallbridge, presided over the morning session.

The reports of the various branches for the year were good, showing in many cases the interest that has been taken in the work.

After an excellent lunch provided by the Wallbridge members, business was resumed with Mrs. Snider, of Frankford, in the chair. The convention for 1931 will be held at Stirling.

The auditors presented their report and stated everything was found to be in a very satisfactory condition.

Officers Elected.

The following were elected as officers for the year: Mrs. A. Shaw, of Stirling, president; Mrs. B. Finkle, Chatterton, 1st vice president; Mrs. Holmes, Wallbridge, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Vandervoort, River Valley, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. G. Nicholson, district representative to convention; Mrs. A. Shaw, Stirling, Federation representative; Mrs. M. W. Sine and Mrs. S. Nicholson, auditors.

A piano duet was given by the Misses Badgley and Finnegan at this time. Mrs. Deviney spoke on the "Aims and Objects of the Federated Institutes of Canada" followed by Mrs. C. Chard, of River Valley, who favored the audience with a pleasing piano solo.

A splendid reading, "The School Ma'm's Courtship" was given by Helen Morrow, a young medalist of one of the county elocution contests. Miss Hopkins, of the Department at Toronto, spoke on the benefit to be derived from the coaching classes for girls the subjects being nutrition, house furnishings and clothing. The speaker asked that each branch try to get girls interested in the formation of a class.

Following this, Mrs. J. G. Butler, of Stirling sang, "When You Are Happy", and Joseph Wilson, B.S.A., of Stirling gave a talk on Junior work, asking for the co-operation of the members of the Institutes.

Stirling Meeting

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held on Thursday evening when several additions were made to the list of officers. Planntng a float for the procession for the coming get-together were discussed and will probably be arranged.

Several took part in reporting the convention held at Wallbridge.

Mrs. H. Rollins gave a paper on the Life of King George and a humorous reading was contributed by Mrs. R. Melkiejohn. A trombone and piano duet was given by Mr. Furnival and Miss B. Hadley. Mrs. Wescott concluded the program with a contest.

GERMAN MUSEUM IS FILLED WITH TROPHIES OF VICTORY

Richtofen's Mother Visits Her Son's Airplane Each Year.

FORGET GREAT DEFEAT.

By GORDON A. SINCLAIR
(Special to The Examiner. Copyright 1930)

BERLIN, June 13.—A place of sadness and of honor is reserved to Canada in Germany's museum of war. It is the last plane brought safely to earth by Baron Manfred von Richtofen—"The Red Knight of Germany."

The small maroon Fokker, mounted with two vicious looking machine guns and slashed here and there by shots from other planes, bears a card in memory of the Fatherland's greatest ace and concludes with the date of his death. It is one of the few exhibits in the musty building permanently guarded. I asked the guard what happened to Richtofen. "He was shot down by the Canadian Captain Roy Brown," he said. "Captain Brown was himself killed four weeks ago."

I think the guard must be mistaken about Brown because I was in Toronto a few weeks ago and Brown was then a pretty lively victim. I asked the guard if he was not confused with Colonel Barker, V.C., news of whose death was widely published here. He said no, he was sure he had read Brown.

Mother Visits Museum.

Each year on the anniversary of the Red Knight's fatal plunge his mother comes to the museum but she does not cry and does not put flowers beneath the empty cockpit.

Floyd Gibbon's book about Richtofen raised controversy as to whether Australian gunners or Roy Brown had brought the fighting baron to earth. Well the card on the plane says the baron was "Brought down by an enemy plane" and the guard says that enemy plane was in charge of Roy Brown so that seems reasonably clear.

The great war museum—in fact the whole of Berlin—is practically empty of reference to the last conflict. There are two planes, a sample of each type of gun used by Germany, including the famous Big Bertha, models of the zeppelins which bombed London, types of aeroplane bombs and the first steel helmet. When you've seen that you've seen it all.

The rest of the great building is filled with memories of victory. These centre around the Franco-Prussian war and Napoleon's defeat. All very interesting to Germans but rather like any other museum to the rest of us.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

PIMPLES OR ACNE.

Just about the time a boy or girl is beginning to think about his or her appearance that most embarrassing skin eruption pimples-acne-appears.

Unfortunately the face is the usual site and many of these young people have their whole lives spoiled to a considerable extent because they felt so ashamed that they disliked meeting other people.

The fact that acne comes on at the time of puberty is really the first thing to be remembered.

Great changes are taking place in the boy or girl at this time as they enter into manhood or womanhood.

Now all these changes in the body cannot take place without the sanction of certain glands. One of these glands has to do with regulating the growth, another with the speed with which the various processes of the body do their work, another with the way sugar or other foods are used or stored.

Recognizing that food was a big factor, the diet of these patients has been investigated and very often the particular food or foods that are causing a lack of proper balance food are omitted from the diet, and the case clears up.

Among the foods that have from time to time been found to cause acne or to increase the symptoms are pork, salt fish, lobsters, goose, veal, fresh bread, oatmeal, pastry, sweets, fried meats, fried potatoes, acid fruits, cream, sugar, and milk.

That the changes that occur at puberty seem to demand a great deal of lime has been discovered.

Most young people seem to have a sufficient quantity supplied by their ordinary diet, but others either do not have enough or it is utilized differently.

This is the reason the chloride of lime, as obtained from your druggist made up in a pleasant syrup mixture, had been used successfully in many cases.

However in order that the chloride of lime can get directly into the blood and thus make the necessary changes there, chloride of lime is now being injected into the veins of patients.

Dr. D. Bloom, New York, reports 13 cases in which he has used a 10 per cent chloride of lime solution, first injecting a teaspoonful every third day until twenty injections were given. There was a disappearance of all the pimples in some cases, decrease of oiliness of the skin and so forth.

Now this treatment does not cure all cases, but the use of chloride of lime by mouth, prepared by your druggist in a syrup mixture, can at least be tried by all acne patients.

OUR CHILDREN

By Angelo Patri

THE STORYTELLER.

Can you tell a story? Then you have the power to draw all children to you. Then you are a great force in the education of children. And you carry a great responsibility along with your gift, for it is through stories that children get values. They learn to love what your voice teaches them to love. You see what a great gift you have, and what a responsibility?

Reading a story is all very well. There are few stories that children enjoy hearing as read from a book. Stories ought to be told with voice of color, with dramatic gesture, with emotion, with tact. Story telling is an art.

But you can learn it. Maybe you won't have the power of a master, but still a power of your own that children will feel and follow. First learn your story. Read it several times. Note the parts that are to be left out. Mark the high spots. Tell it aloud to yourself and watch in the mirror how it goes. When you are sure you have it, try it out on a group of children.

Watch the place where they begin to wiggle. There is something wrong right there. Try to get over that place next time. Keep your story sharp, keep it moving, cut descriptions of scenery, accent dramatic happenings, avoid talking down to the children. It is never necessary and always fatal. If you select the right story there is no need of talking down. Your audience muts be on a level with you or you lose them.

Children won't stand for a tale with a moral at the end. Nobody can blame them for that. If the story does not tell its own tale wherein is the story, the tale? It is plain that it has none and therefore no excuse for being.

After you have told all the old ones, strike out for some new ones. Search the Jungle Tales. Many of Kipling's stories can be told with great effect. Learn poems and recite them, especially narrative poems. Sections of Evangeline, Tennyson's Princess will give you some fine bits. There are great stories in the Bible. Ancient history furnishes its share. The world is full of stories if you will but look for them.

Every family of children needs a story teller. Somebody whose delight it is to search out wonders and recite them. Every school room in the land needs a story teller. Maybe it is your mission to aid this work by learning to tell stories better than anybody else in your town. Every camp needs a story teller. Camp is the one place, if there is a ONE place, for a story teller.

Remember to choose your story to suit the audience. You are very likely to select the story to suit yourself and never dream you are doing so. The law of good taste works here as well as other places. Ugly stories have no place in the family circle, in the class room or in the camp. Beauty is all about us and we, the children especially in the we, crave beauty. Come along story teller. The children are waiting for you.

OWNER OF GREAT LIBRARY PASSES IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, N.Y., June 12.—(C.P.)— Henry Clay Folger, retired oil magnate died last night in Brooklyn at the age of 72. His Library, estimated to contain as many as a hundred thousand volumes is perhaps the finest and largest collection of Saskatchewan in the world, surpassed only—if at all—by the collection of the British Museum. He devoted 40 years to assembling it. Volumes are now in a Brooklyn storage warehouse awaiting completion of a library building in Washington, for the building maintenance and expansion of which the donor made provision before his death.

FASHION FANCIES

The most important factor to merit consideration in planning the summer wardrobe is that of keeping cool. If one is to spend the summer in town, where the chief diversions are dining and dancing, necessity demands a number of sheer diaphanous frocks that make for comfort as well as smartness.

The group of frocks for this purpose offered by the smartest shops reveal femininity and charm. Pictured today is a model of plain blue chiffon, the entire garment pleated with cunning ruffled tiers placed at the bodice to suggest a cape, and below the hipline in peplum effect. The V neckline at the front is rather low and marks the frock at once as appropriate for semi-formal evening wear.

FASHION SERVICE

BLAME LINE CAR MEN FOR FATAL DERAILMENT

FLINT, Mich., June 1st (Canadian Press). — A coroner's jury has placed responsibility for the derailment of the Montreal-Chicago express on May 28, with the loss of two lives, upon two members of the line car crew. They are T. T. De Lavergne, Portland, Mich., and Jesse Culver, of Owosso. The verdict stated that through their carelessness the switch which caused the derailment was left open, locked. A copy of the testimony was furnished to Prosecuting Attorney Charles Beagle, of Genesee County, with the possibility of criminal action.

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By Alice Michaelis

Galveston Island

When I return to the island again,
The island that sleeps in the sun,
The fresh, sweet wind and the spray's white rain
Bring back bright days that are done.
The blue Gulf sings and the island dreams
Under the sun and moon,
While great waves toss and white spray gleams
And winds through the palm trees croon.
There is nothing of change in the shining beach,
Or the circling gulls above;
Unchanged are the waves that climb and reach
Down the wide expanse I love;
But those sun-brimmed hours so far away . . .
Were they once of my life a part?
They are now no more than the last tide's spray
To the ocean's throbbing heart.
Yet the oleanders, red and white
And the sand dunes by the sea
Bring back other days delight
And the self I used to be!

CONVICT'S DEATH IS BEING PROBED

Body Exhumed After Prisoner Perishes in Camp "Dog House."

JUST ROOM TO STAND.

FORT WAYNE, Ala., June 12 (C.P.) —The body of J. A. Marshall, Jefferson County convict, who died after being confined in the "dog house" of a convict camp, was exhumed and placed in an undertaking establishment to-day for an autopsy by Coroner J. D. Russum, of Birmingham.

Marshall died after confinement in a "dog cell" at the camp. A county physician said death followed a heart attack.

The "dog house," ordered abolished by the Jefferson County Board of Revenue soon after Marshall's death, was a small, box-like cell which permitted a prisoner to stand erect, but was so small that he could not sit down, stoop, nor even turn around. Two small auger holes were the only avenues for fresh air.

ALL BUT ONE

A ...gi-Comedy in Five Acts

For me all girls do fall,
For me they beck and call,
They love me one and all;
All but one.
They write me lots of notes,
They beg me for fur coats,
They say, "On you I dotes";
All but one.
I take them in my auto—
(Lord knows I hadn't ought to)
But they all beg me so;
All but one.
I meet them here and there,
I see them everywhere,
For me they all despair;
All but one.
I take them out to sup,
We eat and drain the cup,
But I pass them all up;
All but one.

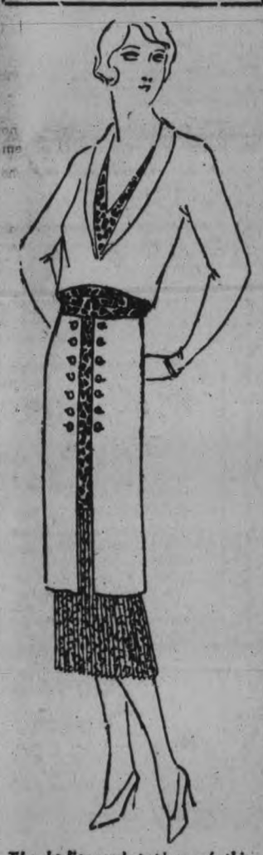
PARISIAN FOIBLES



The bodice and peplum of this Madeleine model are in black crepe marocain. The underdress is of printed silk in pale green and black.

THE PEPLUM IS POPULAR THIS SPRING

The peplum in some form or shape appears on many of the spring frocks. In this dress it is given unusual interest by making it very long and straight, and placing it over a printed underdress. Blouse and peplum are in crepe marocain, and the underdress is of a pale green and black print. The losely pleated flounce helps to carryout the new straight lines of the mode.

Ozone the ideal water purifier

Drink Coca-Cola Delicious and Refreshing

WATER PURIFICATION is the starting point of all sanitation. In the past two thousand years nations and communities have spent fabulous sums in their efforts to insure pure water for their peoples.

Almost everybody is familiar with the healthful properties of ozone in sea breezes and in the pure, clean air of the pine forests. Ozone, after centuries of research, has finally been recognized by scientists as the ideal and complete water purifying agent.

Independent of the measures taken by health authorities to insure pure drinking water, this water, used in making Coca-Cola (syrup), is subjected to a final and absolute purification by passing it through an ozone generator, which, by means of a powerful electric discharge, takes the oxygen from purified air and converts it into ozone. The water is then subjected to the action of this "ozonized air". Such treatment insures absolute purity.

He will proceed to Paris and then to Rome, where he will be one of the Canadian Representatives at the canonization, on June 29th, of the Canadian Jesuit Martyrs. Later, he will visit the world-famous Shrine at Lourdes, in France, and also the shrine at Lisieux of Ste. Therese, better known as the "Little Flower." Dr. J. M. ORGANDIE IS CRISP AND COOL ON THE SILK RESORT FROCK your last summer's wardrobe, hoping to retrieve a frock or so for this year. If you have, no doubt you were amazed at the great differences between the two season. There is a new element even in the simplest of little dresses the element of feminity. Contrast the straight and narrow sleeveless dress of yesteryear and the new model shown in the vogue sketch on the right above. Here the softest shade of pink silk crepe combines with crisp tucked organdie and tiny Valenciennes lace. The dress has a definite waist-line—just where the real waist-line is. Its blouse is double-breasted and has short sleeves and notched collar and breast pocket are delightful details. Summer hats, too, have undergone a transformation. What they lack in crown, they make up in brim, and although they are concealing in profile, in front they innocently reveal an expanse of forehead and a soft frame of hair. The upper model in the Vogue sketch is of line straw banded simply with grosgrain ribbon. The other one is a panama hat by Patou, trimmed with a cockade of grosgrain in front of the crown. On the left is a smart brimmed hat for all occasions, in a fine baku straw of dark brown coloring and faced with a yellow and brown dotted, shantung. (Sketch is by Vogue).

Just Between Us Women

A daily chat with Examiner neighbors conducted by Anne Wilcox

NOW THAT VACATION season is here, a question occupying the attention of many of us, is what sort of a wardrobe to take for a two weeks' sojourn away from home.

• • • • • • •

There are certain definite needs that can be discussed without entering into details which differ according to where one goes, and whether one is visiting or boarding.

• • • • • • •

It is probable that when one is about to start, the weather will be oppressively hot or unseasonably cool. It usually is isn't it?

• • • • • • •

Whichever is the case, however, it must not sway one's judgment nor make one change from a plan to include clothes for both degrees of temperature. There are likely to be cold, cloudy days as well as blazing hot ones.

• • • • • • •

It is miserable to realize that although one has suitable clothes they are hanging in the closet at home, and unsuitable garments have to be worn when one is particularly anxious to look one's best.

• • • • • • •

We will always have rainy days—we always have had and I suppose they always will appear just when we don't want them, so remember to have rainy-day outfits as well as fine weather clothes.

• • • • • • •

It is possible to appear to advantage in a downpour provided one has a becoming raincoat, a natty hat and and an umbrella that makes an artistic background for one's face.

• • • • • • •

There are dainty rubbers, too, which you have no doubt noticed while shopping which are so flexible that they can be held in a small case and be tucked into the pocket of a raincoat ready for instant use.

• • • • • • •

Be careful to take lingerie and accessories that can easily be laundered and that will dry quickly. Or else take sufficient to last the entire trip without laundering.

• • • • • • •

It is disturbing to run short of needed garments when there is no opportunity to replace them or time to get them washed and ironed.

• • • • • • •

If there is room in our luggage it is wise to pack a little folding ironing board and a small electric or self heating iron. This will solve the problems of keeping our garments always trim and neat.

• • • • • • •

I remember one year spending my vacation at a small summer lodge where there was no electricity and when we arrived, our dresses were so badly creased that we could not wear them for three or four days until the creases somewhat disappeared.

• • • • • • •

You can imagine our embarrassment!

• • • • • • •

This is just a tip to you to take only those dresses which have not that habit of creasing very easily during the journey.

• • • • • • •

There is also the fact to bear in mind that laundry takes time and when one is away on a vacation, all the time availible is to be enjoyed to be enjoyed not to be used for laundrying purposes!

WESTERN WHEAT SOON NEED RAIN

Cool Weather and Drifting Soil Advantage. Offsets Early Seeding

90 PER CENT. NORMAL.

MONTREAL, Que., June 12. (C.P.) The condition of the wheat crop in the Prairie Provinces is estimated at around 90 percent of normal, with Manitoba better than Saskatchewan and Alberta, according to the Bank of Montreal's crop report, issued yesterday. The advantage gained in earlier seeding has been counteracted by cool weather and damage from soil drifting. Rain over large areas will be needed very shortly. In Quebec Province seeding of grain and roots has been carried out under favorable conditions. In Ontario cool weather and lack of rain enabled seeding to be completed throughout the Province ten days earlier than usual. All growth is ahead of the average. New meadows and fall wheat suffered severely from winter killing and their acreage is reduced. In the Maritime Provinces planting and seeding have been practically completed under almost ideal conditions. In British Columbia general conditions are satisfactory and prospects for nearly all crops are promising.

THEATRES

AT THE CAPITOL

RONALD COLMAN IN "CONDEMNED."

This is one of the intensely romantic dramas of the screen that lend themselves admirably to the spoken effects. Without voices, it would not be half so interesting, in contradistinction to those stories which would be ever so much nicer without much conversation.

Ronald Colman is the hero — a strange sort of hero at that—a thief of Paris who is sent to Devil's Island, the French penal settlement in South America, and finds his best pal in a murderer and his love affair with the warden's wife. The murderer is Louis Wolheiem, as ugly and as effective as ever, and the lady is a blonde beauty, Ann Harding.

Her husband, Monsieur Vidal, takes Jacques, the convict to his house to act as a servant and the criminal and the lady fall in love. The little colony starts to whisper and the conceited, elderly warden finds himself the object of derisive sympathy. He condemns Jacques to solitary confinement, and then the fireworks start and the picture progresses by staccato leaps and bounds, to a satisfactory and romantic finale.

It is interesting and dramatic. It shows a section of life seldom portrayed and the bits from the solitary confinement cells alone are just a little too realistic for shrinking, sympathetic nerves. It is done in a black and white photographic style that limns the figures and backgrounds in pictorial fashion, lending a bizarre atmosphere to a bizarre slice of life. And it has much of the dramatic element.

Strangely, Ronald Colman does not make love convincingly in this picture.—Jeanette.

SCHMELING WINS ON FOUL IN FOURTH ROUND

NEW GERMAN CHAMPION

C. G. E. TAKES FIRMER GRIP ON TOP PLACE

Electrics Garner Two Runs Off Masterson in Fifth to Win By 5-3 Count.

LISTLESS BALL.

Errors on Right Side of C.G.E. Infield Contributes to Crescents Total.

The C.G.E. ball team took a firmer grip on first place in the East Peterborough League by defeating the Crescents last evening at Exhibition Park by a 5-3 score.

The two-run margin of the Electrics' victory was gained in the fifth innings when "Casey" Masterson took over the pitching burden for the Brioux outfit from Jeff Hardill. The usually steady Masterson was away "off" and before Hardill was rushed back to the mound two counters had crossed the platter on wild pitching. "Casey" walked three to fill the bases and then followed up by hitting two batters to force in the sixth they sent their other run pair of runs.

None of the pitchers had much stuff. Jack Crary twirled for the winners but failed to show the same class as on the other occasion he faced the Crescents. He was touched regularly but was given good support in the outer gardens.

Hardill complained of a sore shoulder before the start of the game and the pain developed as he worked. The winners got to him in the first innings for three hits and two runs, and returned in the third to add another on a walk and a hit.

Errors on the right side of the C.G.E. infield contributed greatly to the two runs secured by the Crescents in the second frame. In the across.

Sweetman turned in a nice fielding game for the Crescents at the hot corner, while "Red" Hollingsworth stood out for his defensive work for the winners.

The Game.

J. Lebarr drew a walk to start the game. Sweetman popped a fly to Crary and Lebarr was out stealing second. Crary flew out to right field.

The Electrics chased two runs across in their half. Rose rolled to second base. Stan Jones singled through first and went to second on H. Hollingsworth's sacrifice to short. Beavis doubled into right, scoring Jones and Harmer followed with a single, sending Beavis across. Harmer was caught off first on a snap throw by Hardill.

The Crescents got those two back in the second frame. Collins opened up with a single to right field and Hardill's roller to second sacrificed him to that sack. J. Jones rolled to second but Rose fell in fielding the ball and threw wild to first while lying on the ground. Jones went to second and Collins scored. Hickey walked and Heard popped to Collins. Masterson singled to third. J. Lebarr was safe on Hickey's error of his grounder, but was out at second on Sweetman's roller for the third out.

Dugan walked and went to second on L. Hollingsworth's sacrifice. Hatton walked. Crary flied to second and Rose flew to centre.

Two hits without a run was the Crescents' portion in the third. W. Crary flew out to centre field. Collins doubled into centre, but was out at third when Hardill rolled to the pitcher. J. Jones singled, but Hickey whiffed.

Heard was safe on Dugan's error, to start the fourth. Masterson flied to right field. J. Lebarr rolled to H. Hollingsworth who tossed Heard out at second. Sweetman flied to H. Hollingsworth.

L. Hollingsworth flied out to right field and Hatton rolled out to short. Crary singled, but Rose flew out to right field.

The Crescents went out in order in the fifth. Crary flying out to left field, Collins flying to Rose and Hardill rolling to the same player.

Hardill's arm had developed soreness in the fourth and Masterson took his place in the fifth, but "Casey" immediately dug himself into a heap of trouble. Stan. Jones, first up, was walked. H. Hollingsworth flied out to third. Beavis walked, but Harmer was called out when he bunted foul on his third strike. Dugan walked, filling the bases. Then Masterson hit L. Hollingsworth forcing in Jones, and he followed by hitting Hatton, sending Beavis across with another counter. Hardill returned to the box. Sweetman made a nice running catch of Crary's foul back of third, for the third out.

The Crescents returned in the sixth to get one back. J. Jones walked and stole second and he scored when Rose muffed Hickey's grounder. Hickey went to second on Heard's sacrifice and to third on Masterson's sacrifice clout to Rose. J. Lebarr struck out.

The C.G.E. went out in order. Rose raised a foul to Hickey. S. Jones rolled to the pitcher, and H. Hollingsworth flied out to right field.

It looked as though the Crescents might tie it up in the last frame but they failed to come through. Sweetman flew out to L. Hollingsworth, who covered plenty of ground to make the catch. Crary singled over third base. Collins hit a high fly into Beavis' glove. Hardill singled over second base. J. Jones' fly behind short was taken by H. Hollingsworth.

Babe Ruth Gets 20th Homer of Season as New Yorkers Trounce Tigers 14-2.

VICTORY FOR BROWNS.

Pittsburg Halts Giants' Nine-Game Winning Streak By Winning 10-7.

While other clubs have been getting most of the publicity, Rover Peckinpaugh's Cleveland Indians have been attending strictly to business, taking all rivals as they come, until to-day they had pushed into second place in the American League standing, only a game behind the pace-setting Philadelphia Athletics. Peckinpaugh's men have won 14 games and lost only four.

The Indians' sixth consecutive victory yesterday and their second in a row from the Athletics enabled them to leap into second place, while Washington was bowing to Chicago. As the race stands now, all three leaders have lost 19 games with the A's winning 33; Cleveland 31, and Washington 30.

Clint Brown pitched great ball to give the Indians a shutout triumph over the A's 4—0, granting only four hits.

The Senators bowed to Chicago's Chisox 10—6 in a free-hitting battle that saw Ted Lyons chalk up his ninth victory of the season after three previous failures to get past his eighth.

The New York Yankees fell on Waite Hoyt and two successors for 22 hits, including Babs Ruth's 20th homer of the season, and trounced the Detroit Tigers 14—2.

Walter Stewart won his eighth victory for the St. Louis Browns, beating Boston 6—5, but just managed to halt a Red Sox rally in the eighth inning that fell only one run short.

In the National League, Brooklyn stretched its lead to four and one-half games by beating Cincinnati 3—2, while their leading rivals, the Chicago Cubs and New York Giants, were beaten.

Pittsburgh halted the New York Giants' nine-game winning streak, 10—7, bunching hits for five runs in the first and four in the seventh.

Claude Willoughby scored his first victory of the season as the Phillies beat the Cubs 5—3, in a game halted by rain in the sixth.

The St. Louis-Boson game was postponed.

WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP BATTLE AGAIN ENDS IN ANOTHER CONTROVERSY

Sharkey Shows Decided Margin Over German Heavyweight Until End of the Fourth Round—Crowds "Boohoo" Decision of Referee.

GATE IS ESTIMATED AT $740,000 AS OVER SEVENTY THOUSAND PEOPLE THRONG GARDEN

NEW YORK, N.Y., June 13 (Canadian Press). — The fistic world that had hoped to wake up to-day to celebrate the crowning of a new and undisputed world's heavyweight champion discovered, instead, that it had just another headache, hangover and controversy.

Max Schmeling won on a foul from Jack Sharkey within the last six seconds of the fourth round of what was to have been the decisive battle for the heavyweight title last night at the Yankee Stadium, but they left the situation as chaotic as were the wild scenes accompanying the abrupt finish of the match.

Severely battered though he had been, the black-thatched 24-year-old German youth, who looks bobs and weaves like the one and only Jack Dempsey, emerged with whatever honors and title claims go with the victory.

To-day, cold analysis of the unsatisfactory and disappointing climax to a two-year search for a fit monarch of heavyweight ranks appeared to offer no sound basis for proclaiming the young German possessor of honor universal in scope, where neither of the principals in the main test beforehand, held any clear or undisputed claim to championship position.

Dark-browned, likeable, courageous Max, experts may hold, should not be penalized and deprived of recognition for events beyond his control, but the fact remained that Schmeling was carried bodily and in apparently great pain from the ring last night, the winner, but a badly battered one.

Hit by Low Punch.

Schmeling was hurt by a punch that was unquestionably low after having been decisively outboxed and outpunched by Sharkey, who with one erratic blow of his fist swept away the high honors that seemed almost certain to be him. The German crumpled to the floor, to be carried to his corner and declared the victor only a few minutes after it seemed he was on the verge of being cleanly knocked out in the third round, when the United States boxer battered his young rival all over the ring with a viciously sustained two-fisted onslaught.

The fatal and final blow, intended as a left hook for the stomach but somehow misdirected, was delivered as the fighters were close together along the ropes.

With the tap of the gong ending the fourth round only a few seconds away, the referee, Jimmy Crowley, on the opposite side of the ring, with Sharkey's back between him and Schmeling, failed to see the punch. Withholding his decision, as the German sank writhing in agony to the floor, Crowley hesitated and was almost instantly surrounded and harrassed by the managers, seconds and handlers of the fighters as he sought advice from officials on either side of the ring. Crowley finally accepted the unqualified judgment of one of the judges, Harold Barnes, and pronounced Schmeling the victor on a foul.

The finish was a shock to the big crowd, estimated at more than 70,000 spectators, who had contributed to an estimated "gate" of $740,000, the largest in three years, in the hope of seeing the long-existing heavyweight muddle cleared up by a clean-cut victory for either Sharkey or Schmeling. Fans and experts had established Sharkey the favorite and after the third round, expected to see him produce one of his most impressive triumphs. Instead they saw the big and temperamental Bostonian "blow" his best chance for championship recognition, much as by his erratic work he had tossed away two previous chances to climb the heights.

Sharkey entered the ring at the stadium supremely confident, a United States flag draped around his shoulders, and a disdainful sneer on his face that not even the raucous boos, mingled with the cheers for him, seemed to affect. Events throughout most of the first three rounds sustained his outward confidence of the United States "hope," for Sharkey exhibited a coolness, a calculating mode of attack that was reminiscent of his best days, of his successful battles with Wills, Maloney and Loughran. Yet at the finish he was once again balked by the ineffectiveness and wildness that has always marked his fights against foreign-born foes—Romrorojas, Risko, Heeney, Scott and now Schmeling.

Savagely, in the third round, the bigger, harder-hitting Sharkey attacked his crouching, weaving rival. Max was rocked by piston-powered blows to the head, doubled up by pile-driving lefts to the ribs and stomach.

Badly punished, Schmeling kept his feet and fought back gamely. Smelling salts and ice helped revive him between rounds, and he came out aggressively in the fourth to force Sharkey back for the first minute of fighting. The Bostonian was wary of the German's right after it thudded briskly to his temple, but Sharkey seemed again in command when the foul occurred.

PESTS BUNCH HITS TO WIN FROM TORONTO

Sam Gibson Unable to Protect 4-2 Lead Gained in Opening Frames.

ORIOLES WIN AGAIN.

Montreal Downs Reading 7-6 to Tie Rochester For Second Place.

The powerful Baltimore Orioles threaten to turn the International League pennant race into a rout unless something can be done to stop them.

Picking up victory after victory in recent battles with southern opponents, the Orioles began their stand against the northern section with a convincing 5-0 triumph over the Buffalo Bisons yesterday and thereby stretched their league lead to the extremely comfortable margin of six and one-half games.

The Montreal Royals moved into a tie for second place with Rochester by downing Reading 7 to 6, Herb. Thormahlen turning in his eighth victory of the season. The Royals' ace was touched for 11 hits, but pitched effectively after a shaky start, Reading scoring four runs in the first two innings.

Newark downed Rochester 3 to 1, behind Lefty Fischer's great hurling. Fischer gave up only six hits and would have had a shutout but for a home run hit by Irvin, his pitching rival. Irvin also hurled good ball, giving only seven hits, but not good enough to beat the Bears in the face of Fischer's mastery.

Jersey City jolted Toronto 5-4. Sam Gibson, Toronto pitcher, could not protect a 4-2 lead, Jersey City bunching three hits and a pass for three runs in the sixth inning.

Henderson kept Toronto's seven hits well scattered and chalked up his seventh victory of the year. He has beaten Toronto on all four occasion that he has faced them this season.

CANDYMEN ARE VICTORS OVER NORTH ENDERS

Three Teams Tied For First Place in Softball League.

SCORE 11 TO 5.

Sugar Bowl Got Away to Good Star With Five Walks.

The Sugar Bowl team's 11-5 victory over Harrison's at Central School grounds last evening, places them in tie for first place in the City Softball League with C.G.E. and Westclox.

The game opening with Harrison's up to bat was devoid of runs as far as they were concerned until the fourth innings, although in the third Calladine and Playford both flew out to left field. Dobson and Nicholls completed the circuit of the bases in the fourth and Smith died on third. With Calladine on first in the fifth innings, Playford made a fine drive to centre field, where the ball managed to get past the fielder allowing Calladine to reach the home plate and Playford to make a home run. Lebarr flew out to centre field in the same innings and Smith was caught out by G. Dormer, at short stop, while Montgomery, who had a walk to first was able to score. This completed the scoring for Harrison's.

Issues Five Walks

Westbrooke at bat for the Sugar Bowl was walked by Doubt to first, and a hit by H. Dormer advanced him to second. Weese, Gillespie and G. Dormer were all walked to first in succession after which Forsyth struck out and Dallin walked to first to be later left stranded at third when Bradshaw and Connors flew out to left field. Another four runs, bringing the count up to nine, were earned in the second frame while in the third Gillespie made a hit with two men on bases and later died on third. In the fourth Dallin hit the ball to first base with Forsyth on.

Calladine did some nice work at second base, catching out Westbrook and H. Dormer. He caught out the latter with a snappy one-handed catch. A nice two-base hit by Gillespie in the sixth innings proved unfruitful as he was left stranded on third when Dormer and Forsyth were tossed out at first. A tough break came for the Sugar Bowl in the seventh. Westbrooke hitting to short stop and Dormer hitting to the pitcher, which put Bradshaw and Connors out at the home plate.

With the exception of the first couple of innings fast ball was played throughout and the promise of a tough battle was fully justified.

Line ups:

Harrison—Calladine, 2b; Playford, cf; Dobson, c; Nicholls, lf; LeLbarr, ss; Smith, 1b; Wilshaw, 3b; Clark, rf; Doubt, p; Montgomery, p.

Sugar Bowl—Westbrooke, 3b; H. Dormer, p; Weese, 2b; Gillespie, cf; G. Dormer, ss; Forsythe, lf; Dallin, rf; Bradshaw, 1b; Connors, p.

CANADA'S STAR SCULLERS READY FOR DIAMOND SCULLS

Jack Guest (top left), Canada's Senior Sculling Champion, and Joe Wright, Jr. (right), former Champion and once holder of the Diamond Sculls, are in England busy preparing for the great event, the English Henley, which starts during the first week of July. Both are in excellent form and the critics forecast this year's Diamond Sculls Series as one of the hardest in years. As well as the two Canadian scullers there are about nine entries from the Motherland, one each from the United States, Holland and Germany. The main picture shows the historic Henley Course.

LOCAL BOWLERS WIN IN LINDSAY

Peterborough Rinks Carry Off First, Second and Third Prizes.

McCARTY CUP COMES HERE.

LINDSAY, June 12.—Following a successful tournament at the Community Bowling Club's greens Wednesday, with 104 bowlers taking part, all the prizes went out of town. Peterborough bowlers carried off the first three prizes and fourth prize was won by an Uxbridge rink. The day was ideal, the greens in good shape and the bowlers in fine form, so everything went off successfully.

The McCarty Cup and four men's sweaters, emblematic of first prize, were won by the rink skipped by H. Freeman of Peterborough.

Second prize, four pairs of regulation bowling shoes, was won by O. Cairns' rink, Peterborough.

Third prize, four Parker fountain pens, went to the rink skipped by W. Oke, of Peterborough.

The Uxbridge rink skipped by J. Kennedy won fourth prize, four sets of silver spoons.

There were many exciting games with narrow margins of wins and losses, for the bowling was splendid. The attendance, too, was gratifying although there were many counter-attractions.

A new method used here for the first time was that all score cards had to be signed and deposited in a special sealed box, no scores being posted either as wins or losses. Thus no one knew the results until all the games had been played.

Rinks in the tournament were: Messrs. J. Kennedy, Uxbridge; J. Blackwood, Lindsay; G. Cairns, Peterborough; J. Murray, Port Perry; Gunston, Norwood; W. J. Ferguson, Lindsay; J. Hutcheson, Lindsay; J. Hall Lindsay; J. Foster, Lindsay; D. B. Cutcliffe, Norwood, J. McHone, Port Perry; Sturgess, Whitby; S. Jeffery, Port Perry; Mr. H. Norton, Lindsay; R. G. Lamb, Lindsay; H. V. Rogers, Lindsay; D. J. McLean, Lindsay; A. J. Brennan, Lindsay; W. Livingston, Cannington; H. Freeman, Peterborough; C. Stenhouse, Oshawa; G. Arbuckle, Toronto; P. St. John, Sunderland; W. Oke, Peterborough; H. Martin, Peterborough; W. Oke, Port Hope.

London now has 8,500 taxicabs.

SHARKEY AND SCHMELING MAY MEET AGAIN IN SEPTEMBER

Jack Dempsey Gives Opinion On Fight

LOS ANGELES, Calif., June 13.—(C.P.)— Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight champion, expressing his opinion of the Sharkey-Schmeling fight in New York last night: "It is unfortunate for Schmeling, the victor, and Sharkey, the loser, that it ended in a foul.

The former champion said the outcome would make no difference in his present plans which, he said, are to go into training after recuperating from a recent operation.

"After going into training, I will decide whether I will fight again," Dempsey said.

"My congratulations to Schmeling."

Boston Sailor Faces Punishment Under Foul Rules of N. Y. Athletic Commission.

MAY GET SHORT PURSE.

NEW YORK, N.Y., June 13.—(C.P.)—The upshot of all the fight furor may be to match Jack Sharkey and Max Schmeling for a return bout in September to attempt a settlement of the heavyweight chaos. William F. Carey, president of Madison Square Garden, told Sharkey' manager after the bout that he would be ready to discuss promotion of another contest here.

Meanwhile, Sharkey faced punishment under the stringent foul rules of the State Athletic Commission, despite an understanding that the contract for the fight last night specified these regulations were not to apply. The commission some time ago decided automatically to suspend a fighter for sixty days for his first local offense in fouling an opponent, also to pay him on a pro-rata round basis.

Sharkey and Schmeling, splitting 50 per cent. of a net gate of $700,000 each would collect around $175,000 or nearly $12,000 per round each. Should the Commission attempt to enforce its rules, Sharkey would get only $48,000 for the four rounds that the contest lasted. Schmeling would not be penalized.

Softball Notes.

Softball fans will have a chance of seeing two games tonight, one at Central School Grounds and the other at the Brinton Carpet field. Belmonts meet Brintons at the Brinton field while Sugar Bowl hook up with Westclox at the school grounds. The latter game is moved up from July 2 to allow the Clockmakers to go on their vacation. Both games should be good and they get away at 6.15 sharp.

In last night's C.G.E.-Belmont write-up Webb was the fielding star and not Jones as was stated.

American Athlete Leaves Broken Trail

Miss Stella Walsh Sets Many New Marks in Shriners' Meet.

TORONTO, Ont., June 13 (C.P.)—Making her second appearance in outdoor competition in Canada, Stella Walsh, the Cleveland "Express," left for the Ohio city to-day, leaving behind a trail of shattered world's and Canadian records accomplished at the women's athletic meet held here last night in conjunction with the closing ceremonies of the Shriners' international convention.

The first record to be broken by the United States champion was the world's record for the 60-metre dash. In winning this event and defeating two of the best sprinters in Canada, Walsh breasted the tape in 7 and 2-5 seconds, which is one-fifth of a second faster than the recognized record of 7 3-5.

Although she had never run 220 metres outdoors before, Walsh left little doubt as to her superiority over Canada's best at this distance, when she captured the race in the record-breaking time of 25 3-5. The Canadian record for the distance is 24 4-5 seconds.

Millrose Athletic Club relay four of New York smashed a third record in winning the International relay race from Canadian Ladies of Toronto and the Cleveland Blepps. The team covered the 440-yard in 49 3-5 seconds which clips 2-5 seconds off the Canadian record.

A BEDTIME STORY

by Howard R. Garis

UNCLE WIGGILY SAVES TYE EGGS.

There was happiness in Uncle Wiggilys garden, for the Bluebirds had come there to make their nest and hatch out their little birds. Uncle Wiggily was happy and the Bluebirds flashing inthe sun their red feathers and those colored like the sky, were also happy.

"For now those saucy little wrens won't pole holes in my eggs and spoil them," chirped Mrs. Bluebird as she settled down in the hole in the apple tree branch which Uncle Wiggily had given the Bluebirds for their nest. A woodpecker had drilled the bole last year.

"Yes, I hope those wrens will let us alone!" sang Mr. Bluebird. It was because the wrens in the woods over by the duck pond had punched holes in the first of the Bluebirds' eggs that the two happiness creatures had flown to Uncle Wiggily's garden to live as I told you in the story, last night.

"Happy! Happy! Happy!" sang Mr. Bluebird as he flew away to get some mulberries,to eat.

"Happy! Happy! Happy!" chirped Mrs. Bluebird as she laid another egg in the woodpecker hole nest. "Soon I shall have laid five and then I'll begin to warm them so the little birds will hatch out."

"Happy! Happy! Happy!" whistled Uncle Wiggily, hopping around among his flower and lettuce beds. Not that he was going to lie down in a flower bed and go to sleep! No, indeed! Uncle Wiggily was feeling jolly, for, you know, Bluebirds always bring happiness.

So the summer days went on and every afternoon Uncle Wiggily would hop down to the end of his garden and look up among the apple tree branches. He would see a flash of blue and a dash of red.

"Ah, my Bluebirds are there!" murmured the rabbit gentleman. "Everybody is happy!"

But one afternoon there came sadness. Uncle Wiggily had just hopped down to the apple tree, for he saw Mr. and Mrs. Bluebird flittering back from having gone over to the mulberry tree to get something to eat. But Mrs. Blue bird had no sooner looked down into the nest than she began to cry:

"Oh, my eggs! My eggs! My beautiful pale, blue eggs! Oh! Oh!"

"What's the matter?" asked Mr. Bluebird.

"Oh, those saucy little wren birds have found our nest and see! They have punched holes in my eggs and now no little birds will hatch!" cried Mrs. Bluebird. "Oh! Oh!"

"There, Uncle Wiggily!" sang Mr. Bluebird and his voice did not sound happy now. "You see what has happened! Those wrens! I was afraid of this! Oh, dear!"

"Indeed, this is too bad!" said the rabbit gentleman. "I will speak to those wrens and ask why they dared do such a thing!" Just then a wren, who looked very cute and little, perched on a bush near by and began to sing a song that sounded like rippling water.

"Did you pick holes in the eggs of Mrs. Bluebird?" asked the rabbit.

"Yes," chirped the wren, "I did! And I'll do it again, too!"

"But why?" asked Uncle Wiggily. "These Bluebirds have as much right in my garden as you haqe, Mr. Wren."

"We were here first!" said the saucy Mr. Wren. "And if the Bluebirds stay there will not be enough mulberries, worms and bugs for us wrens to eat. We need a great many bugs and berries—"

"Don't be selfish!" said Mr. Bluebird. "My wife and I must eat and we want to hatch our little birds."

"Go on away! I don't want you here!" chirped the wren. "Everytime you lay eggs I'll poke holes in 'em!" he said, spitefully.

"Now look here!" said Uncle Wiggily, speaking like a good but stern Police Dog. "This egg punching must stop! I won't have any more of it, Mr. Wren! You and all the other wren birds must not harm the eggs of my happiness Bluebirds! Do you hear?"

"Yes, but they will eat so many bugs, worms and berries that there will be none left for us!" cried Mr. Wren.

"Nonsense!" shouted Uncle Wiggily, his pink nose twinkling very fast. "This is what I shall do to save the Bluebird eggs from being poked full of holes. Down at the far end of my garden, in a place you didn't know about, Mr. Wren, are some blackberry bushes. And, not only are there berries on the bushes, but there are plenty of worms and bugs. I will let you have that blackberry patch all to yourself it will be the Wrens' Patch, and there you will find so much to eat that you need not spoil the Bluebirds' eggs to drive them out of my garden. I want the Bluebirds here and I like you jolly little wrens, also. There is enough food so you all may live in peace and happiness!"

"Yes, indeed!" said Mr. Bluebird. "My wife and I don't eat much!"

"Well, then I am sorry I poked holes in your eggs," sang Mr. Wren. "I'll never do it again and I'll tell all the other wrens. All we want is enough to eat. Go ahead, Mrs. Bluebird, and lay more eggs. I will poke no more holes." So it happened that way and the war between the Wrens and Bluebirds was over for a time at least, thanks to the rabbit.

DIES WHILE FISHING

BOISE, Idaho (U.P.).—Elzie Johnston died while doing that one thing which gave him his most pleasure in life. He slumped to the bank of the Boise river just as he was baiting his hook, probably hopeful of landing that "big one" which just got away. His body was found, part of it in the water, his rod in one hand and his freshly baited hook in another. The 60-year-old man was one of the most widely known fishermen in this region.

HOW TO GET A BID

This advice is particularly vital to those freshmen who wish to join a fraternity. The main thing is to be nonchalant. Be indifferent. Be hard to get.

When you enter the house, look all around then say: What is this dump, the wood shed? Let's go into the fraternity house."

Then turn to the president, who is standing to welcome you, and say: "My gosh, are all the rest as wet as you? I thought you had some human beings around here."

After you pick yourself up out of the gutter, send five dollars to our office and we'll mail you some cotton and adhesive tape.

ENGLAND FARES BADLY IN FIRST CRICKET GAME

Jack Robbs and Herbert Sutcliffe Fail to Make Good in Opening Play.

TO-DAY'S RESULTS.

NOTTINGHAM, Eng., June 13. — (C.P. Cable).—England fared badly in the early play to-day in the first cricket Test match against Australia at the Trent Bridge grounds. After it looked as if Jack Hobbs and Herbert Sutcliffe, their noted opening pair of batsmen, were in for another of their fine first wicket stands. Disaster after disaster happened till England had lost four of their best wickets for only 71 runs.

England, whose captain won the toss, had all the luck in being able to bat first on a perfect wicket. Batsmen who have gone are: Sutcliffe, Wally Hammond, Frank Woolley and Pat Hendren. Clarence Grimmett, Australia's veteran bowler, was responsible for the dismissal of the last three.

The match drew a great crowd, and the interest was of the keenest kind.

Scores when rain stopped play were:

England—First Innings.

Jack Hobbs, not out	43
H. Sutcliffe, c Hornibrook b Fairfax	29
W. Hammond, lbw. b Grimmett	8
F. Woolley, st. Oldfield b do.	0
P. Hendren, b Grimmett	5
A. P. F. Chapman, not out	24
Extras	4
Total (for 4 wickets)	113

Fall of wickets: One wicket for 53 runs, two for 63, three for 63, four for 71.

NOTTINGHAM, Eng., June 13.—(Canadian Press Cable).—The first cricket test match between England and Australia opened here to-day under thundery skies, with the sun working hard to supply the essential element to England's great summer sport.

England gained a great advantage under the possible weather conditions when Chapman's proverbial luck at winning the toss ran true again.

The teams are:

England—A. P. F. Hapman, R. W. V. Robins, Jack Hobbs, Herbert Sutcliffe, Wally Hammond, F. Woolley, Pat Hendren, M. Tate, H. Larwood, C. Duckworth, Dick Tyldesley, Prince Duleepsinhji, twelfth man.

Australia—W. H. Woodfull, V. Y. Richardson, Don Bradman, W. H. Ponsford, A. F. Kippax, S. McCabe, A. Fairfax, W. A. Oldfield, P. M. Honribrook, C. Grimmett, T. Wall, A. Jackson, twelfth man.

Jack Hobbs and Herbert Sutcliffe, England's noted opening pair of batsmen, began the game to the bowling of Alan Fairfax and T. Wall. Hobbs scored a single to cover off the first ball of the match from Wall. Sutcliffe put the second through the slips for another and was warmly cheered.

Hobbs and Sutcliffe batted with clamness, bred from ripe experience, though the Australian bowling was steady and the fielding needed discernment, combined with skilful placing, to earn even singles. At thirteen Clarence Grimmett, Australia's veteran googly bowler, displaced Fairfax. Hobbs greeted him by chopping his first ball through the slips to the boundary for the first four.

After batting with reserve for thirty five minutes the batsmen's strokes gathered fluency, particularly against P. H Hornibrook, who relieved Wall. The left hander's deliveries pitched up continually and came in for severe punishment. Sutcliffe got him away to the boundary frequently, while Hobbs swept him to leg with masterly skill. The batsmen were gradually gaining dominance over the attack despite the excellent ground fielding. The only blemish in the Australian attack was Hornibrook's lapse in dropping Sutcliffe when he was ten. The ball came into the slips and Hornibrook got his hand on it, letting it fall after juggling it.

Producer of plays by Sir James Barrie during a recent charity week in Glasgow, Scotland, received the following message from Sir James: "To wish you much success in your effort for the Commonweal Fund in Glasgow. It is a brave cause, and with you at the helm the ship should once more come home laden."

cer and his party when they arrived a few minutes later. With smartness and alacrity the men went through the ceremonies, and, drawn up in the rear, the band played soft, inspiring march music after the presentation of arms. After Brigadier Anderson had made his inspection of the line and the stretcher-bearer, signalling, and band units of the battalion, the men marched past in column and in close column.

Company drill and platoon drill followed. An inspection was made of the signallers and the stretcher-bearers at work, and a Lewis gun section staged a demonstration of Lewis gun drill.

Well Pleased With Work.

In a short comment on the inspection which he made at the close of the inspection, Brigadier Anderson said that some of the drill he witnessed had been exceptionally good. He said that he was in every way pleased with the turnout and the year's work and made special mention of the Lewis gun section, the signallers and the two bands.

On his last inspection, he said, the strength of the Rangers was little over 100, but last night was 180. He remarked, however, that there are about 240 on the roll and urged that a fuller attendance be encouraged.

Second in command of the Rangers to Lieut.-Colonel Park is Major G. G. Winterbottom, M.C., D.C.M. The company commanders are Captain J. Dunkerley, Captain G. Monkman, Captain E. Nichols, M.C., D.C.M., and Major Bruce Mills, V.D. Major M. Yelland is the battalion medical officer, and Captain J. R. Bolton, adjutant. The battalion paymaster is Captain J. E. R. Munro.

The Rangers Band is in command of Lieut. William Peryer and the Bugle Band in charge of Sergeant Stuart. Second-Lieutenant C. H. McWilliams commands the signallers, and Sergt. S. Berry has charge of the stretcher-bearers.

The following are lieutenants in the battalion staff personnel: G. Clegg, D. T. Crawford, C. Newman, F. Hart, quartermaster, G. R. Melton, assistant adjutant and commander of the Lewis gun section, and William Peryer. The following are second lieutenants: R. Haddow, R. C. R. Cummings, A. Stanley, D.C.M., M.M., C. D. Munro, J. Kelman and C. H. McWilliams.

Missionary Meeting George Street Church

Good Program is Provided by Members — Financial Statement Read.

The regular June meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of George Street United Church was held in the Board Room with the President, Mrs. W. E. Coon presiding. The room was profusely decorated with flowers, mauve and cream iris on the piano and mantle and a silver basket of carnations and snapdragon on the table. The devotional exercises were in charge of Group E. with Mrs. A. Stinson as leader. After singing the hymn, "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms" followed by repeating the Lord's prayer in unison, Mrs. B. M. Frederick read the Scripture lesson. Mrs. G. W. Morrow led in prayer and Mrs. J. H. Rowe read a devotional leaflet. Hymn 223, "Take the name of Jesus with you" was then sung.

Mrs. J. Spencer, owing to the absence of the Secretary, Mrs. W. H. Morton, read the minutes of the previous meeting and Mrs. H. Dulmage, the treasurer, gave the financial statement. The convenor of the Strangers' committee, Mrs. J. Spencer, reported 29 calls made on new comers to the church. Mrs. J. W. Hales for the sick and visiting committee reported 83 calls made during May and June Mrs. Might, corresponding Secretary, reported letters of sympathy written and read some letters of thanks for sympathy extended in time of bereavement.

Mrs. Coon announced a meeting of the ladies at the church on Tuesday afternoon to make a quilt for the supply bale. Mrs. W. Burns and Mrs. P. Rutherford exhibited an autograph quilt which their group is sending to Miss Marion Coon, missionary in China and the other groups purchased a Kenwood blanket which they are sending with the quilt.

Mrs. Coon thanked the ladies on behalf of her daughter and read a letter from Miss Coon describing a typical day's work.

Mrs. J. B. Nelson rendereded a beautiful solo accompanied by Mrs. Weames, which was much appreciated.

Ms. E. E. Harvey excelled herself in her synopsis of the study book "From Jerusalem to Jerusalem" making her talk so interesting and educational.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered to all taking part in the program. It was decided to disband for the months of July and August.

After singing the hymn "Take my life and let it be" the meeting closed by repeating the Mizpah benediction in unison.

FINDS FIVE SKELETONS

OGDEN, Utah (U.P.)—James Marriott thought he had uncovered a new kind of "crop" when he plowed into what apparently was an ancient Indian burial ground and unearthed several human skeletons. He was leveling a mound on his farm near Warren when his plow deposited some human bones along the side of the furrow. Upon investigating, he found five graves containing skeletons.

BORN

IN MEMORIAM.

STONE—In loving memory of our little boy, Edgar Ernest, who was accidentally drowned at Hastings, Ont., Saturday, June 13, 1924.
From our home
We all do miss him.
There is still one vacant chair,
For the one that is not there.

He has gone to live with Jesus,
With the One who knoweth best,
And to be with Him forever,
In that great eternal rest.
—Sadly missed by Father, Mother, Sisters and Brothers. Inserted by Mr. and Mrs. A. Stone, 135 Stewart street.

HELP BEING SENT TO AID BLUENOSE

Believe Famous Racing Schooner Be Loss Unless Floated Shortly.

TWO STEAMERS ON WAY.

HALIFAX, N.S., June 14 (Canadian Press). — The Canadian Government steamer Arras will sail this afternoon for Point Roche, on Placentia Bay, Newfoundland, where the noted racing schooner Bluenose lies stranded and helpless, with the salt melting out of her and the water creeping in through strained seams. The Bluenose, commanded by Captain John Walters, brother of the skipper who sailed her to the supremacy of the North Atlantic fishing fleet, grounded yesterday, and attempts to refloat her by the steamer Argyle were fruitless, and it was believed that unless assistance was speedily secured the schooner would be a total loss. Meanwhile, the steamer Amphritrite was ordered to Point Roche from Trepassey, Newfoundland, and the Arras which completed the taking on of supplies here last night, will sail within a few hours.

CHICAGO POLICE HEADS INVOLVED

Six Councillors Pledge Support For Full Probe of Department.

CHICAGO, Ills, June 14.—(C.P.)—The civic furore touched off by the slaying of Alfred (Jake) Lingle, a Tribune reporter, veered strongly today against the city administration.

While newspapers renewed their front page editorial attacks on what they termed "an alliance between crime and politics", strength was gained in the city council by those seeking an investigation of the police department.

Alderman Arthur Albert, who pressed Mayor William Hale Thompson to remove Police Commissioner William Russell and Chief of Detectives John Stege "for sixty days at least", said six councilmen pledged their support last night for a full investigation of the department.

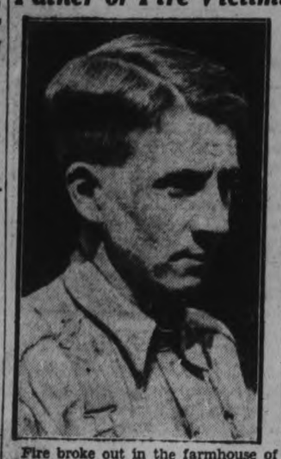
The Herald-Examiner said Mayor Thompson "hinted vaguely he was considering their removal."

Bandit Given $5,000 Just Wishes $700

CHICAGO, Ill., June 14.—(C. P.)—He was a bandit who knew what he wanted, which was $700, and when the paying teller of the Superior State Bank, at the urge of a pistol, pushed forward a package containing $5,000 yesterday, the robber objected.

"I don't need that much," he said, whereupon he carelessly counted out $700, put it in his pocket, and walked out.

Father of Fire Victim.



Fire broke out in the farmhouse of Sidney Lockhart, Newtonville, shortly after midnight, June 13, claiming the life of Vivian, aged ten, his only child, and the hired boy. All attempts to save the two who were sleeping inside the house proved fruitless. Sidney Lockhart, father, is shown in above picture.

NIPISSING VOTE DECISION GIVEN

Committees Differ in Reports on Bitter Sturgeon Falls Meeting.

CALL SECOND CONVENTION.

NORTH BAY, Ont., June 14.—(C. P.)—The following statement was issued by D. A. Mooney, President of the Liberal Association at Nipissing, this morning, in connection with the bitter dispute waging in party circles as a result of last Wednesday's convention, when majority and minority reports of the credential committee were submitted on the result of the voting, the majority report awarding the choice of the convention to Theo Legault of Sturgeon Falls and the minority report claiming irregularities, and other discrepancies militating against the choice of E. A. Lapierre for the past thirteen years the sitting Member of the riding. President Mooney's statement is very brief. It says:

"In examining the reports from both committees of the convention held at Sturgeon Falls on Wednesday, June 11, I find that they are not unanimous and it will be necessary for me to call another convention (signed) D. A. Mooney, president."

Racketeers' Weekly Income is $6,000,000

CHICAGO, Ills., June 14. — (C.P.)—The slaying of Alfred J. Lingle, Chicago Tribune reporter, has prompted an inquiry as to just how much money is at stake in the control of liquor, vice and gambling resorts.

The information gathering from widespread sources shows that the weekly income of racketeers is $6,000,000. From this great income comes the money that corrupts politicians, police and prohibition gents. Six thousand speakeasies are doing business, 2,000 handbooks are running unmolested, and at least 2,000 vicedens are in operation.

There have been 30 racket murders this year, and none of them have been solved.

CABINET HOLDS FINAL MEETING

Expect Action To-day in Respect to Ministerial Appointments.

READJUSTMENTS.

OTTAWO, Ont., June 14. (C.P.) — The final meeting of the Cabinet before the Prime Minitser leaves on his campaign tour will be held this afternoon. While no official intimation has been given it is possible that some action will be taken with respect to ministerial appointments. It is now regarded as very probable that Prof. Cyrus MacMillan who has been nominated in Prince Edward Island, will eventually be appointed as Minister of Fisheries.

Dr. MacMillan was a member of the Atlantic Fisheries Commission and has displayed a keen interest in the developments of the fishing industry of Canada.

He is a native of Prince Edward Island.

With respect to Cabinet representation of the Quebec minority it seems probable that W. F. Kay, ex-member for Brome-Missisquoi will be appointed minister without portfolio, for the time being at least; following the election there may be further readjustments. The Prime Minister will leave for Brantford, where he makes his key-note speech on Monday.

Rumanian King Fulfilling Vow Given Woman Companion in Exile.

ALWAYS BE PROVIDED FOR.

LONDON, June 14. (C.P.)—A dispatch to the London Daily Mail from Berne, Switzerland, to-day said Mme. Lupescu was enroute to Bucharest in the charge of two trustworthy Rumanian officers, both friends of King Carol.

Shortly before Carol started for Bucharest to reclaim the crown worn by his father and son, the dispatch said, he went to Mme. Lupescu and informed her that the interests of the Rumanian state made it imperative that he return there.

Mme. Lupescu approached him timidly, and then throwing her arms around his neck, gobbed her resignation and a wish to be remember in his thoughts always.

"I know you must go, but when you are back in Bucharest you'll forget me as you have forgotten the others."

Never Forget Her

The King-to-be, who is smartly moustached and a handsome young man, answered her with a vow that he would never forget her, and promised an arrangement whereby she woud return to Rumania and would be always provided for. Mme. Lupescu expressed some fear at travelling alone, so Carol promised her an escort of two officers and the private secretary who served him in his exile.

Former Resident Of Peterborough Commits Suicide

Edwin Melhiush, Old Cobourg Boy and Former Resident of This City Runs Amuck in His Home Town in New England and Slays Beautiful School Girl and Then Suicides.

DEAD GIRL WAS GREAT CHUM OF MAN'S DAUGHTER WHO WAS BORN IN PETERBORO ABOUT 17 YEARS AGO

Accomplished 17 Year Old Girl is Kidnapped by Man, Injured in Motor Accident and Then is Shot With a Carefully Concealed Revolver Hidden in a Bible.

WILLON, Conn., June 14 (Special to The Examiner). — Miss Mary a. Yates, beautiful and accomplished 17-year-old girl, whose ability and initiative won high honors for her at High School, where she was a prominent member of the senior class, was brutally slain, it was declared by State officials to-day, while protecting herself from a vicious criminal attack by Edwin J. Melhuish, a native and former resident of Northumberland County, Ontario, and father of Elaine Melhuish, a school chum of the murdered girl.

Melhuish, who came here from Canada with his wife and family nine years ago, killed himself with bullets from the murder gun. The disclosures of the authorities this afternoon cleared up the intricate mysteries of the most amazing tragedy in criminal history of New England.

Fought Murderer.

An automobile travelling at a fast rate, in which the girl battled against the advances of the murderer, a .32-calibre revolver, a Bible, and a bottle of cyanide of potassium, figured conspicuously in the case. The shooting took place on North Ridgenfield Road. Melhuish's car, a small sedan, was seen speeding over the highway with the Yates girl screaming loudly and attempting to leap out. The driver held her by the throat with one hand and piloted the car in zig-zag fashion with the other. In the struggle Melhuish finally lost control and the machine plunged over a field stone fence, and then crashed into a big elm tree. The girl was catapulted in some unexplained manner back on to the highway.

Melhiush severly injured, dragged himself out of the wreckage, staggered in spite of severe cuts from the windshield, to the spot where the unconscious girl lay in the street, and knelt at her side. Under his arm he carried a bible which when opened revealed the revolver and bottle of poison neatly placed in a compart-

ONTARIO PILOT SETS NEW MARK

Flyer at Stone Lake Fires Makes 19 Flights From 3.30 in the Morning Till 10 at Night.

CARRIES 21,490 POUNDS.

TORONTO, Ont., June 14. (C..P) —An epic of the Provincial Air Force in its combat with bush fires has been brought to light here. Pilot A. M. Delamere, of Stratford, established a new record for a single day's flying which, in the opinion of Captain W. Roy Maxwell, director, will stand for some time.

The details of the achievement show Delamere started the grind at 3.30 in the morning and with the exception of time out for refuelling and meals, remained in the air till ten o'clock at night. In all, he made nineteen flights during the day, transporting 4,005 pounds of fire-fighting equipment to different fires in the district and carrying a total all-up load of 21,490 pounds. The bush blazes on which he was engaged are known as the Stone lake fires.

The flights were made from the Twin Lake station on June 6. Two machines are at the station and their combined total time in the air for that day was 29 hours 10 minutes.

Delamere's record of 16 hours' flying betters by 55 minutes the old one established by Pilot Murray in July of last year.

FAREWELL CALLS PAID BY MASSEY

Canadian Minister to Make Short U. S. Tour Before Leaving.

PLANS CANADIAN HOLIDAY.

WASHINGTON, D.C., June 14. — (By Ken. Clark, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent).—Hon. Vincent Massey, the first Canadian Minister to Washington, has paid his farewell call upon President Hoover and Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson. To-night the Minister and Mrs. Massey will leave for a brief tour through a part of the United States. Mr. Massey will fill several engagements of long standing before taking a few weeks' leave in Canada.

Unless the exigencies of the diplomatic situation here should call him back it is doubtful if he will again return to Washington prior to going to London to become High Commissioner. In his absence the post of Charge d'Affairs will be occupied by Hume Wrong, First Secretary, and while Mr. Wrong is taking his vacation by Merchant Mahoney, Commercial Secretary.

The British Ambassador and Lady Lindsay said good-bye to the Minister and Mrs. Massey at the first luncheon in the magnificent new British Embassy yesterday. It was a family affair.

Bombay Crisis Looms - Troops Massed

CONCERN CAUSED BY DEFIANCE OF PICKETING LAWS

Action By Nationalist Volunteers Moving Gov't to Drastic Steps.

RIOTING AT AGRA.

Madras Constables Beaten By Mob and Agricultural Records Destroyed.

BOMBAY, India, June 14 (Canadian Press). — Massing of troops here began to-day when it became evident that events in the Mahatma Gandhi civil resistance campaign were working rapidly up to a great crisis.

The Bombay Government this evening announced that a Battalion of Mahrattas was being summoned from Poona, 500 strong, and other detachments of troops from other quarters, in a mobilization that would enable the local authorities to cope successfully with the increasing seriousness of Gandhi's demonstrations.

Sykes Holds Interviews.

Governor Sir Frederick Sykes today had a series of interviews with prominent Bombay citizens in connection with projected enforcement of the new ordinances regarding molestation or picketing, and the boycott.

The campaign of Indian Nationalists involving both of these practices has become much more pronounced, and is moving the government to drastic action.

A gazette extraordianry was issued to-day bringing the ordinance into effec in Bombay and Gujerat.

Enforcement of the ordinances began also in suburbs and in Ahmadabad, Kaira, and the Panch Mahals Surat districts. Under the ordinances picketing is a penal offense, carrying the title of "intimidation."

The entire battalion of the Fourth and Fifth Mahrattas arrived this morning from Poona. They brought the total troop strength in the city to 1,000.

250 Pickets Posted

Large scale defiance of the anti-picketing ordinance of the Vice-Regency was begun here during the night by Nationalist volunteers. About 250 pickets were posted at 120 foreign and Indian liquor shops, and about 2,000 other pickets were held in reserve.

They were ordered to prostrate themselves in front of all customers who did not heed their requests not to enter. They did not have to carry out their plans often, the mill workers generally keeping away from the shops.

Rioting Starts

AGRA, Indian.—Rioting developed to-day at a village near here after arrival of a party of Nationalist volunteers. A number of shops were looted. Police were sent from here to restore order.

TORONTO YOUTH DROWNS BEFORE BROTHERS' EYES

Attempt to Swim Ashore From Drifting Craft Proves Too Much.

HIT BY BIG WAVE.

Two Young Brothers Unable to Swim, One on Raft Other Ashore. Watch Helplessly.

TORONTO, June 14.—Diving into the cold water of the lake in an attempt to swim neary 100 yards to shore from a drifting raft at the foot on Dunn avenue last night, Frederick Belward, nine, 1260 St. Clair avenue west, was overcome by the chill and drowned before the eyes of his two brothers, Edward, 11, and Richard, 7.

The three boys had gone for a swim after supper, to Sunnyside, so the parents thought. However, they had discovered a raft moored to the beach and were playing around that. While Teddie, the eldest, stayed ashore drying his youngest brother's clothes, Bunny as the family called him, and little Dick were on the raft. Unknown to the three boys the rope broke and the raft drifted out toward the sea wall.

"We found a rubber ball and were playing with it," Teddie said last night after the drowning. "Dickie fell in the water and wet his clothes, so Bunny and I lighted a fire to dry them. We always have a fire."

Teddie doesn't swim so he was ashore minding the clothes. "There was a piece of tin where the rope went," he explained, "that cut it, I think."

Bunny, the swimmer of the family, has been fond of the water since before he was six, according to his father, and he was unafraid. Dick didn't

Police Attacked

MADRAS, India.—Conviction of two Nationalist volunteers at Tindivanam, about 80 miles south of here, for breach of the Salt Laws, led to an attack June 12 on police here.

BENNETT MAKES PROMISE TO AID UNEMPLOYMENT

Tory Chieftain Pledges Calling of Parliament Soon After Election.

NATIONAL MATTER.

Denies Rumors of Favoring Amalgamation of C. N. and C. P. Railroads.

(By Thomas Green, Staff Correspondent of Canadian Press.)

EDMONTON, June 14. — Standing four-square on his proposal to call Parliament together at the earliest possible date after July 28 to present a program for immediate relief of unemployment, Hon. R. B. Bennett here last night made clear his proposal if elected to office.

Mr. Bennett continued: "We must face it absolutely and at once. At Calgary on Thursday night I said I would not stand by with folded hands, while all about me my countrymen are calling out for help. I will not tell them to seek charity in their towns and cities. I will not tell to seek relief from their Provincial Governments while I do nothing. I said that the unemployed are not of one city or of one countryside or of one Province. They are everywhere in the nation. And everywhere, and every one of them, the fathers and the mothers and the little children, they are a challenge no less to our national well-being than to our national duty and to our national pride.

To Call Parliament.

"I accept the challenge and I say again that I will call Parliament together at the earliest possible moment to provide at once the remedy—employment—for all who can and will work. It is in the interests of every one of us, rich and poor, happy and unhappy, alike, that this should be done. If there be those who think that their idleness, now unsought, may by aid of Government be continued at their will, they mistake my meaning and my purpose. I will help them to help themselves; but I will not help them to remain in idleness. That would be bad for them and bad for the country as a whole. And in this, as in all other things, I will act for the common good. That is my guide. Any other would surely lead me astray.

"In Winnipeg last Monday I offered to the people of this country my plans for a more prosperous Canada. I told you what I will do in

TARIFF MEASURE PASSES SENATE

New U. S. Bill Means 20 Per Cent. Duty Increase Over Present Rates.

GOES TO HOOVER.

WASHINGTON, June 14.— Before crowded galleries and representatives of foreign countries the Hawley-Smoot tariff bill, carrying the highest rates in the history of the nation, passed the Senate yesterday by a vote of 44 to 42, with 39 Republicans and 5 Democrats supporting it, and 11 Republicans, 1 Farmer-Labor and 30 Democrats in opposition.

The measure, which increases duties more than 20 per cent over the present tariff, will be passed finally by the House today, and, according to Republican leaders, will be approved by the President, and in effect by the beginning of the next fiscal year, July 1.

It was a tense scene in the Senate, Friday the thirteenth, and the leaders showed their great relief when their long and weary labor came to an end at 2:13 p. m. with vice president Curtis's announcement of passage.

The chamber was lined five deep during the last half-hour, and while the roll was being called the utmost interest was manifested. All eyes were turned to the far Republican corner when the grey-haired, jovial Senator Grundy mildly voted "Aye". The vote of each Senator was followed with the greatest concern by the galleries, while the Leaders followed the roll-call to detect any break in the line-up. None developed, and the result was as expected by the party leaders.

With the announcement of the vote there was a great rush from the chamber by Senators hurrying home for their campaigns, and others seeking a few days respite from the arduous task of nearly nine months.

The crowded galleries, the presence of notables, the jammed Senate floor and the earnest defense and vigorous denunciation of the bill by conspicuous speakers, one of whom described it as "the worst in history, and predicted that it would bring hard times to the United States, combined to give the proceedings an atmosphere of the historic.

Decree Granted Only on Evidence Submitted in Open Court.

WILL PREVENT COLLUSION.

TORONTO, Ont., June 14 (C.P.).—Rendering the first ruling covering procedure in the hearing of divorce applications made by the court, judges of the Supreme Court of Ontario meeting at Osgoode Hall decided no divorces will be granted in the province merely on the default of the defendant to enter a defence. Divorces will be granted only in open court trial on the evidence established in the trial.

The ruling, it was stated, is intended to prevent the obtaining of divorces by collusion. A committee of judges was appointed at the meeting to draw up a full set of rules covering procedure in divorce cases, and it is understood on good authority this work will be completed before the end of June.

Divorce actions will be heard in the same manner as any other form of action coming before the Supreme Court, on circuit, it was learned. It is understood the hearings will be conducted in open court.

Having inspected all the county buildings and public institutions the Grand Jury reported to His Honor Judge Hycke during the General Sessions of the Peace, which concluded to-day, that all were in good order, but it was recommended that better water heating facilities be installed in the county jail that the acoustics of the court room be improved.

The report follows in full:

"We the Grand Jury empanelled according to law, to inspect and report on the institutions receiving support of the public monies have made careful inspection and beg to report as follows:

"In connection with the County Jail we found conditions as good as could be expected from the type of building, with the exception of the domestic water heating facilities which are exceedingly primitive.

"As to the County House of Refue we were entirely satisfied with the general conditions as we found them there. It is recommended that a large washing machine be provided for the laundry.

"The House of Providence was found to be in excellent condition and beyond criticism. The railings on the high balconies, however, appeared to be too low for safety and we would recommend that their height be increased.

"The two hospitals were visited and appeared to be most capably managed. With regard to the Children's Shelter it is recommended that the additional toilet and bath facilities now under construction should be completed at once. We found everything satisfactory at the St. Vincent's Orphanage and the children apparently happy and contented.

"We agree with Your Honor that the acoustics of the court room are not of the best, as we heard with difficulty your address to the Petit Jury. We earnestly recommend that steps be taken to remedy existing conditions.

"In conclusion we trust that Your Honor may long be spared to administer justice in the County of Peterborough.

Sunday Services On Daylight Saving Time

IF time permitted, what a pleasure it would be to sit down and write a personal letter to the many friends who, in one way or another, have told me how much they enjoy the "Chips and Shavings" and the "Musings at a Manse Window." But that cannot be! It must be a case of taking the desire for the deed. As it is, I work long after "union hours." At that, I don't grumble! I enjoy the work so well that my only complaint is that I am unable to work all through the twenty-four hours. No one knows any better than I do how imperfect the work is. For that, I could, without any difficulty, find a good alibi—but "I ain't goin' to do it." When one, who is all too conscious of his imperfections, writes to others, who have not yet become perfect, what can be expected but an imperfect production? Like the bulk of that which is turned out for the newspapers, it is born but for a day!

To me it is a great joy to rummage around the workshop of John Plane and pick up chips and shavings, both new and old. There is a flavor to some that is not to be found in others: but we are content to let our readers make their own use of them. If they mean half as much to them as they do to us we are satisfied.

The Workshop at present is looking fairly prosperous. A coat of paint, John Plane says, would improve its appearance and add to the life of the place. However, the grass is green! The foliage is fine! Judging by the robins, the worms are plentiful. The honeysuckle clusters around the door and the droning of bees can be heard when John stops his saw to go outside the shop to get a breath of fresh air.

CLOSING THE WORKSHOP.

For more reasons than one, we shall be sorry when the time comes to close the Workshop and say farewell to all our friends. Whether we shall ever meet in this way again or not is impossible to say. The folks I have met, and the friends I have made, have made my visits to the Workshop seasons of rare delight. The hours thus spent shall be among my most cherished memories.

It was there I met the Rev. John Mitchell, who made me homesick for Scotland in reviving my memories of an old-time Scots kirk.

I can see it as if it had all taken place last Sabbath Day! A bleak-looking kirk, built of greyish-blue whinstone and unprotected by wall or hedge, standing on the bald, windswept hillside, within sound of the waves that thundered and broke against the cliffs near by.

A SCOTTISH CONGREGATION.

To it there had gathered that Sabbath forenoon a great concourse of people; bodies of men who followed the herring fishing in the summertime and were crofters in the winter, their women-folk and their children, both old and young together. A stranger from the South might have thought that "special services" were being held, so many and so dense were the groups that made their way to the kirk on the hill. But he would have been entirely mistaken. The only "special services" known to these folk were the Sacrament services held from Friday to Sunday once every six months, finishing with a thanksgiving service on tht Monday—"the last great day of the feast," as one of the elders described it. This was no day of "special services" with "a preacher from a distance"; it was the ordinary mid-day diet of worship, and their own minister was in the pulpit.

THE "OLD SCHOOL."

He was not as ministers are nowadays. Even then, and in those parts, he was known as belonging to the "old school." A little, spare man he was, white-haired and curly-headed, with a sharp, Celtic, spiritual face and shrewd, peering eyes. A certain suggestion of pawkiness was given to the countenance by the side-whiskers being half an inch nearer the mouth on the one side than on the other.

This, I discovered, was the result of his shaving in a bad light before a looking-glass hung at the side of the narrow little window in his dimly lighted room.

In the kirk, Mr. McGibbie was never facetious—never intentionally, at least. When in the retirement of the manse, however, he often relaxed to tell a comical story. Then, as the critical moment drew near, his mouth slyly turned until the lower lip almost touched the nearest side-whiskers, his eyes sparkled as he shot out the final words, and his countenance took on a drollery and humor that went smiling to one's heart.

A GOOD STORY.

A story went about the Presbytery that on one occasion when Mr. McGibbie was exchanging pulpits with a ministerial brother from a remote part in the West, the stranger had given out the text, "Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard change his spots?" And then for an hour had expatiated in his broken Gaelic with much power on the similarity between a sinner and a leper. "Ah, yes, ma friends, the leper will have spoats, many spoats and sore spoats, and they will sometimes be on his hands and sometimes on his feet, and maybe all over his boady, and the seener will just be like that, too, aall spoats, and, ah! he cannot change his spoats."

A divinity student on a visit to the district went into the vestry afterwards to say how much he had enjoyed the sermon. With that modesty and gentleness that are so characteristic of his age and class, he ventured, however, to point out that the text referred not to a leper's spots, but to the spots of the leopard. The Gael's eyes flashed. "Ah! and this will be some more of your peety Higher Creeticism from the Sooth, but we will have none of it here. I say you are just like a leper with spoats—or yes! or like a bottle in the smoke." Then our Boanerges fled incontinently from this latter-day Cerinthus.

AN UNCONSCIOUS HUMOR.

Had a story like this been told of Mr. McGibbie it would have found no credence, for it would not have been characteristic of the man; yet sometimes his sermons and pulpit appearances had an unconscious humor of their own. In this parish the Geneva gown and ministerial bands were held in suspicion as "rags of Popery," so the figure seen in the bare, unvarnished pulpit was dressed in the same plain frock-coat, lying-down collar and white tie that he wore on weekdays. The ill-shapen boots with leather laces, the trousers, laid up at the bottom by the housekeeper, straight and too short to cover the boot-heads, and the unbrushed bottle-green coat were the same on Sundays and Saturdays. He has been seen ascending the pulpit-steps with the coat-collar turned inwards and humped amazingly at the nape of the neck. But nobody smiled. It was not conducive to the peace of mind of the young folk to do so, for their fathers knew how to "chasten them after their own pleasure." For the older people nothing was here for mirth. They venerated their minister, and knew that in the county and far beyond it Mr. McGibbie was held in repute as a mighty preacher before the Lord.

A HARDY PEOPLE.

On this Sabbath when I sat under his ministrations—not altogether with great delight—the snow lay thick upon the ground. Inside the kirk the steam from the preacher's breath could be seen gently ascending in the frosty air. The place felt like an ice-chamber. Few of the men had on, or possessed, what they called "a jop-coat"; most of them wore the blue, double-breasted fisherman's jacket. The women and children seemed to be no warmer clad. At the end of the two hours' service I shivered within my overcoat. Often when I have heard worshippers in the cities complain of the poor heating apparatus in snug luke-warm churches, I have wondered how religion managed to survive the chilly, ice-cold air that pervaded the cathedrals during worship in the Middle Ages. The bluish-purple, uncomplaining faces around me helped to explain. They were a hardy people, inured to cold and rough discomforts, even as those crofters. Of such is the Kingdom of Heroes composed.

THE MUSIC.

No "human hymns" were sung, only the metrical psalms. It was told with relish in many a shelling how, when a rash probationer had given out a pharaphrase, old Sandy Bain had risen in the elders' box beneath the pulpit and said, "We hae no skeel in pharaphrases here; try us wi' a psaulm o' Dauvid's." The Psalms alone were sung, and that to mournful, dirge-like cadences such as I seem never to have heard south of the Fair City. It came as a surprise to me to hear the prayers partly chanted, not by the congregation, but by the minister alone. The same weird cadence, this rythmical rising and falling of the sentences can also be heard at cottage meetings when fishermen pray in Gaelic, a surviving relic, scholars tell me, of the old chants of the ancient Celtic Church.

THEN THE SERMON.

After the "long prayer" comes the sermon. To-day the text is, "Ephraim is a silly dove," and all who are of age are careful to turn it up in their Bibles. The introduction consists of an emphasizing that Ephraim was unspeakably silly, an insistence that there were a great many silly people in the world, and that in consequence the earth contained many silly doves like Ephraim. This proposition having been put through several syllogistic forms, the "first division" is disclosed to us. "Ephraim is a silly dove," therefore Ephraim will be ignorant. Under his head all of us who are in a state of nature are convicted, if not of secular, then of spiritual ignorance. Many are very clever at driving a bargain at mill and market, but listen to them when asked what the Bible and the Shorter Cathechism teach. Oh, yes! listen to them then. "Ephraim is a silly dove," therefore Ephraim will be foolish. Hear to the tee-hee-ing and loud laughter that is as the crackling of thorns under a pot! Is it from the mouths of babes and sucklings? No! but from bearded simpletons in their cups. Bray such men in a mortar with a pestle and there will be nothing but folly in the bottom of it. Lastly, since "Ephraim is a silly dove," Ephraim will be vain. Here came a most vehement exposure of fancy dress and broidering of hair as empty vanities, and an unstinted condemnation of the wearing of gold and pearls and costly array as nothing short of Ephraimitic silliness. As I looked from my side seat on the plainly-clad, humble folk, I wondered if they felt glad that they were not as other congregations are in the lax and dissolute South.

THE END AT LAST.

At the expiration of an hour the sermon ended, and another Psalm was sung. A prayer followed which was mainly a recapitulation and re-application of the sermon. Then, after another Psalm and the Benediction, we were let go. Naturally, I was curious to find if this fearless and faithful speaking had given general offence. So far as I could learn in passing the homeward-going groups, it had not even caused comment. The people were accustomed to it and expected it, and, most and best of all, they knew that they had been listening to one who was, like another plain dealer with souls, "a worthy and a pious man, who believed all that he professed and practised all he enjoined." Indeed, the general feeling seemed to be voiced by an old roadman. Said he to me, "Wasna that a graund' service we had th' day? I think I've rarely heard oor minister tae mair advantage."

After such a service I can the better understand what is meant in Scotland by "a diet of worship."

Yours for more genuine religion,

Allan Fairbairn.

If constant efforts prove desire, how surely does God prove that He longs for our salvation.

The Hour Of Prayer

O LORD, give to us a humble sense of our dependence upon Thy grace. Save us from the danger of our own conceived strength and from the traps that lie in wait for those who have no wholesome fear. Beneath and around our known and acknowledged weakness let us feel the everlasting and everlifting arms. For the sake of the name of Christ and of His Church, for the sake of the families whose pride is in us and of the wavering souls that watch, for the sake of the good we have done and the testimony we have borne, hold us fast to the end, we entreat Thee, that we may be presented holy and unblameable and unreprovable in Thy sight. Amen.

HANDFULS OF PURPOSE

"He showed us how he had seen an angel in his house."—Acts 11:13.

* * *

THAT was the notable effect of a vivid religious awakening. Cornelius' eyes had been opened. He had seen, not the gates of pearl or the streets of gold or the bands of winging, singing seraphim. He had discerned an angel in his own house. "Hereafter ye shall see heaven open and the angels of God ascending and descending." They must ascend before they can descend. They belong on the earth. They cannot be at rest away from us. They are ministering spirits sent forth to minister to the heirs of salvation. And lo! they are in every man's house.

Growth in Grace

TRIAL is the food of faith. Let us leave ourselves in the hands of our Heavenly Father! It is the joy of His heart to do good to all His children!

But trials and difficulties are not the only means by which faith is exercised, and thereby increased. There is the reading of the Scriptures, that we by them may acquaint ourselves with God, as He has revealed Himself in His Word. And what shall we find? That He not only is God almighty, and a righteous God; but we shall find how gracious He is, how

WHY EMBALM THEM?

WE bury men when they are dead, but we try to embalm the dead body of laws, keeping the corpse in sight long after the vitality has gone. It usually takes a hundred years to make a law; and then, after it has done its work, it usually takes a hundred years to get rid of it. When we have gained our health, we do not repeat the portion of medicine, but we keep on dosing with law when the evil which it was meant to cure has passed away.

INDUSTRIAL ACCIDENTS.

While traffic accidents continue to increase, it is gratifying to learn that so far this year the industrial accident record of the Province is showing a desirable improvement.

For the first five months of 1928 the number of such accidents in Ontario were 3,848 less than for the same period last year, and the benefits paid decreased from $3,330,530.16 to $3,117,013.05.

During the month of May there were 6,177 accidents reported to the Workmen's Compensation Board, as compared with 7,485 during May last year and 6,538 during May of 1928. The fatal cases, however, numbered 46, the same as during May of 1928, but 14 more than the number during May last year.

For May this year the benefits awarded amounted to $570,302.90, of which $444,506.97 was for compensation and $125,795.93 for medical aid.

The benefits for the same month last year totalled $601,733.54 and for May, 1928, $544,257.75.

The decrease shown, even if it may partially be accounted for by a smaller total of industrial working hours throughout the Province, is satisfactory as evidence that the campaign of safety education is making some headway.

THE CHAMPIONSHIP FIGHT.

Professional prize fighting seems to be going from bad to worse, and old-time followers of the game who remember the heroes of yesterday when fighters were just that and not business men and publicity hunters must be disgusted at recent developments.

The much-heralded world's championship bout between Max Schmeling, the German heavyweight, and the Luthanian ex-sailor, who has borrowed the good old fighting name of Sharkey, is just another chapter in a long list of "flops."

Mister Sharkey may know something about fighting, but he certainly lacks that measure of self-control that is necessary in the equipment of a real champion.

Apparently he threw away the championship title at a stage when he had the fight well in hand by going berserker and fouling his German rival.

At all events the contest leaves a sour odor, which is not helped in the least by the intimation that Sharkey and Schmeling may meet again later in the year.

It would seem that the fighting degenerates as the monetary rewards increase, the dear old public, as always, being the chief loser when the whole thing is carefully studied.

WELL DONE, THE RANGERS.

The satisfactory showing made by the Peterborough Rangers during the annual inspection of the regiment on Thursday night and the commendation voiced by Brigadier-General W. B. Anderson, D.S.O., the officer commanding No. 3 military district, no doubt did much to compensate Lieut.-Col. Park and his staff for the sacrifice of time and energy they have made in the training of the unit.

Keeping a regiment alive under present-day conditions when militia training is on an 18-day financial diet is not a sinecure, and it speaks well for the zeal and enthusiasm of all ranks that the Rangers have reached such a high state of efficiency.

The Examiner has frequently expressed its views on the subject of more adequate support for the militia of Canada.

It does not seem fair that officers who served this country and the Empire during the World War and who on their return gave of their experience and their knowledge willingly to the training of the militia should be handicapped by lack of financial assistance.

Such officers deserve general thanks for their patriotic efforts in the face of discouraging circumstances, and when a militia unit is able under such conditions to make such a creditable showing as did the Rangers on this occasion the applaure of the community should be correspondingly hearty.

THE SPEED KING'S PASSING.

Speed has finally claimed the life of that internationally known sportsman, Major Sir Henry O. Seagrave—not speed on land where the Britisher had broken all records as an automobile driver, but speed on water, where he was fatally injured in making a new world's mark.

The tragic death of this gallant young son of Britain whose exploits had won so much fame for the land of his birth and had earned him knighthood at the hands of his sovereign will be regretted not only wherever the British flag flies but everywhere where true courage and sportsmanship are recognized.

It seemed only yesterday that Major Segrave sent his British-made racing automobile hurtling over the sand of Daytona Beach at the unprecedented rate of 231 miles an hour, and then followed that triumph by winning the world's championship trophy for speed boats.

His thirty-five years of life were crowded with adventure.

As a mere youth he served with distinction in the World War, being three times wounded.

Afterwards he was honored by being attached to the British embassy at Washington, but the lure of speed claimed him, and he embarked upon a spectacular career as a racing pilot, climaxed by the setting up of the world's automobile record.

By the irony of fate he had given up automobile driving at the request of his wife, who considered it too dangerous, and had turned to motor-boating as a hobby that did not present so great a risk.

The whole Empire mourns the loss of an illustrious son of Britain.

WORK OF THE SOVIETS.

Speaking in the British House of Commons on June 6, Sir Austen Chamberlain complained of the ceaseless and continuous boasting by the Soviet Government in Moscow over its success in stirring up trouble in different parts of the British Empire—incidents concerning which Britain had a fundamental right to enter a strong protest. There is ample proof that Sir Austen was not talking without information. A despatch from Moscow reports the speech made by M. Lovoski, general secretary of the Red Labor International. That gentleman is quoted as saying that the object of the revolutionary movement in India is paralysis of British Imperialism and that this paralysis threatens to overwhelm the Great British dependency. Lovoski described the Soviet Red Shirts as working hand in hand with the League of Indian Youth, wearing the sickle and hammer and using the slogan, "Workers and Peasants of the Whole World Unite." He went on to say that the events in India have the greater political importance because of their connection with simultaneous revolutionary movements in Indo-China and in China itself. The recruits for this Russian movement in India are trained at Tashkent, beyond Bokhara, in Russian Turkestan, where there is a famous Bolshevist school. And yet the British Labor Government has resumed diplomatic relations with Moscow, the United States is doing a large export trade to Russia and sending American experts to build up Bolshevist industries, and the Canadian Government is supinely admitting Russian coal to our own markets. Over and over again the undertakings and pledges of the Soviet have been proven absolutely worthless. How long is this farce, or rather, this accumulating tragedy to continue? Is there not enough common sense and resolution at London, Washington and Ottawa to call the Bolshevists to account or cut off all relations with them?—Ottawa Journal.

CANADIAN STRAWBERRIES.

The Canadian strawberry season has begun. For about two weeks the home-grown product has been served in British Columbia, and shipments to the Provinces to the eastward have been made from the Fraser Valley district. The strawberry season in Canada usually extends from the end of May until nearly the last of August. The earliest crops ripen in the Fraser River district and the southern part of Vancouver Island, and the late August berries are grown mainly in the Maritime Provinces. A goodly percentage of this late crop finds a ready market in New York and Boston. Indications are that this year's strawberry crop in Canada will be somewhat smaller than that of 1929, but will probably reach an aggregate of 10,000,000 quarts. All the Provinces are represented in the total, though the prairies produce lesser quantities than do the coast Provinces and Ontario and Quebec.

The length of the strawberry season is not unusual among Canadian fruits, and it is probable that a goodly portion of the buying public does not realize the period of time over which the production of Canadian fruit extends. In an attempt to supply the Canadian market with as large a percentage of Canadian fruit as possible, and over as long a period as possible, the producing and marketing organizations are, of course, confronted with the old problem of geography. It would seem to be almost impossible for British Columbia early fruits, for instance, to be sold at competitive rates in Ontario and Quebec. Yet, with the constant improvement in cold storage, transportation and other facilities, achievements once thought to be out of the question are being accomplished. Canada is gaining a foremost place in the production of fruit, and the careful cultivation of all the available home markets is even more vital than those of other countries.—Brantford Expositor.

MORE THAN MURDER.

Alfred Lingle was a reporter on the Chicago Tribune; for years he had been on the police beat, and it is stated that he probably knew more of the underworld and more policemen than any other person in the city.

That is nothing to his discredit; it would seem to indicate that he had paid attention to his business and become acquainted with the sources of information he was supposed to be able to tap to write his stories.

Alfred Lingle was walking along a street in Chicago on Monday shortly after noon; there were people around in numbers. He was shot in the back of the head and died almost instantly. Every bit of energy which police and press possess is now bent toward finding the man who did the shooting.

It is recorded that Lingle had very often been of considerable assistance to the police. It is a fact that an expert police man on a newspaper knows a great deal because that is his business. Every day he is working at it, seeking to find out things just as diligently and intelligently as a police officer. It was Lingle who helped Arthur Cutten find the gang of thugs who raided his home some years ago. One of his last moves in that incident was to go to Cleveland and identify a man there who was held by the police.

One explanation is that Lingle was shot because "he knew too much." That is, he could make trouble for a good many people if he cared to talk.

* * * *

Lingle lost his life because he was a menace to some crook or group of crooks. Of that there seems to be no doubt. He had associated himself with the officers of the law in trying to work out the mystery connected with a number of killings in Chicago. Had he played with the crooks he might have been off to-day with his wife and two children on holidays, because that is what he had been planning to do.

There is something far more serious behind the death of Alfred Lingle than the shooting of a reporter on a newspaper.

There are two factions in Chicago the same as there are in any other community, (1) that faction which stands for and behind law and order, and (2) the section which is opposed to it because it interferes with the lawless things which the second faction desires to do.

The whole fabric of our social organization is spun around the idea that the forces of law and order must prevail. They must be able to guarantee safety to individuals who observe the laws; they must be able to demonstrate their superiority over those people who defy laws. If these conditions are not met then the system of law enforcement and justice dwindles off into some manner of guerilla warfare under the recognized rule of every man for himself.

That is why the shooting of a police reporter in Chicago because he was in league with the officers of the law is of such serious concern. It was not simply killing one person—it was an open challenge to Washington itself.—Stratford Beacon-Herald.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

The circus is over, but that other big event, the Rotary Street Fair, is yet to come. Wednesday next is the date.

New Brunswick has only one independent candidate in the provincial election, which must be some kind of a record in itself.

Now that the big convention is over Toronto folks can settle down to the common task of nominating political candidates.

Max Schmeling, German, is champion heavyweight of the world, and there is no dispute at least about who won that particular war.

News of Our Own Village

The circus was here Fri. but they aint no truth in the rumor that they wasnt no parade because they was afraid the elephants would fall into the holes in the pavement.

Bill King of Ottawa, east of here, is going to give a political talk next Tues. nite. In case you aint familiar with politics Bill is running again this year for the Prime Minister's job.

The foot soldiers was inspected here Thurs. nite, and the lads did their stuff pretty slick, few, if any, being out of step while your scribe watched them.

Rolly Denne, our worthy Mayor, didn't invite the Shiners to hold their convention here next year, their being some doubt as to whether the telephone company would have their work at the corners done by then.

If you aint got a ticket for the horseless carriage what the Rotary fellows is going to pass out they wont be no use looking for 1 next Thurs. The guessing is all over next Wed. nite.

A Thought

LOVE TO GOD

To be true to that every form of falsehood, to live a brave, true, real life,—that is to love God. God is infinite; and to love the boundless, reaching on from grace to grace, adding charity to faith, and rising upward ever to see the Ideal still above us, and to die with it unattained, aiming insatiably to be perfect even as the Father is perfect,—that is to love God.—F. CHAPTER XXXV.

On the following night Mrs. O'Hara went over to see Uncle Robert, as always on Wednesday evenins, escorted by Tom. Martin was left in Mary Kate's care, his bandaged arm carefully propped on pillows, himself comfortable in the big kitchen chair.

Cass came in, and he and Martin played cribbage; both furtively watched Mary Kate, who busied herself quietly and constantly about the kitchen, wiping the last spoon, putting it away, brushing the stove with the old turkey wing that hung beside it, wiping sinkboards and chairs carefully.

She was subdued and nervous tonight; close to tears. Mrs. O'Hara had imagined this condition a natural reaction to Mart's accident; she had had a turn herself that she would not soon forget. She had suggested that Mary Kate go with her to Aunt Julia's, but the girl had wearily declined. She didn't feel like going out, somehow.

The little children straggled up to bed at eight o'clock. Cass, made uneasy by Mary Kate's paleness and her manner, wondered if there was anyone to whom they could telephone, for a fourth at bridge. But Mary Kate also negatived this idea: she said suppressedly that she meant to go early to bed.

Martin had not spoken to his sister since his return home the day before; they had avoided even each other's eyes. Of the shadow on his handsome face she had been fearfully conscious all day; she knew the terrible hour of reckoning must come. And meanwhile, it was unbearable to be at outs with Mart. They had been inseparable friends since actual babyhood; they had never quarrelled. It had been a mutual admiration society. Mary Kate thinking that no brother had even been like Mart and Mart as proud of his pretty, clever sister as a father, brother and lover in one.

It made her heartsick tonight to think how good, how pure and safe, Mart had always felt his sister to be!

When the last claim of the children above stairs had been satisfied for the night, and when the gate had clicked behind Mrs. O'Hara and Tom, Martin suddenly put the cribbage cards aside, and jerked his head authoritatively in the direction of his sister.

"Sit down a minute, Mary Kate, I want to talk to you," he said.

Cass gave her an apprehensive glance, and turned red. But Mary Kate obediently sat down, and turned a tired and miserable young face toward her brother.

"Does Ma know any of this?" Martin asked, without preamble.

"About what really happened? No."

"How much do you know, Cass?" Martin asked.

"I know it all," Cass assured him, promptly.

"You know it all?"

"I told him," Mary Kate explained, very white. "I didn't want to marry him without telling him."

"You didn't have to tell me," Cass said, embarrassed.

"You know how I knew you were down there, Mary Kate?" Mart asked.

"Yes. You told me, in the hospital. You said that you had driven Doctor van Antwerp home, and that you saw me at Mr. Rountree's."

"Where'd you get the dress?"

"Mr. Steynes bought it."

"I might have known!" Mart said. He looked ten years older than his twenty-two years, to-night, and as he spoke he put his hand over his eyes, with a gesture of despair.

"You can't take that tone with me, if you are my brother!" Mary Kate said, trembling, but in a restrained tone.

"Look here, I understand the whole thing," Cass put in suddenly, "and it isn't half as bad as you think, Mart."

Mart moved his haggard eyes to him.

"I don't get you," he said heavily.

"Why look here, Mart. All Mary Kate did was to go down there—this Chris Steynes had a house party, and she pretended to be a girl he was engaged to. Gordon Rountree knew all about it—there was no harm done!"

"Did he?" Mark asked, with sudden incredulous hope in his eyes, of Mary Kate.

"Certainly he did!" she said coldly.

"And how many people were at the house?" Cass supplemented, encouraged.

Mary Kate could ignore this question, for Mart spoke simultaneously.

"I thought you pretended to be his wife, Mary Kate?"

"No," she answered unhesitatingly. "—just—just his girl."

"Oh!—" Martin said. But lookhere," he went on, puzzled. "I went up to Rountree's door, after I saw you—I had been home to change my clothes—and I asked if Mrs. Steynes was there, and the girls said that Mr. and Mrs. Steynes had just gone home. That was after one. Then I went to the Steynes house, and everything was dark."

The girl shuddered. She was sitting sidewise at the table, her elbow resting on the red oilcloth. She leaned her cheek against her hand, looking down at the floor, her face, her whole aspect, desolate.

"I wish you'd taken Tess or me along with you!" Martin said, suddenly.

"I didn't think Mother or you would approve."

"It wasn't such an awful thing to do," Cass said generously. "He had his nerve, to ask her. But I won't think it was so bad!"

"I lay in the hospital there, trying to think how I could get hold of you. I knew there must be some explanation," Martin said, with a somewhat mollified glance at his sister. There was distinct placation, appeal in his tone. "I wanted to die," he said, simply.

Mary Kate did not change her position. Her sorrowful gaze was lowered to the floor, with its old linoleum of red and yellow, black and white. Now the tears began swiftly to fall, running down her cheeks, splashing on the little frilled collar she wore on a plain blue dress, and on the thin young hand that looked forlorn and helpless, somehow, curled in her lap.

"Why couldn't you tell Rountree that you wouldn't do it?" Martin asked, in what was almost his usual gentle tone with her.

"I thought—" she said huskily, in a lowered tone, "that you could use the money, Mart. I thought you could go to Germany."

"The money!" he echoed, with a scowl. "Yes. That was what started it."

"He paid you?"

"But why should I have done it, otherwise?"

"You mean you thought I'd take his dirty money!"

"Mart, don't talk that way."

"I might have murdered the fellow, and you take his money!" Mart said bitterly.

"But I couldn't know that," Mary Kate reminded him, openly wiping her eyes, looking at him through sopping lashes. "I am sorry as I can be," she said. "But—but you have no right to be so hard on me, Mart."

Just then there was an authoritative knock on the kitchen door. And instantly she knew it would be Christopher who stood in the opening, when Cass had opened it—as indeed it was Christopher.

He sent a quick glance about the orderly, homely room, and came in. Hardly a word was exchanged as he took off his hat and overcoat, and hung them on a peg by the hall door. Martin nodded toward a chair, and Chris sat down in it. Mary Kate was rooted to her own seat; she could not move. Her lashes were wet and dark with tears, her shining hair had slipped back into a careless cap of waves and loose tendrils, her face was pale and stained with tears. She continued to rest her head on her hand; she did not look up as Chris came in.

"Am I late?" Chris asked. His voice went through her like an actual pain; her senses whirled about in a sort of vertigo.

"No, it's not nine," Martin answered coldly.

"What's the matter, Mary?" Chris asked, in an undertone, leaning from his chair to bring his face within a few feet of her own. She twisted about, doubled both arms on the red oilcloth, and burst into silent, tearless sobbing that was all the more violent because of her effort to restrain it. "What's the matter?" the man asked. "Have they been riding you?"

"I wanted to ask you a few questions, but my sister answered some of them already," Martin began, in a measured tone. His uneasy eyes moved continually to Mary Kate, who had controlled herself and sat frozen with fear. He faced Chris. "You and she were alone in the house on Friday night, weren't you? Your house, I mean, in Burlingame?"

"My servants were in a garage room that is attached to the house—yes." Chris answered, somewhat surprised.

"And she had been introduced that evening as Mrs. Steynes, hadn't she?" Martin pursued, after a moment of electric silence.

"Didn't she tell you that? That was the plan," Christopher countered, in annoyance and surprise.

What To-day Means To You.

"GEMINI."

If June 14th is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 10 a.m. to 11:15 a.m., from 4:30 a.m. to 6 p.m., and from 11 p.m. to midnight. The danger periods are from 8 a.m. to 9:30 a.m., and from 1 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Astrological influences on this date are of an upsetting nature, and a war between the sexes is predicted—family quarrels and lovers' misunderstandings. "Good temper is the rudder by which good sense steers the ship of life."

The child born on this June 14th will not have an independent nature, and will wish to be led and guided through life. Its early influences are of utmost importance to one of its type. It will be very sociable, very friendly and demonstrative.

You are one of the world's pleasure seekers and comfort lovers, and in these pursuits you are bound to display signs of selfishness and a high regard for "number one." You are not friendly toward any one or anything which interferes with either. At times you are generous to a fault, but seldom so where personal sacrifices, efforts or discomforts are necessary. You may be a slave of your desires, but in your human relationships, you are always a lord or lady, a slave to no other.

You have both extravagant and fastidious tastes. You are almost unkindly critical, criticising for the sake of being a critic. Temperance and moderation are things you need to learn for you are on extremist. You are a passionate lover, a dangerous hater, and a friend but to a few. Your infactuations perplex even yourself, for their glamor so soon wears off, leaving you a disillusioned disappointed, and bored person.

You are inclined toward some occupation of a mental nature, and you are not temperamentally fitted for any servile position. Real physical labor is very distasteful to you, and you are awkward with your hands. It is probable that you will meet a mate who will attract, conquer and hold your best self and loyalty—but this will not be early in life. (Copyright 1930, by the Bell Syn., Inc.)

"GEMINI."

If June 15th is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 8:30 a.m. to 10 a.m., and from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. The danger periods are from 11 a.m. to noon, and from 8 p.m. to 9 p.m.

A troubled atmosphere is predicted for this date, one through which spiritual enlightenment will penetrate with difficulty. He who conquers self, will conquer the evils of the day, and find the anticipated rest and peace, which a Sunday should bring.

The child born on this June 15th will be inclined to be argumentative and controversial, and will have an independent and pugnacious mentality. It will have a clever, but not a warm or sympathetic nature. It will be witty, and sarcastic.

You are a delightful person to know and a friend to have. You are so refreshingly natural and genuinely sincere that others dare to be the same with you—in this respect you are a haven of comfort and rest. You have the gift of being an understanding silent companion, or you can be an interesting and a satisfying entertainer.

You have a spirit which is able to combat and to beautify the sternest elements in your environment, and because your heart is set upon doing a man's work like a man, you are bound to make your mark in the world. Your spiritual stature is not a short one. Your blind faith, and your self confidence makes you a "I can," and an "I will" person. You have an intense intellectual aspiration, and an unquenchable thirst for knowledge. You will never allow your brain to atrophy or your interests to lag, and your spirits will never grow old. Your horoscope shows you either actively engaged or greatly interested in some religious, humanitarian or philanthropic work. To be of service, and to do good is your destiny. There are very few unkind, unselfish or uncharitable traits to be found in your character. You may, however, be a little tolerant and dogmatic in your religious views. You accept most things in their entirety. (Copyright 1930, by the Bell Syn., Inc.)

THE KIWANIS EXCURSION.

To the Editor of The Examiner:

Dear Mr. Editor,— The Kiwanis are running an excursion to Rochester on June 25th for the very excellent puruose of helping consumptive children. They expect the business man to close his store and take in the trip, thereby making the venture a success. Why, then, don't they close the schools on this day the same as they are closing the stores and make it possible for the business man and his wife to go and take their children with them? The Kiwanis have evidently overlooked the fact that no man is going to keep his children from school at this most important time of the school year, examination time. Nor is he going to leave his home and his children to their own devices.

Have the Kiwanis overlooked this very important factor or is it that they are powerless to offset it?

Yours truly,
L. GREENE.

PETERBOROUGH-LAKEFIELD ROAD

The Editor,
The Examiner, Peterborough.
Dear Sir:

In your paper June 9, under the heading of Treating Roads Dust Nuisance you state that Mr. McFarland claims that the Lakefield Road is now one of the best gravel roads in the Province. In the past two weeks I have travelled over 1500 miles of road both in Ontario and Quebec Province and the worst piece without exception was between Lakefield and Peterborough both as to dust and loose stones, talk about the green country side they should say the white country side as most of the sides of the road, trees, etc. are white with dust. I know that calcium chloride is a splendid dust layer and the more they use the better, but why not encourage the use of same by supplying it at a nominal price to anyone who will place it in front of their property. Last summer I kept in front of my property over 500 feet of road treated at a cost of $25.

Yours truly,
H. B. SIMONS
Prop. Lakeview Hotel, Young's Point.

WORKMEN CHANGE COURSE OF CREEK

Stream in East City Will Be Routed on a Shorter Course to River.

City workmen this morning started the job of changing the course of the creek in East City which crosses Douro Street. R. H. Parsons, city engineer, stated that the object of the work is to change the creek so that it will make a shorter course to the river. A 42-inch cement pipe will be sunk to carry the stream to the outlet at the river. The work was necessary because this creek will be the basis of the storm drains shortly to be laid in East City. No time could be given for the completion of the work, because unforeseen difficulties are sometimes encountered in this sort of work.

International Nickel Breaks Through $26 After Steady Opening.

LEADERS INACTIVE.

TORONTA, June 14. (C.P.)— Prices sank lower in an abbreviated session of dull trading on the Standard Stock and Mining Exchange to-day. There was a tendency to firm about mid-morning with a soft spot before the close. On end there was a firm sprinkling of gains but the leaders and actively traded issues were off.

Noranda went below $26 and showed a loss of around 40 on end. International Nickel was steady early in the session but came down before the close breaking through $26.

Amulet, Granada, Howey, Mining Corporation and Kirkland Lake were off anywhere from 4 to 8c.

There was very little trading in the golds and price changes here were of no consequence.

Acme Oil was the leader in this group with heavy volume and a gain of 6. Home Oil dropped almost to $5 and recovered to around $5.25. Nordon continued soft, dropping 8 and Chemical Research was up 10. Ajax did better.

FINANCIAL NEWS AND BRIEFS

A SPECIAL SERVICE TO THE EXAMINER

The United States Senate will vote on the tariff bills at three o'clock this afternoon and for the present, all eyes are focused on Washington. The general opinion in Wall Street this morning was that the stock market would be comparatively quiet to-day, operations being largely until after this important piece of legislation has been dealt with. Preponderance of opinion in financial circles is that the tariff bills will be passed by the senate.

Burt business formulated, formerly the sales book and forms division of the F. N. Burt, Company, and now part of the Moore Corporation organization, is building a new factory at Mount Dennis, Toronto, suburb which will be completed about July 1. This new structure is of brick and has a floor space of approximately 60,000 square feet. The plant will be equipped with the most modern installation for the production of sales books, shipping tags and manifold forms. The cost of the new building is approximately $200,000. It is understood business of the company's subsidiaries generally this year to date compares favorably with last year. The increase in Canadian business is reported as relatively greater than that in United States business. "Most stocks have run into support at the levels establishec on Wednesday, but this is not a guarantee that the market will not again be tested on the downside by the powerful bearish party," states the Wall Street Mirror. "While some of Wall Street's so-called market experts are advising purchases of stocks on a scale down it is the general feeling that it is still too early to advise purchases, a period of dullness should now be witnessed.

The fact that holders of securities are now beginning to realize that the facts being furnished regarding business were known two and three months ago is rather disconcerting, "The Mirror further states. Another Wall Street writer points out that stocks which had been advanced sharply by pool operations have suffered the most recently and have given the market a somewhat weaker aspect than appears to be the actual fact. After making a comparison between the resistance points of leading stocks as of May 5 and June 12, the result is found encouraging, the average for Thursday being slightly higher than that of May 5. There is, however, a note of warning in the statement that lack of power on the rallies must also be taken into consideration, in a letter to shareholders general motors corporation, President Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., states that in the twelve months ending February 15, 1930, number of holders of General Motors common stock increased 165 per cent. Taking the last quarter of each year, the number of common stock holders in 1917 was 894, in 1928 the number was 48,169 and in 1929 it had increased to 176,693. At the end of the first quarter of 1930, the number of stockholders was 218,392, reflecting an even wider distribution of stock. Splits have placed the stock more within reach of the average investor and this is further emphasized by the fact that the greatest number of shareholders fall within the class of those holding from 1 to 10 shares. "General Motors has always been especially solicitous of stockholders good will," states President Stone". It has been our aim to interest our stockholders in our operations through providing them with intimate facts regarding our business and extending the same frank and courteous treatment to all stockholders, irrespective of the size of their holdings. We therefore, look upon our greatly increased number of stockholders and especially those 100,000 who own ten shares of less, as a most valuable asset and an influence which should greatly contribute towards our growth and prosperity in years to come."

As if the poor investor is not already hopelessly befuddled as to what course of action to pursue, along comes another market letter in whick Col. G. R. Dyer of Dyer, Hudson and Co., sums up some ten reasons according for uncertainty and warranting a bearish attitude. Yet the whole is prefaced by the statement: "To sell investment stocks at these prices seems an unintelligent proposition, to sgo short, equally so: and yet I am afraid we will see materially lower prices for many of our best securities which have not yet shown marked weakness." There is left the middle course of patient waiting until the situation has cleared. Col. Dyer believes foreign conditions disquieting and not conducive to an early resumption of buying. The political situation in the Inited States he plainly states, is "rotten," The Radicals and Democrats never having intended to enact a single constructive measure or so one thing to help the president. "I don't believe that the greatest leader in the world's history could have led these men," he said strong words, perhaps, but not more so than when he comments on the pessimistic utterances of some and the unfavorable comparisons made by statisticians. "This country will not stand still and it is not going backwards in spite of radicals calamity howlers and statisticians. When a patient is recovering though still ill, the doctor and nurses do not show him the chart to prove how very ill he has been. Let the statisticians keep their comparisons to themselves. Let the business man go out and try and get new business and stop crying. Let us all share in the drive to bring back prosperity as soon as possible."

PRICE OF COMMODITIES KEY TO BUSINESS DEPRESSION

Grain Moving Better While Foreign Trade is Picking Up.

METALS HIT HARDEST.

(Special to the Examiner, Copyright 1930).

TORONTO, June 14. —There is no phase of business conditions which is being watched so closely at the present time as the trend of commodity prices. The price of practically all commodities has been working lower for over a year and since last Fall the decline has been proportionately more rapid than in previous months. During the present month of June new lows for the year have been recorded in crude rubber, refined sugar, silver and zinc. Tin, lead and zinc are now selling at the lowest price in eight years and sugar is at the lowest price in its history. Copper has been down to 12c a pound and unless business revives there is still a chance of it going lower.

How Prices have Fallen.

The wholesale index commodity prices in Canada at the end of May was at 89.9 compared with 95.6 in January and 92.4 in May, 1929. The highest point reached last year was 98.1.

Bradstreet's general index of commodity prices in the first five months of this year compared with last were as follows:

	1930	1929
January	11.68	12.97
February	11.51	12.98
March	11.22	13.00*
April	11.18	12.87
May	10.94	12.68

* high for the year.

An idea of the extent to which individual commodities have declined can be obtained from the following table of New York prices on June 4th, compiled by the Financial World of New York.

	1930 June 4th	1929 June 5th
Wheat	$1.05⅜	$1.06¾
Rye	.70¾	.91¼
Flour	6.00	5.80
Coffee	.09	.16¾
Sugar	.045	.05
Iron	19.76	22.26
Steel	31.00	36.00
Lead	.055	.07
Copper	.13	.18
Zinc	.0465	.0665
Tin	.3025	.4362½
Cotton	.1590	.1895
Silk	3.60	4.80
Rubber	.1320	.20
Gasoline	.143	.17

Overproduction to Blame.

Authorities believe that this serious decline in commodity prices is due to over-production rather than to under-consumption. In practically every industry producing commodities a direct cause for present conditions is to be found in this direction except in copper where the curtailment of production has been large, but sales have been small until last month when they reached a level in excess of anything ever reached in the past. The great interest being shown in the trend of commodity prices is therefore due to the fact that statisticians believe they are the key for estimating the length of the present business depression. In other words a definite and permanent upturn in commodity prices would probably have the effect of stimulating business all over the world.

Has Bottom Been Reached.

There are as yet no specific signs that commodities have reached the bottom and the immediate outlook for improvement is not very encouraging. There are, however, hopeful signs and the general opinion of business leaders seems to be that business activity should show signs of revival this fall. In fact it is stated by authorities in the States that this is the opinion of Washington. President Hoover was recently reported to have remarked that it would be "late fall" before "normal" conditions would be restored.

One of the factors considered favorable is that the foreign trade of the United States is expected to increase materially in volume after the first of September. Standard Statistics last week pointed out that foreign financing in the United States showed a decided pick up in March and April and that whereas foreign financing tended to decline last year, it is showing a rising tendency in 1930, which is considered a hopeful augury for foreign trade later in the year.

Car Loadings.

Carloadings in the United States which are usually considered an excellent indicator of the movement of commodities showed a decline up to May 24th this year of approximately 10%. Carloadings in Canada are also down, but it is interesting to note that our chief commodity, grain, is beginning to move. Total loadings of the Canadian National Railways for the week ending June 9th, amounted to 4027 cars, compared with 2817 cars in the same week of 1929, an increase of 1210 cars. Grain carloadings for the nine days ending last year. The turn came in May when in the week ending May 17th the grain loadings exceeded those of the same week last year, for the first time since last October.

Those who are interested in trying to call the upturn in stocks showed keep a constant weather eye on commodity prices and car loadings.

RECENT SLUMP ON EXCHANGE MOST PROLONGED SINCE 1926

Wall Street Drops 16 or 17 Points, Canadian Markets From 5 to 6.

SELLING NOT HEAVY.

By A. D. O'Halloran.
(Special to The Examiner, Copyright 1930.)

TORONTO, June 14 (SNS).—Prices went lower on the Canadian stock markets this week and the decline which set in during the final days of the preceding week was extended into new low ground for the year. Wall Street was behind it all and the decline was the most prolonged since 1926. There have been worse breaks in the past year but the most recent was the longest, although not as severe as its predecessors. On previous occasions all reactions of any length were marked by sharp intermittent rallies and the decline was in waves. This time prices went down continuously, hesitating only briefly until short covering was out of the way and then plunging lower.

Canadian stocks did not suffer to a large extent, the weighted index on the Toronto Stock Exchange only dropping from 5 to 6 points against a loss of 16 or 17 points in the Dow-Jones average of prices on Wall Street. Selling here did not run to large proportions and anything that verged on distress liquidation was entirely absent. Margin calls were unnecessary and the public was not financially concerned with the most recent break. It did, however, tend to lessen confidence.

The reaction came as a surprise to most all. In May the markets struck a new low, not only for the year but since the collapse of last October and November, and this was generally considered the resistance point for the year. It was not expected the list would break through the low of May and the general opinion was that stocks were dragging on bottom and the present a good time for the accumulation of high-grade securities.

A public that was thought to be out of the market was found to have sufficient securities on hand to provide liquidation sufficient to carry prices down rather sharply. It was a case of tired holders letting to and others that bought securities with the intention of holding for a while becoming scared and dumping commitments. The limited buying demand was insufficient to take care of the increased supply and, under the circumstances, the market followed the natural course.

Leading up to the decline was general disappointment over the fact that business conditions had not improved greatly, a further lowering of the level for commodity prices and a short interest that had the courage of its convictions, forgetting the old Wall Street axiom: "Never sell a dull market short," and bringing pressure to bear on a market that was not at all sure of its position.

The action of the Canadian lists was merely a reflection of the big board on Wall Street. Conditions in the Dominion are conceded to be in better shape than across the line, but this state of affairs was lost sight of in the stock market. There is encouragement to be found in the way the Dominion's exchanges acted, however. It was the leaders and the more volatile issues that dropped the most. Generally speaking, the rank and file of Canadian securities did not suffer greatly. Losses of a point or two were numerous but stocks such as International Nickel and Brazilian Traction that were responsible for the decline in the weighted index. Volume, while fairly heavy compared with recent standards, was not alarming and again the heaviest trading was in the interlisted securities and leaders.

Weekly Bond Review.

By J. H. Turnpenny.
(Special to The Examiner. Copyright 1930.)

TORONTO, June 14.—Interest in the bond market this week centered chiefly around the reception accorded the C. N. R. issue of $50,000,000. These bonds which are due 1955 and bear interest at 4¾ per cent, were sold to the public at 99, giving a yield of approximately 4.82 per cent, and were oversubscribed. There is no dearth of money in Canada for legitimate purposes and with interest rates remaining at the present low level the bond market should benefit.

The German International also came out this week, but no definite allotment was made for Canada and it is impossible to ascertain just what portion of the American portion came to this country. The bonds came out at 90 and are now selling at a premium, 90½ to 90¾, showing favorable reception.

The market has been real firm since the C.N.R. flotation. Offerings are scarce and prices steady at or slightly higher than previous levels. Provincials and municipals are favored, and the industrials being more spotty.

FALL WHEAT IN GOOD SHAPE

Poultry Production in County Will Show Big Increase Again This Year.

DEPARTMENT REPORT.

Fall wheat is coming along rapidly and some rye is already out in head in Peterborough County, according to the agricultural report for last week from the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

"Most of the crops are looking very well at the present time," the report reads. "Clover and hay crops have not had quite enough moisture in some sections for maximum growth. Livestock has improved wonderfully in condition since going on grass. Poultry production in the county will show a big increase again this year. The increased purchases of baby chicks are almost entirely by farmers. There are several instances where a farmer bought 200 or 300 chicks last year and 1,000 this year."

ADVERTISE IN THE EXAMINER

PROPOSAL BEING MADE TO DIVIDE ANGLICAN DIOCESE OF TORONTO

Would Make Peterborough the Headquarters of a New Diocese.

NO NEW PROPOSAL.

Proposals to make a division in the present large Diocese of Toronto, recently found expression at a meeting of the rural deanery of Northumberland and Durham, by which a new Anglican diocese would be formed, probably to be known as the Diocese of Peterborough and to include Durham and Northumberland counties, Ontario, Peterborough and Haliburton territories.

The mater was also brought forward at the recent meeting of the Ruri-Decanal Chapter of Peterboro, which was held at St. Georges Church, in a paper presented by Rev. Morris Kingsford of Gore's Landing and while no resolutions were carried ,it was the unanimous opinion of the meeting, it is understood, that the question is one deserving of careful consideration as the Diocese of Toronto, the largest in the Dominion has grown to such an extent as to make a division desirable.

Not a New Proposal.

From information gathered by the Examiner, it would seem that the matter is not causing much concern in local and district ecclesiastical circles. It is in fact, not a new proposal. Similar changes were being spoken of at the time of the ministry of Rev. J. W. R. Beck., M. A., who was rector of St. John's Anglican Church from 1856 until shortly before his death in 1889 and again during the incumbency of Venerable Archdeacon Davidson, M. A.

The prime advocator of a division at the present time woud appear to be Rev. Morris Kingsford a member of the Ruri-Decanal Chapter of Northumberland and Durham, who was at one time curate of St. John's Church before going to England where he was vicar of a parish for four years afterwards returning to Canada to take up the incumbency of his present church at Gore's Landing.

After presenting his paper on the subject at the Ruri-Decanal meeting in this city, he was authorised to publish it in pamphlet form if Durham and Northumberland acquiesed, which they apparently have done.

The Right Reverend James Fielding Sweeny, M. A., D. D., D. C. L., L.L.D., Bishop of Toronto, is opposed to a division and has expressed his disapproval.

In an interview with the Examiner, Rev. R. C. Blagrave, D. D., vicar of St. John's Church, said, "It should not be looked on as an impossibility, but as a probability at some future date."

The Provincial Synod has jurisdiction over Diocesan boundaries and at the present time there is a commission working on the question of such boundaries.

Diocese Much Too Large.

The general feeling here is that the diocese is much too large for one Bishop. It is the largest in the Dominion, having approximately 360 clergy. The average number of clergy in an Anglican diocese is 150, while in Niagara and Ottawa dioceses the number is below 100.

Asked what would be the probable sequel to the publication of Rev. Morris Kingsford's pamphlet, Rev. Dr Blagrave said that the matter would probably have to come before the Synod of the Diocese of Toronto and at the request of the Bishop and clergy would have to go to the Provincial Synod Diocesan Boundary Commission and also ways and means would have to be provided to carry the proposals to fruition.

Rev. G. J. Bousfield, B. A., rector of St. Luke's Church also interviewed by the Examiner said, "We have the largest Diocese in the Dominion of Canada in number of parishes and clergy. The city of Toronto itself could almost make a diocese." He also concurred that the clergy and laity of the diocese are almost unanimous in their desire for a division, on these grounds.

Approached on the matter, Rev. J. D. Paterson, rector of All Saints' Church declared that he is not interested in the matter and did not wish to make any statement.

ARTICLE XLV.

Q.—How does the personal element in the management of Industrial corporations compare with that of Railroads or Public Utilities?

A.—The personal element must be considered more in the case of industrial corporations than in the case of railroads and public utilities. Changes are continually taking place—new methods being adopted and new machinery being added. New executives are being formed and the success or failure of the company rests with the ability or lack of ability of the management. The destiny of a corporation is often in the hands of one man, and the personal element is often the dominating factor.

The management of public utilities in Canada at least, usually consists of a commission elected by the people. Their destiny does not depend upon one man. And the judgments of such a commission are always carefully weighted and considered before any action is taken. The personal element does not exactly mean success or failure as in the case of an industrial.

Of the two large railway companies in Canada, one is under government control and the other quite independent of it. When a railroad is controlled by a government the personal element is not a dominating factor. Of course this is different under private ownership.

In the United States the Interstate Public Service Commission acts as a check on public utilities and on railroad management.

the pact, Mr. Hoover said the opposition to these is based upon "a very small part of the fleet."

These assertions were contained in a statement issued by the President late yesterday. It was the second defence of the Treaty to come from the administration in twenty-four hours. Secretary Stimson on Thursday night delivered a radio address appealing for prompt ratification.

"The real issue in the Treaty," Mr. Hoover said, "is whether we shall stop competitive naval building with all the destruction and dangers to international goodwill which continuation on these courses implies, whether we shall spend an enormous sum in such a race to catch up with competitors, with no assurance that we will reach parity and proportionate strength even with such an expenditure, and whether the present agreement gives us a substantial parity and proportionate strength and therefore with our army absolute defensive power, and accomplishes this by an agreement which makes for goodwill, for decrease in the naval renewals and cruiser construction at a cost far less than would otherwise be required.

Immediate Battleship Parity.

He pointed out that the Treaty provides for "parity of our battleship fleets almost at once instead of ten years hence." This, he said, will be accomplished without building a single new ship.

"Against the greatest battleship saving," he continued, "our cruiser program increases from 300,000 tons to 320,000 tons. The point at issue in the cruiser program is whether or not we should have 30,000 tons more of cruisers with eight-inch guns advocated by the Navy General Board of 38,500 tons with six-inch guns provided by this Treaty. Upon the merits or demerits of these alternatives as to this very small part of the fleet of about 1,125,000 tons. our naval advisors are sharply divided."

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee, which has the Treaty under consideration, was in recess to-day for the week-end.

HAWLEY-SMOOT TARIFF BILL HAS LITTLE EFFECT ON CURB

Liquidation on Smaller Scale Continues on Wall Street.

TRADING DULL.

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 14—(C.P.)—Although urgent liquidation appeared to have been completed, the stock market ended the week in a bearish frame of mind today, unaided by the passage of the Hawley-Smoot tariff measure in the senate.

The stock market took little notice of the passage of the tariff measure in 1922, and was not bolstered by prophecies of business recovery resulting from the new measure. In fact, some professional traders hastened to make bear capital of the new measure.

Trading was extremely dull until the last half hour, when selling became active.

The oil shares displayed a relatively steadier tone than other parts of the list.

International Telephone was a soft spot, tumbling 5 points to a record low for the present shares. In the coppers, Aanaconda sold off 2 points to the lowest price since 1926, and American Smelting and Phelps Dodge reached new lows for the year or longer.

Shares losing 2 to 5 points included such issues as U. S. Steel, American Telephone, Johns Manville, Westinghouse Electric, Public Service of New Jersey, and Macy, American Tobacco "B", American Water Works, Worthington Pump and Case dropped about 6 to 10 points.

Several investment rails reached new lows for the year including Atchison, Chesapeake and Ohio and Illinois Central.

The closing tone was weak. Total sales were 1,255,710 shares.

AFFECTIONATELY, he's known as the Old Man. But he's still young in spirit and gets just as much delight in a smart, well-selected gift as the next fellow — probably more.

FATHER'S DAY FIRST STARTED IN YEAR 1910

Owes Its Origin to Mrs. John Bryce Dodds, of Spokane, Washington.

CARE IS HEAVY.

Father as Richly Deserves the Praise As Mother.

Late to bed and early to rise makes pop grey on the temples, and gives the family the impression at times that he is a permanent grouch. All father has to do is to keep the wolf from the door—that's all. While the poets sing the praises of mother, which she richly deserves, the praises of father, just as richly deserved, often go unsung. While the gay spirits of the family trip their merry young way, sometimes pop does a little plodding. It isn't all easy sailing to dad. And the family is not permitted to know all about it—if dad does grouse sometimes, it removes only a small portion of the burden of care that is borne patiently year after year by many a hard working parent.

Father's Day was started as the result of a daughter's love for her dead father. Father's Day owes its origin to the affection of Mrs. John Bryce Dodd of Spokane, Washington, for her own father, William J. Smart, Civil War veteran, who had reared his motherless children alone. The first year that Father's Day was celebrated was in 1910, since that time through its warm appeal, it has found an answering response in the hearts of people the world over. The day is usually celebrated by the giving of gifts to the head of the house, and by special gatherings in his honor.

In many communities theatres give special attention to Father's Day, and this year the radio audiences will hear words in his honor. In several cities of the United States special civic proclamations have been issued to set apart the third Sunday in June as Father's Day. In addition, merchants all over the country unite in special displays featuring Father's Day and its greeting to dads, they show special goods which are offered as exceptionally suitable for gifts for the occasion.

GIVE DAD A TIE FOR HIS BIG DAY

Neckwear Manufacturers Have Been Hard at Work Turning Out Orders.

HEAVY RUSHES

Canadian neckwear manufacturers have been hard at work turning out large orders of ties specially for Father's Day. Many of them record heavy rushes for their merchandise by city merchants in anticipation of unprecedented demand on Saturday. It has become a tradition to give father a necktie on Father's day, it has become a catch phrase all over America—"Give dad a tie for Father's Day"—and it is confidently expected that the demand of last year will be exceeded this year.

Father's Day purchases are not limited to just ties, however, according to one merchant in this city. It is mother and the children who are the principal purchasers, and their demand runs into varied lines. Shirts are purchased, as well as hose, garters, and suspenders. It is a case of find out what dad needs most and let's get him that from all sides. This is the practical feature to Father's Day that loosens the purse strings. The money, in the eyes of mother and the children, is not spent on frivolous and unnecessary things, but on things that father wears and needs every day; so that again this year's merchants are looking toward Saturday's business to be one of the biggest in the year.

Father

By HENRY GILLEN.

O we take such things for granted,
All the care and clothes and food,
And we lavish our affection
On the mother of the brood.
And we seldom think a moment
Of the soldier of the guard
Who is daily fighting battles
For the hearth and home and yard.

He is chief of commissary
For he keeps the larder filled
And the captain of entrenchments
When the garden must be tilled,
And the lonely sentry pacing
When the stars are in the sky
For he has to stride the carpet
When a baby wants to cry.

With the twilight comes no respite,
Still the battle is intense,
For he must repair a loophole
In the little picket fence,
And on holidays of resting
O he never will complain
If he's asked to hang the screen-door
For the summer fly campaign.

Now he never gets a medal,
A citation or reward,
And the only thing he boasts of
Is his little growing squad;
If they're happy he is happy,
But if shadows ever fall
You will find him there afighting
With his back against the wall.

O we take such things for granted,
All the care and clothes and food,
And we lavish our affection
On the mother of the brood,
And we seldom think a moment
Of the soldier of the guard
Who is daily fighting battles
For the hearth and home and yard.

WINNIPEG GRAIN.

WINNIPEG, June 14. — Traders in wheat on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange spurned the golden goddess of the West yesterday and she sank still lower in her gloom. Values, which dropped two cents on Thursday, when nobody cared, sank as much as three cents more on yesterday's market, when apathy became even more marked. All three futures were even-up on the losses.

Rains throughout the West were not the cause of the decline, though they may have contributed. Offerings of new wheat at Chicago pushed down the market there, and the attitude of Chicagoans was believed to have caused the break at Winnipeg. Local trading was in heavy volume.

Cash interest in wheat and coarse grains was small and business in these commodities was proportionately light.

TORONTO PRODUCE

TORONTO, June 14.—Trading and prices on the local butter market were very poor this week, and dealers' quotations were the lowest in years. Shippers were quoted 28c for Ontario No. 1 and 27c for No. 2 yesterday, which was a drop of ½c during the week. But trading was dull from the first of the week until the end of the week. Buyers were still well stocked with supplies purchased for the convention, and did not respond to the low market. Retailers were offered No. 1 at 32c, and No. 2 at 30c.

Cream

Churning-cream prices reached a new low level during the week, when shippers were quoted 28 to 29c for special, 27c to 28c for No. 1, and 24c to 25c for No. 2, f.o.b. country points. This was the second drop of 1c in a little over a week.

Cheese

The cheese market also weakened during convention week, and shippers were quoted ½c less on all grades. New, large, was down to 16½c; new twins, 16¾c; and new triplets 17c. Retailers were offered supplies for less money, also. They were quoted 18¼c for new, large; 18½c for new twins, and 18¾c for new triplets. Old cheese prices were unchanged.

Eggs

Egg production was reported yesterday as "falling off," but this will just be sufficient to maintain the present price level, as trading has been dull. The convention was responsible for shippers being offered steady prices all week; but, with the Shriners gone, lower production will just meet the situation nicely. Shippers were quoted 28c for extras, 26c for firsts, and 23c for seconds, ungraded, delivered, cases returned. Retailers were quoted steady prices at 35c for extras, in cartons; 33c for extras, loose; 31c for firsts, loose; and 28c for seconds, loose. Brokers' prices were easier toward the end of the week, at 30c to 30½c for extras, 28c to 28½c for firsts, and 25c to 25½c for seconds, graded, free cases. Some dealers were reported as having purchased Western eggs, graded at 31c for extras, 29c for firsts, and 26c for seconds, delivery this month.

General Conditions

Looking over the Canadian situation, we find that the declining production of eggs is reported from every Canadian Province, with the exception of Prince Edward Island. This Province is always one of the latest to come into production in the spring and experiences, perhaps the latest spring production. Even in Prince Edward Island, however, receipts are now at the peak. In spite of the falling off in receipts, however total production appears still to be somewhat in excess of the demand, and a weaker market has again been in evidence at a number of points during the past week.

Consumptive demand continues to hold up exceptionally well, but the cessation of buying for storage appears to have been fairly permanent and with storage buyers still staying out of the market the present weakness is almost inevitable until conditions of supply are about adjusted to consumptive demand.

Potatoes

The potato market held firm all week, with New Brunswicks quoted by wholesalers at $2.10 in bulk, and $2.20 in bags; Prince Edward Island cobblers, at $2.10, and Mountains, at $2.35. Ontario potatoes—a few arriving by trucks—dropped to $1.75 a bag at the end of the week.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, June 14.—Unsettled by drought-breaking in Canada and by auspicious harvest conditions in this country, all grain values smashed downward yesterday. Wheat, rye and oats outdid the season's low-price records, wheat coming within ½c of touching a dollar-per-bushel level. Contributing to the weakness of grain was selling ascribed to stock market houses and resulting apparently from recent declines in prices for securities and for commodities as well.

MISSING MAN FOUND

WINDSOR, Ont., June 14—Laurist Dion walked into Sandwich Police Station last evening and so prove a police theory of his suicide as being without foundation. Yesterday a suitcase and hat were found in a former beer warehouse at the edge of the river. A note written, in French, said: "S.V.P., give me another chance before I starve to death."

THEATRE NEWS

EXTRAS BRUTAL SEEKING WORK

Mob Scene When Studios Call For Extra Players.

ARE TRAMPLED ON.

NEW YORK, June 14.—Picture extras make the most bloodthirsty primitive mob in the world.

This is what legitimate actors who have been caught in a picture mob have to say about it. There is nothing that could be experienced in "darkest Russia" that one can't go through if caught in a group of picture actors seeking work at a studio. Such are the fierce conclusions of legit players who, finding work scarce on Broadway, have answered studio calls.

Picture extras, they say, are not performers, but brutes. They scrap for a chance to get into the studio. It seems to be their idea that one must fight for a part. It is not enough for them to be told there is nothing doing. They think that if one only stays and tramples the other fellow down or shoves him out of view, something will turn up for the survivor.

People are actually knocked down and walked on and the general idea is, if possible, to keep the other fellow from getting in at all even if there is no chance for oneself, legits have been led to believe from observations.

The women extras are the worst of the bunch, it is claimed.

ROGERS SCORES AGAIN.

"So This is London" a Comedy Hit.

After the fund of refreshing fun in Will Rogers's comedy, "So This Is London," based on George M. Cohan's stage production, it causes one to look forward with great pleasure to seeing this versatile comedian in his forthcoming productions, especially as one of them will be an audible picturization of Mark Twain's story, "A Connecticut Yankee at the Court of King Arthur." The other vehicle will be one entitled "See America First."

No funnier finish has ever been given to a film than that of this picture. It is an idea that caused the spectators to rock in their seats with laughter, for after having beheld a discussion as to where the American's son and the nobleman's daughter are to be married, the man from Texas and the man from Mayfair are seen and, what is most important, heard, singing to the same tune, "My Country, 'Tis of Thee" and "God Save the King" with such lines as "Land of my father's pride" and "Frustrate their knavish tricks" issuing forth simultaneously from the enthusiastic patriots.

TECHNICOLOR BUSY.

New Contracts Refused Because of Rush.

HOLLYWOOD, June 14.—Congestion in its release print department has caused Technicolor to refuse any new contracts for color work until it can catch up on its schedule.

Some employees in the camera department have been laid off, and the printing department personnel has been increased.

Several companies planning Technicolor films at the beginning of the current year's production have postponed the color pictures until later.

Technicolor explains the congestion as due to heavier demands for prints per picture than anticipated. Studios originally planned 100 prints for each negative, but not since technicolor has been used has any company ordered less than 300, according to Andy Callahan, in charge here.

THE GISH VOICE A CHARM ASSET

Lillian Gish Pleases in Her First Talking Film.

ON STAGE ALSO.

Lillian Gish's acting in her first talking film, "One Romantic Night," a versoni of Molnar's play, "The Swan," is all the more impressive for her being heard. As in the case of other screen players with pleasing voices, audibility is a boon to Miss Gish, for it assists materially in the quality of the acting. There is more life to her work and it helps her to avoid those mannerisms that were particularly in evidence in her later silent films.

Speech in screen offerings often makes for less sameness in the work of the players and so results in a wider difference in characterization than was usually possible on the silent screen. Miss Gish, for instance, was really always Miss Gish under another name in most of her mute films. In this her first venture before the microphone, however, there is infinitely more charm and variety to her acting than in her best work in mere pantomimic roles.

It is interesting and unusual to note that while Miss Gish's shadow is performing in this transcription of Molnar's romantic comedy, she is to be seen in person at the Cort in Chekhov's "Uncle Vanya." It is rare indeed that a screen player is to be seen on the stage and the screen

ANOTHER FOR POWELL.

Paramount Buys "The Scarab Murder."

LOS ANGELES, June 14.—William Powell departed for London to visit his pal, Ronald Colman, in a satisfied state of mind. S. S. Van Dine, whose mystery thrillers have put Bill right among the big time names, has just put on the market a new novel called "The Scarab Murder." The ink wasn't dry before Paramount purchased it for their Philo Vance.

Another literary purchase by Paramount is "Brook Evan", chosen to star Ruth Chatterton. Ruth who has been recuperating at Malibu from her recent illness, is making tests for the Susan Glaspell novel which becomes "The Right to Love."

Dorothy Arzner, who emerged from the "Just So and So" class of directors, to one of the first class ones with her work on "Sarah and Son," again will direct Miss Chatterton. To Miss Arzner belong the distinction of being one of the very few women directors in the business.

MAUDE LIKES TALKIES.

Vastly Superior to Silent Film, He Says.

Given the choice of returning to the stage or of continuing in talking motion pictures, Cyril Maude, veteran English actor, would accept the latter course.

Mr. Maude, who has reached his sixty-eighth year and has spent more than forty years on the stage, returned last week to New York from Hollywood, where he has been acting in a talking version of "Grumpy", his most popular play. He said that he was completely converted to the audible film.

Since his retirement from the stage four years ago, Mr. Maude said he had hesitated before consenting to attempt appearing in a vocalized picture. Now, he is an enthusiastic admirer of all that pertains to the production of such films.

"The talking film," he remarked, "is vastly superior to the silent film."

NO BOOST FOR BUDDY

Of Buddy Rogers in "Safety in Numbers" a reviewer says: "Charles Rogers may be good-looking and young, but as an actor he is one of those who might have been far better off had the microphone not been linked with the camera. It is true that he sings in a sort of fashion, but he does not appear to give much thought to the speaking of his lines, or, if he does, it is lost effort, for he seldom seems to mean what he is saying.

It is an unedifying picture through out its many scenes, and Mr. Rogers' acting does not benefit by contrast with that of some of the other players, especially Richard Tucker, who does all that is possible with his role.

AMOS AND ANDY NOT IN FOLLIES

Fear of Possible Entanglements With Ziegfield Girls. AFFECT AIR WORK.

It has been definitely decided by N.B.C. that Amos 'n' Andy will not be placed with Flo Ziegfeld for "Follies." National Broadcasting Company at first favored the idea because of the prestige attached, but all negotiations are now cold.

Inside reports have it that N.B.C. put thumbs down on the Ziegfeld offer because the Ziegfeld girls always make good newspaper copy and it was feared that in some manner or other the name of either one of the backface duo might be mentioned in connection with a Ziegfeld girl in a story which might not look so good in print.

It was feared that if anything like that did happen, it would hurt the reputations which it took so long for them to build up.

After Amos 'n' Andy complete work on their picture, which will be during the late summer or early fall, they will again be booked with Par-Publix. Latter organization, which paid the ether "names" $8,000 weekly when they last played Par-Publix theatres, has an offer placed with Ed. Scheuing of the Artists Bureau for $12,000 weekly for the team.

BENNETT MAKES PROMISE TO AID

social and economic reforms, in developing our great resources, in enlarging and strengthening the whole scheme of transportation, in stabilizing trade conditions, in increasing the home market for our own products, and in creating a great and enduring foreign one.

St. Lawrence Waterway

"I told you what I would do to develop the St. Lawrence Waterway, to complete the Hudson's Bay route, and to provide a Peace River outlet to the Pacific slope. I told you what I would do to increase the harbor and storage facilities at ports on the Atlantic and Pacific. I promised to aid in the building of national highways. All these are works in which the nation as a whole will benefit, and they will all be carried out.

"I said last night that I will call Parliament together at the earliest possibe date, after July 28. When it meets, I will present to it a program for immediate relief of unemployment, based upon the instant prosecution of such part of our counstructive plan as will most effectively and speedily ensure the fulfilment of my pledge; an end to unemployment and work for all.

"Unemployment has now become a national matter" Mr. Bennett continued. It was desirous to develop the St. Lawrence waterway, the Hudson Bay port, Peace River outlet and a national highway, he observed, all of which would benefit Canada. He would present a plan the Dominion Leader proceeded, of construction as would provide work for all who were willing to work.

"Cowardly and false" were the terms applied by Mr. Bennett to any rumor that he favored the amalgamation of the publicly owned Canadian National Railways and the privately owned Canadian Pacific Railway. "So when any one makes mention of such rumors, you can brand it as a cowardly lie" he asserted.

Canvass Viewed as "Offensive"

"The Government" the speaker proceeded, "would have some people believe that if it had not been for Mr. King this country would be in a sort of subordination to Great Britain." He went on: "Is it not offensive that this sort of canvass should prevail?"

ADVERTISE IN THE EXAMINER

BEAUTIFUL MEMORIAL WINDOW DEDICATED AT GROVE SCHOOL TO BOYS WHO DIED OVERSEAS

Closing Exercises of Lakefield Preparatory School Are Held.

COLORFUL SCENES.

Rev. Dr. A. W. Mackenzie Dedicates the Beautiful Window.

LAKEFIELD, June 14 By Staff Reporter).—Closing exercises at Lakefield Preparatory School, held on Friday afternoon, which constitues one of the most outstanding events of the season, in this district, were favored with ideal weather, with the consequence that an unusually large gathering of parents of pupils and friends of the school foregathered for the occasion. The spacious lawns in the school grounds provided the stage for the major portion of the proceedings, namely the prize distribution which followed immediately after a shortened form of Evensong in the beautiful little chapel, wherein the boys worship each morning during the school term.

Colorful Scene

A kaleidoscope of color, which harmonized and blended perfectly with the natural surroundings was lent by the "summery" attire of the many ladies present and by the green blazers embroidered with the school crest in red, which were worn by many of the pupils, of the "school on the hill." The proceedings which commenced at two o'clock, were not at all protracted, although in dispensing with the closing exercises with the minimum amount of time, on account of the fact that many of those present had to leave on the afternoon train, the function lost nothing of its dignity or impressiveness.

Rev. F. J. Moore of Toronto preached the sermon at the service in the chapel which was filled to capacity. "Use a thing or you lose it," was the theme of his discourse, delivered in a forceful and sympathetic manner, during which he impressed upon the pupils, particularly those whose last term it was, the value of their school training, urging them to keep up good reading and also the habits of worship.

Memorial Window Dedicated

During the service a beautiful and appropriate stained glass memorial window, was dedicated by Rev. Dr. A. W. Mackenzie, Principal of the school, to the memory of the Old Boys of Lakefield Preparatory School, who paid the supreme sacrifice in the Great War. The window, the design of which depicts an angel hovering over the form of a soldier and underneath which is inscribed, "To you from falling hands we throw the torch, be yours to hold it high," is placed immediately above the memorial tablet on the east side of the chancel—the tablet which bears the roll of honor and which was dedicated in 1924, having been placed in the chapel as also is the window, by the Ladies' Guild of Grove School.

Roll of Honor

Both memorials perpetuate the memory of the following Old Boys of the school, who are numbered among the heroic legion of the dead:

FRED ANDERSON,
DERIC BROUGHALL,
WILLIAM CAREY,
ESMONDE CLARKE,
VINCENT CROMBIE,
KEITH CUMBERLAND,

ALASTAIR McGILLIVRAY,
WILLIAM MORRIS,
CHILTON MEWBURN,
NORMAN NELLES,
GEORGE RENFREW,
GEORGE STRICKLAND,
HUBERT STUART,
JOHN SYDNEY-SMITH
MARSDEN VAN ALLEN.

Prior to the distribution of prizes at which he was assisted by Mrs. R. F. Massey, secretary of the Ladies' Guild, Rev. Dr. Mackenzie assured the gathering that it gave him great pleasure to meet old friends of the school year after year. Speaking to the parents in particular he said he wished to thank them all for the co-operation they have given the school in the past. He declared that on such co-operation with the staff, who have the care of their boys, depends the progress of the pupils. "You have done your share and the school is immensely helped."

Rev. W. J. Creighton, M.A., rector of St. John's Church, Lakefield, was numbered among the many friends of the school who were present at yesterday's function.

After the distribution of prizes the guests were served with refreshments, after which the boys said "good-bye" to Rev. and Mrs. Mackenzie, their teachers and friends. To some it was a temporary leave-taking until the school shall re-open in September, while to many others it was the crossing of the threshold into a larger sphere of life, in the company of the ever-growing band of Old Boys of the school who can look back with pride and affection to their schooldays at "The Grove," under the wise and kindly guidance of their headmaster and his staff and the gracious chatelaine of the school, Mrs. Mackenzie.

feel scared, either, while his brother was with him.

Dived Into Water

"Some men in a canoe were coming along and we thought that they would scold us. There was a sign saying "Private property," the youngest brother stated. "Bunny said he would swim in. We were away out then. He dived in and I was going to too."

A shout from Teddie stopped young Dick and probably saved his life, for he was picked up by the canoeist and taken ashore. "I called out and he stopped where he was," Teddie said. "He can't swim at all so he had to watch everything from the beech.

"Bunny was swimming for nearly three minutes or so. Then came a big wave and pushed him under. He came up more than six times after that, but then he didn't come up at all."

Life-savers and police were notified by the canoeist when he saw that the child was missing. Officer Robinson and a crew came from John Street and dragged for about 10 minutes before locating the body.

Opening of Gary Cooper's dude ranch is set for June 15. Location is Gary, Mont., with the town renamed from Lemshine.

Resigned As President

The resignation of Mr. Lancaster who was president for three years was accepted on motion by E. C. Squire, seconded by Isaac Barlow.

"Mr. Lancaster had a hard fight in the October elections" Mr. Squire said, "but by his pluck he won out and put Peterborough county again in the Conservative ranks. I think those who opposed him are now as dead as a door nail. If Mr. Lancaster carries on as he has started out, I don't think you'll find a Grit in the county to oppose him."

Mr. Elliott, reported a small credit balance in the treasury.

Dr. A. T. Embury

Dr. Embury said he was always happy to visit the Peterborough section of his riding.

"The indications in this election are even brighter than ever in the constituency of Hastings-Peterborough, and I predict that the Conservative candidate will roll up a larger majority than ever before in Hastings county. The organization is complete and the second reason is that the Province of Ontario owes nothing to Mackenzie King. He has paid no attention whatever to the interests of Ontario. His policy has been to stay in power with the half of the west and Quebec. But there has come a change with hard times. It has not yet sunk into the minds of the people of Ontario that there is likely to be a change of government. In well informed circles the absolute opinion is that the government will certainly be changed and we have no reason to doubt that."

T. H. Stinson

After eulogising Hon. R. B. Bennett as leader of the Conservative party in Canada, Mr. Stinson said that in the past the western farmers were told that the policy of protection meant only the taking of money out of their pockets. This idea also affected many farmers in the east. They were told that they had to sell their produce in world markets, and they should buy their necessities in that same market. They have, however, come to realize the fallacy of that idea. The experience of the dairy industry and producers of fruit, eggs and poultry has proved it more conclusively than ever. The importance of our home market was brought out under the Australian treaty of 1925 which admitted butter at a duty of one cent a pound. Under that agreement forty millions of pounds of butter were imported from Australia last year. That butter should have been produced here.

Canada received nothing in return, Mr. Stinson said, in so far as the farm industry was concerned. That home market in butter was lost and the effects of it were felt all over the country. The idea of free trade was virtually gone for all time, Mr. Stinson remarked, quoting a recent speech by Stanley Baldwin. Tariff tinkering by Liberals had seriously injured industry especially in the eastern manufactories.

"You have not only the right policy and the right leader but you have the right candidate in Mr. Peck for Peterborough. He is one hundred per cent. genuine. His life has been an open book to you all, and I know as one whose room is close to his at Ottawa, that he is always looking after the interests of his home people."

Mr. Stinson said the preferential section of the Dunning budget was an empty gesture.

"Mr. Dunning says that $200,000,000 worth of goods imported from the United States will be obtained from British markets. A glance at that list shows that not $10,000,000 worth of articles on the whole list will come from Great Britain."

Mr. Stinson read fom the list some of the items such as animals, live hogs, fresh meats, tallow, hay, straw, wheat, rye, potatoes, cider and so on.

"What animals do we import from Britain" Mr. Stinson queried. "We don't import any. And as for hogs and fresh meat we should be thinking of exporting these goods. As for cider, we ship millions of barrels of apples, and yet they talk of buying cirder from the old country. But that is what we find in the British preferential list the King government proposed. The whole thing is only a great gesture. It could only go so far because of protectionist Quebec whose boot and shoe industry and textile factories have been hard hit under the King government."

Mr. Stinson said that the Conservatives in Ontario were aiming at winning 70 of the 82 seats in this province.

E. A. Peck, M.P.

Mr. Peck referred in his speech to a criticism by a Peterborough man that the Hon. Mr. Bennett was not so interested in Britain and the Empire as he should be.

"That emanates from a gentleman who once stood high in the councils of the Conservative party in Peterborough and because of that former standing I think I should say something about it here" Mr. Peck continued. "There is no one so desirous of maintaining our British connection and Empire relations than Mr. Bennett. "But he is a practical man, and he realises that a mere gesture is not sufficient. He agrees that a conference is necessary with a view of cementing trade relations between Canada and Great Britain and the other dominions of the Empire."

Mr. Peck then quoted from Mr. Bennett's speech of May 6th on the Dunning budget as follows:—"In order that there may be no misunderstanding as to our position with respect to British preference I wish to say the following: As an earnest of our affection and goodwill, as an expression of the hope we all have that some day a closer economic alliance of Empire states may find being, I commend the measures for British preference which the Minister proposes."

"How can any one say" Mr. Peck concluded, "that Mr. Bennet is opposed to building up British preference and trade between all parts of the Empire?"

T. P. Lancaster, M.P.P.

Mr. Lancaster recalled with pride the achievement of the Conservative party in Peterborough county in their victory last October, and thanked all those who had assisted in that election, Peterborough county would eventually get somewhere as a constituency supporting the Ferguson government, he said.

"We have already received $8,000 from the government to be spent on the main Burleigh road, and in the years to come we'll continue to receive that treatment. The front townships have received an increased grant of ten percent. on their roads. If the gods are good Peterborough county will have no regrets for having expressed by their votes of confidence in the Ferguson government. I ask our various executives to get out and work for their respective candidates in our two ridings."

J. F. Strickland, M.P.P

Mr. Strickland spoke briefly, especially warning the party not to be lulled by over-confidence in a feeling of security. He said there was danger in such a disposition, that was likely to cause carelessness and a relaxation of effort.

BRINGS THE WORLD TO YOUR DOOR

They Thought it Would Never Happen

A FLYING EMBER from a nearby burning house set their roof ablaze. Just a cruel prank of the wind and in a twinkling Fire, the Destroyer, had taken an unshakeable grip.

No matter how careful you are to safeguard your home from the inside it will not help you when your inflammable roof is threatened by a nearby fire. Turn that over in your mind NOW, when there is still opportunity to rid yourself of the old-fashioned fire-inviting roof.

Brantford Asphalt Slates give positive protection against sparks and wind-blown embers. They reduce insurance premiums and protect your house and family against the ever-present fire hazard.

Brantford Roofing designs are renowned for their colour harmonies and handsome appearance. Their beauty adds immeasurably to the value of your home.

Permanent resistance to the weather under the most varying climatic conditions is another famous feature. Brantford Asphalt Slates will not peel, warp, shrink or bulge, and give years of hardy service.

For summer or town homes—for schools, churches and public buildings, Brantford Roofs are equally desirable—not only for security but also for economy and easy application.

ARTICLES OF INTEREST TO THE FARMER

MANY HOLSTEIN FIELD DAYS ARE SET FOR JUNE

Breedsr From Peterborough County Invited to Event at Lindsay June 16.

ON W. J. MURPHY FARM.

Outcome of Venture New in Livestock Circles Watched With Interest.

Arrangements have just been made for a series of Holstein Breeders' Field Days to be held at important centres throughout Ontario and Quebec during the month of June and with a view to making them more successful, and the attendance larger, several counties in various parts of the country are uniting their forces in holding one rather than several events of a similar nature. The outcome of this venture, something new in live stock circles, is being watched with interest, although the general impression among the breeders is that the scheme has many decided advantages. In the first place the service available from public institutions, organizations, clubs, etc., will offer improved facilities for carrying on the work, while secondly, the intermingling of people from the more extended areas will serve materially to bring together a wider range of thought and problems covering the breeding, feeding and development of live stock.

The experiment is being tried out by the Extension Service in Eastern Ontario and Quebec this year and if it proves successful there, the policy will be to include all Canada in a cross country series in 1931.

Already plans have been laid for four field days in Eastern Ontario and three in Quebec. The largest one of the group takes place at the Experimental Farm, Ottawa, on Tuesday, June 17th, with twelve counties co-operating, and it gives promise of being very largely attended, agricultural representatives, government officials and breed interests working in unison to provide a program that will please and attract.

The other places on the schedule include Lindsay in Victoria County on Wednesday, June 16th, Kingston in Frontenac County Wednesday, June 18th, Bloomfield in Prince Edward County, Thursday, June 19th and Lennoxville, Que., on Wednesday, June 25th. The date for Vaudreuil and L'Assomption will be arranged to fit in with Lennoxville and will be announced later.

The Field Day in Victoria County on June 16th will be held at the farm of Wm. J. Murphy near Lindsay and to this event the breeders from Peterborough County west to Toronto have been invited. The one at Bloomfield is being supported by the Counties of Northumberland, Hastings, Prince Edward, Lennox and Addington, while the other taking place at Hemlock Park Farms, the large breeding establishment of Col. A. H. Fair, Kingston, will be sponsored by the breeders of Frontenac and Leeds.

The programs for each will be practically the same—an hour devoted to short addresses on breeding, feeding and judging followed by sports and social intercourse. The talks to be delivered by prominent men in the live stock field will follow the noon day lunch at each place, and in the case of the one on judging, animals drafted from various herds in the district will be used for demonstration purposes.

Horsetail Menace To Farm Animals

Horsetail, a weed familiar throughout Canada, is a menace to horses and other farm animals because of its poisonous properties. The Botanist of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, calling attention to the harmful effect of this weed on horses, cattle, sheep and sometimes pigs, points out that the presence of the weed in fields is usually an indication of the need of drainage. In cases where the weed is found steps should be taken for its complete eradication through proper drainage and adequate soil cleaning by a thorough system of crop rotation.

O.A.C. TO STAGE FARMERS' WEEK

Guides Provided to Conduct Both Men and Women Over Institution.

BRING BASKET LUNCHES.

Next week will be farmers' week at the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph. The college will be at home to farmers from all parts of the Province during the first four days of the week.

Programs designed to interest both men and women have been arranged. Visitors are advised to arrive early in order to see the big institition. The forenoons may be spent looking about the lawns and gardens or going over the exhibits in the buildings of the science departments.

After lunch, the men will be enabled to go in charge of a guide to spend an hour or two looking over the crop experiment plots and the livestock, after which they will be at liberty to visit other departments as they see fit. Guides will be provided also to conduct the women to Macdonald Institute after lunch. They will be shown through the home economics classrooms, laboratories and kitchens and will then be at liberty to visit the poultry houses, dairy, apiary and the gardens at leisure.

At four o'clock the campus will be available to young and old for baseball games, horse-shoe pitching and other sports.

In a comfortable airy room near the gymnasium an information bureau will be provided. In it there will be a supply of bulletins and circulars on many topics and copies will be given for the asking. These in charge of the bureau will furnish verbal information and also the college staff officials will be in all buildings from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day to give information on agricultural science and practice.

Visitors are requested to bring basket lunches and gather for lunch at 12 o'clock sharp beside the college gymnasium.

HOLSTEIN PRICES GROW STRONGER

China and Japan Send Buyers to Pick Choice Animals in Canada.

EXPORT TRADE BOOMS.

The Holstein Friesian Association of Canada reports that the demand for good Holsten cattle, both males and females, has shown considerable improvement during the past month, with the result that surplus cattle in the hands of breeders are moving into market channels at more remunerative prices than prevailed during the winter. According to the Extension Service Department a more optimistic feeling among the breeds has been observed all over Canada lately and the general consensus of opinion seems to be that a season of better business conditions lies immediately ahead. Just recently three different buying delegations from Japan have been in Canada looking for Holstein cattle, one from China and several from the United States weekly. To take care of this big export grade in Holsten cattle, to find the animals, and keep the movement under way has been no easy task for the field representatives and county sales agents, but so far the well directed efforts of the combined forces have been able to meet all requirements. In addition to the big export trade the needs of the home market have been receiving special attention. Already this year three Holsten heifer clubs have been formed in Ontario, two calf clubs in Nova Scotia and for the past ten days negotiations have been under way for the shipment of several carloads of Holstein cattle to Western Canada, where the farmers are turning from wheat growing to dairying in the expectation that it will prove a more profitable farming industry.

Regarding prices ruling for Holstein cattle, the sales consignment, dispersal and private have been netting satisfactory averages. For the two-year-old ready to freshen heifers placed in the breeding clubs the breeders have been realizing from $190 to $225 while a dispersal

POULTRY SHOW DELEGATES MAY SEE GREAT PLAY

Post Congress Tour of Continent Includes Famous Village of Oberammergau.

CHANCE OF LIFE TIME.

Passion Play Produced Continuously For Three Centuries.

One of the special opportunities afforded delegates and members attending the Fourth World's Poultry Congress at the Crystal Palace, London, in July, is the post-Congress tour to the Continent and a visit to the hisorical village of Oberammergau and its renowned Passion Play.

It is really the opportunity of a life time. It is the only play in the world which has been produced continuously for three centuries, resulting in a perfection of technique unequalled. The Passion Play is simply the great events of the last week of the life of Christ. The play itself grips one with a thrill of realism which has left an indelible impression on the minds of all those who have been fortunate enough to have seen it.

There are 685 people engaged in the performance actually appearing on the stage and of these 125 have speaking parts. Supplementing the main theme of the play certain prophecies in the Old Testament leading up to the main event are portrayed in tableau. There are altogether 22 tableaux, 18 acts, and 76 scenes in the play, which takes an entire day to present, beginning promptly at 8 a.m., an intermission for lunch is given from 12 to 2 o'clock and the play concludes shortly after six o'clock in the afternoon.

The Passion Play is presented once every ten years except when prevented by war. In 1920 over 260,000 people saw it and with even more elaborate preparations for this season it is expected that over 300,000 will attend. The first performance was given on May 11th this year and the play will be presented Sundays and Wednesdays until September 28th. To accommodate the increased attendance expected this year additional performances will be given each Monday and Thursday during July and August. As a regular practice when the visitors to Oberammergau can not be accommodated at one day's presentation the overflow is provided for by the repetition of the play the following day.

History of Play

The history of the play goes back three hundred years to the time of the pestilence which swept through the Bavarian mountain villages in 1633, when whole villages were depopulated, often without enough persons left alive to bury the dead.

For some time the village of Oberammergau was favored with a crop of sentinels maintaining a strict quarantine. Eventually, however, a laboring man, Casper Schueler, longing for home and loved ones, left his work in another village, stole through the line and got to his home. The reunion at the family fireside was a happy event but this honest working man had done a terrible thing, as shortly became apparent. He had been exposed to the dreadful malady which swept the countryside, and in a couple of days the songs of his children in his home were hushed in silence—the plague had been brought into the village.

In 33 days 84 of the people in Oberammergau were dead and scores of others had been stricken. A great crisis was at hand and no human power could save the village. A public meeting was called at which a sad company of hollow-eyed men and women gathered in the village chapel. They cried aloud to God and vowed then and there if He would hear their prayers and save the village they would repent of their sins and undertake to re-enact the scenes of Calvary and to give to every beholder an object lesson of the love of God and what it cost to save a lost world.

The strange part of the story as set down by the chronicler is that not another person in Oberammergau died from the pestilence. Everyone smitten recovered, a feature unheard of anywhere else. Very soon the people of the village arranged to carry out their vow and thus came the start of the Passion Play. The simple people of the village live over again the events of Christ's life each time the play is given.

A world event of first importance, the Passion Play is an attraction which in itself calls people from the four corners of the globe, and the Poultry Congress visitors will avail themselves in large numbers of the opportunity to see this play which is afforded by the post-Congress tours.

TURKISH TOBACCO IS BEING FAVORED

Over 150 Acres Planted in Leamington District This Year.

TRY NEW METHODS.

By FREDERICK J. BROWN

WINDSOR, Ont., June 14.—(Special to the Examiner, Copyright 1930).—More Turkish tobacco will be grown in the Leamington district this year, than last, officers of the Turkish Tobacco Company of Leamington state. Last year, this fine tobacco was grown at Leamington, the first in the Dominion. Between 150 and 200 acres will likely be devoted to this tobacco, which proved successful when harvested last fall, despite pessimistic forecasts of agricultural experts.

While the average to be devoted to this imported product will be considerably less than at first expected, the confidence of the men who gambled and won last year is shown despite the determination of the majority of other farmers of the district to replace their tobacco crops with tomatoes and beans for this year. With the exception of the Turkish variety, the tobacco acreage of the district will be reduced by about 50 per cent.

This year, the Turkish crop is being planted at the rate of 11,600 plants to the acre, while the average for the broad, leaved burley plants is about 4,500. Closer planting is one of this year's improvements, which is expected to cut the cost of production.

Other modifications of the costly and laborious Greek methods will be introduced this year, but in the main, the time honored processes which have for centuries produced the finest tobacco in the world, will be carried out under the supervision of James Gregory, the Greek expert of the company.

The unsold portion of the 1929 crop, about 13,000 pounds, is valued at 85c a pound in the company's audit. This tobacco is now undergoing its "June sweat," which is the final stage in its curing, a process of many months duration.

Another innovation this year is an experimental patch of 15 acres of "perfume" tobacco, the very finest grade of Turkish. It excludes a very delicate aroma when smoked.

BRIGHT OUTLOOK FOR FRUIT CROP

Estimates For 1930 Yield Range Slightly Above Past Few Years.

INCREASE IN CHERRIES.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 14.—(C.P.)—Canada's fruit crop prospects for 1930, based on June 1st conditions, are encouraging and generally speaking indicate possibility of a yield approximating that of last year, says a report issued to-day by the Dominion Fruit Branch. Considerable increases over last year in cherries, plums, peaches, pears and grapes are indicated ranging from nine per cent. in the case of cherries to 34 per cent. for plums.

Apples also promise well and while the total crop is expected to be less than last year, the report says indications point to a yield equal to or slightly heavier than the average crop for the five year period 1925-29, estimtaed at 3,178,124 barrels.

GROWING CHICKS NEED COAL FEED IN HOT MONTHS

Oatmeal Proces More Satisfactory Than Corn as Ration.

GREAT BONE BUILDER.

Do Not Make Mistake of Trying to Father Young Pullets.

With hot weather coming, there is another angle of feeding growing stock that we have to consider. They need a cool feed—one that does not burn out the birds.

Of all feeds, oatmeal is the coolest feed known. In produce houses where thousands of birds are fattened each week, they fully appreciate the difference between oats and corn. They feed a large amount of oatmeal or rolled oats during the hot weather. From experience they have found that it is very easy to get the birds off feed when fed too heavy on a ration of corn, and they are unable to get anywhere near the results with corn that they are with oatmeal.

The summer months are growing months for the pullets. The kind of layers you are going to have next winter will be largely determined this summer. If you crowd the pullets, if you allow them to be infested with parasites and neglect their feeding, you cannot expect good results later.

An oatmeal base is not only a cool feed, but there is nothing quite like oatmeal when it comes to bone, frame and body. The birds do not get too fat on an oatmeal ration. Fat around the heart, gizzard and intestines interferes with circulation, digestion and assimilation.

Care must be taken not to feed too much grain to growing stock through the summer months. During warm weather and short nights, they need less heat and energy producing feeds. Many poultrymen make the mistake of trying to fatten their pullets on grain. You do not want fat pullets, you want well-fleshed, large, heavy birds, capable of laying and keeping at it.

Burdock is Host Plant to Red Bugs

Burdocks, which grow in or near nearly every garden have a special use in that they are host plants for lots of active little red bugs in June which in the following month have turned green and black and are then known as the four-lined plant bug, for which the choicest vegetables and flowers are a favorite feeding ground. A contact insecticide applied while the little red bugs are on the burdock is a most effective way of killing them or a tea-kettle of boiling water is most effective.

STUDY RESULTS OF FERTILIZERS

Much May Be Learned By Watching Effects in Next Few Weeks.

GIVE SIX RESULTS.

"If you have applied any fertilizer to your lands this Spring, much can be learned by watching their effect on the growing crops during the next few weeks," reads a farm bulletin issued recently by the Ontario Agricultural College, department of agricultural extension.

"General experience has shown that properly chosen fertilizers produce six important results: They increase

GREEN FEED HAS DISTINCT VALUE FOR BACON HOGS

Extensive Tests Reveal Fact That Straight Grain Ration Costs More.

FORAGE CROPS IN SUMMER.

Turnips, Mangels or Potatoes Are Suitable For Winter Feeding.

That green feed has a distinct value in the economical feeding of bacon hogs is apparent from experiments conducted at the Dominion Experimental Farm, Nappan, Nova Scotia. Over a period of four years, six experiments have been conducted to determine the value, if any, of green feed in the ration. In only one case was the cost per pound of gain less when no green feed was supplied, namely, in 1923, when a lot receiving green feed showed an average feed cost per pound of 6.68 cents versus 6.58 cents for the check pen. The average of the six experiments showed that lot 1, consisting of thirty-seven hogs that were fed green feed, made an average gain of 158.2 pounds in 135 days. The average feed cost per pound gain was 7.71 cents. Thirty-six hogs in lot 2 that received the same rations, without green feed, made an average gain of 148.2 pounds in 134 days and the cost per pound gain was 8.42 cents. Lot 2 consumed an average of 131 pounds of green feed and made an average gain of 10 pounds more than did lot 2. Assuming that this increase in gain is due to the influence of the green feed added to the ration, it would give the green feed a value of $18.32 per ton with pork selling at 12 cents per pound live weight.

Students in Peterborough and district have been burning the midnight oil in the past week in preparation for the annual departmental examinations which commence on Monday morning. They will be held at the Peterborough Collegiate and at St. Peter's High School.

Seventy-eight students will write Upper School examinations at the Collegiate and 36 at St. Peter's. At the Collegiate there will be 165 Middle School candidates this year and 132 at St. Peter's.

The total number of candidates for high school entrance in the public schools this year is 220. In the separate schools the number is 92, making a total of 312. Of this total many will not be required to write the examinations but will be admitted to high school in the Fall on recommendation of the Peterborough Entrance Board.

Inspector A. Mowat today issued a warning to all candidates who intend to write in Peterborough that examinations will be run according to daylight saving time which will come into effect in this city on Sunday night. The regulations of the Department of Education in the matter are that examinations shall be held according to the local time of the various examination centers in the Province. Rural residents writing in Peterborough are therefore asked by Mr. Mowat to remember that the examinations will commence at 8 o'clock standard time, not 9 o'clock.

Middle School students will be the first to write when they tackle ancient history on Monday morning. Upper School students commence their schedule with English composition in the afternoon. Lower School starts with geography on the morning of June 20.

Starting with French literature in the afternoon of June 23, the entrance candidates will write on June 24, 25, 26 and 27. Public schools will officially close at noon, June 27.

WHEN YOUR CHILD IS FEVERISH

Give Him Baby's Own Tablets.

The health of babies and little children is subject to rapid changes. Thus the mother must be on her guard. At the first sign of feverishness Baby's Own Tablets should be given—this may avert a serious illness.

Concerning the Tablets Mrs. Norman Lee, Uxbridge, Ont., says: "My little boy, now three years old, was not at all well. He was feverish and had no appetite. I gave him Baby's Own Tablets and he was soon well again. I would not be without the Tablets as long as there are young children in the house."

Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

STEAMER STARTS CHARTING CRUISE

Acadia Will Determine Changes in Ocean Bed Off Sable Islands.

TAKE TEMPERATURES.

HALIFAX, N.S., June 14 (C.P.). — Bound for the northern waters to chart depths, investigate magnetic deviations and gather general oceanographical information, the Canadian Government steamer Acadia sailed at midnight last night carrying a hydrographic expedition commanded by J. U. Beauchemin. The Acadia will determine the nature of changes believed to have occurred in the ocean bed in the neighborhood of Sable Island and the Grand Banks as a result of the November earthquake and after coaling at Sydney will proceed to the business of clearing the Labrador icefield; thence traversing Hudson Strait; taking temperatures at various depths, charting the coast north of Churchill, and noting magnetic declinations.

The Acadia is a steel steamer of 1,100 tons, and carries 45 officers and men.

STUDY RESULTS

the stalk of straw growth; they strengthen the crop to resist disease; they hasten the growth of the crop so that it ripens several days earlier; they increase yield; they improve quality of product; they improve the catch of grasses and clovers.

"Whether the fertilizers you have used will bring about these results will depend upon the condition of the soil as to drainage, soil reaction, supply of organic matter, and upon the wisdom of your choice of fertilizers. We have known farmers to use a fertilizer high in nitrogen and potash on heavy clay loam soil for a crop of oats. The result was, as might be expected, to produce a rank straw growth and late ripening of the crop. We have seen the same result from the application of straight nitrogen fertilizer on well-manured land.

Other users of fertilizers have obtained highly satisfactory results because the composition of the fertilizer was chosen with the purpose of suiting the special needs of the crop and making up for the deficiencies of the soil. How nearly have you applied this principal to your farm? Now is the time to study effects. Of course, one cannot learn everything now, one must follow the crop throug now, one must follow the crop through to harvest to get final results."

The bulletin urges the farmer to make the observations during the season necessary to answer the following questions:

1—Is there a stronger growth of crop on the fertilized than on the unfertilized land?
2—Has the fertilized crop ripened earlier than the unfertilized?
3—Has there been more or less disease in the fertilized crop than in the unfertilized?
4—Has there been more or less insect injury in the fertilized crop than in the unfertilized?
5—What was the yield per acre from the fertilized? And from the unfertilized?
6—What difference in quality of product do you note between the fertilized and the unfertilized crops?

The bulletin continues, "You will find this a most interesting and valuable study of the effect of fertilizers on your own crops. Perhaps some things will puzzle you. If so, get in touch with your agricultural representative, or write the Ontario Agricultural College for assistance or explanations.

GREEN FEED HAS

During the winter of 1925-26 an experiment was conducted to determine the value of small potatoes as a green feed during the winter months. Seven hogs, fed an average of 220 pounds of potatoes each over a period of 140 days, made an average gain of 154.8 pounds, costing 7.81 cents per pound. Six hogs not receiving green feed of any sort averaged 136.8 pounds gain during the same period, costing 8.58 cents per pound gain. The value of the potatoes in this test, computed on the same basis as above, would be $19.65 per ton or 59 cents per bushel.

It was noted during all the tests that the hogs receiving green feed were longer and of a more desirable bacon type, while those in the check lots frequently became crippled and were seldom as thrifty in appearance.

Turnips, mangels or potatoes are suitable green feed for winter feeding, while rape, oats, peas and vetch mixture, clover or any succulent forage crop may be utilized for this purpose during the summer.—S. A. Hilton, Dominion Experimental Farm, Nappan, N. S.

HOLSTEIN PRICES

sale held in Huntingdon County, Que., this week, gave an average of $191.56 for animals of all ages in the herd with a top price of $605 for a three year old heifer and $475 for her dam.

It has generally been conceded that the success of the business man is dependent upon the prosperity of the farmer, consequently the outlook so encouraging to the breeder of cattle augurs well for the development of trade and commerce throughout Canada.

BRIGHT EYES, ROSY CHEEKS

The Birthright of Every Girl.

Dull eyes mean misery and weakness — a sure sign of a bloodless condition. Anaemic girls and women have dull, heavy eyes with dark lines underneath. The bright eyed girl or woman is always happy and well.

There is one way to make the eyes bright—to bring the glow of health to pale cheeks—that is to invigorate the body with new blood—rich, red health-giving blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do this and they do it well. Concerning them Mrs. Robert Devitt, Brougham, Ont., says: "My daughter became so ill and nervous we had to take her out of school. She was pale and thin; her eyes were dull and the least exertion upset her. I began giving her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and in less than six months you would not know her. She gained in weight and strength, and is now the picture of health."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

WHEN A CHILD IS FEVERISH, CROSS, UPSET

Colic, gas, sour belching, frequent vomiting, feverishness, in babies and children, generally show food is souring in the little digestive tract.

When these symptoms appear, give Baby a teaspoonful of Phillips Milk of Magnesia. Add it to the first bottle of food in the morning. Older children should be given a tablespoonful in a glass of water. This will comfort the child—make his stomach and bowels easy. In five minutes he is comfortable, happy. It will sweep the bowels free of all sour, indigestible food. It opens the bowels in constipation, colds, children's ailments. Children take it readily because it is palatable, pleasant-tasting.

Learn its many uses for mother and child. Write for the interesting book, "Useful Information." Address The Chas. H. Phillips Chemical Co., Windsor, Ont. It will be sent FREE.

In buying, be sure to get genuine Phillips Milk of Magnesia. Doctors have prescribed it for over 50 years.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE WEEKLY COLUMN

A goodly thing it is to meet
In Friendship's circle bright,
Where nothing stains the pleasure sweet
Or dims the radiant light,
No unkind word our lips shall pass,
No envy sour the mind,
But each shall seek the common weal,
The good of all mankind.

CAVAN

Mrs. J. W. Stone, president of the Ontario Women's Institutes, gave many fine contributions at several of the conventions held last fall. The following contains a few extracts:

"When we think of the Institute, we always think of home first, as our motto puts it 'Home and Country.' Homes are built on love and if it were not for love, we wouldn't have homes, because, after all, love must start first before the home is built or before we even think of making a home, and then if that love doesn't develop, we may have a house but no home. In our Institute, we must work for our homes first and foremost, if we are going to be successful and efficient mothers and our aim is to be more efficient in homemaking. We cannot conceal our inefficiency as homemakers, because we turn out the products of this country the young folk who are going to carry on. A number of our statesmen and a number of our very best men are from farm homes. Now when we speak of farm homes, I wonder if we have a high enough conception of what we are really doing? We could not choose any profession that is on a higher plane. We are nearest the Creator the Divine, when we are living in the country and on the farms and I fear sometimes that we have not a high enough conception of what that means. I heard a man not so long ago apologize when he was called upon because he was a farmer. I don't why he did it, because he went on after and made a wonderful speech, and he didn't apologize at all for the farmers after that.

"In regard to education on the farms, we are sorry to admit that our children have not the same educational advantages as they have in the cities. We realize that it is difficult to bring these educational advantages to the rural children but we are being helped through the Institutes which are encouraging the Government to give us some assistance and we are being promised added assistance for our young people. And while on education may I ask are our children receiving the proper kind of literature? We should start very early in a child's life to read it. Start with Bible stories, because after all, we should not forget to bring that to our children. Though we are non-sectarian we all adhere to some faith and we are all working for one end. Let us teach our children early in childhood things from which they are not going to depart for I have faith that if a child has had proper training in early childhood, and has gone astray it will come back. See that children receive the proper training and the right kind of literature.

There are boys and girls now in their teens who are reading books that are not fit for a child's mind, and mothers all over the Province should put forth every effort to keep abreast of the times and keep ahead of their children otherwise there comes a certain age when you cannot keep pace. Don't expect the rural teacher to do everything in regard to education, because a great deal must be done before the child enters public school at all. Generally speaking children don't enter public school until they are six or seven years old, and the child not trained until seven years old needs sympathy.

Often in our branch Institutes we expect too much from our officers. Some branches expect them to do everything. I have heard women after the annual meeting, fold their arms and say, "Well now, let them go to it." They are through with everything because they are out of office. There is so much we can do to help. When you are asked to do something do it; even though not appealed, to ask your president or secretary if there is anything you can do to help out this year.

One speaker has said that education is the development of all possibilities coming within our reach. It is surprising what does come within reach of Women's Institutes' members and let us remember that the Institute is really a great university to people in the rural parts. We are being promised musical training in our rural school, and let us see we get all we are being promised. One writer has said, 'Let me write the songs of a nation and I care not who makes the laws.' We would be a singing nation if we only had a musical training. Longfellow said, 'Music is the universal language of mankind. Music rules the universe. To be attuned to music is to be at one with the Infinite.'

Isn't that a wonderful thought? We should make a study of the papers and try to have peace on earth by studying the work of the League of Nations. One writer has said that, "That country is the richest which has the most happy human beings."

MILLBROOK.

Recent consideration of the subject, "The Master Homemaker," by an Institute branch brought out some arresting thoughts that might well be passed on to other societies for discussion. One suggestion that provoked lengthy argument being, "Does the exceptional housekeeper run any risk of being so engrossed with her good housekeeping that she is in danger of falling short on her homemaking?"

"As the years pass, and responsibilities pile up in the way they have of so doing, will she find, with all her speed and skill, that she is too tired to give herself to her family, and keep so close to her daily grind for fine cooking, and spotless cleanliness, that she loses the faculty of putting things in their proper prospective?"

"Will she rebel at the new doctrine of 'health first' and family comfort, because her pantry shelves be loaded with marvellous examples of the culinary art, her kitchen floor scrubbed white, and dust-chasing in the rest of the house a daily occupation?"

Cultivating 'home atmosphere' is an obligation of the 'master homemaker', and is something not dependent on fine pictures and shelves of books which the family almost never read—and topics presented at regular Institute meetings, followed by discussion intelligently directed, would, and do, help many a member to create a beauty and restfulness in her home, and a joy in her family's life, that would never have been learned without this 'friend by the way' which the organization has time and again proved itself to be.

A demonstration of handicrafts has featured the activities of a branch in western Ontario in recent weeks, and has proved most inspiring and helpful. Different members have taken their turn, each month, in illustrating in a practical manner things in which each is specially proficient, and among the articles shown, with the manner of their making, were lamp shades of wallpaper with floral design, given a coat of shellac, and ribbon bound; boutonnieres made from georgette, or ribbon, sometimes of wool, with bead finish (the beads from a discarded, cheap necklace will do); scarves, runners, and cushion covers, made from remnants dyed a bright color, and one that harmonized with the furnishings in the home room. Various kinds of paper flowers that brightened up living rooms, and centred dining-tables during the winter months, were also among the handicrafts exciting interest and close attention.

From the Dominion Department of Agriculture may be borrowed a set of charts planned especially for setting up at fairs, or other educational institutions, with no expense involved except paying transportation charges. The "Trend in Food Consumption" is one thing illustrated, showing the 'why' of the modern tendency to use less meat (except bacon) and more vegetables; more fruit, both fresh and canned, and less bread, but more of the latter in the form of brown bread, bran and graham gems, etc., with a decided increase in the use of dairy products.

Most Institutes have now put on a 'Canadian Authors and Books' program, and the timely suggestion from a W.I. secretary, when speaking to the girls on the subject of their reading, is: "Remind them it is just as possible to get drunk on bad literature the appetite will increase, and will influence their minds, hearts and lives in the right direction."

WARSAW

Among the activities of the Women's Institute is fostering Canadian industries. Buy Canadian-made goods if possible, if not British made. We may have to go outside Canada for our supplies, but there is very little for which we need to go outside the British Empire for either raw products or manufactured goods. Necessarily most of us have to consider finance and one duty to the one who provides is to make our money go as far as possible. Why buy tomatoes at a big price in February? This fruit has not the flavor of our own home ripened one but many keep on buying imported ones gradually coming from nearer our own line until by the the time our own fruit is ripe we are weary of it and our growers find their product a drug on the market except for canning. Tomatoes are especially noted as if properly canned they still retain the valuable vitamines. Wholesalers tell us it is noticeable that by the time most of our own summer fruits are ready people are already surfeited with the imported and do not want our own. This is probably more noticeable in cities than in the country where much fruit is put away for winter use. We want to know whence our fruits come. Not long ago a well-read educated woman was quite surprised to find that cranberries were not imported from the Southern States. Our own Canadian apples are most wholesome but we often find mothers buying oranges and letting their apples waste. Few, if any children actually need oranges instead of apples. The Creator knew what He was about when He made apples of the quality Canadian ones are, grow here for us. So it is with practically all our necessary foods. They can be grown and of a better quality and more fitted to our needs some place in Canada and generally speaking fully as cheap, certainly if quality be considered.

Lemons do seem almost a necessity and there are other articles for treats. We have our own nuts, our own vegetables. When it comes to live stock there is something wrong somewhere if we can import frozen beef and mutton from Australia (even being a British product) pay carriage expenses and still buy most delicious meat for less than the home grown could be sold. Is it that our land has been so lavish with its products that we are not making the most of it? Do we expect things to come to us too easily? One thing quite plain is that those farmers who get right down to business study the government bulletins and adapt what they read to their own needs and discard what is not helpful, who know their soil, their stock, who know what other countries do and why their foods are exported, are the ones who make their stock pay. It is not well always to take for granted that because an article is printed in a reputable paper it is right. Many years ago a certain nursing journal described carefully about sterlization of water, the containers handling it and everything and then said that if the surgeon needed it and it was too hot, drop a piece of ice into it? Just as foolish things some way get past the editors of many magazines, possibly they wish at times to let their readers see that bad advice may be given.

In the matter of textiles we must import some of the raw materials but exhibits of Canadian made goods certainly show lovely material and those who should know tell us they are often far less expensive than imported goods of the same quality and that the quality will stand comparison. The time has surely gone by when simply for the sake of saying "It is imported" people will pay big prices.

The object of the Institute is not to disparage the beautiful and useful products of other countries for we cannot live unto ourselves, but we can remember our own home land and our Mother Country and sister Dominions first.

Just Between Us Women

A daily chat with Examiner neighbors conducted by Anne Wilcox

NOT very long ago residents of Peterborough were given the opportunity to inspect an ideal home and great numbers availed themselves of this opportunity.

* * * * * * *

And I am sure there were few homemakers who inspected that home who did not have in the bottom of their hearts a wish for such a dwelling of their very own.

* * * * * * *

No doubt if you were one of those who looked over the home, you were greatly impressed as soon as you entered the door—it expressed to you the perfection of interior decoration.

* * * * * * *

In such a place one finds every conceivable labor-saving device and closet space for all things that should be concealed or kept in the best condition.

* * * * * * *

Perhaps even now some of you who are reading this article, along with your families are planning to build a home, or perhaps buying one.

* * * * * * *

But whether you are going to buy the house ready built or whether you are going to build, no doubt you have certain definite wishes and requirements that you want carried out.

* * * * * * *

Very likely you have the exact layout of the house pictured in your mind along with the interior decorations and furnishings.

* * * * * * *

There are times when one cannot have just the exact layout one wants, but this happens very seldom so that one can come as near having the ideal place as thought and money can combine to give.

* * * * * * *

I am told that one result of a postponed acquisition of the ideal home is that ideas become simplified. At first the care of a houseful of beautiful things is submerged in the thought of having the wish for them gratified.

* * * * * * *

Then later one gets a more selective point of view. Fine quality and comparatively few articles become more desirable thany many of not so high grade.

* * * * * * *

The idea of labor-saving devices also becomes modified. It may be that the modification means increase or decrease in numbers.

* * * * * * *

So-called labor saving devices are fine, but occasionally there is one that requires so much work to keep clean that the labor-saving element is decidedly curtailed.

* * * * * * *

Some housewives find it is good economy to do without servants and put the money into labor-saving devices. They save the homemaker's strength and time and cost but a fraction of servants' wages.

* * * * * * *

The wise homemaker when choosing her furniture will desire quality rather than quantity. She will seek to furnish the rooms that they will express the maximum of beauty and good taste and the minimum of labor in housework.

Woman's Auxiliary of St. George's Church Holds Final Meeting of Season.

CONVENTION READING.

The Women's Auxiliary of St. George's Church held their last meeting of the season on Thursday afternoon in the church basement, with a good attendance of members. Mrs. E. Tucker, president, presided for the opening prayers and scripture reading. Mrs. W. J. Downer, Dorcas secretary, gave an interesting report of the work for the bale, comprising a portion of a girl's outfit in an Indian school. Most of the sewing for this has been completed and the remainder is well in hand. Mrs. Hughes gave a report of the board meeting in Oshawa which she had attended the previous week, and mentioned several very interesting facts. The rector then gave a short devotional address taking as his subject "St. Barnabas," to whose memory the previous day had been observed.

At the close of the meeting, the members were entertained to afternoon tea by the president, assisted by her daughter, Miss Grace Tucker.

Schools of porpoise, which have consumed large numbers of fish in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, have been dispersed or destroyed by the use of an airplane bomber hired by the Canadian Government.

SPECIAL DEMONSTRATIONS.

Canned music is not the only type of music that will amuse the coming generation, as long as the type of tuition which had a demonstration in the auditorium of the Collegiate Institute last evening, continues to progress among the growing boys and girls.

It was an interested and enthusiastic audience of about two hundred and fifty people that watched and hearkened last night, as small children from the piano classes of the city schools, demonstrated their ability. Last September, Miss Kathleen Snider, A.T.C.M., commenced teaching these classes and the rapid progress which they have made was exhibited last night in a manner that surprised and delighted those present.

Many of the students are very little things, and the way in which they attacked the piano with manifest relish and executed their little pieces with careful fingering, delightful expression, splendid memory and unselfconscious ease, was refreshing in the extreme. The applause was for all, but especially for two small bits of humanity; little Davis Graham, who was compelled to repeat his effort, so fetching was its manner of presentation and so good was his tone, and also little Phyllis Simspon, a cunning, expert little girl musician. A duett between Ruth Telford and Davis Graham was another major bit. But all the children were skilful small players and made a pleasant program.

In place of the scheduled chairman, Dr. J. J. Craig, the chair was occupied by Mrs. W. R. Morris, in Dr. Craig's enforced absence. Mrs. Morris spoke briefly of the work being carried on and congratulated Miss Snider on the excellence of the tuition given the children. An outline of the basic ideas behind the movement was given by Mrs. E. Andrews of Toronto, a representative of the Canadian Bureau for the Advancement of Music, and A. Mowat, Inspector of Public Schools, spoke briefly at the close of the program, also congratulating the teacher and pupils alike.

Special Demonstrations

The highlights of the entertainment were the demonstrations by the pupils of the methods used in imparting instruction in rhythm, harmony and melodic values in music. A demonstration of finger exercises, another in rhythm and a third in ear training and transposition, showed the advancement made within a short time among the small boys and girls taking part. The finger exercises were done in such simple ways as making the children simulate a rag doll, in order to relax the muscles and get the feeling of ease necessary to proper piano playing. For a staccato, light touch, they used the scale of C, up and down on a wooden desk, singing the scale notes as they went, while Little Miss Muffet served to demonstrate proper finger weight on the keyboard. The exercise in rhythm brought the children in a ring on the stage, using rhythm sticks to tap out the beat and emphasize the proper measure, in a simple piece played at the piano by their teacher. In the transposition and ear training exercise, they chose easy bits of music and played them in different keys, announcing the proper signature of sharps and flats, before commencing. They also detected the wrong note in a series played by Miss Snider.

In singles and duos, in ar quartette that stood up to the keyboard, and in solo work that brought them to duck their heads briefly to the audience and then advance unfalteringly to the business in hand, that of playing a piece from memory, the small things made their way to the stage. And later, a Rhythm Band led by a small boy with baton, and with Miss Snider at the piano, accompanied in tuneful, precise measure the music, using little cymbals, bells and tambourines and rhythm sticks, to tap and beat out the refrain.

The program of solos was as follows: Moonlight, played by Thelma Zavitz; The Cuckoo, by Dorothy Ross; The Clock, by Shirley Richardson; The Bobolink, by Ralph Hartshorn; Evening Prayer, by Helen McFee; The Cricket, by Eleanor Taylor; Paramour, by Davis Graham; Fairy Dew, by Elfie Saunders; Long Ago, by Robert Flitton; Crias Cross, by Fred Helson; Summer Days, by Phyllis Simpson; Juanita, by Billy Shosenbrg. A quartette of small people played—Dorothy Ross, Betty Puffer, Elmer Freel and George Richardson, and a trio was composed of Doma White, Madelyn Gilgour and Dorothy Dummitt. Little Ruth Telford and Davis Graham played a duett.

Roy Pitchford sang for the audience, and received enthusiastic applause which brought an encore. He was accompanied by Miss Lily Bacon.

During the recital, for which a pretty stage setting was arranged, with a mantelpiece, pots of ferns and flowers, reed furniture and floor lamps, several lovely bouquets of flowers were presented to their teacher, Miss Snider, by the small pupils.

CIRCUS PROGRAM WELL RECEIVED

Good Program is Presented in Ring By Sells-Floto Organization.

WILD WEST SHOW.

The circus came and went. It brought with it plenty of excitement and thrills for the younger generation and lots of amusement, also for the seniors. It had three rings and two stages on the go all the time.

Tom Mix was the major attraction. He didn't do such an awful lot, but he looked handsome and good-natured and his dark face lighted, every once in a while, with a flash of white teeth. Along with a group of cowboys, he staged a separate Wild West show, with a lot of lariat and lasso work, some trained horses that Tom managed very beautifully and an expert with a snake whip that cut to pieces a wad of paper. It a match held in the hand of an intrepid young lady assistant and flicked a handkerchief neatly out of her blouse pocket.

There was a white-clad band that played very smoothly; a bunch of docile grey elephants that went through skilful manoeuvres and shimmied in time to music; a nervous bear on roller skates, and a deft youth doing the split on the slack wire.

There were a couple of extraordinary double-jointed humans dressed like frogs; a horse called Goldenrod that executed, with a slippery top hat, a horse's conception of coming home from the night club; and a satiny black beast, Sir Christopher, that was a gorgeous bit of horseflesh. There was a strong arm gent holding a pole for two other humans to shinny up and do stunts near the ceiling; a butterfly dance in the air with eleven girls in pastel-tinted wings; a little Japanese tumbler walking up a stairway on his head, and there were some wonderful horses, in groups of black, cream and chestnut, going through military formation stunts.

There were races with jockeys, and ponies ridden by monkeys, and with riders astride two horses at once, tandem style, like the Romans of old. And there were hurdle races by good-looking young ladies.

And there were some daring trapeze performers, men and women, who did breath-taking things on flying ladders. These were extraordinarily good and earned loud bursts of applause.

And there were clowns a-plenty; a gentleman with a broom who asked the crowd to get out and let him sweep up; a little missionary in a big iron pot, reading his Bible in his last moments as two black cannibals bore him to the festive meal, an elongated individual with a gargoyle head; a tall giraffe butting a little dwarf about the stage.

All these and more, entertained the crowds yesterday afternoon and evening, before the lights died out of the big top, the pink lemonade and ice cream men stopped circulating and the circus, like the Arabs, folded its tents and silently stole away—in the night.

DUTTON—JACKSON WEDDING

A lovely June wedding was solemnized at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church this afternoon, at half past two o'clock, when Olive Marguerite, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest P. Jackson of 336 George street south became the bride of James Dutton, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. James Dutton of 239 Stewart street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William Allan in the presence of a large number of the relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The church was decorated very attractively with a profusion of lovely flowers: yellow and mauve iris, daisies and bridal wreath. The guest pews were tied with flowers and white satin ribbon.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an exquisite gown of eggshell chiffon over eggshell silk crepe. It was made with princess lines, the skirt draped in circular flares that fell to the heels in the back. It was sleeveless and had a rounded neckline, with a cape that reached slightly over the shoulders and to the waistline in the back. A narrow belt was clasped in front with a buckle of rhinestones and emeralds.

A long veil of eggshell tulle was arranged in cap effect about the face, with a coronet of orange blossoms.

Slippers of eggshell crepe, with silk hose and long silk gloves in the same shade, carried out an ensemble of soft color that had a highlight in a lovely shower bouquet of bronze-pink Talisman roses and lily of the valley. She wore also a rope of pearls.

The bridesmaid, Miss Helen Veitch, was in pale pink georgette, the skirt fashioned in tiers and the sleeveless bodice made with a little divided cape in the back. A hat of the same soft shade of pale pink was developed in lace straw with narrow bands of pink ribbon. Her slippers were of white brocaded linen, with silk hose of matching mistletoe tint. She wore the gift of the bridegroom, a crystal pendant and carried a bouquet of yellow Claude Pernet roses and plumosa fern, tied with yellow ribbons.

Mr. Gordon Cuthbertson acted as best man.

Ushers were Wallace McWilliams of Detroit and Mr. Clayton Ruth of Peterborough.

The wedding music was played by Mr. Martin Chenhall, A.R.C.O. During the signing of the register, Miss Daisy Reid sang "Until." Miss Reid was in yellow moire taffeta with hat, shoes and hose to match and old-fashioned nosegay, of yellow Sweetheart roses.

After the ceremony, a wedding luncheon to fifty guests was served at Hooper's Tea Rooms, where decorations were carried out very attractively with pink snapdragon and pink candles in silver candelabra, the bride's cake centering the table.

Receiving with the bridal party were Mrs. E. P. Jackson, mother of the bride, and Mrs. James Dutton, Senior, mother of the bridegroom. Mrs. Jackson wore a coat frock of navy georgette over eggshell silk crepe, trimmed with bands of French cutwork embroidery. Her hat was of black mohair and velvet, her shoes of black patent kid with eggshell hose and gloves, and she wore a corsage bouquet of red Pierson roses and lily of the valley.

Mrs. Dutton was in flowered chiffon with jacket, a black mohair hat, black satin slippers and matching hose and corsage of lily of the valley and forget-me-nots.

Later, the bride and bridegroom left by motor for an extended honeymoon trip, after which they will reside at 498 Charlotte street. They will motor first to Belleville going later to Boston, Schenectady, Cincinnati, Sandford, Maine and return by way of Quebec, Ste. Anne's Montreal and Ottawa.

The bride's travelling costume was developed in Independence blue and eggshell. Her two-piece cape suit was of blue silk crepe and eggshell blouse, hose and gloves. Her small hat was of blue mohair and lace straw, her shoes of blue kid and her purse blue leather with a gilt monogram. She wore a blue crystal necklet and a red fox fur scarf.

The gift of the bridegroom to the bride was a wrist watch of white gold, to the bridesmaid a crystal pendant, to the soloist a bar pin set with emerald, to the ushers leather bill-folds, and to the best man a signet ring.

4TH DEFEAT FOR BISONS.

Five Circuit Clouts Help Orioles to Win—Royals Take Second From Keys.

Belated rallies kept Rochester, Montreal and Toronto from losing any more ground to the Baltimore Orioles yesterday in the International League pennant race.

Baltimore, leading the pack by six and one-half games, scored its fourth successive victory over Buffalo 6-3 but gained no more ground on Rochester, Montreal and Toronto, all of whom turned in victories.

Montreal held on to its second place tie with Rochester by beating Reading 5-2.

The Toronto club had to come from behind with a three run rally in the eighth to beat Jersey City 5-4. Toronto had a two-run lead in the fifth inning but Jersey City rallied for four runs in the sixth only to lose in the eighth.

Rallies in the seventh and ninth innings gave Rochester a 7-2 victory over Newark.

Muldoon Disgusted Boxing Situation

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 14.—William Muldoon, veteran member of the New York State Athletic Commission, said today that Max Schmeling's name will not be engraved on the Tunney-Muldoon trophy, emblematic of the world heavyweight championship. "No man who wins the title on a foul will have his name engraved on the top", said the "Solid Kan."

"I am thoroughly disgusted. I've spent two years in trying to get a solution to the heavyweight puzzle and now a thing like this has to occur".

Sonnenberg Retains His Wrestling Crown

TORONTO, Ont., June 14 (C.P.)—Gus Sonnenberg again proved to a local crowd why he is champion of the wrestling world when he dropped Dan Koloff for the third and deciding fall of the main bout at the Arena Gardens last night. The former football star used his famed flying tackle to accomplish both falls after one of them was instrumental in causing his own downfall, but before the winning charges Sonnenbarg gave a brilliant exhibition of wrestling; the best he ever has shown.

Indians Dethrone Athletics

MAY COME TO CANADA

The only time Bobby Jones ever competed in this country was at Hamilton, Ont., in 1919. He was then 18 years of age, but tied with Jim Barnes, then at the top of his fame, and Karl Keffer, the defending Canadian open champion, for second place. He has never participated in the Canadian amateur golf championships. The suggestion has been made by a leading sports writer that Bobby be induced to take part in the Canadian open next month at Hamilton. Next week he plays in the British open, and in July he will play in the United States open. Since golf was first introduced into Canada by a carpenter residing at Kingston, Ont., who won the first Canadian open championship at the Royal Ottawa Golf Club in 1895, there have been many stars of the golf fraternity attracted to this country. It is hoped by those interested in the game that men of Bobby Jones calibre will be regularly found among the contestants for Canadian golf titles.

BOUT CAUSE OF DISSATISFACTION

Formal Recognition of Schmeling So Far is Withheld.

PAY SHARKEY PURSE.

NEW YORK, June 14. — With a growing conviction manifest yesterday that the unsatisfactory outcome of the Sharkey-Schmeling bout had struck another blow at boxing, these developments featured the aftermath of the latest heavyweight bout:

That Max Schmeling, on the evidence furnished by a first showing of motion pictures, unquestionably was hit low in the closing moments of the fourth round and therefore was entitled to the verdict he received after the confusing and disorderly finish.

That the State Athletic Commission would "stand by" the decision of Referee Jimmy Crowley, who acted solely on the testimony of one of the judges—Harold Barnes—the only official having a clear view of the finish.

Pay Sharkey Entire Purse

That the Commission also would allow Jack Sharkey his full share of the gate—approximately $177,000—despite the legal authority under its rules to punish the American by suspension, fine and reduction of his purse.

That Schmeling among newspaper critics generally was accepted as the "new champion of the world," with reservations, but that he probably would not have his name put on the famous Tunney-Muldoon Trophy, the title emblem, as a result of the objections indicated by both donors.

Experts qualified their recognition of the young German by assertions that he had completely failed to demonstrate anything but stamina and gameness against Sharkey, who was credited with a big margin on points up to the time he fouled his opponent.

Sharkey's manager, Johnny Buckley, clamored for a return match, but at Madison Square Garden no enthusiasm for this was manifest. Popular opinion reflected a feeling that Sharkey, by a series of unsatisfactory bouts, many of them involving questionable blows, over a period of years, had automatically discredited himself.

Both the New York State Athletic Commission and the National Boxing Association, beforehand, put the title stamp on the bout, but they withheld formal recognition yesterday, in view of the circumstances marring the outcome.

Mintmaster is Winner Of the Manchester Cup

MANCHESTER, England, June 14 —Mintmaster won the Manchester Cup yesterday by a head from Sixwheeler, with Gentleman Relish third, three lengths back. Nine horses ran the mile and a half of the old-established feature handicap. The winner is owned by Sir Victor Sassoon and is a five-year-old bay horse by Captain Cuttle out of Peppermint.

Sixwheeler, owned by H. F. Clayton, is a five-year-old by Tetrameter out of Valentia Bay and J. P. Arkwright's Gentleman's Relish is a four-year-old by He out of Bonne Bouche.

WELCH WITH WHEELERS

HAMILTON, Ont., June 14 (C.P.)—Hamilton Tigers, Canadian football champions, will be without the services of "Huck" Welch, on the back division this coming fall. He has accepted a position in Montreal and will play with the Winged Wheelers' team this year.

Gnats Make "Smoke"

COLUMBUS, Ind., (U.P.)—Seeing "smoke" curling about the tower of the Bartholomew county court-house here, residents of Columbus called the fire department. An inspection by firemen failed to reveal even a spark. Mode Pennybaker, custodian of the building, solved the mystery of the lost "smoke," explaining that a swarm of gnats hovering around the tower appeared to be smoke at the first glance.

CLEVELAND INFLICTS THIRD STRAIGHT DEFEAT ON MACKS

Yankees Take Slugfest From Detroit Tigers By 10-9 Count.

LISKA BEATS WHITE SOX.

The Cleveland Indians, picked by the concensus of the critics to finish no higher than fourth place in the American League pennant race to-day are out in front after a whirlwind dash to the top that has left the remainder of the clubs and the Athletics in particular, groggy.

With a championship brand of pitching and a murdering attack the Indians yesterday rolled up their seventh straight victory and their third over the world champions to go into the lead by four points.

As if to make their advance into the leadership even more impressive the men menaced by Roger Peckinpaugh downed the champions 15 to 2 as Wesley Ferrell turned in his tenth victory of the season.

The Senators evidently have stopped their back sliding as they took the White Sox into camp yesterday by the score of 6 to 2 when Ad Liska held Chicago to four hits. The victory left the Senators only a half game out of second place.

At St. Louis Rip Collins and Milton Gaston staged an old fashioned hurling duel as the Browns defeated the Red Sox 1 to 0 in eleven innings. A single by Ralph Kress broke up the contest.

In contrast Detroit and the New York Yankees put on a modern game of baseball, slamming the ball to every corner of the field as the Yankees won 10 to 9. A total of 27 hits were collected by both teams.

In the National League Adolfo Luque, a veteran of many a major league game lost his first contest of the 1930 season when the Cincinnati Reds pounded out an 8 to 5 triumph over the Robins.

The Chicago Cubs managed to nose out the Phillies 7 to 5 in a see-saw contest.

After being rained out for two days the Cardinals and Braves finally came together with the latter winning 9 to 8 in ten innings.

Southpaw Bill Walker turned in his eighth victory of the season when the Giants trounced the Pirates 7 to 2 in the last game of the series. Walker held the Pirates to six scattered hits and drove in two with a timely single.

Deloro Juniors Lose To Old Timers 6-3

MARMORA, June 14 (Examiner Correspondence) — Deloro Juniors showed much improvement in their second game of the week with the Old Timers on Friday evening, losing by the close margin of 6—3. As a result of these games, they should shape better in their first league encounter with the Junior Moose at Belleville next Tuesday afternoon.

FOUR CREAMERIES LAY FALSE PRETENSE CHARGES

TORONTO, Ont., June 14 (C.P.)—George Turnbull, Toronto, has been arrested in Niagara Falls on four charges of obtaining butter by false pretences from Ontario creameries.

Turnbull, police state, worked a scheme whereby he had about $1,000 of butter delivered to a garage from where, it is alleged, he disposed of it at prices below the market.

H. C. Misener, Uxbridge, Ont., is the complainant in the case on which Turnbull was arrested and claims to be out $475. The Grey County Creamery of Owen Sound, $435; Elmvale Creamery, Elmvale, Ont., $286, and the Meaford Creamery, Meaford, are the other complainants.

Nearly 10 per cent of the white population in South Africa are, according to a recent estimate, in the position of vagabonds, having no capital and being unable to complete with the blacks as workers.

Inside Sportin' Dope—By A. Wise Cracker

Mister Sporting Editor:

Well, Mac, this here Lakeshore League ain't going to be no soft pickings for any man's team, judging by what's happened to our Rays since my last. Mister Kay's lads has twice took it on the chin, the Arabs from Oshawa doing the trick down at Rolly Dunne's park last Sat. and the Cobourg Ponies repeating the medicine Wed. at the Lakeshore town, much to the delight of all them Cobourgers what hadn't gone over to Warkworth to nominate Bill Fraser. These Oshawa boys has a smart ball club; they got reinforcements from 3 to 4 of last year's senior outfit and they play heads-up baseball, what I mean. The Cobourg lads ain't so hot as a team, but this Mister Ibey, graduate from last year's Deloro Central League troop, is a whole team in himself, his twirling tieing the enemy up in knots. Already Mister Ibey has a coupla shut-outs to his credit and ain't yielded a earned run this season, so if his reputation stays sound Cobourg will hafta be figgered in the fight all the way. Them Oshawa and the Rays will battle it down the stretch, the way she looks now.

The E. P. circuit continues to supply some good games, Mac, and this Bethany team, though they ain't win a decision yet, deserve credit for the fight they're putting up, and one of these nites Doc Hamilton's lads is going to throw somebody for a total loss just when it hurts the worst. Mister Hardill, Mister Biroux's master gunner, put himself in the win colume Mon. nite, Mac. Mister Hardill lost his 1st start, went in as a S.O.S. expedition in a game with the Cogs and wild-pitched himself a tie, and then went out Mon. and curved a victory at the expense of Bethany.

In the mush ball merry-go-round up at Central School grounds, which provides nightly entertainment for north ward folks and the visiting firemen, the big event since my last has been a argument over the pitching etiquette used by Mister Darling of the Westclox Big Bens. A lotta birds in the loop has been having trouble in hitting what Mister Darling socked in, so naturally they figgered his delivery wasn't exactly what it should be. Some said 1 thing and some another, and finally the umpiring firm of Kay and Lebarr was called in to study the technique of the left hand from the alarm clock works. Mister Kay, after looking him over for 9 frames, during which the Sugar Bowlers was nosed out by a whisker coming home, said Mister Darling's delivery was O.K. with him, so that's that. The mush ball battle, Mac, is anybody's yet, and if the teams was race horses they woulda been ruled off the track long ago.

Well, old-timer, I'm getting ready to get a earful of Graham McNamee and the big fight, so this will hafta do for a load this week. Who will win? What does it matter?

Sportfully yours,

A. WISE CRACKER.

SMART BALL ON WEEK'S BILL

Two Bantam and One Junior and Juvenile Games Listed in City Baseball League.

TIDY BATTLES ASSURED.

The bantam section of the city hardball league opens on Monday night next with a game in James Stevenson Park between the Kiwanis and the Classics. The best brand of minor ball was dished up in this group last season and fans who are following the teams again this year may be assured that they will witness some lively ball.

The Kiwanis tangle with the Hollingsworth's Classics in the opening game and if the Club team is as successful as the other two "Ki" nines they will be assured of top place at the end of the schedule.

On Tuesday night in the junior group Kiwanis juniors and East City will "strut their stuff" while juveniles mix it up with Browntown on Thursday evening in the Exhibition grounds.

BETTY CARSTAIRS SAILS FOR U.S.

Plucky British Girl Hopes to Set New Speed Record at Detroit.

LONDON, June 14. (C.P.) — Miss Betty Carstairs, undaunted by the tragic death of Sir Henry O. Segrave at Windermere yesterday, sailed aboard the steamship Berengaria for the United States to-day with her motor boat Estelle V with which she hopes to establish a new speed record at Detroit.

She will be the only British entrant for the international trophy as the result of Segrave's fatal injuries when his challenger, Miss England II overturned while going at a speed of about 100 miles an hour.

Miss Carstairs expressed deep regret at the death of her rival and friend, but she said that she would not change her plans as she was determined, for the sake of British prestige to make a good fight for the trophy against her United States opponents.

WHO'LL CATCH THE BIGGEST PICKEREL

$5 U. S. Line Goes to the Successful Angler—Contest Open All June.

For the first time a fishing contest confined exclusively to Peterborough and District is being staged, and a $5.00 gold standard U. S. 60 yards line, of 30 lbs. test, is the prize for the angler who catches the biggest pickerel during the month of June. This contest is open to all who fish in the waters of Peterborough and Kawartha Lakes district, including Rice Lake Trent and Otonabee rivers.

The pickerel entered for competition must be caught on one of the U. S. far-famed lines purchased from an authorized dealer in the district named, who will weigh and measure the fish, also recording the date and place of the anglers lucky strike.

This worth while angling contest is sponsored by T. E. Curvin Co., Ltd. Water and Brock Streets, this city, Canadian distributors of the U. S. fishing tackle products. Names of the dealers will be found in an advertisement elsewhere in this issue

Two Other Contests.

Messrs Curvin and Company are also offering the same prize for the largest small mouth bass caught in July and the biggest lunge landed in August, the same conditions applying to these two later events. Hence admirers of Sir Issac Walton, to say nothing of his one-eyed perch, will undoubtedly respond in considerable numbers to this worth while call to angle after the elusive finnie members of the deep in question, so abundantly found in the Kawatha Lakes and Trent Valley waters.

Piano pupils of Harry Northrop A.T.C.M. were heard in a pleasing recital on Thursday evening, when they were assisted by Miss Isobel Young, elocutionist, and Stanley Northrop, A. T. C. M., violinist.

JUST A GANG BOSS.

"Ah! There he is!" A group of small lads stood in awe as a gentelman with a large sombrero, garbed in a flshy outfit that any red-blooded youngster would have recognized as that of a cowboy, stepped from the SellaFloto Circus ttrain on the C. N. R. siding near the Exhibition Grounds yesterday afternoon.

"Hello Tom!" they shouted eagerly for it was undoubtedly the great Tom Mix. They crowded in closer in the hopes of possibly touching him as he stepped into a waiting motor car.

But a glassy stare was all the youngsters received from the awesome, bespangled cowboy. In fact, they had made an error. The object of their attention was not their film hero but only one of the circus gang bosses.

PASSENGER DIES IN PLANE CRASH NEAR CORNWALL

Machine Goes Into Tail Spin While Seeking Landing.

TWO ARE INJURED.

Found Necessary to Amputate Right Foot—Will Recover.

CORNWALL, June 14. — A fatal aeroplane accident, the first in Cornwall or its vicinity, occurred on the Blacklock farm, two miles east of the town, about 8 o'clock last evening, when a Syracuse, N. Y., machine, piloted by Everett Richards of that city, crashed to the ground and was smashed. Morris Joseph Verville of Massena, N. Y., was killed almost instantly, while the third occupant of the plane, Elzear Vaillancourt, also of Massena, was severely shaken up.

Bert Jardine's ambulance brought Richards and Vaillancourt to the Hotel Dieu Hospital here. Verville died just before admission. People uptown had seen the plane circle over the business section as if seeking a suitable landing place. When over the Blacklock farm the plane went into a tailspin and crashed to the ground, nose first. Verville was injured about the head and lost a great deal of blood, but Richards and Vaillancourt were more fortunate, although shaken up and injured internally. At the hospital it was found by Dr. Lalonge and Dr. Hurteau, who first rendered aid, that it would be necessary to amputate Richard's right foot. It is expected that he and Vaillancourt will recover. The machine is a Waco passenger plane, and on the sides are the words, "Advance Aircraft Corporation of Troy."

Provincial Officers Jack Berry and Wilfrid Bertrand and Traffic Officer Harold A. Swain were early on the scene, and a large throng from neighboring summer cottages, from farms and from town assembled.

Verville was about 23 years of age. He was born in St. Gertrude, Que., about 25 miles from Montreal, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Napoleon Verville. He was unmarried, and is survived by his parents, four brothers and two sisters, all of Massena.

PEACE LOOMING IN CHINA'S STRIFE

Selection May Be Made of New Nationalist Gov't Officials.

REPORTS VARY.

SHANGHAI, June 2 (Canadian Press). — China's ever-changing political horizon to-day gave indication of pending internal changes which, if carried through, may involve cessation of the present civil war and selection of new officials for the Nanking Nationalist Government.

Divergent viewpoints on the situation were displayed by civil and military groups in Nanking.

Apparently authentic advices from the capital stated that high Nationalist civil officials were discussing the possibilites of a peaceful settlement.

The Nationalist military, through the Government's Kuomin News Agency, countered immediately with a vigorous denial of all armistice reports, and announced that on the contrary the Nationalist Government was preparing for a powerful military campaign against its foes.

The reports from the civil group said that Chang Hueh-Liang, Governor of Manchuria, and Li Chi-Sen, former Governor of Canton, were being urged to undertake mediation in the present conflict.

A BEDTIME STORY

by Howard R. Garis

UNCLE WIGGILY'S PUSSY TREE.

Uncle Wiggily jiggled himself around in his easy chair until he felt nice and cozy. He opened the evening paper to read the bedtime story to his forty sixteen little bunny boys and girls, who were gathered about him. It was after supper but not yet quite time to go to sleep.

"Once upon a time," read Uncle Wiggily and then he looked over the tops of his glasses and suddenly asked: "Where's Baby Bunty?"

"Is that in the story?" cried Jingle.

"Don't tell us there's another story about Baby Bunty!" giggled Jangle, who was Jingle's twin sister.

"I just want to know where Baby Bunty is," spoke Uncle Wiggily looking around the room. "If she comes in after I am half way through the bedtime story I'll have to go back to the beginning and start over. I had rather wait until Bunty comes in to hear it. Where is she?"

Some of the little bunny boys said one thing and some of the little bunny

"Where's Baby Bunty?"

girls said another thing, but none of them knew where Baby Bunty had hopped after eating her supper carrots.

"Well, I must go find Baby Bunty!" said Uncle Wiggily. But just as he rose from his chair Nurse Jane squeaked:

"Here comes the little orphan rabbit now!"

Surely enough, Baby Bunty came in hopping as fast as she could hop. And her pink nose was twinkling very fast.

"Where have you been, Bunty?" asked Uncle Wiggily. "We have been waiting for you."

"Sit down and listen to the bedtime story!" advised Jingle.

"Oh, Unkie Wig! You ought to see! You ought to hear!" exclaimed Bunty, her breath coming fast for she had done a lot of hopping. "It's most mysterious and surprising! Oh, you ought to see! Oh! Oh!"

"Whatever is the matter, Bunty?" exclaimed Uncle Wiggily, dropping the evening paper with the bedtime story in.

"Oh, you ought to hear!" went on Bunty. "I went down to the end of our yard just now, to see if there was a flower to pick and, all of a sudden, I saw a little cat growing on a tree branch!"

"A cat growing on a tree branch! Nonsense! Cats don't grow on trees, Baby Bunty!!" laughed Uncle Wiggily. "What kind of a tree was it?"

"The pussy willow tree," said Bunty. "And one of the pussy blossoms must have turned into a cat, for I saw it as plain as anything and it mewed at me and then I ran to tell you."

"Pooh! It's only Joie, Tommie or Kitty Kat up in a tree trying to play a joke on Bunty!" said Buster, a boy bunny.

"No, it wasn't Joie, Tommie or Kittie Kat!" exclaimed the little orphan rabbit. "I know them. It was a new cat and she grew out of the pussy willow tree. It's wonderful!"

"You dreamed it!" said Custer, who was Buster's brother.

"Anyhow, it wasn't Joie, Tommie or Kittie Kat," said Jingle, for here they come now, to listen to the bedtime story, I guess." As she spoke she pointed to the window and there, surely enough, could be seen the three Kat children walking across the lawn, their tails straight up in the air like fish poles.

"Maybe there's a new pussy at the Kat house and she got lost and climbed up in the tree," said Jangle.

"Oh, no, we haven't any new little brother or sister," said Tommie as he walked into Uncle Wiggily's bungalow.

"Well, there's a little cat in Unkie Wig's pussy tree!" said Bunty. "If you don't believe me you can go down there and listen for yourself."

"We'll go," said Uncle Wiggily. "Come on, children! We'll see what this mysterious surprise is that Bunty has found."

When they reached the end of the garden, near the pussy willow tree, surely enough, from it came a faint mewing.

"Mew! Mew! Mew!" wailed a little cat as plain as anything.

"There!" cried Bunty. "What did I tell you? One of the pussy willow buds has grown into a cat! May I pick it off, Unkie Wig and have it for my own?"

"Now just a moment," said Mr. Longears peering through the evening shadows into the tree. It is true that the buds of the pussy willow tree do look like soft, furry little kittens. But they aren't. This must be a real cat that, somehow, has gotten into my pussy tree. Who are you, little cat?" softly called the rabbit gentleman.

"Oh, I'm a poor, little, lost pussy," was the mewing answer, "I don't know where I live and a big dog barked at me so I climbed up in this tree and Oh, dear! I'm so unhappy!"

"Never mind! Don't cry! I'll take care of you!" said Uncle Wiggily kindly. He got a step-ladder, lifted the little cat down out of the pussy willow tree and, taking her into his bungalow gave her some warm milk to drink. Then she purred happily and listened to the bedtime story with the others. Then they all went to sleep.

RETAIL STORES PLAN TO CLOSE ON JUNE 25TH

Executive Retail Section Recommends Full Holiday For Excursion Day.

OPEN TUESDAY NIGHT.

Represetnative Group of Merchants Had Already Planned to Close.

The executive of the Retail section at a meeting held today, decided to recommend to all lines of retail business that they observe Wednesday, June 25th, as a holiday owing to the fact that a representative group of merchants as individuals have pledged themselves to the Kiwanis Club to close on that day.

This, therefore, will be a goodwill closing in aid of the Kiwanis Club of Peterborough, who are arranging for a picnic to Rochester on that day.

The section further decided in favor of retail stores remaining open the evening of Tuesday, June 24th, treating that date in the same way as a day preceding a public holiday.

In effect, the Retail Section Executive, therefore:

(a) Recommends that all lines of retail business observe Wednesday, June 25th, as a full holiday.

(b) Officially notifies the buying public in the city and county that retail stores in Peterborough will be open for business the night of Tuesday, June 24th.

FORMER RESIDENT OF PETERBORO RUNS AMUCK AND COMMITS SUICIDE

ment made by the cutting of a hole through the center of the leaves from cover to cover. The slayer raised the girl's head from the ground and placing the muzzle of the gun to her temple, which had already been severely slashed by broken glass pulled the trigger. The bullet killed the girl instantly. Melhiush, however to make certain no life remained in the girl's motionless form, sent another shot into her stomach.

Eyewitness of Mad Dash

An eye witness of the mad dash in the automobile and shooting was John A. Thorpe, resident of North Ridgefield Road. Realizing the seriousness of Miss Yates' predicament, Thorpe pursued the speeding car on foot and was about 100 yards away when the automobile plunged over the stone fence. He arrived an instant after Melthiush fired two shots into the girl. He shouted and warned the man to put away the gun but his efforts to frustrate the shooting proved in vain. When the slayer saw Thorpe running towards him, he raised the gun and fired point-blank at him Thorpe leaped behind some bushes and the bullet missed his head by a matter of inches. Then Melhiush with the smoking gun in his hand dashed along the highway disappearing around a bend of the road. Thorpe ran to the side of the girl whose school books were scattered over the road near her lifeless body. He was about to raise her in his arms when he saw Melhiush come dashing down the road again with the gun still dangling in one hand. In the other hand he carried half of an orange, which apparently he had just sliced.

Commits Suicide

Upon seeing Thorpe at the side of the girl he turned sharply and ran to the other side of the road leaping the stone fence and disappearing in the tall underbrush. Thorpe ran over to investigate and found Melhiush lying on his back, the gun in his hand and a hole through his head over the right eye. The piece of orange sprinkled with poison was in the victim's mouth. The bottle of cyanide of potassium was found near the body. Thorpe, considerbly bewildered over the experience ran to a nearby farmhouse and called the state police 11 miles away.

Although baffled by his widows refusal to give any information, the authorities learned that Melhiush was born in Cobourg, Ont., 46 years ago, residing with his parents in that town and in Port Hope. In later life he was employed in a tannery at London, Ont. where it is believed he married. His oldest child, Elaine, dearest friend of the murdered girl was born in Peterborough where the Melhiush family resided for several years. Hannah, the other child now 11 was born in Smith Falls, Ont. The family resided in Smith Falls for six years and then moved to Montreal where Melhiush was employed by the Canadian Pacific Railroad as a freight hand. The family came here from Montreal in 1921 purchasing a small and abandoned farm.

Not Home Since Monday

Melhiush's wife it was learned had not seen him since Monday. Since purchasing the small sedan about a year ago, Melhiush made a practice of driving to the center of the town to meet the bus which brought Elaine and Mary from school. He was well acquainted with the Yates girl on account of the many trips he made with her and his own daughter. The police were informed today that Methiush displayed nothing more than a paternal interest in the Yates girl. No one was found who talked differently of their relations.

Scores of residents often remarked however, on the fondness of the man for his daughter and her chum. Melhiush chatted with the girls in his usual manner, his daughter told the police, and nothing was said or done to arouse any suspicion that he had gone suddenly insane or was abnormal in any way. As was customary, he drove to his own home, stopping, however, at a point where no one in the house could see his car. His daughter stepped out and had not questioned her father about his absence from home. Then he started to drive the Yates girl to her home, about two miles distant. Thorpe was walking along the road near the Melhuish home when suddenly he saw the machine tear along the highway at high speed. The authorities declare that Melhuish planned the double killing in the event that the girl, who had won several contests for beauty and personality resisted his advances.

The theory is supported by the finding of the Bible, gun, poison, and orange. The Bible, in which the gun and poison were cleverly concealed, proved of tremendous interest. When the cover was down the book aroused no suspicions of its deadly contents. The leaves inside had been cut through from cover to cover with all outside edges left intact. This permitted sufficient space for concealment of the gun and the bottle.

NEWSPRINT INCREASE IS BACKED AS FAIR PROPOSAL BY DON C. SEITZ

Fair Profit to Manufacturers Be Means of Conserving Supply.

FORESIGHT LACKED.

MONTREAL, Que., June 13 (C.P.) —The proposal made recently by the Nwsprint Institute of Canada to the American Newspaper Publishers' Association for a $5 increase over a period of three years has the approval of Don. C. Seitz, of New York, according to the current issue of Publishers' Service.

"If newspaper publishers viewed the situation with proper economic foresight, they would willingly agree to the $5 increase, and call this proposal more than fair," said Mr. Seitz, who was formerly business manager of the New York World, and was for fifteen years chairman of the A. N. P. A. Newsprint Committee.

Conserve Supply.

Above all else, Mr. Seitz told his interviewer that the publishers should willingly pay the newsprint manufacturers a fair profit so the supply may be preserved. Meeting the proposed increase would not endanger the profits of American newspapers, he said.

"Publishers apparently fail to realize that they are dealing with a foreign Government. Our own forests are gone, and now our publishers are seeking to destroy their next best source. If they would view the situation with th proper economic foresight they would know that reproduction should be preserved."

Mr. Seitz further pointed out that while publishers of dailies are resisting an advance from $55 a ton, many publishers of weekly papers who buy in carload lots and from the mill, hav been paying as much as $70 a ton during the year.

STUDENTS HOLD ANNUAL PICNIC

Staff and Pupils of Peterborough Normal School Enjoy Sail to Wallace's Point.

JOLLY OUTING.

Another red letter day in the annals of the Peterborough Normal school was observed yesterday, when the students, members of the staff and their wives and visitors numbering about 150 boarded the steamer, Stony Lake at George Street wharf at 8:30 a.m. for the annual picnic. The day was ideal in every respect, the weatherman doing his best to keep up the good reputation of the past two or three years for this outing. Owing to construction work on the canal it was impossible to carry out the proposed intention of sailing up the river, and through Clear Lake and Stoney Lake, Much regret was expressed by the students at not being able to pass through the wonderful "Lift Lock", and feel some of the thrills, which had been so long anticipated. However, this was soon forgotten when they were admiring the beauties of the Otonabee river, with its charming windings and wooded banks. A halt was made at Gore's landing, and an inspection made of the pretty village. At the call of the whistle the party boarded the steamer to partake of a delicious lunch which had been prepared by the ladies of the school staff. The afternoon was spent in cruising around Rice Lake, and at 4:30 the steamer arrived at Wallace's Point where a stop was made for an hour. All the pleasures to be found in this pretty holiday resort were indulged in, and the booth did a good business helping to quench the thirst of those, especially who had enjoyed dancing to the music of the school orchestra. Cameras once more came out, and more pictures, like the numerous autograph albums on board will be kept as treasures to recall happy memories. Returning to the boat an appetising tea was served, the fresh breeze and exhilarating air having acted as tonics to the appetites. Soon after leaving Wallace's Point, clouds began to gather, not in the sky which had remained blue and unclouded in the brilliant sunshine, but in the hearts and minds of those who were severing a connection with friends and teachers which had become stronger than they would ever have believed possible in one short school year. The hearts of many were very full as the time of departure drew near, which proves the link of real affection existing among the members of the Normal School. On behalf of the students, Miss D. Dayman, president of the Literary Society in a neat little speech, expressed sincere thanks to the members of the staff also the ministers of the churches and others who had shown kindness to them. Dr. J. A. Bannister, principal, responded for the staff. George Street wharf was reached about 7 o'clock, bringing to a close one of the most enjoyable picnics ever held. To quote from the valedictory of the School year book for 1930:

"And now, as the chain of golden friendships is broken and we go forth to enter into a life of greater responsibilities, one word must come before.

"Farewell, a word that must be, and hath been,
A sound which makes us linger, yet farewell".

PREMIER VISITS CITY ON TUESDAY NIGHT

Will Deliver Address in Armouries to the Electors of City and District.

The visit of the Prime Minister to Peterborough on Tuesday evening, June 17th, when he speaks to the electors in this district will no doubt draw a large audience.

This is to be one of the most important elections in Canadian history and the electors should use every opportunity of familiarizing themselves with the policies and platforms of both parties. This is the Premier's first visit to the city in some years. It will be his second address on his political tour which opens in Brantford Monday and there will no doubt be very important statements from him to Lis Peterborough audience.

It is hoped we may also be favored with a visit from Mr. Bennett when there is the same reason for hearing a discussion of the policies which he an dthe party he represents favors.

WEDDING BELLS

KENDALL—McCALL.

The marriage of Mildred Helen, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McCall, of Peterborough, to Thomas Woodldridge Kendall, son of Mrs. Lillian Kendall, of Windsor, was solemnized recently at Central United Church, Windsor, the Rev. Dr. A. E. Runnels officiating. The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. F. B. Bower, of Hall avenue, was lovely in a gown of white georgette, fashioned on long lines, and a veil, trimmed with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of pale pink roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Greta McCall, of Toronto, cousin of the bride, attended her as bridesmaid. She wore a frock of maize colored georgette, also long, and carried a bouquet of Japanese tea roses. Mr. Alex Adam, of Windsor, a student of the University of Toronto, assisted the bridegroom. Mr. Charles and Mr. Murary Kendall, brothers of the bridegroom, were the ushers. Following the ceremony a reception was held and a buffet luncheon was served to 35 guests at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Bower, on Hall avenue, after which Mr. and Mrs. Kendall left for a trip to Toronto. On their return they will reside at 894 Goyeau street. Out-of-town guests present at the wedding included Mrs. McCall, of Peterborough, mother of the bride; Mrs. D. Anderson, of Peterborough, sister of the bride; Mr. Donald McCall, of Peterborough, brother of the bride, and Mrs. Walter Caldwell, of Port Hope, aunt of the bride.

DAMEAIRO—DI NOBLE

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at eight o'clock this morning by the Rev. J. Costello, at St. Peter's Cathedral, when Annie, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. DiNoble of 397 Louis street, became the bride of Nickolas Vincent Dameairo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dameairo of Aldershot, Ontario.

The wedding music was played by Miss Lillian Hurley.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely gown of shimmering white, satin-faced canton crepe, made in princess style. Her long veil of white silk net was caught with a bandeau of orange blossoms and seed pearls. She wore white kid pumps and white silk hose and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses, gypsophila and maidenhair fern. Her only ornament was a necklace of pearls.

The bridesmaid, Miss Mary Basciano, wore a charming frock of French georgette and radium lace in blush pink shade. Her hat was of pink mohair and she wore flesh-colored hose and black satin slippers. Her bouquet was a shower of Briarcliff roses, gypsophila and maidenhair fern.

Two dainty little flower girls were Emily Dameairo of Aldershot and Adelene Marocco of Peterborough, wearing white silk frocks, pink hair bandeaux and carrying baskets of sweet peas and tea roses.

Mr. William A. DiNoble, brother of the bride, acted as best man.

After the ceremony, a dainty wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, to the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. The house was prettily decorated with pink and white crepe paper, bells and June roses.

Later, Mr. Dameairo and his bride left for a honeymoon trip to Hamilton and Toronto. They will reside in Peterborough: The bride travelled in a dress of green crepe marocain with green hat, black pumps and flesh-colored hose.

Many gifts were received by the young people from a large circle of friends. The gift of the bridegroom to the bride was a pink pearl-on-amber toilet set; to the bridesmaid, a white gold bracelet set with brilliants and emeralds; to the best man, a green gold signet ring, and to the flower girls, gold lockets and chains.

BLACK-BREDIN

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Bredin, 51 Dawlish Ave., Toronto, was the setting for one of the season's loveliest house weddings yesterday afternoon when their daughter, Helen Jane, became the bride of Seymour Roberts Black, son of Major and Mrs. Albert S. Black, the Rev. Mr. Armstrong officiating. Summer flowers were effectively arranged throughout the rooms, where the ceremony and wedding breakfast took place. Soft music was rendered by an orchestra stationed in the music room.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attractive in her gown of shell pink lace and chiffon, fashioned on long lines and set off with a large pink mohair hat. Her flowers were Sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley.

Attending her as bridesmaid was her sister, Miss Kathleen Bredin, wearing a picturesque gown of sky blue chiffon and matching hat of blue straw. Her flowers were an arm bouquet of sweet peas and corn flowers. Mr. Gains Thompson was best man.

At the reception following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Bredin received with the bridal pair, the bride wearing a smart gown of cinnamon brown lace with matching mohair hat and bouquet of yellow roses. Major and Mrs. Black were also of the reception party, Mrs. Black wearing a modish gown of green printed chiffon trimmed with black lace, a hat of black straw and corsage bouquet of Talisman and yellow roses.

The bride and groom left later on a motor trip ,the bride travelling in a smart blue tweed suit, with matching blue felt hat. On their return they will reside in Montreal.

LITTLE—CONNAL

A quiet and pretty June wedding was solemnized on Saturday morning, June 14th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Connal, Brock street, when their elder daughter, Margaret Elizabeth, was united in marriage to Mr. Russell W. Little, son of Mrs. Little and the late Mr. Robert H. Little of Lakefield. The bride, who was given away by her father, was unattended. The Rev. W. Allan of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, officiated.

After a dainty buffet luncheon, the bride and bridegroom left by motor for Montreal and Quebec. On their return they will reside near Lakefield.

The Health Force Within You

The energy which animates the body is generated within the brain. The spinal cord and nerves carry this life-giving force to every tissue cell. It is obvious then that the nerve lines must be kept free of constriction to permit of proper transmission of this health energy. Any derangement of the spine may interfere with nerve trunks as they leave the spinal canal. When this occurs, the life force is interrupted and the tissues supplied by the impinged nerves cannot function normally.

CHIROPRACTIC

is a scientific method of locating and correcting spinal derangements, thereby releasing nerve pressure and restoring vital force to weakened tissues. The result is Health.

SCHEDULE of HORSE PARADE on July 1st FROM Peterborough Industrial Exhibition Grounds

This Horse Parade is being put on by the Humane Society on July 1st, and it is hoped that it will become an annual affair.

In some cities, both in Canada and the United States, where such parades are staged, they have assumed very large proportions, bringing out the best horses in the community.

The purpose is to encourage drivers of horses to take better care of, and a greater pride in, their animals. The motto of the Humane Society is: "We speak for these who cannot speak for themselves."

There will be a first, second and third prize in each class, and the winner of the first prize in each class will be given a Silver Cup with "P.H.S., 1930," engraved on it.

There is no entry fee, and all entries will be made on the morning of the parade.

All exhibitors are asked to be at the Exhibition Grounds at 10 o'clock sharp. There they will be arranged in their respective classes, as directed, for the purpose of being judged.

The Parade will start from the Exhibition Grounds and will come up George Street as far as Confederation Square, where it will disperse.

We are fortunate in having as judges Mr. Wm. Maher of Cobourg and Mr. Baird of Oshawa. Both men are well-known in this district as competent judges.

Chicago's Police Commissioner Quits Job

RETIREMENT OF POLICE HEAD IS NO SURPRISE

Commissioner Was To Appear Before Police Committee of Council.

REPORT IS WANTED.

Retains Place in Police Department With Civil Service Rank as Captain.

CHICAGO, Ills., June 16.—William Russell announced his resignation today as Commissioner of Police.

Retirement of the police head came as no surprise to the city despite Russell's frequent assertions that he would never quit under fire, whether his action came upon demands of Mayor William Hale Thompson was not known, for the mayor has maintained silence through the week of public and press attacks on gang activities that followed the killing last Monday of a Chicago Tribune reporter, Alfred "Jake" Lingle.

Commissioner Russell was to appear before the city council police committee this afternoon to report the results of the seven day round-up of hoodlums, begun 24 hours after Lingle's death. Alderman Arthur F. Albert had announced he would demand a sixty day furlough for both Russell and Stege to permit some other commanders to clean the city of gang domination and corruption within the department.

Retains Rank of Captain

Russell said he would retain his place in the police department with his civil service rank as captain.

LINDSAY OFFICER QUITS THE POLICE

Provincial Constable Frank Wetherall Resigns From Force.

4 YEARS IN VICTORIA

LINDSAY, June 16—Forced to resign from the Provincial Police Force because of letters alleged to have been written by his wife concerning another police official here, Provincial Constable Frank Wetherall, one of the most poplar constables Lindsay has ever had, concluded his duties here on Saturday and is selling his furniture and his home.

The trouble started some time ago when officials here received letters of complaint concerning Provincial Constable D. H. Porter. The letters were all signed with one name, which was forged, and they concerned Constable D. H. Porter's character. They did not reflect on his efficiency. Constable Weatherall received a letter himself and forwarded it to headquarters at Toronto, it is said. Headquarters had already received one or two of these letters.

An investigation was started here by a detective and finally the letters were traced to Mrs. Wetherall. She is alleged to have admitted having written them and took the whole blame, saying that her husband knew nothing of them. Constable Wetherall also denied all knowledge of the letters.

His resignation was asked for, however, and it was received Saturday at headquarters in Toronto, and it was accepted by Commissioner Williams. Another official of the Department stated that while Wetherall's resignation had been accepted, he did not think that it had been asked for.

Constable Wetherall had been stationed at Lindsay for nearly four years and he was considered a splendid officer, having the confidence of everyone. He is a veteran of the War and showed signs of having a brilliant career ahead in the Provincial Police. He was High County Constable here.

Custom Officers Raid Aimee's Trunk

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 16.—(C.P.)—Mrs. Aimee Semple McPherson today paid $138.55 in duties, the forfeiture value of $86 worth of undeclared clothing she brought with her from Europe when she arrived on the liner Europa Saturday.

Assistant Solicitor George W. Brewer said he was satisfied that the failure to declare the dutiable wearing apparel was due to a mistake. She told him she was under the impression that clothing that had been worn was duty free.

CAROL PLANNING BIG CORONATION

Two Ambasadors Are Being Sent to Leading Nations of World.

START ON JUNE 30.

BUCHAREST, June 16 (C.P.) — King Carol II of Roumania is planning an impressive coronation to which he will invite the crowned heads and Presidents of the countries which were Allies during the World War.

To this end he has commissioned General Prezan and Professor Jorga to carry his invitations personally. General Prezan will visit Belgrade, Rome, Brussels and Paris, while Professor Jorga will go to London and Washington. Both will start June 30.

To Take Short Rest

The King, who ten days ago deserted Mme. Magda Lupescu for the cares of a throne, has become overworked and will go to Pelesch Castle, about fifty miles from here, to rest until Thursday.

Since his arrival in Bucharest Friday a week ago the sovereign has been the centre of crowding events which thrust his eight-year-old son from the throne, placed a crown on his own head, and all but brought a reconciliation with his divorced wife, Queen Helen, mother of Michael and a former Princess of Greece.

A high official issued denial of reports that Mme. Lupescu was returning to Bucharest.

TUG IS UNABLE TO PULL BOATS OFF CHANNEL ROCKS

OWEN SOUND, June 16. (C.P.)—The tug Guardian and consort barge Sagamomre, which went ashore on Friday on Devil's island, Bank Cape Hurd channel, are still fast on the rocks, according to word received from Tobermory on Monday morning.

The tug Strathbogie of Midland, which went to her assistance, has been unable so far to pull either of the craft off the rocks, and it is thought that the barge will have to be relieved of at least a part of her cargo before she can be moved.

A heavy fog prevails on Lake Huron and the Strathbogie is unable to get near the wrecked boats. The crew of the Sagamore are still aboard.

NATIONALIST FORCES SUFFERING REVERSES

SHANGHAI, June 16 (C.P.).—Indications that the Nationalist Government forces defending the tricities of Hankow, Wuchang and Hanyang against the thrusts of two rebel armies had suffered their second reverse in three days appeared to-day in Japanese advices from Hankow.

The reports said the eastern wing of the rebellious northern alliance forces had made a sharp advance southward to Shumatien, about 225 miles north of the three cities, on the Peiping-Hankow Railway. Nationalist forces were said to be withdrawing.

CRITICALLY ILL MARKET WIZARD FOUND STARVING

A. P. Choate, Old Peterborough Boy, is Found in New York Hospital.

ONCE ON MAIL.

Had Been Living in Mid-town Rooming House Until Condition Became Serious.

TORONTO, June 16. — Master of the stock market in Toronto 30 years ago, A. P. Choate was admitted to Bellevue Hospital, New York, Sunday, victim of starvation and senility. His condition was reported as critical.

Choate was considered one of the most successful financial operators in Canada and friends said last night that no Canadian has before or since equalled his daring, his quick success and his sudden failure.

He was receiving $5 a week as Mail and Empire financial editor in the early years of the century, when he started the speculation in American stocks, which netted him a million dollars. He left newspaper work and became a broker. Then he decided to sell everything and go to England for a long holiday. He had never been in England.

With a million dollars invested in bonds he left for New York to sail for the Old Country. With a few hours before his boat sailed he visited the New York Stock Exchange. He had never been there before.

He arrived as operators were staging a bear attack on one of his favorite stocks. He jumped in to bolster it up.

Choate never went to England. When he sold all his bonds there was little left. Friends in Toronto lost sight of him.

In New York he had been living in a mid-town rooming house until his condition became so weakened that an ambulance was called to take him to hospital. Christopher Cella, proprietor of the rooming house, said that Choate lived as a recluse. Until a year and a half, Cella said, Choate regularly received cheques from a Rochester, N. Y., bank. At one time he was a member of the New York Canadian Club, but gave up his membership five years ago.

He was born in Peterborough, Ont., the son of a hotel proprietor.

NEW YORK, June 16. (C.P.) — Antoine Percival Choate, the man who made a million on the Toronto stock exchange, only to lose it again when he sought to bolster his favorite bonds here a quarter of a century ago, was still in a serious condition to-day as a result of starvation.

Mr. Choate, now over 70 years of age, collapsed on Saturday and was taken to the Bellevue Hospital. He was about to enter the house where he lived in a $6 a week room when he collapsed.

The stricken financier, a graduate of Oxford and Princeton, appeared deserted to-day as no visitors had made their appearance up to noon.

YACHTS COLLIDE SAILOR DROWNED

Motion Picture Actress and Nine Others Are Rescued.

THROWN INTO WATER.

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 16.—(C.P.)—A sailor was drowned and ten persons including Claire Windsor, motion picture actress, were rescued when two yachts, one owned by Phillip N. Plant, prominent Broadway figure, collided late last night three miles off Greenwich, Conn.

The Plant yacht, Lolita, on which Miss Windsor was a guest was struck amidships by the Chandwan III., owned by Chatfield Taylor.

Thrown into the water by the impact, Miss Windsor and the other passengers were picked up by the Chandwan, which cruised about the wreckage with its bow badly stove in.

The missing sailor was a member of the Lolita's crew. His name was not known.

CAPONE GIVEN 3 YEARS.

CHICAGO, Ills., June 16 (C.P.).—Ralph J. Capone, brother of Al 'Scarface' Capone, to-day was sentenced to three years in the Federal Penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas, and fined $10,000 for having defrauded the Government by fyling false income tax returns. He was convicted of the charge on April 25.

French War-Time Finance Minister Dies Discredited by His Own Nation

PARIS, June 16.—(C.P.)—A woman from across the hall and his valet of 20 years today watched over the body of Lucien Klotz, French war-time Minister of Finance, who died Sunday discredited and in greatly reduced circumstances.

Death came at the age of 63 while Klotz, who signed the Treaty of Versailles, was being shaved by a barber who had called at his apartment.

In 1928, after having reputedly lost heavily in the New York Stock market Klotz suffered a collapse, and shortly afterward was charged with issuing bad cheques. He resigned his seat in the senate to escape criminal charges, but after being pronounced sane was sentenced to two years in prison and a fine of 50 francs. The sentence was suspended.

As crowning blows his wife divorced him and he was disbarred by the Paris Bar Association. During the last year of his life his purchase for the government of United States war stocks left in France was under considerable fire.

HUNDREDS MOURN AS W. F. KERR, K.C. IS LAID TO REST

Members of Bar From Northumberland, Durham and Peterborough Counties Are Present.

FINAL TRIBUTE PAID.

Six Provincial Policemen Who Were Friends of Deceased Act as Pallbearers.

(By A Staff Reporter)

COBOURG, June 16.—The friends of William F. Kerr, K.C., late Crown Attorney of the counties of Northumberland and Durham, men and women, youth and age, of many different personal interests, of varied occupations and professions, of divergent opinions and loyalties in religion and politics, united in a last tender tribute to his life and spirit here Saturday afternoon.

His funeral, that last silent departure from "Sunnyside", the home that was so dear to him, to St. Peter's Anglican church, the old church of his family, was a solemn mournful revelation of what the character of William F. Kerr meant to a large community that extended far beyond Cobourg's boundaries.

Prominent in the congregation that filled the church, and afterwards accompanied the body to the cemetery, were nearly all the members of the Bench and Bar of the counties of Northumberland, Durham and Peterborough, officials of the courts and of the provincial police, also many representatives of Masonic lodges of the district, members of Rotary Clubs, of the Cobourg town council, a numerous representation from the council of the united counties, together with former wardens of the counties.

And in the background of this sombre scene of the passing of one of Cobourg's most beloved citizens was the restrained and reverential approbation of the Anglican church upon the life and service of one of her sons in whom she had been well pleased. The church seemed in that hour of requiem not merely the stately edifice it is, not just a physical place, but an entity predominantly spiritual as, in fancy, a mystical fellowship of the living members and the departed at the silent transition of him who was bodily present for the last time, but whose spirit had gone on before.

Rector's Tribute.

Rev. Dr. Stanage Boyle, rector of St. Peter's, delivered a eulogy of Mr. Kerr that gained emphasis from its significant reserve.

"I can hardly exaggerate", he said, "the loss which this church and community, this province and indeed the Dominion as a whole has suffered in the death of W. F. Kerr. Various spheres of his influence are bereft; and it is needless for me to attempt to describe the desolation of soul and spirit into which we have been plunged by his sudden death. The whole community is reduced to grief. Everyone has lost a friend in his passing; all of us have lost a potential friend, because he was a friend to all who needed one.

It is our duty this afternoon to express the sorrow which we have heard on all sides, and to give to them who were more intimate with him the Christian comfort of the Gospel.

We should like to have kept him another few years at least, but let us

The Weather

Sunday was a warm day — oppressively hot, judging by the feelings of personal discomfort. Yet the thermometer went no higher than 85 degrees in the shade. The lowest, early in the morning, was 65 degrees. Identically the same figures apply to Saturday's highest and lowest point. — W. E.

New C.P.R. Liner Sails to Canada

London, Eng., June 16.—(C.P.)—Amid the shrieking sirens and dipping flags of all steamers in port the new Canadian Pacific steamship Empress of Japan, left Liverpool yesterday on her maiden voyage. Her destination was Quebec but the new vessel will return at once, making only one round trip to the Canadian port, then leave for Hong Kong, via Suez, to take up her regular Pacific route between Canada and the Orient.

AGED PIONEER PASSES IN CITY

David Byers, Aged 94, Dies at His Home in Peterborough.

BORN IN CAVAN.

The death of David Byers which occurred in this city on Saturday evening, at the age of 94 years, severs another link in the connection with that hardy little band of men and women who pioneered in this County and whose dauntless perseverance and tenacity of spirit gave birth to the thriving communities as we know them to-day.

Following an illness of three weeks duration, prior to which the old gentleman had retained a fair measure of health and vitality, the end came peacefully enough the day following his 94th birthday anniversary.

The late Mr. Byers was born in Cavan township and farmed till fifteen years ago when he came to reside in this city and to enjoy the remaining years of his industrious and hard-working life.

Mr. Byers who received his education at first in a little log cabin at the roadside at Bloomfield, was the son of a pioneer of this country. His father was of old Irish stock and it is a coincidence that he moved from Cavan County Ireland to Cavan township Peterborough.

The late Mr. Byers remained at school till he was eighteen and then went to learn the wagon making trade at which he remained for about a year, before returning to his father's farm.

VOLUNTEERS ARE HELD BY POLICE FOR PICKETING

Government Details Troops to Bombay Area to Meet Any Emergencies.

MONSOONS BREAK.

Officials Believe Riot Troubles May Be Over For Some Little Time.

BOMBAY, India, June 16 (A.P.)—The Viceroy ordinance prohibiting picketing by Nationalist volunteers was invoked this morning and 26 insurgents picketing European and Indian dealers in foreign cloth in the Fort area were arrested.

The ordinance makes picketing a penal offense. The All-Indian National Congress committee planned to replace the pickets as quickly as they were arrested. Two lorries filled with police continually patrolled the area in which the arrests were made.

Considerable forces of troops have been drawn here from Poona and elsewhere within the last two or three days to meet any emergencies arising from the Government's campaign again the pickets. Four hundred men of the East Lancashire Regiment arrived Sunday in addition to other large contingents brought here.

The monsoon has just broken, bringing a deluge of rain throughout Bombay Presidency. During the next three months a probable 100 inches of rainfall will be recorded here. Some say Government official do not disguise their relief. An unnamed high official was quoted by the correspondent of The Daily Express as pointing from a window at the downpour and saying "Providence has come to our assistance. This will mean the end of riots for some weeks."

The 26 volunteers arrested for violation of the anti-picketing ordinance were sentenced to four months rigorous imprisonment.

Forty-five Nationalist volunteers of whom forty-two were women, were arrested while picketing premises at Bandra near Bombay, where an auction of toddy licenses was being held.

TARIFF ATTITUDE OF HOOVER CLOSELY WATCHED BY CANADIANS

Well Informed Circles Claim Flexible Provisions to be Put Into Effect Immediately.

TWO YEARS IN OFFICE.

WASHINGTON, D.C., June 16.—(C.P.) Herbert Hoover has now been President of the United States for two years—half his term. Canadians are asking, what is the attitude of the most enigmatic occupant of the White House toward the Dominion?

Well informed circles believe that he is opposed to the great increase in the height of the tariff wall along the northern border provided for in the Hawley-Smoot bill. It is said that after he signs the bill he will at once issue the flexible provision to reduce the more outstanding levies against Canadian exports. Inasmuch as most of the duties against Canadian goods bear upon agricultural products and inasmuch as he has declared himself for the assistance of agriculture in the United States it is difficult to see how many reductions might be made.

The President's interest in the development of the St. Lawrence seaway is a matter of record. In an address delivered in the south he intimated his government was awaiting action by "Our Canadian Friends."

Reduce U.S. Buying

LONDON, Eng., June 16. (C.P.)—Although the British press as a whole has not yet reacted to passage of the tariff bill by both Houses of Congress some of the principal organs have voiced their views on the effect the new rates will have on United States foreign trade.

Such expressions as have appeared take the view the effect will be decidedly adverse.

HUGH McARTHUR BELMONT FARMER DIES FROM INJURIES RECEIVED WHEN TEAM OF COLTS RUNS AWAY

Horses Were Hitched to Wagon Loaded With Plough and Harrows.

NO EYE WITNESSES.

Reach is Believed tot Have Broken, Scaring the Young Horses.

HAVELOCK, June 16 (Examiner Correspondence)—On Saturday afternoon about four o'clock, Hugh McArthur of Belmont received fatal injuries when the wagon in which he was riding broke and he was thrown to the ground in the lane leading to his home, about five miles north of Havelock on the Stoney Lake road, and a short distance from the hill known as the devil's elbow.

Mr. McArthur had been to Havelock in the morning, and on his return took his team of colts in the wagon, loaded it with the plough and harrow and started for a field north of the house, where he intended to work for a short time. Shortly afterwards, his wife's attention was drawn by unusual sounds, and on looking out she saw the horses with a part of the wagon some distance down the lane, and the back part standing near the barn. When she ran to the scene of the accident, she discovered her husband lying unconscious with a large gash in the back of his head, his right leg was broken in two places. Apparently the pin had come out of the reach of the wagon, and as the horses were only colts, they ran away. Mr. McArthur's leg must have been caught in the wheel, as he was dragged a considerable distance before being thrown clear of the wheels. His shoulder was badly crushed also. There was no eye witness of the tragedy, so it is not known exactly what did happen. Dr. Jos. Holdcroft of Havelock was called but held out no hope for his recovery. He died at 11.30 Saturday night, about eight hours after the accident. He never regained consciousness.

Highly respected

Mr. McArthur was married and had two children, a boy and a girl, aged ten and twelve. His wife was Miss Pollock, a daughter of Mr. John Pollock of Rush Point. He was well known and highly respected in this community. For nineteen years he held the position of Superintendent of the Sunday School at Rush Point and was active in all church work.

Last January he headed the polls in the township election for council. This was his first venture in the municipal field.

Mrs. Bernard Smith, Mrs. Wannamaker, and Mrs. Cochrane of Havelock, and Mrs. Menzie and Mrs. Keene of Belmont are sisters, and Alexander and Martin McArthur of Belmont are brothers. Besides these he leaves a host of friends and other relatives to mourn his tragic death. The funeral was held to Rush Point Church Monday afternoon; interment being made in Maple Grove Cemetery.

Quietness Reigns Along the Border

DETROIT, Mich., June 16.—(C.P.)—Conditions along the Detroit river during the first two weeks of operation of the new Canadian liquor export law have just about convinced Col. Heinrich A. Pickert, collector of customs, that commercial smuggling of liquor has ceased.

Col. Picker isn't sure yet whether it is a permanent peace or an enforced armistice in the liquor war zone. "Of course", he said. "We don't know whether they are going to reform or try something else."

CAMPBELLFORD YOUTH IS GIVEN THREE MONTHS

Charles Whitehead Pleads Guilty to Forging Name of His Father on Cheque.

ARRESTED IN TORONTO.

Parent Asks Court to Not Send His Son to Penitentiary.

TORONTO, Ont., June 16.—(CP)—Charles Whitehead was sentenced to the Ontario Reformatory for three months plus six month indeterminate in police court here today for forging the name of his father James Whitehead, Campbellford paper mill worker, to a cheque for $1,600.

A pathetic scene ensued when the grey haired father pleaded for mercy for his son. "I don't want him to be sent to prison", he said.

"What kind of a mean scoundrel are you," asked Magistrate Brown of the prisoner. "It's the razor strap you need most of all. It was all premeditated. If it were not for the painful plea of your own father I would send you to the penitentiary."

In statement to the police young Whitehead said he had been working as a chauffeur at Niagara Falls. He had gone home to Campbellford and asked for money. When his father refused him he took his father's bank book, according to police, and came to Toronto where he attempted to cash the cheque. Inquiries made by the bank resulted in his arrest.

W. B. Horkins whose native town is Campbellford appeared for the accused and pointed out he had not been successful in obtaining the money.

CRAZED PATIENT WOUNDS DOCTOR THEN SUICIDES

Dr. Patrick Scott is in Owen Sound Hospital With Two Bullet Wounds.

REGARDED AS CHUMS.

Doctor Was Nearing Patient's Home in Southampton When Shooting Occurred.

OWEN SOUND, June 16.—Hutchison Jackson, a 60-year-old Southampton citizen, while in a crazed condition fired two shots at Dr. Patrick J. Scott, his physician, both taking effect in the head, and then turned the muzzle of the gun on himself, blowing out his brains and expiring immediately. Dr. Scott is in a serious condition in the Owen Sound General and Marine Hospital, with some hope of recovery provided complications do not set in.

The attempted murder and suicide took place shortly after 9 o'clock on Sunday morning when Dr. Scott, who had been treating Jackson, went over to call on him. When within a very short distance from the house Jackson shouted at the doctor and, whipping the revolver out of his pocket, fired point blank. One of the bullets entered the head about an inch in front of the right ear, fractured the jaw, cut through both tonsils and came out exactly opposite to where it entered, while the other bullet entered the right side of the neck and went through the fleshy part a short distance above the spine, and also came out exactly opposite to where it entered.

Manages to Get Home

Dr. Scott, though badly wounded and bleeding terribly, managed to get away from the scene and walked across a small field to his home, where he was found sitting on the rear steps, still bleeding. Jackson very soon after the doctor disappeared shot himself, making no mistake in his aim. He was found about six feet away from his own back door on the grass, and the Smith and Wesson .38-calibre revolver with which he did the deed was lying close to his head, and was covered with blood.

Dr. Scott was given attention by Dr. Laird, and, accompanied by Chief Constable Norman Murray, was hurried off to Owen Sound where he was given further attention.

Jackson had not been in good health for several weeks, according to his friends, and during the last few days particularly he had been suffering a great deal from a nervous breakdown. Although he had not given any signs of volence, and no one knew that he even possessed a revolver, on Saturday night his neighbor, Malcolm Mathieson, took him out for a motor car drive in order to quiet his nerves, and then remained with him until after 2 o'clock in the

LARGE ATTENDANCES FAREWELL SERVICES

Rev. J. H. Dudgeon Delivers Impressive Addresses in St. James' United Church.

The farewell communion and reception service held in St. James' United Church on Sunday, by Rev. J. H. Dudgeon, the pastor, was largely attended.

In keeping with the spirit of the service was the short and impressive message by the pastor, which he voiced in the words of Paul as written in 1st Corinthians 12.

He emphasized the fact that the members about to be received would form an essential part of the church, each having their own service to perform, as does each member in the human body.

In receiving the fifteen new members, some by transfer and some by confession of faith, Rev. Mr. Dudgeon spoke of the spiritual importance of the step which they were taking. At the conclusion of the reception service, Communion was administered for the last time in the pastorate of Mr. Dudgeon, which added to the solemnity of the occasion.

An Evangelistic hour was marked by the stirring message delivered in the evening, from Proverbs 23:7, "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he." None of us realize fully, said the speaker, the power of thought. It is the one power that determines the nature, actions, achievements, attainments and the realization of man.

Key to the Future

To learn to think is to find the key to the future. What we think should be guarded as much as what we say. Thackeray says, "Sow a thought and reap an act; sow an act and a reap a habit; sow a habit and reap a character, and sow a character and reap a destiny.

Speaking of the influence for good of a mother's thought upon the life of her child, Mr. Dudgeon cited many notable example, including Michael Angelo, Napoleon, and further back in the history, the child Samuel.

Neither can we have unholy thoughts without their revealing themselves. a woman of criminal tendencies is said to be responsible, indirectly for the criminal lives of 700 of her descendants. Now, if one person's evil thoughts could bring such trouble to a nation, what could one holy thinking individual do?

The health of a man's body is determined in no small degree by his thinking; for every thought we think, every emotion we feel, everything to which we give attention makes an impression upon our lives.

The reading of to-day influences the public, causing much of the crime and we will never suppress crime so long as we breed it. We must read right, and think right if we ever hope for reform.

Let us think of what is pure, true, noble, beautiful and good, for to think of these elevates the soul; the reverse draws one down.

The man who thinks he has no chance destroys his chance by his acknowledgement of self defeat. For, "As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he."

The music at both services under the direction of Frank Stevens, organist and choir leader, was very attractive, and was fitting to the occasion. Anthems, "Lord of Heaven," Rossi; "Hark, Hark, My Soul," Shelly. Junior Choir selections: "The Regions Beyond," Simpson; "At the Cross I'll Abide," Baltzell; Solo, "Jesus Lover of My Soul," Miss Geneva Sedgwick.

Sunlight's Power to Build Health now Stored in Muffets

the new Whole Wheat Biscuit

Only cereal with the sunshine vitamin which children need for hard bones . . . sound teeth. Adults, too, need it to restore wastage of teeth and bones.

YEARS of research perfected it . . . this crisp, well-browned, whole-wheat biscuit called a Muffet. It is made of the entire grain of the wheat. Nothing is added; nothing is taken away. Thus you get in a Muffet important minerals, proteins and roughage. Read the complete statement of health facts printed here.

So good to eat, too. All the nut-like flavor of whole wheat baked and toasted crisp. Enticing to your appetite, either alone or with milk or cream or fruit juice added.

And now Muffets bring you not only the three essential vitamins that nature puts into whole wheat, but a fourth vitamin besides! By a patented, scientific process called irradiation there is stored up in every Muffet as much of the precious "sunshine" vitamin as is obtained from 20 minutes' exposure to noonday summer sun, or to 3 hours of midwinter sunshine. Laboratory tests indicate this. That's why we are able to say that in vitamin value every Muffet you eat is like an hour spent in the sun.

Grown-ups need this sun vitamin that is in Muffets just as well as children. Sun transforms weary men and women . . . brings new vigor and health to adults as well as to young.

You will want to take advantage of this health benefit that is in no other cereal. These biscuits are delicious. Their crisp texture . . . their nut-like flavor . . . are unchanged by irradiation. Economical . . . for the price has not been increased. Ask your grocer for Muffets.

Health Facts

1 For growth—The proteins in Muffets are far more efficient than the proteins of ordinary fine cereals.
2 For bones and teeth—3 times as much phosphorus in Muffets as in white flour. 20% more calcium than even in ordinary whole wheat bread!
3 For your blood—3 times as much iron in Muffets as in cornmeal or rice.
4 For well-being—Roughage—in the exact proportion intended by nature is in every Muffet.
5 Vitamins—4 important vitamins, one being the new "Sunshine" vitamin never before obtainable in cereal . . . the vitamin that helps you to assimilate the calcium in your food.

Runaway Auto Plunges Down Incline Railway and Delhi People Die

TWO ARE INJURED

HAMILTON, June 16. — Plunging more than 630 feet down the mountainside after crashing through the gates of the James Street incline railway at 10.30 o'clock yesterday morning, a sedan struck the incline car with such force that two of the auto's five passengers were killed almost instantly and one more died in hospital to-day and one more was so frightfully maimed that little hope is held for her recovery. The fifth passenger, a 14-year-old boy, escaped with a broken ankle and shock.

Theadead are Alexander Dick, retired farmer, of Delhi; Mrs. Anne Bertling, also of Delhi, and David Bertling, of Delhi. Gravely injured is Mrs. Alex. Dick. Gordon Bertling, son of David and Mrs. Bertling, escaped any serious hurts.

The Dick and Bertling families, who are neighbors in Delhi, planned a picnic to Niagara Falls yesterday. Coming down the Caledonia Highway they approached the head of the incline railway at a fair rate of speed. The railway engineers at first thought that they intended turning down the Jolley Cut, but the car came straight ahead, apparently without slackening pace, and, in spite of the shouts of Engineer Richard Herbert, it crashed through the wood barrier. The car dropped 16 feet, struck the wooden trestle supporting the railway, and then, completely beyond control, tore down the grade of 40 per cent., gaining momentum every second.

HOOVER TO SIGN NEW TARIFF BILL

Foreign Countries' Complaints Will Be Referred to Tariff Commission.

FLEXIBLE PROVISIONS.

WASHINGTON, June 16 (C.P.).—President Hoover announced yesterday he would sign the tariff bill.

In a lengthy statement, issued at the White House, the President said it was urgent that the "uncertainties in the business world" should be ended by completion of the bills; that the rate increases "are largely directed to the interest of the farmer," and that the new flexible provision afforded an opportunity to "remedy inequalities" and take the tariff away from "politics, lobbying and log-rolling."

Stresses Flexible Provisions.

"I shall approve the tariff bill," the statement began, and then laid great stress on the importance of the flexible provision under which the Tariff Commission would recommend rate changes to the Executive for approval or disapproval.

The President said complaints from foreign countries that some of the rates were too high could be "remedied, if justified, by proper application to the Tariff Commission," and added that, if the flexible clause should prove inadequate, he would ask Congress that further authority be granted the Commission.

Asserting every tariff bill was "bound to contain inequalities, injustices and objectionable compromises," Mr. Hoover said he was "convinced that the disposal of the whole question is urgent."

Remedy Inequalities.

"I believe," he asserted, "that the flexible provisions can within a reasonable time remedy inequalities; that this provision is a progressive advance and gives great hope of taking the tariff away from politics, lobbying and log-rolling; that the bill gives protection to agriculture for the marketing of its products and to several industries in need of such protection for the wage of their labor; that with returning normal conditions our foreign trade will continue to expand."

Centre of World-Wide Interest

Prince Carol, former exile, was proclaimed King Carol II. of Roumania at Bucharest, the capital, forming one of the most sensational coups in modern history. The Roumanian parliament passed an ex post Facto law that not only stripped Michael, 9-year-old boy king, of his title, but declared Carol II. of Roumania, and (3) Princess Helene.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

CHICAGO, June 16. — (A.P.)— Wholesale throwing overboard of holdings of future deliveries of all grain sent values crashing downward Saturday, with wheat reaching as low as 99c. a bushel. This was the first time during 1930 that wheat has sold at less than $1, and not only wheat, but corn, rye and oats broke the season's previous bottom price record. Rye plumbed the lowest depth since 1904.

WINNIPEG GRAIN

WINNIPEG, June 16. —(CP)— In precipiatte rout, on the Winnipeg grain market, wheat values closed a weary week yesterday. Under heavy trading during the short session, prices declined 2⅜ to 2¾ cents, on the heels of losses yesterday and the day before that amounted to five cents per bushel in all three futures.

July wheat slipped back almost to the year's low point, $1.03, missing the mark by a mere ¾ cent; the nearest month, however, rallied a bit to close above $1.04.

Rains in dried-out sections of the west continued to bear down on values, but financial stringency and the press of the new crop in the U. S. accounted for a good portion of the decline. Cash trading in grains was light, though interest in wheat showed improvement.

Karl K. Homouth Is Given Nomination

KITCHENER, Ont., June 16.— (C.P.)—Karl K. Homuth, Preston M.L.A. for Waterloo South, was nominated Saturday by Conservatives of Waterloo North to contest the riding in the forthcoming Dominion election.

In addressing the meeting Mr. Homuth conceded he was facing a difficult task in opposing Hon. W. D. Euler, Minister of National Revenue in the present Dominion government. Mr. Euler has been nominated by Liberals of Waterloo North.

Mr. Homuth claimed conditions in Canada industrially were bad and that the electors desired a change of government. He said his fight would not be purely against Mr. Euler but against the entire King government.

ENDS PILES QUICK

No Salves or Cutting

Piles are caused by congestion of blood in the lower bowel. Only an internal medicine can remove the cause. That's why salves and cutting fail. HEM-ROID, the prescription of Dr. J. S. Leonhardt, removes this congestion and strengthens the affected parts.

Hem-ROID is now sold by druggists everywhere, and has such a wonderful record of success even in chronic and stubborn cases that McDermid & Jury, Bond's Drug Store invites every Pile sufferer to try HEM-ROID and guarantees money-back if it does not end all Pile misery.

Regarded as Chums

Jackson, who was a fisherman, was looked upon as a good citizen, a man who always attended to his own affairs, and was fairly well to do financially. He and Dr. Scott had been boyhood friends; went to school together and were regarded as chums, although Dr. Scott is about three years the elder. Jackson was an adopted boy, and it was understood his family live in Toronto.

It was learned in Southampton on Sunday, following the shooting, that Jackson had recently purchased the home in which he lived with his sister, Miss Lillian Jackson, from Mrs. Edward Longe, mother of Harry Longe, who is at present in Walkerton Jail awaiting trial on the charge of murdering Earl Yeomans on Thursday, April 10 last. These negotiations are said to have caused his nervous breakdown. There is not much question that he was raving mad when he shot Dr. Scott on Sunday morning and then took his own life.

The shooting created a great sensation in Southampton as soon as it became known, and many people visited the scene of the tragedy during the day. Dr. Laird, Coroner, deemed an inquest unnecessary.

Dr. Scott lived at Southampton with a sister, Mrs. Donald Munn. It is said that a woman delivering milk saw the shooting, but details of the tragedy are still vague.

UNDER THE FLEUR-DE-LYS

On December 30th the difficulty of small change had become acute, and it was impossible to sell sixpenny worth of meal because there was no smaller coin. B.P. therefore issued special paper notes. January passed quietly, but in February life in the besieged town became more strenuous. On the 13th Captain Girdwood died of wounds. He was a heavy loss, as he had been right hand man to Captain Ryan in the commissarial department. On February 19th the first member of the garrison (a native) died from starvation.

February 28th runners entered the town from Colonel Plumer with dispatches. From these it was learned that Kimberley had been relieved by General French on February 9th. This good news put fresh courage into the garrison.

However, by March 16th B.P. was informed that he must be prepared to hold out until the middle of May. This was a great blow to all concerned, as everyone had fervently hoped that they would be relieved long before this.

Shortages now became more apparent. Bank notes, postage stamps, and coins for currency had all disappeared, but B.P. was equal to the occasion. He himself drew a design for £1, 10s, 3s and 1s bank notes for immediate issue.

During the end of March the enemy were fairly quiet; in fact thought B.P. much too quiet. So he stirred up their big gun by occasional shots into their battery from his Hotchkiss.

April, the last month of the seige, was perhaps the most strenuous of all. Bombardments were heavier, and on April 13th, thirty high velocity shells were fired into the women's laager, and the hospital was "pompomed." On April 12th the following message was received from Her Majesty the Queen: "I continue watching with confident admiration the patient and resolute defence which is so gallantly maintained under your ever resourceful command."

We read how that, by the beginning of May, after more than 200 days of seige, relief was near at hand. The Boer investing forces were getting anxious, and it became a case of now or never. They therefore planned a grand and final attempt to take Mafeking. The attack was launched, and defeated on May 12th, and it is graphically described in B.P.'s first letter to his mother after the relief of Mafeking, which is an historic document.

"....at 4 a.m. the enemy made their grand effort to take Mafeking. Eloff, their most determine leader, with about thirty French and Germans, headed the attack, and led the Boers straight through out outer line of defence, so that they could not get into the heart of the place. We closed our outer line round them, so that when day dawned they found themselves shut in—only after nightfall did we finish the job; we killed and wounded 70 of them, captured Eloff and 106 Boers and drove the remainder headlong out of the place.

On May 16th the defenders could hear the guns of the relief force coming up from the south. So B.P. took out a force and cleared the trenches, the Boers fleeing in all directions over the Transvaal. Mafeking was relieved on the 18th.... the end of the seige has in itself been a grand refreshment to me, it was a long strain of anxiety, and I had to wear a mask of nonchalance all the while."

So chums, B.P. won through. But what a miserable version is the above? A mere skeleton of the wonderful story in the book itself. The story stands out, vivid and real, with a breathless note of suspense running through every page. When the siege is finally raised and the danger averted an involuntary sigh of relief escapes you.

Next week's extracts will tell how England received the news. Also to cover chapters telling how B.P. first conceived the idea of Scouting for boys, and put it into practice. Tl. then,

Cheerio, and good Scouting.

How One Woman Lost Fat and Gained Health

Many people who are fully aware of the health-giving properties of Kruschen Salts have not yet heard of the wonderful effects these Salts have in reducing unhealthy, excess fat. By their gentle action on the liver, kidneys and bowels they urge these organs to throw off the poisonous waste matters, which, if allowed to accumulate, form fatty deposits in the body. Read how this woman lost fat and gained health:—"I have taken Kruschen Salts every day for nearly a year, and I have not felt so well for many years. My weight has dropped from 163 lbs. to 140 lbs. All my acquaintances say how much younger and better I look. I feel bright and well, whereas before I was always nervous and tired."—Mrs. B.

Try taking Kruschen Salts every morning in a glass of hot water before breakfast. Little by little the unhealthy accumulations of fat will slowly but surely disappear. A new feeling of health and vitality will follow—the years will fall away as your form takes on the slender lines of youth.

LESS HORSE-POWER; MORE HORSE-SENSE.

A Detroit insurance company has evolved a slogan that a good many motorists should keep constantly in mind.

"A little less horse-power and a little more horse-sense," is the company's remedy for automobile accidents, and it would seem to hit squarely in the centre of the target.

"Horse-sense" would prevent the greater part of the traffic mishaps that fill the newspapers these days.

"Horse-sense" would do away with cutting-in; would eliminate racing and speeding; would cause motorists to obey stop signs and traffic rules, and to stop, look and listen at railway crossings, would insist upon greater attention to brakes, tires and equipment—generally—in short, would result in safe and sane driving.

While Canada's traffic toll is fortunately much lighter in proportion than that of the United States where 31,000 people were killed and one million were injured and the economic loss reached close to the billion dollar mark last year, our death and accident rate is alarmingly high and the conditions certainly called for what this slogan prescribes, "less horse-power and more horse-sense."

THE FORESTRY FLYERS.

In the matter of businesslike use of aircraft, safe and sane flying and freedom from accidents, the Provincial Air Force, engaged on forestry patron in the northern part of Ontario, would seem to be establishing a standard of efficiency that will stand comparison with any unit anywhere.

They don't often get into the newspapers, those boys of the aerial forestry patrol, but they're doing a man's-sized job in a manner that demands admiration.

The record established during the recent battle with timber fires by Pilot A. M. Delamere is a typical example of the flying skill as well as the devotion to duty of the provincial flyers.

An official report sets forth the bare details.

Delamere started flying at 3.30 o'clock in the morning, and with the exception of a few minutes out for meals and refuelling, was in the air until 10 o'clock that night.

During that time he made nineteen flights, transported over two tons of fire-fighting equipment and carried a total load altogether of 21,490 pounds.

Pilot Delamere's mark of 16 hours' flying time in one day, we are told, breaks the record of the service by fifty-five minutes.

It is worthy of note that while he was making this outstanding contribution to the history of the forestry patrol, a fellow pilot flying from the same station was in the air for over 13 hours, the two machines compiling a total of over 29 hours in the air on that one day.

WHAT REALLY MATTERS.

The Examiner publishes to-day another letter from our Lakefield contributor, who took us to task because we applauded a defence of Ontario voiced by a former Peterborough clergyman.

As it will be seen, he is getting away from the original point by stressing the statement that the sale of liquor is increasing.

As a matter of fact, there is reason to believe that there has been less liquor sold in the Province during the past few months than there was during the same period last year, and that unless there is an abnormally large tourist influx this condition is likely to prevail for some time.

But the amount of liquor sold has nothing to do with what The Examiner was concerned with, which was that the people of Ontario should not be held up to the outside world as a debauched and drunken people, which was certainly the impression outsiders would take out of what Mr. Drury said at Washington and particularly out of what dry leaders over the border have said.

We resent that kind of thing because we know that it is a libel on the good folks of Ontario.

Our Lakefield contributor says that he does not believe that Peterborough is more lawless and disorderly than any other city; won't he go a little further and admit that he does not know of any other city of this size anywhere where life and property are freer from attack and where there is less serious crime?

The Examiner does not propose to continue this argument any further; but in closing might refer the Lakefield writer to a study of conditions in Chicago as indicative of what a sumptuary liquor law sometimes produces.

THE PRIME MINISTER'S VISIT.

The visit of the Prime Minister of Canada should always be regarded as an occasion of outstanding importance, but when he comes as Mr. King does to-morrow to discuss the record of the Government and the policies upon which he is appealing for the support of the people, there is even more reason than usual why the electors of the city and district should avail themselves of the opportunity to hear that record and those policies expounded.

Canada is involved in a general election, and six weeks from to-day will be called upon to decide what government she desires for the next five years and what policies she wishes that government to follow.

It is of vital importance that that decision should be made by an enlightened electorate, and that every chance for information as to the platforms of the contending parties and as to other issues in the election should be seized upon by those who will have to give the verdict.

It is not possible for all constituencies to receive a visit from the party leaders.

The time is short, there are 245 ridings in all, and only a limited number of centres can be visited.

Peterborough is fortunate, therefore, in being chosen for the Prime Minister's second speech of the campaign.

The keynote will be sounded in Mr. King's speech at Brantford to-night, and it is more than probable that in his Peterborough address he will develop in greater detail the high lights of to-night's pronouncement.

At all events it is the duty of the electors of all shades of politics to avail themselves of the chance to hear the issues presented from the Government viewpoint, as it will later on in the campaign to listen to Mr. Bennett discuss the views and policies of the Opposition.

CANNOT FACE A CRISIS.

Apparently there is going to be more shooting in Chicago. We read that six squads of police sharpshooters had been given a long list of names of bad men. The instructions to these shooters ran something like this, according to the directions given at headquarters:

"Get your man and don't take any chances. Be ready for battle."

All this stir came about following the shooting down of a police reporter on a Chicago paper. The press of the entire city went after the police department, named it as inefficient and said plainly it was corrupt. The police turned loose another drive against criminals in reply to the urgings.

It is recorded that the police sharpshooters, as well as bearing many directions, carried a "secret list of 41 criminals marked as targets."

We infer from that the officers were going out to shoot these criminals on sight.

It is doubted if the world can produce a situation that can parallel the rot in Chicago, or trot alongside the nonsense of its police efforts, or match coppers with its ideas of justice.

* * * *

In the first place the police have known for some time that these 41 criminals were guilty of some desperate act, and yet they are not locked up or waiting trial. No one on that list is in the death house waiting until the executioner can attend to his case.

They are all at large.

They are all supposed to be guilty.

And the police know the names of every one of them.

And when the public conscience is aroused there is a field day for the gunners on the police department.

Those in charge must say something like this: "Here is the name of a man whom we know to be guilty of something or other. We haven't done anything about it yet, and we weren't intending to do so, but the people seem to be demanding that we make a move. So if you happen to see him around you might as well shoot him. That will create the impression that we are conducting another war on crime."

That's just about what it amounts to.

* * * *

United States got its system of justice from the British in the first place. There is nothing in British custom that says an officer has a right to run out with a gun and shoot a man who is suspected or known to have committed a crime, no matter what that crime may be.

The business of the officer is to go forth and arrest him. Then when that is attended to there is a court which the prisoner has to face, and in that he can elect as to how he shall be tried.

He is supposed to be considered innocent until his guilt has been established. He is entitled to have a lawyer to attend to his defence. The whole thing is done in an orderly and proper way, and when the court finds him guilty of death that sentence is carried out.

It is not possible to have the majesty of the law vindicated by sending out a squad of policemen and telling them to shoot.

Such an idea simply pushes to one side the whole even system of justice; it mops out the trial; it displaces judge and jury; it ignores the right of a man to have a fair trial, and makes a sort of travelling circus out of what should be an impressive and certain system of riding the land of criminals.

Chicago and its police system are so steeped in rotten politics and so stewed in graft that there cannot be action that is founded on British ideas of justice.

British justice is fearless; Chicago justice is not.

British justice does not regard a man's standing or his politics, nor does it consider whether he controls one vote or a thousand.

Chicago has played with a miserable thing for so long a time that when a crisis arrives it has nothing on which to rely. The arm of justice which should unerringly and bravely reach out for criminals is not there. Instead they seek to improvise a plan where a score of uniformed men run around the streets with guns. There's no justice in it. — Stratford Beacon-Herald.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

That Nipissing convention argument seems to have been a better fight than the Sharkey-Schmeling bout.

Toronto aldermen will not get their salary increases this year. What with one thing and another, 1930 has not been a lucky year for the civic government of the Queen City.

According to the Telegram, Toronto is bigger than any convention. Unfortunately, however, many people planning for the Shrine gathering didn't think so.

Dr. Cyrus MacMillan has been appointed Minister of Fisheries. Being a college professor, he should be thoroughly acquainted with a lot of queer fish.

Flyers of the Provincial Air Force continue to make new records. The aerial forestry patrol contains some of the most efficient pilots in the country.

The election may be tame generally, but the Liberals up in Nipissing have found something over which to fight.

The opinion of E. W. Beatty and the Earl of Derby that the question of intra-Empire trade should be taken out of party politics is shared by many. But it is not quite clear how that desirable condition can be arrived at.

If June 16th is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 8 a.m. to 9:30 a.m., from 2:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m., and from 7 p.m. to 8 p.m. The danger periods are from 11 a.m. to noon, and from 6 p.m. to 7 p.m.

The astrological influences on this date will create a spirit of good fellowship, and it will be a particularly good time for those things dependent upon the aid, good will and favor of others. Social functions will be carried off with ease and success.

The child born on this June 16th will have an innately practical nature, and its home instincts will be strongly marked. It will get along very well with its playmates and associates—a born mixer. It will be straightforward, but will suffer through the deceit of others.

You are a generous spirited, broad-minded, and good-humored person. There are few people who have had the displeasure of ever seeing you cross or annoyed. It is almost a tonic to meet you, for your optimism and enthusiasm is passed on to your companions — you also turn the lights upon others so that they shine forth in a new glory and an exalted self-opinion. It is needless to say that you win almost universal popularity, for who does not like to see a pleasing reflection?

You are big enough for real successes —you imagine yourself to be a giant when you are fighting, but you come down to earth when you have won. You exercise almost perfect self-discipline and can ride yourself with a tight rein. Your generosity often exceeds your supply and your warm sympathies move you to take upon yourself obligations for which you are neither physically or financially equal. You are a confidential safe for a great many hard luck stories, which the dynamite of curiosity and gossip never reveal—you can keep a confidence.

Perseverance, endurance, patience and caution are manifested in your character; also some psychic power and inventive ability. As a women you show practical ability in the domestic sphere, and the power to retain conjugal affection. The parental nature, the attraction to family and relatives, is very strong.

Heat and Sound Insulation

Diatomite is a light, fluffy material composed of the minute siliceous skeletons of diatoms, and is used in industry as an insulator against heat and sound, for filtering, and as an admixture in concretes and plasters. The Dominion has a large number of diatomite deposits in British Columbia, Ontario and the Maritimes.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

Mary Kate had stopped breathing. All was lost now. She raised her head, and looked defiantly, steadily, at her brother. Martin's face was ghastly.

"You said that there were others in the house, Sis?" he asked, almost in a whisper. The eyes of sister and brother met, and they might have been alone in the world.

"There weren't," Mary Kate answered, hardly audible.

"And he did call you 'Mrs. Steynes,' didn't he?"

"Yes, Mart."

Mart's tone was suddenly gentle, all brotherly.

"How much money did you take from him, dear?"

"None—" she had been planning to say, while he spoke. But the little tender word disarmed her, and she faltered out an indistinct monosyllable, and was silent, hanging her head.

"Tell me the truth, won't you, Molly? You know no one in the world loves you as much as I do," Mart pleaded.

Her armor was pierced. Through eyes suddenly drenched, again she tried to smile at him.

"Honestly, Mart, I didn't do anything wrong! Honestly, Marty."

"I know you didn't mean to," Mart said. "But you let him buy you clothes, you took his name, you went to his house and spent the night. Ah, don't now, Molly—" he protested. For the tall girl had left her chair, and taken three steps toward him, and was on her knees with her face against his cheek. "And you took his money," he finished the arraignment. "Why, you know what all that looks like!"

"But, Mart, if it isn't what it looks like, and if I didn't take his money!" Mary Kate sobbed.

"Don't cry, Molly—" he said, crying himself. His well hand was on her abased coppery head. He looked across at Christopher, and spoke with a simple and broken dignity.

"I sent for you to-day, Mr. Steynes," Martin began, "because I thought there was only one thing to be done. And I still think so."

Cass Keating laughed, as an older man laughs at a boy's dramatics; Mary Kate brought her head up suddenly, and stared amazedly into her brother's face. Christopher pursed his lips thoughtfully.

"You have your sister's word for it, and you have mine, Mr. O'Hara," Chris presently said, in his poised, leisurely way, "that nothing wrong took place."

"I know that," Martin assented.

"But that isn't enough for you?"

"It isn't that," Martin said. "But she's not quite twenty, and you are several years older. She's very poor, she hasn't a penny or an influential friend—you're a very rich man, and accustomed to buying what you want. Yachts, houses, horses for your polo, jewels, and I suppose women, too."

"You can suppose what you like, naturally," Christopher said, in a steely tone. He lighted a cigarette with a shaking hand.

"She went to your house, when there was no other woman," Mart pursued; "you called her your wife before your friends, she wore clothing you had bought, and spent the night alone with you. That there was a police investigation wasn't your fault, but—"

"I'll tell the world it was not!" Chris agreed scornfully, as Martin paused.

"Now you say, and she says, that it was all a practical joke, and I believe you," Martin resumed, reddening a little, but in no other way taking any notice of Chris' manner. "But you must see that you have done her a terrible injustice. She has been engaged to Mr. Keating here—"

"My dear Mr. O'Hara," Chris said airily, all the man of the world, "you are taking all this far too seriously. Of course we took a chance, your sister and I. But just because appearances were against us doesn't mean that you have to treat the girl as if she'd outraged all the laws of God and man!"

"No, honestly, Martin, he's right," Cass added. "You mustn't make too much of it."

He came to Martin's side, and held out his hand to Mary Kate, and she got to her feet, and went over to take the chair he had vacated. Cass sat on the arm of it, with his arm about her.

"She told me about it," he said. "It was all a mistake."

Mary Kate leaned her head against his arm, and closed her eyes. He was being so generous, so kind. And it mattered so little!

"When she says that everything was straight and aboveboard, why, that means everything was straight and aboveboard!" Cass said cheerfully.

Martin looked from one man to the other gloomily.

"He's not afraid of what people think of her reputation, Cass," Martin presently said, with a glance at Chris. "It doesn't cost him anything to hush it up, buy me off, pay my hospital bills—that's nothing to him.

"But if I'd gotten him that night—as I wish to God I had," the boy went on, leveling a sudden look of hate at the last comer, "if I'd gotten him that night, then he would have paid. Then he would have paid!"

"And you would have paid, too, and Mary would have paid," Chris reminded him, unperturbedly.

"She pays anyway," Martin returned sharply.

"I was a fool," Mary Kate whispered, her head still resting wearily against Cass' arm, her eyes still closed. "But that was the worst I was!"

There was a moment of silence, when she could feel, like tangible currents through the air, the hostility of the glances the men exchanged. Then there was a stir, and she opened her eyes and started to her feet as her mother's voice struck suddenly across the other voices.

"Well, what is all this? What's going on here?"

Mrs. O'Hara, rosy and breathless from walking, her widow's veil dangling from her dingy bonnet, her cotton gloves in her hand, was standing, amazed, in the hall doorway. She had come in from the front of the house; Tom was peering sleepily, curiously, over her shoulder.

Christopher rose politely to his feet, extinguishing his cigarette with a quick motion of long brown fingers against the little ashtray on the sink. Martin, trapped, looked desperately about him, brought his eyes back to his mother's face. Mary Kate, her face tear-stained, her hair dishevelled, her breath coming shallow and quick, went to her mother. She took off the widow's veil with her own loving experienced hands, and carried it as she had carried it many times before, into her mother's room. She came back to smile gallantly at the older woman.

"Nothing's the matter, Mother!" she said.

"Don't tell me that!" Mrs. O'Hara rebuked her sharply. She crossed to the chair Mary Kate had just vacated, and sat down, staring bewilderedly from face to face. "Whatever's happened, Mart?" she asked.

For a full minute there was the silence of utter confusion. Christopher and Cass sat down again, and Mary Kate took the chair she had first occupied at the table, and rested her chin in her hand again.

"You've met Mr. Steynes, Mrs. O'Hara?" Cass remembered to say, then, rather flatly.

The older woman acknowledged the introduction only with a shrewd appraising glance, and a brief nod.

"What's come to all of you?" she demanded.

ASKS FOR FIGURES

Lakefield, June 13, 1930

Editor, Examiner, Peterborough.

Sir:

The writer you refer to in your Editorial of yesterday, does not believe that Peterborough is more lawless, and disorderly than any other city, but, I would remind you that the sales of intoxicating liquors is increasing to an alarming extent.

The Examiner cannot get the figures for obvious reasons, but still we are reminded by The Examiner, nearly every week, that the L. C. A. as a temperence measure is much more efficacious than the O. T. A. and this in the face of all the evidence that the sale of liquor is increasing every month. The Examiner has many prohibition readers, then why this pretence? You condemned E-Premier Drury for saying, at Washington, that the sale of liquor in Ontario, under Government Sales, was increasing every month and you commend Sir Henry Drayton for saying to the Washington wets, that under the L. C. A. there is an improvement in temperence sentiment, in this Province.

Publish the facts covering liquor sales. Compare this with sales under the O. T. A. Let us have the facts and it will be evident to everyone that the Equor store is a moral and economic blight.

Your comparison with scores of cities in the U. S. is most unfair as you admit that you have only hearsay, and we have abundent testimony from the best people in the U. S. that Prohibition is an overwhelming success. Read what leading industrialists say, viz, Henry Ford, the largest and hundreds of others.

Thanking you,

Yours,

J. F. LILLICRAP

RISKS.

There comes a time when everyone must realize that certain risks must be taken.

There is no safety in always "playing safe."

I have read the life stories of most of the important men who have written their autobiographies, and I find that nearly all of them, at one time or another have taken a chance.

Not a "gambler's chance." Not a blind plunge into unknown waters.

Not a "hundred to one shot" in the hope of getting rich quick.

But the adage "nothing ventured, nothing gained" is as true to-day as when it was written.

A magazine editor who was my friend told me that he was sitting one day at his desk discharging the duties of an unimportant sub-editor when the owner of the institution called him on the telephone.

"How would you like to be the editor of the magazine was the astonishing question he heard.

"W-when?" stuttered the young man.

"This afternoon."

He said he nearly fainted at this reply.

He had been on the job a comparatively short time. He had hardly learned the routine of his own duties.

But he was willing to take the risk, though failure would result in his speedy removal to the streets, where he would have to hunt wearily for a new job.

Still he took the risk.

"I was only half convinced that I could succeed," he said "but I made up my mind that I could never get any further without taking some kind of a chance, so I took this one.

"Since then I have taken many other chances, deciding on policies that were new and opposed to magazine practice.

"My greatest and most useful discovery was that going wrong now and then didn't make as much difference as I supposed it would.

"I had a good many failures, but I wasn't fired because of them, so I began to think that running moderate risks wasn't such bad policy."

His experience was, I believe, that of everybody who keeps traveling ahead.

The fear of failure, the fear of "getting fired", is cowardly, and cowards are never successes.

I am certian that nothing really important was ever accomplished without some risk, and that a life based on the policy of "safety first" every moment would be dreary and useless, even if it did result in accumulating a fortune.

Do not be headlong in taking chances, but don't be afraid of them when they must be taken.

SEVERAL LOSSES FEATURE TRADING

Hollinger and Wright Hargreaves Remain Firm at Closing Levels.

TORONTO, Ont., June 16 (CP) — Irregularity and many losses featured trading during the early session on the Standard Stock and Mining Exchange to-day. Volume was small, although somewhat larger than that of Saturday.

Selling in International Nickel forced that stock's price down to $24, a new low mark for the year, and at which figure it was off $1.75 from the previous close. Noranda and Hudson Bay were easier, the former losing 30, and the latter 20.

Firmness was apparent in both gold groups. In the higher-priced section, Dome was up 15, and Teck Hughes 10, while Hollingers and Wright-Hargreaves were firm at previous closing levels. McIntyre went against the trend, dropping 25, to $18.25.

PRICES DECLINE TORONTO CURB

New Lows Made or Equalled in Number of Favorite Issues.

SUBSTANTIAL LOSSES.

TORONTO, Ont., June 16.—(C.P.)—Prices declined in a wavering market on Toronto Stock Exchange this morning. While the reaction did not resemble a break nevertheless substantial losses appeared all along the line and new lows were made or equalled in a number of issues. International Nickel broke a couple of points, setting a new low mark for 1930 under 24. Noranda declined fractionally, also to a new low. Brazilian Traction was down nearly three points and to within a small fraction of 40. Ford of Canada, City Dairy lost between one and two points. Service Stations more than two points and most of the oils a point or more. Walkers retreated to 10.

GERMANY FAILING TO PAY HER DEBTS

Last Minute Warning is Issued by S. Parker Gilbert, Agent General.

BERLIN, June 16. (C.P.)—The last warning of S. Parker Gilbert, agent general for reparations under the Dawes Plan, that the Reich must radically reform its budget if existing internal and external obligations, including the Young plan payments, are to be met was before the German people to-day.

In his final report, given at the end of five years' stewardship in behalf of the Dawes Plan, Mr. Gilbert declared the 1929-30 budget the most unsatisfactory since the Dawes Plan stabilization, and it was added: "There is evidence of unwillingness on the part of both government and parliament squarely and promptly to face the situation by taking the necessary steps whether to control expenditure or to provide adequate resources to cover them."

Something You Don't Need— A Want. Advt. Will Dispose of It For You.

BUYING DEMAND REMAINS LIGHT

Mining Brokers Leave Issues to Own Resources in To-day's Trading.

MARKETS DESERTED.

TORONTO, Ont., June 16. (Special to Examiner.)—It was a dull opening on the mining market to-day. Traders realizing the industrial mart were in a reactionary mood, stood around and left mining issues to their own resources. Outside of International Nickel there was no selling pressure and buying demand was light with the ticker coming to a stand still for minutes at a time.

Board rooms were practically deserted and boardmakers had no trouble in keeping up with the flow of quotations appearing on the tape. The week end brought a few familiar statements for the perusual of those interested but there was little in the way of news to swallow. Peterson Cobalt, Graham Bousquet and Sylvanite have mailed their reports for the year to shareholders and no doubt shareholders of all will find them up to expectations.

The price of copper appears to have no bottom and the more pessimistic are even talking ten cents for the metal. The price is now dragging around 12 cents, or 6 cents below the 18 cents level of not so long ago.

President Cabana and Directors of Wright Hargreaves are expected at the property to-day to inspect the mine and recent alterations at the mill. At least this is the word that comes down from Kirkland Lake. The mill is said to be operating at the rate of 600 tons daily and is to be boosted to 650 tons in a few weeks. Ore resources are also understood to be increasing rapidly.

The new by-laws of the Standard Stock and Mining Exchange are receiving favorable comment in papers across the line. One New York Daily speaks of the way the by-laws have been lightened for the protection of the public and remarks they are now among the most rigid of all exchanges on the continent.

During the past week of reaction, the gold stocks weathered the storm well. The avergage decline is less than 26 per cent, amounting to 1.95 per cent for Dome, Hollinger, Lake Shore, McIntyre, Teck Hughes, Wright Hargreaves and Vipond. As a group the gold stocks are yielding anywhere from 5 to 24 percent on the investment. Dome returns 11.2 percent Hollinger, 10.1; per cent; Teck Hughes, 8.5 per cent.; McIntyre 5.2 per cent., and Lake Shore 5.2 per cent. Premier is in a class all by itself with a yield at current prices of 24 cents.

PIVOT ISSUES AT LOW MARKS

Stocks Swept Into Avalanche of Selling on Wall Street To-day.

U. S. STEEL DOWN.

NEW YORK, June 16. (C.P.) — Stock prices were swept into one of the most precipitous declines of the year by a torrent of selling orders to-day. A long list of pivotal issues established new low levels for 1930 or longer and the selling was so heavy the ticker fell nearly half an hour behind floor transactions.

Scores of issues plunged $5 to nearly $15 a share. U. S. Steel declined $2.50 to $160, where powerful efforts were made to support it. The stock was taken at that price in large blocks, but shortly after midday it broke slightly below that level. This compared with a bottom of $150 a share reached in the November crash at which level it was rumored a supporting order to buy 200,000 shares was placed.

TARIFF ATTITUDE

a score of foreign countries already have protested against the provisions of the tariff, says that several of them "have made it plain that if the United States is resolved not to buy from them, they will have to reduce their buyings from the United States."

Chicago Grain Drops To Low Mark For Year

CHICAGO, Ills., June 16. (C.P.)—Wide open fresh breaks in all grain values took place early to-day. Each delivery on the entire list of cereals out did previous low prices records for the season. General selling was associated with removal of draught damage extension in Canada and with tariff legislation at Washington. Opening 1 to 4⅜c a bushel lower, wheat later showed little power to rally. Corn, oats, and provisions were also weak, with corn starting 5-8-1¼c off, and subsequently holding near to the initial range.

Q.—What are net quick assts? What is the importance of this figure in connection with Industrial Balance Sheets?

A.—The net quick assets is the balance left after the current liabilities are deducted from the current assets. Net current assets, net quick assets and working capital are synonymous. In industrial balance sheets this is an important figure. If the figure has been large year after year, the company is probably in a healthful condition. If the working capital is decreasing year after year, the inventor should exercise great caution. Unless the company is paying back dividends or buying or building new plants this decrease is a very bad sign. Improvements in plant and machinery are often merely renewals that the company failed to make allowance for in previous years. For this reason a careful analysis is always necessary.

Working capital should be as large as possible. Lack of working capital is very often the cause of failure. Without it, a company can't take advantage of business opportunities that are sure to arise....

ARTICLE XLVII

Q.—(a) In time of depression which class of corporations shows the greatest decrease in earnings?

A.—In times of depression the greatest decrease in earnings is shown by those companies which manufacture luxuries or high priced articles that the public can do without when money is scarce. Construction companies depending upon the building trade suffer great decreases in earnings when a period of depression comes. New homes are often luxuries and so are new office buildings. The securities of a company producing a staple product are more desirable. The company should preferably produce a number of different necessities. The securities of a railroad whose earnings are dependent upon diversified freight carriage are most desirable.

(b) Which class of corporations is most subject to competition is prosperous times?

A.—The corporations which are most subject to competition during prosperous times, are those that are making abnormal profits probably from the manufacture of specialty articles or luxuries. They invite competition.

Other companies that are subject to competition are those that do not enjoy a monopoly and those that operate from hand to mouth. The U.S. Steel Corporation that controls its own sources of raw material and owns its own railroads does not invite competition. Such a company could operate very cheaply if driven to it and in this way prevent competition.

A company whose products are easily and quickly marketable, invites competition. Similarly a company that requires a small amount of capital to commence operations is apt to have competition. Some articles are easily copied by other manufacturers and invite competition. Trade names tend to do away with much of this however.

FINANCIAL NEWS AND BRIEFS

A SPECIAL SERVICE TO THE EXAMINER

Generally in times of prosperity commodity prices soar. The latest phase of the prosperity cycle was distinctive that there was ni inflation in commodity prices: in fact the reverse was true, the general index falling gradually lower. This in no small measure is responsible for the fact that inventories were maintained at a low level and consequently when depression set in merchants did not have to sacrifice large stocks of goods. Modern transportation which makes possible hand to mouth buying also contributes to smaller inventories. The fall in commodity prices has not as yet been halted. The Dominion Bureau of Statistics index number of wholesale prices for May was 89.9 against 91.7 for April and constituted the lowest level since September, 1916. So long as the decline is in progress wholesalers hesitate to make forward committments and consequently production is slowed. It will be well to keep an eye on the trend of commodity prices as an indicator of the upturn in business.

Financial investments by the United States in Canada have increased more than 900 per cent since the beginning of the world war, state Pask and Wallbridge, New York brokers. The United States is now Canada's largest outside stockholder having a sixty per cent larger financial investment in the Dominion than Great Britain. Reports show that foreign investments in Canada have increased approximately 160 per cent in the same period.

Larger Carloadings.

Some encouragement is to be found in the report on freight carloadings. The movement of goods over the Canadian roads still is well below that of the same period for last year, but an improvement is noted for the current year, the figures for the final week of May having been the highest for the year, while those for the first week of June, worth second highest.

It was an extremely nervous market this morning and apprehension was expressed in some quarters that unless a rally were to be inaugurated, another break would result. The bears occupy a strategic position at present. Little hope is held out for a strong upward movement in the stock markets unless business gives a more forceful demonstration of improving. The bears therefore, allow the market to quieten down until investments buying at current levels is cleaned up, then they rise to renew the attack against prices. This morning there was support on the recessions from orders having placed over the week end but the greater part of this passive demand had been filed before midday, leaving the market in the uncomfortable position that heavy or forced liquidation might cause another serious reaction.

Nickel at New Low.

When International Nickel sold under 24 in the second hour this morning it set a new low price for the year and one just a few scant points above the figure at which the new stock is to be issued—$20 share. Canadians have been reported large liquidators of International Nickel in recent weeks. Some fairly large blocks have been appearing on the tape lately and this morning one order for the sale 4,000 shares also executed by a local broker. Nickels action is closely followed, not only because it is, perhaps the most widely known Canadian stock, but because it has been the basis of many Canadian holdings and weakness in this issue may undermine other Canadian stocks.

CHICAGO DEMANDS RESIGNATIONS OF HEADS IN POLICE DEPARTMENT

Business and Civic Groups Organization For Actions Against Gangs.

MAYOR IS SILENT.

CHICAGO, Ills., June 16 (C.P.)—The immediate resignation of William Russell, Commissioner of Police, and John Stege, chief of detectives, was strongly rumored to-day, despite repeated assertions by the commissioner that he would not quit under fire.

There was even talk among various business, civic and religious groups—all aroused over the murder a week ago to Alfred (Jake) Lingle, Tribune reporter — that demands might be made for the resignation of William Hale Thompson as Mayor.

The Mayor, who has made no public pronouncement of any contemplated action toward meeting the situation created by the Lingle slaying, was to meet to-day with his four closest political advisers — County Treasurer George Harding, Corporation Counsel Samuel Ettelson, Municipal Court Bailiff Bernard Snow and Eugene R. Pike, former president of the Lincoln Park Board.

Three other meetings of the day promised to have an important bearing upon the immediate feature of the administration's police policy. A group of business leaders was called to meet with Col. Robert Isham Randolph, president of the Association of Commerce, to determine a definite plan for "purifying Chicago politics." Leading clergymen were to meet for the same purpose.

The police committee of the City Council planned to call upon Commissioner Russell and Chief Stege for an accounting of their progress in the Lingle murder investigation, as well as their plans to crush the gang menace.

HILL COMMITTED ON THEFT CHARGE

Preliminary Hearing is Held in Police Court Before Magistrate Langley.

PLEADED NOT GUILTY.

Davis Hill of Dummer, was this morning committed for trial on two charges of theft following the preliminary hearing before Magistrate Langley in Police Court.

The first charge was that Hill stole a steer from Henry Dewart on or about September and October, 1928, and the other charge alleged that he stole a roll of fence wire.

Hon. G. N. Gordon, K. C., appeared for Hill, and a plea of not guilty was entered in both cases, which will be heard before Judge Huycke in County Judge's criminal court on a date not yet set.

Fred Parks, first witness for the Crown, and who pleaded guilty last week to assisting Hill steal the fence wire, told of helping Hill cut up the steer in the Davis Hill barn. According to witness, Russell Hill, brother of the accused, had brought the steer to the barn in his car, and carried home some of the meat. The head, hide and feet of the beast were concealed in a stone fence near the Hill home, and the witness told of taking a police officer there and unearthing some of the pieces.

Henry Dewart stated that in the fall of 1928 he had lost a yearling steer from his herd and could never find it.

"I think I wet over to Davis' place to get a washboard," stated Mae Hill wife of Russel Hill. She told of going out to the barn when she found no one at the house, and seeing there Fred Parks, his wife, and Davis Hill and his wife and children. All were occupied in cutting up a steer.

She said she knew it was stolen, but was afraid to tell anyone for fear that the theft would be blamed on her. "They said," she stated, "that if I ever told they would swear I cut the steer's throat."

Witness denied that any of the meat was taken to her home and cooked there. "We never even had a feed of it," she said. She further stated that her husband had nothing to do with the steer.

BRITISH PARLIAMENT RESUMES AFTER HOLIDAY

LONDON, Eng., June 16. (C.P.)—Parliament reassembles to-morrow after the Whitsuntide holidays. The official legislative programme is greatly in arrears, with much business of great importance to be accomplished. The government and the Liberals blame the parliamentary machine for this situation, while the Conservatives accuse the government of having hopelessly overloaded itself with contentious business.

To-morrow the House resumes committee stage of the finance bill, while Premier Ramsay MacDonald presides over a conference of municipal authorities to consider speeding up schemes for relief of unemployment. And apart from the legislative programme the government must shortly find time for a full dress debate on India.

BISHOP O'CONNOR CELEBRATES HIS FIRST MASS AT CATHEDRAL

WITTY KITTY

The girl-friend says that if dreams come true, Hollywood would be the girl-capital of the world.

Mystery of the Blessed Trinity Is Subject of Excellent Address.

RECTOR EXTENDS WELCOME.

Celebrating his first Pontifical High Mass at St. Peter's Cathedral yesterday, His Lordship, the Rt. Rev. Denis O'Conner, Bishop of Peterborough, spoke on the mystery of the Blessed Trinity, after reading the Epistle and Gospel for Trinity Sunday.

The Bishop said that man's greatest work in life is to adore God. Our holy faith teaches us that there is one God and that God has revealed the fact that He is one in nature and three in person. God is a spirit. The first act of a spirit is to think. Man also possesses a spirit, because he is made in the image and likeness of God, but man's spirit is finite. When man thinks he gains his knowledge from objects proposed to his mind. But when God thinks, being an infinite spirit, He has not a succession of ideas, as man, but comprehends all things in one act.

Result Is Infinite

When God contemplates His own divine perfections, the result of that act is infinite—the mental Word—coeternal with Him—a divine person—God, the Son.

But a spirit not only thinks but also loves. God necessarily loves Himself, on account of His infinite perfections, but He also loves His divine Son and the divine Son loves the Father. That mutual, infinite eternal love that exists between God and His son is the Holy Ghost—the third person of the Blessed Trinity, who is called the Spirit of Love.

By these three divine persons we are sanctified, according to the command of Christ in the morning's Gospel: "Going therefore teach all nations, baptising them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost." We are baptised in the name of the Blessed Trinity and we are strengthened in confirmation in the name of the three divine persons. When sin has separated us from God, we are restored to His friendship by their power, for we are absolved from our sins in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. And in the last hour of our lives, we are commanded to depart from this world in the name of the Father, who created us, in the name of the Son, who bled for us and in the name of the Holy Ghost, who sanctified us.

The Bishop exhorted his people to invoke the aid of the Blessed Trinity for themselves and for those placed over them, to guide them in the great work that lay before them—the attainment of everlasting happiness. He concluded by saying that he was with the Cathedral parish today to offer Pontifical High Mass in honor of the Blessed Trinity and to bless them in the name of the three divine persons.

Prior to the sermon, in making the announcements, the rector of the Cathedral, the Rev. P. Costello, extended a hearty welcome to the new Bishop, assuring him of the sincere co-operation and loyalty of all the parishioners, who had always shown themselves ready on every occasion to follow the wishes and suggestions of their Ordinary.

In celebrating Pontifical High Mass Bishop O'Connor was assisted by the Rev. P. Costello, Assistant Priest; the Rev. J. J. O'Brien and the Rev. K. Corkery, honorary deacons; the Rev. J T. Finn, deacon of the Mass; the Rev. C. Carroll, sub-deacon, and a group of students from St. Augustine's Seminary, Toronto: Earl Grant and Frank Grant, Masters of Ceremonies; Gilmour Kay, Gregory Wolff, Harold Snider and Hilaire Archambault, (book, candle, crozier and mitre); Charles Kay, second Master of Ceremonies; Eugene Snider, thurifer.

LARGE CLASS IS CONFIRMED AT ALL SAINTS'

Right Rev. J. R. Lucas, Warden of Church Army, Conducts Important Service.

APPROPRIATE MUSIC.

Church Army Gospel Van to be Dedicated Shortly Bishop Announces.

A large number of candidates for confirmation renewed their baptismal vows and received 'the laying on of hands' by the Right Rev. J. R. Lucas D. D., warden of the Canadian Church Army and former Bishop of the Diocese of Mackenzie River, at All Saints' Church at the Sunday morning service, in the presence of a very large congregation.

Moving in procession from the Parish Hall, the candidates occupied their seats in a specially reserved portion of the edifice. The girls were attired in spotless white and wore veils and gloves.

Rev. J. D. Paterson rector of the parish, voiced a few well-chosen words of welcome to His Lordship Bishop Lucas and announced that deviating from the usual custom to hold a Holy Communion service immediately following that of Confirmation, he would appeal to all the candidates to attend their first Communion next Sunday in the company of their parents and other members of the family.

Special and appropriate music was rendered by the choir throughout the service and immediately prior to the 'laying on of hands' the congregation sang the hymn "Breathe on Me, Breath of God", while kneeling.

Choosing his text from The Epistle of St. Paul to the Colossians 1:10, "That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God", the Bishop proceeded to give a masterly and interesting interpretation of the verse he had chosen to speak about.

To walk worthy of God he said required great effort but they had been strengthened this day by the spirit of the Holy Ghost. He urged the newly confirmed candidates to go from the Baptismal service and proclaim the Gospel of Christ. It is not easy, but we are bidden to do it, he declared. All the blessings we have are given us to be shared with others and that is where the question of service enters. You are called upon to serve in all spheres of life, whether it be the home, school, work or recreation. There are many forms of service, said the preacher, who enumerated several branches of church activity into which one might enter in a spirit of service.

The preacher also had a message for all those who have been previously confirmed and who have become unmindful or neglectful of their obligations. He spoke of his work among the Eskimos. Of whole families of these hardy people taking the Holy Communion together and he voiced the hope that this little scene will be enacted on Sunday next. Break down the indifference and reserve and come forward into the fulness of a good Christian life.

Dealing with the work of the Church Army, His Lordship mentioned the fact that a Church Army Gospel Van, subscribed for by the various branches of the A. Y. P. A. in the diocese, is to be dedicated shortly and will possibly be in this district during the summer.

He also mentioned other Church Army Vans which are located in various parts of the Dominion in charge of officers who are accomplishing a great deal of progressive evangelical work.

He thought there was one form of service in which all could help along this great work and that was by offering their prayers that this great mission might go ever forward in His strength and might.

Owen O'Neil Popular Speaker Here at Chautauqua

Will Tell Thrilling Story of Adventures in the Heart of South Africa

Owen Rowe O'Neil, who will give his thrilling lecture "Adventures in Swaziland" at the coming Canadian Chautauqua here, tells a true story that rivals a tale from the Arabian Nights.

Owen O'Neil's grandfather came from Ireland and founded the O'Neil family in the heart of South Africa, where young Owen grew up in close proximity to the savage Swazis, a nation of 300,000 people who were a constance menace to the surrounding Boer villages. At each new moon the late Oom Paul Kruger paid Buno, the king of the Swazis, 2,000 pounds to keep the peace, and young O'Neil was, at the age of nine, permitted to accompany his uncle, the only white man allowed in Swazi territory, on the hazardous mission of visiting King Buno and paying the tribute. This first visit to Swaziland bore strange fruit for the young Owen, for he later gained the title of "The White King of Swaziland."

Owen O'Neil grew to manhood, received his education at Rhodes, Edinburgh and Harvard universities, and returned to Africa to practice medicine. Each year he visited the Swazis. King Buno had, in the meantime, died, and when O'Neil heard of the approaching coronation of the crown prince he determined to be present. The old queen who had ruled until the crown prince became of age refused to give up the throne, and a civil war was precipitated in which O'Neil played an adventurous part and, with a companion, became one of the only two white men ever initiated into the Swazi tribe.

Doctor O'Neil's accounts of the incredible brutality of old King Buno—the ghastly shooting party staged by this savage emperor in which living human targets were used—the dramatic and epic wrestling match which took place between Buno and O'Neil's uncle—make thrilling telling, and are among the many high-lights of his picturesque lecture.

ANNUAL FIELD DAY AT DELORO

Kent Challenge Trophy For Seniors Will Be Run Again This Year.

PLAN GOOD PROGRAM.

MARMORA, June 16 (Examiner Correspondence).—For the fourth successive year, the Deloro Amateur Athletic Association is holding a Dominion Day celebration on June 1st. A committee of past presidents under chairmanship of H. A. McNally, immediate past president, are now working hard on the final arrangements for the road races which are expected to be the same big attraction as in former years. For these, there is no entrance fee, the sole idea of the association being the encouragement of greater interest in this class of athletics as far as Hastings County is concerned.

The Kent Challenge Trophy is the award for one year for the winning of the senior race, a replica being given the successful contestant for permanent possession. For this race, the contestant must be under 21 years of age on January 1st, 1930. In the junior race, the age limit is set at 17 years on the same date. The races are over the Deloro-Marmora highway with distances 6 and 3 miles respectively. Entries for these races are solicited from every section of the county by the Deloro Amateur Athletic Association, who will gladly furnish further particulars upon application.

The races are being held in the morning. A program of foot races and novelty races will be also run off. In the afternoon there will be a Hastings County Junior Baseball League fixture, with Belleville Moose as visitors.

Hotel keepers in the Highlands of Scotland are expecting this year the greatest invasion of tourists ever known there.

Baptism of Blood Germany's Epoch

SECOND RESTS SABRE ON THOSE OF CONTESTANTS

IN THE HEAT OF BATTLE.

The militaristic spirit still survives in republican Germany, judging by the above pictures, which show that the sabre duel—that barbaric relic of feudalism, when the armed knight ruled all Europe—is today still an essential feature of undergraduate life in famous university towns throughout Germany. For years the State has vainly tried to stamp out this fierce and dangerous rite, but the freshmen undergraduates persist in seeking early opportunities for their initiation into the etiquette of the field of honour. The duels last a full quarter of an hour, then, slashed and dazed with excitement and loss of blood, the combatants have their wounds dressed. If a student has his face slashed and carried a scar for life he considers it his badge of honor.

Mr. Josh spoke regarding uniformity in weights and branding matters that should be carefully done as it paid to be particular in these matters. Mr. Irwin stated that the quality of the cheese was good this year, and incidentally mentioned a case of discoloration in a cheese he had got last fall. This defect was traced to the water supply. A discussion arose regarding farmers sending milk to another factory after being faulty at the factory, he was patronizing. A difference of opinion prevailed regarding the law in this matter, as to the onus being on the cheesemaker alone or not. The matter is to be looked into. The question of a picnic was talked of and it was moved by Henderson-Cook that one be held at Oak Lake, some time this summer. The thanks of the meeting was tendered the visitors for their attendance and interest shown towards those under their charge. The meeting then adjourned.

At the forthcoming election for members of the Dominion Parliament, Stirling is in two different electoral districts, viz Hastings south, all that part of the village lying south of Front Street, and all lying north of that street is in Hastings-Peterborough. M. W. Sine is registrar for the first named and H. E. Hulin, for the latter.

Trent River Ladies Discuss Ways of Boosting Funds.

TRENT RIVER, June 14. (Examiner Correspondence.)—The regular meeting of the Women's Institute was held Thursday adternoon, at the home of Mrs. George Ellis.

The president, Mrs. George Brooks called the meeting to order and opened with all singing the Institute Ode, followed by repeating the Lord's prayer. After the roll call, the minutes of the previous meeting, were read by the secretary, Mrs. H. Mann, who also read reports of last year's work of the Institute since its inauguration, a report of the recent convention held at Havelock was also given.

Since discussion was brought up as to ways and means of raising funds during the summer, it was decided to hold a card party and sale of home made cooking in July.

The advisability of forming a Junior Institute was brought up and a committee was appointed to look up members of the teen age. The next meeting of the Institute, is to be held at the home of Mrs. T. F. Ward, on Thursday, July 10th.

After the business part of the meeting was closed, refreshments were served. The hostess served a birthday cake, being the occasion of her birthday, the usual novelties were placed in the cake, which made the lunch hour especially interesting.

You cannot blame any film company for buying one of the "ex" books. Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer is cleaning up a neat fortune with "The Divorcee", formerly "Ex-Wife."

Does the public care for that type of picture? Ask any theatre owner that played Norma Shearer's latest picture and get the report. Of course, "The Divorcee" is a good picture and even a popular story would fail to interest the public if it hadn't a good production. This is one time when the picture was better than the book.

Warner Brothers have purchased "Ex-Mistress", and list a moment to this Elinor Glyn title—"Just an Hour of Love". Lloyd Bacon will direct it and it is being adapted to the sreen by Charles Kenyon. It is possible that Dorothy Mackaill may play the lead, although this is not definitely decided.

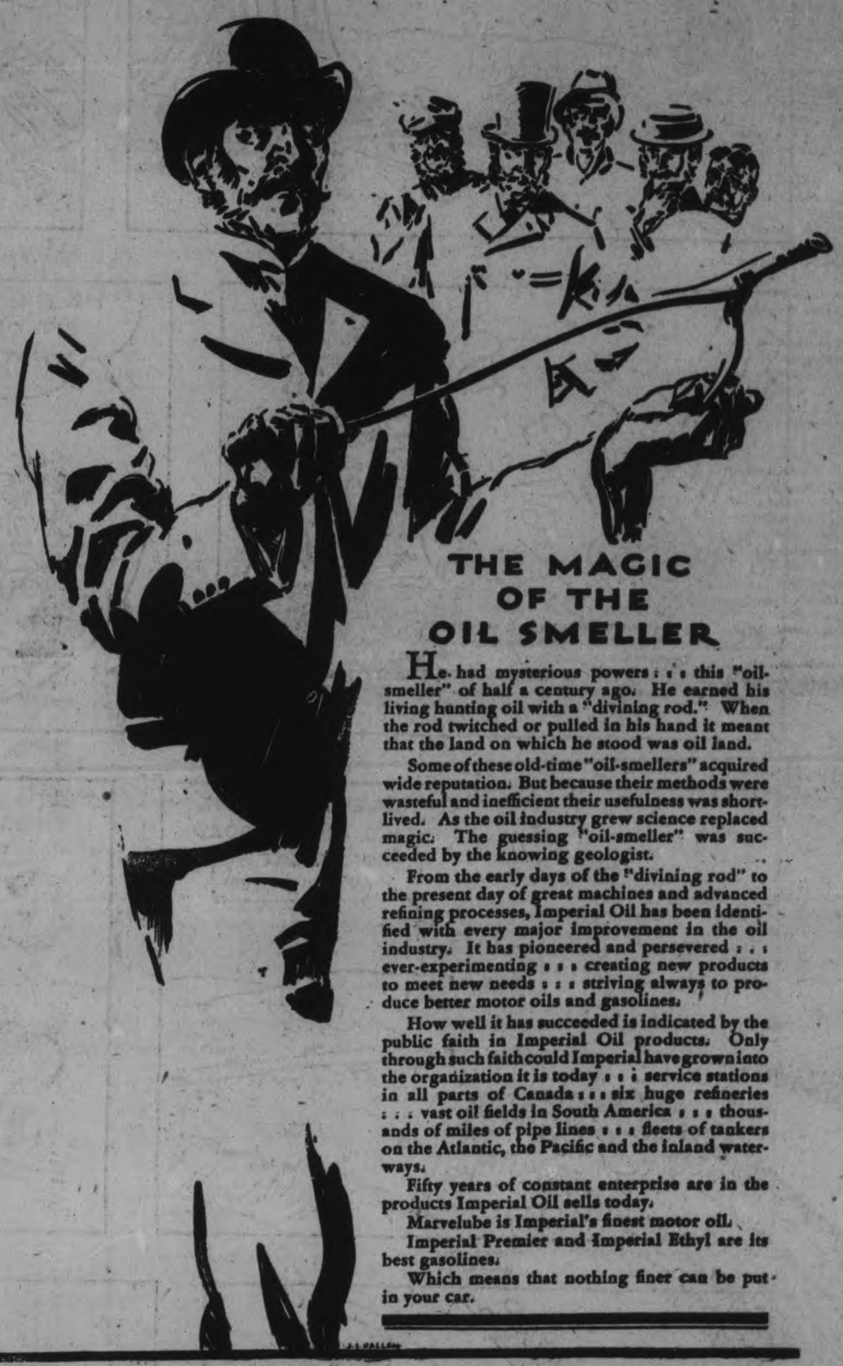
FIFTY YEARS OF CONSTANT ENTERPRISE



THE MAGIC OF THE OIL SMELLER

He had mysterious powers . . . this "oil-smeller" of half a century ago. He earned his living hunting oil with a "divining rod." When the rod twitched or pulled in his hand it meant that the land on which he stood was oil land.

Some of these old-time "oil-smellers" acquired wide reputation. But because their methods were wasteful and inefficient their usefulness was short-lived. As the oil industry grew science replaced magic. The guessing "oil-smeller" was succeeded by the knowing geologist.

From the early days of the "divining rod" to the present day of great machines and advanced refining processes, Imperial Oil has been identified with every major improvement in the oil industry. It has pioneered and persevered . . . ever-experimenting . . . creating new products to meet new needs . . . striving always to produce better motor oils and gasolines.

How well it has succeeded is indicated by the public faith in Imperial Oil products. Only through such faith could Imperial have grown into the organization it is today . . . service stations in all parts of Canada . . . six huge refineries . . . vast oil fields in South America . . . thousands of miles of pipe lines . . . fleets of tankers on the Atlantic, the Pacific and the inland waterways.

Fifty years of constant enterprise are in the products Imperial Oil sells today.

Marvelube is Imperial's finest motor oil.

Imperial Premier and Imperial Ethyl are its best gasolines.

Which means that nothing finer can be put in your car.

be grateful that we had him so long as we have had. No part of the community has been so bereft as this congregation. There is no place where he will be more deeply missed. He had held the highest offices in this church to which he always gave profusely of himself.

To myself his death means a loss of which I dare not speak. He was my chiefest friend, and in his helpful advice and kindly criticism he was all that any pastor could wish to have as a loyal, devoted layman. W. F. Kerr was a man of simple faith, and he was servant of God among his fellow men.

He was a man of great intellectual ability, and I may say that it was a tremendous encouragement to me to find such a mind and soul that trusted God in this day and generation when it is sometimes found that men of great intelligence express doubts about the verities of faith. Mr. Kerr was given absolutely to faith in God, and out of that living faith sprang that righteousness which was the logical outcome of his abiding faith."

Dr. Boyle said that probably Mr. Kerr would have preferred to go the way he did go, called in the exercise and ripeness of all his faculties.

Assisting Rev. Dr. Boyle in the service were Rev. Frank Adaye, assistant at St. Peter's, Rev. Canon F. J. Sawers of Toronto, former pastor of St. Peter's, Rev. Dr. Orchard of Trinity College School, Port Hope, and also Rev W. L. Taunton, minister of Trinity United church, Cobourg.

The Pall Bearers.

The pall bearers were six members of the Provincial Police, as follows: Sergeant H. Storey, Belleville; Constables Hammer of Belleville, Smith of Bowmanville, McBrien of Brighton, Carey and Kidd of Cobourg. They were all personal friends of Mr. Kerr most of them having been for years associated with him in his duties as Crown Attorney of the counties of Northumberland and Durham.

The honorary pall bearers were: Judge E. C. S. Huycke, Peterborough; Judge L. V. O'Connor, Cobourg; Chief Constable Ruse, Cobourg; Sheriff J. D. Nesbitt, Police Magistrate Wm. F. Floyd, Frank Field, K.C., ex-Judge Ward of Port Hope; Police Magistrate Campbell, of Port Hope; John T. Field, John Noble, Magistrate W. F. Ward, Bowmanville; Police Magistrate George A. Payne, Campbellford; A. J. Gould and A. Cochrane, Mr. Kerr's law partner.

Among the mourners were Mr. F. D. Kerr, K.C., Peterborough, and Mr Chas. W. Kerr, K.C., Toronto and Cobourg

Some of the lawyers present were: E A. Peck, M.P. and Crown Attorney V. J. McElderry of Peterborough; W. F. Huycke, R. R. Hall, K.C., W. F. Johnston, Hon. G. N. Gordon, K.C. of Peterborough; Chas. A. Payne and C. A. Cameron of Belleville; F. J. Hart, Colborne; D. J. Lynch and N. A. McColl of Campbellford; and all the members of Port Hope, Bowmanville and Cobourg Bar, including D. H. Chisholm and W. F. MacMahon of Port Hope; Ross Strike and M. G. V. Gould of Bowmanville; Gus O'Shea of Norwood; also Crown Attorney Eric N. Armour of Toronto.

Others present were E. B. Fowler, W. R. Breyfogle and George Gladman of Peterborough; Sam Nesbitt, Brighton; ex-Wardens Wm. Wood of Millbrook, Fred Bowen, M.P. of Durham county, Milton E. Maybee, M.P. of Brighton; Mayor Milton J. Elliott of Bowmanville.

Also Mayor W. A. Fraser of Trenton, Fire Marshal Heaton of Toronto, Warden W. H. Nelson and members of the counties council of which Mr. Kerr's sister, Mrs. Edith Kerr Macdonald, is a member as Reeve of Cobourg.

Judge O'Connor's Tribute.

At the opening of the county court on Thursday, Judge O'Connor referred to the death of Mr. Kerr in words of deep emotion.

"A gloom has been cast not only upon us here who are engaged in the administration of justice, but upon the whole community, because William F. Kerr was a man beloved by everybody. As a counsel he occupied a very high place indeed; he was a sound lawyer and as a Crown Attorney he stood alone. He had not only the ability and knowledge to do his work well, but he had a heart that one seldom finds.

He was known throughout the district as a man of great charity, and he always felt for the person who was not as favored as others; and in his capacity as Crown Attorney he always endeavored not only to bring out the facts in a fair way, but to find some good in the accused person. Quite frequently in matters that have come before me during my short sojourn here, after bringing out the evidence for the Crown, and finding that the evidence for the defense disclosed a situation from what he thought, he would immediately swing around and ask for an aquittal, that the charge be dismissed."

Judge O'Connor recalled one of these cases in which Mr. Kerr obtained the release of an accused youth with whom he kept in contact, and whom he believed would become a good citizen.

A Christian Gentleman.

"Having these qualities that I have mentioned," Judge O'Connor continued, "we may say that Mr. Kerr was a true Christian gentleman. The loss that is sustained is great indeed. We sympathize with the members of his family, three sisters who were devoted to him and to whom he was devoted, two brothers, prominent members of the Bar of the province; with his partner, Mr. Cochrane, with all his relatives, and with the community generally. In this community let me add, we also feel that those who may be inclined to err have by Mr. Kerr's passing suffered a very severe loss.

I am satisfied that the life which he led, almost spotless in my opinion, will have earned for him the reward which we all hope to gain."

J. B. McColl, on behalf of the Cobourg Bar, concurred in His Honor's tribute.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D

FATS INTERFERE WITH DIGESTION.

Perhaps as a youngster you disliked fat meats and your parents may have coaxed or threatened in their efforts to get you to eat some of the fat.

Now a little fat is good for everybody as it not only supplies heat and energy to the body but it acts as a protector to the organs and tissues of the body.

As you know your organs are made up almost entirely of lean meat, and it has been found that eating a little fat prevents them wearing away too rapidly when you work or exercise.

I spoke some weeks ago about examining Strangler Lewis, the ex-world's champion heavyweight wrestler, and how he kept himself at about 250 pound whilst his best wrestling weight for an important match was 235 pounds.

His reason was that the extra fat was a good protection for his muscles, prevented them getting too much wear, as he was wrestling exhibition matches four times a week.

Now although eating fat is not the way fat is stored in the body, nevertheless, eating fat permits more of the starchy food to be stored as fats.

If then you are endeavoring to put on a little extra weight, eating fats will thus be of help.

However, some of our thin folks, endeavoring to put on weight, find that fat does not agree with them, the stomach seems to act up, and they feel miserable.

Research men now tell us that the reason for this is that eating fats lessens the amount of digestive juice manufactured in the stomach. They found that whether the patient ate fat by mouth or had it poured down a tube into the stomach, the fat actually lessened the amount of stomach juice.

And where the patient does not like fat it was found that the digestive juice was decreased even more.

However, butter is a fat, and where the patient was fond of butter the digestive juice was not decreased so much.

Now what is the lesson?

That where a youngster dislikes fat it is unwise to try and force him to eat it.

Giving him butter he likes, cream or ice cream, might be an effective way of getting some fats into him.

And for others, particularly those who have a weak stomach, it would be well for them not to eat too much fat at meal times as the fat lessens the amount of digestive juice in the stomach and thus the meal might not get sufficient juice to properly digest it.

OUR CHILDREN

By Angelo Patri

KEEP SECRETS.

"Kitty, you are certainly the longest tongued child ever I saw. What made you go and tell Mrs. Moon what I said to your father about her last night? Didn't you know any better? Can't you keep a secret?"

"How'd I know it was a secret? You didn't tell me not to tell."

"You tell everything. First thing you know, you're going to get yourself into trouble. Your father will be fit to be tied when he hears you've told that."

"Goodness. If there doesn't go Mrs. Moon's aunt. Well, I am surprised. They must have made up that awful quarrel they had when she got married. Oh, she, Mrs. Moon, married the delivery boy. Yes, he used to be Peter's delivery boy. He's gotten on pretty well, makes a good bit of money, I guess, but her aunt was simply furious and wouldn't have a thing to do with them. Not that she was so much at that. Her father used to make my father's shoes. Guess she wouldn't care to hear about that though. Well, well. To think that she's calling on Clara at last. I must call up Marie. Now you, Kitty, just learn to keep your tongue between your teeth and don't tell everything you know or your father will just about expire."

So. Kitty lapped up all that gossip as though it were cream. She wouldn't tell the next one she met, not Kitty, unless they asked her. Or unless they seemed not to have heard about it.

Nothing costs so much in friendship and good will as gossip and yet people will indulge in it and set such an example to their children as will lead them to gabble and chatter themselves into hot water. It is too bad to allow a child to get into such a habit. It is certain to handicap the child, for gossip leads to prying and prying leads to suspicion, and if there is any mental poison worse than suspicion I've yet to meet it.

Some folk do not gossip about their elders, but they seem to feel it quite right to betray the secrets of their children. They laugh about the childish mistakes. They talk over the little difficulties that arise between childish sweethearts and cause endless embarrassment to the children. They even hold council over the children's mistakes.

It is very unwise to rush to a friend with a tale of a child's misdoing. No matter how friendly a friend may be, he is not averse to knowing that you are having trouble with your children. There are few among us who sorrow with those who grieve. While the tale of woe is unrolled we sit snugly within our shielded nook and take comfort in the thought that it is not so with us.

Keep the family secrets to yourself. Treat all knowledge about your children's affairs as confidential. Hold your tongue about the affairs of other people save when you can cheer for them. So will your children have faith in you and your neighbors hold you in love.

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By Alice Michaelis

THE CITY

Unceasing turmoil, endless striving here,
Where men of all degrees and races meet;
Confusion greets the quickened eye and ear
As sound and motion on the senses beat.
Is it a monster without kindly heart,
The city, where Youth brings its all to spend,
Bearing rich gifts of patient skill and art
And asking only justice in the end?

It stands, instead, a triumph shaped in stone,
Enduring long beyond the builders' time;
A challenge left by mighty men alone
To all who follow in their ways sublime.
And he who reads aright the city's soul
Finds inspiration there to gain his goal.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

FASHION FANCIES

A SPORTS SUIT FEATURES THE BOLERO

This season will go down in fashion history as the year in which designers devoted almost their entire ingenuity and originality to the suit. Never before have there been so many clever versions of this costume. Mannishly tailored suits, soft and jaunty sports suits have all received their share of attention and the result has been a collection that has surpassed any previous presentation.

The sports suit sketched to-day advocates the bolero with standing collar developed in blue and white striped jersey. White jersey fashions the blouse, and the jabot which falls from the buttoned tab matches the bolero. Pleated circular insets lend interest to the navy skirt.

A COVER TO LAY across the top of articles packed in a trunk or suit case is considered important, and it does double duty!

* * * * * * *

It confines the various articles so that they do not get disarranged and mussed when the lid is closed, which, if a truck or bag is full to bulging, makes it necessary.

* * * * * * *

It also protects the garments from dust which may get through even the tiniest of crevices. A towel often serves this purpose of a covering, but it is the smart thing to have a specially made cover to match the lining of the luggage or that of the predominating hue, if the lining is figured.

* * * * * * *

This would be a splendid gift for some of your friends who are making a long trip, or for the persons who travels a great deal.

* * * * * * *

The cover should be of washable textile, bound or blanket stitched in a contrasting color. Black is quite often used or one of the prominent shades that goes well with the hue chosen for the main textile.

* * * * * * *

Some women like closely woven material such as light weight cotton cloth, while some prefer silk or silk muslin. The fabric should be soft and pliable for it must tuck about the contents easily and not add any great bulk.

* * * * * * *

Unbleached cotton cloth was selected by one bride since it perfectly matched the lining of her motor suit case. The very close weave made the textile impervious to dust. This protection was needed for in the smart piece of luggage was to go her choicest frocks and silk lingerie embroidered or trimmed with real lace.

* * * * * * *

Economy was not the reason for the selection of the textile but suitability. It affords a precedent for other covers in which the very lack of cost suits the purse.

* * * * * * *

Of course the size of the cover should conform to the size of the special piece of luggage for which it is made. It must be ample to allow it to be tucked down securely around the sides, but not too big for then the extra material is in the way.

* * * * * * *

If a material such as silk muslin of a finely woven cheesecloth or scrim is used, double, it can serve two purposes, that of luggage cover and garment cover.

* * * * * * *

To make it fit two purposes pierce two or three holes in and close to the center of the cover. Each hole should be only large enough to slip over the wire of a hanger hook. The holes should be closely buttonhole stitched, and should come in the fold of the material for then they do not interrupt the surface covering the contents.

* * * * * * *

The thinness of the textile even when doubled does not add very much bulk while the fact that it is double, adds to the protective element of the cover.

AFTERNOON DRESS IN BLACK CREPE DE CHINE.

Several unusual and striking features mark this afternoon dress in black crepe de chine. The tightly drawn girdle at the hips is a style whish is very becoming, and which is in many of the models. The cape motif, you will notice, is introduced on one side only of the frock, and is cut as a part of the bodice. The underdress which appears in the skirt and above the belt is embroidered in black and white.

MY FIRST SOLO

My entire being thrilled as I strode hurriedly towards the scene of my first crucial test. At last, after the long period of intensive training, the instructor was giving me my long waited opportunity. Often we had soared together, often had we descended with dazzling rapidity, smoothness and precision. This time, however, I would be alone — alone where only a chosen few may trespass and far beyond the aid of fellow man.

Off to a good start I raced; higher and higher I mounted. I went slowly, I tore madly, up and down, rejoicing in my new found prowess. I even gazed down on the mottled blur of bright reds and gleaming greens, mixed with the more somber whites and blacks. For awhile I sailed along calmly and serenely. Then all of a sudden an unaccountable puff of wind caused me to waver for an instant, but I exerted all of my skill and narrowly averted disaster. After that I descended gracefully until I came to a gentle stop. The amazed throng burst into applause. Flushed with success, I bowed my way out, clutching my cornet tightly under my arm.

MILITIA HOLDS CHURCH PARADE

Garrison Parade is Held to St. John's Anglican Church.

DR. BLAGRAVE PREACHES.

Under the command of Lieut.-Col. D. J. Lawrie the active militia units of the city held their annual garrison parade to St. John's church yesterday morning. The 3rd Prince of Wales Dragoons, the Rangers and the Machine Gun Company were represented.

Major Claire Stuart commanded the Dragoons. The Rangers were under the command of Lieut.-Col. M. H. Park, V.D., and the Machine Gunners were in charge of Captain J. A. Dewart, M.C.

More than 150 men formed up for the parade at the Armouries shortly after 10 o'clock. Led by the Rangers' brass and bugle band the parade continued to St. John's church, where the men formed inside.

Chaplain of the Rangers

A sermon adapted to the occasion was preached by Rev. Dr. R. C. Blagrave who is the chaplain of the Peterborough Rangers, with the rank of Captain. Under the direction of Frederic G. Mann, special choir music was presented, including an anthem by the boys of the choir. The lesson was read by Lieut.-Col. Lawrie.

Dr. Blagrave took for his text the 43rd verse of the 24th chapter of St. Matthew, "But know this, that if the good man of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up."

This text is a parable, Dr Blagrave said. We advance from the known to the unknown. Our Lord means to tell us we have something to defend which corresponds to the good man's house. It is called the soul which is yourself in relation to your destiny or the purpose of your creation. It must be defended or it will be broken into and lost. It is possible to lose your soul and it is not kept by looking out through windows or walking in the garden, but by strenuous and attentive watchfulness, the speaker said.

But the soul must also be won, he said, continuing. It is something more than soul saving—it is soul winning we are here for. Your soul cannot be won but by effort, by discipline, and by struggle. It is the greatest achievement of all; nothing else compares with it. It draws out all heroism and all the nobility anyone may possess and then it is only by the grace of God your soul can be won.

As in the army, if an enemy has to be resisted it cannot be done singly but in a fellowship and in discipline and co-operation, Dr. Blagrave pointed out. So, soul winning is not done singly but, of courage and moral heroism, in the fellowship of the church. For there is something even greater than soul winning. There is a kingdom to win and it is won by an army with banners.

Your effectiveness for the kingdom is in the fellowship of the church, where you are not to seek safe passage as in a passenger ship but you are to enlist for service as in a battle ship or some branch of the navy or army. Dr. Blagrave told the congregation. We are not here for ease but for service and we are here to win a kingdom for God and also to win and save our souls.

Rays Retain Early Lead to Defeat Port Hope 5-2

LOCAL TEAM CLIMBS INTO SECOND PLACE

Winners Collect Five Runs and Seven Hits in First Three Innings

KITCHEN GOOD

Holds Visitors Until 7th Frame; Long Hit Accounts For Two Runs.

(By F. D. C.)

Snapping out of a two-game losing streak the Raybestos crew climbed up into second place in the Lakeshore League race at the expense of Port Hope, Saturday, beating the Ontarios 5 runs to 2 at Exhibition Park in a game in which the winners were always in front and the ascendency was never seriously threatened.

The Rays started early, piling all their runs and seven of their nine hits in the first three frames. They were 5 to 0 in front at the end of the third and only a couple of smartly executed double plays by the Port Hope infield kept the winners from setting up a much wider margin in the early stages. Brokenshire, the right hander who worked for Port Hope, succeeded in putting the brakes on after the third however, and the Rays' attack tailed off into two hits and no runs for the balance of the game.

On the other hand the visitors could do nothing at all against Russ Kitchen's delivery until the seventh session. Up to then Phillips, the Port Hope lead off man, had been the only visitor to set foot on the runways. Phillips drew passes in the first and third and in the sixth slash out of the first Port Hope hit. Finally, however, the invaders smashed through Kitchen's service in the seventh, although they would not have scored had not the sun taken a hand in the argument and a long fly that should have been an out was misjudged by Oscar Nicholls and converted into a three-base hit. The play came with two out and was responsible for Port Hope's two runs.

Outside of Brown the youngster who started at third base, the Ontarios' played smart defensive ball behind Brokenshire. Joe Micks, the hockey goalie, setting the pace by starting two double plays and handling seven chances in faultless style. The Rays, too, gave Kitchen almost perfect support. Hillier's fumble of a roller being the only error. Kitchen working a fast ball steadily, pitched a confident game and outside of the one frame was always ahead of the opposition. Brokenshire looked easy at the start and was not helped by a couple of costly errors, but he levelled away and for the last five frames was on top of the attackers.

Phillips, first up for Port Hope in the opening frame, walked and went to second on a passed ball. The next three were easy.

In the Rays' half Hillier singled past second and Mein lined to left for a base. Rogers hit into a double play started by Micks. Moore tripled to left centre, scoring Hillier. H. Nicholls flied to Hagerman in left.

In the second Raybestos added two more. Hope opened with a double to left. Barry struck out. O. Nicholls drew a pass. Kitchen forced Hope out at third on a roller to Hudson, but Hillier singled over second to score O. Nicholls, and Kitchen also registered when Phillips made a wild throw-in. Mein struck out to end the frame.

Rogers got a life to start the Rays' third on a low throw by Brown. Moore and H. Nicholls both bunted safely to fill the bases. Rogers was forced at the plate on Hope's roller. Barry was passed, forcing in Moore. Micks knocked down O. Nicholls' hot drive in time to force Barry at second and when Hope over-ran third, Hudson's quick throw to Brown doubled him off the difficult corner. H. Nicholls, however, crossed the plate for the second run before the play was completed.

That ended the Rays' run-getting and for the balance of the game they got but two hits off Brokenshire's delivery.

The Ontario's failed to nick Kitchen for a safety until the sixth, when Phillips singled with one out and was sacrificed to second by Hudson. Boyd, however, lifted one to O. Nicholls for the third out.

They did break through in the next frame for their only counters of the game, Rowcliffe started with a clean single to right, but Micks rolled to Kitchen and Devine fanned. When Sneyd, who had replaced Hagerman, boomed a long fly to left the danger seemed over, but Oscar Nicholls misjudged the smash and it went for a triple, scoring Rowcliffe. Old "Red" Friar, the veteran of the visitors, planted a neat double into left to send Sneyd across, but Brokenshire failed to help his own cause, rolling to Hillier to retire the side.

The visitors got a man on the runways in both the eighth and ninth frames, but could do nothing to push them over the counting station.

CARDINALS EVEN ROBIN SERIES

Andy High's Batting Features Play of St. Louis Team.

REVENGE FOR GIANTS.

BROOKLYN, June 16.—St. Louis defeated Brooklyn 9 to 4 here yesterday drawing even with the Robins for the series. Andy High led the attack with a triple and a home run, driving in four runs.

Five fielding errors behind Dazzy Vance and Ray Moss enabled the Cardinals to cash in their nine hits for an equal number of runs. The Robins knocked Grabowski out in the seventh, but Haines relieved in good style.

GIANTS SECURE REVENGE

NEW YORK, June 16.—The Giants with Donohue in the box, evened up the series with the Cubs at one each, winning the second game of the series with late-inning rallies. The score was 7 to 4.

Donohue after a shaky start settled down and held the Cubs at bay, weighing in with three hits besides and driving in a run.

Blake, who started for the Cubs held the Giants well in hand until the sixth, when they forged ahead. The New Yorkers kept up their hitting against Teachout, who relieved him. Hogan connected for a home run with two men aboard in the eighth, settling the issue in favor of the Giants.

BRAVES RALLY TO GOOD EFFECT

BOSTON, June 16.—Clever fielding and timely hitting by members of the Boston Braves infield gave the Warriors a 4 to 3 victory over the Cincinnati Reds yesterday. It was the Braves' third straight win. Every member of the Braves infield hit safely, and between them they garnered seven of Boston's eight hits.

Four runs behind at the end of the sixth, the Reds rallied for two counters in the seventh and another in the ninth, when Ben Cantwell stopped them in time.

CANADA RETAINS LACROSSE TITLE

Oshawa Overcomes Deficit With Rush For Scores Early in the Game.

CLEVER DEFENSIVE PLAY.

TORONTO, June 16. — Canadians are still monarchs of lacrosse, although their claim to the title is only supported by a single score, with the American invasion, which threatened to establish a new ruler, being repelled on Saturday, when Oshawa defeated the stars from the United States by a 6 to 3 score, and captured the round for international supremacy by an 11 to 10 total. The series was just as close as the score, only a super exhibition of inside lacrosse and desperate battling keeping the Joe Lally trophy on this side of the boundary, in the birthplace of the game.

With a super display of combination, a flash of the form which carried them to the Canadian championship last year, Oshawa wiped out the Americans' Two-goal advantage from the first game and then fought with every ounce of energy to protect a small margin in the closing periods of play. Oshawa just outsmarted the American forces, put up a display of clever lacrosse, and it carried them to victory, although at the finish it was just a toss up with the final result wavering in the balance.

On Friday afternoon the Americans swept the Motor-men to defeat with their dazzling speed, but on Saturday they were halted by a spectacular passing game and close defensive play that had them baffled. Oshawa collected all its offensive energy for a big drive early in the game, a concentrated effort to build up a lead which would withstand the Americans' endurance power, and they were just successful. The Americans' two-goal lead from the first game was erased at the start of the second period, and by half-time Oshawa was three goals up on the round, while in the closing periods the Collegians were limited to two goals.

Oshawa's plan of play was smart lacrosse strategy, a system that beat a force that had gloried in triumph the day before and threatened to blaze its way to victory again. Uncle Sam's team could not cope with Oshawa's short passing play, and startling combination in the second period and before they recovered from the surprise attack expected victory was changed to eventual defeat. Oshawa played all its real offensive lacrosse in the one period, in fact it was the Canadians' only real scoring display of the series.

ENGLAND PILES UP HUGE SCORE

Antipodeans Lose Eight Wickets For 140 Runs, in Test Matches.

WINNERS MAKE 270.

NOTTINGHAM, Eng., Jun 16.—C. P. Cable)—England achieved on Saturday by pure merit what the cricket world deemed the impossible. After scoring 270 runs in their first innings they secured eight of the Australian side's wickets for only 140 in the first test match being played at Trent Bridge before stumps were pulled for the day. The weather practised a deceit, everyone believing the wicket to be a gluepot. According to the players there was never an ysemblance of stickiness about the pitch. aRin fell during the night but the wicket absorbed the moisture greedily. A fierce sun thenr dried out the ground too quickly to hold a spinning ball to anything like the extent anticipated by critics and players. The ball turned, it was true, but not with the bewildering abruptness peculiar to a "sticky dog" wicket.

The cheap dismissal of W. H. oPnsford, W. M. Woodfull and Don Bradman, Australia's strongest batsmen, in the order named at the opening of Antipodeans' innings was a triumph for the oft-condemned "swinger" which, going with Maurice Tate's strong arm, took these three wickets. Tate's devastating opening demoralized even Bradman, who was but a timid shadow of a boy compared to the wizard whose flashing bat has held county crouds spellbound. He seemed lost before Dick Tyldesley's two hundred pounds of cunning and the sudden change to Tate's fiercer thrust made him play a novice-like stroke in which he threw his usual watchfulness to the winds.

WARKWORTH, June 16. — Two rinks of bowlers went to Brighton on Friday night and were victorious — winning all of the four games. So far this gives Warkworth first place, and Norwood gets second place in the Trent Valley Bowling League. The next games Warkworth will play at Hastings June 20th.

Trent Valley Bowling League Standing:

Brighton, 3 games.
Hastings, 2 games.
Norwood, 5 games.

Warkworth and Burnley played softball on Friday evening on the school grounds. The locals had no trouble in scoring and this made the game too much one-sided to be real exciting.

INDIANS LOSE LEAGUE LEAD

Athletics Again on Top of American Loop—Record Sees Yanks Beat Cleveland.

Impressive Win For Macks.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, June 16. — Cleveland lost its American League lead to Philadelphia yesterday by dropping a second straight slugfest to the New York Yankees 17 to 10 as the Athletics walloped Detroit.

The largest crowd ever to attend a ball game here, 33,826, looked on as Lou Gehrig, Babe Ruth and their mates levelled a 17-hit barrage at three Indian pitchers. Gehrig's sixteenth and seventeenth home runs of the season, plus a single, accounted for seven runs, while Ruth sent in one run ahead as he made his twenty-first circuit clout. Averill added a home run for the Indians.

EX-TEAM MATES BEAT CROWDER.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 16.—'General' Al Crowder, traded to Washington Senators last week by the St. Louis Browns, weakened in the ninth inning yesterday and the Browns won from the Senators, 3 to 2. Until the ninth the Browns were able to do little with their former team mate's delivery. It was Crowder's first start for Washington.

Heinie Manush, who went to Washington with Crowder in a deal that brought "Goose" Goslin to St. Louis, hit a home run.

George Blaeholder, who pitched the last two innings after Dick Coffman had pitched the first seven for the Browns, was credited with the victory.

A.'S WIN IMPRESSIVELY.

DETROIT, June 16. — Lefty Grove held the Detroit Tigers to four hits yesterday, and the Athletics evened the series with a 10 to 1 decision.

After holding Detroit hitless for six innings Grove eased up, allowing the Tigers to score their only run in the seventh on McManus's double, followed by Alexander's three-bagger.

Jimmy Foxx hit a home run in the third with none on.

RALLY IN 9TH WINS FOR KEYS

First Fixture Goes to 15 Innings Before Reading Scores 9-8 Victory.

DOUBLE DROP FOR BIRDS.

READING, Pa., June 16.—Toronto missed an opportunity to better themselves when it lost a doubleheader to Reading here yesterday.

The Maple Leafs bowed by a 9-8 score in a 15-inning contest, the first half of yesterday's twin bill. "Hoot" Gibson was the victim of this game, bowing in the extra frame after he had allowed Reading to tie the score with a two-run rally in the ninth.

Johnny Prudhomme was outpitched by Henry Grampp in the nightcap fray, losing by 3-1. Prudhomme, after dueling with Grampp for five innings, blew up in the sixth and was touched for three runs. George Quellich, burly Reading outfielder, drove across the winning runs in each game.

The Leafs took a one-run lead in the second game when Joe Rabbitt doubled and tallied on Harry Davis' single. But Prudhomme was unable to hold the lead and was pounded hard.

ORIOLES SUSTAIN TWIN LOSS.

BALTIMORE, June 16. — The Rochester Red Wings set the Birds back in both ends of yesterday's double-header, 3 to 1 and 7 to 6, and moved within 2½ games of the top.

Bolen and Derringer allowed 8 and 4 hits, respectively, in the opener.

Brown secured a homer in the first game, while Collins, Barton and Hauser came through in the nightcap. It was Hauser's nineteenth of the season.

Doubles by Torporcer, Worthington and Wilson in the final frame, enabled the Wings to win after the Birds had taken the lead, 6 to 4, with a trio of runs in the fifth.

SKEETERS BEAT ROYALS TWICE.

JERSEY CITY, June 16.—The lowly Skeeters took a new lease of life yesterday and played impressively to trounce Montreal Royals in both ends of a double-header. They won the first game by 4 to 2, in spite of the fact that they were outhit 10-7. In the second game the Skeeters were able to collect nine hits and five runs for a 5 to 1 victory. The winners led all the way in both games.

DOUBLE VICTORY FOR BEARS.

NEWARK, June 16.—Newark Bears took the measure of the Buffalo Bisons in both ends of a double-header here yesterday, by scores of 6 to 1 and 3 to 0.

Smart baseball on the part of the winners in both contests enabled them to down the opposition. Al Mammaux toed the rubber for the Bears and held the Bisons in check throughout. He yielded nine hits, but kept them well scattered. Andy Chambers pitched the Bears to victory in the second game, yielding but four hits. Newark found their batting eyes in yesterday's games, garnering a total of 20 hits in the two games.

ENGLAND REGAINS WIGHTMAN TROPHY

Mrs. Moody and Miss Jacobs of U. S. Defeated in Deciding Match.

WIMBLEDON, Eng., June 16.—By the narrowest of margins England won back the Wightman Cup here on Saturday, the British women defeating the invaders by 4 to 3. The coveted trophy of woman's tennis is still being won in the usual manner for never has it been lost on home soil.

With the match score at 3-all the Britishers made a spectacular finish which well deserved the victory, when Mrs. Phoebe Watson and Mrs. L. S. Godfree (the former Kitty McKane) defeated America's Helens — who were paired for the first time — Mrs. Helen Willis Moody and Miss Helen Jacobs, 7-5, 1-6, 6-4.

When the first match started the Britons led 2 to 1, but Miss Jacobs evened the count by beating Miss Joan Fry, 6-0, 6-3, and then the United States went ahead when Mrs. Moody in a brilliant recovery, after losing the first five games of the first set in her match against Mrs. Watson, won by 7-5, 6-1. Sarah Palfrey bowed easilyy to Phyllis Mudford 6-0, 6-2.

Sugar Bowl	4	2
Belmont Club	3	2
C.G.E.	3	2
Westclox	3	3
Harrison's	2	3
Brintons	1	4

If the Sugar Bowl and Westclox had not had their July 2 moved up to Friday night, four teams would have been tied for first place, at the completion of the first games in the first half of the schedule. No team has been outclassed so far to date, the Brintons losing three of their games by one run, and Harrison's losing two of theirs.

The league is one of the closest fought in years. Most of the games have been won or lost by the odd run.

At the Central School Grounds on Friday night the Sugar Bowl defeated Westclox 8-5.

Forsythe twirled well for the Sugar Bowl and had the Clockmakers in check at all times. Darling pitched for the Westclox, but did not get by as good as usual.

Gillespie was the fielding star of the game, having nine put outs in centre field.

Batteries:

Westclox—Darling and White; Sugar Bowl—Forsythe and Connors.

Umpires—Lebarr at the plate; Nixon on the bases.

At the Brinton Carpet Grounds on Friday night Belmont Club nosed out the Brinton Carpet 16-14, in a free-hitting contest.

Dundas and Sturgeon tossed them in for the Brintons while Nobbs, a newcomer, twirled for the Belmonts.

Haskell, with four hits and Sturgeon with three were the hitting stars while Delahaye and Rose turned in the best fielding performances.

Batteries:

Brinton Carpet—Dundas, Sturgeon and Jones; Belmont Club—Nobbs and Haskell.

Umpires—W. Bennett at the plate; D. Leether on the bases.

To-night at Central School the Sugar Bowl and C.G.E. hook up. This is the second meeting of these two teams. On the first occasion the Generals gave the Candymen a real trouncing, and are going out tonight to repeat the dose. The Sugar Bowl can't see it that way and are out to grab tonight's fixture and a strangle hold on the league leadership.

The games, starting with this evening's fixture, will commence at 6.30 sharp for the remainder of the season.

Cogs-C.G.E. Ball Battle Postponed

To-night's game between Cognawagas and C.G.E. has been called off on account of the inclement weather. The game will be played to-morrow evening at 6.16 o'clock.

BRINTON BEAT ELECTRICS FOR SPALDING CUP

Hot Weather Proves Too Much For Players; Poor First Half

BRINTON 3- C.G.E. 0

Westwood Opens Scoring; Hotston and James later Increased the Score.

After a very slow and uninteresting first half, the Brinton team made amends for the slackness in the second moiety by adding three goals to their credit at the Canadian General expense in the semi-final of the Spalding Cup on the grounds of the Brinton eleven, on Saturday afternoon, before a good attendance of spectators. They will meet the winners of the Caledonians and the C.P.C. who play on Wednesday evening.

The Canadian General were minus many of their regular players, who had to lay off owing to injuries received in the previous games.

Opening Slow

The spin of the coin failed to reveal any advantage in the choice of end, which was decided by the Brintons kicking with the sun at their backs. Both goals were visited in rotation without any success being gained, although the custodians had many calls in diverting shots ranged at their charge. The first note of interest came when Burgess evaded the defence on a solo run along the wing, then rapped a rising shot at Curtis, who handled smartly.

After many raids being made on the respective citadels, the players seemed to lose all pep and tactics remained at a low ebb for a while. In fact, the Canadian General front rank missed a great chance when Robb sent a low grounder along the ground in front of goal. Then at the other end the same performance was enacted by the Brinton attack, but Bolton grasped the ball in the nick of time to prevent James from scoring. With the forwards making no headway, the halves took up the initiative themselves in an endeavor to score from long range. In this respect, Robb of C.G.E., and Westwood of Brinton, being the prominent artists with telling shots that kept the goal-keepers always on the alert. Occasionally a burst of speed would come forth and die as quickly as it rose, because the contestants felt the heat to the very extreme. When the interval arrived, the score still stood at the same count as they started. Canadian General 0. Brinton A. 0.

Half Time

The Canadian General team showed many changes in the positions of the players when they started in the second half. The winners made a bee line for the losers' citadel, where they hung on tenaciously to get flags kicks in abundance that brought nothing tangible. Anderson, at left half for Brinton, never gave up trying to make openings for his wing man or centre forward. He fed James with accurate centres that harassed the C.G.E. full backs, to make them feel uncomfortable with his presence. Bolton being called upon to save his goal when it seem positive that a tally was on the horizon.

Westwood Scores

Eventually gained the goal that he had been working for all afternoon when, taking advantage of the kick over from Boon, who had taken the play into his section. He slipped the ball back to Westwood, who was unmarked at the time, and from twenty yards out, he landed the ball in below the bar into the net before Bolton had an opportunity to save. With the enthusiasm of success, this incentive gave them encouragement to force ahead to increase their lead. The C.G.E. responded with many well planned efforts that enlivened the issue for a while. But their energy wilted too soon so as to permit the Brinton right wing to come in to the limelight with dangerous raids against Bolton's charge and Hotson got the better of the argument when he tapped a twirling ball into the far corner of the net away from the reach of the C.G.E. custodian. After five more minutes of battling, Mayette beat along the wing at a terrific pace to leave the opposition behind and tore into the goal to be met by C.G.E. defence. Quickly he passed across to James, who did the needful at close range. Nothing further transpired thereafter worth recording. Brinton Athletic 3. Canadian General 0.

W. T. Twine Leads In British Open

HOYLAKE, England, June 16 (C.P.)—W. T. Twine of Bromley, British pro. took the lead in the first qualifying round of the British open golf championship to-day, by scoring 68 over the Wallasey course. Until Twine returned his sensational score 34 out and 34 in, Leo Diegel, United States pro., and Jimmy Bradbeer, veteran London pro., were tied for the lead at 70, Diegel's play being over the Royal Liverpool course and Bradbeer at Wallasey.

TRY AND BEAT IT

The Amateur Athletic Federation of the World has declared another new speed title. This time the honors go to Eddie Tolan, the colored flier of the University of Michigan and Eddie's new time for the boys to shoot at is 9.5 for 100 yards, or in other words, we have another world's fastest human. The little sprinter from Michigan won his spurs at the Big Ten championships, Evanston, Ill., on May 25th, 1929, and this performance was accepted by the International Federation. Former official holders were Cyril Coaffee, Canada, Charlie Paddock, Chester Bowman, D. J. Kelly and H. P. Drew of the United States and the former was 9.6 seconds.

Percy Williams met Eddie and the rest of the gang at the Olympics and gave them an eyefull of cinders. Charlie Paddock says that Percy Williams is the world's greatest competitive runner. Or in other words, racing against the clock and racing against competition are two different things. Williams has been in retireemnt for some time but it is understood that he is by no means becoming stale for lack of training, so that by the time the British Empire games roll around there may be a new song to sing about the 100 yard event.

DENNENAY TO LEAD NEW CLUB

Tom Shaughnessy Says Will Be Association Team in Windy City Next Year.

NO WAR WITH N.H.L.

TORONTO, June 16. — The war clouds that were supposed to be gathering over Chicago as a scene of a possible clash between the National Hockey League and the American Association were dispelled to a considerable extent last night by Thomas Shaughnessy of Chicago who was manager of the Black Hawks in the N. H. L. in the early part of the 1929-30 season and who purchased the Minneapolis club of the A. A. a couple of months ago. At the time it was stated that the American Association was going to invade Chicago, and open war on the major league but this was denied last night by the Chicago lawyer-hockey manager.

"There will be an American Association club in Chicago next winter," stated Mr. Shaughnessy when questioned as to what he intended to do with the Minneapolis franchise that he purchased. "But it will not be the Minneapolis team although some of last year's Minneapolis players will be members of the Chicago Shamrocks, as the new club will be called. There has been discussion for some time among American Association owners as to the advisability of putting a club in Chicago, but while Kansas City, Tulsa and St. Louis were in favor the other three club, Minneapolis, St. Paul and Duluth were opposed. I bought the Minneapolis franchise that gave the Chicago advocates a 4 to 2 majority and I was given a Chicago franchise. This means that there will be seven clubs in the league, against six as previously, I have practically closed a deal whereby the Minneapolis club will be bought back by certain interests in that city and next season the league will have the same clubs as before with the addition of Chicago."

"I have strong backing in Chicago, in fact there is more money behind the Shamrocks than there is behind the Black Hawks but there is to be no war. The American Association's agreement with the National League expires on Sept. 24 next, and it will not be renewed unless we get two concessions. One is the removal of the $5,000 draft clause and the other is that our league be given territorial rights in Chicago. We will respect N. H. L. contracts, whatever happens. Our contracts are worded exactly the same as those of the N. H. L. and if we can break their contracts they can break ours."

JESS PETTY RELEASED

PHILADELPHIA, Penn., June 16. —Outright release of Jess Petty, veteran left-hander of the Pittsburg Pirates to Newark, N.J., of the International League, was announced last night by Manager Jewelens of the Pirates. Petty will report to Newark to-morrow.

Ten Dinghies Race In R.C.Y.C. Trials

Reg Dixon Second in Class "A" While Gliddon Third in Class "B."

TORONTO, June 16.—Fifteen dinghies competed at the Royal Canadian Yacht Club on Saturday afternoon. There was a fresh south-west wind blowing, which made for very fast times. In the class "A" division there were ten boats, and it was a picture to see them all hit the starting line within a second or two of one another.

Dinghy racing at this club is very keen. This is evidenced by the fact that these ten boats held almost their exact positions during the three-quarter mile run to the Ward's Island buoy. This race will long be remembered for the evenness of the start and for the way in which they held their positions. One could have fired a bullet through the sail of the windward boat so that it would have passed through every sail in the line. As one of the participants remarked, it was a nice run to watch, but not a nice one to be sailing, in view of the fact that the time was drawing nigh when each one must jibe at the Queen City buoy and try to give buoy room and yet avoid fouls. To the credit of the sailors, the turning of the first mark was perfect. Fleming, Rogers and Kelly did well in the windward work, which was from the city buoy to the Centre Island mark.

In the windward leg, the second time around, Fleming, Rogers and Reg Dixon were leading. Fleming was covering Dixon and Rogers was away by himself. In the final run to the finishing line Rogers had a lead of half a minute, while Dixon, who had overtaken Fleming, was only two seconds ahead. Further back Les Scott was only two two seconds ahead of Cyril Clarke.

The standing of the classes was as follows:

Class "A"—1, Dave Rogers, 4.18.40; 2, Reg Dixon, 4.19.10; 3, A. Fleming, 4.19.12; 4, Jack Bennett, 4.19.35; 5, Hynes-Leonard, 4.10.25; 6, Les Scott, 4.20.40; 7, Cyril Clark, 4.20.42; 8, Art Kelly, 4.20.50; 9, Charles Burke, 4.21.15; 10, Jim Hyland, 4.23.23.

Class "B"—1, Bongard, 4.24.06; 2, Wilson, 4.25.10; 3, Glidden, 4.26.30; 4, Case, 4.30.12; 5, MacDonell, 4.37.15.

England Scores 129 Runs For One Wicket

NOTTINGHAM, England, June 16 (C.P. Cable).—Jack Hobbs and Herbert Sutcliffe started England off in their second innings in the cricket test match against Australia to-day with over a hundred runs. This was the tenth occasion on which this combination of batsmen had scored a hundred or more runs for the first wicket in Anglo-Australian test matches. Scores at lunch time to-day were England 270 and 129 for one wicket; Australia 146.

When he had scored 74, Hobbs was stumped and then things went badly for England. Wally Hammond went out leg before wicket to Grimmett for the second time in the match after making four and Sutcliffe hurt his fingers and was compelled to retire. He scored 58. Frank Woolley again failed, making only five, and three wickets had fallen for 147.

TORONTO WINS FROM THE LOCAL CRICKET CLUB

Victors By 4 Wickets and 20 Runs in Saturday's Game.

HONOR FORMER PLAYER.

Visiting Team Plays Brilliant Batting and Fielding Game.

A most enjoyable game at the Oval on Saturday ended in a victory for the Toronto C.C. by 4 wickets and 20 runs.

Before the game commenced a sincere tribute was shown to the late Dean of cricket, Mr. Dyce Saunders, who passed way in England the other day. The players of both teams, stood silent on the cricket field for two minutes. The late Mr. Saunders who was 68 years of age, played for the Toronto C.C. against the local team on the same ground here two years ago.

Peterborough batted first and lost their first two wickets before a run had been scored. Rhodes and Sharpe however batted doggedly and scored off of any ball that was at all loose, but there were few of these sent down The score reached 21 when Thorpe was bowled off his pads for 13 runs. Dyer soon hit up 10 but was bowled in trying to pull a straight ball to leg. Another misfortune followed, Wade being smartly run out. Smith and Gore however batted well for the seventh wicket. Gore, however, received no more support after Smith left the bat, 3 wickets falling cheeply, the side being all out for 96 runs.

The fielding of the Toronto players was magnificent and every run secured by the Peterborough players was well earned.

Toronto opened their inning with Davidson and Morrison, the first wicket fell cheaply, the former batsmen making a tame return to Wade. Two more wickets fell with the score at 14, Martin being snapped at the wicket and Patton being given out lbw., these two wickets also being Wade's victims off of successive balls. The score was taken to 26 when Dewar was out, also caught at the wicket. At this period 5 wickets were down for 29 and Peterborough were in a very favourable position. But a change came over the game when Henderson and Carlton became associated. Both these batsmen went after the bowling and despite changes in the bowling took the score to 58 before being separated, Henderson putting his leg in front of a straight ball from Dyer. Venables joined Carlton and the Peterborough score was passed and these players were both undefeated when stumps were drawn, Carlton having batted brilliantly for 41 not out; Wade claimed 4 wickets for 25 runs. Rhodes played behind the wickets in good style, making 3 catches and allowing only one bye.

INTERDEPARTMENT LOOP UNDER WAY

Competition Becoming Keen in C.G.E. Softball League.

The C.G.E. Interdepartment softball league is well under way and for the most part the teams appear to be well balanced, and competition is very keen.

The Industrial Control team is heading the league with three wins in as many starts while the Office No. 1, Armature Winding and Engineers are tied for second place. A few of the team managers are neglecting to send umpires to the games according to the rules of the league and are reminded that one point is forfeited when an umpire fails to appear.

The bouts were fast and the quality of boxing even better than was shown recently in Lindsay.

Four bouts were run off with Les. Richman as referee. Percy Houser and "Hiemie" Albert acted as seconds for the Lindsay entries.

The first bout was between Max McLean, 114, and Jack Ross, 114, both of Lindsay.

Bim Sturgeon, 144, met Len Post, 135, both of Peterborough.

The best bout of the evening was between Joey Gordon, 143, and Reg. Lesurf, 133, both of Peterborough.

Wallace Hutchinson, 175, and Ragnar Steen, 174, both of Lindsay, also put on a very exciting match.

No decisions were given in any of the bouts. Following the boxing there was a dance with the Lindsay Collegians' six-piece orchestra supplying the music. A dainty lunch was also served during the evening.

A BEDTIME STORY

By Howard R. Garis

UNCLE WIGGILY'S PUSSY BUSH

The new little cat, which Baby Bunty found up in the pussy willow tree, stayed at Uncle Wiggily's hollow stump bungalow all night and in the morning Mr. Longears found out from Tommie Kat, where the cute little stranger lived.

"I'll take you home, Mew," said the rabbit gentleman. For this name had been given the lost pussy because she cried that way when Baby Bunty heard her up in the tree.

When his own little rabbit children hopped to the Hollow Stump School to recite their lessons to the Lady Mouse Teacher, Uncle Wiggily took Mew home. And on the way, as he held her soft, little paw in his, he asked her:

"What dog was it that barked at you and chased you up into the pussy willow tree last night, little Mew?"

"Oh, I don't know what dog it was," Mew answered. "I didn't stop to look. I never talk to dogs, anyhow, for they always chase us cats. But maybe it was Jackie or Peetie Bow Wow. Last night when I stayed in your bungalow, I heard Baby Bunty talknig in her sleep about Jackie and Pettie Bow Wow. Maybe one of them chased me."

"Oh, no! Jackie or Peetie wouldn't do a thing like that," Uncle Wiggily said, shaking his pink nose. "It must have been a strange dog. If I find out which one it was I'll speak to him so he won't chase you again, Mew. Well, here we are at your house."

Mew's mother was very glad to see her little pussy child again, for she could not imagine where she had been all night. Mew's mother thanked Uncle Wiggily for bringing the little lost cat home.

He held her soft, little paw in his.

"I am very glad I could do it," spoke the polite rabbit gentleman. "Come and see me again, some time, Mew!"

"I will," promised the little pussy and then Uncle Wiggily hopped back home, laughing to himself as he remembered how Baby Bunty had thought a pussy willow bud had turned into a cat because she heard mewing up in the tree at the end of the rabbit gentleman's garden.

But that evening, when once more the rabbit children were gathered around Uncle Wiggily's easy chair to listen to the bedtime story from the evening paper, Baby Bunty was missing again.

"Where can that cute little tyke be now?" said Uncle Wiggily.

"Maybe she's down in the garden again, seeing if there are any more little cats in the pussy tree?" said Jingle with a laugh.

"Go on, Daddicums! Read the story! Don't wait for Bunty!" said Jangle.

Uncle Wiggily didn't want to do that, but just as he was going to look for Bunty as he had done before, all of a sudden the little orphan rabbit came hopping into the bungalow very fast and she shouted:

"Come quick! Come quick, everybody"!

"Where?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"What's the matter?" asked Buster.

"Down to the end of your garden again!" said Bunty. "There's a little puppy dog growing on a bush."

"A puppy dog growing on a bush? Nonsense!" exclaimed Mr. Longears. "You must be dreaming, Bunty. Though you did find, last night, a real pussy cat."

"And this is a real puppy, too!" said the little orphan rabbit. "I heard him barking and he's right on top of the bush where he is easy to pick off. Come on and pick him."

"She must mean the dogwood tree," said Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy. "You know you have a dogwood tree in the yard, Uncle Wiggily."

"Yes, I know I have a dogwood tree," spoke the rabbit gentleman. "But that only has leaves and white flowers on in the spring. Puppies don't grow on dogwood trees or bushes."

"Well, this is a puppy all right!" declared Bunty. "Come and see!"

Uncle Wiggily and all the others followed Bunty to the end of the garden, and, as they came near the dogwood tree, or bush, they heard a tiny voice barking and yapping:

"Bow! Wow! Wow! Wuff!"

"Oh, it is a little puppy! I see him!" cried Jingle.

Surely enough a cute, little brown puppy was lying sprawled out on top of some flat branches of the dogwood bush. Uncle Wiggily reached over and lifted the puppy down. He wagged his tail and licked Uncle Wiggily's paws with his red tongue.

"However, did you get up in the dogwood bush, little puppy?" asked the rabbit gentleman.

"I jumped up there to get away from the pussy cat who was chasing me," was the answer. "I ran fast and tried to jump over the bush to get away from that scratchy pussy cat, but I didn't jump far enough and I landed right in the bush and I couldn't get out so I howled and barked."

"What pussy cat chased you?" asked the rabbit and just then from under a big burdock weed a voice cried:

"I did, and I'll do it again, too!"

Pimples On Face Thought Everyone Was Looking At Her

I BUY IT BY THE GALLON

I walked into the establishment and asked for a fellow whom I knew knew me. As that man came up and awaited my order, he appeared to have a feeling of great warmth towards me. I felt, myself, as though I were sure to get exactly what I wanted.

He showed me many of his wares, and I was allowed the privilege of sampling some. He explained the merits of each case, and I was greatly impressed.

"I want this to last me some time," I told him.

"Then you must want at least ten gallons," he told me.

"No, about five gallons should be enough."

Finally we agreed.

I walked out of the haberdashery with my six and one half gallon Stetson hat, Western style.

GRIMES IS FREED BY HON. W. H. PRICE

Farmhand Up For Murder Released on Department's Order.

TRIED TWICE.

ST. CATHARINES, June 16. What is said to be a precedent in the administration of justice here has been established by the release of Arthur Grimes, young English farmhand, who was twice tried here for murder, the jury disagreeing in both trials. Word was received here yesterday from David Robinson of Hamilton, who had charge of the defense of Arthur Grimes, that Attorney-General W. H Price had ordered the prisoner released from Lincoln County jail.

The crime for which Grimes was twice tried was the murder of Mrs. Pearl Stewart, wife of the farmer with whom he was employed, on Feb. 9, 1929. Grimes had been left at home with the woman while Stewart and his little daughter went to Grimsby. When they returned they found the body of Mrs. Stewart in the woodshed. She had been battered to death with an axe. Grimes, the hired boy, was found later in a field suffering from exposure to the cold. He was in a terrible condition, officials admitted, as to clothing as well as mentally and physically.

Sent Out From England

He had been sent out from England with other lads by an institution which looks after neglected children. The day after his arrest, Grimes is alleged to have made a statement to Deputy Commissioner Alf Cuddy and Chief Inspector John Miller of the Provincial Police, in which he admitted striking Mrs. Stewart with an axe in self-defense.

Mr. Justice Raney, who first tried the case in October, 1929, refused to allow this statement to go to the jury. The jury disagreed. At the second trial last October the statement was not offered as evidence, and the second jury disagree.

David Robinson of Hamilton said that, if released, Grimes will be properly looked after. He will either be given a position in Canada or be sent back to the English institution.

Confirmed by Minister

Hon. W. H. Price, Attorney-General confirmed the statement that Arthur Grimes had been liberated. Accordng to Mr. Price, the matter rested entirely with his department, which had received carefully the facts of the case.

"This young man was tried twice" stated Mr. Price, "and at the first trial the jury divided, seven to five, in favor of acquittal; while, at the second trial, it was eleven to one in the prisoner's favor. Under such circumstances, it did not seem likely that if a third trial was ordered, that a conviction would be registered. On the advice of Deputy Minister Bayly, who had gone thoroughly into the whole matter, I ordered his release, which is customary under such circumstances." It is understood that Grimes, however, will be required to make periodical reports to the Parole Board.

Several mills in Italy will experiment in using esparto grass in the manufacture of textiles.

PICTORIAL GOLF

NEW BALL EASIER TO DRIVE OFF LINE.

The new ball will have one disadvantage and that is in slicing or hooking. It will exaggerate both—that is, make it much easier to acquire either fault.

With the small heavy ball we cannot obtain as wide a slice as we will undoubtedly get with the lighter and larger ball. If the ground is hard the heavier ball will be inclined to run a little further. If the ground is soft it will stop a little quicker, but the chances are that the new ball will not seek the muddy spots as a place to repose. There will usually be some bounce and a better lie.

The thing to do is to learn how to hit through the ball and steer it straighter down the course. We must do this if we intend to get the most out of the game.

ARRIVES AT 8:00 P.M., D. S. T.

The plans of Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King who is to speak in the Armouries Tuesday night have been changed and he will not arrive on the C. P. R. at noon but will arrive later in the afternoon. As a result there will not be any noon parade but there will be a monster parade from the C. P. R. station at 8 o'clock Daylight Saving Time.

HEAVY PEONY BLOOM

J. H. Callander, who is an authority in floriculture, says that the flowering of peonies of different variety this season will be almost simultaneous. It is anticipated that the early, mid-season and late varieties of this flower will blossom almost at once, making a gorgeous blooming for a very short time and short shrift for the flowers.

The extreme warm weather of a short time back gave the flowers a premature start, and the coolness that came later held the buds in check, with the present hot humid season bringing them to a full and quick flowering. The blooms are not as large as usual, this year.

BIG BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Coincident with the visit of the Right Honorable W. L. Mackenzie King, who will arrive in this city on Tuesday evening to address a mass meeting of Liberals in the Armouries, J. J. Duffus, Liberal candidate for West Peterborough, is celebrating a birthday anniversary.

ANOTHER FALSE ALARM.

With the traffic at its peak, the Peterborough Fire Department made a smart dash into the centre of the city on Saturday afternoon, to find that they were the victims of a false alarm from the box at Queen and Simcoe Streets. A very large crowd assembled in anticipation of witnessing a tough battle with the fire fiend.

Shortly after nine o'clock this morning a chimney fire at 409 Wolfe Street submitted to a drenching from two 3-gallon chemicals.

The Fire Chief begs to call the attention of citizens to the necessity for keeping their chimneys clean, and points out that failure to do so renders offenders to a penalty under the fire prevention by-laws.

Voice of the People

Letters to be printed in the Voice of the People column must be received at The Examiner Office on the day before it is desired to have them published.

Mr. Peck persists in trying to mislead people into the belief that because he said at first that he was in favour of the King budget and its Empire preferences and then went back on it, that Mr. Bennett is still in favour of it. To make a long story shorter, if even Mr. Peck will state over his own signature that he is in favour of the King budget and its Empire preferences and not in favour of "Canada First," for no man can be both. I will vote for him. Come, Mr. Peck. As a friend suggests, answer "yes" or "no," as you owe it to the public. Remember Meighen.

English papers in Quebec are beginning to shake their heads. Power is too dearly bought with Empire ruin.

UNDERWRITERS HOLD PICNIC

Peterborough and Lindsay Branches Have Big Outing at Greenhurst Bay.

SOFTBALL GAMES.

Peterborough-Lindsay Life Underwriters spent an enjoyable afternoon on Saturday on the occasion of their annual picnic to Greenhurst summer pavilion.

Meeting there at 1.30 they did justice to an excellent luncheon after which a few well-chosen words of welcome were addressed by B. M. Bissell, president of the Association.

A. J. Campbell of Lindsay, speaking on behalf of the Lindsay members, expressed appreciation at the opportunity to join with their colleagues from Peterborough in mutual celebration and amity, while F. C. Marshal spoke in similar strain on behalf of the Peterborough underwriters. He was glad, he said, to have the Victoria County members present, and he looked forward to an even closer co-operation in the future. It was stated that next year it is hoped to make arrangements for a picnic which will include the wives and families of the association members.

A closely contested softball game in which Lindsay beat Peterborough by one run, with 17 runs in all to their credit, provided good sport for all present. The line-up was: Lindsay—Ferguson, Tompinks, Sleep, Joyce, Wilson, Walker, Knill, Hewiston. Peterborough—Sackville, Grey, Ross, Martyn, Gibbons, Grant, Brioux, Marshall, Rudkinf, Kinmuir. Umpire—Bissell. Scorer—Elliott.

ROTARY READY FOR BIG FAIR ON WEDNESDAY

Details of Gala Night Are Discussed at To-day's Club Luncheon.

THE ROTARY SPIRIT.

Rev. W. Harold Young Briefly Addresses Members and Recalls Old Days.

Final details for Rotary's big street fair on Wednesday night were discussed at to-day's luncheon of the club, when Rotarian J. H. Seels, chairman of the Fair committee, related the duties expected of each member of the club in helping to make this big community fun-and-money making one of the most successful in local history.

The various booths are ready to be put in position, it was explained; lights are being erected in the Market Square to-day, and by 7 o'clock on Wednesday night when the fun commences everything will be in readiness for a gala night.

Reports from the various ticket-selling teams showed Rotarian Tom Dutton's team still in the lead, having disposed of over 2,000 tickets entitling the purchasers to estimate as to the mileage covered by the Rotary Pontiac Sedan. The prize individual salesmen were announced in the persons of Rotarians Andrew Brown and Jim Juby.

The car, it was stated, would run the last three hours of the 115 hour schedule on the Market Square on Wednesday night and it is expected that hundreds more tickets will be sold as the contest draws to an end.

Rotarian W. R. Morris, chairman of the On-to-Chicago committee, announced that the Peterborough Club would be represented by a good delegation at the International convention in Chicago next week.

Rev. W. Harold Young of Toronto, former member of the Peterborough Rotary Club, spoke briefly but eloquently, wishing the club every success in its street fair and referring to past carnivals in the days when he was associated with local Rotary. It was good, he said, to get back into the atmosphere of Rotary one again, and in this connection he told a graphic story that illustrated what he conceived to be the spirit of the Rotary movement, a willingness to make personal sacrifice to assist others.

MUSIC RECITAL MUCH ENJOYED

Pupils of Miss Mary Harstone Present Splendid Program.

IN PLEASING SETTING.

The pupils of Miss Mary Harstone, who gave a recital on Saturday evening in the Sunday school auditorium of St. Andrew's Church, had a charming setting for their pleasant program. There were quantities of flowers on the stage. The small girls in their party frocks of gay colors made a pretty picture when they came out to play interesting compositions, the majority from memory, on a stage arranged with a long border of lovely blossoms. The pure white of golden-hearted daisies was starred with rose-red peonies, while the shy mauve flowers of the honesty plant and the little faces of wild heliotrope peered out from tall ranks of cream and blue Japanese iris that also filled tall reed stands at the rear of the platform. Tall lighted floor lamps gave the final note of bright color.

The recital took the form of a club meeting, with Bill McPherson, the president, in the chair, and Helen Heffernan as secretary. A paper on Chopin was given by Florence Cripps. At the conclusion of the entertainment, ice cream and cake were served to the pupils and their friends.

The prizes given during the year were presented by Dr. A. W. McPherson, to the following students: Mary McPherson (general proficiency); Esther Rogow and Douglas McPherson (memory work); Florence Trebilcock and Norman Green (practising); Dorothy Strong and Bill Petrie (satisfactory lessons); Joy Walker and Reginald Yelland (regularity and punctuality).

The pupils played well, displaying splendid training in technical work and in fine, clear tone and excellent interpretation. The playing by Bill Petrie of Paderewski's Minuet in G was outstandingly good.

The program was as follows: Snowdrop, by Katie Rogow; Toccatina, by Ruth Kingan; Bach's Prelude and Mozart's Rondo, by Douglas McPherson; Sonatina, by Joy Walker; Country Dance, by Reginald Yelland; Intermezzo Caprice, by Gladys Watson; Mozart's Andante, by Norman Green; Village Rondo, by Esther Rogow; Dance Characteristique, by Gwen Campbell; Will o' the Wisp, by Mary McPherson; Moon Winks, by Everett Gibbs; Valse in A flat, by Florence Trebilcock; Chanson d'Amour, by Geraldine Perdue; Arlene, by Elene McCoy; Au Matin, by Kathleen Holland; Tarantelle, by Helen Heffernan; Valse Fantastique, by Bill McPherson; Ballet Music from Rosamond, by Dorothy Strong; Minuet in G (Paderewski), by Bill Petrie, and Valse Brillante, by Miriam Purdy.

ROTARY AIDS CRIPPLED CHILDREN AND PROVIDE FRESH AIR CAMPS

Club is to be Found Aiding in Every Worth-while Civic Cause.

FAIR ON WEDNESDAY.

The cause of the Crippled Children and work among Boys is one that appeals to every human sympathy, and for years this has been the main effort of the Peterborough Rotary Club. It has spent thousands of dollars for the purpose of providing a wholesome place for boys to get fresh air and recreation in the summer, and many boys have been helped both in mind and body by the vacation at the camp at Clear Lake. In addition, crippled children reported in this city or district, desirous of assistance to bring them back to as close to normal life as possible have received attention, and many already have been benfitted. This work is continuous and is greatly appreciated where it has been undertaken.

The Rotary Club also does general community service and its members are to be found in the forefront of every worthwhile community project. To be a member of the Rotary Club of this or any other city, requires the giving of a good deal of time and the expenditure of personal funds to ensure the carrying on of this important work of the club.

The Rotary Fair, to be held on Wednesday night of this week, on the Market Square, gives an opportunity to the citizens of Peterborough and district to co-operate in this great work and have an evening of good, solid enjoyment at little or no cost.

SHOPS ARE CLOSED.

JERUSALEM, June 16 (C.P.). — Some Christian and nearly all Moslem shops closed yesterday, following the Arab executive's proclamation of a strike to protest the execution of three Arabs to-morrow for their part in the Arab-Jewish riots last summer.

Nearly all denominations in Palestine have joined the Arab appeal and it is understood that a last minute effort has been made to get the Zionist executive to move for a reprieve.

An Arab afternoon paper here publishes a despatch from Acre, where the condemned men are imprisoned, saying that "Youth will rise in case of execution. We strongly demand that the Government grant amnesty or gunpowder may explode."

An Arab paper at Haifa says that if the execution is carried out, "June 17 will become a day on which a spark will be kindled, not only in Palestine but throughout all Arab countries. We do not say this as a phrase but as advice to the Government in avoiding disturbances."

Tories Accused of Trying To Block Canada's Nationhood Cannot Secure Trade Orders By Force Says Premier

Record of Government, the Dunning Budget and the Choice of Representation at Imperial Conference Main Issues in Campaign.

(By Ray Brown, Canadian Press Staff Writer)

BRANTFORD, Ont., June 17.—The Dominion Government wishes to send representatives to the Imperial conference with "The Voice of Canada" behind them. That is one reason why a general election has been brought on at this time, so declared Premier Mackenzie King in his key-note campaign speech here last night.

"We want to go to the conference of 1930 as we went to the conferences of 1923 and 1926 with the voice of Canada behind us", he asserted amidst applause. He asked his listeners whether or not they desired to send to the Imperial conference men who proposed to "blast their way to trade" or men who went with a spirit of friendship and good will.

7,000 Hear Premier

What was described as the greatest National radio hook-up ever attempted in Canada carried the words of the Premier across Canada from coast to coast. His speech which lasted for almost an even two hours commanded the careful attention of the audience here of some seven thousand persons. Enthusiastic applause marked points which he drove home from the platform. He touched briefly on unemployment in its relation to immigration.

The immigration policy of the Conservative party as outlined by General McRae, declared Mr. King, "Was that of a huge colonization and land settlement scheme involving an expenditure of some $300,000,000 and bringing in of 300,000 fresh immigrants.

"Perhaps," continued Mr. King, "Mr. Bennett will tell the west how this policy which he supported would have helped to lessen the unemployment of which he has had so much to say in the present campaign."

Financial Record of Government.

The financial record of the government was gone into extensively by the Prime Minister. He asserted that at the rate the government had been wiping off the public debt it would disappear entirely in forty years. "That is a record which no country in the world can equal" he said. He spoke of surpluses, seven of which had been recorded during the eight and a half years of the present government's tenure of office. He claimed taxation had been reduced, nuisance taxes wiped out altogether with the single exception of the two cent tax on cheques over ten dollars, and Mr. King, amidst applause, forecast that, if the government is returned to power, the remaining one per cent. of sales tax will disappear. Mr. King assailed the Conservatives for their attitude toward the National status of Canada in the British Commonwealth of Nations. "Even to-day you can't get some members of the opposition, including Mr. Bennett, to admit that Canada is a nation." He said efforts made by the Liberals to secure for Canada an assured position of equality with all other parts of the Empire had been met with opposition and derision, he claimed.

LIBERAL POLICY IS UN-CANADIAN STATES MANION

Hon. R. J. Manion Assails Premier King's Washington Policy.

LEADS TO SECESSION.

Canada's Destiny Being Held Back By Government's Failure.

AURORA, June 17 (C.P.).—Unless Canada shakes off the un-Canadian policies of Premier Mackenzie King, it will end up in ten years "in the arms of the United States," Hon. R. J. Manion declared here last night.

Dr. Manion assailed Premier King for the latter's "don't provoke Washington" tariff policy," and declared himself an earnest proponent of an unswerving Canada first policy, both in Empire and International trade.

"Canada's destiny is being held back by this miserable failure of a government," Dr. Manion asserted. "Canada must remove this Government or after about ten years put herself in the arms of the United States. I am not saying that for any scareheads. There are many people in this country who say that if this thing goes on, we may as well become part of the United States. We must put in a government with a real Canadian policy."

Cheapest Country in Europe.

Nor did adequate tariffs raise the cost of living, Dr Manion submitted. He agreed that a tariff might raise the cost of one or two articles, but it would cause no general rise in the cost of living. "Why?" he argued. "France, highly protected France, is probably the cheapest country in Europe to live in. It's cheaper than free trade England."

Canadian wheat lately had not been selling in England, Dr. Manion said. Would it not be a proper Canadian attitude for Hon. R. B. Bennett to go to the next Imperial Conference and tell Britain that if Canada give it preferences on articles that would not damage Canadian industry, then Britain should buy Canadian wheat.

Conservatives, said the speaker, were not merely criticizing. They offered a better fiscal policy for Canada. "We believe," he said, "that Canada should produce in Canada every commodity that we can economically produce here, utilizing our own raw materials. Give the work to our own Canadian instead of to the United States workmen or any other. Our policies will open the factories again, give work to all who want it and increase our markets at home and abroad."

Royalty Attends The Ascot Opening

ASCOT, England, June 17 (C.P.)—Trimdon, owned by General Corles Lambton, won the famous Ascot Gold Vase to-day at the opening session of "Royal Ascot" week, attended by the King and Queen and all of Great Britain's fashionable world.

Bonny Bou II, owned by M. E. De St. Alary won the Ascot Stakes, while Lord Ellesmere's Lemnarchus captured the Coventry Stakes of £1,000 by one length.

As in previous years, the race meeting revived the stately and picturesque pageantry of the entrance of the King and Queen in an open coach drawn by four horses and attended by outriders clad in crimson and goal.

DOUKHOBORS MARCHING ON CITY OF NELSON, B.C.

NELSON, B.C., June 17.—(C.P.) — In defiance of orders which prohibits them from entering the streets of Nelson, more than two score Doukhobors, members of the "Sons of Freedom,' are marching toward the city to-day. Late last night they were encamped six miles from Nelson, having travelled 12 miles from the Doukhobor camp at Porto Rico siding.

Police are prepared to divert the marchers from the city,

According to the Doukhobors, they are on a pilgrimage looking for freedom, and are the advance party of 400 members of the Porto Rico colony preparing to "take the road.'

AID TO WORKERS IS SUGGESTED BY HON. HEENAN

Working Man Should Be Assured of Some of the Profits in "Lean Months."

OTTAWA CONFERENCE.

Something Better Coming Than Soup Tickets Minister of Labor Announces.

KENORA, Ont., June 17. (C.P.)—The working men of Canada who created the wealth of the Dominion during the "fat months" should be assured of some of the profits in the "lean months" declared Hon. Peter Heenan, Dominion Minister of Labor during an election campaign speech here last night.

Mr. Heenan, who is again a candidate in the riding of Kenora-Rainy River, dealt with the Liberal government's record, and the benefits it had brought the laboring man. Touching on the unemployment situation, Mr. Heenan said there was something better coming to the working pople of Canada "than the mayors of towns running down to the seats of government looking for tickets for soup."

Ottawa Conference

The Minister of Labor called attention to the scheduled unemployment conference to be held in Ottawa at which labor, employers, municipal and provincial governments, would be represented and at which, said, any effort will be made to eliminate the everlasting cry for unemployment reliefs. But, he pointed out, he must be allowed by the workers to make a fair deal with the employers. Unless the workers cooperated, nothing could be accomplished.

The minister charged the Conservatives were inconsistent in their pleas for unemployment aid. Up to quite recently the Conservatives had advocated wholesale immigration. "Now" said Mr. Heenan, "they condemn the King administration for the existing condition of unemployment."

MEMORIAL SERVICE HELD FOR DEAD SPORTSMAN

LONDON, June 17. (C.P.) — The body of Sir Henry Segrave, who died of injuries received when his speedboat, Miss England II, was wrecked on Lake Windermere, to-day was cremated at Golder's Green.

The ceremony was attended by Lady Segrave, Sir Henry's parents and Lord Wakefield.

At the same hour a large crowd assembled in St. Margaret's church, Westminster, where a memorial service was held for the dead sportsman.

N. Y. Newspapers Play Up Premier King's Address

NEW YORK, N.Y., June 17 (C. P.) — Premier Mackenzie King's address at Brantford, Ont., last night, in which he discussed the Canadian Government attitude toward new tariff legislation of United States, attracted a great deal of attention here. Morning newspapers refrained from editorial comment, contenting themselves with a prominent display of the report of the Premier's speech.

The Herald-Tribune carried the report on its front page under the heading, "Canadians Plan Tariff to Match New U. S. Rates."

The reaction to the passage of the tariff bill, however, is occupying the attention of the newspapers and retaliatory action by Canada has been taken for granted.

CHICAGO PLANS TO CRUSH GANGS

Half Dozen Public Agencies Are Directing Hunt For Slayer of Reporter.

IRON MAN TAKES HOLD.

CHICAGO, Ills., June 17 (C.P.).—The arm of public indignation which yesterday forced the resignation of William Russell as Commissioner of Police, reached out to-day for the slayer of Alfred (Jake) Lingle, Tribune reporter, and the fist clenched to smash gangdom.

Half a dozen public agencies were directing new energies toward crushing gang rule, but chief dependence rested with the Grand Jury, which has given a special charge by Chief Justice Normoyle of the Criminal Court to search out the truth concerning politico-gang connections and crime profits.

State's Attorney John A. Swanson will direct the Grand Jury inquiry, and the evidence will be gathered by his special investigator, Pat Roche.

Iron Man Takes Hold.

The position of Acting Police Commissioner was taken over last night by John H. Alcock, called "The Iron Man," who has been first deputy commissioner. One of his first acts was the issuance of "special order No. 1," which in effect rescinded the final order of his predecessor, The retiring commissioner, just before resigning, made several re-assignments of police officers, including himself and his detective chief Stege. Alcock's order cancelled these re-assignments.

The Church Federation Committee authorized the formation of a "facts finding" committee. Dean Shaller Mathews of the Divinity School of the University of Chicago called the killing of Lingle "the apex of a pyramid, 90 per cent. of which is still underground," he added.

"I wish several newspapers of Chicago, and particularly the Tribune, would realize that circulation is not fair measure of the respect in which papers are held. The Church Federation awaits a full statement as to the relations of Mr. Lingle to the underworld. Above all, the churches want to feel that the recent agitation of the press of Chicago is not a sign of fear or self-protection, but an honest determination to end the evils the federation has constantly foretold."

Rt. Hon. Ramsay MacDonald Meets With Representatives of Municipal Authorities.

WORLD ECONOMIC CRISIS.

Representative From London Claims City Has Been Mortgaging the Future.

LONDON, June 17 (By Thomas T. Champion, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent).—Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald, having come by air from his home at Lossiemouth, Scotland, to-day resumed work in London, but not at Westminster where Parliament was as-assembling. Instead, he met 200 representatives of municipal authorities at the Guildhall, to discuss speeding up schemes of work for relief of unemployment.

For some time there has been a general feeling that local authorities in England, Scotland and Wales have failed to do their own part in dealing with the unemployment problem, showing rather an inclination to wait for the Government to produce larger enterprises.

The Prime Minister made a rousing appeal for close co-operation in expediting schemes and then renewing efforts towards national development.

The subsequent discussion revealed a note of despondency.

The Lord Mayor of Sheffield, C. W. Beardsley, who is working as a locomotive fireman, expressed the belief that local authorities were already doing all they could. He believed the present government grants were inadequate. Unemployment schemes in Sheffield, he said, were already responsible for a municipal income taxation of sixpence in the pound, or about 2.4 per cent.

Mortgaging the Future

Sir William Ray, speaking for the London County Council, said London had been mortgaging the future for the last six months to help in the present national emergency. It would pass the brain of man to expedite unemployment schemes further, he said.

Representatives of metropolitan boroughs expressed a decided opposition to any scheme which involved the importation of labor from the de-

BUDGET WAS FRAMED WITH IDEA OF SELLING CANADIAN WHEAT

5,000 People Hear Hon. Charles Dunning in His Opening Campaign Address.

WORLD-WIDE SURPLUS.

REGINA, Sask., June 17.—(By the Canadian Press.)— Hon. Charles A. Dunning, Minister of Finance, is quite willing to be faced with the charge that had been levelled against him in the east—that he had framed the budget with the idea of selling western wheat.

This was what he told a Liberal convention here last night following his nomination as candidate in the constituency of Regina. Five thousand persons attended the convention.

Speaking of the budget and western wheat, Mr. Dunning said the serious economic condition, now world wide, was the result of a world-wide surplus of basic commodities, rather than any fiscal policy.

Not only was the unemployment situation world wide, but it was also baffling the best minds in the world. While it was true industries had been built up, they would fade overnight if it were found impossible to sell Canadian wheat. The growing crop and its movement to the seaboard meant jobs for thousands. Wheat was vital to Canada and the only great market was in Great Britain. His budget, he continued, had been framed with the sale of the wheat crop in mind. By making it possible to buy more from Great Britain it would make it possible for Great Britain to buy more from Canada.

Basically, Mr. Dunning said, trade between nations was exactly the same as between individuals. It was true Great Britain had for many years bought more from Canada than she had sold to Canada. It was a condition that could not be continued indefinitely and the time had arrived. His budget was in the form of a remedy for that condition.

Love of Girl Will Spur on Aviator

DUBLIN, Irish Free State, June 17.—(C.P.)— When Capt. Charles Kingford-Smith takes off from here shortly on a tran-atlantic flight project to New York he will be spurred on to success by love of a girl in Australia.

He revealed her name here today only as "Miss Powell," whom he met last year on a mail boat going to Australia. Their romance had the brief but companionable setting of the transoceanic voyage. Captain Kingsford-Smith said that if he succeeded in his life-long ambition of crosing the Atlantic they would be married.

New Tariff Rates Come Into Effect In United States

President Hoover To-day Signed the Law Revising the Existing Eight-year-old-rate Structure—More Than One Thousand Changes in Tariff Take Effect at Midnight.

CUSTOMS OFFICIALS PREPARED FOR RUSH OF SHIPS TO REACH PORT BEFORE CLAUSES BECOME LAW

Senators Applaud as President Affixes His Signature to New Tariff Measure Which Has Taken Over One Year to Pass Congress and the Senate.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—(AP)—President Hoover today signed the Tariff Bill.

The bill was signed at 12.59.30 p.m.

The law, which revises the existing eight-year-old-rate structure in more than a thousand instances and overhauled the the administrative features, will take effect at midnight tonight.

Customs officials are prepared for the rush of ships to reach port and fyle their cargo papers in time to benefit by the old rates. They also are ready to administer the new rates and bureau officials here expect little confusion.

The bill was signed in the presence of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, Francis A. Eble, Commissioner of Customs and four of the six Republican conferees, including Senators Smoot, Utah and Shortridge, California, and Representative Hawley, Oregon and Treadway, Massachusetts. As the president affixed his signature those grouped around him applauded.

In Interests of Business.

President Hoover had announced in advance of receipt of the bill he would approve it in the interest of business stability.

He believes the revised flexible provision giving the Tariff Commission power to recommend rates for approval or rejection by the President will afford an opportunity to correct any unfair rates, go a long way toward taking the tariff out of politics and obviate the necessity for another Congressional revision "for many years to come."

The bill was signed one year, five months and ten days from the day the House Ways and Means Committee began public hearings on the subject in the latter days of the Coolidge administration.

Slamming the Door

TORONTO, Ont., June 17 (C.P.)—In his address to the convention of the National Retail Credit Association here to-day, C. L. Burton, Chairman of the Toronto Board of Trade, told the United States delegates that certain aspects of their country's trade and foreign policies were "subversive of the influence necessary if your Canadian customer is to be a better customer."

Scoring the practice of "creating progressive antagonistic tariff restrictions," Mr. Burton continued, "You have created a market here for your wares and have proceeded virtually to slam the door in the face of your best customer. If you as individuals really showed sufficient interest you could control and influence the direction of political action.

"If you are interested in having more work for your growing body of unemployed and interested in more speedy economic reconstruction, then it would appear to us here that both in your antagonistic trade policy against Canada and your insistence on the payment of war debts which you don't need, you will in the aggregate cause a loss of earning power to your own people many times greater than the entire amount you will receive from war debts or from the alleged advantage you give to some of your own producers when you shut out Canadian wheat, etc.," he declared.

OCEAN FLIERS ATTEMPTING TO SET NEW MARK

William Brock and Edward Schlee on Transcontinental Round Trip Flight.

THIRTY HOUR HOP.

Pair Flew Across Atlantic and Europe to Tokyo in September, 1927.

JACKSONVILLE BEACH, Fla., June 17.—(C.P.)—William C. Brock and Edward F. Schlee took off at 5.01 (E.S.T.) today for a round trip flight to San Diego, Calif.

Three records for coast to coast trips now are held by Captain Frank Hawks. These are 19 hours, 10 minutes for the east-west hop and 17 hours, 38 minutes for the west to east jump and 44 hours for elapsed time, but the trans-continental route from Jacksonville Beach to San Diego is about 400 miles shorter than the distance between New York and Los Angeles which was covered by Captain Hawks.

The plane, which weighs 6,500 pounds with a full load, was expected to average 160 to 170 miles an hour.

For good luck, Schlee arranged to wear the same pair of tan and white sport shoes he wore when another monoplane, the Pride of Detroit carried them safely across the Atlantic ocean and Europe to Tokyo in 1927.

Brock and Schlee took off from Harbor Grace, N. F., August 27, 1927 and reached Tokyo September 14, a distance of 12,295 miles.

The start was without incident, their monoplane skimming down the beach for half a mile before rising and heading into the west.

Brock and Schlee who carried 450 gallons of gasoline, hoped to reach San Diego, a distance of 2,112 miles and return to Jacksonville Beach in 24 to 30 hours.

Overcast weather prevailed at the take-off and moderate headwinds and showers were predicted along the route of the flight.

LIBERAL SUPPORT OFFERED LABOR

Lloyd George Assures Premier of Majority For Measure to Help Unemployed.

NATIONAL EMERGENCY.

LONDON, June 17. (C.P.)— The Daily Herald, organ of the Labor party, said this morning that David Lloyd George had offered Premier Ramsay MacDonald's Labor Government the full support of the Liberal party in the House of Commons to secure a sound and dependable majority for emergency measures to wage war on unemployment.

Talking to the Herald parliamentary correspondent on the eve of reassembly of Parliament to-morrow after the Whitsuntide recess, the veteran Liberal leader showed his anxiety about unemployment, and said that it was going from bad to worse.

"It must be treated," he declared, "as a national emergency — as much an emergency as the situations which arose during the Great War.

"What is needed is an emergency session working under emergency measures, to deal with an unquestionable emergency in trade and unemployment.

"It might take half a dozen first-class pieces of legislation and the whole time of the session should be devoted to it. I would take drastic emergency power just as we did in the war."

If all the Liberals support the Labor party, the MacDonald Government should be able to put through any legislation it proposes. The Liberals hold the balance of power in the British Parliament. All of the Labor victories have been recorded with Liberal support, and the defeats have come when Liberals either voted adversely or abstained.

SHOULD WORK TOGETHER.

Says England is Now Facing Abnormal Condition of Unemployment.

LONDON, June 17.—(A.P.)— Plea for close co-operation between the government and local authorities to speed plans for reducing unemployment was made by Prime Minister J. Ramsay Macdonald today in opening an important conference of governmental and local officials at the Guild Hall.

Addressing a representative gathering from all parts of the country he urged his hearers to face the present unemployment figures in no state of panic or "fussy energy" out of which only evil could come.

"What I and my colleagues of the government ask you to do is to conspire together—the government and local authorities—first of all to expedite schemes and then renew our efforts for what I might call national development. We are not really so efficient as we might be.

"I want to enlist active vigorous social minds of representative men and women like you with us, putting our energies into a common pool, and from it extract schemes that will not only benefit the unemployed but will be an added capital asset to the whole efficiency of the country".

Mr. Macdonald alluded to Great Britain as not alone in her unemployment difficulties and spoke of world conditions today.

"A certain event", he said, "which took place yesterday in New York"—which was accepted as an allusion to the Wall Street slump—"is bound to have its re-percussions here sooner or later. We are facing an abormal condition of unemployment which is owing primarily not to our internal arrangements but to th e world economic and financial crisis".

NEW ZEALAND TREATY SCORED

Dairy Business Has Been Destroyed Hon. R. B. Bennett Declares in British Columbia.

LUMBER INDUSTRY HURT.

PARKSVILLE, B.C., June 16 (C.P.)—Addressing his first open-air meeting of his election campaign, Hon. R. B. Bennett spoke here this afternoon.

"Travelling as I have from the Atlantic to the Pacific," the Conservative leader said, "I have reached two convictions: First, that in its human resources and material, Canada has an asset, the value of which is but little appreciated. I do not think any nation is so blessed with what is necessary to build up a nation.

"Secondly, I know of no country possessing so great a variety of resources as is possessed by the Dominion."

Launching into a criticism of the New Zealand trade agreement, he scored the Government for a belated recognition that it was wrong in 1925 in granting concessions to that country. Under this treaty, Mr. Bennett observed, the administration had failed to protect the lumber industry and had allowed the dairy business to be destroyed.

"The King Government," he exclaimed, "thought so little of the great lumber industry that no provision for Canadian lumber entering that country was made. Some concession were given in respect to pulp and automobiles. But for the great lumber industry, nothing has been done."

REPORT IS MADE BY COMMITTEE ON ASSESSMENTS

Reeve George Hooton's Demand For Equalized Assessment Proved Right.

URBAN EXAMPLES.

Report is Referred to Committee on Equalization of Assessment.

COBOURG, June 17 (By a Staff Reporter).—The inequality of assessment for county purposes which actuated Reeve George Hooton of Cavan to demand a thorough revaluation of the properties in Northumberland and Durham was acknowledged without reserve by an unexpected and certainly an unprejudiced witness at the opening session of the Counties Council here Monday afternoon.

George Thompson, Reeve of Cobourg last year, and by that office a member of the Counties Council in 1929, generously justified Reeve Hooton's persistent criticisms during the last two years to the effect that the equalized assessment discriminated heavily and unfairly against the rural municipalities.

Col. T. J. Johnston, Chairman.

At the January sessions Mr. Thompson was one of the three valuators appointed by the Council to appraise the rateable properties in the twin counties. The two other members were Col. Thos. J. Johnston of Peterborough and R. J. Rowe of Clarke Township, Durham County. Col. Johnston has been chairman of this commission whose report was presented yesterday.

It may be recalled that in the debates culminating in the appointment of the three valuators sharp objection was expressed by the representatives of the towns, who had held out for a valuation by the County Judge; and among those who strenuously protested against the course the Council was setting, this same George Thompson was probably the most vocal and uncompromising. He was then the Reeve of Cobourg. Yesterday he avowed his complete conversion, complimented his two colleagues on their earnestness and disinterestedness and virtually challenged any of the towns to find a flaw in the report and the method of its preparation.

What puzzled Mr. Thompson was the fact that the condition that had finally screwed up George Hooton's determination to the sticking point should have been so long accepted and condoned by successive councils. The last previous valuation was made about thirty years ago, Mr. Hooton had argued in his 1929 campaign for action.

Mr. Thompson admitted that his three years in the Council had merely been a period of training.

Mr. Thompson's Confession

"I though there was some special reason why the equalized assessment of the towns was so much lower than that of the townships," he continued. "But, as a valuator I found that we of the towns were all just a unit with the other municipalities. We were all treated alike. It was certainly an eye-opener.

"What I'l like to know even yet was why the Counties Council sat here year after year doing nothing with this state of affairs staring them in the face. If I had known what I know now, do you think I'd have sat here silent in my seat? I was unaware of the conditions we have found.

"If any town is not satisfied with this report, let it appoint three of the best valuators they have; let them value their property as it should be done, then I'd let them cut their figure in two and I am sure their equalized assessment would still have to be increased."

That Mr. Thompson struck a responsive and appealing chord to many of the members was signified by the applause that greeted his remarks, emphasized by the fact that he was the representative of the urban municipalities on the evaluating commission.

Col. Johnston Explains

Col. Johnston explained how the valuation had been carried out. With only meagre information as to procedure before them they adopted the local assessments as shown by the rolls for 1929, then took six per cent of each of such assessments. Next they went into the field and actually obtained the equivalent selling value of that six per cent block, and from this deduced the full or one hundred per cent. selling value of the property in that particular municipality.

Some Illustrations

An illustration may be based on the town of Campbellford. Its local assessment in 1929 totalled $1,408,800 and its equalized assessment $789,780.

Six per cent of Campbellford's local assessment amounted to $84,500, but the Commissioners ascertained that the equivalent selling value of that sum was $129,850 and the total value of the Campbellford taxable property, otherwise the one hundred

DR. FREDERICKS ROTARY GUEST

Campbellford Club Hear Interesting Talk on Some of America's Beauty Spots.

FACTORS IN CHILD LIFE.

CAMPBELLFORD, June 17 (By Examiner Staff Correspondent).—Featuring the weekly luncheon of the Campbellford Rotary club, held in the St. Lawrence Hall Hotel, yesterday, Dr. E. Fredericks, of Los Angeles, Cal., was the guest speaker. N. A. McColl occupied the chair.

Dr. Fredericks was introduced by Dr. B. Longmore, who drew attention to the fact that the speaker was a veteran of the World War, student and traveller. He had given him, he said, the choice of subject, and commended him to the attention of the club.

Dr. Frederick opened his remarks by commenting on the work that Lotary was doing, especially along the line of child welfare. He pointed out that this work was now based upon the new scientific study of the science of behaviour, which enabled more work to be undertaken and a wider field of activities employed. This study, the speaker went on to explain, was the stressing of the fact that environment was the greatest factor in the life of the child. That all tempers, fears and superstitions were thrust upon the child after it was born, gave the work of Rotary a wonderful opportunity for success.

The speaker also enlarged upon the early life of the city of Los Angeles, which, in the beginning of things, was a town no larger than Campbellford, with a small river running through it, but which now has a population of one and a half million, and a water supply adequate for two million people, and a harbor that is second only to that of New York. Dr. Fredericks stated that the progress of this city was due to the fact that a few men had the foresight and vision to see the possibilities of the town, and were public spirited enough to get behind it and push. This had made the city amount to something. This, he thought, was also the work of Rotary. Although, in his estimation, Campbellford would never grow in population because of the tendency of people to get away from the smaller centers and migrate to the larger cities, he thought that it was up to Rotary to make Campbellford more lovable, livable and beautiful.

The latter half of the speaker's address dealt with the wonders of the west. He very ably described a trip through the middle west to the hills, portraying the wonders of nature revealed on the way.

He spoke enthusiastically of the Grand Canyon, which was two hundred miles long, fifteen miles wide and a mile deep, and described the lure that is attached to the place. The Painted Desert was also a wonderful sight to see, with its numberless hillocks, as far as the eye could see, all about twenty-five feet high, and decorated with the most brilliant of colours. The Petrified Forest of Arizona was also a sight worthy to behold, where one saw endless trees turned into agate and jasper. Then there was the Great Salt Lake Desert of Utah, which was an overflow from that lake, and through which one drove over a road of salt blocks, four feet thick.

Lastly came the two valleys of California, the Death Valley and the Imperial Valley. The former, which was in the north of the state, was 125 miles inland from the ocean, and 250 feet below sea-level. It had a very high temperature, and was the home of one of the romantic figures of the United States, "Death Valley" Scottie, prospector, and reputed wealthy citizen, who lived a retired life in a canyon of the valley, far removed from the haunts of man.

Imperial Valley was in the south, near the head of the Gulf of California, and was noted chiefly for its good climate and the fact that a great deal of the winter garden produce is grown there, mostly by the Japanese population.

At the conclusion of the address, H. N. Carr moved a hearty vote of thanks to Dr. Fredericks for his very interesting and informative speech, which was endorsed by the chairman.

The ideal man, as described by a number of London women art students, should be tall and dark, a good dancer "with intellectual leanings," send flowers, treat his wife as an equal, and never wear red neckties.

Regular Meeting Of Keene W.M.S.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of Keene United Church, was held last Wednesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock with Mrs. Taylor, the president, in the chair. The meeting opened in the usual manner by singing a hymn, followed by the Lord's Prayer" in unison.

The scripture lesson was then read by Mrs. C. Plunkett.

The minutes of last meeting read and approved. Then the "Sunshine" boxes were collected. The response to the roll call was made in each case by a passage of scripture or a hymn, which proves very interesting. The treasurers report was given. The proceeds from a play put on by Stewart Hall netted about forty dollars.

The devotional leaflet was read by Mrs. Robt. Nelson, Study book, Jerusalem to Jerusalem, Mrs. Walter Hope. Letters of thanks for flowers sent during illness were received from Mrs. Gilbert Howson, Mrs. Angus Adamson, Mrs. Geo. Gall, Miss Annie McIntyre and Miss Minnie Brown. Prayer was offered by Mrs. F. Popular Picnic Location Features Safe Bathing, Good Fishing and Ball Diamond.

CAMPBELLFORD, June 17 (By Examiner Staff Correspondent).—The opening of the popular summer resort, Crow River Bridge, which is owned by G. Sullivan, of Campbellford, is scheduled to take place this week. This location, which at one time was known as Chad Bridge, is one of the most ideal picnic grounds in this part of the country. Situated about six miles north of Campbellford, and one mile east of Healey Falls, it has all that a good holiday requires. Swings for the children, a softball diamond, tables galore, and a booth where supplies of every kind can be secured.

The camping grounds are of the best, and there is a fine well of spring water for the use of campers.

Good fishing is also one of the many attractions of this site, a feature that draws many visitors.

Breeders To Meet On Wednesday Next

The Central Ontario Ayrshire Breeder's Club will hold its annual field day and picnic on Wednesday at the farm of J. Gordon Mann and Son, near Bridgenorth. Professor W. J. Bell, principal of the Kempville School will give an address.

A program including an inspection of the livestock of the farm has been arranged and all farmers interested are invited to attend by the club authorities. J. Gordon Mann is president of the club.

Picnic baskets will be brought for a noon lunch at the outing.

per cent. value, is $1,858,300. Add to this the business and income assessment and Campbellford's total valuation is $2 144,166. But its equalized assessment is only $798,780.

Another urban example: Cobourg, local assessment, inclusive of business and income $2,940,046, equalized assessment for county purposes $1,600,729; and the total valuation by the commission is placed at $4,765,583.

The village of Hastings: Local assessment, $268,500; equalized assessment $191 604; and the commission's valuation is .$455,416, including business and income.

The village of Millbrook: Local assessment, $274,975; equalized assessment $198,510; and the revaluation by the valuators is $425,000, including business and income.

Cavan township: Local assessment $1,666,505; equalized assessment, $1,-931,765 (this is higher than the local assessment); and the commissioner's valuation, $2,680,000, including business and income.

South Monaghan: Local assessment, $672,810; equalized $766,150; commission's total valuation, $936,666.

Seymour township: Local assessment, $1,144,306; equalized, $1,613,206; commission's valuation, $2,545,000.

Alnwick township: Local $429,950; equalized, $398,420; commission's valuation, $787,500.

Started at Bowmanville

"When we began our work we went first to Bowmnville" Col. Johnston stated. "The law required us to make a full, one hundred per cent. valution, but this council may see fit to adopt say only 60 per cent. of that amount.

It was said in both towns that you couldn't sell property in either. However, we went to the registry offices, and obtained the facts of recent sales. At Bowmanville we got thirty or forty sales. We looked over the different properties to make sure the sales were genuine. The property we then valued we compared with properties that had been sold. In the next town we did the same thing, and also checked back comparing sales and values in both of them. And so we went along, and then started in the townships. We are prepared to back up our valuation as compared with sales prices.

We have heard a murmur that we didn't value the buildings on farms. The value of any property is the sum it will sell for. In many instances you could not sell the buildings on a farm for one-tenth what it was worth. You have to sell both together. A building on a farm is not as valuable as in town, and a building here is not as valuable as in Toronto. The real value of a farm is made of the land and buildings. You cannot separate them.

We know of a farm in Murray township that sold for $11,000, and I doubt if the buildings were put there for that sum. The large farm house today is more or less a detriment."

Following a brief general discussion, this report on Reeve J. M. Bygott's motion was referred to the Equalization Committee, composed of the deputies of the various municipalities together with the reeves of those municipalities that have no deputies. Reeve Frank Pickard of Newcastle was appointed chairman.

WEDDING BELLS

EDWARDS—DARLING

WARSAW, June 17 (Examiner Correspondence).—A very pretty wedding was solemnized in Zion Church on Thursday afternoon, June 12, at two o'clock, when Willa Donalda Darling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Darling, became the bride of Hilliard Joseph Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Edwards. The Rev. H. B. Herrington performed the ceremony.

The church was prettily decorated with an arch of ferns, bridal wreath and snowballs. A spray of these was used to mark the guest pews.

The bride, who looked charming in her gown of white georgette with veil of embroidered tulle caught with a bandeau of pearls and orange blossoms, entered the church on the arm of her father. She carried a bouquet of butterfly roses.

Miss Lulu Darling, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid, wearing a gown of pink georgette, large picture hat and matching nose with black satin shoes and carried a bouquet of dark pink butterfly roses.

The bride's sister, Miss Violet Darling, in leaf green crepe de chene, was a charming little flower girl, and carried a pretty basket of pink roses and lily of the valley.

Mr. Ivan Drain, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man.

Lohengrin's Wedding March was played by Mrs. Roland Payne, aunt of the bride, and during the signing of the register, Mrs. Herrington sang "I Love You Truly." The ushers were Messrs. Percy Darling and Ralph Garbutt.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where the guests which numbered about sixty were received by the bridal party assisted by Mrs. Darling wearing a gown of rosewood flat crepe with hat, hose and shoes to match, and Mrs. Edwards, in a gown of cinnamon brown flat crepe with matching hat, gloves and shoes.

The table was prettily decorated in pink and white, with bells and streamers and vases of mixed flowers.

Later, Mr. and Mrs. Edwards left by motor and after a short stay at McCracken's Landing left for Toronto, Niagara and Detroit. The bride travelled in rose biege silk lace ensemble with brown kid shoes. She carried her coat of green coverette with grey squirrel collar, and wore the gift of the bridegroom, a brown Australian fox fur.

The bridegroom's gift to the bridesmaid was a cut crystal and pearl necklace; to the flower girl a twin pearl ring; to the best man, a pearl tie pin; to the soloist, a Dutch silver candle stick; to the pianist, a flower bowl, and to the ushers, gloves.

A CHANCE FOR BUSINESS.

The new United States tariff will furnish Canadians with a fresh opportunity to increase sales to American tourists.

By reason of the difference in the United States and Canadian tariff schedules, now materially enlarged on many articles, Canadian merchants will be able to offer to their tourist patrons attractive prices in commodities imported from France and England, such as laces, linens, jewelry, chinaware, cutlery, etc., which carry duties of from 40 to 80 per cent. less than the same importations under the new United States tariff.

As tourists into Canada may take back with them duty free goods to the value of $100, there is an unique opening for the alert merchant who will advertise for the benefit of visitors precisely what articles they can save money on when purchased on this side.

The revenue from tourist traffic last year is estimated at $300,000,000; there is no reason why the United States tariff changes should not be used to greatly increase the revenue from this source during the next three months.

SIGNS NOT ENOUGH.

Investigating the death of a child killed by an automobile near Orillia, a coroner's jury has recommended that signs be erected on the highway on each side of the school property calling the attention of motorists to the fact that they are approaching a school and advising them to drive slowly.

By all means, let these protective signs be installed, but at the same time, observing the attitude of many drivers to similar warnings in other parts of the country, The Examiner cannot help but point out that something more effective than road signs will have to be found if young lives are to be saved.

School signs along the highways mean nothing to many motorists; we have such signs in the neighborhood of Peterborough schools without producing the desired sane driving hoped for when the notices were erected.

Any one who has seen the pace at which traffic rushes by the school signs on Water street at the noon hour can be pardoned for doubting the efficacy of this method of attempting to appeal to the common sense of many drivers.

They who drive apparently do not always read, if the reaction to school warning signs can be taken as a criterion.

THE PROVINCIAL BATTLES.

The two provincial campaigns which culminate on Thursday may or may not serve to throw some light by which political experts may be able to predict the federal results, in Alberta and New Brunswick.

On the whole, however, it might be well not to place too much reliance in the provincial returns as a guide to what is to happen in the Dominion election next month.

The issues before the voters in Thursday's elections are entirely different from those upon which the big battle will have to be decided, and while the result may have some effect upon the morale of the contending parties, it will not be an accurate guide as to happenings in the larger field.

In Alberta it is not expected that there will be much impression made upon the grip the Farmer administration has upon the confidence of the people, the fact that four seats have gone by acclammation and that the two old parties have nothing like a full array of candidates in the field showing which way the wind blows.

In New Brunswick the chief issue seems to be the liquor question.

The Baxter Government introduced a Government control system and is being attacked on that account by the prohibition forces, while the leader of the Opposition promises a plebiscite on the question should the Liberal party be victorious.

TO-MORROW'S STREET FAIR.

Remembering the fine work that has been done by the Rotary Club of Peterborough in aiding crippled children and in furnishing camp facilities for the boys of the city and district, the community will undoubtedly rally behind the Rotary Street Fair to-morrow night and make that gala outdoor event a record-breaking success.

The market square will be transformed for the occasion into a fairyland of bright lights and gaily decorated booths, and all Peterborough will be there to enjoy the fun and contribute to the financial triumph of the Rotary fair.

The Rotary Club is entitled to this assistance by reason of its record of achievement on behalf of worthwhile enterprises.

Through its efforts the boys of this community have an unique opportunity of enjoying a body-building and character-developing holiday under sane supervision and at a minimum of success.

Each year scores of boys have taken full advantage of the facilities of the Rotary camp and have benefitted materially in health and otherwise by reason thereof.

In addition Rotary has opened the door of a fresh outlook on life for many crippled children who, thanks to the assistance and interest of the Rotary Club, have been given a chance to grow up into normal men and women.

That work alone entitles to-morrow's big street fair to generous support—and The Examiner is confident it will be freely proffered.

TRADE RECESSION.

Besides being vice-president of the Union Trust Company, of Cleveland, Mr. Allard Smith writes pieces for the papers, as a student of the economic situation in his country. Quite recently, Mr. Smith has been devoting considerable thought to the American mass mind. It seems he has taken it apart to see what makes it tick and the following are some of the things he found in his probing: That the mass mind is subject to moods which fluctuate over a wide arc. In good times business sentiment is likely to swing up to a rather ridiculous pitch of unguarded optimism and, conversely, when times are bad, pessimism is carried to extremes. Attention is directed to the fact that when trade and industry were making new high records and the speculative fever was rampant, men were talking in all seriousness about "the new era." The opinion widely prevailed that nothing could prevent the indefinite expansion of activities and rise of security prices. Then came the most devastating stock market collapse in history. "Optimism," remarks Mr. Smith, "is frequently most pronounced just before the crash comes. Similarly pessimism is usually most unanimous just at the moment that improvement in conditions is near at hand. Nothing is so characteristic of an American trade recession as the general belief that the country is in for a prolonged period, perhaps years, of poor business. Something of this feeling exists in some quarters now." The banker observer points out, however, that actually during the present century periods of receding business have never lasted more than about a year and, moreover, from the point on the calendar when business falls as low as it did last December, genuine recovery in the past usually has gotten under way in from four to eight months. In a nutshell, the point he makes is that if there isn't very much to cheer about, there is an equal paucity of things to be alarmed about. Factors at work to bring improvement, he enumerates as being an ample supply of easy money, low commodity prices, some improvement in construction and prospects of some gains for retail trade, as employment improves. — Hamilton Spectator.

A HERO SACRIFICED.

Another valuable life has been lost to Britain and the world in the mad craze for speed and more speed.

Testing out his new boat, Miss England II., on the waters of Lake Windermere, at Windermere, England, Major Sir Henry Segrave lost his life yesterday. One of his mechanics was also killed and another was rescued, though badly injured. The remarkable craft was doing more than 100 miles per hour when the fatal moment arrived.

Sir Henry Segrave, a British army officer and one of the bravest and most daring men in the world, was preparing for another invasion of America. In 1929, it will be recalled, he drove his Golden Arrow automobile to a new world's record in Florida. On that occasion, at Daytona Beach, he attained a speed of 231.36 miles per hour, or 23.81 miles per hour faster than the best previous record, made by Ray Keech, an American. Most great sportsmen excel in only one thing. Sir Henry Segrave was equally at home on land or water, as his achievements show. He was also interested in aviation. He was technical adviser to the Air Council in 1917 and had previously been attached to the general staff in France. In 1926, 1927, 1928 and 1929 he was world prominent in lowering records and winning championships on the land and on the water. This year it was his intention to bring his new boat, Miss England, to America, here to race with Detroit's own Gar Wood. Sir Henry—who was knighted for the fame that he brought to his native land and the public service he had performed—hoped to attain a speed of 120 miles per hour with the new wizard of the waves. Unofficial tests within the last few days had produced speed of more than 108 miles with the craft, and it was generally felt that the Miss England had not been fully extended.

* * * *

We may be old-fashioned, but we must confess that we can see little excuse for the continuance of the motorboat and automobile speed race. Almost every big event of this kind brings fatalities or serious injuries to someone, either at the time or in the training period that precedes it. The annual whirl at the Indianapolis speedway a few days ago was just an average instance. One driver was killed and, as we remember it, one or two persons injured, when a machine blew a tire or was otherwise unable to stand the gruelling strain. It is the old, old story. When men and machines are pushed so far beyond the normal point, something must break. And then someone is killed and everyone says, "This sort of thing should be stopped." But it goes on just the same.

There are forms of activity in which the endangering of life can be justified. One of them is the defense of the nation. Another is an attempt to save someone from drowning or burning to death or being run over by an automobile. A third justification is found in the field of science where, in countless cases, men have sacrificed their health or their lives as subjects of experiment. Sacrifices of the type mentioned—and there are others that might be given—are proper and justifiable. Can this be said, however, for purely sporting "stunts?" We think not. The world has not been enriched by discovery of the fact that it is possible for an automobile to travel 231.36 miles per hour. Such a machine has no practical use. The public has no desire to move about at such a rate, even if the idea were practicable. A car of this kind, of course, cannot be used for ordinary purposes. The same thing is more or less true of speedboats of the type of Miss England. They are simply freak craft, designed for terrifying rates, and subject, at all times, to accident and disaster.

* * * *

No one should gather the idea that we are in any way attempting to detract from Sir Henry Segrave's reputation. No one could do that, no one would think of doing it. We are simply expressing the thought that it is too bad, that it is a tragedy, that it is a needless, useless waste of valuable human lives, to keep up this amazing round of speed races. They serve no good purpose and they inevitably exact their toll.—Border Cities Star.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

Use less horse-power and more horse-sense on the highways.

Motor accidents and drownings claimed a dozen more lives in Ontario over the week-end. A movement for a safe and sane Sunday is badly needed.

If you haven't secured your ticket for the Rotary car, may we remind you that to-morrow is your last chance to win the beautiful car that is the prize for the best estimator?

Sunday was father's day, and as might have been expected, even the weather took a hand in making it hot for dad.

Toronto aldermen will have to accept a wage cut, but there'll be no lock-out until the next municipal elections.

It is complained that Mr. King talks too long and Mr. Bennett talks too fast. Probably before the campaign is over there'll be a protest that both talk too often—summer weather and political speeches being a combination that fails to make a hit with the average elector.

A Thought

LIFE

Life when it is real is not evanescent; it is not slight; does not vanish away. Every noble life leaves the fibre of it interwoven for ever in the work of the world; by so much evermore, the strength of the human race has gained.—Ruskin.

What To-day Means To You.

"GEMINI."

If June 17th is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., and from 6 p.m. to 8:15 p.m. The danger periods are from 5:30 a.m. to 7 a.m., and from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Troubles and obstacles in your pathway are anticipated for this date. If you receive them as a moral Northeaster to strengthen and to brace you, no harm can befall you, and good will come out of it all. Brace your shoulders, and march steadily onward!

The child born on this June 17th will have a refined nature, and a somewhat timid one. It will lack self-assertiveness, and will need moral encouragement and kindly criticism. It will demand a great deal of love and affection, and will give the same in return.

Courtesy is a natural and not an acquired trait of yours—a symbol of your kindly heart. Outwardly, your character is not a forceful one; you win through more subtle ways and means. Your politeness is better than another's logic, and you can persuade when you cannot convince. As a child, you probably coaxed your father or enticed your mother into letting you do things, which were against their parental judgment.

Develop your intuitive powers—your first impulses and first impressions are nearly always correct! This applies to people as well as other things, and your first loves usually remain favorites. Beware of underestimating your own abilities, and of doubting your own judgment! You are better, working along than in partnership, and you will never do well if you take an inferior position. You have too much curiosity, too much independence of thought, to be a blind worker, or a mere cog in a wheel. You are not a "darling of the gods," you will succeed only through your own brains and industry.

You should possess great recuperative powers, and much, if not all of your ill health can probably be attributed to wrong habits of living. You are very sensitive to vibrations around you, and you quickly feel changes in atmospheric conditions—your body acts like a barometer.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

Again for a moment nobody spoke, in the orderly kitchen, with its wiped, shabby table oilcloth, and its brushed linoleum that was worn into brown circles. The clock ticked, and the hot water faucet dropped an occasional pearl upon the dry zinc surface of the sink. Only one lamp was lighted, the green-shaded light on the table, where the children did their evening lessons; the drop light over the sink was dark.

"Mother, we've been in—sort of—trouble, the last few days," Martin then began, haltingly. "And perhaps we ought to tell you about it—

"I couldn't go out," he added, as in sheer stupefaction Mrs. O'Hara was still, and none of the others spoke. "So I had to ask Mr. Christopher Steynes (the syllables were so many threats) I had to ask Mr. Christopher Steynes to come here," Martin repeated, with a glance at him. "I thought you'd be at Uncle Robert's until at least eleven."

"Your Uncle Robert is very bad, and I promised I'd get into a wash dress and go back and set with him," Mrs. O'Hara said automatically, her mind not upon her words, her anxious eyes upon her children. "I don't know why you had to keep anything from me, Mart," she added, her look moving from one member of the silent, self-conscious circle to another.

"In this case, Mrs. O'Hara," Cass said, "there was no reason why you should ever have been bothered by it!"

Mary Kate's mother gave him a glance of superb scorn, a look expressing all the resentment of the reticent, proud woman whose private affairs are indecently and unfairly made public. Then she turned her expectant eyes toward Martin again.

"Tell me what on earth is goin' on, Mart."

"Mother—!" Mary Kate began impulsively. But her mother stopped her.

"Leave your brother talk!" she commanded. Mary Kate subsided into silence, her whole slender figure drooping, as she sat at the kitchen table, her softly tumbled coppery head resting on her hand.

"Ma," Martin began, "this Mr. Steynes here is a friend of Mr. Rountree's, and they asked our Mary Kate, last week, if she would pretend for two days to be married to Mr. Steynes."

A sharply horrified look at her daughter was Mrs. O'Hara's reception of this, Chris essayed to speak.

"The reason being—" he was beginning when Mrs. O'Hara silenced him as she had her daughter.

"Just a moment, please!"

"The reason was," Martin resumed, accepting Chris' opening, "that some woman was pursuing him and hoped he'd ask her to marry him. She had followed him out from New York."

"You didn't get yourself mixed up in that sort of thing?" the mother asked, with a stern and incredulous look at Mary Kate

"There was to be money in it," Martin pursued relentlessly.

"Between us and all harm! Mrs. O'Hara whispered.

"Look here, Mr. O'Hara, you're giving your mother an entirely false idea of the whole thing," Chris interrupted impulsively.

"I'll take it the way my son gives it, if you please," Mrs. O'Hara told him. And again Christopher fell silent.

"Mary Kate wanted the money for my German trip," Mart conceded, before continuing.

"Mart," his mother pleaded, "don't tell me she knew no better than that!"

"Well, anyway," Martin went on, "she and Mr. Steynes bought clothes, and she went down there to Burlingame—she didn't go to Sacramento at all—"

"Molly—?" her mother questioned heartbreak in her voice. Mary Kate made no answer; she did not raise her head.

"She told us she was going to Sacramento," Martin pursued, "but she went to Burlingame, and when she went to dinner at Mr. Rountree's, she went with Mr. Steynes, here, and was introduced as his wife."

"Don't say such things, Mart!" Mrs. O'Hara rebuked him.

"It's true. I drove the doctor home that night," the boy said, "and I saw her. His place is just opposite the Rountree place, and I was starting for home when I saw her come out on a sort of terrace there, all dressed up—oh, my God!"

He put his hand over his eyes. There was absolute silence in the kitchen, except that Mrs. O'Hara drew her breath with a sort of whimpering sound.

"I went kind of crazy, I guess," Martin said. "I started to come back to the city, like I always do, leaving the doctor's car down there, and all of a sudden something seemed to burst inside my head—"

"Oh, blessed and merciful Lord—" Mrs. O'Hara whispered. Her eyes were shut.

"I came in here 'round midnight, or later," Martin said. "You called out to me, remember? Anyway, I stayed in my room upstairs until I thought you were asleep, and then I changed my clothes, and emptied my pockets, and drove myself back. I went to Rountree's, there were still lights there, and a maid answered the door. I said that I had come to get the young lady—the red-haired young lady—that I was to call for her—and she said, 'Oh, that was Mrs. Steynes. She and Mr. Steynes went home long ago!' I went back to Burlingame, and into the telephone office, and asked the girls there where Mr. Steynes lived, and they told me. I suppose they thought I was his chauffeur, or had to call for someone at his house, I don't know.

"For about an hour I walked around the place, listening and watching. And after that I began to go crazy again, thinking of our Mary Kate in there—and you, and my father, and all of us loving her so! And him with his money—

"You know I wasn't going to kill him. But I wasn't going to let him get away with that, either—not with our Molly. And that's what got my arm, Ma. I never went to Portland, any more than she went to Sacramento. Mr. Steynes here got me before I got him."

Mrs. O'Hara looked at her son for an endless moment

"And Mary Kate wasn't there at all!" she whispered.

"Oh, yes, she was. She was upstairs, in his room."

"You liar!" Mary Kate said simply, with a look.

"My God, have mercy; my God, have mercy," Mrs. O'Hara whispered.

"Allow me to say that you have gotten an entirely false idea of the whole thing," Chris interpolated authoritatively and impatiently. "This is all nonsense! You daughter took part in a little masquerade, and except for her brother following her, and causing a lot of police interference, nothing would have come of it at all."

Police "interference?" echoed the mother's voice.

"After the shooting. Yes. But the whole thing," Chris explained, briskly, "has been closed up. It's done. There's no follow-up whatever. It was all extremely foolish, and we got a bad break, but it's over. Your son's wound is practically healed, I believe he takes off the bandages in a few days. And as for your daughter here, Mary, she played her part with a beautiful dignity, and lived up to her agreement absolutely. As for anything else, I never put my hand on her. She'll tell you so. I never kissed her!"

"And furthermore," Cass added, unexpectedly, "Mary Kate and I are going to be married, and the sooner the better. When she tells me that everything was all on the level, I believe her. The whole thing was a mistake, but we all make them, and as far as I'm concerned—I'm never going to allude to it again!"

"I told you that because it's true!" Mary Kate said, explosively.

"And now that everything is settled so beautifully, what do we do with Mr. Christopher Steynes' money, that can buy him anything?" Mart asked, in an ugly tone.

"We do nothing with it, we don't want it," Cass said.

"Mother," the girl asked, turning her tear-soaked eyes and stained, pale face toward the older woman, "do you believe me?"

Mrs. O'Hara looked at her. Then her own eyes filled, and she smiled, and opened her arms. And with a burst of bitter tears Mary Kate went into them, sitting on her mother's lap, straining her slender figure against her mother, locking her arms about the older woman's neck, and hiding her shamed face on the breast that had been her refuge from the first hour of her life.

Monthly Meeting Zion Ladies' Aid

PETHERICK'S CORNERS, June 17 (Examiner Correspondence) —Zion Ladies' Club met on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Alfred Barnum with about twenty-five present. After the regular devotional and business program, a duet was sung by Mrs. Harry Barnum and Miss Elsie Forde. An interesting question drawer was conducted by Miss Gladys Simpson. The July meeting will be at the home of Mrs. L. Anderson.

Miss Gladys Petherick, missionary convenor, was in charge of the program at Wednesday evening's League service when forty-five were present. The hour of meeting will be 8.15 instead of 8.00 for the balance of the summer.

Mr. Grant Kerr is able to be out again following a severe cold. The management of the Menie softball team are pleased to welcome back their valuable second baseman and pitcher whose absence left a big gap in the line-up.

Uncommon Sense

By John Blake

MAKING A NEW WORLD.

People in a Schenectady picture theatre a few weeks ago, heard and at the same time saw actors and singers who were doing a vaudeville act more than a mile and a half away. The effect of such a demonstration upon the people in the time of the Spanish war would have been more than astonishing—it would have been staggering. Had it been shown a few centuries earlier, it would have been looked on as black magic, and those who produced such a miracle might have been in grave danger of their lives.

Already we are accustomed to the "movies", though they are comparatively young. We are becoming accustomed to the "speakies" too. But television, while it has been the subject of experiment and comment for several years, is still new and exciting. The possibility that before very long one may see and hear a friend who is speaking across the continent seems now just around the corner. Before we realize it we may be seeing and hearing dramatic performances given on a stage in London or in Paris. We may be listening to and looking at street scenes in India—such scenes as are now described by the correspondents who are reporting the Ghandi uprising.

Perhaps, if there is another great war, people in peaceful lands may look at battle scenes. Such pictures would of course have to be "bootlegged," as military leaders do not like publicity for their operations. But "bootlegging" anyways is not so difficult as it once was. Experience is a marvelous teacher.

Progress in invention and science has moved as an avalanche moves down a mountain-side, attaining constantly greater speed. Ages doubtless elapsed between the first roughly-hewn boat, poled in shallow water and the first vessel which spread sails to the wind. There were more centuries of sailcraft, and then almost yesterday, as civilized history goes, Fulton harnessed a clumsy steam engine to a river boat. In a comparatively short time thereafter, the Bremen was rushing from Hamburg to New York, with squadrons of airplanes to bid her "bon voyage" and other squadrons to welcome her at the end of her journey.

Now the great dirigible has flown again over the ocean. But we are used to that. Hasn't she already flown around the world? Science will have to do something more than that to startl us. And science will. For quite awhile we shall be thinking and talking about television, until it is an accomplished, familiar fact. Then we shall want something else to talk about. And it is that human thirst for progress which makes progress. Without that vast and eager audience, science would have no incentive and no money to put on its great show. So we are all, in a sense, contributors to the making of this new world.

Quotations Abroad Affect Chicago Trend

CHICAGO, June 17 (CP).—Unlooked-for comparative strength shown by Liverpool wheat quotations led to early upturns to-day in wheat values here. Liverpool dispatches said recent price breaks in wheat had tended to bring more buyers into the market. Indications of enlarged available purchasing power were also apparent in Chicago. Opening 1-8 a 1 1-8c higher, Chicago wheat afterward scored some additional gains. Corn, oats and provisions displayed an upward trend also, with corn starting 1-2 to 1 1-8 cents up, and subsequently continuing firm.

ANZACS AIM TO BUILD AIR FORCE

New Defenses Must Be in Air, States New Zealand's Premier.

MUST KEEP PACE.

WELLINGTON, N. Z., June 17. — (C. P. Cable via Reuters)—New Zealand's new Prime Minister, Rt. Hon. G. W. Forbes, does not believe the day of war is past. He said this in reply to a deputation headed by Sir Andrew Russell, war-time commander of the New Zealand forces, which today urged retention of the Land Defense vote in the present estimates.

New Zealand ought to keep pace with the development of air defense instead of spending too much money on land defense, the Prime Minister declared. He added however, that the government did not intend to scrap the whole land defense system, though it was desirable to overhaul and improve it.

Strong Hand Forces

In addition to the permanent force the New Zealand Land Defense forces include nine regiments of Mounted Rifles, 21 batteries of artillery, and 12 battalions of infantry with the auxiliary services. There are a large number of rifle clubs and military training is compulsory between the ages of 14 and 25, with a large body of senior cadets organized.

The New Zealand Navy, a unit of the Royal Navy, includes the two 4,850 ton cruisers, Dunedin and Diomede.

Finding of the shirt was taken to indicatae that all of the eight men drowned when thrown from the speed boat.

STANDARD FEELS SELLING BLAST

Prices Carried Down Sharply During First Hour of Trading.

TRADERS CAUGHT.

TORONTO, June 17. (Special to Examiner.)—Mining stocks felt the full blast of selling at the opening this morning and prices were carried down sharply. Volume in the first hour was the heaviest in weeks and was accounted for by forced liquidation, distress selling and anything else you want to call it. the break of Monday was hardly sufficient to impair margin accounts to any large extent but a number of traders were caught in between two markets. Mining stocks were being sold to protect industrial securities and one brother had an order to sell a number of the golds for a client who was called for funds to protect his New York account.

The high priced golds finally gave way after striving to hold through the greater part of the reaction. Losses here were not extended but Hollinger dropped below $6 and the others were off in proportion.

Noranda was down to $23.50, but resisted selling in a satisfactory manner and there was always a market for this issue at a price. In fact some brokers say there is accumulation at these levels.

Hollinger is doing well in developing new ore and it is said that enough ore is being placed in sight to take care of milling without depleting ore reserves.

The new vein system on Vipond is understood to be exceptionally good and there are those who are looking for market appreciation once the present situation of unsettlement in the market is over.

Good news for Nordon was contained in a wire from Los Angeles to-day, reporting Shell had brought in its No. 1 state a in Lea county, New Mexico for 10,400 bbls and 39,000,000 cubic feet of gas. This well is less than two miles from Nordon. Nordon's button willow well in California, on which drilling started Saturday is now 600 feet deep.

WALL STREET DROP CHECKED

Pivot Shares Work Higher Upon Appearance of Large-Scale Supporting Orders.

COTTON FIRMER.

NEW YORK, N.Y., June 17. (C.P.)—The drastic decline in stock prices was checked to-day by large scale supporting orders, although an enormous volume of selling was dropped upon the market in the early transactions, evidently representing the liquidation of impaired marginal accounts.

Pivotal shares worked higher after the first few minutes of trading, but gains were moderate and maintained with difficulty, as many traders welcomed each advance as an opportunity to lighten holdings at diminished losses. Trading was in enormous volume, the ticker quotations falling nearly an hour behind floor transactions.

The market was helped by a firmer tone in the cotton and grain markets during the early hours of the day, but further price cutting in copper, announced during the early afternoon, provided another unfavorable factor, some custon smelters were said to be quoting domestic copper at 11¾ cents a pound, the lowest since the start of the great war.

10 HOURS AFTER COLLISION COASTGUARD WAS TOLD

BOSTON, June 17.—(CP)—Federal investigation of the Fairfax-Pinthis disaster stood adjourned today with testimony in the records that not until nearly 10 hours after the collision was a coastguard cutter told of the sinking of the Pinthis. The cutter, the Tampa, was 23 miles away.

Commander Stanley V. Parker of the Tampa and James Hodges, chief radio operator, testified yesterday on the radio messages at 10 p.m. on the night of June 10, three hours after the crash from which 47 lost their lives. The operator was asked by the Nahant coastguard station to inquire of the Fairfax about a reported collision.

Hodges said he messaged the Fairfax and received the reply, "Everything Okeh."

PARKING RULES

Police orders issued to-day prohibited parking on Murray street between George and Aylmer streets to-night. This was ordered because of the welcome parade for the Premier to-night.

To-morrow no parking will be allowed on the Market Square or on Water Street between Simcoe and Charlotte streets, or on Charlotte street, east of George street. This was made necessary by the Rotary Carnival.

MINING DECLINE STILL CONTINUES

Lindsleys Rally in Second Hour After Period of Heavy Selling.

HUDSON BAY DOWN.

TORONTO, June 17. (C.P.)— Stock continued downward at the resumption of trading on the standard stock and Mining Exchange to-day, and the noon-hour very little recovery had been made. Volume was again large.

International Nickel, which dropped a full point at the start, to $21.25, came back to $22.70, where it was up 45 for the day. Noranda and Hudson Bay were still lower, however, the former off 75, and the latter 25. Granada Rouyn lost 24 points to 1.55, but at noon had recovered 5 of its loss. Abana, which had sold at 49 in the morning, was up 1, at 55, at noon. Amity was up ½, but Newbec lost ½ Bidgood ¼.

Lindsleys were again under pressure, but managed to rally after the second hour. Ventures was off 7 at 1.23, and Sudbury Basin came back to 1.90 it was off 20. Falconbridge was off 30, at 2.80. Sherritt Gordon was the feature of the group, rebounding to 1.75 where it was up 5 on the day.

Howey was up 1, at 70. Dome and McIntyre remained unchanged throughout the hectic session, at $8.75 and $18.00 respectively.

ARTICLE XLVIII

Q.—What are the most important factors to be considered before purchasing bonds?

A.—There are several factors that one must consider before buying bonds.

In the first place the mortgage protecting the issue should be a first lien on the property. The actual real estate value of the property should be well above the value of the bonds. Real estate value does not mean the value of the property as part of a going concern, but of a company that is forced into liquidation, and that has only a real estate value.

The money being raised by the issue should be spent in such a way as to really add something to the earning power of the company.

The management should be capable and conservative. The company should preferably be manufacturing a staple product for which a steady market is assured in good and bad times alike. There should not be a danger of keen competition in such a company. It should be able to show good earnings for a number of years and preferably increasing. The company may enjoy a monopoly and if so, this is an advantage. There should be good reasons to expect an expanding market for the future. It should not be seasonal but steady throughout the year. It is an advantage usually if the company is one of the largest companies in the industry. It should be dependent upon more than one source of revenue and have a quick turnover. And lastly it should hold a place of high esteem in the public eye.

Are the bonds callable and if so at what price? So they bear a good rate of interest and have they a long maturity? These questions must also be considered.

If we are approaching a period of depression long term bonds with a good rate of interest are most desirable because the investor's return is assured.

If the bonds are already selling at or above their call price, providing no other features are involved, their chances of appreciation are nil, and they are not so desirable.

RED WING, Minn., June 17. — A Red Cross tabulation announced today revealed that tornadoes which struck in Minnesota and Wisconsin last Friday affected 300 families and caused damage of more than $1,000,000 in the two States.

FINANCIAL NEWS AND BRIEFS

A SPECIAL SERVICE T O THE EXAMINER

Almost three weeks of reactionary markets culminated in the break of Monday which was the most severe since the panic days of October 29 and November 13, 1929. Stocks had been under selling pressure for days and prices were sagging continuously in what has proved to be the most protected decline in some years. Rallies that customarily follow sharp dips failed to put in an appearance and this is an indication that the short interest was small. Covering operations that cushion the decline were notably absent, and, as the list sank to new low levels, high-grade stock, usually held by investors, were let go along with speculative commitments. Margin accounts that appeared amply protected a few weeks ago were impaired by the length and breadth of the reaction causing considerable distress selling in Wall Street and many stop-loss orders uncovered adding to the general confusion. As in the past, Wall Street was the leader in the break. Authorities in New York blame the most recent catastrophe on the new U. S. tariff bill and the weakness in the commodity markets, with the latter the more predominant influence. Wheat, cotton, copper, silver, and gasoline prices were all lowered yesterday with the commodity index at a new low. Failure of second quarter earning statements to fulfill early predictions of improvement was also a contributing factor and the public, tired of holding stocks, did the rest. Of the two Canadian industrial markets, Toronto stood the shock better than Montreal. Speculative activities in Montreal in past weeks were much greater than here, with the local market given over to a large percentage of investment purchases that are not easily disturbed. Interlisted and popular stocks such as International Nickel and Brazilian Traction were carried down rapidly and the balance of the list reacted in sympathy. For the first hour or so Toronto stocks were protected by the unusual amount of orders that had been placed with the brokers at a level below prevailing quotations. As prices went lower under liquidation the execution of these orders was made possible and by noon most were cleaned up. One floor man reports that by 1 p.m. buying orders, which had been standing on his books for weeks, were cleaned up. Later on the market experienced a very decided sinking spell and fresh buying was attracted but not in sufficient quantity to bring about even a slight rally.

Traders Caught.

Traders who switched from the Canadian to the American markets were caught badly in the collapse and to make matters worse many were found holding commitments in the Canadian market as well. Those who were participating in the local market alone did not fare so badly, although many accounts are in need of repair this morning. Heaviest margin calls sent out overnight had to do with New York Stocks and thousands of dollars of Canadian money will be transferred to New York as a result. Experience is the best teacher and to-day traders realize that, while Canadian securities do not always offer the action of American there is a greater stability here in the reaction and chances of having to assume large losses not nearly so great.

New Low Records.

New lows for 1930 were the rule on the Toronto Stock Exchange as the market was forced to absorb further liquidation at the opening to-day. In not a few instances, prices cut under the marks set last fall confounding those thought prices would never again get so low. Some encouragement was seen in the fact that such leaders as Brazilian and International Nickle rallied after the first burst of selling and in the second hour climbed above the close of Monday night but this was short consolation in view of the general weakness. Whether the market has found a resistance level is the all-important question. Additional liquidation may result from margin calls sent out Monday night, and if this results in another decline what was believed a strong technical position may turn out to be precarious.

C. B. at 11.

One of the most spectacular actors on the Toronto Stock Exchange this morning was Consolidated Bakeries, which scraped bottom at 11, the lowest it has been in a long period. While it was known increasing competition was having its effect on earnings, it was generally believed the tape had shown the unfavorable side of the situation discounted as the stock has been hovering around 20, the low for the year and longer. Yesterday's decline saw the price at 17 and when it became known to-day that directors had cut the dividend an avalanche of selling drove the price back on itself. When support finally became evident the stock rebounded to 15.

CITY GAS REVENUE SHOWS INCREASE OVER LAST YEAR

Report Shows Consumption of 19,466,900 Cubic Feet, Amounting to $8,838.06.

EXPECT NEW RECORD.

The Gas Department report as presented by Harry Beal at today's meeting of the Peterborough Utilities Commission, shows an increase in revenue despite the reduction in the price of gas which took effect in the New Year, the revenue to date amounting to $8,838.06 with a consumption of 19,466,900 cubic feet of gas. A comparison with the figures for May last year shows an increase in revenue over the corresponding period this year of $267.07.

Mr. Beal: "We will break even this year in spite of the reduction in the price of gas."

Gordon Matthews, chairman: "If we do, we will have a further reduction in the price of gas."

R. L. Dobbin who was the local delegate to the recent convention of the American Water Works Association held at St. Louis, was awarded the Diven Medal for his services to the Association. Mr. Dobbin's contribution was the revamping and modernizing of the constitution, a document which bids fair to establish the A. W. W. A. as representative of an industry on par with organizations like the National Electric Light Association. This is the first time the Diven Medal has been awarded to a Canadian since it's inception six years ago.

Bronze Medal

The medal struck in bronze bears the following inscription, "John M. Diven, Medal, St. Louis 1930. Awarded by the American Water Works Association to R. L. Dobbin, who has best served the Association during this year." A bust of the donor in relief occupies the reverse side.

A letter was read from R. J. Archibald of Margaret avenue respecting an exceptionally high charge for electricity. After a great deal of discussion it was resolved to write a letter of explanation to the customer and to send a reduced and corrected bill.

A questionaire was also received from the St. Thomas Council asking, "Do your water commissioners receive any compensation for services. If so how much?

Further, would your board be willing to join the St. Thomas and other municipalities in a Provincial-wide petition to the Ontario Legislature praying that the waterworks act or other acts be so amended as to extend to boards of water commissioners, the self-evident right to set aside some stated sums approved by Legislature as remuneration to the Commissioners for their services. It was decided that no action be taken in this matter.

The question was brought forward concerning trimming of trees on certain of the city streets in cases where the branches were contacting power wires. It was stated that the work could be handled cheaper and possibly without so much trouble, by the Cedarvale Tree Experts who had given a price on the job at approximately $385. This sum it was explained is considerably in reduction to the price at which the P. U. T. C. could undertake the work. It was resolved that the Cedarvale Company be given the work of trimming trees on certain streets in the city at a certain sum, not in excess of $385.

GANG KIDNAPS RICH CANADIANS

Three Wealthy Liquor Men Forced to Pay Huge Ransoms.

FIVE ARRESTED.

DETROIT, Mich., June 17. (C.P.)—Kidnapping of three wealthy Canadians by a Detroit gang was revealed to-day by State Police, who are co-operating with the local authorities in rounding up the members of the organization, five suspected members of which are held, six are now sought and ten others are in prison.

The three Canadian victims are said to be Samuel Low, sales manager of the Carling Brewing Company, London, Ont., who paid $25,000 ransom, and Maurice and Sydney Nathanson, liquor dock operators of Windsor, Ont., who according to the authorities paid a total of $50,000. The latter pair are said to have denied ever having been kidnapped or having paid any money. The activities of the kidnapping gang have extended over a period of two years.

A body fell to the ground without an outcry. Thibodeaux ran forward and peered down into the upturned face. It was his wife, killed instantly by a load of birdshot. She too, had heard the noise and had gone into the yard to investigate.

FOUR SHARES OF STOCK ARE GIVEN EACH EMPLOYEE

Silverwood Dairies Makes Presentation to Permanent Employees.

27 PLANTS.

Total Output of Dairies Last Year Was 5,000,000 Pounds.

To each permanent employee on the staff of Peterborough's Silverwood Dairy a presentation of four shares of stock in Silverwood Dairies, Limited, valued at $25 each was made last week by the company officials as a mark of appreciation of loyalty and service. J. H. Duplan of Toronto, assistant general manager of the company, made the gifts.

Those who are considered permanent employees in the local plant and have been on the pay-roll since April were the recipients. The shares are class "A" stock, no par value and provision is made that recipients may redeem their stock in the event of leaving the company's employ.

Mr. Duplan was accompanied by George Blake who represented A. E. Silverwood, president of the Silverwood Dairies.

Mr. Duplan spoke of the aims and objects of the organization in an address to the employees and told of the growth of the Silverwood chain. There are twenty-seven plants, he said, covering a territority bounded by Windsor, Peterborough and North Bay, and a total of 800 employees. Of 4,000 stockholders all are Canadians.

The total butter output of the Silverwood Dairies last year was 5,000,000 pounds, he said. One million gallons of ice cream were made and the daily output of milk was 100,000 quarts.

The object and hope of the company, Mr. Duplan declared, is to produce uniform dairy products of high quality and give uniform service throughout the region reached by their plants. It is intended, he intimated, to extend the chain as far east as Montreal and Ottawa.

DALES SENTENCE MADE 35 YEARS BY PARDON BOARD

I have a definite, number of years placed on my sentence instead of the term of life. I shouldn't have been here as long as I have been, it was a clear case of self defense and my punishment has been great" Shorty said. "I really don't want to say much about it now. All I can do is serve my time now and get all the good time that the law allows so I will gain my freedom as soon as possible. The prison officials haven't figured up just when I will be released and I am waiting, writing my children the good news until I have definite word from the officials. I figured I will have about two and a half years to serve."

Dales said he had hopes that the board would have commuted sentence to thirty years which would have freed him immediately. He said he knew Attorney General C. A. Sorenzen, one of the members of board, was opposed to commuting life terms for murder. Governor Arthur Weaver was the other member who heard the case as secretary of state, Frank Marsh, the third member was unable to sit on the case because of automobile accident injuries.

Opposed to Commuting Lifers.

Sorenzen said that he was opposed to commuting life terms for murder, because those sentenced to the chair for murder usually paid the penalty in this State, and as there was no commutation of death sentence, he believed that there should rarely be any commutation in life terms. He also indicated that his questioning of Shorty regarding his marital affairs at the hearing suggested to him that it would be unwise to let Dales go back to where his wife, now re-married, was at present, as he feared there might be some trouble.

Warden William Fenton and prison officials expressed to the board at the hearing their approval of clemency in this case.

Dales admitted that he had a little money saved, although he received no pay for his work as he did not work in the prison shops where men are paid, but in the vegetable department preparing food for the prison table. A hundred dollar fund has been subscribed by other long-term prisoners for use by Dales in event of his release.

pressed regions. The housing problem alone was enough to make this system impossible, it was said. London boroughs were unable to house their own people.

World Economic Crisis

Prime Minister MacDonald, like Rt. Hon. J. H. Thomas before him, cited the period after the Napoleonic Wars as an exact parallel to the present time. He also pointed to the world economic and financial crisis under which everybody was suffering. "What I and my colleagues ask you is to conspire together; first to expedite schemes and then renew efforts towards national development," he declared. "We are not really so efficient as we might be. It is very essential that we face the unemployment figures in no sense of panic. It is the easiest thing in the world to declare that expenditure of money is necessary, but unless that expenditure is sound you have to pay in the end, not merely in finding capital and interest, but also by finding more employment."

The Prime Minister made generous tribute to the efforts of Rt. Hon. J. H. Thomas, who only recently relinquished his special duties of Minister of Employment to become Secretary for the Dominions. "No man has contributed more to solution of the problem and he has now been transferred to the Dominions to carry on precisely the same work as he has been doing with such distinction during the last ten months," he said.

The conference which met to-day had before it a report in the Laborite organ, The Daily Herald, quoting Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George, Liberal Leader, as declaring he offered the Government Liberal support in order to secure a sound and dependable majority for emergency measure to wage war on unemployment.

Achievements of Government Outlinea by Premier King

THREE MAIN ISSUES IN CAMPAIGN PREMIER DECLARES AT BRANTFORD

Liberals had placed the first woman in the Senate of Canada brought a round of applause. Mr. King declared that the Federal Government had dealt generously with all provinces of the Dominion regardless of the political faith of provinccial governments.

Extensive reference to the budget was made by the Prime Minister. He spoke of the encouragement which it contained to the West Indies to ship their fruit to Canada. He dealt with the provisions for increasing the British preference. The effect of the budget would be to encourage trade with these countries which desired to trade with Canada.

Three Outstanding Issues.

"There are three outstanding issues in the present campaign," the Prime Minister said. "The first is the record of the government in the discharge of its public duties since it first assumed office. The second is the budget of 1930, representing as it does the views of the present administration on important questions of fiscal and trade policy. The third, is the direct issue of a choice between the Liberal and Conservative parties as the representatives of Canadian opinion at the Imperial and Economic Conference which are to be held in London in September of the present year. This list issue is necessarily related to the question of the personnel of the ministry which is to manage the affairs of our country during the ensuing term of parliament.

"It is not easy to say which of the issues is the most important. All are of great importance. They relate to the past, to the present and to the future. Perhaps I had better discuss them in this order.

"Were there no other issue before the people, I should ask for nothing more than that we should be judged fairly and squarely on the manner in which, having regard for all circumstances, we have administered the affairs of Canada during the past eight and a half years," asserted Mr. King in dealing with the record of the government. "For in that time the country has been lifted out of a veritable slough of despond, and out of years of depression it has been brought into years of prosperity which have not been equalled in its history. As a people and as a government we have been far too modest with respect to the achievements of the years we have been in office. We have been so modest, in fact, that the record is but partially known even to the people of our own country. The growth and development of Canada under the present administration stand without parallel in the history of this or any other nation. It is right that these facts should be known and I propose to make the record of the administration an open book form one end of the country to the other."

Courage And Optimism.

"Standing on a record of sound progressive accomplishment we approach the problems of the future with the same faith, courage and optimism which have made possible the achievements of the past years. The 'whispers of death,' the fear of returning depression, the complaints of an exodus which has ceased, the misgivings for the future, I shall leave to Mr. Bennett and other leaders of the Conservative party whose last tenure of office was indelibly associated with acute economic depression, and whose minds apparently are still shackled to the gloomy memories of other days."

Mr. King went at length into the financial record of the government. On March 31, 1914, the net debt of Canada stood at about $336,000,000, he said.

"On March 31, 1922, as a result of the war, and of the extravagance of the last Conservative administration, the net debt had reached the staggering total of over $2,427,000,000. In the last two years of the Conservative administration no less than $174,000,000 had been added to the public debt. In addition not less than $355,000,000 had been borrowed out of the public treasury to meet deficits on our railways during the three fiscal years 1919-1922. Depression was general, the business community was anxious for the future, the industrial life of the country was paralyzed; foreign trade was contracted; agriculture was depressed. Against this dark background, which is still a vivid memory to many of us today, let me point out briefly the manner in which the Liberal administration met the problem of reconstruction, turned deficits into surpluses, reduced taxes, co-ordinated and vitalized the Canadian National Railways, revived industry, stimulated agriculture, extended foreign trade, and brought to Canada the greatest period of progress it has ever known."

The government, continued the Prime Minister, had approached the problem first by curtailment of expenditures and second by increasing revenues. The latter had, of necessity, to be accomplished by additional taxation which, he said, was "traditionally unpopular." The Conservative government had avoided taxing the people to meet the increased costs due to the war, and had raised the necessary money by loan, a very considerable part of which was made exempt from taxation. He was aware that this statement had been challenged, but it was nevertheless true.

"Where the previous administration avoided their responsibilities, we met ours courageously and without regard to political consequences," continued Mr. King. "We imposed new taxes; we increased certain old taxes, but this we did from the urgent necessity of balancing the national budget. To have continued the other course would have brought the country into a condition of bankruptcy. Within two years our first task was accomplished; we had raised sufficient revenues not only to balance our budget but to give us on the 31st off March, 1924, a surplus of nearly $36,000,000. From that time forward we began to pay off annually without intermission, an increasing portion of the vast burden of debt which was the joint legacy from the war and the extravagance of the previous administration. Every year, including and since 1924, we have had a surplus instead of deficits in the public accounts. In seven successive years, without exception, this has been the case.

"May I say here that in all the years from Confederation down to the time that we came into office there were only eight years in which there was a surplus, four of which were under the administration of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. In other words, there have been surpluses in the public accounts in 1 out of 63 years. Only four of these were in the entire period of Conservative administration, and seven have been during the eight and a half years that the present administration has held office. The sum total of surpluses in the public accounts is $315,000,000, of which $273,000,000 represents the surpluses achieved since we came into office. This is a record of accomplishment which is unequalled by any country or any government which particcipated in the late war from its commmencement."

Tax Reduction.

Reference to the tax reductions followed Mr King spoke of the various reductions in the income tax since 1926 up to those contained in the last budget. He referred to the persistent decreases in the sales tax which had brought it down from six to one per cent. And he added: — "With this gradual elimination of the sales tax, I need not ask you, ladies and gentlemen, what will happen to that one per cent. if the present administration is returned to office." He stated that the so-called "nuisance taxes" had now all been eliminated with the exception of the two cents on cheques above ten dollars, and he mentioned the reduction in the rates of letter postage in Canada from three to two cents, and the re-establishment of penny postage throughout the Empire.

"Leaving out of account the degree to which the postal revenues may have been affected by these reductions, it is estimated there has been saved to the Canadian taxpayer taxation which would otherwise have been collected, the following sums:

For the year 1926	$25,000,000
1927	27,000,000
1928	19,000,000
1929	25,000,000
1930	22,000,000

"Thus in five years," continued the Prime Minister, "there has been an estimated remission of taxation which would otherwise have been collected solely from the sources indicated, of an amount exceeding $118,000,000. The remissions indicated have been cumulative. Assuming conditions similar to those of the last five years, from now on the amount of taxation imposed each year will be $118,000,000 less per annum than it was prior to 1926. May I add that all this takes no account of the further remissions of taxation affected by the reductions of duties under the several revisions of the tariff which have taken place since we came into office, and which as the country well knows have been substantial."

Transportation Record.

The record of the government in respect to transportation was touched on by Mr. King.

"When we came into office," he said, "with the exception of the Canadian Pacific Railway, we found the railways of Canada in a completely disorganized and bankrupt condition. The Grand Trunk Pacific was in the hands of a receiver. The Grand Trunk Railway System had been acquired under arbitration, but it, too, was bankrupt, and the government which took over the road, had studiously refrained from giving so much as an indication as to whether or not it was to be operated as a government owned system, or whether the intention, in its acquisition, was to have the road subsequently re-transferred to private ownership.

"I notice that Mr. Bennett is saying that the records of parliament show that the Liberal party, when in opposition, opposed the acquizition of the Grand Trunk Railway as a government owned system. The Liberal party did nothing of the kind. What we did object to was the refusal of the government of the day to submit to parliament for approval the terms and conditions of the contract under which the system was to be acquired. We contended that, as the people were being made responsible for the purchase of the system by terms arranged by agreement, the people's representatives in parliament were entitled to know what those terms were and to approve of them before final acquisition of the system was made. This, however, the government of the day, refused to allow, though at a subsequent session of parliament, having failed to include some essential features of the transaction in the agreement they were obliged to submit the whole measure to parliament and in order to permit of the additional terms being inserted to secure its approval, which they were of course able to do in virtue of their majority."

"It was the present administration which made the necessary provision for the president ond the board of directors of the system, and it was the present administration that sought and secured the services of Sir Henry Thornton as president and chairman of the board," declared Mr. King. "It was the present administration that laid down the policy that there should be no political interference with the management or operation of the Canadian National Railways. Sir Henry Thornton has publicly testified, on more occasions than one, that the Government has lived up to this policy, alike in letter and in spirit. It was the present administration which laid down as a further policy of railway management and operation in this country, that Government ownership was to be given a fair trial, and that, as between the Government owned national railways and the privately owned Canadian Pacific Railway, there should be neither fear nor favor in the respective treatment to be accorded these roads. I venture to say that the president of the Canadian Pacific Railway and his board of directors will be the first to say that, in the fulfillment of this policy, the Government has sought to be scrupulously fair."

Characteristic of Human Nature.

"Perhaps I should not be too severe on our opponents for seeking to-day to claim paternity of the Canadian National Railways. Their action in this regard is more or less characteristic of human nature. When the Tory party, as we came into office, left this neglected and famished foundling on our doorstep, suffering from many forms of malnutrition, there was not one member of the whole party who was prepared to allow his name to have any association with it, but now that the infant has been revived and had grown into vigorous and powerful proportions, resembling those of Sir Henry Thornton himself, not a few of them wish to give it their name. They say that on no account will they part with it, and Mr. Bennett heroically says that he will sacrifice an office which he does not hold rather that see it pass out of the hands of the State."

"But organization of the Canadian National Railways has not been our only achievement in the realm of transportation. We have brought the Hudson's Bay railway to completion, though the rails on a part of this road had been taken up by our opponents while in office, and the partially constructed road-bed allowed to fall into disrepair and decay. We have acquired, and, by making them a part of the Canadian National system, have revitalized not a few of the smaller privately owned railways in different parts of the Dominion; and we have, on more than one occasion, made provision through Parliament for extensive branch line construction in other parts of the country."

"We have completed the Welland Canal, and we have effected other developments with respect to the St. Lawrence waterways, on which I shall have opportunity to say something on another occasion. I wish that time permitted me to say something of the developments in aviation, which the Government has steadily sought to initiate and advance."

Immigration

"May I now say a word with respect to immigration," the Premier went on. "You have heard a great deal about our boys and girls leaving for the United States. You have heard a great deal about foreign immigration being encouraged to the relative disadvantage of immigration from the British Isles. During part of the time you have been told that we were not bringing in a sufficient number of immigrants; at another time the complaint was that the number was excessive. The policy of the Conservative party, as outlined by General McRae was that of a huge colonization and land settlement scheme involving an expenditure of some $300,000,000, and the bringing in of 300,000 fresh immigrants. Perhaps Mr. Bennett will tell the West how this policy which he supported would have helped to lessen the present unemployment of which he has had much to say during the present campaign.

"It is quite true that, during the years immediately following our coming into office the trend of migration continued to be from Canada to the States. The reasons for that were very obvious. The United States had prospered while we had suffered through the war. During the period of re-establishment of our citizen-soldiery in Canada, preferences in the matter of employment were being given where possible to those who had served overseas. There were not the opportunities for employment here that there were in the country to the south for many of our boys and girls; not a few of them and of our grown-ups as well left on that account. Moreover, the springs of immigration had, during the war, and the period immediately following the war, been permitted to dry up at the source. It takes time for a movement of immigration to get under way, whatever its direction may be. People had not the wherewithal to migrate in numbers from the British Isles or from other countries after the war, that they had before, and Canada had not the free homesteads to offer, nor was she able to advertise these or to give the low ocean and railway rates which were so important an inducement to British immigration in former years.

Migration Has Lessened

"It was not very long, however, before the fruits of our effort became apparent. Little by little the migration of Canadians to the United States began to lessen. In increasing numbers Canadians began to return from the United States to Canada, until to-day while conditions of employment in Canada may not be all that we might wish, they are, happily, many times better than is the case in the United States or for that matter in Great Britain or any other country, and the migration to Canada from the United States of returning Canadians and others equals to-day the migration from Canada to the United States. These are the facts and, far from affording grounds of criticism, they are in the nature of a real achievement.
